DEMOCRATIC VICTORY IS ONLY HOPE FOR THE FARMER SAYS DAVIS

Democratic Nominee Says Unrest Will Continue Until Voice of Farmer is Listened to By Government

New York, Oct. 29.—In his second statement outlining campaign issues John W. Davis, Democratic presidential candidate, today declared that unrest of the part of the nation's farmers will continue until their voice is listened to at the White House and in Congress with the same attention given the voice of the banker and industrialist.

"The policy of the Democratic party," Mr. Davis said, "is to readjust the balance and put agriculture where it belongs—on an equality with industry." The nominee declared in that connection that such a program would be put into effect if he was chosen president on November 4 and was given the support at the same time of a Democratic House and Senate.

Mr. Davis asserted that "all the Republican party has offered the farmer is a promise to call a commission to investigate him again while the Democratic party on the other hand has a definite program by means of which it expects to restore to the farmer the economic equality of which he has been unjustly deprived."

"The outstanding economical problem of the hour," Mr. Davis said, "is to make the purchasing power of the farmer's dollar equal to that of the manufacturer's dollar. That is nothing more than a way of saying that there is no more pressing duty resting upon the government of the United States than to organize the economic life of America so that the American citizen can earn on the farm a living in keeping with America and its traditions."

"The Republican administrations during the last generation have represented the government by industrial blocs. Granting undue preference, and subsidies to industry by Republican administrations has forced the farmers into an abnormal struggle to get a fair hearing in Congress. The farmers of this country are not mendicants and are willing to take the risks that attend their all important calling but they are entitled in return a government genuinely interested in their problems to keenly serve them to the limit of their power. The farmers feel more severely than any others the effect of discriminatory taxes. Goods which they sell in a large measure are sold on the markets of the world but those which they buy consist largely of manufactured articles heavily protected behind a Republican tariff wall. Farmers therefore have been forced to contribute a profit to the industries with no compensated benefit to themselves."

"The Republican agricultural program is composed of just three planks. First is the reminder to the farmer that 'God helps only those who help themselves'; second; they tell the farmer that curtailed production is the remedy; remedy number three is that they will have a commission of impartial experts and economic advisors, to consider the agriculture situation and report. The farmers of the country have been investigated during the last three years, first by Congress itself for six long months, then by an agriculture conference of experts called by President Harding, then by the Department of Agriculture and today all the Republican party has to offer the farmer is the promise to call a commission to investigate him again.

The Democrats on the other hand have a definite program by means of which it expects to restore to the farmer the economic equality of which he has been unjustly deprived."

'WEARER OF GREY' DIES IN RALEIGH

Colonel Peter McWilliams Dies at Old Soldiers' Home Following Stroke Last Night

Raleigh, Oct. 29.—Colonel Peter McWilliams, 80, inmate of the Confederate Soldiers Home here, died early today following a stroke of apoplexy last night. He had been in apparently good health and was about the city yesterday.

Colonel McWilliams served in the War Between the States as a member of Company K, Hoke's Division of Second North Carolina Regiment. He was wounded in battle.

After being mustered out of the service Colonel McWilliams worked as acrobat and clown in a well known circus for a number of years. He had been in the soldiers' home here for about 10 years.

It was said of Colonel McWilliams that he has not missed a general reunion of Confederate Veterans since the war. At most reunions of late he has served as color bearer. The remains will be carried to Aurora, N. C., for burial.

BRITISH ELECTION BEING HELD TODAY

Political Observers Will Not Venture to Predict Outcome of Balloting

London, Oct. 29.—Great Britain's voters, went to the polls today to choose a new Parliament to replace that dissolved at the instance of the laborite Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald on October 9 following an unfavorable vote in the Commons.

While some laborites still express confidence that the result will show the people favor their remaining in power the general opinion was that the government would be repudiated. The respective strength of the parties in the new House however, was a subject upon which no political observer would venture to give a public prediction. Only the returns will tell whether the conservatives have been able to regain a majority over all other parties necessary to put them back in office and bring to an end the arrangement whereby they and the Liberals until recently allowed the laborites to run the government.

Up until a few days ago public interest seemed apathetic but the sensational hour publication of the alleged Zinovieff letter urging British Communists to intensify propaganda and organize the units within the British army and navy served to fan the sentiment against the laborites because of their repudiated lenient attitude toward the Communists.

