KU KLUX KLAN PARADE WILL FEATURE EVENING'S PROGRAM AT COUNTY FAIR

Big County Race Will Take Place Friday Afternoon; Fair Proving Enjoyable With Large Crowds Attending

The Klu Klux Klan parade will pass Five Points this evening at 8 o'clock on their way to the Pitt County Fair Grounds where they will present a program which will be a feature of this evening's events. They will be led by a twenty-four piece Klan Band. Upon their arrival at the Fair Grounds the Fiery Cross will be displayed and many other attractive features will be presented.

Wednesday, the second day of the Fair, again attracted large crowds. The midway proved very popular with its many amusements and riding devices.

In the afternoon the races again featured the program. On Friday afternoon the most enjoyable races of the week will be witnessed and at this time the county races will take place. Every one desiring to do so can participate. Enter your horse and see her win.

Large crowds are in attendance today and the Fair is proving a most enjoyable event.

Bishop Darst Confirms Three Candidates at Splendid Meeting

The Rt. Rev. Thomas C. Darst, D. D., preached last evening at St. Paul's Episcopal church one of the most beautiful and eloquent sermons ever heard in this community. He took as his text the incident recorded in St. Mark 14:3, where the woman broke the "Alabaster box of ointment of spikenard very precious" and poured it upon Jesus' head.

The church was filled with an audience that paid rapt attention to the very end.

At the conclusion of the sermon, the Rev. James E. W. Cook, Rector of St. Paul's Parish, presented three candidates for confirmation, and they received "the laying on of hands" by the Bishop.

St. Paul's church has shown consistent growth this year, and the Bishop said last night that it stands at present at the top of the churches in the Diocese for the number of additions in 1924.

Girl Recovers After Swallowing More Than 1000 Metal Objects

Saginaw, Mich., Oct. 16. — Mary Doe, 15 years old girl in whose stomach physicians found 1200 metal objects, including coins, metal washers, safety pins, crucifix, chains, brooches and bolts, was discharged last night from the hospital. Physicians say that the girl has completely recovered.

Intelligence tests to which the girl was subjected show, according to physicians, that she is now wholly normal mentally. This, medical men assert, indicates that her apparent subnormal mentality at the time of the operation was the result rather than the cause of her diet.

METHODISTS ON OCTOBER 15 WILL HONOR BISHOP ASBURY

Washington, Oct. 16.—A bronze statue of Bishop Francis Asbury, pioneer Methodist in this country, will be erected here with appropriate ceremonies Oct. 15. Augustus Lukeman, of New York, is the sculptor. Representatives of various Methodist churches over the world have been invited, and a reception will be tendered them on the eve of the unveiling.

The statue, which is to cost some $60,000, has been cast in bronze and will portray the militant bishop seated on a horse, with saddle bags containing books and articles of clothing, as he traveled in the flesh from the coast to the western edge of the wilderness, preaching the gospel.

Francis Asbury came from England to America in 1771, by appointment of John Wesley, to do missionary work.

CONTRACT LET FOR NEW ELEMENTARY SCHOOL IN CITY

C. B. West Construction Company Awarded Contract, Bid Being $37,890.00

Another step in the enlargement of the Greenville City Schools was taken this week when the contract was let for the new elementary school in West Greenville. The contract was let to a local man, The C. B. West Construction Company. His bid was $37,890.00. This bid was two thousand dollars cheaper than that of any other bidder. The next lowest bid was that of the Hancock Davis Construction Company of Beaufort, N. C. Their bid was around $39,800.00. There were 14 bids all told, and they ranged in price from $47,000.00 down to the bid taken. The letting took place in the High School Building. Wilson Berryman and Kennedy of Raleigh, Columbia and Gastonia are the architects. Mr. Berryman was present at the letting. The building will contain eight classrooms, offices, library, and assembly hall seating 250. It will be built of Norwood faced brick, two stories high, and is a very handsome building. The building will be located on a lot facing Chertnut street. The school board had formerly purchased an entire block of land upon which to erect this building. The building will be completed by July 1, 1925 and will be used for the school term beginning Sept. 1925. The school board feels that it is very fortunate in securing a low bid on the building. Now that this contract has been let, the school board will turn its attention to the enlargement of the present high school, with the idea in view of finally developing a Junior and Senior high school on the site of the present Senior high school. The architects are now working on plans for this enlargement, and definite announcements in regard to this will be made at a later date, when the board has had time to study the proposition more in detail. When the present contemplated expansion has been worked out, the Greenville schools will have an equipment unequalled by any town in the state, size being considered.

