GENERAL BOWLEY DELIVERS ADDRESS NAT. DEFENSE DAY

Addresses Asheville Citizens and Urged Preparedness for War in Peace Time by Civilians

Asheville, Sept. 12.—Turning those, who preached the doctrine of non-resistance for a wealthy nation, as "soft heads" and declaring that those, who protested most vigorously against National Defense Day, were mostly in favor of the recognition of Soviet Russia, General A. J. Bowley, commander of Fort Bragg, addressed a large audience here at the National Defense Day celebration last evening and urged preparedness for war in peace time, pursuits by civilians as well as in a substantial standing army and large organized reserves.

The officer outlined the history of the American nation and compared the democracy of Russia the democratic republic of the United States, pointing out that though the United States was a peace loving nation that it had participated in an average of one year of war for every six years since the signing of the Declaration of Independence. He said that the National Defense Act was maintained at $2.50 per capita while other foremost nations were spending a minimum of $2 for every one that the United States government spent.

"The spirit and the ideals of the early American pioneers are the things we should endeavor to draw upon in these heroic days," said General Bowley, "for a great race was worthily represented in these men and women. They would have scorned governmental aid in their business enterprises, because they believed it their duty to support the government. They esteemed it a privilege to sacrifice their lives for their country."

"They chose only the best men to represent them in the legislative halls. That there was good results is shown in the monumental piece of pioneer work, the Constitution of the United States, the frame work upon which the only true republic in the world has been reared and successfully functioned. Who would consider himself qualified to improve that famous preamble? We, the people of the United States, in order to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution of the United States of America. How much it says, without saying too much!

"Do not be confused by the definition of democracy. In recent years the term has been greatly misused. Democracy has been stated when republic was meant. Soviet Russia is an example of true democracy. Organized by leaders, who preach government by the masses, it soon became the great tyranny of the ages, a huge destructive monster whose object is to abolish government, patriotism, religion, inheritance, private property, and family life. The leaders usually sugarcoat the pill, but the salient features remain the same.

"Are not the efforts in this country to awaken class hatred, destroy political party lines and inflame the people against the political, industrial and economic leaders, indicative that they desire to substitute our republic form of government for one similar to that of Soviet Russia?"

"Is it not strange that the vast majority of people who are crying out today against the National Defense test are the very ones who are clamoring for the recognition of Soviet Russia? That country has the largest army in the world. Our Soviet sympathizer, heartily approve of a Soviet army of one million men but they disapprove of our regular army of 125,000 men.

"The history of the United States has proved that military unpreparedness directly increases the casualties in war as well as prolongs war. Pacifists ignore this fact and are rightly called by Theodore Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the Navy, "soft-headed."

Wooters, the retiring secretary-treasurer, was unanimously elected to head the club for the coming year. Mr. Troy Rouse was elected vice president over Mr. W. T. Lipscomb by a small majority. Mr. H. A rising vote of thanks was extended to the outgoing officers for their splendid work after which adjournment was had to the refreshment counter.

"Refreshments" is the word. Sandwiches, coco-cola and ice cream galore. Every one ate, wished they were larger that they might eat more and then took some home with them. Great thanks is due the refreshment committee.

Parades and Patriotic Gatherings Feature Observance of Day in Many Communities

Raleigh, Sept. 12.—North Carolina today did its bit in observance of National Defense Day. Throughout the state citizens halted in their labors to demonstrate their readiness and willingness to rally around the flag in case of national distress.

Civil organizations, the Red Cross, Boy Scouts and other societies gathered and demonstrated through the medium of parades how well they could be brought together in case of necessity.

Plans for defense day were begun several weeks ago by Governor Cameron Morrison in compliance with the request from the War Department for the state to participate in National Defense Day test issued an order mobilizing the National Guard in the various communities. It is probable that the order will be accompanied by a personal letter from President Coolidge recounting the general's service to the nation.

Hundreds of reserve officers in uniform today for the first time since they were mustered out of the service took opportunity to bid farewell to General Pershing.

