CIVIL WAR HAS BROKEN OUT IN CHINA

Last Will Of Nathan Leopold Is Made Public Today

Fighting Breaks Out In Vicinity Shanghai Today

Refugees Pour Into City; Nations Assemble Fleets to Protect Foreigners; French Troops Will Land On Chinese Soil This Afternoon

Shanghai, Sept. 3.—Actual fighting between the forces of two rival provincial military governors was reported today in this district with Shanghai and the extreme east portion of Kiangsu province as the prize. Although reports received yesterday from points along the line of the Shanghai-Nanking railway indicated that the opposing armies of Lu Yung-Hsiang and Chi Shieh-yun had clashed official confirmation of the beginning of hostilities were not received until today from General Hoe Sing Lin, defending commander of Shanghai.

Lu Yung Hsiang, ruler of the contested section of the Kiangsu province is defending his territory against the aggressive forces of Chi Shieh-yun, ruler of the uncontested section of the province.

Before train service was declared suspended yesterday on the Shanghai Nanking railway more than 100,000 refugees poured into Shanghai, the objective city of the conflict according to the Chinese military viewpoint, and today under protection of foreign governments awaited the outcome of the civil warfare.

Washington, Sept. 3.—The hostilities between the forces of Military Governor Chi and Defense Commissioner Hoe at Hwangtu, near Shanghai, began at 10 o'clock this morning the State Department was advised today by Consul General Cunningham. Mr. Cunningham also reported that American naval forces were prepared to land forces along with the Japanese, French, Italian and British naval contingents to protect foreign settlements if necessary.

The French Consul General has served notice that French naval forces will be landed in the French concession at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

The dispatch said that Governor Chi was in charge of Kiangsu province but gave no details of the fighting.

Washington, Sept. 2.—Naval forces of the United States, Japan, Great Britain and France, kept for patrol work in Asiatic waters are being assembled at Shanghai, China.

Some already are there and others are proceeding, moving as neutral ships but prepared to act swiftly in the event they are called upon to protect their respective nationals, commercial and trade interests, now menaced by the danger of hostilities between military forces commanded by two provincial governors.

The diplomatic agent, of the four governments already have advised the Peking foreign office that "the idea of a naval battle in the greatest harbor of the East was unthinkable and could not be tolerated," pointing out that the Shanghai waters constitute one vast harbor in which the ships of every nation float and that the present status of affairs presents a situation that cannot be regarded with equanimity by them.

Admiral Thomas Washington, commander in chief of the Asiatic squadron, and Edward Bell, charge of the legation in Peking, reported today to the Washington government on the situation at Shanghai.

Admiral Washington said nine destroyers, the Boris, Smith Thompson, Tracy, Hulbert, J. D. Evans, Preble,

General Craig Commands U. S. Cavalry.

Pruitt and Whipple had been dispatched from the summer base at Chefoo to Shanghai and, in addition the gunboat Isabel, flagship of the river patrol, had been ordered there from Peking.

No mention, however, was contained in these dispatches as to what ships the other three powers now have at Shanghai, or have ordered there. It is known, however, that the Peking diplomats representing the four great powers, are acting in unison in the Shanghai matter and that all will be or are represented there now by vessels of their respective naval forces.

Mr. Bell, reporting on the conference he and the other diplomatic officers held in Peking with Dr. Koo, the foreign minister, declared that while it was their desire to remain strictly neutral and not to interfere with Chinese internal wars, the diplomats had made it clear to the Chinese minister that a battle between the forts at Woosung and the Nanking navy, such as was threatened, would endanger the ships of all nations crowded in Shanghai waters and would not be tolerated.

The diplomatic agents had notified Dr. Koo in previous conversations of the determination of their governments to use such means as were available to afford requisite protection to foreign residents and to their trade and properties in or near Shanghai.

Tokio, Sept. 3.—Official dispatches received by the foreign office say that civil war has actually begun in China.

The navy department announced today that the cruiser Tatsut had left the naval base for Shanghai with 150 marines. The cruiser is due at Shanghai at 5 p. m. Thursday and will report to Rear-Admiral Normura, commander of the Japanese squadron.

Washington Skin Specialist Dead

Fredericksburg, Va., Sept. 3.—Dr. Randolph Bryan Carmichael, 55 years old Washington skin specialist, died here today.

LOCAL TOBACCO MARKET AVERAGES $16.85 YESTERDAY

Offering Consisted Mainly of First And Last Curings; Farmers Well Pleased Considering Quality of the Tobacco

With total offerings ranging around a 1,000,000 pounds, the local market on yesterday sold 523,342 pounds at an average price on all receipts of $16.85 per hundred.

The quality generally offered on the warehouse floors represented mainly the first and last curings with comparatively little of the higher grades. Growers were pleased considering the quality of tobacco offered.

The number of pounds on the opening day exceeded those of several previous years, and it required all day yesterday and today to clear the floors. The prices were stronger today and it is expected that they will improve each day.

WALES ENJOYING STAY IN AMERICA

Prince Apparently Believes "Night is Best Part of the Day"

Syosset, N. Y., Sept. 3.—The Prince of Wales spent another night out last night.

He arose at noon today at the James Burden place, his holiday home, after less than seven hours of repose for he did not get in until a few minutes after five o'clock this morning. He spent the night at the homes of friends near the Burden estate beginning with a dinner party at the Henry Rogers Winthrop house and ending with a late supper at the home of Vincent Astor a few miles further on.

It was the second time in many days that the royal visitor had taken to his bed after the sun's arrival. It was only yesterday that he returned to the Burden home after snoring after a night spent in dining, dancing and chatter.

Unlike the first night, the prince's absence did not cause any apprehension among the members of the Burden household.

Gilbert Accepts Agent - General For The Reparations

Paris, Sept. 3.—Seymour Parker Gilbert, Jr., former under secretary of the treasury, has accepted the post of Agent General for Reparations under the Dawes plan. The post is temporarily being filled by Owen D. Young, of New York, who sided General Dawes and the other experts in drawing up the plan.

