

MOB VIOLENCE BREAKS OUT OHIO TOWN

MARTIAL LAW DECLARED NILES OHIO AS RESULT KLAN WARFARE THERE

Street Clashes Between Ku Klux Klan and Knights of Flaming Circle Result From Opposition to Klan Parade

Niles, Ohio, Nov. 1.—Two men were killed and four wounded here today in clashes between the Ku Klux Klan and anti-klan forces arrayed against each other here this afternoon. All the killed and wounded were adherents of the anti-klan factions.

Niles, Ohio, Nov. 1.—Warfare between the Ku Klux Klan and the Knights of the Flaming Circle resulting from opposition by the latter to plans for a parade through the city streets this afternoon by Ku Klux Klan blazed in a series of street disorders today in which four men were shot and three others injured by mob violence.

Niles, Ohio, Nov. 1.—Three men were shot in the third outbreak of the day in the community strife raging about a parade of the Ku Klux Klan scheduled for 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Joe Mabone, Dominick Terone and Arthur Davis, all members of the Knights of the Flaming Circle opposed to the Klan, were shot from an automobile about half a mile from an outlying ball park where several hundred Klansmen had assembled for the parade.

Major Christie of the Youngstown unit of the Ohio National Guard immediately wired Governor Doney urging that troops be sent to Niles at once.

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 1.—One regiment of Ohio National Guard was ordered mobilized for duty at Niles shortly after one o'clock today by Governor Doney following receipt of informal information that three men had been shot and wounded.

Captain Richard B. Shaw, of the Cleveland National Guard received orders this afternoon from the governor to move two companies of infantry by motor to Niles immediately. The troops will arrive in Niles before five o'clock, it was said.

Youngstown, Ohio, Nov. 1.—Chief of police Powell this afternoon ordered every Youngstown policeman on duty patrolling the roads leading into the city from Niles to prevent the disorders from Niles spreading to factions in this city.

Niles, Ohio, Nov. 1.—Two robed Klansmen were attacked by an excited crowd of pedestrians in the business section of the city today in the second street clash in the strife between the Klan and opposing forces. The pair were seized near the headquarters of the Knights of the Flaming Circle, which has arrayed itself against a parade of Klansmen arranged for this afternoon.

The crowd of more than score dragged the victims from an open car, beat them and ordered them out of the neighborhood.

Feeling ran high in the city following the clash. Sheriff John E. Thomas and Chief of Police L. J. Round conferred immediately on steps to preserve order. At the same time it was learned that more than 200 Klansmen had assembled in an outlying ball park ready for the parade.

Taber, of Columbus, Ohio; Charles H. March, Litchfield, Minn., farmer; Frank O. Lowden, former governor of Illinois; and Charles Grand, Ohio, member of the House of Representatives.

Numerous messages continued to arrive at the White House from every section of the country regarding the appointment concerning which President Coolidge had requested the suggestions. GREATEST ELECTION CAMPAIGN IN STATE BROUGHT TO CLOSE

Leaders Declare State Will Remain in Solid South But Democratic Majority Uncertain

Raleigh, Nov. 1.—One of the most active campaigns ever waged in a general election in North Carolina came to an end today. The candidates and workers began to scatter from the various political headquarters at Raleigh, Durham and Greensboro to their homes preparatory to the balloting next Tuesday. As the campaign came to a close the situation in the state was a flux that lent much uncertainty as to the outcome especially as regards the usual Democratic presidential majority.

Backers of Robert M. LaFollette and Burton K. Wheeler were claiming that the Wisconsin and Montana Senators would pull a heavy vote in the state. Republicans were making no claims but they have waged a campaign almost as active as any carried on in states where they have been in the habit of winning. Democratic leaders say the state will remain in the columns of the Solid South but have taken no chances and have carried on a very active campaign. One of the uncertainties and one conceded to have a big bearing on the size of the Democratic majority especially is the attitude of the rank and file of the membership of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. Little has been said about it but privately men of the ranks of the Klan and political leaders also have said that they believed many Klansmen would vote for Coolidge, the Republican nominee, because of the outspoken opposition of Davis to the order.