U. N. C. and U. S. C., to Stage Football Game Saturday

Chapel Hill, Oct. 29.—The Universities of North Carolina and South Carolina will meet here on Emerson Field Saturday to stage their annual battle for football honors.

It looks like a mighty close match. Last year North Carolina defeated the Gamecocks 13 to 0 at Columbia, S. C., but comparative scores of the two teams this season indicate the score will be even closer. If the games both teams have played with N. C. State be taken as a criterion, one might judge that the two teams are equally matched this season. South Carolina has defeated N. C. State 10 to 0, while the Tar Heels won from N. C. State by the same Manchester, N. H., would be shut down Friday night until Wednesday morning and tuck affair is in store for Saturday.

MEN AND WOMEN IN THE NEWS SPOTLIGHT

Mrs. Mabel Willibrandt & Jacques Lebaudy

Resignations of four United States district attorneys already have been asked, Attorney General Stone said in Washington, sent the letter written by Mrs. Mabel Willibrandt, of Ohio, in charge of dry law enforcement, to the Philadelphia Law Enforcement League, in which she said some district attorneys were not enforcing the prohibition law properly. Speaking on the charge that while Vice-President Calvin Coolidge demanded $250 to address a patriotic meeting, Thomas Riley Marshal, vice-president under President Wilson, said in New York that he received $250 for lectures and that he had to take the money, "steal or resign." Rorer Sudreau and his wife, Jacqueline Lebaudy Sudreau, daughter of the so-called "Emperor of the Sahara," Jacques Lebaudy, who was killed by his wife in their Long Island, N. Y., home several years ago, have had their American estates tied up in a suit for $133,755 filed by Emil Beside, of Paris, who alleges he holds notes for that amount. Jacqueline Lebaudy inherited the millions of her father, Mike McTigue, world's champion light heavyweight declares he will sue the New York State Boxing Commission for $250,000 because they refused him a license to fight for one year.

Unfamiliarity With Boll Weevil Costing Farmers Time, Cash

Raleigh, Oct. 29.—Unfamiliarity with the boll weevil is costing the farmers of North Carolina a great deal of time and money and at the same time cause confusion and needless worry, according to Professor Frank Lin Sherman, chief of the Division of Entomology of the North Carolina Experiment Station.

Numerous mistakes are made by many farmers from all over the state each year, says the entomologist, and points to the record which his department has kept since 1903, the year in which he received the first "bogus boll weevil" from a reporting farmer. From that year until 1919, when the weevil really made his first invasion of North Carolina there were 45 mistaken boll weevils sent to the department, Mr. Sherman asserted, but from 1919 to 1924 there 210 insects received by the department that were not boll weevils.

Among the insects sent as boll weevils and are far from it, the following were given: Stalk-weevil of the cockle-bur, black grain weevil, pine-infesting weevils, nut weevil, cowpea pod weevil and many others.

The cowpea pod-weevil, Professor Sherman explained, does attack young cotton plants and often kills the tender stems. Many times, he says, farmers have sent specimen of this insect and starting that the boll weevil had killed the young cotton.

Very few boll weevils survive the winter, according to the entomologist, and in order to do so they must be old and have a hard shell.

"As the people become more familiar with the boll weevil and its work, there should be fewer errors in identifying it," asserted Professor Sherman, "but as yet the errors are still numerous and are causing the farmers expense and worry that are unnecessary."

Employment During Last Week Showed Falling Off, Report

Raleigh, Oct. 29.—Employment through the State Federal Employment Service during the week ended Saturday, October 25, had falling off from its high record of the previous month, however the cause is not placed upon the lack of positions but the lack of those to fill them, according to the weekly statement compiled by the director, M. L. Shipman, commissioner of Labor and Printing.

Greensboro reported that there was plenty of work for both skilled and unskilled workmen especially along the building and road construction lines. This city also reported that there was plenty of work for stenographers, "Drifters" seemed to the greatest menace to the Greensboro employment situation, according to the report.

Placements by cities were: Asheville 132; Charlotte, 98; Greensboro, 118; Raleigh, 51; Wilmington, 97; and Winston-Salem, 77.