Nurserymen Meet Greensboro Today

Greensboro, Sept. 3.—More than 200 nurserymen from all parts of the south are gathered here today for the 26th Annual Convention of the Southern Nurserymen's Association.

The morning session was featured by the annual address of the president, W. F. Hillenmeyer, of Lexington, Ky.

This afternoon the visitors will enjoy a barbecue at a point west of Greensboro.

FAMOUS AUTO RACER KILLED IN ENGLAND

Brooklands, England, Sept. 3.—Dario Resta, famous automobile racing driver, was killed today while attempting to establish a new world's record.

He was killed instantly when his car plunged through the iron fence that borders the track here. His mechanic escaped with minor injuries.

WORLD FLIERS OFF FOR PICTOU TODAY

Route Lay From Cape Ray Across the Cabot Strait to Entrance of Pictou Harbor

Hawkes Bay, New Foundland, Sept. 3.—The American Army airplanes, in their world flight left here for Pictou, Nova Scotia, at 12:40 p. m. New Foundland Daylight Saving time.

It was raining and a southwest wind was blowing 30 miles an hour when the fliers hopped off. The clouds were less than a thousand feet from the surf and the machines kept at a low altitude flying just above the tips of the waves.

Pictou, Nova Scotia, Sept. 3.—The American world fliers hopped off from Hakes Bay, New Foundland for this port at 10:12 Eastern Standard Time this morning.

Pictou, Nova Scotia, Sept. 3.—Although weather was unfavorable early today has begun to clear before 10 o'clock and the destroyer Varray in direct communication from its dock here with the Charles Ausborn, at Hakes Bay, New Foundland, sent word to the latter that conditions at this end were favorable for continuance of the world flight.

The Barry was advised in reply that the world fliers were preparing to hop off.

The aviator's route lay from Cape Ray across the Cabot Strait to Saint Paul Island and thence across Northumberland Strait to the entrance of Pictou Harbor.

Hungary Removes Ban Against Foreign Autos

Budapest, Hungary, Sept. 3.—Representatives of American automobile interests in Hungary received encouraging news recently with announcement that the Hungarian government had removed the restrictions on the import of motor cars and many other articles which have virtually been prohibited for some years because of these regulations.

Despite the unsettled economic conditions which have prevailed throughout Hungary for many months American automobile agents believe there is a splendid field here for cars of foreign make.

At present there are approximately 3,500 passenger cars in the country and about 600 motor trucks. The import restrictions raised also include automobile tires, linen and woolen goods, and many kinds of fruit and fish which may now be brought into Hungary, subject to the duties imposed by the new tariff law, the whole of which is to become effective in the autumn.

Valuable Stamps Found.

London.—During the turning over of old documents in the Record Office here, a batch of New South Wales postage stamps of the 1855 issue was discovered. Collectors value them at $4,500. The stamps were attached to a report sent to the colonial secretary by the governor of New South Wales.

MEETING TO BE HELD MAKE PLANS FOR MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

Felix Harvey Calls the Meeting for Friday, Sept. 12, at Kinston, 5:30 O'clock

A meeting of more than passing importance has been called by Chairman Felix Harvey, Jr., of the section wide membership campaign of the Eastern Carolina Chamber of Commerce, for Friday September 12th at Kinston at 5:30 o'clock. Representative business men of Eastern Carolina have been invited to this conference. The purpose of the conference as stated by Chairman Harvey, is to outline to those present, the full plans of the big membership campaign to be held the week of October 6th. It is very necessary the local chairman know all about the campaign and this is the occasion for this conference.

After the meeting, those present will be the guest of the Kinston Kiwanis Club, at a special luncheon for the occasion. A good representation from all sections of Eastern Carolina is expected in Kinston on that date. No memberships will be solicited until the week of October 6th, when the campaign will be put on simultaneously in 46 counties. Chairman Harvey plans to have the whole thing finished in one week, and then there will be nothing left except planning for the 1925 program.

Those members at present whose memberships expire before July 1st, will be entitled to renewal on the basis of one half of the first year's dues being paid. This will make all memberships due each year October 1st. Those present members, whose dues expire after July first may renew with three fourths of the first year's dues being paid. This will make their dues fall due October 1st next year and from then on all dues will come due at the same time, October 1st. This, in the opinion of the committee will make it much easier to keep the records up in the office.

Storm Casualties Virgin Islands Less Than First Reports

Washington, Sept. 3.—A comprehensive account of the hurricane which swept the Virgin Islands last Thursday night, received today from Captain Phillip Williams, naval governor, minimized the previous reports of casualties and property damage.

"There were no casualties reported in St. Thomas beyond minor injuries and exposure while St. Johns, chief sufferer of the American islands group, escaped with four natives killed, one missing and a considerable number injured.

Argentine Boxer May Be Deported

Washington, Sept. 3.—Immigration Curran, at New York, notified the Labor Department today that the investigation of charges against Luis Angel Firpo, Argentine heavy weight boxer, preferred in the hope of securing his deportation would be concluded within the next two days.

The message was taken as another indication of the determination of federal officials to bring the case speedily to a conclusion. Whether the final report of the investigation will be awaited before action by the department here has not been revealed as officials have received preliminary information upon which they are being urged by Firpo's accusers to act immediately.

Letter Indicates Youth Expecting Death Sentence

Six Men Killed in Klan Raid

SHERIFF GEO. GALLIGAN When Sheriff George Galligan, of Herrin, Ill., went into a garage there to seize a car said to have been used by Ku Klux Klansmen in their raids, firing opened and six men were killed and a seventh mortally wounded. Four of the dead are said to have been Ku Klux Klansmen, one a deputy sheriff and the sixth a bystander. Troops were called out.