ALASKA VALLEY CELEBRATES FIRST DECADE OF FARMING

Anchorage, Alaska, Oct. 16.—The Susitna Valley is celebrating with an exhibition and fair its first decade of agriculture. In the ten years since the launching of the Alaska Railroad project by the government, sufficient land had been brought under cultivation to assure a display equal to that of many northwestern states. Following the usual history of pioneering, the city dwellers gradually are acquiring partly developed homesteads and acreage, and a forward movement in agriculture has resulted.

ONCE ROYAL COACH SHELTERS HOMELESS FAMILY OF PRAGUE

Prague, Oct. 16. — There is, in the outskirts of Prague, a settlement of poor families living in discarded railway carriages. Among these coaches is what remains of the luxurious private car of the late Empress Elizabeth of Austria, who was murdered at Geneva in 1898.

"America" Sung in Belfast.

Belfast, Oct. 16. — For the first time in the history of Belfast "My Country 'Tis of Thee" was sung publicly here. The occasion was a luncheon tendered by the City Harbor Board in honor of the officers of the United States destroyer Billingsley in connection with that vessel's first visit to Belfast.

FIRST PHOTOGRAPH OF DISASTROUS RUSSIAN FLOOD.

The most disastrous floods in Russia for the past hundred years nearly inundated Leningrad (old St. Petersburg) and for a time cut the city off from the rest of the world. At points the water was 12 feet over the city. This photograph shows one of the business streets, covered with debris, after the water had partially subsided.

PASSENGERS TELL STORY OF FLIGHT OF GIANT ZEPPLIN

Dr. Eckener Expresses Belief That Achievement of ZR-3 Will Lead to Airship Line

Lakehurst, N. J., Oct. 16.—While the whole world marveled at their feat the 31 members of the party that traveled from Germany to America in the ZR-3, today enjoyed their first full day's rest since leaving Friedrichshafen last Sunday.

They spent the evening calmly telling the story of their flight in phrases that seemed commonplace when compared to the magnitude of their accomplishment. While they talked they enjoyed their smokes, a pleasure that was forbidden aboard the airship because of the fire danger.

The German crew that guided the giant ship on its epoch making flight left the huge craft with reluctance. They were fond of the craft with the fondness of a mariner for a vessel that has brought him safely to port.

Dr. Hugo Eckener, who commanded the vessel on its voyage, was so enthusiastic over the accomplishment of the craft that he expressed belief that it would lead to the establishment of a regular line of airships carrying passengers and freight between Germany and America.

GERMANS CALL FOR LIGHT ON WHO STARTED THE WAR

Muenster, Westphalia, Germany, Oct. 15.—That the allied governments deliberately kept their people ignorant of the Russia, Austrian and German publications of official documents pertaining to the circumstances leading to the outbreak of the war, is charged by the sixteenth Congress of German State Archivists held here recently. Furthermore, it is alleged that the allied governments refuse stubbornly to open their state archives for scientific research work as to the diplomatic string-pulling behind the scenes, previous to the war.

In the manifesto, unanimously adopted by the assembly, the French colleagues of the archivists have been called upon to come out of the dark and contribute their share to the enlightenment of the world at large as to the real causes of the war, for the sake "of justice and the establishment of unbiased truth."

WALTER JOHNSON MAY MOVE WEST

Idol of Washington Fans May Not Be On Roster of Senators Next Season

Washington, Oct. 16.—The major post season problem of the World Champion Senators—whether Walter Johnson is to be on next season's roster—remained unsolved today.

"Old Barney" who has been Washington's pitching mainstay for 18 years and dean of American League hurlers, announced that he intended to purchase an interest in some minor club, preferably in the Pacific Coast League, so as to give his family a permanent home. His family's off-season home has been at Reno, Nevada, and now that some of the children are of school age the ace of pitching aces feels he should settle down in the west.

Immediately upon his return from a barnstorming trip Monday Johnson was called into a meeting of the club to discuss plans for 1925 but after hours of discussion no conclusion was reached. No date has been set for further consideration of the plans but indications are that it will be resumed soon.

Philadelphia Club Pays $100,600 For Baltimore Pitcher

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 16.—Robert M. "Lefty" Grove, Baltimore International League pitching ace, was sold to the Philadelphia American League club today for a sum announced by Manager Jack Dunn to be $100,600. This price tops by $100 the former record sum paid by the New York Yankees to the Boston Red Sox for Babe Ruth.

