PORT TERMINALS MEASURE DEFEATED

GOVERNOR MORRISON ADMITS DEFEAT PORT TERMINALS MEASURE

Tabulation From Less Than Half of State Show Majority of More Than 13,000 Against Measure

Raleigh, Nov. 6.—Governor Cameron Morrison this afternoon admitted that the Port Terminals Development Bill had been defeated in Tuesday's election.

He said that although the race was close he felt that the final count would disclose a majority against the measure.

"It looks now as if the port and waterways development bill had been defeated," Governor Morrison said. "It is close but I feel that the final count will disclose a small majority against it."

When I was running for governor against Gardner and Page I promised the people in a prepared and signed statement addressed to the freight rate associations that I would do all in my power to establish just freight rates for this state. Of course there was no other way to do it except by development of water competition.

I have done all that I could to keep my pledge. The greatest thing that can be done for North Carolina in the future is the development and utilization of our waterways for purposes of transportation. It will be done, I have no doubt, in the course of time. The matter was not considered altogether on its merits. I did my best to keep it out of politics but this could not be done altogether at a general election.

North Carolina will not long be content to pay enormously as it will do in every rivers and harbors bill passed by Congress for development of waterways in every state and let North Carolina waterways go undeveloped and unutilized. This election has caused consideration of the matter in the state and it has the merit I believe it has it will live to triumph yet.

Progressive proposals are usually defeated at first but we must not despair keen as our disappointment is."

Raleigh, Nov. 6.—700 precincts, out of 1,730 in the state, tabulated here today give the Port Terminals bill 70,767 votes while the vote against the measure was 84,129, making a majority of more than 13,000 against it.

Raleigh, Nov. 6.—Official canvass in the various counties throughout North Carolina was eagerly awaited today by persons interested in the fate of the Port Terminals Development bill. Failure of election officials in many precincts to count the vote on the measure Tuesday night due to the long county and state ballots and the multiplicity of questions voted upon is responsible for the slow returns on this as well as the Veterans' Loan Fund measure and four constitutional amendments.

The unofficial vote on the port measure as tabulated here up until this afternoon of 665 out of the 1,730 precincts in the state gave for the measure 68,773 and against 74,081 or a majority of 5,308 against the measure.

General Albert Cox, who directed the campaign in behalf of the measure and others at campaign headquarters decline to admit defeat declaring that they believe when the final vote is tabulated the issue will win out by a majority of about 10,000 votes. Opponents of the measure claim defeat of the measure by about the same margin.

With the Democratic presidential and state ticket assured of election by a wide margin, interest today centered in the size of the popular vote and the margin by which the candidates were elected.

Scattering returns from legislative districts throughout the state indicate the political complexion of a number of districts has been changed the Republicans probably increasing their representation in the House. For the first time since its formation in 1892

COOLIDGE TURNS ATTENTION PLANS NEXT FOUR YEARS

President Will Not Press Issues at Last Session of 68th Congress Because of Insurgent Control

Washington, Nov. 6.—With evidence of the peoples' endorsement steadily increasing as returns continued to come in President Coolidge today turned his thoughts to plans for the next four years including the setting up of his own administration and the framing of a legislative program to be presented to Congress.

In the latter connection interest at the White House today centered upon the result of the Congressional contests. The present Congress, although nominally controlled by Republicans has been dominated by the balance of power held by the LaFollette group in both branches. Because of this it is expected that few measures with the exception of usual appropriation bills and possibly farm relief legislation will be presented by the president to the final session of the 68th Congress which will begin in December.

President has declared for further tax reduction and tax reform but it is the opinion of those close to Secretary Mellon and the President that such legislation will not be pressed by the administration at the short session.

MADDEN WILL SEEK THE SPEAKERSHIP

Washington, Nov. 6.—Martin B. Madden, Republican of Illinois, announced today he would be a candidate for Speaker of the House to succeed Frederick H. Gillette of Massachusetts, who has been elected to the Senate.