Co-Kidnapper and Murderer of Robert Franks Denotes Desire to Deliver Speech if He Must Hang; Says He Will Make World Listen

Chicago, Sept. 3.—The last will and testament of Nathan Leopold, Jr., joint confessor with Richard Loeb of the kidnapping and murder of Robert Franks, has been made public.

That Leopold contemplates the possibility of receiving a death sentence at the hands of Judge John R. Caverly who now has the case under consideration, is evidenced by the letter he has mailed to Clarence Darrow, of the defense counsel.

The letter bequeaths to the Field Museum the first choice of any five objects in Leopold's ornithological collection. The next choice is given a cousin of Leopold, who may choose one of any three articles after the museum has made its selection. Third the museum is given its choice of any of Leopold's birds, minerals or transcripts.

In the letter Leopold asks that Darrow notify the beneficiaries as soon as possible and before his execution.

The letter also thanks Darrow for his closing argument in the case. Leopold wrote that he had been contented to die before he had heard that argument but that after hearing it he wanted to live.

The last will was scribbled out under the jail arclight on paper supplied by the jailer.

Leopold also contemplates plans to pierce the veil shrouding death if he is hanged. Although he is an admitted atheist he says he will not cast out any suggestion of the possibility of an after life until he has opportunity to demonstrate its validity, so he has prepared ten questions which he plans to answer by communicating with friends on earth should he die on the gallows.

Leopold plans to make a speech if he is sent to the gallows and "I will say something to make the world listen," he added.

Leob, who has no such philosophies admits that he has no liking for life imprisonment. "When I think of the long life down there it seems that I would feel better to get it over with now."

EDWARD L. FORBES DIES GREENSBORO

Remains of Former Pitt County Citizen Will Reach Greenville Tomorrow Morning; The Funeral Arrangements Not Announced

Mr. Edward L. Forbes, 50, died in the Greensboro hospital this morning at 11 o'clock after an illness of only a few days. The remains will reach Greenville tomorrow morning on the 10 o'clock train. Funeral arrangements have not been announced.

Mr. Forbes was a native of this county being a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Noah Forbes. For the past few years he has made his home in Greensboro. He was married twice, the first time to Miss Martha Dudley, of this county, the second time to Miss Margaret Edwards. She and two children, Lyman Forbes, of Goldsboro, and Miss Lila May Forbes, of Greensboro, survive.

Mr. Forbes made his home in Greenville for several years and was held in high esteem by a host of friends.

Besides his widow and two children, Mr. Forbes is survived by six sisters, Mesdames Harvey Allen, J. T. Allen, Albert Allen, Allen Moye, J. L. Harris and Elias Crawford, one brother, Mr. C. H. Forbes, of this city.

Bandit Escapes With Several Thousand

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 3.—Several thousand dollars in currency was obtained today by a bandit who robbed Louis E. Lachapell, a messenger for the New York State Bank. Lachapell told police that the bandit tripped him up, snatched his bag and escaped before he could draw his revolver.

Legionnaires Enjoy Stay in Asheville

Asheville, Sept. 3.—Members of the American Legion and Women's Auxiliary of the Department of North Carolina of the American Legion who remained in Asheville today were well satisfied with the outcome of the annual state conventions which closed yesterday afternoon. The majority of the delegates of the two organizations which met here simultaneously, were on their way home today.

The Legion meeting as was that of the auxiliary was significant for its freedom from any bitterness and all business was conducted on a high plane.

Congratulations continued to be showered today upon Major Wade H. Phillips, of Lexington, the new state commander who defeated Captain Robert G. Cherry, of Gastonia for the place by a small vote.

Tom Bird, of Asheville, former state commander, was elected national committeeman from North Carolina by acclamation.

The legion and auxiliary will meet in Fayetteville next year.

EXCLUSIVE PHOTOGRAPH OF WALES AT POLO.

PRINCE OF WALES

Well-bundled up in a heavy sweater and wearing a turned down Panama hat, the Prince of Wales motored from the Burden estate, at Syosset, Long Island, where he is stopping, to Grace Field, at Westbury, where he played polo for more than an hour, sitting his horse in splendid fashion. Photographers were barred from the field, and this picture was made with a long-range aerial camera. Despite all reports to the contrary, the Prince proved himself an expert horseman and a good poloist.

Russo-Chinese Pact Held Lightly Berlin

Berlin, Sept. 2.—German newspapers, especially financial journals, are devoting much space to the Russo-Chinese treaty recently signed in Peking, but are inclined to regard the treaty rather lightly.

The Berlin Boersen Courier emphasizes the fact that Russia is supposed to have received back its rights to the Chinese Eastern railway which were forfeited during the revolution, but says the signing of an agreement between Russia and China is quite different from getting back the rights.

Chang So-Lin, the military governor of Manchuria, who has refused to approve the Russo-Chinese treaty negotiated by the Peking government under the direction of his rival Yu Pei-tu, is regarded by the German press as the representative of American objections to the execution of the agreement with Russia and his appearance as the chief objector to the execution of the agreement is commented upon as the greatest achievement of American diplomacy in the Far East.

MEMOIRS OF PRINCESS DEALING WITH KAISER'S PERSONALITY STOLEN

Vienna.—A strong box containing the memoirs of the Princess Pless is reported to have been stolen recently from the Kensington, England, estate of the princess. The memoirs dealt with the personality of the former German kaiser.

They were written by the princess during the war when the kaiser chose castle Puersteinstein, the Pless residence at Silesia, as grand headquarters for the armies and lived for several months as a self-invited guest in close social contact with the princess.

Another Alaska Railroad.

Juneau, Alaska.—Alaska soon will have another railroad, according to articles of incorporation filed here by the Terminal Railway and Power Company of Hyder, Alaska. The company is to build a standard gauge line from Hyder up to the Salmon River Valley to the Alaska-Canada boundary line, a distance of 122 miles, and a two-mile branch from the main artery leading to the Texas Creek mines.