Aside from the presidential campaign the most interest is taken in the port development referendum measure. Proponents of this measure have maintained active headquarters here and Governor Morrison and a number of leaders have carried on an active campaign in behalf of the measure to the exclusion of the usual politics. Isaac M. Meekins, Republican candidate for governor, has been outspoken in favor of the measure.

Angus W. McLean, Democratic nominee for governor closed his campaign in Canton, in the mountain section of the state, last night and then left for his home in Lumberton to rest until Tuesday. Meekins closed the Republican campaign in Clayton.

Throughout most of the campaign little has been heard from the opponents of the port measure but during the last few days organized opposition has sprung up at Winston-Salem. Today General Albert Cox, who has toured the state in behalf of the measure, today issued a challenge to the leaders of this opposition. He charged that pamphlets and circulars opposing the measure had been sent out anonymously and demanded the names of the persons paying for the pamphlets and the distribution.

Today is challenge day throughout the state. On this day the names of persons registered and alleged to have no right to vote for one reason or another are challenged and if the charges prove to be true the names are stricken from the lists.

MEN AND WOMEN IN THE NEWS OF THE DAY.

Below: EARL CARROLL & LEATRICE JOY

At the height of her career as a picture star, Leatrice Joy has announced her return to the stage. She will appear in a play with her husband, Earl Carroll, in a few days after her mother obtained a divorce from him. Earl Carroll, son of Henry Ford, was an important witness in the Detroit trial of Mrs. Anna Hladik, charged with attempted seduction under threat to kidnap the Ford children. The sum of $4,000 was asked. Held in $300 bail for trial before the Justice of Special Sessions on the charge of displaying obscene pictures in the lobby of his theatre, Earl Carroll, noted New York theatrical producer, refused to give bail and went to the Tombs to await trial. Parsons de Sylva, three divorced, is reported in London as being engaged to the Duke of Westminster, whose troubles with his wife have been aired recently in court.

HON. D. G. BRUMMITT DELIVERS SPLENDID ADDRESS IN THIS CITY

Discusses Political Questions and Shows Progress Made During Democratic Administration

The speaker replied to the recent attack on the State's banking system by Mr. Meekins, the Republican candidate for governor, by saying that there have been a greater number of failures among the State banks than among the National Banks. In his reply, Mr. Brummitt said "There are 535 State banks in North Carolina and only 83 National Banks. There were 15 failures of State banks in the state in 1923 and three failures of National banks. Thus it will be seen that there are nearly seven times as many State banks as National banks in the State but only five times as many State banks that failed in 1923. We may make another comparison. The State banks that failed in 1923 had a total capital stock of $270,500 and the National banks that failed during the year had a capital stock of $325,000. The State banks that failed in 1923 had total resources of $2,195,098, and the National banks that failed in that year had resources of $4,501,550."

Mr. Brummitt further declared that under the administration of Woodrow Wilson, the farmer's dollar reached 104, while under the Republican administration it has never reached par except in 1909 and 1912. Under the Harding administration it fell below par as far as 87. He spoke at some length on this question showing the prosperity enjoyed during the Democratic administrations.

He reviewed the progress of North Carolina under the Democratic administration paying particular attention to the good roads and highways. He also spoke interestingly on the great decrease in the death rate due to the efficiency of the State and county health departments. Our educational system was not overlooked but was given the credit due it, by this splendid speaker.

The corruptness of the recent Oil scandal which involved members of the Harding cabinet in transferring the Tea Pot Dome reserve to the Doheny-Sinclair interest, was reviewed by Mr. Brummitt. His talk was greatly enjoyed and gave his audience a clearer insight into the political questions now facing the American people.

DEMOCRATIC VICTORY OR HOPELESS DEADLOCK DECLARES JOHN W. DAVIS

REPUBLICAN FUND UNDERWRITTEN BY MORGAN HE SAYS

Attorney for LaFollette Declares Evidence Shows Contributors Have An Ax to Grind

Washington, Nov. 1.—In an analysis of the evidence before the Senate Campaign Fund Investigating Committee Frank P. Walsh, counsel for LaFollette, declared today it had been shown that at least 75 per cent of the Republican contributions reported to date have come directly from representatives of great corporations.