Ku Klux Klan Hall In Forth Worth, Tex., Destroyed By Fire

Forth Worth, Texas, Nov. 6.—The Forth Worth Ku Klux Klan hall, recently completed at a cost of $50,000, was destroyed by fire early today. The building was a brick structure. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Mrs. Harding's Condition Improved

Marion, Ohio, Nov. 6.—Mrs. Warren G. Harding's condition continues to improve, her physicians announced today.

The 33rd State Senatorial District went Democratic, Harry H. Barker, Democrat, having been elected to succeed the late Senator Rufus L. Haymore. Catawba county after being Democratic for two years returned to the Republican column and for the first time in 32 years the Republicans gained control of Johnston County. Ben H. Lucas, of Benson, and Walter Batten, of Micro, were elected representatives from Johnston in the lower house.

Salisbury, Nov. 6.—The Port Terminals referendum was defeated in Rowan county by 1,559 votes, the vote against the measure being 3,646 and 1,905 for it.

Lexington, Nov. 6.—Davidson county complete, gave for Port Terminals 1,235 and against 7,427.

NILES K. K. K. MEETING, N.C.

Twelve men were wounded and by gunshot in open warfare in Niles, O., between Ku Klux Klansmen and Knights of the Flaming Circle. The rioting ended only when State troops were rushed into the city. The rioting started during a scheduled parade of the hooded K. K. K., through the streets. SENATOR LODGE IN CRITICAL CONDITION

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 6.—The condition of Senator Henry Cabot Lodge according to a bulletin issued shortly after noon, was unchanged. Senator Lodge was still unconscious at the time of the bulletin having remained in that condition since he suffered a stroke late yesterday.

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 6.—Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, who suffered a stroke yesterday at a hospital where he is convalescing from an operation, is still unconscious today.

Dr. John T. Cunningham said this morning that the Senator's condition must be considered critical.

Funeral Services Conducted S. B. Underwood Yesterday

At two o'clock Wednesday afternoon friends from many parts of the State, all the faculty, officers and students, of East Carolina Teachers College, and many of his fellow citizens in Greenville gathered at the Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church and later at Cherry Hill cemetery for the funeral services of Samuel Bobbitt Underwood.

The service was beautiful in its simplicity, in keeping with the character of the man. The flowers that came from all parts of the State, from organizations, from schools, and from friends seemed silent testimonials of the love and esteem in which he was held.

The faculty and officers of East Carolina Teachers College and the officers and representatives from all students organizations were the floral bearers. The Rotary Club attended in a body. The 600 students of the college, dressed in white, were seated in the Sunday School room. All the above followed the pall-bearers from the church to the cemetery.

The service was in charge of Rev. F. S. Love, pastor of the Methodist Church in Wilson, a college classmate and life long friend of Mr. Underwood, who had been with him daily while he was in the hospital in Wilson.

Rev. J. M. Daniel, presiding Elder of Wilkes County, a former pastor of Mr. Underwood and a college mate of his, led in prayer. Rev. T. A. Sykes, one of the editors of North Carolina Christian Advocate, and Rev. V. P. Seoville, pastor of Jarvis Memorial Church read the Scriptural passage. Mr. Love's fine tribute is printed below. At the grave Rev. W. W. Peel, pastor of Trinity Church, Durham, a college mate, read the services and Rev. Walter Patton of Chapel Hill, and former pastor, prayed.

The hymns sung at the church were "The Son of God Goes Forth to War," "How Firm a Foundation," "My Faith Looks up to Thee." At the grave the choir sang "Asleep in Jesus."

As his colleagues from the college, each having flowers, and as the long file of white dressed college girls, representative of the thousands of school-children whom Mr. Underwood has reached through his students and teachers, passed through the cemetery to the plot, the only sound that broke the stillness of the perfect autumn afternoon was the singing of the mocking birds. The presence of youth, sunshine and song seemed symbolic of the spirit of the great man and the memory he leaves behind him. There was nothing of gloom or hopelessness, no lingering of the pain and agony of the past few months as they laid him to rest.

