LOCAL POST AMERICAN LEGION PLANNING FOR BIG CELEBRATION NOV. 11

Greenville Tobacco Market Will Observe Armistice Day; Many Important Features to Be On Program; Prominent Speaker to Deliver Address; Committees Appointed

Word was received yesterday from the Secretary of the local tobacco Board of Trade that they had voted to close the Greenville Tobacco market for November the 11th, Armistice Day. This came as a very pleasant surprise for the members of the American Legion as they had feared that it would be impossible for the local market to close on account of the schedules for the sales having already been made out. However the local tobacco board of trade has co-operated in every way to try and get the towns of eastern North Carolina close.

This action by the Tobacco Board of Trade means that the Pitt County Port of the American Legion will renew their efforts to try and make this one of the biggest days Pitt county has ever seen.

Committees to have charge of the arrangements for this day have been appointed and will get to work at once to make the necessary arrangements for a big day.

There will be a parade, an address by some prominent man and a dinner for all ex-service men who will come. It is sincerely hoped that the other business houses of the town will join the Tobacco Board of Trade and close their business for this day.

It is earnestly requested that every home and place that has a service flag will get it out and display it with pride on November 11th, 1924. It is also requested that we make this a day for the display of our National Flag and that every home, and place of business in Greenville will display the flag from their premises.

Let's have a real patriotic celebration here in Greenville such as we have never had before. The Pitt county Post of the American Legion has received a shipment of an outfit for permanent decorations for the Town of Greenville and there will be offered to the merchants some time next week. This system is known as the Shenandoah Flag Decorating System and it is owned by the merchant of the town. It eliminates the putting up and taking down of a lot of bunting and draped flags for each occasion of decorating and gives the merchant a decoration that he can put up or take down in five minutes.

This decoration consists of a four by six foot flag of high grade quality a twelve foot polished pole and a pipe set in the sidewalk just back from the curb. This pipe has a metal cap to be placed over it and when the flags are not displayed, this cap covers the hole, thereby leaving no opening in the sidewalk or obstruction in same.

Each merchant will be offered one or more of these flag outfits, according to the frontage of his place of business on the street. The outfits will be installed complete and each merchant will own his flag and pole. At any time all that has to be done to decorate the town is to remove the cap and place the flag pole in the socket. The flags can be taken down for rain to prevent draping but they are guaranteed to be fade proof.

The Legion is back of this movement to try and get rid of the unethical display of the American flag in decorations and at the same time give the town a system of decorations that have only one cost, the first, and also a satisfactory system of decorations.

It is hoped that all of the merchants will fall in line with the Legion in this matter. Some of the towns using this system are: High Point, Asheville, Winston-Salem, Charlotte, Greensboro, Raleigh, Wilson, Tarboro, and many other towns of North Carolina as well as other states.

The following committee have been appointed to have charge of the Legion is asked to attend this meeting and to dispose of some other matters and are requested to meet.

SEC. WALLACE IS CRITICALLY ILL

Lost Ground Last Night In Fight Against Toxemia Poisoning

Washington, Oct. 25.—Secretary Wallace lost ground during the night in his fight against toxemia poisoning which set in yesterday after an operation last week for the removal of his appendix and gall bladder. Dr. Joel Boone told inquirers that the patient's condition was "critical" and "not as favorable as it was last night." But he was "still hopeful."

Shortly before noon physicians said that the secretary's condition could hardly be more unfavorable, for recovery. There is still slight hope but Wallace has been unconscious since early today and the poisoning appears to have spread to all parts of the body.

The justice department will be unable to announce its conclusion before Monday and its commissioner of Revenue, Blair, announced today he would have nothing further to say.

SAILORS ON TRENTON HEROES IN DISASTER.

ENTERING TURRET & REMOVING TRENTON'S DEAD.

When the fatal blast that snuffed out the lives of nearly a score of sailors on the scout cruiser Trenton occurred off the Virginia Capes, the forward twin-mount six-inch gun turret was turned for a broadside, the entrance door hanging over the side of the ship, and several sailors being dropped overboard. This photograph, taken a moment after the explosion, shows intrepid members of the crew mounting a tiny rope ladder over the side of the ship to work the turret back over the deck and bring out the dead and injured. The other photograph shows the removal of the dead.