"Upon the basis of the data now made public," he said, "it can be stated as a fact that the banker firm of J. P. Morgan Company has underwritten the Republican campaign fund." LaFollette's attorney declared further that even more shocking is the circumstance that contributions listed are from a number of individuals directly interested as defendants in anti-trust suits, prosecutions for fraud upon the government and persons directly interested in tax refund cases, oil leases, flexible tariff and other proceedings now pending either in the courts or in the executive departments in Washington.

"The big bankers, packers and magnates who monopolize all steel, coal, aluminum, leather, sugar, copper, textiles, railroads, lathe equipment and supplies and public utilities," he continued, "have furnished the bulk of the Republican campaign fund. Not one industry which relies upon exorbitant tax duties to maintain extortionate profits is missing from the lists. Corporations and individuals interested in the Mellon plan of tax reduction are abundantly represented."

The statement said although the name of J. P. Morgan himself did not appear upon the list of contributors, "five members of the firm of J. P. Morgan Company" either collected money for or contributed to the fund or both as follows: E. T. Sigsbury, George Whitney, William H. Porter, Dwight Morrow and Thomas Cochran all listed as partners in J. P. Morgan and Company. "The federal statutes," Walsh continued, "provide that no corporation shall contribute funds for use for political purposes yet the greatest banking house in this country provided not only the brains but also much of the money for financing the Republican campaign fund. It combed every corporate interest with which it is identified and started the flood of gold which is now pouring into the headquarters in Chicago."

Election of Coolidge Would Result in Four Years Deadlock Between President and Congress, Says Davis

New York, Nov. 1.—In the fifth statement issued by John W. Davis, Democratic candidate for president for the purpose of summing up campaign issues, claimed today that the country would elect a Congress pledged to progress and remedial liberal legislation. The statement further declared that Senator LaFollette has no chance of election and adds that it is evident that Coolidge has not been and will not be in accord with the purposes of such a Congress as it is said the country will elect.

The statement in part said: "During the campaign I have attempted to discuss the issues before us with frankness and sincerity. I have done my utmost to make my position on every question of the day clear cut. I have pledged myself if elected to do everything in my power to open up the markets of the world for our products as the business man of our country cannot hope for real and durable prosperity on any other basis. As the manufacturer and merchant cannot prosper unless the farmer prospers I have promised to exert my every effort to raise agriculture to an equal plane with our other great industries. Business cannot prosper while idleness, poverty and discontent exists among wage earners and salary earning men and women who constitute the great bulk of our buying power and I have pledged myself to continue the Democratic policy to strengthen the position of labor."

"None of these things can be accomplished without honesty and courage in government and complete accord and cooperation between the president and Congress. There is no doubt that the country will elect a Congress pledged to progressive and remedial liberal legislation. It is admitted now that Senator LaFollette has no chance of election. It is evident that Coolidge has not been and will not be in accord with its high purposes. Do the people want legislation or do they want vetoes and obstructions and four years of deadlock between the president and Congress?"

"From many expressions coming in from all classes and every state and from endorsements received from various organizations and from members of all parties I am convinced that the people do want remedial legislation, that they do desire harmonious relations between Congress and the President and they can assure these things only by voting in this election for the state and national candidates of the Democratic party."

GEORGIAN GIRLS DRESS BRILLIANTLY PROSPEROUS TIFLS

Tiflis, Russia, Nov. 1.—In the commercial stagnation and social gloom which exists in Bolshevik Russia, Tiflis stands out like a scintillating gem in a background of lifeless stones.

In strong contrast to conditions obtaining in Moscow and other large Russian cities, the people of Tiflis are well-dressed and prosperous looking.

The restaurants, cafes and amusement parks are going full blast, and are crowded nightly with attractively gowned women with their escorts.

The Bolsheviks have not attempted in Georgia, as in other sections of Russia, to kill private trading.

The hundreds of Persian, Armenian and Tartar bazaars which give Tiflis such a lively touch of color and animation are all prospering.