SENATE COMMITTEE BEGINS PROBE INTO CAMPAIGN FUNDS

Nelson Testifies Third Party Expenditures $155,062

Chicago, Oct. 16.—The La Follette-Wheeler organization has collected a total of $190,535 in its presidential campaign and has expended $155,062. John M. Nelson, campaign manager, testified today before the Senate investigating committee.

Chicago, Oct. 16.—Information as to funds collected and distributed by the three major political parties, Democrats, Republicans and Independents, was sought today by the special Senate committee investigating campaign expenditures. The committee is headed by Senator W. E. Borah, of Idaho, who demanded a detailed financial report from the three national organizations. These were prepared for submission at the first sitting of the investigation.

Besides Borah, Senators Cawaway, of Arkansas, Baird, of Delaware, Democrats, and Shipstead, Farmer-Labor, of Minnesota, are on the committee.

SKELETON OF MASTODON FOUND UNDER CITY STREET

Denver, Oct. 16.—Eighteen feet below the surface of a street here recently a laborer unearthed bones that were pronounced by scientists to have been part of the skeleton of a mastodon. The teeth and jawbone were intact.

J. B. Figgins, director of the Colorado Museum of Natural History, hazarded the guess, that the bones were about 2,500 years old. Mr. Figgins said science never had found a complete skeleton of a mastodon, but had pieced together parts found, using the proportions indicated.

REVIVAL SERVICES TO BEGIN IN COURT HOUSE ON SUNDAY

Bishop Darst Conducted Service for Federation This Morning; Rev. V. P. Scoville to Preach Opening Sermon of Revival

Bishop Darst conducted services for the Men's Federation this morning at their regular morning service. He brought a wonderful message to a large audience.

The Men's Federation is busy making arrangements for the revival services which will begin in this city on Sunday afternoon, October 19, in the court house. The Rev. V. P. Scoville will preach the opening sermon, while Mr. John Clark will have charge of the music.

The revival will not, in any way, conflict with the Sunday services in the various churches. Services will be conducted in the churches as usual but will be of an evangelistic nature. On Wednesday evening, all churches will unite with the Federation in their service in the court house.

For the past several weeks members of the Federation have been carrying the announcement of the revival to all parts of the county. Large crowds are expected to attend the great results are looked for. The leaders for the first week's service will be announced later.

Everybody that can and will sing is invited to attend and sit in the choir. Seats will be arranged and the Federation is anxious for a large choir as it adds so much to the success of a revival. Use your talent for the glory of God by complying with this request.

The public is cordially invited to attend every service.

Two Drowned When Auto Goes Into River

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 16.—Lieutenant W. B. Buchanan and Rudolph Leckner, seaman first class, both attached to the Naval Base here, were drowned this morning when the sedan in which they were riding plunged through the rail of the Churchland bridge into 16 feet of water on the western branch of Elizabeth river.

HUNGARY SEEKS EXECUTIONER WITH SET OF STEADY NERVES

Budapest, Oct. 16.—Although ruthless cutting down of expenses has emptied many a government office, and civil servants still in municipal employ cling tightly to their jobs, the Hungarian government has been obliged to advertise in order to fill one vacancy, that of hangman.

"A young, sturdy man with strong nerves," is asked for to replace Michael Bali, who is retiring after 30 years service and means to live in ease with his large family on the small estate he has purchased at Fad, near Budapest, out of his earnings. Bali is suffering from rheumatism in his right hand, and feels it is time to make way for a younger man. He is famous for his gentle treatment and compassion for the condemned, and his last consolation always consisted in a whisper "It does not hurt and will soon be over."

Services at Cannon Swamp.

The regular Thursday night services at Cannon Swamp will be conducted at 7:30 this evening conducted by members from groups six and seven of the Federation with Mr. S. T. Hicks, leader.

Work Completed in 34 Days After Contract; Other Towns Considering Making Applications for Greenville's Service

Following a fire which destroyed the Robersonville power plant several weeks ago, the officials of that city contracted with the Greenville water and light commission to supply them with power.

At the time of the application the wish was expressed that power be furnished within sixty days, thinking that if the work was accomplished in that time that an unusual task would be performed.

Despite the inclement weather during September and the first week in October, (Supp. M. Swartz immediately begun work on the seven mile line and on last Saturday night thirty-four days from the signing of the contract, the city of Robersonville again enjoyed electric lights, power being furnished by the Greenville plant.

Jamesville, a town north of Robersonville, has made an application for power from the local plant and the local commission has the application under consideration.