North Carolina 25 Years Ahead Other States in the Union

Raleigh, Oct. 25.—North Carolina is 25 years ahead of most other states of the Union in the standard of fire protection, according to Stacey W. Wade, Commissioner of Insurance of this state. The Commissioner stated that he based his assertion on the data displayed by the Fire Marshals' Association of America convention recently held in Detroit, and upon statements by fire marshals of other states who were present at the convention.

Not alone does North Carolina excel in the prevention of fire by natural causes, it was pointed out but also in the suppression of incendiary conflagrations. The department has prosecuted several cases within the past year and succeeded in finding the guilty parties. It now has several cases pending.

As a result of these standards, North Carolina, it was said, has a lower insurance rate than most states of the Union and her sister state, South Carolina, has ordered an investigation as to why there is such a difference in the rates of the two states. The authorities in South Carolina have recommended the state following such standards as are now maintained in North Carolina.

Vanceboro Farm Life School Team Defeats Greenville High

A set of plunging, hard running backs, together with a heavy, powerful line, enabled Vanceboro Farm Life School to defeat the Greenville High school in the football game yesterday afternoon by the score of six to nothing. Previous to this game, the local goal line had not been crossed this season, but a handicap of fifteen pounds per man in weight was too much, and the husky lads from Craven were not to be denied.

For the most part the game was close and well fought, the local team matching football knowledge and cunning against the sheer power and speed of the invaders. A sweeping end run for forty yards by Williams placed the ball early in the second quarter in the shadow of Greenville's goal post, from where it was carried over in a series of crashing plunges. Vanceboro failed to kick goal, and there was no further scoring, although both teams threatened.

Greenville's best chance came last in the last quarter when a series of long forward passes executed by West advanced the ball almost the length of the field, only to be intercepted by Vanceboro in the five yard line.

JOHN W. DAVIS IS CERTAIN VICTORY

Makes Flat Statement That Democratic Party Will Win In Election On November 4

New York, Oct. 24.—The flat statement that "the Democratic party will win the President election" was made last night by John W. Davis, Democratic nominee for President, upon his return here from a final campaign tour of Middle Western states. Mr. Davis, in a formal statement, declared further "that personal contact with the voters has demonstrated that they will not excuse the corruption and maladministration that has prevailed at Washington during the recent years of Republican misrule."

It was also positively asserted that in addition to the victory he claimed for the national ticket, the Democrats "will control Congress, thus ensuring putting into effect our promised reforms just as soon as legislation to that end can be framed and passed."

Among the "reforms" promised by Mr. Davis are revision of the tariff, reduced taxes, international co-operation, improved inland waterways and farm legislation.

Efforts of his political opponents to bolster up their cause by suggesting danger of the election going into the House, Mr. Davis said, had been investigated, with the result that "more than the necessary 266 votes to elect me President already are assured." That announcement was supported, he declared, by the "drift in the West and Central West."

"The Democratic party will win the President election" the statement said. "I am fully convinced of this. I make my claim only after a very careful investigation into the situation—a first hand inquiry which has taken me more than 12,000 miles. My opinion is not based on what politicians have told me. It comes from direct contact with the individual voters themselves."

National Children's Book Week Will Be Observed Nov. 11-15

The plays will be given on Wednesday, Saturday, November 12 and 15. The titles are "On Trial On Book Hill," and "Friends In Book Land."

Berlin Turns to Electric Signs. Berlin, Oct. 25.—Advertising by electric signs, which has been largely restricted in Berlin since the outbreak of the war, will be practically unrestricted hereafter. Only objections from the artistic point of view may be made, and it is hoped within a short time to restore the pre-war night activities of Berlin.