Witnesses Declare Republicans Paid to Have Lines Favorable to Coolidge Included in Vaudeville Sketches

Washington, Oct. 29.—While bankers and captains of industry waited in the wings for further questioning the Senate committee investigating the campaign funds today switched its spotlight on the delegation of actors who recently called at the White House to pledge their support to President Coolidge.

Reinald Waldo, former police commissioner of New York testified that a Coolidge non-partisan league of which he was the head had paid the expenses of the actors during their trip to Washington. From Gilson Gardner, Washington newspaperman was heard the suggestion that Republican money was being used to secure lines favorable to Coolidge in various vaudeville sketches. Gardner declared that early in September William Burch, of Washington, representative of the McCutcheon-Kerson Syndicate a subsidiary of Shubert Theatrical Corporation, called upon him and offered to sell to the LaFollette organization for $50,000 a publicity proposition which would include lines worked into the vaudeville programs favorable to the candidate.

"The song man told me that he would prefer to sell the scheme to LaFollette because they sympathized with his views," Gardner said, "and would be willing to sell it to LaFollette at a lower figure than to either of the two old parties." Gardner said he declined the offer telling Burch that that was more money than LaFollette had. "I judged they sold the proposition to the Republicans when I heard about the actors calling at the White House including Al Jolson, John Drew and Charlotte Greenwood, all mentioned in connection with the offer," declared Gardner.

From that the committee moved on to charges of efforts being made to hire labor men to take the stump for Coolidge. Henry Ramm, railroad fireman, of Lawrence, Mass., a LaFollette supporter, testified that H. T. Drew, former supporter of LaFollette, had offered him $11 a day and $11 daily for expenses to support Coolidge and make speeches for him. He said Drew promised to redeem bills for $1,000 more than expenses and that $250 would be placed in his hands at once. He quoted Drew as saying that money was no object. Similar offers, Ramm declared, were made to other railroad men at Lawrence and that one had accepted it.

R. Dwire, chairman of the city school board; music leaders from throughout North Carolina.

Argentina to Welcome Settlers From Europe

Buenos Aires, 28.—With the tide of European emigration setting toward South America, the Argentine government has taken steps to make some of its most desirable and still largely uncultivated territory more easily available for colonization. Under a bill now before congress large extensions of idle lands, mostly held by wealthy individuals and located near railroad lines, would be expropriated and sold or leased to farmers in parcels. The refusal thus far of many of these great land owners to sell their properties, or even a part of them, has long been cited as an obstacle to colonization and the economic growth of the country. Their policy has been to keep their estates intact and rent lands on a percentage basis of production, a system which has not proved attractive to the ambitious immigrant, since the largest benefit goes to the land owner. With an appropriation of 100,000,000 pesos annually, the bill would authorize the government to expropriate 50 percent of these idle estates for colonization, the land owner having the privilege, however, of evading expropriation by assigning 50 percent of his property for the same purpose under conditions fixed by the government. Lands owned by some of the provinces would be similarly expropriated.

Jewel Worth $35,000 Used for Years As Paperweight

London, Oct. 27.—Declared to be the largest sapphire in the world, a jewel, once used as a common paperweight, has been brought from India and is now being offered for exhibition in London. The jewel is worth more than $35,000, weighs 16 carats and is in the form of a plucked flower with a short stem. It was acquired by a government official in India who, ignorant of its value, used it as a paperweight in one of the guard huts on the Indian frontier. The discovery of the jewel was made by the director of Indian Revenue when he visited the outpost. Its history has been traced to the twelfth century when one of the Bellala kings, while on a pilgrimage to Ceylon, was given the sapphire by a Buddhist monk. During the reign of this king the stone became the object of much veneration and was afterwards captured by Malik Kafur, the great general of Allaudan. Later it came into the possession of a state official, but was lost about 1875. Experts are of the opinion that the jewel was a hair ornament of an ancient deity and there is, it is believed, a companion stone in existence.