BYRNES CONCEDES THE NOMINATION FORMER GOVERNOR

Defeated Candidate Says He Will Not Think of Methods Used Against Him in the Campaign

Columbia, S. C., Sept. 12.—Representative James E. Byrnes today conceded the victory in Tuesday's Democratic primary for nomination as United States Senator to former Governor Cole L. Blease.

From his home in Aiken Mr. Byrnes dictated the following statement over long distance telephone to the Associated Press:

"I have delayed issuing a statement until I could learn the result of the official count in the various counties. That count discloses that a majority of the voters in the state have cast their ballots for Mr. Blease. I accept it as correct and cheerfully bow to the decision of the people. Instead of permitting my thoughts to dwell upon the methods used to injure my cause in the closing days of the campaign I shall think only of the loyal friends who so unselfishly and tirelessly labored for my success and to whom I will ever be profound grateful.

Judge Winston Again School Boy Attending U. N. C.

Chapel Hill, Sept. 12.—Among the students registered at the University of North Carolina this fall is Robert W. Winston, 62 years old and formerly Judge of the Superior court. He is also doing magazine writing.

Judge Winston has just returned from Nantucket Island, Massachusetts, where he spent the summer with leaders of political and social workers of the country. He made several addresses while there, one of which was a discussion of the negro problem of which there were a large number of negroes present.

The former jurist told his audience that the negro in the south could never hope to have equal political and social rights with the whites and that he advocated the proposal to send 5,000,000 negroes to Brazil, which for he said there had been a strong bid.

WILLS WINS BOUT WITH LUIS FIRPO

Negro Boxer Receives Newspaper Decision In 12 Rounds Fight With the Argentine

Jersey City, N. J., Sept. 12.—Harry Wills battered his way to a smashing one-sided victory last night over Luis Angel Firpo in a gruelling 12 round battle before a throng estimated at 75,000 in Boyle's Thirty Acres.

Dominating the fighting from start to finish with an exhibition of ring craft that completely spiked Firpo's heaviest gun, his famous right, Wills beat the giant Argentine into decisive defeat with a bruising relentless attack to the head and body.

Firpo was knocked down for a count of four in the second round, staggered in several others by lightning-like thrusts to his jaw and subjected to a succession of savage, weakening drives to the body. Shorn of his chief and only potent weapon, the Argentine fought a losing battle all the way. His gameness carried him through the terrific punishment his negro rival administered, but he had not the boxing skill, speed or versatility of attack to cope with the crafty, resourceful and relentless campaign of his opponent.

No Official Decision.

No official decision was rendered, as none is permitted under New Jersey ring laws, but there was no question of the outcome. Firpo, in the opinion of some critics, barely held his own in one round the third, while the big majority of newspaper critics gave every round to the big negro.

The crowd which filled the big bowl close to capacity had come in expectation of a knockout, with opinion about evenly divided as to which of the ring giants would score it.

LEOPOLD AND LOEB PASS FIRST DAY OF LIFE IMPRISONMENT

Slayers of Robert Franks Will Begin Manual Labor Tomorrow, Warden Whitman Announced

Joliet, Ill., Sept. 12.—Richard Loeb will be assigned to work in the prison chair factory and Nathan F. Leopold, Jr., will work in the rattan factory, Warden Whitman announced this morning. They will go to work tomorrow.

The announcement was made by Warden Whitman immediately after the youths had attended a Defense Day service in the prison auditorium with 1,200 other prisoners. Dressed in blue denim jackets and trousers and with hair cropped close the boys sat almost in the middle of the auditorium staring straight ahead and refusing to smile when other prisoners laughed at some remark by the speaker. When they arose and passed out all the other prisoners turned to take a long look at the latest inmates of the institution, numbers 9,305 and 9,306.

The boys, Warden Whitman announced, will be kept in different sections of the prison and will have cells for a time. This morning they sat near each other but the snappy appearance and the swaggering air of the past was gone. Leopold kept face down and Loeb did little more than glance over the audience.

Loeb will be occupied in the cabinet work division of the furniture factory and Leopold will weave rattan furniture.