Family of Market Keeper Will Receive $1,000 From Asheville

Asheville, Oct. 25.—The widow and family of the late Carroll Clark for 16 years assistant market keeper of this city, will receive $1,000, under an appropriation made by the City Commission. The sum, it was said, will represent about one dollar per week additional pay for the late assistant market keeper. The action of the Commissioners was necessary in order that the family could profit by the insurance carried by the city for its employees, as such applies to those on the monthly payroll and Mr. Clark was on the weekly payroll. A resolution was also passed paying tribute to the character and loyalty of the deceased.

Health Work to Be Stressed Wilmington Parent-Teachers Assn

Wilmington, Oct. 25.—Health work during the coming year will be stressed by the Parent-Teachers Association of this city, it was unanimously voted at the first monthly meeting of the association held this year. The association also voted to continue the drive for fire prevention and to support the establishment of lunchrooms at the various schools of the city.

Efforts Being Made To Erect Creamery In Rowan County

Salisbury, Oct. 25.—Efforts are now being made in Rowan county to have a creamery established within its bounds and civic organizations and groups of farmers are taking particular interest in the plan which will be along the co-operative method. That the movement will likely meet with success eventually, if not in the immediate future, is considered indicative by the statement of J. A. Aray, dairy specialist of the Extension Division of the State College Experiment Station at Raleigh. Mr. Aray's statement in part follows: "I consider Rowan County from many angles one of the best dairy farming counties in the state. I see no reason why the farmer of Rowan county should not be able to establish a dairy."

RAINY DAYS ADD TO MISERY OF ENGLAND'S HOP-PICKERS

Canterbury, Eng., Oct. 24.—Hop-pickers, usually recruited from the ranks of the poorest people in England, have had a more wretched time than usual this year.

Wet weather and the continuously sodden state of the ground have produced more cases of minor illness and pneumonia than the first aid and mission hospitals on the spot could cope with, and many women and children have been severely affected by insect bites.

The bulk of them will have no employment for another year, when they will endure like hardships again to earn their pittance. They come annually to Kent to earn a few shillings a day.

During the season the market has sold 15,774,064 pounds for $3,410,536.43, average $21.60.

State's Progress Shown In Biennial Report of Dept. Labor, Printing

Raleigh, Oct. 25.—North Carolina continues its advance along commercial and industrial lines and is taking a leading position in the various manufactures as is shown by the biennial report of the Department of Labor and Printing which Commissioner M. L. Shipman is now preparing for presentation to the governor and the general assembly in January. One of the chief manufacturers now being carried on extensively and which has grown considerably in the last two years is the furniture industry.

The manufacture of furniture in North Carolina as compared with all other furniture manufacturing states of the Union, is said to rank tenth in number of establishments; eighth in the average number of wage earners; tenth in the amount paid wage earners; eighth in cost of material; ninth in the value of its products and tenth in value added by manufacture.

Agricultural Census of N. C. to Be Taken During Dec. and Jan.

Raleigh, Oct. 25.—An agricultural census of North Carolina will be taken during the months of December and January, next, along with other states of the Union, it was announced today by Frank Parker, State Agricultural Statistician. The census will be conducted by the Federal government and will include acreage, production of crops, number of livestock and certain other information such as farm values, expenses, marketing, production and tenure of farms.

The last census voted to make this census five years after the one taken in 1929, according to the announcement. This was said to have been deemed advisable due to the post war conditions existing in 1910 which gave inflated information and was not comparable with previous census results. It was pointed out that it was also thought advisable to take this census at the new time period because of the need of more frequent data becoming increasingly evident.

First Mile Sign On New Highway Has Been Erected

Asheville, Oct. 25.—Mayor Cathey and City Commissioners Comber and Bartlett on Thursday erected the first mile sign of the recently completed Asheville-Cincinnati Highway. It was the initial erection of the route guides and a truck load of signs continued on its way under the supervision of N. Duckner, secretary-manager of the Western Carolina Motor Club. It is estimated that it will require two weeks to complete the erection.

At the same time it was announced that work would be pushed during the winter months on the city recreation park and the construction of the 50 acre lake located therein.

HON. A. L. BROOKS ADDRESSED VOTERS HERE LAST NIGHT

Urges That the Proud Record of Democratic Party Be Continued by Giving Candidates A Majority November 4

Following the religious service held in the court house last night the Hon. A. L. Brooks, of Greensboro, addressed a large audience of voters.