Heavy Profits Realized By Dealers in Old Prints

London, Oct. 28.—Old Japanese prints, as a result of the Japanese earthquake, are becoming so scarce in London, formerly their greatest market, that the prices have more than trebled during the last six months. The collections of the London art dealers are nearly exhausted and the hitherto enormous stocks of the famous Japanese collections no longer exist. Specimens of the best schools are no longer obtainable, and so much in demand are the rarer types that dealers in this little heard of trade are buying all available prints even before they reach the auction rooms. There are at present less than 300 of these old prints in London, according to Japanese experts. The result is, they say, that there are many prints being offered today whose antiquity does not predate the earthquake, and many have been sold here and on the continent as genuine, whereas they are not worth more than a few pence. For several years before the war about 4,000 old prints annually were sent from Japan to be sold in London. Despite this large number, it is estimated that one-half of the existing prints more than 400 years old were destroyed in the quake. Among them was one by Hokusai for which $1,500 was paid in London just after the war. The British Museum now possesses the finest collection of old Japanese prints outside Japan, largely collected during the Russo-Japanese war.

Scene from "The Unwanted Child White's Theatre, Matinee and Night, Thursday, October 30.

CHINA WORKS ACTIVELY TO PREVENT FAMINES

Peking, Oct. 25.—A report recently issued by the engineering department of the China International Famine Relief commission, organized four years ago as a result of the great famine in central China, gives the following interesting data as to preventive work done in conjunction with the American Red Cross: Two thousand miles of new road were built and 750 miles of roads repaired. The total cost of this work was over $4,000,000, Chinese currency, or about $2,000,000 gold. In regions subject to drought, approximately 25 miles of irrigation ditches were constructed, at a cost of $51,000 and over 370 miles of drainage ditches, were dug or cleaned at an expense of $220,000. Five hundred miles of river dykes were built or repaired, entailing an outlay of more than $500,000. Wells were sunk to the number of 6,672, at a cost of $405,000. In addition the commission contributed $360,000 toward the work of confining the Yellow River to its channel at Lichin, where it had broken its dykes and flooded the surrounding country.

ENGLISH VIEW WITH ALARM PASSING OF THE OLD LANDMARKS

London, Oct. 25.—Modernizing English towns at the expense of historical monuments is being condemned throughout the country by civic societies and persons interested in keeping together the glory that was England. This post-war unrest is particularly shown in smaller towns, where the authorities are destroying buildings and other historical monuments to make wide roads, parks and other necessities of modern municipal planning. The secretary of the Society for the Protection of Ancient Buildings, has addressed a protest to the prime minister and will seek to have a bill against allowing the destruction brought before parliament. Several famous buildings have been destroyed during the last year, it is stated in the letter to the premier, including the sixteenth century court house at Barking. The society is also endeavoring to limit the destruction of ancient bridges which is going on over the country to meet the needs of the present day heavy traffic.

WINTERVILLE NEWS

KIDD-WHITFORD.

A wedding beautiful in its simplicity was solemnized in the Winterville Baptist church on Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock when Miss Ora Whitford became the bride of Mr. J. B. Kidd, of Greenville. The church was lovely with its decorations of pot plants and cut flowers. A beautiful musical program was rendered by Mrs. R. E. Davenport. Just before the ceremony Mrs. R. T. Cox sang "I Love You Truly" in her usual charming manner. Rev. R. H. Lucas, of Ayden, performed the ceremony very impressively. The bride and groom entered to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march while Mendelssohn was played as a recessional. The bride was becomingly attired in a traveling suit of navy blue with gray accessories. The happy couple paused in the vestibule to receive the congratulations of their host of friends, after which they left by automobile for Greenville where they took the train for Mount Airy to visit relatives of the groom. After their return to Greenville they will be at home in their new residence on Fourth street. Mrs. Kidd is the only daughter of Mrs. Reppie Whitford. She possesses fine traits of character and is held in high esteem by all who know her. She will be greatly missed in both religious and social circles. Mr. Kidd is a postal employe of Greenville, and a gentleman of sterling worth.

Miscellaneous Shower for Miss Whitford.

On Tuesday evening at six o'clock the home of Mrs. B. F. James was a scene of both mystery and beauty. At which time she delightfully entertained at a miscellaneous shower complimentary to Miss Ora Whitford, whose wedding took place on Wednesday afternoon. At the door the guests were received by a witch, who might easily have been a contestant with those existing in the days of Salem witchcraft. She ushered them into the living room where they were asked to register and write some wish for the bride-elect. From there they were invited to the dining room where amid the weird shadows caused by the flickering of an open fire, ghosts were gliding noiselessly around serving delicious refreshments. While all were reassembling in the living room the hostess sent for the bride-elect, who was ushered in by the witch and led to the proverbial "pot", and given a stick with which she was asked to stir the broth. Instead of broth she found it filled with numerous packages of various shapes and sizes. On opening these she found they contained many lovely and useful gifts for which she graciously expressed her appreciation.