The report to the warden from the guards this morning showed that the boys passed an uneventful night. Leopold went immediately to his bunk and fell asleep before nine o'clock. Loeb slept well, although Leopold appeared to be downhearted. They listened this morning to a concert by the prison band and a Defense Day address by the prison chaplain.

SUN YAT SEN PARTY AGAIN DECLARES ITS PRO-FOREIGN POLICY

Canton, China, Sept. 12.—The Kuomintang, the party of Dr. Sun Yat-sen, president of the South China republic, took advantage of the recent strike of house boys at Shamen, the foreign settlement of Canton, to reiterate the party's pro-foreign policy. In a statement given out by Dr. C. C. Wu, son of the late Wu Ting-fang, one-time minister to Washington, the Kuomintang refuses to entertain an alleged proposal of certain Shanghai members of the party to rescind the party's order refraining from anti-foreignism.

A new and stronger order was in fact issued. This reads: "It is the duty of this party to make China a really independent and sovereign state on the basis of the party's three principles. It regards all narrow and violent anti-foreign sentiments as harmful to society and the world at large, and detrimental to the complete independence and equality of the Chinese state and race. For this reason the party has always strongly exerted itself in suppressing such tendencies."

The pronounced asserts that since the Kuomintang, which had started a revolution at Whuchow, accorded protection to foreign life and property. Since then the revolutionaries, whenever they took up arms, never failed to take special care to give adequate protection to foreigners.

The northern militarists on the other hand, Dr. Wu's statement continues, "having usurped the Peking government, have not hesitated to work in league with the imperialistic powers, and to sell the country in order to further their selfish aims. Our people have often denounced their slavishness towards foreign powers, but the minds of the militarists and reactionaries are really suffused with medieval and monarchial notions and superstitions which are closely associated with anti-foreign sentiments. While in their conduct they are scrupulous, in their mentality they are really hostile to foreigners."

Old Time Ghost Evicts Family of Unbelievers

Chichester, Sussex, England, Sept. 11.—"The strange lady" is the name of a ghost which constantly evicts tenants from a charming old country house not far from this city. Families come and families go. Sometimes they stay for several weeks; sometimes they remain for only a few days.

One modern, up-to-date woman who leased the house pooh-poohed the idea that it was haunted and carefully kept all ghost stories away from her three young children. Within a few weeks the children complained to their mother that they did not like to play in their nursery because "the lady" disturbed them. Finally the up-to-date and skeptical mother also saw the strange woman. She was unwilling to admit it at first, but a boy and girl of 16 and 17 respectively, who were visiting her, complained that they also had seen her.

This female ghost has been seen by so many persons, or at least so many persons have imagined they saw it, that it has become well-known to ghost specialists in all parts of England. The legend told in explanation of the apparition is that the house was cursed by a cavalier who during the Civil War took refuge in a secret chamber. His wife dejected to haunt the building in spite of the fact that it had been rebuilt and little remains of the old mansion.

Noted Golfers To Play At French Lick Sept. 15

French Lick Springs, Ind., Sept. 12.—The course over which the Professional Golfers Association championship will be played here Sept. 15 to 20, will demand top form for good scores, according to Arthur Lockwood, club professional.

The course is long and difficult, with a wealth of hills and hollows and more than 100 wide and deep traps. The elevated putting greens prove most deceiving in distance. Donald Ross, famous builder of golf courses, laid out the French Lick links and declares it to be his masterpiece. It is similar to Oakland Hills, where Cyril Walker won the American open.

Walker, Walter Hagen, just back from England with the British championship; Gene Sarazen, Jock Hutchison, Macdonald Smith, Joe Kirkwood, Freddie McLeod and a host of other stars are expected to participate in the French Lick event for a purse of $5,000.

Sixty-four starters will tee off Monday, Sept. 15, in pursuit of the title now held by Gene Sarazen. The men making the few 63 scores will be paired for the match play eliminations which start Tuesday. The 32 men eliminated on Monday will each receive $50; those on Tuesday $75; those on Wednesday $100; those on Thursday $125 and those on Friday, the day of the semi-finals, $125.