The quick service which Robersonville received is due to the determined efforts of Mr. Swartz who was anxious to accomplish the work as quickly as possible.

There are rumors that other towns and small cities have under consideration the making of applications to Greenville to furnish power.

At an early date officials of the towns that Greenville is now serving and those that have applications under consideration will be guests at an oyster roast given by the local commission at which time they will be given an opportunity to make an inspection of the local plant.

Baby Clinic Held High School Bld'g. Farmville Oct. 10

On October 10th the first of a series of Baby Clinics was held in the High School building in Farmville. This clinic was arranged by the Maternity and Infancy Department of the Pitt County Health Department. The school authorities made the announcements from time to time. The Parent Teachers Association assisted in informing mothers with babies to come to the clinic and have their children weighed, measured and general physical examination made. Dr. Byrd, a child specialist of the State Board of Health was present. Dr. D. S. Morvill, one of the local physicians, and the Health Officer assisted him. There were present 35 children, all under the age of six years. The majority were babies under two years.

Mothers were advised as to the condition of their children. No treatments were given. The idea is to find any trouble with the child while it is young and have it remedied so when it reaches school age the child will be in as near perfect physical condition as possible. This work was put on because the physical condition of the school children in Pitt county was found to be about one half as good as it should be, this causing repeating grades in school, which is a deplorable condition.

Ford's Withdrawal Clears the Way for Action by Congress

Washington, Oct. 16.—The withdrawal by Henry Ford of his bid for Muscle Shoals, clears the way, Representative Kearns, Republican, Ohio, declared today after a visit at the White House, for disposition of the plant through a commission as suggested by President Coolidge in his message to Congress last December.

ELECTRIC RAILWAYS OF PREDATORY BUS DECRY COMPETITION

Atlantic City, Oct. 11. — Charges that many bus line promoters are exploiting the public and "shaking down" electric railways were made in a report drawn by electric railway executives and read to the American Electric Railway Association convention by G. A. Richardson, general manager of the Chicago surface lines.

"The spirit of promotion, or exploitation, prevails in most motor bus developments," the report declared. "Public enthusiasm over gasoline-driven vehicles is clouding sound judgment. Many bus lines are being developed solely to force purchase by an established railway, others to promote bus sales." That electric railways use buses in supplemental service was recommended.

"The rapid development of the automobile started a new wave of promotion and speculation in transportation," the report continued. "From the irresponsible jitney has grown the motorbus, and because of the enthusiasm over a new idea in transportation having a real semblance of value, destructive competition has been freely established and publicly welcomed."

"The situation in many cities must develop towards and economical coordination of all essential public carriers."

"It is highly improbable that buses can ever operate at a cost as low as that of a street car with fixed charges left out. Under comparable conditions the bus is not able, on either congested or free streets, to operate at so high a speed as the street car. In the relative use of street space, for each passenger served, considering area of vehicles and speed of movement, street cars are approximately twice as efficient as buses."

"Bus operation that competes with street railways is manifestly wrong. Any bus system operating in or adjacent to metropolitan areas served by street cars is competitive."

"Since buses operate on public streets without being charged for paving maintenance and installation cost which the street railways bear, they are collecting a higher fare with a very low investment, and are rendering only such service as is profitable, leaving the lean lines, light hours, and most of the service in inclement weather to be furnished by the railways. Destructive competition of this sort is totally unfair and unjustifiable."

"Competitive conditions in transportation should not be permitted, since the riding public must pay a higher cost due to duplication."

Swedish Steamers To Increase Service Across the Atlantic

Stockholm, Oct. 9. — Encouraged by the fact that the total gross income of the Swedish merchant marine last year rose to $86,000,000 as against $60,500,000 during the previous year, and that the total foreign trade of Sweden rose to a value of $661,700,000, an increase of more than 9 percent, a number of Swedish shipping companies have taken definite steps to start new passenger and freight services on overseas routes, especially between Sweden and ports in North and South America.

The Svea Line, which has hitherto piled its trade chiefly between Sweden and England, will start a new regular freight service to North America, and has just purchased two steam vessels in England and a 7,200-ton seagoing motorship in Sweden for the service. The Swedish North Star Line, usually known as the Johnson Line, is increasing its fleet in transoceanic service, and has just ordered from the Gotaverken shipyards in Gothenburg two motorships of 7,100 tons each, equipped for combined passenger and freight services of South America. This company already has 11 vessel-motorships in service. The Swedish-American Line, which will soon place a fourth passenger liner on the Gothenburg-Halifax-New York route, has announced that in co-operation with the Swedish America-Mexico line and the Swedish-Transatlantic Steamship Company it will hereafter operate a fleet of five fast freight ships direct between New York and Helsingfors, Finland. This company has also purchased a steamer which will run between Stockholm and Finnish ports carrying passengers bound for, or coming from, the Gothenburg terminus of the overseas route.