Resorts of Rhine Appeal for the Support From Home

Wiesbaden, Oct. 30.—Since the Dawes plan has been adopted and the French have released their control of important railway junctions outside of the area occupied under the Versailles Treaty, this important resort hopes to regain much of the tourist business it enjoyed in pre-war days.

In 1913 Wiesbaden had 200,000 visitors; last year it had only 70,000. It not only lost its foreign patrons because of the upset conditions of the through train service and the many difficulties caused by the extension of the French occupation, but Germans also refused to avail themselves of the local mineral springs because of their dislike of the French occupation forces and their unwillingness to patronize railways operated by the French.

All the German watering-places in the French occupied area have joined in an appeal to the German public to patronize them, and not let them fall into bankruptcy. The Rhine steamer traffic has again become normal. The entire Rhine area is hopeful that Germans will no longer avoid their most celebrated river, merely because French, Belgian and English forces are occupying its shores.

In and Outdoor Sports Are Scored By British Doctors

London, Oct. 30.—The British public golfs too much and eats too much according to Dr. Leonard Williams, a Harley Street specialist and a corresponding member of the American Climatological Society.

As for golf, the game has a bad moral effect according to the physician. "A man loses his match," says Dr. Williams, "and, as a result, is unhappy about it, is disgruntled, is bad-tempered. His thoughts are on the next game which he vows he will win. And too often he is discontented until he does win."

The way the English take their food is almost as disturbing to Dr. Williams as the way they take their golf. "It is not realized by the public that it takes as much energy to digest an English meal as it does to take a five mile walk. People eat far too much. The day is started with a heavy breakfast; a full meal lunch follows; then there is tea, accompanied by scones and cakes; and finally there is dinner, running to several courses. This is far more than can be properly digested."

"It would be saner and healthier to start with a Continental breakfast, and follow it with a light lunch. Tea should be a cup of tea and nothing more. Dinner then could remain what it is."

"BUSY" MR. COOLIDGE

The President has been so busy with important governmental matters, domestic and international, that he has had no time to make speeches, define issues or otherwise take any active part in the campaign, we have been told from White House news sources from time to time. Let us see what are some of the important things this remarkable industrious President has been doing.

Coolidge indorses forget-me-not day," says one headline.

"Coolidge praises Hampton Institute" says another.

"President lauds Red Cross as Greatest Charity" says still another.

"The President praises Christopher Columbus," another news dispatch informs us.

"The President attends the World Series baseball game," we are advised.

"The President, in a generous mood, offers a football trophy."

These are a few of the great matters of state which have been absorbing the time of the talents of our industrious President. They, and daily interviews with Butler, Mondell and other Republican politicians, have taken up his time to such a degree that he has had none left in which to consider, discuss or act upon certain other matters:

The President has not had time to act upon the Tariff Commission's recommendation that the tariff on sugar be reduced fifty cents a hundred pounds at a saving to consumers of approximately $150,000 a day.

The President has not had time to have the Department of Justice prosecute Mr. Mellon's Aluminum trust for violation of the anti-trust laws, nor has he had time to order a reduction in the high tariff duties on Mr. Mellon's aluminum ware.

He hasn't had time to say what he thinks about the Klan, or the postal pay bill, or the Bursum pension bill, whether he still favors a ship subsidy, or any of the many other things the American electorate has a right to know about the candidate for the Presidency who is asking their support.

Christopher Columbus was a great man; the Red Cross has done and is doing a great work for humanity; the Hampton Institute is doing splendid work among negroes; the American Constitution is (a wonderful document, and everybody would like to have had, like the President, opportunity to attend and enjoy the World Series baseball games. On these things, the President feels and thinks just like many others, and it is too bad such matters weigh so heavily upon the Presidential mind and draw so heavily upon the Presidential time that he can't make speeches or grant interviews, give out any statements or write any letters so that a listening public may know what he thinks of or is going to do about the sugar tariff, the aluminum tariff, the Klan, law enforcement world peace, agriculture, industry and the hundred and one other large questions which vitally affect the welfare and happiness of the American people.