To Produce Bacon's Last Work

Berlin.—"Dr. Faust," a musical drama, completed by Ferruccio Busoni, the famous Italian pianist and composer, just prior to his death in Berlin recently, is to be produced in Dresden this fall and is being looked forward to by the critics because of the striking touches and out-of-the-ordinary tones given to Busoni's works.

Papeete Boasts Traffic Cop

Papeete, Tahiti, Sept. 2.—Papeete has acquired his first traffic cop. The number of motor cars has increased so much during recent months that the highways of the town have become too congested for uncontrolled traffic. The rise in the price of vanilla has brought a great deal of money into the islands and nearly every native landowner is now possessed of some sort of motor car.

Turks Agitate Sale of Caliph's Treasures

Constantinople, Aug. 30.—The question of what is to be done with the treasures of the caliph is occupying front page space in all Turkish newspapers. These treasures contain some of the most valuable gems in existence.

One group of papers demands that the treasure be sold at international auction, so that the money may be made available for much needed purposes of reconstructing the country and for relieving distress among the abjectly poor.

Until 1910 the treasure was kept in the Palace of Top-Kapi. After the present regime succeeded to power it was brought to the mosque of Ahmed Pasha at Angora. The treasure includes the gems and works of art collected by the sultans and califs centuries. There are many large walnut sized diamonds, medallions of rubies and topaz, chains of pearls of priceless value, diamonds and crowns of precious stones, goblets and cups of gold and silver, swords and scimitars and pistols set with jewels, and the famous saddles of the sultans and princes, which are studded with diamonds and other precious stones.

ARMY OF FLIES DEALS DEATH TO GRASSHOPPERS IN MONTANA

Helena, Mont., Sept. 3.—Sarcophagid or flesh-fly larvae, now invading Montana grain fields, are killing grasshoppers with such rapidity that within a short time the insect pests will be virtually exterminated, according to entomologists of the State Agricultural college at Bozeman. The flesh-fly invasion, coming at the height of the state-wide grasshopper poisoning campaign, has accounted for millions of "hoppers," the college experts report.

Returning over the fields the flesh flies strike the grasshoppers either in flight or on the stems of the grain, killing the hopper by depositing living maggots in one of the vulnerable places on the hopper's shield. The maggot immediately intrenches in the fatty tissues eating into the vital organs and causing a slow death. The sarcophagid fly multiplies rapidly having from three to five life cycles a year while the grasshopper produces but one new generation each year.

Animal Remains Indicate Britain Was Once Tropical

London.—England 100,000 years ago was a tropical country in which the inhabitants hunted elephants and other animals of the warmer climates with skillfully made weapons, in the opinion of Major A. G. Wade, the British archaeologist, who has recently made important discoveries in the gravel pits near Farnham, Dorsetshire.

Among the relics brought to the surface were the remains of mammoths, an elephant, woolly rhinoceros and beautifully made flint instruments. The finding of the remains of the mammoth and the rhinoceros has no bearing on the climate theory, according to Major Wade, who says that both had thick coats, and could have lived in a cold climate.

"With the elephant," he said, "the case is different. He was not only a warm weather animal, but needed a tropical climate."

The flint instruments consist of great hand axes, oval shaped discular implements larger than a man's hand which were probably used for skinning and cutting up large animals, and enormous spears of the Paleolithic age. According to Major Wade, the persons who used them had attained a much higher degree of civilization than those of the Neolithic period who followed them.

Major Wade placed the age of his discoveries at 100,000 years, basing his estimate on the depth at which they were found under the gravel of the old bed of the Wey River.

GERMAN SOCIALISTS WOULD AMMEND TAX LAW TO REACH STINNES ESTATE

Berlin.—Assertion that the late Hugo Stinnes used his influence in German politics for personal gain is made by the Socialist party, which recently introduced the draft of an amendment to the taxation law of 1922. The act, sometimes called the Stinnes law, prohibited the state from levying inheritance taxes in cases where the entire estate is bequeathed to the widow.

The Socialist party is eager to change the law and by including a retroactive provision in the amendment enable the Reich to benefit from the estate of its wealthiest citizen.

MANY BERLIN TAXICABS WITHDRAW IN FAVOR OF HORSE-DRAWN DROSKY

Berlin, Sept. 3.—The drosky, or one-horse cab, is coming back into its own in Berlin. Many owners of these conveyances were preparing to cast them into the scrap heap or turn them to other uses because the taxicabs were running bogus decrease in number now has begun to decrease in number because of the lack of patronage, due to the high fares charged.

Recently between 800 and 1000 taxicabs have been withdrawn from service, the owners declaring that they could not operate profitably at these fares because of the high cost of gasoline and oil. The drosky fare is about half that charged by taxicabs.

It is estimated that there are about 2,100 taxicabs operating in Berlin as compared with 4,000 a year ago.

LITTLE HOPE OF REOPENING MOSCOW MACHINERY PLANT

Moscow.—An echo of America's important part in developing Russian industry prior to the Bolshevik revolution was heard recently when application was made to the Supreme Economic Council of the Soviet government by the State Metal Department to re-open the huge plant near Moscow of the International Harvester Company. The works, which before the war produced annually nearly $5,000,000 worth of farming machinery of the American standard, have been idle since 1920.

The sum of $5,000,000, however, is needed to put the scheme in operation, and in view of the present financial stringency existing in Russia, doubt is expressed in official quarters as to the realization of the plan.

AMERICAN FOOD HELPS RAISE LIVING STANDARDS OF CHINESE

Seattle, Wash.—Chinese standards of living are rising as the result of fast schedules of steamers plying from this port to China, carrying vegetables, fruits and refrigerated meats, according to E. F. Townsend, manager of a trans-Pacific steamship company.

"Pacific northwest fruits, vegetables and meats, and citrus fruits from California," said Mr. Townsend, "are on the market in China the year around as the result of a steamship arriving in Chinese ports every ten days."