Germany to Honor War Dead.

Berlin, Sept. 8.—On the tenth anniversary of the beginning of the world war a movement was launched for the erection of a national monument in Berlin to the memory of the soldiers who died as an outcome of the conflict.

There have been several proposals here to bury an unknown soldier, with proper ceremonies on behalf of the unknowns, but the government opposed the idea on the ground that to do so would be following too closely in the footsteps of the allied nations, where the custom originated.

RUTHLESS SECRECY MARKS DAILY DOINGS OF RUSSIAN POLICE

Moscow, Sept. 12.—To Russians the Cheka is the most-feared organization in Russia, the very mention of the name connoting terror and ruthlessness. Its chief purpose is to suppress counter-revolutionary activities and to punish all who attempt to injure the present Soviet regime.

In a larger sense the Cheka resembles the American Secret Service or the English Scotland Yard, except it has much greater scope, exercises plenary powers, acts as "judge, jury and executioner," maintains its own army, prisons, and is all-powerful in every department of Russian life. There is no appeal from its decisions.

With the Red Army, the Cheka constitutes the most formidable weapon the Bolsheviks possess for maintaining themselves in power. No person, no group, no community, however influential, is strong enough to resist the all-embracing tentacles of the Cheka octopus which reach out to every nook and corner of Russia. The number of counter-revolutionaries and political prisoners it put to death during the revolution and terror runs into tens of thousands.

Since the late Premier Lenin introduced the so-called "new economy policy" of the government, the Cheka has been rechristened with a view to depriving it in the minds of the Russians of its sinister aspect. It now goes by the wild name of "state political department," or "G. P. U.," these being the initial letters of the Russian words. In it are employed many of the agents of the old Czarist secret service, whose knowledge of old political offenders is of special value.

The G. P. U. is the most highly organized and severely disciplined of all Soviet institutions, and its members are the most devoted to the Communist cause. Any disclosure of its plans by an employe or agent would mean certain death. Its working force numbers hundreds of thousands of men and women. Every employe of every communistic institution throughout Russia is a potential agent or spy of the G. P. U.

Felix Dzierzhinsky, the mild-speaking, soft-mannered Pole who brought the organization up to its present high state of efficiency, has been elevated to the chairmanship of the Supreme Economic Council, but he still directs the broad policy of the G. P. U.

Within the building serving as the G. P. U. headquarters is a great courtyard, along the sides of which are steel barred cells. The occupants are regarded as the more dangerous of the political prisoners. They are awaiting either death or deportation to Siberia for life.

MARMONT IS FILM ACTOR OF EXPERIENCE AT WHITE'S THEATRE TODAY

Percy Marmont is one of the principal players in Victor Hugo Halpern's big production, "When a Girl Loves," which has Agnes Ayres as "the girl." Marmont will be remembered for his recent portrayals of Mark Sabre, something that will be "hard to live down," he declared deprecatingly and modestly, and of the blind hero of Kipling's tale, "The Light That Failed." In real life Marmont is quite as charming and human as his work in these two pictures would indicate, boyishly happy over his reception at last into public favor.

"I plugged at it faithfully for five years in the legit after coming over to America," he told me, "without creating any great sensation or, what is more important, annexing sufficient cash to be convenient. So that naturally my success lately in the pictures had made me quite enthusiastic. I tell you the 'movies,' as they are called somewhat lightly, are the salvation of many a starving actor at times and make it possible for him to choose the right sort of play with independence when he does return to the footlights. The two seem to me to be mutually very helpful and unrelated. I wish we might have that Actors' Theatre in Hollywood we have heard about. However, I should not speak lightly of starvation. It was my emaciated, half-starved appearance when I returned from the war that got me my first motion picture engagement."

Is due to a super-clay
By Edna Wallace Hopper
After 40 years in the limelight—after 35 years as a stage star—I still look a girl of 19. The thousands who see me daily know that, and wonder how this came about.

