COOPER TRIAL WILL LIKELY CONTINUE THROUGHOUT WEEK

Former Cashier of Defunct Bank Has Been on Witness Stand Since Saturday

Wilmington, Nov. 18.—Denying any knowledge that the state banking laws required 15 and five per cent reserves on demand and time deposits in the Liberty Savings Bank and an admission that the defunct bank's books showed a pencil correction reading $22,500 for an item alleged by the state to be $25,000 featured the testimony on cross examination today by Thomas E. Cooper, former president of the bank who is jointly on trial in Superior Court with J. C. Rourke, former cashier, on charges of violating the state banking laws.

Cooper took the stand Saturday in his own behalf and yesterday and today he has been subjected to a stiff cross examination by solicitors.

The state today presented evidence from the files of the bank showing that Cooper while connected with the Commercial National Bank in Raleigh, continued to direct the affairs of the Liberty Bank through correspondence with Rourke. Evidence was also presented by the state designed to show that the Liberty Bank had used the First National Bank of Hamlet, also now defunct, as a depository although the Liberty board of directors had never approved the bank as a depository.

A letter intended to show that Cooper, while in Raleigh, wrote to Rourke informing him that Bank Examiner Newbold would soon be in Wilmington and advising Rourke to clear out all past due paper so there would be no criticism of the Liberty Bank was introduced. Another letter from Cooper at Raleigh to Rourke inquired as to why Rourke did not draw in the Hamlet bank instead of him at Raleigh. In this letter Cooper directed Rourke's attention to $1,300 in the Hamlet bank to the credit of the Liberty.

ASHES MINISTER'S WIFE ARE FOUND IN FURNACE OF HOME

Ohio Minister Being Questioned in Connection With Finding of the Remains

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 18.—Rev. C. V. Sheatsley, for nine years pastor of Christ's Lutheran Church, of Bexley, a suburb, is being questioned today concerning the finding of the charred ashes of his wife's body in the furnace of their Bexley home late yesterday. Police Lieutenant Shellenbarger announced that something definite may be announced soon.

Last night at midnight Prosecutor John R. King, after a partial investigation, said it would have been impossible for the woman to have committed suicide by crawling into the furnace and closing the door behind her as the coroner's verdict had said. The remains of the body and pieces of jewelry belonging to her were found in the fire bed when the minister returned home about 1:45 yesterday afternoon after a short absence. He immediately called neighbors and the coroner was summoned.

Mrs. Sheatsley was 59 years old.

Raiders Still Control Los Angeles Aqueduct

Lone Pine, Cal., Nov. 18.—Owen Valley's little army of occupation still in possession of the Los Angeles aqueduct today and the waters intended for Los Angeles's municipal supply is still running through the waste gates. No one has yet made any effort to forcibly eject the raiders or to close the waste gates.

Approximately 100 men who compose the army took turns last night in standing watch over the gates while their searchlights swept back and forth over the surrounding hills. The mayor of Los Angeles said he felt confident that the peace officers of Inyo county supplemented by necessary state forces could take care of the situation. The sheriff, however, after seeing injunction papers on the raiders and seeing the papers thrown into the waters, renewed his plea for troops.

Mr. G. R. Smith and Mr. C. B. Moss of Raleigh, spent the week-end in Greenville.

ARMY-NAVY ANNUAL GRIDIRON TILT TO BE STAGED BALTIMORE

Baltimore, Nov. 10.—Applications for tickets for the Army-Navy gridiron classic, to be played in the Baltimore Stadium, November 29, are already greatly in excess of the supply allotted to Baltimore city for sale, those in charge of ticket distribution have announced.

Of the 78,000 seats provided in the stadium, 10,000 have been apportioned to Baltimore and the remainder equally divided between the Military and Naval Academies for disposal. With requests for seats from the city's share pouring into the office of Mayor Howard W. Jackson by every mail, the demand has far exceeded the number available by several thousand.

Every effort will be made to minimize scalping. Orders have been issued by Police Commissioner Gaither for the arrest of every person attempting to sell tickets above face value, and prompt and vigorous prosecution has been promised.

Mayor Jackson, after a conference with hotel managers, gave assurances that no exorbitant prices for rooms would be charged. William J. Quinn, president of the Baltimore Hotel Men's Association, told the mayor that hotel rates have not been and will not be increased for the date of the game.

Mayor Jackson has also been informed that ample hotel accommodations for visitors to Baltimore will be available. If indications should point to an overflow, however, the mayor said, an appeal will be made to citizens, and a list of rooming houses where accommodations may be obtained, would be published.