EFFECTIVE WAY TO PRESERVE BUTTS OF TELEGRAPH POLES

Stockholm.—An ingenious method to save telegraph poles from rotting has been successfully tried here. Before being planted, the poles are drilled longitudinally with a small center hole, and then the opening at the bottom is plugged. This hole runs to a point about one foot above ground when the mast has been set up. The pole erected, a small side hole is drilled slant one foot above ground to meet the center hole. Creosote oil is poured in the center hole and the outside opening closed. Linemen refill from time to time.

London to Get Russian Products

Riga.—The Soviet government shipping board has decided to open an express service between Leningrad and London. It will be principally to supply the London market with Russian butter, eggs and caviar.

KREMLIN IN RUSSIA AN ARMED FORT TO PROTECT OFFICIALS

Moscow, Sept. 3.—Russia's Bolshevik government is probably the only one in the world which barricades itself behind a fortress. Every department of the present Soviet regime, with three or four notable exceptions, has its headquarters within the high walls of the Kremlin, which stripped of its churches, shrines, museums and art treasures, is nothing more than an armed citadel, almost invulnerable from attack.

No feudal king of the Middle Ages, secure in his castle of stone and steel, surrounded by moats, battlemented walls and earthworks, was better fortified against attack than are the members of the Soviet ministry. Not only are the entire precincts of the Kremlin carefully patrolled day and night by sentries with drawn bayonets, but the whole place is an arsenal of machine guns, small mortars, defensive works and battalions of reserve soldiers. On the rare occasions when a cabinet member leaves the Kremlin he is carefully guarded by plain-clothes detectives and personal henchmen. Trotsky, who usually rides about in an automobile, invariably sits in the front seat with the chauffeur while two secret-service men occupy the rear seat.

No political faction in present-day Russia is strong enough or foolishly enough, foreign observers believe, to essay an open assault on the government, powerfully entrenched as it is both militarily and politically. But the government believes constant vigilance is the price of safety, and it takes no chances. In the event of an armed insurrection in Moscow, the entire Kremlin would be alive with troops, guns and bayonets in the twinkling of an eye. The Moscow garrison alone consists of many thousands of soldiers, available at an instant's notice in case of a counter-revolutionary movement on the part of any of the dissatisfied elements now in Russia.

While the Bolsheviks are able to maintain their Red Army and state political organization (formerly the notorious "Cheka") at their present strength and efficiency, disinterested foreign observers in Moscow believe there is little likelihood for a long time to come of the present government being dislodged. They feel that only a violent massed upheaval among the millions of peasants scattered throughout the country would be capable of breaking down the formidable military, political and bureau-craft machine which the Bolsheviks have erected in ever important center of Russia during the last seven years.

TRINIDAD HONORS ITS HEROES WHO FELL IN THE WORLD WAR

Port-of-Spain, Trinidad, W. I.—In memory of those who fell, and in honor of those who served in the great war, Trinidad has erected a beautiful monument. It is located in the center of a park at Port-of-Spain surrounded by tropical scenery.

The unveiling of the monument was one of the last public acts in the colony of Governor Sir Samuel Henry Wilson, who left here July 10 to take over the governorship of the island of Jamaica.

The memorial consists of a tall, square white column, on top of which is a female figure of victory, with outstretched wings and the left arm raised aloft bearing a wreath. Four broad steps surround the massive base, which supports on one side the giant figure of a Trinidad soldier protecting a wounded companion.

The cost was $50,000, raised jointly by public subscription and government contribution.

NEW COATS HAVE A DIRECTOIRE FLAVOR

THERE is a distinct flavor of the mode Directoire about this graceful coat, sketched in Paris by the Cheney Style Service. And, by the way, it is well to remember that the Directoire influence should merely be a flavor, if it is to be effective. It is a fatal error to be "over-perioded."

However, handled with discretion, the Directoire tendency adds great piquancy to the autumn mode, and was featured by most of the Grands Couturiers at the Paris openings. Especially was it strong in coats.

At the Premet opening, Henri Creange, tells us, "coats were very straight, some of them with big facings and two or three pelerines like Directoire postillions. Others entirely lined with fur, with shawl or turned down collars often fastened with a ribbon bow in front—hardly any models of coats or dresses without line either at Empire waistline or a little higher, sometimes only at back or front. This line is never tightened like a real Empire costume but is just an indication to accustom the eye to the new silhouette. It forms a yoke, sometimes of a different fabric."

This tendency is well illustrated by the coat shown, made of blue Cote d'Azur, a heavy ribbed fabric of the bengaline family in high favor, and trimmed with a fur collar, and little "collet." The shape of this collet is to be noted, as in the back it gives the Empire line which Premet describes. The coat is cut on the cross on both sides. It is trimly narrow at the back, but allows itself more freedom at the front.

Children Still Sold In Some Chick Province

Nanking, China, Sept. 3.—That the selling of children, and especially girls, is still prevalent in China away from the foreignized centers is shown by an episode that occurred a few days ago at the American Church Mission here. A Chinese came to the mission and related that he, his wife and child on route from Hankow to their home in Nanking, were stranded at an inn on account of the wife's illness.

They had been there, he said, about two weeks and he was entirely out of funds. He owed the innkeeper six dollars and his only recourse was to sell his little son. He begged the mission people to buy him.

Investigation appeared to show that the tale was true; that they were strangers in the place and were entirely destitute. The missionaries had the woman brought to their hospital where she quickly responded to proper care; and two days later the little family was sent on its way with money enough to see them through to Nanking.

The aftermath was the same in a sense as might happen in any country. The mission was besieged with "worthy cases." It was remarkable that the mission people, what large number of peoples found themselves forced to sell their children, and it was notable that a majority of those offered were girls.

GERMAN FARMERS HAPPY OVER GOVERNMENT CROP LOAN

Berlin, Sept. 3.—There is rejoicing among the German farmers, not only because the summer crop prospect are excellent, but due also to the fact that the government decided recently to advance $100,000,000 ronenmark to tide them over the harvest period.

