CROWE CONTINUES TO FLY TESTIMONY DEFENSE ALIENISTS

State Attorney Urges That "Wise Men From East" Give a Name to Mental Sickness of the Franks Slayers

Chicago, Aug. 27.—Money was the controlling motive in the kidnaping and slaying of Bobby Franks State Attorney Robert E. Crowe declared in continuing his plea today for a death penalty for Nathan Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb. Mr. Crowe read at length from a private report of two defense alienists, which he said were never intended to fall into the hands of the state attorney, excerpts from which revealed the real motive for the crime as "Money, money, money" shouted the prosecutor. "It has been money all through the case," he declared, "and I will show that they needed the money to pay gambling debts."

Chicago, Aug. 27.—State Attorney Robert E. Crowe, vitriolic in his speech and at times apoplectic in his gestures, today resumed his onslaught upon the mercy plea in behalf of Nathan Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb.

With the center of his attention upon the competency of the defense alienists testimony describing the mentality of the youthful slayers of Robert Franks, Mr. Crowe insisted upon a name for the strange mental sickness invented or this case.

From the outset the explosive argument of the prosecution drew objection from the defense with an ensuing wrangle over technicalities which called from Justice John R. Caverly, to whom falls the duty of giving the sentence, a declaration that the court would not consider any argument outside of the record.

Crowe, once visibly irritated by the objections of the defense, turned vigorously upon the bench to assert, "they have been quoting poetry and philosophy here for four days. I don't see why we cannot have a little citation from the law. We have heard of everything in the book and of a great deal that never got into the book from these three wise men from the east brought in by the defense, but nobody ventured to give this mental disease a name. They tell us that Loeb read detective stories and that that's a bad sign. Well, I remember when I used to crawl under the bed to read Nick Carter. That is not a bad sign but is just normal in boys."

Friedrichshafen, Germany, Aug. 27.—The giant dirigible ZR-3, built here for the United States, which is soon to start on her trans-Atlantic flight to Lakehurst, N. J., made her first trial flight successfully this afternoon. The dirigible sailed for two hours and 20 minutes above the vicinity of Lake Constance returning to her hangar at 5:50 this afternoon.

Friedrichshafen, Germany, Aug. 27.—The giant dirigible ZR-3 built here for the United States left at 3:30 this afternoon for a shop flight of several hours. The start was perfect the dirigible taking a westward course over the lake then turning southward toward Switzerland. Four naval officers and one army officer were aboard.

FLOGGING ADVOCATED CURE LAWLESSNESS IN SHANGHAI

Shanghai.—As an outgrowth of an epidemic of lawlessness that in recent weeks took the form of almost daily armed robberies in dwellings and on the streets, the police of Shanghai's International Settlement, again are vigorously advocating flogging as a punishment for offenders. As a rule armed robbers, convicted in Shanghai's Mixed Court, are sentenced to death and are shot after being turned over to the Chinese authorities. The foreign police contend that Chinese criminals fear this punishment less than they do corporal punishment, which they assert will deter many criminally inclined from being caught with weapons in their possession.

The Chamber had ratified it on Monday and thus the Senate action today gives official French adherence to the treaty which was signed July 24, 1923 re-establishing peace in the near east.

France is the fourth power to ratify the treaty which became effective August 6 with the ratification by Great Britain, Italy and Japan having previously voted adherence.

GERMAN MINISTER USES PLANE MAKING CAMPAIGN SPEECHES

Berlin.—Foreign Minister Stresemann holds the record among European statesmen for the number of airplane flights made during the last few months in connection with the performance of his duties. He has been making frequent speeches in the provinces this summer, chiefly explaining Germany's stand on the question of reparations, and he always travels by air.

Travel by train is slow, and furthermore Mr. Stresemann says he has found that flying has a very stimulating effect. He sometimes delivers two or three addresses a day in different towns, making the jump from one locality to another in an airplane assigned him by the government aviation authorities. He is accompanied by one of the best aviators in the German service.

PASSENGERS HURT WHEN LINER ARABIC HIT BY HURRICANE

Radiogram From Vessel Requests That Eight Ambulances Be at Pier When It Docks

New York, Aug. 27.—Several passengers of the White Star liner, Arabic, bound from Hamburg to New York, were injured last night when the ship ran into a hurricane according to word given out at the company's offices here today.

The message requested that eight ambulances meet the ship when she docks at her pier at North River at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The radiogram added that the vessel was damaged by the gale. The hurricane struck the ship about 9 o'clock last night.