There were a great many people who came from a distance to do honor to him, from Raleigh, Kinston,

Wilson, Elizabeth City, Hertford, Durham and many other places. A number of relatives from a distance were here. Among these were the five sisters of Mr. Underwood; Mrs. J. L. Mann of Lake Landing; Miss Mary Underwood, of Mount Olive; Mrs. George Makely, of Swan Quarter; Mrs. W. E. Connally, of Leesboro; Mrs. A. J. Barbour, of Greensboro, and his half brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Underwood, of Goldsboro; his half sister, Mrs. J. A. Worrell, of Rich Square and his stepmother, Mrs. J. E. Underwood. The only one of his family absent was a half sister, Mrs. L. R. Woodhull, of Bethlehem, Pa. Several members of Mrs. Underwood's family were here, her brothers, Dr. Lister, of Leaksville, and Dr. Elisha Lister, of Weeksville, and Mrs. John Lister and her sister, Mrs. F. P. Markham, of Weeksville, a cousin, Mrs. S. N. Dulin and her son.

The honorary pall bearers, were: R. H. Wright, J. H. Rose, Dr. Eugene Brooks, Raleigh; A. T. Allen, Kaleigh; Dr. J. E. Nobles, Dr. C. A. Woodward, Wilson; Dr. W. W. Dawson, Grifton; M. O. Blount, Bethel; A. G. Cox, Winterville; L. C. Arthur, M. L. Wright, Beaufort; Coolidge Morris, Washington; J. W. Goodson, Kinston; C. Felix Harvey, Sr., Kinston; L. L. Rose, Raleigh; John B. Dawson, Kinston; T. B. Attmore. (Continued on page 6)

Senatorial Race Is Close in Iowa

Des Moines, Nov. 6.—An incomplete re-check of the Senatorial ballot showed Senator Smith Brookhart to be leading his Democratic opponent Daniel F. Steck, by 1100 votes at 12:45 this afternoon.

Des Moines, Iowa, Nov. 6.—A partial re-check of returns in the Iowa Senatorial election at 11 a. m. today showed Senator Smith W. Brookhart to be leading his Democratic opponent, Daniel F. Steck, by slightly more than 500 votes. An error of 300 votes in Boone County in favor of Brookhart, uncovered by county Assessor Kayman at Storm Lake was the biggest factor in changing the standing. Other additions were made to Brookhart's total from half a dozen counties.

Des Moines, Iowa, Nov. 6.—Senator Smith W. Brookhart had a lead of 40 votes over his Democratic opponent Daniel F. Steck, on the face of unofficial returns from all but three precincts of the state. Returns from 2,430 of the 2,433 precincts in the state gave Brookhart 444,839 and Steck 444,799. The missing precincts are in Lee County. It is considered certain on the face of these returns that an official count will be necessary to determine the outcome of the Senatorial race in Iowa.

MAY INVESTIGATE ELECTION OF MRS. FERGUSON IN TEX.

Butte's Campaign Manager Charges Ballots Thrown Out Without Being Counted

Dallas, Texas, Nov. 6.—Although he declined to concede his defeat by Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, Democrat, in Tuesday's election for governor of Texas, Dr. George C. Butte, Republican, made it plain today that he did not contemplate contesting the election, saying "an honest election and an honest count" was all that he asked.

Mrs. Ferguson was leading by more than 40,000 early today.

W. E. Tolbot, campaign manager for Butte said that returns received from 15 or more counties bear evidence that Butte's ballots had been thrown out uncounted and that these reports were sufficient to warrant an investigation, which he indicated would be made.

Slow Returns Indicate Coolidge Will Be Supported by Working Majority in Legislative Branch

New York, Nov. 6.—The fight for a working control in the new Congress continued to be close today but holds out a prospect that the president may have a manageable majority, though small, over the insurgent group combination in the present Congress, which has hampered and thwarted many measures and policies of the administration.