There is a reason, however, for the President's silence on the things about which the people wish to know and have a right to know concerning the views of a candidate. The Harding-Coolidge administration can neither be defended nor explained. The only possible strategy for Candidate Coolidge is to imitate the mute and inglorious—Clam.

In this glorious land of opportunity, any boy has a chance to grow up and become a labor official.

Many a girl who marries money discovers too late that her husband is wedded to it, also.

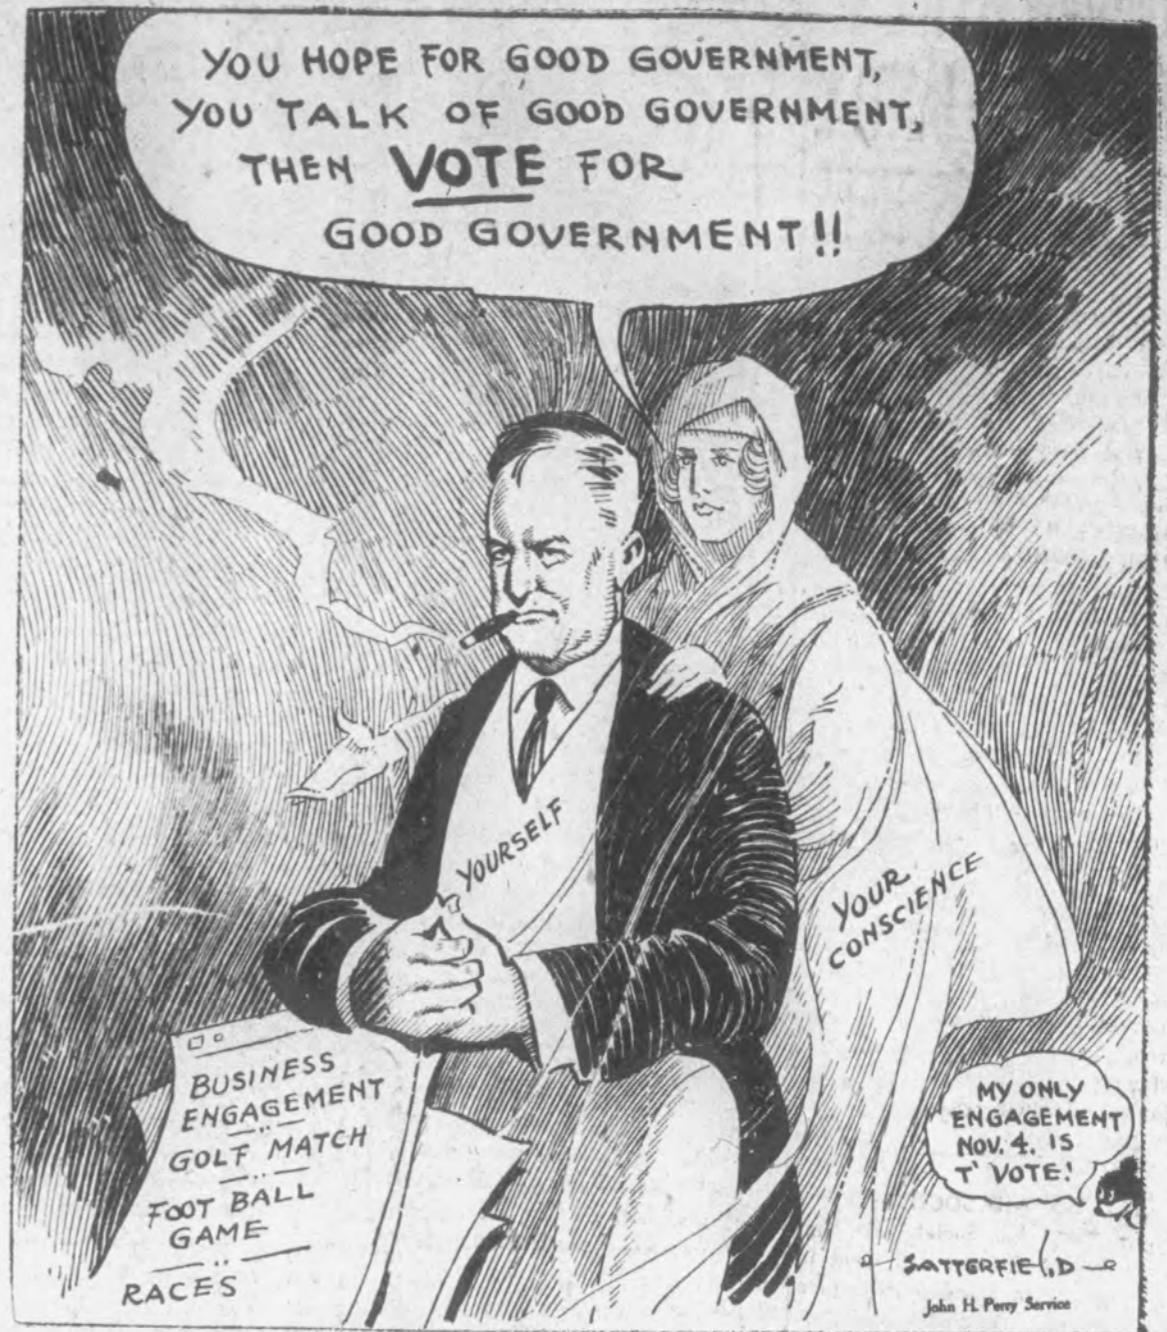

Too much of man's yearning for higher things is merely a yearning for higher-priced things.

Direct from a two year run at the Booth Theatre, New York, "Seventh Heaven," John Golden's sensational success, will be presented at White's Theatre Monday, November 3.