The Arabic is due in quarantine at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Most of her passengers are immigrants but many Americans are also aboard.

Shipping records show the Arabic to be a vessel of 9,834 gross tons. She was formerly the S. S. Berlin, of the North German line and was captured during the early part of the war by the British on the charge that it had been taken over by the German government and employed as a North Sea mine layer.

The vessel left Hamburg for New York on August 16.

Government May Build Ore-Production Plant At Early Date

Anchorage, Alaska.—After an unofficial survey of the mineral resources along the government's Alaska Railroad, members of the United States Bureau of Mines have recommended to Washington that an ore-sampling plant and reduction works for treating free-milling ores by plate amalgamation and concentration of base ores be established by the government at Anchorage.

According to engineers of the bureau, an official survey soon will be made.

It is reported that there are free-milling gold prospects in the railroad belt sufficient to supply thousands of tons of ore weekly, and lessors are ready to enter the field as soon as they are able to dispose of their product.

BLACK HILLS HOPE SOON TO PRODUCE HELIUM GAS

Deadwood, S. D.—Foothills of the Black Hills of South Dakota are offering the latest hope that a supply of helium gas is available near here for use of the war and navy departments in furthering experiments with lighter-than-air craft. This discovery was made by Dr. Dorsey Lyons, assistant director of the federal bureau of mines, while investigating the possibility of treating "blue ores" cheaply enough so that their valuable metals may be extracted at a profit.

Hasty analyses of gas taken from wells driven near St. Onge and Belle Fourche, S. D., showed it odorless, impossible to ignite and of a lower specific gravity than ordinary illuminating gas, Dr. Lyons said. Laboratory tests are to be made to determine definitely whether the gas is helium, and whether it exists in sufficient quantity to make development feasible.

JONES ROBBERY CASE CONSUMES MORNING

Robbery Case Goes to Jury Shortly After Noon; No Verdict at 3 O'clock

The case of the state against Fred Worthington, H. H. Craft, Brownie Brown and Herbert Ross on the charge of reckless driving and assault, growing out of a recent automobile accident followed by an affray between the parties, consumed the major part of yesterday's session of superior court here.

After hearing the evidence the court adjudged Ross not guilty of the charge and the jury returned a verdict finding Worthington not guilty of reckless driving and Craft not guilty of assault. Brown was found guilty of assault with a deadly weapon and was ordered by the court to pay $250 to Worthington and Craft and to pay the costs of the action.

John Arthur Brown, faced the court on a charge of larceny but at conclusion of evidence was adjudged not guilty by the court.

Jesse Morris, charged with cruelty to animals was also adjudged not guilty.

Among indictments returned by the grand jury yesterday were:

R. M. Williams, rape, not a true bill.

L. E. Allen, Robert Rawls, James Merritt, robbery, a true bill.

W. R. Cardwell, assault, a true bill.

T. C. Gray, rape, a true bill.

C. L. Perkins, false pretense, a true bill.

Willie Moore, robbery, a true bill.

Tom Battle, rape, a true bill.

Lee Forrest Denton, of Tarboro, who recently passed his examination before the state board, appeared before the court here yesterday and took the required oath to practice law in the state of North Carolina.

This morning's session of court was consumed in hearing the case against B. F. Jones, of Washington, charged with robbery and receiving and possessing stolen goods, knowing them to be stolen. The case is the outgrowth of car breaking on the railroad between Parmele and Washington with which Jones is alleged to have been connected.

Evidence in the case was completed during the morning session and following the judges charge the case was placed in the hands of the jury at 12:15 o'clock. At 3 o'clock this afternoon there had been no report from the jury.

Solicitor Jesse Davis announced this morning that upon conclusion of the Jones case, he would begin the hearing of the jail cases.

MOSCOW'S SOVIET COURTS RULED BY PEASANTS AND THE LABORERS

Moscow.—"Comrade" Smyrnoff, chairman of the Moscow district court, gives some interesting figures in his annual report concerning the personnel of the Moscow Soviet courts. Of the 287 judges, 100 are laborers and 37 are peasants. Nearly 175 are members of the Communist party, while 50 are members of the so-called intelligentsia.

Out of 7,845 men available for jury duty in Moscow, Smyrnoff's report says, 3,021 are drawn from the membership of the Communist party, 6,197 are workers and peasants, and 1,658 are clerical or other employes.