Mr. Brooks is a very strong and pleasing speaker, he held the closest attention of his audience. Both the speaker and the audience demonstrated keen interest in the campaign now on and the election to be held on November 4. Mr. Brooks is one of the leading Democrats of the State, and at one time was candidate for nomination to the United States Senate. He is a good thinker and is blessed with well defined and strong convictions.

Among the thoughts presented were: That the Democratic party and the Republican party present different policies for government. That the Democratic policy is to have every citizen of the government-informed on government and to take a part in its administration. That the Republican policy tends more to representative government; that the Democratic policy as administered by the Democratic party has given and is giving, where in authority, the best government to be had. He presented some of the benefits enjoyed by all the people under Democratic administrations under the leadership of Woodrow Wilson, the one great citizen of the world, and his party associates. Under our own great fellow citizen, Vance, Jarvis, Aycock, Kitchin, and our present leaders Morrison, Simmons and Overman. Under guidance of the Democratic party the magnificent records made by them in serving the people. He contrasted these records for service with those made under the direction of the Republican under the leadership of Russell, Butler and others. Presenting clearly the privilege in the voters to choose the party whose record appeals to his sense of right and wrong for the greatest number.

He urged that the proud record of the Democratic party be continued by giving the Democratic candidates on November 4, the large majority which the record of that party demands of the people.

For week-end camping trips there's nothing so delightfully refreshing as the real Orange-Crush.

Here are six reasons: (1) The natural fruit oil of oranges—which gives that delicate and distinctive flavor; (2) The natural fruit acid of the citrus fruits (oranges, lemons and limes)—which gives the tang; (3) Orange juice; (4) Carbonated water—which gives "zip," sparkle, purity; (5) U. S. Certified food color—which makes it as appealing to the eye as to the taste; (6) Pure cane sugar.

Insist on the Krinkly Bottle—and order by the case.

HELP OF CHURCHES SOUGHT TO BETTER PRISONERS' LIVES

Many, Oct. 21.—Appealing to the churches of the United States to exercise a great and more constant influence upon the moral and religious work of penal institutions, Frank Moore, of Highway, N. J., president of the American Prison Association, today sent out a request that every minister in the land have prison work as a subject of at least one service on Sunday, Oct. 26.

In his message President Moore quoted statistics to show that crime in this country is increasing to an alarming degree. He pointed out that the census shows that from 1904 to 1922 this increase was at the rate of 60 per cent, and that every year approximately one out of every 600 citizens of the country erects the New Year in prison.

"If men in prison are going to be free from sin and from the fetters that bind them," Mr. Moore said, "the churches must take an interest in the prison problems of the country." It is not a question of punishment but of reformation that must be worked out in the prisons.

"There are many men in charge of the prisons of the country who are anxious to do moral work with their charges, but are not able because they do not have men and women who would be willing to work with them in reaching the individual offender. The head of a penal institution with hundreds, and it may be thousands, under him has so many duties that personal work with each individual is a physical impossibility. The church could be of valuable help to him if it would only offer its assistance.

"A new light is needed in prisons. It is the light of religion, the foundation of morality, that should be more fully let into prisons to dispel moral darkness."

THE UNWANTED CHILD TO PLAY HERE OCTOBER 30

"The Unwanted Child," the latest play from the pen of Florence Edna May, which comes to White's Theatre for matinee and night Oct. 30 is considered the most brilliant dramas produced in two seasons.

It is a play rich in humor, spiced with sentiment, bubbling with amiable philosophy and fragrant with charm. It is delightfully written and just as delightfully acted. And it creates a more convincing illusion than may be found in a dozen average good plays. Through the perfect team-work of the author and the players there are innumerable moments when even the most hardened enemy of matrimonial bonds feels that the woman might be forgiven. The "The Unwanted Child" is a radiant success.

One of the world's problems is "The Unwanted Child." The answer is found in Florence Edna May's sensational play of the same name at White's Theatre Thursday, Oct. 30. There will be a matinee each day for ladies only.