The chief reason lies in a new-type clay. I started years ago with the old-type clays, crude and muddy, which so many still employ. They brought me amazing results. But I have kept in touch with scientific progress, and in 20 years it has brought me a clay which gives multiplied results.

Today I have what experts call the last word in facial clay. It is white, refined and dainty. And it embodies many new discoveries. Until I obtained this, I never knew one-tenth what clay could do.

Now I am supplying this clay to others. I call it my White Youth Clay. All druggists and toilet counters have it—exactly the clay I use. And I am stating its results to girls who want more beauty and to women who want youth.

My White Youth Clay purges the skin of all that clogs and mars it. It draws out the causes of blackheads and blemishes. It brings the blood to the skin to nourish and revive it. The result is a rosy afterglow which amazes and delights. Many women see into drop ten years with one application.

It firms the skin, combats all lines and wrinkles, reduces enlarged pores. No girl or woman who once enjoys its results will ever go without it.

I want you to know what it does. My good fortune obtained it for me. I was famous as a beauty, so every expert sought to give me the greatest aids to beauty. Now I wish to bring like benefits to millions.

Write me for my Beauty Book and I'll send with it something else to please you. Edna Wallace Hopper, 336 Lake Shore Drive, Chicago.

KLU KLUXERS VISIT BAPTIST REVIVAL AYDEN WEDNESDAY

Ayden, Sept. 12. — Five hooded figures in full regalia of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan appeared at the Baptist church Wednesday night about 8:30 o'clock where a revival meeting was being conducted by Rev. Leland W. Smith of Greenville and presented the pastor with a bag of money together with a note stating that this was to be used toward defraying the expenses of the meeting. Mr. Lucas passed the letter to Mr. Smith who read it, and then after thanking the Klansmen for the gift made a beautiful prayer in which he said that he did not know who they were but if they were on the Lord's side, the preacher asked that they be blessed.

GENERAL PERSHING RETIRES

Tomorrow, General John Jacob Pershing, will join the long, illustrious list of former commanders-in-chief of the army of the United States.

This nation should pause for a moment on that day and, while paying a small meed of tribute to a great American while he still lives, consider what this generation of Americans owes to the men who more than any other class made the United States of today possible.

What would this country be today if there had been no Washington, no Grant, no Miles, no Pershing? True, perhaps the places of all these could have been filled by others. But it was Washington who led the colonial troops to victory, Grant who headed the Union hosts in sixty-five, Pershing whom the American crusaders followed in France.

Pershing commanded the largest army that ever fought under the Stars and Stripes. Companies, regiments, divisions, armies — they marched upon the enemy in France until more than two million troops were at Pershing's command, while more than that many were in camp on home soil.

"Blackjack" is beloved by Americans today as a great military leader who served the nation most faithfully and valorously when the call came. Like Grant, there is little of the professional soldier about him. He has abundantly earned the right to spend his remaining years free of the responsibilities of official duties.

SERIOUS SIDE OF COLLEGE

It is frequently said in deprecation of college men that they go to college to have a good time and an education afterwards. Apparently some good people believe that it is purely accidental when a young man proves that he learned something in college besides social etiquette and athletics.

The facts in the case are that no man or woman ever left an institution of higher learning without some degree of mental improvement, that the serious side of college life is never seen by the public, while the lighter side is always on display and that very often getting an education is a struggle instead of a saturnalia of spending and sporting.

What stronger argument in favor of the college "struggle" is there than the statistics furnished by the employment bureau of the New York University. In this one institution 1,539 students in the past year earned $1,000,000 during the school term and vacation periods. One of these working students drew a salary of $7,500 a year while a student in the engineering department.

All colleges and universities report an increasing number of students working their way through school and the number of college men and women who are not gainfully employed during the summer vacation period is now negligible. As far as working at their studies is concerned, there is no American institution of higher education which will tolerate low scholastic standings. The individual student must be 75 per cent efficient or leave by request.

A college education needs no defense as it is now almost universally accepted as a necessity. It may be criticized regarding its efficiency, but until all young men and women become 100 per cent efficient as students colleges and universities cannot attain that perfection of efficiency.