The hall, living room and dining room were beautiful with decorations of cut flowers, autumn leaves, soft shaded lights and burning tapers, while every where you saw black cats, pumpkins, bats or something equally as suggestive of Hallowe'en. The hour to leave came all too soon, and the guests bade the charming hostess a reluctant good night.

Mr. Joe Kittrell Dead.

Sadness cast a shadow over our entire community Saturday afternoon when a telegram was received announcing the death of Mr. Joe Kittrell. He was thirty-one years of age and the son of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Kittrell of this town. His home was in Norfolk but he had been an invalid for sometime and was in Strawberry Hill Sanatorium near Asheville when the end came. Every thing that medical science and loving hands could do was done but nothing could stay the hand of the grim reaper. His body reached here Monday morning, and interment took place at four o'clock that afternoon in the cemetery here. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. B. Nobles. The floral tribute was beautiful, a silent tribute to the high esteem in which he was held. He was a member of one of the Baptist churches in Norfolk. He is survived by a heart-broken wife and two children, his father, mother one sister and two brothers who have the sympathy of a host of friends.

BOSTONIAN HELPS RESTORE FAMOUS ENGLISH CATHEDRAL

Lincoln, England, Oct. 23.—The fund for the strengthening and repair of Lincoln's glorious thirteenth century Gothic cathedral has been increased by a donation of $25,000 from A. Farewell Bemis, of Boston, who has long been interested in the work which has been going on here for the past several years.

It was discovered ten years ago that Lincoln Cathedral, the Angel Choir of which Ruskin declared to be as fine a piece of thirteenth century architecture as the world holds, was in danger of collapse. Great rifts and cracks in the towers and walls of the fabric were traced to an unusual phenomenon in England. This was an earthquake back in medieval times, whose ravages on the cathedral structure were not disclosed until a few years ago.

The work of strengthening this medieval fabric is accomplished by pumping liquid cement into the cracks and fissures.

Gained Ten Pounds

Mrs. George S. Hunter, of Columbus, Ga., says she suffered severely with female troubles.

"I had to go to bed and stay sometimes two weeks at a time," says Mrs. Hunter. "I could not work. My... were irregular and I got very thin. I went from 126 pounds down to less than 100. My mother had been a user of and she knew what a good medicine it was for this trouble, so she told me to get some and take it. I sent to the store after it and before I had taken the first bottle up I began to improve. My side hurt less and I began to mend in health. I took four bottles in all during the last ten months. Cardui acted as a fine tonic... I am well now. I have gained ten pounds and am still gaining."

Your children's food

The foods your children eat today, determine their strength and health in later years.

Remember this; they must have well balanced meals. Their food should contain the right amount of mineral salts. These salts act as bone building material.

Bakings that are made of good plain white flour and baking powder contain the necessary amount of mineral salts. Allow your children to eat heartily of these bakings together with fruits and dairy products. This forms an ideal food balance.

When making quick rising breads and pastries such as: biscuits, muffins, cakes, waffles, etc., don't fail to use Calumet—the economy Baking Powder. It contains 3 more than the ordinary leavening strength—it's the purest and surest leavener made. That's why it helps make your flour foods light and easily digested.

Millions of mothers use Calumet daily because they are interested in their children's welfare—their present and future health.

JOHN W. DAVIS' CABINET

Some of the Republican campaigners are inquiring who would be in the Cabinet in the event of John W. Davis' election to the Presidency.

It isn't possible to predict who will be in the Cabinet, but it is possible to say who won't be there. Albert B. Fall will be among the missing, and so will Harry Daugherty. Neither will Edwin Denby answer the roll call, nor Mr. Secretary Wilbur, nor Mr. Secretary Work nor the former Assistant Secretary of the Navy, Mr. Roosevelt. Nor will any tool of the oil interests or other enemies of either conservation or good government have opportunity, with Mr. Davis in the White House, to be either a rubber stamp, messenger boy, dumb-bell or deputy dumb-bell for Mr. Sinclair, Mr. Doheny or any land-grabbers.