The money is to be advanced by the Prussian State Bank at the rate of 1 per cent a year, which is considered an exceedingly low interest just at this time. Bankers say the loan was granted on absolutely unimpeachable security, and gives an idea of the business awaiting foreign investors in Germany as soon as the political future of the country shows some inkling of stability.

GEORGIA DEMOCRATS READY TO VOTE IN PRIMARIES 1924

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 3.—"Will Thomas W. Hardwick be able to come back?" is a question which will be answered by the Georgia Democrat when they vote in the statewide primaries Sept. 10.

Mr. Hardwick is seeking the seat in the United States Senate now held by W. J. Harris, of Cedartown, who defeated him in 1918. Two years later Mr. Hardwick was chosen Governor over Clifford Walker only to be beaten by the latter when he ran for reelection two years ago. Mr. Hardwick also contested for the unexpired term of the late Senator Thomas E. Watson in 1922 which seat was won by W. F. George of Vienna.

This year the former governor and former senator is opposing the man who beat him six years ago for the Democratic nomination. Democratic nomination in Georgia is equivalent to election.

In this campaign Mr. Hardwick scored the Ku Klux Klan. He also attacked the record of Senator Harris. The latter is asking the voters to give him another term on his record in Washington.

Governor Clifford Walker is unopposed for re-nomination.

SYNTHETIC GOLD COLORS GERMAN POPULAR SONGS

Berlin.—Gold, not silver, nor love nor the moon, is the popular topic here just now since Professor Adolph Mieth announced the secret of creating synthetic gold by dissolving an atom of quick silver "Golden Dreams," "The Hunger for Gold," "Golden Gallops," and various other songs having reference to the precious metal are heard on the radio, in the cabarets and everywhere since the scientist made the subject popular.

Woman Drowns By Falling Into Moscow Street Hole Recently

Moscow, Sept. 3.—American asphalt and paving concerns would make a fortune in Moscow if they could induce the Soviet government to give them the job of repairing the thousands of streets in the Red capital that are rutted and broken. Most of the streets are paved with cobblestones that make making a positive discomf. Only one or two of the principal streets are laid with asphalt.

Depriving experience not only discomfort and inconvenience through having to use the broken roadway, but often positive injuries as well. Not long ago a Russian woman fell into a open excavation in one of the principal streets and was drowned in the water that had collected.

During his recent visit here Isaac Marrosson, the American writer, fell into an opening in the sidewalk and suffered painful injuries about the face, arms and legs. He was returning from an interview with Leon Trotsky, the Soviet War Minister.

SWEDEN TRIES TO PRESERVE LAST OF EUROPEAN BUFFALO

Stockholm, Sept. 2.—An effort to rescue and revive the dying dynasty of "visents," or European buffaloes, aid to be the rarest living mammals in the world today has just begun here in the opening of a 100-acre preserve where these animals will be allowed to live and breed under natural conditions.

Out of a total of only 50 "visents" in the world, seven are to be found in Sweden, and up to the present time his herd has been kept in the open-air museum of Stockholm, but the animals did not seem to thrive well in the restricted space. Information regarding the situation came to Consul-General Axel A. Johnson, who immediately offered to set aside 100 acres of the wildest part of his estate in central Sweden as a preserve. The offer was accepted and now a full "visent" and two females have been turned into the kind of country over which their ancestors roamed thousands of years ago.

SALE OF REAL PROPERTY.

By virtue of a decree of the Superior court of Pitt county, the undersigned will on Saturday the 13th day of September 1924 at 12 o'clock noon expose to public sale before the court house door in Greenville of the highest bidder for cash the following described real property to-wit:

First Parcel: Lying and being situated in Greenville Township, Pitt county on the North side of Car river, bounded on the north by the lands of Thomas Whichard, on the east by the Enoch Moore lands, on the south by the lands of Samuel Judley and on the west by the Shivers land, containing 91 acres more or less, being woods land.

Second Parcel: Situated in the town of Greenville, N. C., on the west side of Cotanch street and being lots Nos. 11 and 12 in the subdivision of that part of the Alfred Forbes estate as shown by map made by H. L. Rivers, C. E. in October 1919, of record in Book of Maps No. 2, page 58 in the Register's office of Pitt county said lots having a frontage of 25 feet each in Cotanch street and running back a depth of 150 feet to an alley way. Said property will be sold for the purpose of making assets to be applied to the payment of the indebtedness of the estate of G. E. Harris. This sale will be made by reason of the fact that the bid at a former sale of said lands made on Monday the 11th day of August 1924, was raised by D. B. Carter and this sale will be made by reason thereof.

This the 21st day of August 1924

Gained Ten Pounds

Mrs. George S. Hunter, of Columbus, Ga., says she suffered severely with female troubles.
"I had to go to bed and stay sometimes two weeks at a time," says Mrs. Hunter. "I could not work. My... were irregular and I got very thin. I went from 126 pounds down to less than 100. My mother had been a user of and she knew what a good medicine it was for this trouble, so she told me to get some and take it. I sent to the store after it and before I had taken the first bottle up I began to improve. My side hurt less and I began to mend in health. I took four bottles in all during the last ten months. Cardui acted as a fine tonic... I am well now. I have gained ten pounds and am still gaining."

Take Cardui.

GREENVILLE RESPONDS

Widespread co-operation is being given The Daily Reflector in the preparation of the Industrial Development edition that is to appear soon.

More than two score business men and firms have already taken part and many have agreed to prepare special articles of value bearing on Greenville and surrounding area.

The preliminary work is now drawing to a close and we urge those who haven't already arranged for space in this edition to do so at the earliest possible moment.

The success of the venture is already assured and from now on our efforts will be directed towards making it a greater success.

While copies of this edition, showing Greenville, its business and social advantages will be sent broadcast throughout the country, especially to the great business centers, special efforts are being made to reach all farmers and business men in the natural trading area, which embraces, Pitt, Beaufort, Martin, Lenoir, Edgecombe, Craven and Greene counties. These counties form one of the richest farming sections in the world and their development under the stimulus of good roads within the past few years has been short of marvelous.