F., Aug. 27.—The American around the world fliers may be prevented from hopping off from Ivigtut, Greenland, for Indian Harbor, Labrador tomorrow morning if the severe storm sweeping New Foundland today continues to extend north, according to marine experts who declared today that the storm area seemed to be moving toward Labrador. The storm is apparently the one that swept the Atlantic coast early yesterday.

Marine experts say the fliers will probably find it impossible to set out for Labrador until the weather changes.

Inspector Jailed As Master Mind of Mail Robbery

Chicago, Aug. 27.—Postal inspectors are today investigating the record of William F. Fahy, fellow inspector, arrested yesterday charged with conspiracy as being leader of the plot which culminated June 12 in the $2,000,000 mail robbery at Roundabout, Ill. Fahy says that the whole thing is a frame up.

He has been inspector in Chicago for five years and was previously in Philadelphia for a year. His salary was $3,500 a year.

Inspectors who have had Fahy under surveillance for several days prepared today to examine his bank account and his acquaintances with women as well as men.

Fahy's preliminary hearing is set for September 5 under United States Commissioner Bitler who sent him to jail yesterday in Geneva in default of $50,000.

Inspectors are still seeking the loot.

TUBERCULOSIS SHOWS DECLINE EXCEPT IN GERMANY AND JAPAN

New York.—Reports from 22 countries representing one-third of the population of the world, compiled by G. J. Drellet, statistician indicate that in the last 43 years more than 18,000,000 people have died from pulmonary tuberculosis, according to a statement issued today by the association.

In practically all of the countries studied the death rate from tuberculosis is declining, with the exception of Japan where there is a marked increase. The central European countries showed an increase during the war, but so far as figures are available since the war there has been a decline. At the present time, however, the death rate in Germany seems again to be mounting.

In the United States the death rate from tuberculosis has steadily fallen from nearly 300 in 1880 to 97 for each 100,000 of population in 1922.

C., was today filed with the State Corporation Commission. The application is being opposed by the Chesapeake and Ohio, Norfolk and western, Southern, Richmond, Fredericksburg and Patomac and Atlantic Coast Line railroads and several bus line corporations.

Only One Vessel Perished in Storm

The explosion literally blew his head off. John Rogers, Hazelhurst lawyer, who was standing near young Bryant at the time was rendered unconscious by the concussion but later recovered.

COLE BLEASE LEADS SENATORIAL RACE IN SOUTH CAROLINA

Incomplete Returns Indicate Renomination of Governor Thomas E. McLeod; Dial Runs Third in Race for Senate

Columbia, S. C., Aug. 27.—Returns from 1,100 boxes out of 1,354 in the state tabulated unofficially this afternoon give the standing of the candidates for United States Senate in yesterday's Democratic primary as follows: Former Governor Cole Blease 71,342; Congressman James Byrnes 57,578; Senator N. B. Dial 38,250; Insurance Commissioner Columbia, S. C., Aug. 27.—With a total vote of approximately 170,000 reported from yesterday's Democratic primary in South Carolina it seemed certain today that Governor Thomas E. McLeod had been renominated and that United States Senator N. B. Dial had been defeated for renomination. A second race for the seat in the Senate between former Governor Cole Blease and Representative is practically assured.

McLeod is credited with 96,703 votes against 60,438 for John T. Duncan, his only opponent.

With returns reported from 1,133 of the 1,354 voting precincts in the state Blease was leading for the Senate over other aspirants with 68,896 votes. Byrnes followed with 54,800 and Dial is third with 36,183. Insurance Commissioner J. J. McMahon finished in fourth place with 4,108 according to the incomplete returns including part of every county in the state.

Returns from the congressional races have been received in somewhat lesser volume than the Senate and state contests but there is apparently little doubt that Representatives W. F. Stevenson, F. H. Dominick and H. P. Fulmer have been renominated. Representatives J. J. McSwain and A. H. Gasque had no opposition.

Senator Hoke Smith Marries Secretary

Knowledge of the manner of her death has been kept from Mrs. Mors' parents Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Weinstein. They have not seen any newspapers containing accounts of the tragedy and have been told that their daughter's death was from natural causes.

Soviet Seeks Title to Palestine Churches

Jerusalem.—As mandatory power for Palestine, Great Britain probably will be called upon soon to decide whether the title to the vast properties of the Russian Church in this country shall go to the Soviet government, or to Russian Church interests outside of Russia.