Mr. Davis' cabinet will be 100 per cent honest, not 70 per cent, and if dishonesty or faithfulness to the public service should crop out, Mr. Davis won't wait for the Senate to ask for resignations.

BETTING ODDS ARE INTENDED TO DECEIVE

Voters will not be deceived by straw ballots and long betting odds. Not only do they not win elections, but they are a part of the propaganda of Republican managers and particularly Wall Street, which always supports the Republican ticket, in an effort to deceive the voters.

Wall Street gamblers have been "trimmed" in their election betting before, and will be again. But they never offer the long odds that are reported to be offered, and when they do offer heavy odds to make a Republican Presidential candidate the favorite, they don't put up much money. Most of their bets are "mind bets." For instance, with reports coming from New York that odds of 4 to 1 were being offered on Coolidge to win, a Washingtonian recently went there with $10,000 to lay on Davis. Brokers interviewed didn't have the money about which so much boasting had been done, and before the Washingtonian got through "backing down" the brokers and their clients, the odds had dropped from 4 to 1 to about 3 to 2.

No such odds as 4 to 1 on Coolidge exist, and reports to that effect are simply propaganda, and without basis. It may be recalled that during the Democratic convention, odds of from 15 to 1 to 10 to 1 against John W. Davis winning the nomination were reported. But Mr. Davis was nominated.

In 1916 odds in Wall Street favored Hughes to win over President Wilson. They varied from 3 to 1 to 5 to 3 and many 5 to 4, but President Wilson won with a plurality of approximately 600,000 votes.

Some will recall that in 1904, Judge B. Parker was a strong favorite over President Roosevelt to carry New York State, but President Roosevelt carried the state by approximately 175,000 votes.

Straw votes go wrong almost as often. The Literary Digest is trying to convince the country, by the "straw vote" process, that President Coolidge is going to win. The Digest has been wrong before. In 1916, when President Wilson and Charles Evans Hughes were running for the Presidency, the Digest took a stray vote. It indicated that Mr. Hughes would get 63 per cent of the popular vote. He got 48 per cent, an error of 15 per cent, or enough to change almost any election result, short of a terrific landslide. If the Digest's 1916 "straw ballot" had been a true indication of how the actual votes would be cast, Mr. Hughes would have had a popular plurality of about 4,500,000. Actually, President Wilson had a plurality of about 600,000 and got the electoral vote of 30 of the 48 states.

Among other gates in which the Digest took its straw ballot in 1916 was Ohio. If the Digest's poll had been an accurate index as to how the vote would be cast, Mr. Hughes would have carried Ohio by a plurality of approximately 135,000. But President Wilson carried Ohio by approximately 90,000 votes.

The same prophets who are now forecasting the election of President Coolidge predicted in 1912 that President Taft would be reelected, and that Mr. Wilson would be third, as Colonel Roosevelt, they said, was going to take most of his votes away from the Democratic candidate. Mr. Taft actually carried Vermont and Utah and got eight electoral votes. Colonel Roosevelt split the Republican party wide open, and got more votes than Taft.

Senator LaFollette has torn the G. O. P. into two parts this year, just as Colonel Roosevelt did in 1912. With the situation so similar to that of 1912, it is plainly apparent that the straw polls and long betting odds favoring President Coolidge are false propaganda, intended to deceive.

SHOW THAT PLAYED TWO YEARS AT BOOTH THEATRE, NEW YORK, IS COMING

An event of more than passing interest to local theatregoers is the announcement that John Golden's latest, and the best of all his prodigious successes of the past few years, "The Unwanted Child" will be the attraction at White's Theatre November 3rd.

The play comes here direct from a record run of two years at the Booth Theatre, New York.

Anstin Strong, author of "The Unwanted Child," also wrote "Three Wise Fools" for Mr. Golden. The fame of this latter play is international, for it ran a season in London at the same time that it was rolling up a year's record at the Christian Theatre, New York. He is the talented nephew of the illustrious Robert Louis Stevenson and possesses much of that famous writer's sense of romance and adventure.