STOCK MARKET SHOWS TREND OF ELECTION

That Wall Street's optimism over prospects for the election of Coolidge and Dawes is manufactured, and that Wall Street brokers and stock manipulators themselves do not think prospects for their election are as glowing as they are trying to make the country believe is indicated by the trend of the stock market itself.

The Wall Street Journal and the Magazine of Wall Street are the voices of Wall Street. They are asserting that Mr. Coolidge and Mr. Dawes are certain of election, and the Magazine of Wall Street is conducting a "poll" by which it is attempting to show that Coolidge's election is assured.

In a recent publication of its "straw ballot" the Magazine of Wall Street showed that of the total number of "straw votes" received, 88 per cent cast for Mr. Coolidge, ten per cent for Mr. Davis and two per cent for Senator LaFollette. In the main, the Magazine of Wall Street's circulation is made up of stock brokers, speculators and others who think and act as Wall Street thinks and act, and can't see beyond the confines of the Street. Their interests are the opposite of the interests of the great mass of the people, and it may be accepted as a general truth that what they favor, the great majority of the people oppose, and what they oppose, the great majority of the people favor.

The tabulation of votes the Magazine of Wall Street received from southern states is of itself proof that the poll does not reflect the opinion of the country. It shows that of 167 votes received from southern states, in which there is almost no Republican party, Mr. Coolidge received 113 to only 44 for Mr. Davis and only 5 for Senator LaFollette. Any southern tabulation that shows a Republican candidate receiving nearly three times as many votes as the Democratic candidate discredits itself.

That Wall Street's hard-headed bankers, brokers and stock traders do not actually feel the optimism they profess concerning the election of Coolidge and Dawes is indicated by the trend of the stock market.

Ordinarily, stocks are at their lowest prices during August. Especially is this true when general business conditions in August are bad. They usually work toward higher level during September and October, when production is usually on the increase. This year, production and employment reached during July and August the lowest ebb touched in a year or more. But during those months, the stock market was strong and prices of stocks were high. The Democratic campaign had not gotten under way, and Wall Street was confident the November election would be a mere ratification meeting for Mr. Coolidge. But during September and October, when both production and employment showed slight gains, due largely to seasonal conditions, and when the stocks would have been expected to work to higher levels, there was a quite general slump in their prices. This could not have been due to anything but a growing conviction on the part of Wall Street that there was a popular swing to Davis, and that the election of Mr. Coolidge and a continuation of an administration devoted above all other things to the interests of big business, as typified by Wall Street, was no longer certain.

If Wall Street had actually felt the optimism it professed over the prospects for the election of Coolidge and Dawes, than whom it has never had candidates more in conformity with its own interests, or more subservient to its will, with production and employment on the upward trend during September and October, the Wall Street stock manipulators would never have permitted stock prices to work to lower levels.

Straw votes, by their very nature, are non-reflective of popular sentiment. Many of them are intended to deceive, and are manipulated for that purpose, as was disclosed during 1912 when partisan-manipulated "straw ballots" indicated the re-election of President Taft by a large majority.

There are a number of straw ballots being taken now, most of them in the interest of the Coolidge ticket. The Literary Digest is expending approximately a half-million dollars in conducting such a poll now, showing the candidate it favors far in the lead. It is being openly asserted that in some of the polls, Coolidge ballots are being held back, to be counted during the concluding days of the campaign in an effort to show a swing to him, indicating his election and thus attempting to catch the "bad wagon" vote.

Democratic headquarters at Washington has issued a warning to Democrats and independent voters not to be deceived by this sort of propaganda, and to remember that the same thing was done in 1912, indicating a huge plurality for Mr. Taft, who actually became the worst beaten candidate of any major party ever making the race for the Presidency.

THE KING'S DAUGHTERS' CONVENTION

At the 35th annual convention of the North Carolina branch of the King's Daughters and Sons, held in Wilmington Oct. 9-10, the following short history was given by Mrs. D. Y. Cooper, of Henderson, of its work for the past 22 years, during the term of office of the retiring president Mrs. Wm. H. S. Burgwyn. "In 1902 the circles united for the first time in State work, and the part which they have played in the establishment of the Stonewall Jackson School, with other deeds of love, constitute the report herewith appended. The King's Daughters feel pardonable pride in the part they played on urging successfully, the men of the State to establish the Stonewall Jackson School.