With more than 30 districts still missing final tabulations show a close fight as the vote is being counted. As returns stood 36 hours after the close of the polls the Republicans had taken 230 seats, giving a margin of 12 over the bare majority of 217. Out of the thirty odd districts still to be heard from they hoped to solidify their gains against any raids of the Democratic and LaFollette insurgent combination.

The Democrats at the same time had taken 174 seats and had a hope of capturing some of the still outstanding districts. The Republicans, however, did most of the overturning. Twenty three Congressional districts now represented by Democrats had hopped back into the Republican column, with the Coolidge-Dawson tandem Tuesday. Meantime the Democrats had raided Republican reserves for seats.

In the Senate the Republicans recaptured seats of delegations from Kentucky, Massachusetts and Oklahoma. At the same time they held the lead in contests in Colorado, Idaho, Illinois, Kansas, Michigan, New Hampshire, Oregon, Rhode Island, South Dakota, West Virginia and Wyoming. In Iowa the Republicans apparently lost Senator Brookhart, one of LaFollette's supporters, who repudiated the Republican national ticket and although the Democrats take that seat the Republican chieftain will not count it as a loss.

In Minnesota the race is running close between Magnus Johnson, Farmer-Labor, and Thomas D. Schall, Republican. Although late returns show Schall to be leading the picturesque Farmer-Laborite stubbornly refuses to concede his defeat in the hope that rural returns from the outlying rural districts will put his vote on top.

By a heavy majority the Democrats retained their seat, in the Senate from the Solid South.

Canadian Farmer Raises Wheat That Resists Rust, Report

Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 3.—A new variety of wheat which will resist all attacks of rust, a species of Marquis which is said to yield from four to six bushels to the acre more than the ordinary variety, has been developed by Samuel Larcombe, a prominent grain grower of Birtle, Man. The new wheat has been tried out in areas in western Canada infested with rust and came through without damage, according to Larcombe.

Larcombe has been a Manitoba farmer for 30 years and in that time has won 3,000 prizes on wheat at Canadian and American expositions. He won the world's championship for wheat at the Peoria International Fair in 1917 and in 1918 the sweepstakes for the best individual farmer's exhibit as well as sweepstakes for wheat in the dry farming section of the International Soil Products Exposition in Kansas City.

Ancient Dogmas Found Harmful to Churches

London, Oct. 31.—"The church cannot afford to be hampered by unintellectual beliefs which greatly weaken their influence on those who are worth influencing, religion stands on ground which cannot be assailed; it has no use for rickety defenses." Such were the words, in which Prof. J. S. Haldane, of New College, Oxford, brother of England's lord chancellor, told the Conference of Modern Churchmen of the harm done to Christianity by ancient dogmas while he said, were not in keeping with present-day knowledge. He was discussing biology and religion. Prof. Haldane admitted that he was not a church member and proceeded to tell the conference the reason why. "I am one of many," Prof. Haldane said, "who are kept away from existing churches by dogma; we cannot honestly countenance. There is,

Bill to Abolish Private Schools Up in Capitol

Tacoma, Wash. Nov. 1.—An initiative measure to be voted on at the general election in November, causing a hot fight here and in other cities and communities of the state, proposes to close all private schools in Washington to pupils under 16 years of age. It is based on an Oregon law passed by referendum two years ago, but declared unconstitutional by the federal district court of appeals and now before the supreme court of the United States.

The public school bill, as it is called, has the active support of the Ku Klux Klan, while it is being fought by an organization called the Friends of Educational Freedom, made up of men and women of various religious denominations. Should the bill become a law, it would close all church and private schools below collegiate rank. The denominations affected in this state would be the Roman Catholics, the Lutherans, Episcopalians and Seventh Day Adventists, while there are numerous military academies for boys and private schools for girls that would be barred from receiving students under the age limit. Initiative No. 49 has aroused as much interest as the presidential election.

MAKE IT A REAL HOLIDAY

Next Tuesday marks the sixth anniversary of the signing of the armistice which brought to a close the World War and is a day that should mean much to every true American. Even as important as July 4 is November 11 for as the former marks the Declaration of Independence by America the latter marks the close of hostilities which made the world safe for Democracy and a decent place in which to live.