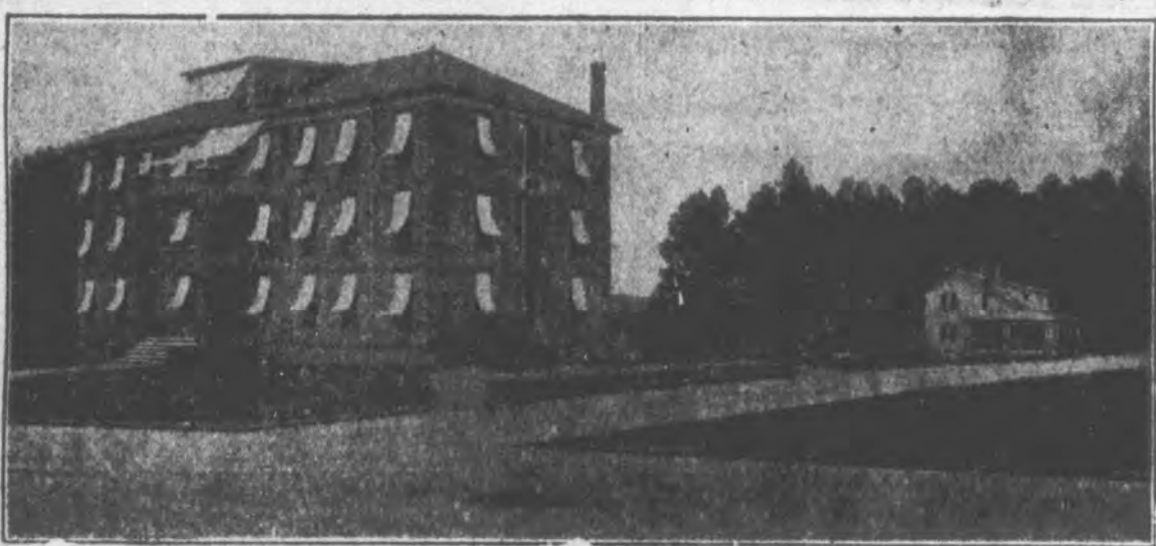

The play is by Austin Strong, author of "Three Wise Fools."

The story of "Seventh Heaven" concerns a French girl who waits through the four years of the war for the return of the man with whom she experienced the only happiness of a sordid, miserable life. The day of the armistice arrives, and, while all the world is celebrating, the news comes to Diane that her Chico has been killed. In despair Diane goes to the arms of another man who has been waiting for a long time. Then the door opens and in walks Chico. But he is blind and does not see her embraced by the other, and as the curtain falls, Diane is once more in the arms that she has been waiting for through the war.