They became experienced in lobbying at the Capitol during sessions of the Legislature, and refreshed the memories of the lawmakers during vacation, by sending them literature about reform schools. The legislature in 1907 granted the charter of the school, to the women of the State, appointing as Trustees Mrs. Stonewall Jackson, Mrs. Wm. H. S. Burgwyn, Mrs. I. W. Faison and Miss Easdale Shaw.

"The King's Daughters have erected buildings at the school costing $15,000.00. The first structure on the ground was the King's Daughters Cottage. The North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs generously contributed $1,000.00 towards this object. There is a marble tablet on the wall of the cottage recording this gift. This was followed by the erection of the beautiful chapel in memory of the work of the leader, Margaret Burgwyn, and a bridge spanning the highway, both of stone, the latter commemorating the North Carolina boys in the World War. The first one from this State to fall on the Hindenburg line was Daniel Poplin, a boy from The Stonewall Jackson School. We have also sent contributions to a hospital in Lucknow, India, where women are trained as physicians, to minister to their own sex. We are now collecting funds for a Chapel at Samaracand. Hand-some gifts have been received from individuals and churches. It will be called "The Chapel of the Cross," and in its service will be held by ministers of the various churches. Mrs. Burgwyn was re-elected treasurer for this special fund."

Speaking of the convention Mrs. Cooper wrote: "The convention with the kindness and hospitality of the Whatsoever Circle, Wilmington and with several fine speakers, was one of unusual interest and pleasure. Each circle lovingly and tenderly expressed appreciation of the faithful and efficient services of the retiring president and the convention presented her with a handsome bouquet of roses, and made her honorary president for life. The following officers for the ensuing year were elected, Mrs. J. P. Cook, Concord, president; Miss Easdale Shaw, Rockingham, Vice-president; Mrs. Richard Williams, Greenville, Recording Secretary; Mrs. Z. A. Rochelle, Durham, treasurer. Two new members were elected to serve on the executive committee, Mrs. Lawson, Chapel Hill and Mrs. Burgwyn, Raleigh. The convention feels that they have made a wise selection of officers. The president is well known for her faithful service in this Order, and for her charming personality, also through her distinguished husband, the Hon. J. P. Cook, who is chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Stonewall Jackson School. The Vice-President and Recording Secretary have ably filled those places for many years and their re-election was unanimous. The Treasurer has given evidence of her business capacity in the "Sheltering Home" circle, Durham, one of the largest in the State. Invitations for the next convention were extended by Salisbury, Raleigh and Henderson. The one from Salisbury was gratefully accepted." — News and Observer.

Walker, pastor of the Woodland Street Christian Church, Nashville, Tenn., and a former pastor of the Eighth St. Christian Church, this city, will be interested to learn that he has been chosen as head of the Ministerial Alliance for the city of Nashville for the coming year.

In a letter received by a friend, Mr. Walker writes interestingly of his work, expressing his love for the Greenville people, with whom he labored so faithfully and untrigingly and wishing for them every success in their Christian endeavors.

During his ministry in Nashville the work of Mr. Walker has been wonderfully blessed. A Sunday School from 80, six years ago, has grown to 400; while the church membership has grown from 181 to over 500.

While in Greenville the Rev. Mr. Walker was beloved by a host of friends of all denominations, who will be glad to know that he is meeting with such a success.

and attended our Sunday regular and you will grow with it. All teachers and officers are requested to be present at least fifteen minutes ahead of time. A cordial invitation is extended all visitors to meet with us.

JOINT MEETING OF SOCIETIES OF EIGHTH STREET CHRISTIAN CHURCH

A joint meeting of the Missionary and Aid Societies of the Eighth Street Christian church will be held on Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the church. This is an important meeting and Mr. Sadler wishes to speak to the members. The executive committee of the Missionary Society will meet at 3 o'clock at the same place.