THE PUBLIC WILL NOT SURRENDER

Railroad employees are just as intelligent and independent in politics as any other class of citizens.

In fact, from this standpoint they are probably above the average.

It does not follow therefore that because a few of their politicians get together and endorse socialistic campaign programs all railroad employes will take orders and vote for such policies.

The average railroad employe dislikes to be bossed. Neither will he take orders on election day. He has the same interest in national prosperity; in good government and clean politics that any other law abiding citizen has.

Radical candidates have not been endorsed by the rank and file. Before constituting themselves a political label and nominating a ticket, the ringleaders neither received authority from the rank and file to act for them nor gave the rank and file an opportunity to express their opinion and choice. Here is the ticket, take it or leave it, is the only choice provided.

This is a free country and nothing is better calculated to preserve this freedom than the privilege of the voter to express his honest convictions.

A red, pink or yellow candidate for office may be satisfactory to some railroad employes, certainly not to all of them. Indeed, the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, the largest of them all, has not, and its chief officers say, will not endorse such candidates. Few of its members will consent to be driven like cattle by professional politicians. To many of them the thought of socialism is abhorrent.

Some of the dreamers among them expect by supporting radical candidates to kill off the Labor Board, deprive the public of a voice in fixing their rates of pay and arrange it so they can make their own rates. But no sensible employe believes it can be done, for to any thinking mind it should be evident that as the public pays the bill it should and will exercise a voice in saying how much that bill shall be. This is one right the public will not surrender.

BEING A FIREBUG NATION

News reports of the recent million-dollar sawmill fire at Hoquiam, Washington, say covered by insurance." Everybody breathes easy, for there is no actual loss.

But a million dollars' worth of property has been destroyed: a million dollars' worth of labor and material is lost that had been available for making men more comfortable, in wages, profits, freights, in structures that the lumber would build.

Every stick of timber, every day's wage, every item of comfort that a million dollars can buy, is first paid for in insurance rates. Whether you have never had a fire of your own, or whether you have been a regular firebug in setting forest fires or carelessly burning your own property in city or town or country, the loss of every scrap burned must be paid by someone.

Unless restored by insurance, every item of property destroyed by fire is gone forever, and the nation is that much poorer. Estimating a human life by the wages it would earn, life comes terribly high. Any one of the 15,000 lives destroyed annually by fire may be worth tens of hundreds of thousands of dollars. So with property, estimated by its usefulness, even though its physical value is covered by insurance.

Insurance only spreads and equalizes fire or death losses, so that the few do not go bankrupt while the many go unscathed. Most of the $500,000,000 annual fire losses of the United States are preventable. They need never occur. If normal business and home life could have the proportion of that sum that is paid out for preventable fires every year the United States would soon hardly know itself in its new era of decorum and prosperity.

Being a firebug nation is hardly decent. The majority of fires are preventable. It's time for our country to save property that is utterly, foolishly wasted, that is so wrongfully said to be "covered by insurance."

It is believed to be impossible for a candidate of one party to say anything with which the members of another party would agree.

It is said that Russia cannot recover until she gets a large foreign loan. Then, preparation for the obsequies might as well be made.

The manufacture of cotton stockings is reported to have almost ceased. Of course silk is much more comfortable and durable.

Film stars are not easily discouraged. Though marriage may fail many times they usually try again just as soon as divorces are granted.

Robert Yellowtail, the Crow Indian who is a candidate for congress in Montana, probably feels that Indian citizenship is worth more if it includes the salary of an office.

In proposing to abolish both army and navy but to strengthen the air fleet, Denmark may be the first to discern wherein the offensive and defensive instruments of the future lie.

Montana minister who declares that, if man was evolved from a lower animal he came from the ass, certainly could fortify his argument with copious illustrations indicative of the correctness of the theory.

In ratifying the reparations plan the Reichstag appears to admit that Germany lost the war.

Those who are advising Judge Caverly might as well save the effort. He has sole charge of the matter.

Nebraska lands are reported to be increasing in price. That doesn't happen when farming is as unprofitable as it has been portrayed.

MRS. PERSON ENTERTAINS.

Hostess at Delightful Party Complimentary to House Guests.

About fifty-four of Greenville's younger set gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Person Tuesday evening to meet her house guests, Miss Lucy Nottingham, of Norfolk, Miss Grace Person, of Enfield and Mr. Will Nicholson, of Kingston.

After each guest had been introduced to the honorees Miss Jane Hadley had them register their names and the college each one expects to attend.

From the registry the boys invited the girls to the punch table, which was graciously presided over by Miss Mary Wright, Mr. James Liverman, of Scotland Neck, Miss Frances Norman and Johnathan Overton.

After all had been refreshed here, the boys and girls drew corresponding numbers for partners in a tree contest. At the conclusion of which there were three who tied for the prize. Miss Mary Wright drawing the highest card was declared winner and she was presented a box of correspondence cards.

They drew again for partners and this time it was making the most words out of High School—College. There were three running close for this prize also but the judges, James Fleming and Effie May Winslow declared the winner to be Miss Elizabeth Austin. She was presented with a bottle of perfume. The hostess presented the honorees with a lovely work basket and a tray. The raffle prize was a crocheted tie and was won by Johnathan Overton.

The hostess assisted by Elizabeth Norman and others served a nice collation.

FIRE SCENE GIVES SOCIETY A THRILL

Long Island society folk received the thrill of their lives during the filming of exterior scenes for Dorothy Dalton's latest Paramount picture, "The Moral Sinner," at White's theatre Thursday.

The occasion was the "shooting" of the fire sequence of the production. This scene takes place at a fashionable charity ball in a big hotel where the star, in the role of Leah Kleesch, clever girl crook has gone with her father and servant, Schram, to steal the bazaar funds. It is while Leah is working at the combination of the safe in the committee room that the fire breaks out, and she is trapped in the burning building.