It is in the casting of his plays that John Golden makes especially good with his public. No finer group of well balanced players have ever been seen than in his companies which made successes of the world's record play, "Lightnin'". "The First Year", "Turn to the Right", "Three Wise Fools", "Dear Me," and "Thank-U." And a glance at the list of players for "The Unwanted Child" convinces one that he has again lived up to his rule of "the best players available."

Among the players who will be seen in the play in this city may be mentioned Remy Carpen, last seen in this city in "Thank-U." John W. Ransome remembered here for his impersonation of the father in "The First Year." Douglas MacPherson, good citizenship, they must arouse Mat Briggs, Mona Morgan, Ruth, "him" to his civic responsibility, Mrs.

Morris, Gale Gordon, James New-Sherman asserts. Voting is a duty come, John MacSweeney, Homer Hunt, Robert A. Bennett and others.

"THE UNWANTED CHILD" AT WHITE'S THEATRE

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 3RD

Florence Edna May's most distinguished success "The Unwanted Child," the sensational "woman's play" which set the theatrical world talking and theatre-goers to buying seats to see it over and over again, comes to White's Theatre for one day, Thursday 30, matinee for ladies only.

"The Unwanted Child" is in four acts, laid in the country and in New York and concerns persons who meet, look and love; the man a member of society, the girl quite the other end of the social ladder. The story of their love is told by Miss May with a force and frankness so direct, the play is produced by the Unity Play Company with such exquisite delicacy, and the portrayal of its heroine is done with such a depth of understanding and emotion that the performance takes rank as one of the most notable in recent years. Seats for the engagement go on sale at the Horne and Staton Drug Store. Popular prices will prevail.

WOMEN TOLD TO VOTE NOV. 4 OR CREASE ALL COMPLAINTS

Chicago, Oct. 24.—The 3,000,000 women in the General Federation of Women's clubs were urged to vote in the November election by Mrs. John D. Sherman, their president, in a statement given out in this city. If any of them has a voting impersonation of the father in "The First Year." Douglas MacPherson, good citizenship, they must arouse Mat Briggs, Mona Morgan, Ruth, "him" to his civic responsibility, Mrs.

best possible demonstration of good citizenship.

"The woman who does not take the trouble to go to the polls on election day certainly should never raise her voice in protest over anything that goes wrong in Washington or her own state capital," said Mrs. Sherman. "By her vote she earns the right to an expression of opinion in national and state affairs."

Mrs. Sherman said that without question the American family controls the future of America, but she asked how much does the family care about that proposition when less than 50 per cent of the registered voters went to the polls at the last presidential election.

SCREEN LESSONS PLANNED FOR FARMERS OF FRANCE

Paris, Oct. 25.—The cinema world has offered its services to aid in the campaign against the high cost of living now being made by the French government. The president of the association of cinema directors, Leon Brezillon, has offered the use of 8,000 screens to educate the farmer and convert him to improved ways of raising food-stuffs.

Mr. Brezillon, as an example of what might be done, suggests that the poor ear of corn as raised in the eastern provinces of France, which counts hardly 50 grains, might be contrasted on the screen with those from the Beauce country, which have three or four times as many. He would show also the latest forms of machinery for cultivation, and the most profitable methods of raising poultry.

END OF CENTURY CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. WOOTEN

The End of the Century Club held a very delightful meeting at the home of Mrs. J. L. Wooten, on Green street, Tuesday afternoon, with 14 members present.

After a short business meeting, Mrs. R. R. Cooten urged every member to go to the polls and vote on November 4th. Miss Sallie Joyner Davis gave in her usual charming manner, a most interesting description of her trip through Alaska and Western Canada. The Club has adopted "Arm Chair Travels" as their program this year.

Mrs. W. A. Brown gave the most important current events, and the club adjourned to meet on November 4th with Mrs. Richard Williams.

THE ROUND TABLE MEETS.

In one of the most delightful meetings of the year the members of the Round Table Club come together on Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 28, in the home of Mrs. Paul Fitzgerald, where the spirit of Hallowe'en prevailed in the decorations, which lent a glow of warmth and beauty.

Our president Mrs. Claude Grant presided and at the close of business, placed the meeting in the hands of Mrs. Luther Herring who announced "Stimulating Lives" as the subject for the day.

Mrs. Milton White, under this subject gave a paper on Edward Bok, that not only gave an insight into his wonderful resourcefulness, but her interpretation of his personality was inspirational.