The Swedish merchant fleet added 5 per cent to its tonnage last year and has since been increasing through purchases and new construction, so that at the beginning of August this year it aggregated a gross tonnage of 1,369,500. The fleet now consists of 1,314 steamships, totalling 1,017,800 tons; 989 motor vessels, totalling 256,494 tons; and 702 sailing vessels, totalling 86,377 tons. The gross income of this fleet last year increased 10 percent over the previous year, in spite of the fact that the average freight rates were 10 percent lower.

Continued Good Results In Labor Situation of State

Raleigh, Oct. 15. — Fair weather brought continued good results in the labor situation over the state during the week-ended Saturday, October 11, and the Federal-State Employment Service kept its placements for one week above the 700 mark for the fifth consecutive week, according to the compiled report of the branch offices made public here today by Commissioner of Labor and Printing M. L. Shipman, director of the Service in North Carolina.

Practically all points reported improvement labor conditions. Greensboro had a shortage of unskilled laborers and domestic workers and also reported increased mill operations which have greatly reduced in the unemployment of mill workers. Asheville reported a shortage of unskilled laborers with all other lines well balanced in the supply and demand. Wilmington was the only point according to the statements, having a surplus which was said to be small in the carpenters trade, but this was offset by improvement in the unskilled labor class.

The usual surplus of clerks was reported. According to the statement, the department placed 708 persons in employment, of which number 561 were men and 147 were women, while the registration was 634 men and 212 women or a total of 846. There were 932 calls for help, 604 for men and 328 for women, to which the department referred 770 applicants, 592 men and 178 men.

Placements were classified as follows: Skilled 132; unskilled 411; clerical and professional 33; industrial none; and domestic 132. City placements were given to be Asheville 130; Charlotte 142; Greensboro 123; Raleigh 82; Wilmington 154; and Winston-Salem 77.

Dr. R. L. Carr and Miss Elizabeth Carr, are spending today in Raleigh. Mr. and Mrs. Claude Grant went to Raleigh today to attend the fair. Mr. and Mrs. Julian White returned today from their wedding trip to northern cities.

London to Seek Holy Well of Ancient Era In Middle of Strand

London, Oct. 9.—A quest for a holy well, which dates back to the very beginning of Christianity, is shortly to be undertaken in the middle of the famous Strand, the thoroughfare which unites Charing Cross to the ancient City of London.

This holy well of St. Clement was closed over many years ago, but its exact location just behind St. Clement Danes Church, the familiar Wren structure which occupies an island site in the Strand opposite the Law Courts, is clearly indicated by an inscribed tablet. The office of works has given the necessary permission to excavate to the church authorities who, two years ago, succeeded in having thrown open to the public the ancient Roman bath, nearby, which visitors may now see in exactly the same form in which its builders left it 22,000 years ago.

History makes frequent mention of St. Clement's well, which played an important part in early Saxon and mediaeval English Christianity. Its uncovering will have a great antiquarian and archaeological interest to many who do not care a fig about its spiritual significance, although tradition has it that the waters of St. Clement's well were specially efficacious in the cure of skin diseases. Possibly the forthcoming excavation may throw new light on the uses to which it was put. One historian definitely affirms that around St. Clement's well in early Christian days newly-baptized converts went to assemble to commemorate Ascension Day and Whitesuntide.

In later times, after the murder of St. Thomas, a Becket, Archbishop of Canterbury, had made Canterbury Cathedral the constant resort of pilgrimages such as Chaucer described in the Canterbury Tales, the holy Well of St. Clement was a favorite halting place of the pious cavalades for rest and refreshment.

CHARTERS GRANTED

Raleigh, Oct. 14.—Queen's Counsel, Order of the Daughters and Sons of Esther, Incorporated, with headquarters at Smithfield North Carolina, has been issued a non-stick charter by the office of the Secretary of State. The objects of the organizations as set out in the application for incorporation, are to aid in the education of orphans and other dependents, and to help those in poor health and in distress.