For the purpose of making the scene more realistic, word was broadcast of the scenes that were to be filmed, and, as a result, people from miles around flocked to the location. When everything was ready, the director, Ralph Ince, gave the signal for action. With the cry, "Fire" the scene was on. Immediately smoke and flames began to creep through the windows of the hotel, suddenly breaking out into a conflagration that could be seen for miles around. Those who were lucky enough to be on hand declared that, save for the fact of the camera grinding on the scene, there wasn't a reason in the world for believing that the incident wasn't the real thing. And you'll more than agree with them when you see the picture.

James Rennie, the hero of "His Children's Children," plays opposite the star. Others in the cast include Alphonz Ethier, Frederick Lewis Paul McAlister and Florence Fair.

REGULAR PRAYER MEETING AT IMMANUEL BAPTIST CHURCH TONIGHT AT 8: COME OUT

Salonica Jews Prefer Sat. As Day of Rest

Salonica, Sept. 3.—The Greek press is publishing sharp comments on the action of the Salonica Jews, who number about 80,000, in having made an appeal to their co-religionists in America and other western countries for the reinstatement of Saturday as their day of rest.

At the urging of a press campaign at Athens, Premier Papanastasiu had a bill offered to the chamber decreeing uniformity of observance of the day of rest as Sunday. For centuries the Jews of Salonica had been observing Saturday as their day of rest.

Under the new law the right to this historic observance, which had been recognized under the Turkish domination, was denied to the Israelitic community. The Jews complained to their co-religionists abroad and a movement was put under way to appeal to the League of Nations for the re-establishment of their ancient right under the minorities rule of the league. The Greek press is denouncing this "forced interference with the sovereign rights of the Greek nation."

Frenchman Speaks in Germany

Hamburg.—Hans Barbusse, French writer, pacifist and communist of the drawing room variety addressed in his native tongue a communist meeting here recently and was well received. The address was translated to the audience by a German woman.

At Rostok, however, the voelkish majority persuaded the mayor and chief of police to prohibit a speech by Barbusse, which had been advertised.

French Shooting Season Opens

Paris, Sept. 3.—The shooting season in France is about to open, and there are evidences of good sport in prospect. Partridge, hare, quail and pheasant are plentiful, and the total of shooting permits issued breaks all previous records.

German Does 40-Mile Sea Swim

Munich, Germany.—Otto Kemmerich, Germany's best known "deep sea" swimmer, completed a swim recently from Huum to Wk Island, 40 miles out in the North Sea, being in the water a little more than 12 hours.

Kemmerich made the voyage without companions in boats, as in the case of most long-distance swimmers, and carried a watch and a compass, in a water-proof pocket affair which fitted to the back of his head.

SUMMARY WEEKLY WEATHER AND CROP GOV. REPORT ENDING TUESDAY, SEPT.

Washington, Sept. 3.—Rather warm over the cotton belt with beneficial local rains in many sections, but most localities still too dry and general heavy rainfall needed. Progress and condition of cotton continued very good in extreme western and northwestern Texas, but fewer complaints of shedding.

In Oklahoma beneficial rains fell at close of week, but more rain is needed, especially in southeast portion, and progress of cotton ranged from fairly good in parts of north portion in south central and southeast with some deterioration and considerable shedding. Advance in Arkansas varied greatly, from deterioration in east and south to very good in some localities elsewhere. Little change in condition of cotton in Louisiana while drought prevent satisfactory development in most sections of Mississippi and Alabama. While conditions continue fair to very good in Tennessee the weekly progress was mostly poor. Drouth was partially relieved by irregular rains in Georgia, but most sections continued dry with further deterioration in many localities. Cotton is progressively deteriorating in South Carolina. Condition and progress very good in northern North Carolina with slight improvement in southeast but further deterioration in southwest.

Liverpool Spot Cotton.
 Middling 1528; good middling 1668. Receipts 10,000 of which 6,000 of which 6,000 were American; Sales 10,000 all American. The market closed quiet but steady. Jan. 1366; Mar. 1370, May 1368; July 1361; Oct. 1388; Dec. 1367.

The Weather.
 Temperature averaged 20 degrees cooler over belt except about unchanged in south Texas. Light to moderate rains scattered east belt and Alabama, very light showers in Vicksburg, Galveston and San Antonio districts.

Forecast.
 Entire belt generally fair, warmer western belt.

COTTON LETTER

New Orleans, Sept. 3.—Although climatic conditions were more favorable and private crop estimates remain rather large, undertone of market was steadier today pending future developments. Returns to a local prominent commission house averaged the condition of the plant at 59.7. Indicated crop 12,800,000 bales, and returns to a prominent northern house averaged the condition of the crop at 60.6, pointing to a yield of 13,068,000 bales, lintere not included. Washington's weekly weather and crop summary was mixed, about as expected, denoting the need of more rain in the interior. Since the weekly government review was compiled yesterday morning, rather general light to heavy beneficial rains occurred over the eastern half of the belt and in south Texas, and temperatures were lower everywhere.

Considering the numerous reports, as private advices, as to general deterioration the past two weeks, private crop estimates remain comparatively large, those based on the government acreage, which the trade operates on, ranging from 12,900,000 bales to 13,332,000 indicating that the next government crop forecast will probably show little change from its forecast of 23rd. For a yield of 12-

350,000 bales exclusive of linters. In view of present prospects for a crop of about 3,000,000 bales larger than last year's production, there is not much of an incentive to buy, especially under prevailing unfavorable domestic textile trade conditions. The market may experience bulges from time to time but unless the demand improves materially, receipts which are bound to increase from day to day until they assume larger proportions, will have to be cared for. We will hedge selling as the movement to market becomes larger.

Reviewing developments of past week, Washington reported "rather warm over the cotton belt with beneficial local rains in many sections, but most localities still too dry, and a general heavy rainfall needed."