However, how many of those who condemn the college man for not working his way through school study while they are working for a livelihood? Studying is as much a man's job as shoveling.

GLORIOUS SUNSET

General Tyson Says Victory for Democrats Certain This Fall

Raleigh, Sept. 12.—Victory is certain for the Democrats in the November election for president, in the opinion of General Lawrence Tyson, U. S. A. retired, who has just been nominated for the United States Senate on the Democratic ticket in Tennessee and who is in the city Thursday visiting his mother, Mrs. Margaret Tyson, a resident of Raleigh. The general said that LaFollette would probably help the Democrats win in the general election but if not, and the race was carried to the lower house of Congress, that the Democrats would surely win. He said that LaFollette and his supporters were making the fight against Coolidge and that they would vote Democratic before they would let him have the election. "On the other hand" asserted the general, "the Republicans all agree that Davis is a good and able man and they will vote for him before they will vote for LaFollette."

General Tyson, who is a native of North Carolina, having been born in Greenville, Pitt county and lived in Raleigh and Winston-Salem, spoke highly of the progress that Raleigh had made and said that North Carolina was the most progressive state in the south if not in the Union.

He commended the Port Commission Bill very highly and declared that an east and west railroad line in the state would be of untold value to Tennessee as well as North Carolina. He added that his adopted state was just waiting for her sister state to open up the sea for her as she could not do it herself. The general said that it would be a shame if North Carolina failed to make use of her great sea coast opportunities, which have already been neglected for more than 100 years.

Referring to the political conditions in Tennessee, General Tyson declared that he had a fight on his hands but he expected to win along with the national ticket. He promised General Albert Cox, a war time companion that he would do all he could for North Carolina in the way of government aid for inland waterways development, when he went to Washington as a senator.

"There is a middle course that should be followed for national defense. It is one that sees international relations as they are and not as we wish them to be, and it deduces from such a view that the nation that lives in peace is most likely to be the nation that minds its own business and keeps itself free from promises to fight for any other nation under any condition.

"The United States is not an aggressive nation and its people desire to live in peace and have always practiced justice in their relations to other nations. Yet we have a history of having had one year of war for every six years of our national existence. All this because we have not been prepared. Preparedness is not expensive. At present our National Defense Act costs less than $2.50 per capita while for every dollar that we spend for this purpose France is spending seven, England, four and Italy two."

General Bowley read a letter written by the late Theodore Roosevelt, a few hours before his death, to the American Defense Society, in which he declared that there could be no sagging back in the spirit of true Americanism just because the war is over, but that we should maintain our strict principles though still exercising our generosity.

"There is no divided allegiance here," wrote Colonel Roosevelt. "We have room but for one flag, one language and one spirit. Those who come here to live must be Americans all. We have room but for one soul loyalty and that is a loyalty to the American people."

The General declared that we wanted true Americans in this country, those who will accept responsibility of citizenship as well as the privileges. "We have no room for the Communist, the parlor Bolshevik, the fanatical Pacifist, all of whom are destructive to their efforts," he added.

He concluded by urging all citizens to follow the advice of General Israel Putnam, "Trust in God but keep your powder dry."

Industrious Eskimos Visit Nome to Sell Their Wares Now

Nome, Alaska, Sept. 11. — Every year since Nome can remember the entire native village of King Island makes a pilgrimage to the city, arriving about July 4 and remaining most of the summer.

The natives, a clean, industrious and healthy lot, make the trip of approximately 100 miles in boats which they build from the hides of walrus. Seven of these boats carry the whole population, including all their possessions.

The King Islanders are clever carvers. Arriving in Nome with several tons of ivory, they carve the rough tusks into cribboards, gavel, forks, knives, spoons, umbrella handles, hatpins and numerous other things. The merchants and people of Nome patronize them liberally, so that the camp usually collects thousands of dollars during the season, and these profits they put back into circulation by purchasing supplies for the next winter.