Prominent in the cast are Remy Carper as "Diane" and Douglas MacPherson as "Chico." John W. Ransome, Mat Briggs, John MacSweeney, Mona Morgan, Gale Gordon, James Newcombe, Ruth Morris, Neil O'

A CARD OF THANKS.

I wish to express through the columns of your paper my deep appreciation of the many tokens of love and friendship that were showered upon me while in the local hospital. For the beautiful flowers and plants which transformed my room into a bower of beauty, the never empty basket of fruit placed so temptingly at my side, and other delicacies to tempt a jaded appetite. The countless number of visits that served to make the time seem short, and the earnest prayers that hastened my recovery. All these serve to strengthen my love and admiration for Greenville and her people.

MASTER LEON MEADOWS AND MISS ELIZABETH MEADOWS ENTERTAIN

Master Leon Meadows and little Miss Elizabeth Meadows delightfully entertained a large number of their friends at a Halloween party, Friday evening at their attractive home in college view.

Upon arrival the little guests were given a cordial welcome by the host and hostess and invited to the drawing room and library where Miss Dora Coates and Mrs. Carl Adams entertained them with stories appropriate to the occasion.

The home and porch were decorated with lanterns and other Halloween suggestions.

After the stories the guests were invited to the porch where they were served tempting refreshments.

The party was enjoyable and the little people never had a better time.

SALVATION ARMY SOLICITING FUNDS FOR POOR AND NEEDY

A few days ago the Salvation Army placed boxes in all the homes of Greenville for the purpose of collecting money for the poor and needy at Christmas time.

On December tenth the members of the Salvation Army will collect the boxes, take the proceeds and during the holiday season help make the poor and needy happy.

They are taking this method of soliciting funds because it gives everybody a chance to help the poor.

If any one knows of any unfortunate people or poor people who will need help at Christmas time, if they will leave their names at this office the Salvation Army will call for them and see that they receive help.

The Salvation Army is not soliciting the money for their own use, but they intend to give it all to needy people. By putting a few pennies in the box each day you will be helping a worthy cause.

MRS. TOM GALBREATH ENTERTAINS AT BRIDGE IN HONOR MISS KING

Kinston, Nov. 1. — Charming complimentary her sister, Miss Nancy

King of Greenville, who is to be married next month, Mrs. Tom Galbreath entertained six tables of bridge at her home on Gordon street Friday afternoon. A number of brides-elect, recent brides and out-of-town guests were also guests of honor.

Attractive fall flowers, together with bright Halloween decorations, made the rooms colorful and cheery. Table markers were "black cats." At the conclusion of an interesting series the hostess presented Miss King a lovely piece of lingerie. Attractively designed vases of varying shades, filled with flowers, were presented the following brides of the near future: Misses Leone Hines, Eleanor Hood, Elizabeth Quinerly, and Elizabeth White, of Greenville, and Mesdames Riley Hines, Ben Stanley, Ed. Williams and Julian White of Greenville, brides. Miss Dorothy Graber, guest of Miss Helen Bryan Chamberlain, was remembered with a similar souvenir of the occasion. A live "black cat" decorated with a big yellow bow was given as the booty. A delectable salad course was served, the napkins further carrying out the Halloween idea. Miss Martha Cory was invited to join the guests for refreshments.

Misses King, Hood, Hines, Quinerly, Margaret Taylor, Frances Crisp, Frances Dunn, Julia Parrott, Hilda Randolph, Martha Hardy, Helen Bryan Chamberlain and guest, Miss Graber of Virginia, Frances Pollock, Marianna LaRoque, Majorie Lewis, Margaret Copeland, Mesdames Stanley, Jess Bowers and Riley Hines and a number of friends from Greenville, including Miss King's wedding attendants, composed the guest list.

The marriage of Miss King and Mr. Lee Hannah of Rocky Mount in November will be an event of unusual interest in Greenville and in the State. The couple are members of well-known families and popular among numerous friends. Miss King is particularly well and favorably known here, where she has made frequent visits.