For next Tuesday the Pitt County Post of the American Legion has arranged a celebration here for all ex-service men of the county and no doubt hundreds will take part in the festivities. At the request of the Legion the banks of the city as well as the tobacco market have agreed to suspend operations for that day but so far there has been much indecision on the part of other business enterprises in the city as to how much a holiday if any the day should be made.

Armistice Day, as stated above, is second to no event in importance in world history and should be observed as such. On November 11, 1918 when announcement was made that envoys had crossed the border and signed the document that would bring an end to hostilities which meant the early return home of the boys who were "Over There" everyone laid aside what he or she happened to be doing and took part in the glorious celebration of the occasion. Since that day only six years have passed yet in the busy scramble for dollars a part of the people at least seem to have forgotten the war and its glorious end and do not think that they can now afford to close their businesses for a day in memory of it.

It is to be hoped that every citizen of Greenville will think seriously of what Armistice Day means not only to the boys who did their bit but to every American as well, and on next Tuesday let there be a holiday celebration such as has never been staged before in our city and county.

"I knew it all the time"—"I told you so"—"Just as I expected it would be"—are threadbare from over-use yesterday.

Now that the first episode of the political serial has been completed and the hero chosen, the public anxiously awaits developments in the next episode. Let us hope they will be in the form of the promised prosperity.

Election Day, Armistice Day, Thanksgiving Day, three holidays in a single month. Then comes "Shop Early" and after that another year's labor to settle the bills ere the events come 'round again.

German Scientific Work Lags
Moscow, Nov. 6.—According to Professor Fersman, of the Russian Academy of Sciences, who recently spent some time in Germany, scientific research work in that country has greatly declined, and in some ways is far below similar work in Russia. In the Scandinavian countries, on the other hand, the Professor says, the progress of science has been very remarkable, especially abstract science.

POLAND SEEKS TO EXTEND FOREIGN TRADE TO COUNTRIES NEAR EAST
Warsaw, Nov. 6.—The policy of the Soviet government in endeavoring to kill imports from Poland has obliged the Polish government to look for other foreign markets. During the last year Poland has paid special attention to the Balkans, sending there an itinerant exhibition of Polish manufactured articles. Poland organized a regular fair in Constantinople in September, the first European fair in Turkey, and everything seems to indicate favorable prospects for the expansion of Polish trade in the Near East.

NEW SEATTLE-SEWARD CABLE LAID BY ARMY SIGNAL CORPS

Seward, Alaska, Nov. 6.—A cable of the army signal corps, renewal of which was completed here recently by the transport Dellwood, linking Seattle and Seward, is 1,612 miles long and weighs 17,028 tons. The cost of renewing the cable, which was established in 1904 with a line from Seattle of Sitka, Alaska, was put at $150,000. Colonel Gibb in charge of re-laying the cable, reported that the deepest place found was 2,418 fathoms, southeast of Middleton Island, 75 miles south of the northernmost point of the Gulf of Alaska. The floor of the gulf, he added, was as smooth as the plains in the States. The line was laid at an average depth of 1,718 fathoms. The relaying was begun in January.

“TIGER ROSE” IS SCHEDULED FOR SHOWING HERE

Lénoire Ulric Heads Notable: Cast in Famed Belasco Play.

“If it's worth having, it's worth while waiting for,” that's what the Warner Brothers seem to think in making us wait for their prize production of the year, David Belasco's “Tiger Rose.”

Indeed it is many months since we read the announcement that Lénoire Ulric, the star who created the title role on the legitimate stage was going to portray the same part in the film production.

But it is a long road that has no ending, and now the White Theatre announces that “Tiger Rose,” a Sidney Franklin Production, is going to play today.

It was in the original stage play that Lénoire Ulric really rose to great fame as “Tiger Rose,” the wildest child of the primitive northland, and for two years, night after night, she played to capacity audiences on Broadway. In this play she proved herself an actress of the highest calibre, and will earn the title of “David Belasco's greatest star.” For another year the play travelled about the country showing at the principal cities and meeting with a success only equaled by its run in New York City.