These Eskimos enter the summer athletic contests at Nome and often develop athletes of ability. At other times they provide entertainments with their orchestra.

TURKEY FACES PROBLEM SETTLING COUNTRYMEN RETURNED BY GREECE

Constantinople, Sept. 12.—Turkey has a hard problem on its hands in the 350,000 Turks sent back to Turkey from Grecian territory in exchange for the 2,500,000 Greek subjects ejected from Asia Minor.

There is a lack of funds to indemnify the Turks who came back home and no money to erect houses and put them back on the land in Anatolia.

"Turkey for the Turks" still continues to be the slogan of Nationalist politicians. Anatolia has been torn by war for so many years that it offers poor returns to Turks who had been more fortunately located in Macedonia and other parts of Greece.

AUSTRALIA STUDIES CLOSELY IMMIGRATION CONTROL

Melbourne, Sept. 12.—Members of all parties in the commonwealth parliament are watching with keen interest the way America is meeting its immigration problem. Although it is recognized that the question of Asiatic immigration is not exactly similar to the issue of European immigration to the United States, all the effects of the Johnson bill, including the Japanese exclusion measure, are looked on as test cases which one day may be applicable to Australia.

Supporters of the "white Australia" policy protested warmly recently against the increasing numbers of Italians, Czechoslovakians, Maltese and other European nationalities who have been pouring into the commonwealth to fill the labor demand in the sugar and cotton fields. This was the policy on which Sir Henry Barwell, ex-premier of South Australia, practically lost the election for the National party in that state

WATER FILLED CAVE IN UTAH Baffles Local Explorers

Salt Lake City, Sept. 12.—Exploration of a large unnamed cave near Navajo lake, southern Utah, has been begun by a party of Cedar City residents. Recently five men, wading in water sometimes three feet deep, penetrated the cave for 300 feet, but they were forced out by lack of oxygen.

The entrance, about five feet in diameter, was discovered several years ago. Just how far back the cave runs could not be determined by those in the exploration party, but in some places inside it was 50 feet from the floor to the roof. When more suitable equipment is received a more thorough survey is planned.

HOME FOR HOMELESS SHELTER PRINCE REARED INN PALACES

Budapest, Sept. 12.—Among the dwellers in an old military barrack turned over to the homeless in this city, is Prince Abdul-Kadir, a son of the late Abdul Hamid, deposed sultan of Turkey.

The prince is about 46 years old. He occupies four rooms with his wife, two sons, his mother-in-law and his secretary. His former numerous retinue now has shrunk to a negro servant, a maid and a cook.

Abdul-Kadir is pressing his suit against the Turkish government for the recovery of his share of the Abdul Hamid wealth, which was sequestered by the young Turks when the sultan was deposed.

The favorite amusement of Abdul Hamid's son is playing the violin, at which he has been practicing since he was six years old. Those who have heard him perform assert that he plays well.

In his younger days Abdul-Kadir obtained a diploma as a mechanical engineer. He is trying to obtain employment in his profession with a Budapest manufacturer.

MINSHEW-RICKS

Beautiful in its simplicity was the marriage at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Ricks near Pantego on Thursday morning at 10:30 when their daughter Blanche, became the bride of Mr. W. R. Minshew of Greenville. The home was tastefully decorated for the occasion with cut flowers and potted plants and in the living room where the ceremony was performed, an improvised altar was very beautifully arranged.

At the appointed hour with Mrs. C. L. Ricks as accompanist, Miss Mildred Johnson of Pantego very charmingly sang "I Love You" and "At Dawning." The maid of honor, Miss Rachel Ricks, sister of the bride entered alone and was the only attendant. She was very becomingly robed in a frock of orchid crepe chignon with silver lace and carried an arm bouquet of Russell roses.

The bride and groom entered together and were united in marriage by Rev. D. W. Arnold.

The bride wore a very becoming suit of tan skin perfecta brown, trimmed with tan pink and accessories to match and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and swansonia.