SUPT. OF MEMORIAL BAPTIST S. S. URGES LARGE ATTENDANCE

Our Sunday school last Sunday proved to be one of the most enthusiastic and profitable meetings we have had for a long time. Increased attendance made the provision of additional rooms necessary and the school voted unanimously to appoint a committee to take immediate action. This committee composed of C. W. Schuff, chairman, Dr. Joe Smith, Mrs. Albion Dunn, Mrs. Lula Fleming and Miss Louise Goggins. They have met, perfected their plans, and will make a definite report tomorrow morning. Every member is urged to be present, on time, tomorrow to hear this report and help in carrying on the progressive program outlined for our school for the coming year. To enjoy our Sunday School most each member will have to do some personal work during the week, and attend the opening exercises which begin promptly at 2:45 o'clock. I urge that every member make it a point to telephone or go to see someone and invite them to meet with us. I am expecting a record-breaking attendance tomorrow and feel sure that I will not be disappointed. Pray for work tomorrow.

COTTON LETTER

In keeping with general expectations, returns to the government as of October 18 averaged higher than for October first and ginnings to 18th were larger than generally looked for.

Government crop condition Oct 18, 54.7 against 47.8 last year.

Indicated yield per acre no report vs. 128.1 pounds.

Crop 12,675,000 vs. 10,248,000. Ginned to Oct. 18, 7,609,827 vs. 6,400,391.

Final ginning, question vs. 10,140,000. Per cent ginned to Oct. 31, question vs. 63.

As was to be expected, since the indicated crop and ginnings were somewhat larger than generally expected, market declined with release of Government reports. Compared with indications as of Oct. first, the crop forecast as of Oct. 18, is only 178,000 bales larger, 12,075,000 vs. 12,490,000.

Inasmuch as returns to the Government were based on conditions as of Oct. 18, since which date rather general light to heavy frosts, in some instances freezing temperatures and killing frosts, have occurred over the greater portion of the northern half of the belt where it could do most harm since the crop is all but picked already in the southern half of cotton region, it is a question of considerable damage was not done to late cotton, in which case the indicated yield might be smaller today than returns of 18th pointed to. At any rate the cold wave has likely put an end to further making by the plant.

Present prices are about 8 cents per pound, or about $40 per bale lower than last year and about 15 cent per pound lower than the peak of last season, which discounts, in a large measure, the larger crop, as the trade, because of the larger supply and much lower prices, will probably take care of this year's crop at prevailing, if not at a higher price eventually. Under the circumstances we favor buying especially on depressions now.

MILTON SILLS IN POWERFUL ROLE

One of the strongest roles of his long career as an actor is that of Calvin Gray, played by Milton Silles in Richard Watton Tully's picturization of Rex Beach's thrilling novel of the oil fields, "Flowing Gold," the First National picture playing at White's Theatre Monday only.

Silles needs no introduction in any city or village where a motion picture theatre exists. He has won a place in the hearts of theatregoers perhaps enjoyed by no other male star.

He was born in Chicago, and was educated there, receiving the A. B. degree from the University of Chicago, besides studying for two years in the Graduate School of Philosophy. In fact, he resigned a fellowship in philosophy to enter upon a stage career, and enjoyed tremendous success upon the stage prior to his work in pictures, having been leading man for Belasco, Frohman, Shubert and Brady.

MR. HENRY FLEMING OF A. C. COLLEGE GIVES TALKS ON GHANDI

Wilson, Oct. 24. — Mr. Henry Fleming, a member of the Hegesian Literary Society of Atlantic Christian College, recently gave a talk upon Ghandi, the leader of the opposition to British rule in India. In Ghandi's efforts to obtain self-government for his people, of whom he has three hundred million followers, he opposes all violence and teaches a policy of non-resistance. He holds that the "Sermon on the Mount" is practical statesmanship.

Mr. Fleming also gave a sketch of the life of John W. Davis, Democratic candidate for Presidency of the United States.

At the close President Hilley suggested that speakers for the other political parties be heard at some future time.