According to all indications, the screen version promises to be a great improvement over the stage play, this being due to the far greater possibilities afforded the camera in photographing the immense and beautiful outdoors—the wild virgin woodlands stretching out as far as the eye can see until it seems to meet the sky in the purple horizon.

Service at Christian Church tonight and tomorrow night at 7:30.

Rev. Richard Bagby, of Washington will speak tonight. Tomorrow night Dr. A. E. Cory, of Kinston, will speak. Everybody welcome.

Twenty seven members were in attendance. After the regular business session and a short program, Mrs. Lizzie Griffin, in her usual attractive manner, gave an interesting report on the recent convention at Wilmington.

After her report an ice course was served. At the December meeting there will be an election of officers for the ensuing year.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.

Tarboro, Nov. 6. — Miss Aldyth Wilson delightfully entertained at bridge Saturday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Wilson. The home presented a scene of loveliness with its decorations of chrysanthemums and soft shaded lights. Bridge was played at six tables.

As the guests found their places they were greeted by dainty rose place cards on which was engraved the following:

“‘Tis something everybody knows, That vows are plighted 'neath the rose.”

When the petals of the rose were lifted the real secret of the occasion was revealed—the date of the wedding of Miss Senora Wilson and Mr. Robert A. Lindsay, November 26, 1924.

After several interesting games a delicious salad course was served by Miss Aldyth Wilson assisted by Miss Willie Wilson. After a most enjoyable afternoon the guests departed, showering their good wishes on the bride-elect.

Miss Wilson is well known in Greenville having attended the Teachers College. She is popular with a host of friends who will be interested in the above announcement.

The story of what he has achieved is as well known to you as to me. I need not speak of that today. This hour it seems to me a tragedy that this life, thirty-nine years back of him, with such a measure of service, is gone, and I am thinking today of the thousands and thousands of boys and girls in North Carolina who did not know him, but had he lived would have proclaimed honor to his name.

The glory of his life is that there are the boys and girls by the thousands who are richer in all the years to come because he lived. He saw so clearly the great need of Carolina Youth. He loved with such a sacrificial love. He gave himself unsparringly that the dreams he had for these in his great heart might come true. Because of that love he carried on from day to day, and from day to day he had an ever increasing power to bring to pass his dreams.

But it is as a friend I think of him today, and you will pardon my speaking personally. I speak as a friend who looked here at the ambitions of a life, who heard the things a man could tell to a man and not be misunderstood. I look into the heart associations of twenty years; there is nothing there a man could not reveal to his mother, and likewise to he lived so bravely! We catch up the mantle that falls from his shoulders and pray God that to us may come a double share of his spirit.

Mr. Daniel in his prayer seemed to speak for all who loved the man, and in thankfulness for God's gift of such a man—"a man who walked eternally with God, simple, yet beautiful in character and life, humble, yet great, positive and strong, yet as a little child; a man of leadership; one who lived not for self but for leading others to larger circles of usefulness to the bright and beautiful things in life to a knowledge of Jesus." He thanked God for "the beautiful ways in which he walked; for the fellowship, for his Christian integrity which stood out above everything" for a man he had known, "in pleasant hours and in sickness and distress, a man whom he never knew to lose his hope nor turn away great visions and who ever looked upward and glorified God. He gave thanks that there was power in God to make such a man, one who has left such an impress that his fellow men are better because of him and whose pathway through life reflected honor upon his name, his family, his church and his State.

As I've gone to my study and sitting there alone, thinking over these twenty years, I have found I have had more courage to fight because out in the world there was Sam, with his great faith, his strong courage, his well-high sublime insight into the human heart. Hundreds of men have told each other today of his love and achievements, but with all consciousness that one of the bravest has dropped from the ranks. His was an unselfishness that helps one to understand better the love in the heart of the Master. Thank God