Mrs. C. J. Ellen gave a most interesting paper on Helen Keller, in which was demonstrated the most extra ordinary triumph of individual education that has ever been achieved.

After these papers Current Topics given in answer to roll call made an agreeable feature.

Mrs. Fitzgerald's guests on this occasion, whom all enjoyed were Mrs. W. D. Pruitt, Mrs. J. E. Nobles, Mrs. Edward Wardroper, Mrs. R. G. Fitzgerald and Mrs. J. D. Rogers of Danville, Virginia. A beautiful salad course was the closing feature of the meeting.

FOX FARMERS GUARD CAREFULLY THEIR STOCK AT NEXT CONVENTION

Minneapolis, Oct. 28.—Live silver black foxes valued at approximately $1,500,000, representing the pick of these animals from ranches in all sections of the United States, will be shown at the expedition to be held in conjunction with the convention here of the American National Fox Breeders association, Nov. 17 to 22.

Special arrangements for the handling and housing of the animals will be made. Their sly cunning and craftiness, together with their pecuniary worth, makes the task of caring for these valuable foxes a delicate one.

Three men prominent in the fox fur industry have been selected as judges for the show. They are Albert Frazier, American representative in New York of a London fur concern; J. A. Bossack, of New York City, and Dr. William A. Young, Booneville, N. Y., fox breeder.

PRESIDENT COOLIDGE & SERVICE FOOTBALL CUP.

President Coolidge is shown here with the silver long cup he has presented to be contested for annually by football teams composed of the enlisted personnel of the Army and Navy. The game this year is to be played in Washington on November 22. The President will attend and present the cup to the winning team.

SOUTHERN CHAPTERS PLANNING ROLL CALL SHOW BIG INCREASE

Two hundred twenty-nine Southern Division Chapters have reported that they are organizing for the Roll Call. At this time last year only 84 Chapters had reported. Fifty of these Chapters have voluntarily accepted goals higher than those of last year, the total increase being 22,600 members.

The Southern Division is basing its hopes for the best Roll Call since the war on these facts, and on the realization by Chapters that no plan of campaign will take the place of a systematic house-to-house solicitation.

Plans have been completed for personal visits to 513 Chapters in the Division by the use of Volunteer and special workers, in addition to the Field Representatives and members of the Division Staff. Many Chapter workers have also volunteered to visit other Chapters in their vicinity and assist them with the organization of their campaigns.

The organization in Pitt County is nearly completed. Roll call chairmen and their committees have been appointed in most of the towns and by the end of this week the whole county will be ready for the roll call.

Miss Moxley will assist in organizing Williamston, Martin county, for their roll call.

The production costs of a new record will be much lower than for the five minute-records, it is alleged.

ARMENIA EAGER TO ENCOURAGE HER FARMERS TO GROW COTTON

Erivan, Armenia, Oct. 24.—American methods of cotton-growing are being introduced into Armenia. A new cotton factory equipped with modern American machinery has just been completed in Erivan. At the present time more than 40,000 acres of cotton are under cultivation. This is 40 times greater than the acreage under cultivation in 1921. The Armenian government expects this year to produce 30,000,000 pounds of raw cotton. One factory in Erivan has an output of nearly 2,000,000 pounds a month.

In order to encourage farmers to cultivate their own cotton fields, the government is allotting them large quantities of free seed. The government pays $2.75 for 40 pounds of the raw material. The present average yield is about 1,000 pounds an acre.

(Furnished by James William Cobb Weekly Government Weather and Crop Report Week Ending October 28th.

Washington, Oct. 29.—Heavy to killing frost was quite general over northern half of the cotton belt but damage was slight and only local. Leaves were rather widely killed over northern portion but because of the general dryness temperatures were not low enough to materially harm immature bolls though further growth arrested. In many places frost was rather beneficial than harmful and bolls have opened rapidly since its occurrence except for rains the last few days in Georgia and Carolinas this made fourth week of unusually favorable weather for picking and ginning in practically all cotton states with nearly uninterrupted progress throughout October. Only scattered fields remain unpicked in Georgia. Harvest finished in large areas in southern South Carolina, picking nearing completion in Alabama and Mississippi; practically done in Louisiana as well as in East and Southern Texas.