Mrs. Minshew is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Ricks of Pantego and is very popular throughout the state. She was educated at the Greensboro Women's College. Mr. Minshew is the son of Mrs. Bettie Minshew of Eureka, N. C., but at present holds a position with The Merchants Produce Co. of Greenville. He was educated at Trinity College in Durham and is a member of the Trinity chapter S. P. E. fraternity.

Immediately after the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Minshew left for a tour of Western North Carolina, after which they will make their home in Greenville.

5 Operations—15 years suffering with constipation—Kellogg's Bran restores health

Mr. Laneing's case is typical of thousands of others. He found permanent relief from constipation in Kellogg's Bran because it is ALL bran. Nothing but ALL bran can be 100 per cent effective. Read what he says:

Dear Sir:
I have been afflicted with constipation for the past 15 years, and during that time I have been in four different hospitals and submitted to five different operations that were the result of constipation. I was getting so bad that every meal I ate soured on my stomach. Two months ago I was advised to eat your Kellogg's Krumbled Bran. I tried it, as I was trying everything I could hear of. From that day on I have never taken a physic. My stomach does not sour any more and my bowels move regularly morning and evening. Yours sincerely, Frank Laneing, 1895 Justice Ave., Marion, Ind.

For permanent relief, eat Kellogg's Bran regularly. Two tablespoons daily—in chronic cases, with every meal. It is guaranteed to bring results, or your grocer will return your money.
You will like the delicious nut-like flavor of Kellogg's Bran—so different from ordinary bran, which are unpalatable. Eat Kellogg's Bran with milk or cream. Sprinkle it over other cereals. Cook it with hot cereals. Try it in the recipes given on the package.
Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, is served by leading hotels and clubs in individual packages. Made in Battle Creek. Sold by all grocers.

COTTON LETTER

New Orleans, Sept. 12.—Market bulged this morning owing to better cables than due and because of rather general rains over the western half of the belt especially in Texas where the precipitation was heavy over the northern half of the state, but the release of Government pars for Sept. 16, higher than for Sept. 1 influenced general liquidation, as it is generally believed that the next Government report due Sept. 23 will likely show but little change compared with the recent forecast for a yield of 12,787,000 exclusive of linters.

While it has generally realized that the rains will curtail picking and ginning perhaps lower the grade, the belief prevails that the rains all so late will help late cotton materially and probably add to size of the crop. However, there is much late cotton this year and it is probable that the size of the crop as the Government report stated, will be determined by the date of the frost.

Sentiment remains generally bearish in anticipation of the probability of a bearish consumption report next Monday and probably another bearish Government forecast on 23rd.

The British board of trade report for August reported exports of yarn there to have been 12,000,000 pounds against 13,000,000 last year and cloth 374,000,000 yards against 330,000,000 last year.

Compared with last year the southern market during the past week 349,909 vs. 296,000 since August first 935,000 against 1,039,000 of American cotton spinners of the world took 180,000 the past week against 131,000 last year, since August 1, 753,000 against 728,000. Exports of raw cotton from the United States this week were 83,000 last year 38,000 since August first 377,000 vs. 352,000. The world's visible supply of all kinds today is 2,078,000 vs. 2,063,000 last year of which 1,100,000 is American against 1,149,000.

STRATEGY WINS AUTOGRAPH FROM RUDYARD KIPLING

Burwash, England, Sept. 11.—"H" is not the only letter which is frequently silent in English; "W" also is often lost, especially in proper names, as in Burwash, which is pronounced Bur'ash. Knowledge of how to pronounce the name of this town recently won an enterprising woman an autograph letter from Rudyard Kipling, the most celebrated resident of Burwash. Failing to get an audience with Kipling the woman wrote a parody on one of his poems and mailed it to the poet. In the parody she rhymed words with Burash which showed she knew how to pronounce the name correctly and Kipling was so surprised that he mailed her a letter of thanks.

Czechs Revel in Cherries.

Prague, Sept. 12.—Czechoslovakia has had a bumper crop of cherries. The fruit has been for sale on every street corner of Prague, and at very low prices. The streets became so littered with cherry pits that there was complaint, and the police installed receptacles.