The right to hold real estate at Smithfield and other places over the state for the purpose of establishing offices is reserved for the organization. Some of the incorporators are Nora A. Jones, of Raleigh; J. D. Reed of Wilson; Irene Richardson of Nashville; John D. Miller of Asheville; Henry L. Alston of Asheville; Willie A. Smith, J. L. Hall and Mrs. J. L. Hall of Smithfield, and others. Other charters issued at the same time were:

P. A. Haes Company, Greensboro, real estate, with authorized capital of $100,000 and $300 subscribed by P. A. Haes, R. C. Kelly, and C. J. Kee, all of Greensboro.

Lee Marsh Company, Charlotte, real estate insurance, with authorized capital of $25,000 and $300 subscribed by Lee Marsh, Jr., C. A. Marsh and Kate Marsh all of Charlotte.

McNeely Land Company, Charlotte, with authorized capital of $50,000 and $1,500 subscribed by T. W. Secrest, Waxhaw, G. P. McNeely and G. R. McNeely all of Charlotte.

Spiritary Dispensing Machine Co., Chapel Hill, for weighing and dispensing lards, oils, greases or other products with authorized capital of $100,000 and $400 subscribed by W. S. Robeson, John W. McCauley, D. S. Long, and R. C. Andrews all of Chapel Hill.

The Modus Recreation Club of Greensboro, with authorized capital of $100,000 and $1,500 subscribed by Steven Johnson, Louis Apollo and P. B. Cavaros, all of Greensboro.

McAlpine Recreation Corporation Crab Orchard Township, address R. F. D. No. 1, Charlotte, with authorized capital of $50,000 and $300 subscribed by W. N. and W. F. and E. G. Mullen, all of Charlotte.

Buckworth Motor Company, Waynesville, with authorized capital of $50,000 and $20,000 subscribed by P. C. Duckworth, Waynesville, E. P. Wharton and David White of Greensboro.

Amendment to charter of the Mangum Book and Stationery Company, changing the name to the "Mangum-Son & Company," Durham.

Unemployment in Italy.
Rome, Oct. 14.—Statistics just issued show that during the first four months of 1924 the number of unemployed in Italy was reduced by 224,000. This makes the country's unemployment figure about half what it was last year.

BELIEVES TANLAC SAVED HIS LIFE

"Eleven years ago," recently said David L. Ballard, well-known resident of Asheville, N. C., "while in the Philippines, I suffered a severe sunstroke, after which asthma, colds, smothering spells, stomach trouble, constipation, sluggish liver, nervousness, and sleeplessness all developed, pulling me down 25 pounds in weight and finally making my life a continual nightmare of suffering, dread and despair. I spent money right and left, only to get worse and when I took Tanlac, I was on the verge of a complete breakdown.

"I firmly believe Tanlac saved my life. At any rate, Tanlac and the Vegetable Pills wiped out every ailment, increased my weight 18 pounds, and left me in the finest condition of my life. If anybody wants to know more about Tanlac, let them write me."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Over 40 million bottles sold.

FORESTS OF EUROPE WASTED TO MEET THE BUILDING DEMAND

Stuttgart, Germany, Oct. 11.—A German interested in the lumber trade, Ernst Wiche, of Bremen, has published in a local paper a note of warning. He says Europe is wasting its lumber supplies in meeting the enormously increased demand since the war.

All the wooded areas of Europe, including Russia and Scandinavia, amount to 158,000,000 acres, and these are being cleared so rapidly, according to Mr. Wiche, that in the years to come Europe will have to import wood from America.

Airplanes Hunt Fish.

Felixtown, England, Oct. 14.—Three government flying-boats are patrolling various parts of the North Sea trying to locate fish. Their principal objective is the herring and it is believed that by spotting the shoals and advising various trawling stations the trawlers will be saved much time.

Vanguard Class to Further Kingdom of God to Apply Charter

Raleigh, Oct. 15.—What is said to be the only class of its kind in the South and so far as is known in the entire United States, will make application within a few days to the Secretary of State of North Carolina for a certificate of incorporation as a non-stock organization. The name of the organization will be the Vanguard Class and its purposes are, according to the application as prepared by the members, to further the Kingdom of God, to teach and practice Christian fellowship and to maintain churches and to carry on such businesses as the class may deem fit that will bring profits for the use in such work.

The Vanguard Class of the First Presbyterian church of Raleigh was organized in July 1904 by E. B. Crow who started teaching the class and after 20 years of service is still the teacher.

There were twelve charter members but today there are more 250 active members with associated members numbering approximately 2,000 in every part of the United States and in many parts of the world. The class pays 50 per cent of the expenses of the missionary maintained in China by the First Church.