The controversy involves hundreds of thousands of dollars of property in Jerusalem and vicinity, as well as in Bethlehem, Nazareth and Haifa, consisting of churches, monasteries, hospices, parks and other valuable plots of land. One of the churches is in the Garden of Gethsemane and another on the Mount of Olives.

The Metropolitan Antonin, head of the Holy Russian Synod in Palestine, has arrived here in connection with the case. He is an announced czarist and believes his faction will secure title to these holdings.

In connection with the Soviet's claim, the interesting question arises whether the Soviet can divorce the church from the state and yet claim property belonging to the church.

Red Cross Activities In County

At a special meeting of the Executive Committee of the Pitt County Chapter of the Red Cross, Miss McNeill, the Field Representative of the Red Cross for Eastern Carolina gave a report of the Disaster Work in Martin County.

Pitt county contributed so largely to this work that a full report is given in order that the people may see how much was contributed by this county and in order, also, that they may know how these funds were dispensed.

Total	$1778.65

In addition to the money contributed by Pitt county, three truck loads of clothes were sent. It was not necessary to purchase any clothes for anyone, with the exception of one pair of shoes for a man who could not be fitted in the supply room.

Immediately after the disaster Miss McNeill the Field Representative, who was visiting the Chapter in Greenville, went over to Robertsonville and at the request of the people took charge in the name of the Red Cross. The local secretary, Miss Moxley, assisted her in Robertsonville and then was sent over to Williamson to take charge over there.

The work has just been completed and everyone who was in any way affected by the tornado, has been helped to get back to a normal mode of living.

The first thing which was done was done in an emergency way. The wounded were given medical attention and those seriously hurt were taken to the hospital in Greenville. Food was cooked and distributed to the people. A complete survey was made, by volunteers, of all of the losses of clothes, furniture, live stock, farm implements, etc. First clothes were distributed, then as soon as the people were in houses or tents, which were purchased by National Headquarters of the Red Cross, furniture was bought for them. After that came the burying of live stock, repair of farming implements or the purchase of new ones, the buying of hay to feed the stock and after everyone had been taken care of what money was left was divided as the committee saw best among the people who needed help in rebuilding their homes.

It was not necessary to call on the National Red Cross for much help in this local disaster. All of the neighboring towns and individual contributions took care of the needs of the people.

When Miss McNeill had finished the work over there she was presented with a very lovely string of pearls and Miss Moxley, the executive secretary of Pitt county was presented with a beautiful wrist watch in appreciation of their gratitude to Pitt county for the splendid way they contributed to the fund to help the sufferers and for the services rendered by the local secretary, which was made possible by permission of the executive committee of the Pitt county chapter of the Red Cross.

Miss Moxley, executive secretary of the Red Cross, wishes to secure positions for two ex-service men. One man has received Vocational Training in Typewriting and stenography and is looking for a clerical position of any kind. His home is in Fountain but he will come to any town in Pitt county in order to get work.

A young white man, whose family is in very poor financial condition, wishes work. He is untrained but is willing to do any kind of work. Anyone who has a position open which either of these men might fill will please get in touch with the local Red Cross, Phone 175, Greenville.

Red Cross office is open every morning. Any man wishing help in filling out his compensation blank or any other assistance relative to his service, may see Miss Moxley at that time. In order to fill out the compensation blanks, it is necessary to have a discharge and if possible have two witnesses who knew the Veteran before his enlistment or induction into the service.

Mr. N. O. Warren has been appointed as the Roll Call Chairman for 1924. Mr. K. T. Futrell has been appointed the publicity chairman. It is hoped that the roll call this year will be the best since the war.

Miss Eugenia Crouch of Tenn., arrived last week to take charge of the Red Cross public health nursing in Farmville and the immediate vic-one-half of the expenses necessary to carrying on the work."

CHINESE READY TO PAY WELL TO ENTER PHILIPPINE ISLANDS

Manila—The smuggling of Chinese from British North Borneo into the Philippine Island has increased largely in recent months and has become a profitable traffic, according to officials of the customs service.

Within the last week nearly 50 Chinese have been arrested in Zamboanga on charges of being in the country unlawfully and will be deported either to Borneo or Hongkong. They are brought from the coast of Borneo in native boats and landed on the various islands of the Sulu group only a few miles from the British possession. After reaching Philippine territory they easily work their way into the more populous sections, and many of them are never caught.

The customs authorities have ordered all available patrol boats to southern waters for the purpose of beginning a vigorous campaign against this traffic in Chinese as well as against the opium traffic.