New Sunday School M. Baptist Church Is Practically Finished

The building committee has done fine work this week. In fact the work on the Sunday school room will be practically completed today and in all probability the beginner and primary classes will occupy their new quarters tomorrow. I am depending on the mothers and fathers to see that every member of the beginners and primary classes are present tomorrow, not later than 9:30, as the teachers will be on hand to take them in charge. I want the little folks, with their teachers, to make an inspection of their new class rooms, and report to the school any changes desired. If they are there by 9:30 they will have plenty of time to make this inspection. All teachers are especially requested to be present tomorrow by 9:30. We want to check over some changes in the different classes and it is very necessary that each one come a few minutes ahead of time.

I especially urge everyone to be present on time, so that we can get a good start. I want to again see the auditorium filled when we begin our opening exercises at 9:45. We start on time and close on time. A special invitation is extended the visitors in town to meet with us. We will try to make your visit a pleasant one.

All teachers and officers will please bear in mind the conference Sunday afternoon at 4:30, in the church. Everyone please be there, on time, so that we can leave on time.
J. B. KITRELL,
Supt. Memorial Baptist Sunday School.

SWEDEN READY TO SUPPLY UNITED STATES WITH LUMBER

Stockholm, Oct. 30.—A new and important item may soon be added to the export trade from Sweden to America, according to statements in the press by a Swedish lumber expert, the government forester, M. Juhlin-Dannfelt, who has returned here after an extended tour of the United States as an exchange scholar under the auspices of the American Scandinavian Foundation.

The demands on the forest resources of America have already become so great, says Mr. Juhlin-Dannfelt, that a lumber shortage is being increasingly felt, especially in the eastern states. Beside the long hauls from the region of standing timber involve sufficiently heavy freight charges to make imports from overseas advantageous. Consequently a new market for Swedish lumber is opening up and, in fact, a considerable number of shipments have already been made to Atlantic ports. Spruce, fir, and pine lumber, especially undressed materials, such as lath and planks, has been absorbed easily by the American market, and Swedish mills now look for a big trade along this line.

FALL MONTHS SEE RUSSIANS ACTIVELY KICKING FOOTBALLS

Sofia, Bulgaria, Oct. 27.—"All Russia is playing football," said Dr. John L. Nuelsen, bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church, on his arrival here from a tour of Russia, on his way to the United States. "Not only in the large cities are they kicking the pigskin, but I saw them playing football with ardor in some of the smallest villages through which I passed on my tour."

"What is true of football is true also of other forms of outdoor sport in the Soviet republic. In one little village I saw a fine gymnasium, equipped with improved appliances. Young Russia is developing physically."

NEW SHIP'S LOG UTILIZES CONFINED WATER PRESSURE

Stockholm, Nov. 1.—An interesting invention for the accurate indicating of the speed of ships, and the recording of the distance sailed, has been perfected in Sweden, and the functioning of the instrument was demonstrated recently before a meeting of the Swedish Shipowners' Association.

The new log operates with a margin of error of less than 1 per cent, compared with an error of as much as 10 percent in the case of some other logs ordinarily used by merchant vessels. It is based on the principle that the pressure of water from the direction toward which movement is made, varies with the speed of the vessel. Extending down through the bottom of the vessel is a tube with an opening on the forward side near the lower end. The water level inside this tube varies more or less above sea level according to the speed of the ship, and the indicating mechanism has electrical connections with the bridge which enable the navigator to tell instantly the speed of the ship and the distance sailed.

DOCTORS INVITED TO CHURCH

Your Money Back--

"7th Heaven" a John Golden Production direct from an engagement of 754 capacity performances in New York City is to be presented for one night at White's Theatre, on Monday, Nov. 3.

I know that this production is the best of its kind in America and worthy of your patronage.

Mr. Golden has never presented a failure nor a play with an unclear line.

He has a unique record among play producers—has supervised every production personally—has never sent us a second rate organization and has sponsored such plays as "Lightnin," "3 Wise Fools," "Thank U" and "1st Year."

I personally guarantee this attraction and will refund the money to any dissatisfied patron.

Our theatre-goers have complained that I do not give them enough good spoken dramas.