ADVISED FARMERS TO BURN THEIR CORN

While General Dawes goes over the country telling farmers how the Republican party is going to save them by appointing a committee to investigate them, the farmers are making things rather unpleasant for him, remembering what has been happening to them while Republican Committees investigated them. They seem to have perfectly unamny memories of what happened in 1921, when Secretary of Agriculture Wallace presided over a conference to help the farmers and a commission had been at work for months presumably trying to find means of helping the farmers out of trouble.

That was the bumper crop year when, as one old farmer who came to Washington to confer with the committee said: Nero missed a treat by being dead."

Famine raged in Europe. A hundred million people were hungry. An organization headed by Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover said that 15,000,000 would starve before Spring. Children, even where enough food could be found to keep them alive, were made hopeless imbeciles for life. Secretary

Hoover said that conditions were such as to "stagger humanity" and "beyond the resources of all the available private charities of the world."

In the United States, a bumper crop was harvested. Corn cribs and wheat bins were overflowing. There was a surplus of food in the United States sufficient to fill the empty stomachs of Europe.

Secretary of Agriculture Henry C. Wallace was the man looked to for a method of disposing of the surplus of food crops. He suggested a method—"Burn it."

On November 5, 1921, Secretary Wallace issued a statement to the press in which he said: "It will pay both farmers and people in country towns to use corn instead of coal." The farmers, he said, should buy no coal and the town people "ought to buy ear corn for their furnaces and heating stoves." He even worked out an elaborate table showing the relative fuel value of corn and coal and added the pertinent suggestion: "The drier the corn, the higher its value." In other words, the best corn for making meal was the best corn for burning.

It is said that other officials of the Department of Agriculture tried to dissuade Secretary Wallace from issuing this statement, but he could not be swayed from his purpose.

It should be said to the eternal credit of American farmers, however, that few of them accepted Secretary Wallace's advice. Hard up as they were, they kept their corn in the cribs. Possibly they had some lingering hope that the administration at Washington would do something toward making this surplus of food available to the starving millions in Europe. But neither Secretary Wallace nor Secretary Hoover ever suggested that, by adopting a policy of decent cooperation with other nations, the admistration could relieve the suffering in Europe, and, at the same time, insure the farmers of the United States a market for their corn.

Europe continued to starve and the corn remained at home to ruin the men who produced it. The spirit of Nero, with a dash of spite added was alive and at work in 1921.

Mrs. Daisy Warren is moving from "West End" to her home, which she has recently bought, in "College View," on the corner of Summit and Third streets.

STEALING A HEART WITH A STOLEN DRESS

"Clothes have an influence upon character," says Vera Reynolds, the pretty Paramount actress who has an important role in William de Mille's production of "Icebound" for Paramount. This is my first small-town character part, and I subconsciously feel the personality of the girl I am portraying by wearing the kind of clothes she would be forced to don.

"Nettie, the character I play, is the kind of girl who knows little about life. She has been brought up in the severe New England farm life and has had few opportunities to bedeck herself with the little faces and bits of jewelry which means so much to a girl's heart. My costumes reflect that severity and the pathetic effort to make a brighter showing."

In "Icebound," Nettie steals a pretty dress which Jane, the leading role played by Lois Wilson, has made to wear at her own birthday party. Jane believes she can win Ben Jordan, the youngest son of the Jordans, back to farm life by wearing a bright dress. Nettie wears the dress before the party and Ben madly hugs her—just as Jane enters the room. The scene is one of the most powerful, dramatic situations in recent photo-play productions.

Richard Dix has the part of Ben, and others in the star cast are Edna May Oliver, Ethel Wales, Alice Chaplin and Frank Shannon.

"Icebound," the screen play, was written by Clara Bearger from Owen Davis' stage success, White's Theatre today.

TO THE PUBLIC.

You have responded in a most pleasing manner to our request for rooms for the teachers who will be here in November, but we still need rooms for several hundred of the visitors. If you have spare rooms and will rent same please notify Mrs. Alex Viola at the earliest possible moment.

It is indeed an honor to Greenville to have the teachers meet here and the city is delighted to accommodate them.

"The Bat" Will Be Presented Here On October 21st

"The Bat," by Mary Roberts Rinehart and Avery Hopwood, undoubtedly the greatest dramatic success in years, which Wagenhal, and Kemper will present at White's Theatre on Tuesday, Oct. 21, is making what is undoubtedly one of the most spectacular tours of the country ever achieved by a play. Absolute capacity audiences are the rule at each performance given of "The Bat" and thousands, literally, who desire to see the performance, are finding themselves unable to secure seats.