Rockefeller Foundation Helps Control Malaria

Manila—The Rockefeller Foundation has agreed to continue to supply one-half of the expenditures incurred in the campaign for the control of malaria in the Philippine Islands, undertaken jointly about two years ago by it and the Philippine health department, according to an announcement by Eugene A. Gilmore vice-governor, under whose jurisdiction the health department operates.

Vice-Governor Gilmore said: "For more than two years the Rockefeller Foundation has supported very liberally experiments in malarial control in the Philippines. This experimental work has been conducted in the province of Laguna under the direction of J. H. Tiedeman, an expert from the foundation on the subject of malaria.

"Certain methods of malaria control have been devised which have proved very successful. The foundation has offered to continue the services of Mr. Tiedeman for the remainder of this year and to supply

Germany Would Attract Money Spending Americans

Berlin.—American tourists are coming to Germany again in sufficient numbers to arouse the hope that possibly by fall this business will again assume proportions something like normal.

But where the tourists spent weeks or months in Germany a year ago during the inflation period of the paper mark, they now remain a comparatively short time because of the high prices. Since the introduction of the Renten mark last November the cost of living has risen two or three fold what it was when the printing presses had much difficulty in keeping up with the demand for paper currency.

Government officials and representatives of the hotel keepers' association have been working for months upon a plan designed to reduce the cost of travel and living in Germany for tourists, but as yet no definite conclusions have been reached.

Tourist agencies which were operating sight-seeing cars from Strasbourg to Cologne by way of Mayence and through Coblenz, Bonn and other historic points along the Rhine, have abandoned the service because of the high prices for meals and rooms in German hotels, and the refusal of travelers to meet the increased rates.

Porcupines Annoy Railroad.

Seward, Alaska.—The government's Alaska Railroad has to fight porcupines. Rubber in any form is to the porcupine what wastepaper and rubbish are to the American goat, popular for lurching purposes, and the railroad officials have ordered rubber hose in pumping stations and all rubber fixtures to be hung on high poles.

Living in Italy More Joyful Than It Ever Was Before Now

Rome.—Italy eats more, drinks more, and smokes three or four times as much as before the war. In the old days each Italian disposed of an average of 30 pounds of fresh meat a year and eight of preserved meat; now the consumption is 46 and 40 respectively. The use of sugar has risen from 11 to 17 pounds a year per capita, while the consumption of coffee has nearly doubled. Where the average Italian drank 40 litres of wine a year, he now consumes 500.

There has been a heavy increase in the consumption of tobacco, as the average Italian used to spend nine lire every year on his smokes

Perhaps the greatest increase of all is in means of transport. Before the war the bicycles in Italy numbered 1,200,000; motorcycles numbered 17,000; now there are 38,000; automobiles were 19,000 and now they number 54,000; public automobiles which were 1,500 are now 7,000; there were only 100 motor launches and now there are 1,000.

There is no doubt that whatever Italy has suffered through the war, the standard of living of her people has gone up refreshingly.

SOVIET COMMUNISTS DIRECTING CAMPAIGN IN BALKAN STATES

Belgrade, Aug. 27.—Whatever may be the policy of Soviet Russia in her contacts with western Europe, an aggressive Bolshevik policy is plainly perceptible in southeastern Europe, including conspicuously the kingdom of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes, Bulgaria and Rumania.

Recent arrests made by both Bulgarian and Serbian authorities have revealed the workings of the Moscow "Komintern" in this part of the world. In many instances both here and across the Bulgarian frontier, search has disclosed weapons and Russian money has been found in Belgrade, Bucharest and Sofia.

Documents bearing the seal of the Moscow organization instructing or advising local organizations how to direct and intensify their Communist efforts in a Russian Bolshevik direction are among the evidence seized.

In southern Serbia Bolshevik agents the local authorities report, are attempting the discontent of the population by assuring them that only by the help of Soviet Russia will the rights of which they consider themselves deprived be restored.

Discussing this phase of the situation, the newspaper Vreme says: "Long ago the government obtained information that the Communists have undertaken a new campaign in the whole country. The searches ordered have disclosed menacing conditions. It is evident that, after their activities had been forbidden by special legislation, the Communists are continuing their plottings against the state under various names."

"There are many evidences of preparation for terroristic action, and the pamphlet 'Macedonia for the Macedonians,' by Novakooitch, is a revelation of this revolutionary movement."

"Communist action in the Balkans is carried out under precise instructions from a Communist organization in Moscow, whose orders all the Communist organizations in the Balkans obey."

"The government has decided to dissolve all labor organizations that lend themselves to Bolshevik propaganda."

In Rumania Bolshevik action is aimed at hampering the government and supporting any opposition to the maintenance of order as at present constituted. In Rumania the Bolshevik agents and their local instruments aim directly at gaining an advantage for Soviet Russia in the event of a campaign to recover Bessarabia for Russia.

In Bulgaria recent arrests have shown a marked renewal of Bolshevik campaigning. In addition to the Bulgarian Communists, whose organization has been prohibited by the law for the defense of the state, the Bolshevik agents in Bulgaria, it has been shown, are cooperating both with the Agrarians, the party of the late Alexander Stamboulsky, and with the "Narrow Socialists."

Kentucky Seeks Race Patronage
Cincinnati.—The "Saratoga of the West," is the aim of officials of Raceland, Kentucky's newest and most up-to-date race track situated on a knoll rising gradually from the banks of the Ohio river, which cuts its course along one side of the track.

The track's natural beauty is being developed as the racing goes on. The racegoer is able to see his favorite take every strike around the mile track without any unusual craning of the neck or straining of the eyes. The track, a mile circle with a mile chute leading off the seven-eighths pole, is 100 feet wide. Twenty-five horses easily can be lined up at the post.

Economy in Birthday Cakes.

Norfolk, Va.—What is believed to be a unique record in the matter of birthday celebrations is claimed by the family of Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Goodman of Berkley, just across the Elizabeth River from Norfolk. A few days ago Irving, aged eight; Fannie, aged six, and Sidney, aged four, held a birthday party, an annual event for the past three years. The children were born two years apart, on the same day of the month and practically at the same hour. There are two older children in the family.

He conducted her campaign and will virtually be Governor. She made her campaign a bitter fight against the Ku Klux Klan.

NOW THE WOMAN GOVERNOR

The circumstances that brought about the nomination of a woman on the Democratic ticket for the governorship of Texas—a nomination that is held equivalent to election in that state—are interesting, but the main point of interest, of course, is that the woman chief executive of a commonwealth of the United States has practically arrived.

This woman is Mrs. Miriam Ferguson, the wife of James E. Ferguson, former governor of Texas, and the outstanding feature is that she entered the contest to vindicate her husband. James E. Ferguson was twice elected to the governorship of Texas. In his second term he was removed by impeachment on a charge of mishandling certain state funds. He held that he was unjustly accused and sought in every way possible to him to secure vindication. But the judgment of the state senate that removed him was that he should never again hold public office in the commonwealth. A large part of the public believed in him and was prompt in placing itself behind Mrs. Ferguson when she announced her candidacy. It is declared that a number of senators who voted for the ousting of Governor Ferguson supported the candidacy of his wife.

Of course there also was a Ku Klu Klan issue. Mrs. Ferguson was against the Klan and her opponent was declared to have had its support. More than 600 anti-Klan speakers were reported on the stump for the woman candidate.

But, as emphasized, the main thing now is the account Mrs. Ferguson will give of herself if she becomes governor. Her friends naturally declare her to be well acquainted for the office. They point to the opportunities she had of becoming familiar with its duties while her husband was the chief executive of the state and while she was aiding in his defense against impeachment. Then, to be sure, her husband, the former governor, will be able to give her the benefit of his experience.

That women, given equality with men in the voting, should aspire to the highest public offices is not surprising. History shows some successful women rulers. It all depends on the woman elected same as on the man chosen for public office. Should Mrs. Ferguson become the chief executive of Texas she will find the American people generally wishing her well. It will then rest with her to show whether she is one of the women adaptable to such an important post of public service.

AMERICAN SPENDERS ABROAD

In view of the prodigality with which American tourists in Europe this summer have been spending money, as reported in a London dispatch, it is no wonder that the legend persists in the Old World that it is an easy matter to accumulate a fortune in the United States, and that hundreds of thousands of Europeans desire to emigrate. Londoners have been amazed at the expenditures of Americans.

During the international advertising convention there were 10,000 Americans in and around London, and it is estimated they spent $5,000,000 in ten days. But prices in England are nearly as high as in the United States. On the continent, where the money shows much greater depreciation, prices are correspondingly low, and the American tourists have greater temptation to spend lavishly. Hence Frenchmen and Germans must have been impressed even more than the Britishers with the seemingly unlimited wealth of the Yankee visitors.