The success of "The Bat" on tour is not hard to understand. The play itself is 100 per cent entertainment. It is thrilling, mysterious, and dramatic. More, it is uproariously funny. Critic after critic has declared unequivocally that one character in "The Bat" is unquestionably the funniest character ever seen on any stage, no matter what the character of the play. And this, mind you, in a play that has been called "the greatest mystery play ever written."

Wagenhal, and Kemper have spared nothing to make this tour of "The Bat" a triumph. It is produced in splendid fashion and the cast is a notable one, including as it does, Seat sale Horne and Staton Drug Store.

30 Men Practicing For Davidson College Wildcat Track Varsity

Davidson, Oct. 15.—Thirty promising men for the 1924-25 Davidson College Wildcat track varsity are now practicing daily on the quarter-mile Richardson Field cinder path under the direction of Coach S. D. Tison, former V. P. I. athlete and assistant to head Coach Younger.

Much attention is being given to the cross country team which Davidson hopes to have this season. Williford, two milts and a god a good distance man, is making a strong bid along with a half dozen others for this squad. Some speedy dash men, according to the coach, are being uncovered here and the college hopes to have a flashy team for heavy schedule, that will be announced later.

WOMEN ARE PEOPLE

Who laugh, cry, work and play, just like the rest of us. Let's be frank about it and admit facts. The world is full of sunshine and flowers; gay, laughing people, joyous children and contented old folks. It is also full of shadows and dead leaves; hopeless drudging failures; women who toil and children and girls who labor. Every widow who toils and every child who works is the result of somebody's mistake. Somebody planned to live longer, thought tomorrow of next week would be time enough to prepare. But he was mistaken, and is now dependent upon them or is dead, but not forgotten. Don't make the same mistake. Read Claude Tunstall's health ad in today's paper and phone or write him to call to see you. Phone 75 or 280-W. He has a line of shock absorbers that will lighten the shock upon both your bank account and loved ones. Don't delay. See him for participating and non-participating Life Insurance, that protects your loved ones and insures comfort in your old age. Also health and accident that protects you. THE MORE CRITICAL YOU ARE ABOUT STYLE, THE BETTER YOU'LL LIKE

Hart Schaffner & Marx Fall Clothes

You're probably very particular about the style of your clothes; young men are especially so. They'll spend a lot of time studying the drape of a coat or the hang of the trousers.

That's all right here; the more critical you are about style the better for us; because we've got the goods.

Hart Schaffner & Marx have done a style-job for fall that's the best job ever done; and we'll show you the proof of it. But no style keeps good looking if the clothes are not made well. Here we offer all-wool fabrics and the highest grade tailoring in addition to the smartest style.

(Furnished by James William Cobb)

LIVERPOOL.

Liverpool closed steady. Jan. 1292; Mar. 1297; May 1302; Oct. 1308; Dec. 1289. Middling 1333; good middling 1378; sales 5,000. American none, receipts none.

Weather, slightly warmer over the belt no rainfall reported anywhere. Forecast—Entire belt generally fair except some rain expected in Florida.

COTTON LETTER.

New Orleans, Oct. 16. — Department of agriculture Washington wires no cotton New Orleans exchange world cotton crop for 1924-25 will be considerable larger than last year according to all reports received to date four countries. U. S., India, Egypt and Brazil produced between 85 and 90 percent of the world cotton crop. Areas planted to cotton have been increased in all of these countries and indications are that the total of the four crops will be from two to three millions bales larger than last year.

Surprisingly good opening of market 20 points up in face of disappointing Liverpool and heavy tenders New York. Strength probably on the Washington statement predicting higher cotton despite larger crop in consequence of low goods reserves or on fear of bad weather and storm warnings. Irregular trading market looked for, further bear attacks but more feeling than turning point is near and disposition to buy on reactions.

Late buying in Worth street yesterday was of very good character and much better feeling seems to prevail in dry goods centers. The market closed net 50 points above yesterday close.

Cotton Seed Oil.

New York, Oct. 16.—The technical position of the market has been strengthened somewhat by recent decline but on bulges yesterday offerings were larger. Government report is due last of week and is expected to show poor Sept. consumption of oil and an increase in the visible stocks.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Oct. 16.—Traders are beginning to realize there is a world shortage of grain and are buying on all setbacks. Much higher prices will come later on but after such an upturn as we have had past two days I would not advise following the advance further and would wait for setbacks to buy.