The annual influx of American tourists is becoming an increasingly important matter to European hotel and shopkeepers. The money brought by the visitors from the United States helps to counterbalance the excess of American exports over imports.

A curious feature of the situation is that Europeans have become familiar with American money and are so well aware of its value that it is readily accepted nearly everywhere. How extraordinary this can be judged by imagining what a hotel keeper in the United States would do if a guest should offer him a sovereign or a 100-franc note payment of a bill.

If the tendency continues it is conceivable that the time may come when the dollar will become the international medium of exchange. Already, because of its stability, a French steamship company fixes its fares in dollars instead of francs.

TIRE building took a big step forward when the makers of United States Tires invented the Latex Process.

The added strength and wearing quality given by Latex-treated cords is something that the user of Royal Cords can tell you about from his own experience.

Royal Cords are the standard of value in cord tire equipment—even more certainly today than ever before.

And this holds good whether you are considering a High-Pressure Tire, a Balloon-Type Tire to fit your present wheels and rims, or a Balloon Tire for a 20 or 21 inch wheel.

MRS. MARGARET E. EDWARDS SPEAKS TO COLLEGE STUDENTS

Recently Mrs. Margaret E. Edwards, state supervisor of Home Economics, with headquarters in Raleigh, made a most helpful and interesting talk to the students of East Carolina Teachers College. Mrs. Edwards paid a tribute to Mrs. Anna Grimes, teacher of Home Economics in the college, and to the department. She announced as proof of the esteem in which Mrs. Grimes is held, that she would be associated with the State Department this fall as lecturer and itinerant teacher, giving special unit courses in different towns to women's clubs and other groups of women.

Mrs. Grimes during the past year has been in charge of the Home Economics in the college while Miss Reeves, who is on leave of absence for special study at Columbia University. Miss Reeves returns in the fall.

Mrs. Edwards in her talk to the students showed them how they could teach in the schools home-making, not only as a subject but in connection with other subjects. She asked them if they were teaching good habits, good dress habits, food habits sanitation etc. She also asked them if they were teaching charm and showed how there were various kinds of charm, such as health charm, spiritual charm, business charm, home charm, that is, the appreciation of those things that make an attractive home. Such things as pictures, not only the picture itself but the framing, and the hanging, books, music, etc., contribute to home charm.

She gave some interesting statistics about the work in North Carolina. There are 250 home economics teachers in the State, over 60 new departments during the past year, and there are 4200 people taking these courses. There are about 700 women in these unit courses in which there are from 12 to 20 lessons. She proved that home making has found its place in the state.

"PENROD AND SAM" HERE NEXT WEEK

All roads will lead to White's theatre Thursday because it will have as its feature attraction another "kid" story by Booth Tarkington. It is "Penrod and Sam," and it was directed for First National by William Beaudine. This picture has met with sensational success in all theatres where it has played to date, and it is said to have an appeal that is limited to no age or class.

"Penrod and Sam" abounds in irresistible humor, which is interspersed with pathos, which helps to make the film a really human portrayal of the life of a true American boy. Penrod and his "gang" cavort from one mirthful adventure to another. First off the hat they stage a mini war; then they initiate the neighborhood "gang" none too gently into their secret society; they follow this up with a "mammoth circus" and in general get on the nerves of their elders.

Benny Alexander's portrayal of the character of Penrod is without a doubt the best work that this young artist has ever done for the screen. He is a natural actor and can draw tears and evoke laughter with a facility that is uncanny. Joe Butterworth, who is Sam, is equally well cast. Other popular screen kiddies in the picture are Buddy Messinger, Newton Hall, Gertrude Messinger, Joe McCray and Gene Jackson.

"Penrod and Sam" takes one skipping back over the years to childhood days, bringing to life fond memories of the period when one was carefree and joyous.

LUNCHEON AT EAST CAROLINA TEACHERS COLLEGE

At luncheon at East Carolina Teachers College yesterday special honor was paid to Mrs. A. A. Harrell, who has had charge of the dining hall all summer, and to the dining room girls—to all who have been responsible for the good "eats" and service. Director and Mrs. Meadows and other members of the faculty not living in the college were special guests.

Instead of the usual blessing the "Doxology" was sung. At the close of the meal the cheer leader called Mrs. Harrell out in a rhyme "Where is She?" Then followed a toast by Miss Augusta Woodard and presentation of a gift.

An orchestra and chorus sang a song in honor of the "Dining Room Girls," after which came the drawing for the lucky number to see which one should draw the prize—a box of candy. Mr. Potter held the list while Miss White drew the numbers and Mr. Mills passed judgment. Finally, when the number 25 was drawn, Miss Ora Evans came forth with the number and was awarded the prize by Mr. Baer.

COTTON LETTER.

New Orleans, Aug. 27. — After rallying higher in early morning, owing better cables than due, numerous private advices as to deterioration which was confirmed by the weekly government weather and crop review, market declined as result of some rain be officially report in scattered districts of Texas and on account of the basis in Texas and the Atlantic being reported lower. Summarizing developments for week, Washington reported: Abnormally temperatures and generally dry weather prevailed over the cotton belt, mostly unfavorable and heavy rains are now needed in nearly all sections. The scattered showers in the southwest lowered the temperature but the official forecast is for fair weather for Arkansas and Oklahoma, probably fair for west Texas, part cloudy for east Texas. The rains in Texas, were scattered and generally light and insufficient and more moisture is needed there and in nearly all other sections of the cotton region to prevent further deterioration. Liverpool cable, no pressure to sell, trade calling Manchester reports improving. Contracts scarce. Trade interests buying. Compared with last year receipts at all ports since Friday were 7,000 bales against 88,000 and arrivals for the half week at 13 interior towns were 62,000 against 84,000 of which Houston is credited with 37,000 vs. 80,000, the stock at the towns amounting to only 121,000 bales vs. 218,000 one year ago. The weakness in the basis in the interior is attributed to August commitments having been about filled up at a very high basis, but there is no appreciable change in the basis for September delivery. A more urgent demand is anticipated for new crop cotton during September as the basis for September delivery is much lower than it was during August which will likely be the incentive for larger trade buying. H. & B. ### THE WEATHER

Not quiet so warm over Western belt, except in Southeastern half of Texas, where temperature continues around 100, on rainfall reported over the belt.

Forecast: Wednesday East and west Texas mostly part cloudy probably some showers. All balance entire belt generally fair.

SUMMARY OF WEEKLY WEATHER AND CROP GOVERNMENT REPORT

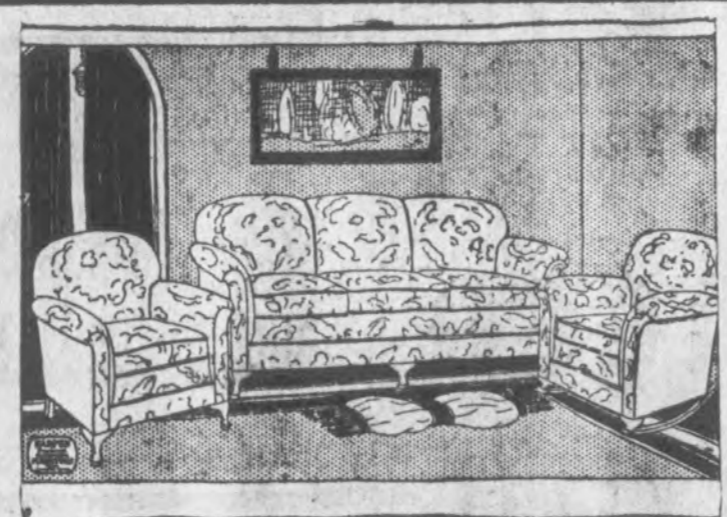

Washington, Aug. 7.—Abnormally high temperatures and generally dry weather prevailed over the cotton belt, mostly unfavorable and heavy rains now needed in nearly all sections. Cotton made excellent progress, in extremely western and north western Texas but deteriorated elsewhere, bolls small and opening prematurely. Deterioration or only poor advance occurred in Oklahoma through general condition continued fair to excellent in northern and western portions, considerable shedding. Some deterioration in central and southern Arkansas but growth was somewhat better in northern portion. Moisture again needed in Louisiana, with further complaints of shedding and premature opening. Cotton has withstood drought very well in Tennessee but is beginning to suffer though conditions remains fair to very good. Weekly progress was poor to only fair Mississippi and Alabama, with complaints of premature opening in Southern portions. In Georgia the drought has become severe with complaints on rapid increase of shedding and premature opening in drier sections, progress generally poor, and some deterioration occurred. Condition still fairly good in South Carolina though increased complaint of shedding, and progress was fairly good in most portions of North Carolina. Conditions continue favorable in New Mexico and Arizona but some disappointment reports from imperial valley California. Rain badly needed throughout the south for most other crops and pastures.