Something new in the way of transporting fans to the scene of the contest has been provided by the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, which has built one new siding and reconstructed an old one, so that visitors will be de-trained within walking distance of the stadium. Platforms have been constructed along these sidings which are long enough to accommodate a 12-car train. Extra trains will be run from New York, Philadelphia and Washington.

A great military and naval ball is being arranged by officers of the Fifth Regiment, Maryland National Guard to be held in that regiment's armory the night of the game. Colonel Washington Bowie, commander, said the affair would be the first of its kind to his knowledge. All cadets, midshipmen and other military and naval guests may take part, and the Rear Admiral Henry B. Wilson, superintendent of the Naval Academy, has granted permission for the two upper classes of the Academy to remain in Baltimore Saturday night for the ball.

Black Sea Ports Cold to Wandering Russians

Varna, Bulgaria.—Into the port of Varna there sailed the other day a schooner bearing a group of Russians seeking a haven. The Rumanian authorities looked them over and, for political reasons, bade them begone without delay. Today the wanderers are headed for a Turkish port, but with little hope that they will be any more welcome there than they were here.

It was last March that the survivors of eight Russian families. Old Believers, 35 men, women and children, started from a little village near the Chinese frontier to seek refuge from hunger, epidemic and religious persecution. Painfully they made their way across the country by foot and in trains. At Cherson, on the Black Sea, they secured two schooners in which to continue their wanderings. One of the boats went down in a storm, with all on board. The surviving vessel came into Varna after having been driven away from the Rumanian port of Mangalia.

Bulgaria refused the wanderers a haven because of recent difficulties with Soviet immigrants and emigrants.

I Paid $5.00

For these powders once

By Edna Wallace Hopper

I was asked to offer women my aids to youth and beauty, and I did. They are, I believe, the greatest in existence, for I searched the world to get them.

Then, countless women asked me about powders. I am an actress and a movie star. We in our world care nothing for expense. Anything which adds to our beauty is worth many times its cost. So I have long paid $5 per box. Edna Wallace Hopper has others, to obtain a powder. Photo 1923

Each lot was made to my order.

Now I have asked the makers to supply these identical powders, in quantities, at prices all could pay. I have agreed to market them to women who desire them. Thus I am able to supply these same powders at 50¢ and $1. I owe that to the kindness of the makers.

I used a heavy cold-cream powder based on my Youth Cream. It clings and stays. This I call my Youth Cream Powder. But many women like a powder light and fluffy. So I have this powder made in two forms. All druggists and toilet counters now supply my Youth Cream Powder at $1 and my light Face Powder at 50¢. Both come in three shades—white, flesh and brunette.

There may be greater powders in the world, but I have never found them, and I have consulted the greatest experts. I know that anyone who compares them with ordinary powders will be amazed and delighted.

I shall gladly mail you a sample of the kind you want if you will mail this coupon. Please do that now.

SPECIAL ASSEMBLY MAY MAKE GERM. MEMBER LEAGUE

Geneva.—A special assembly of the League of Nations is expected to be held at Geneva some time this winter to vote in Germany as a member of the league. Basing their explanation on the assumption that the German negotiations with the various powers will eventually succeed and that Germany will one day actually forward her application for membership, league officials express the opinion that the Council of the League will probably arrange for the special assembly.

It is believed that if the German negotiations have proceeded far enough and the German application is actually received in time, the council will take some action at its December meeting in Rome.

A special assembly for Germany naturally cannot wait for the arrival of delegates from distant corners of the earth. Hence it is planned that remote countries will designate their ambassadors or ministers in Europe to represent them at Geneva on this special occasion. Moreover, it is probable that each country will send only one representative, instead of the three official delegates who under the rules attend the annual assemblies of the league, together with their substitute delegates and numerous experts.

As Germany has been told by allied powers, that her entrance into the league must be in accordance with the covenant, without special exceptions or privileges, it is of interest to note that the question of admission is covered in Article I of the covenant. This says that any fully self-governing state, dominion or colony may become a member if its admission is agreed to by two-thirds of the assembly, provided that it shall give effective guarantees of its sincere intention to observe its international obligations, and shall accept such regulations as may be prescribed by the league in regard to its military, naval and air forces and armaments. However, it is understood by everybody that Germany will be given a permanent seat on the council as being one of the great world powers.

FOR SAFETY'S SAKE

The appointment of committees by the Rotary Club to act with highway officials in an investigation as to the practicability of constructing a footway on the steel bridge over Ta'river here is certainly a step in the right direction for safer pedestrian travel over the bridge.

Daily there are numbers of pedestrians who travel over the bridge, but as it is now constructed there is no place provided for such travel and one has to be somewhat of an acrobat to be able to avoid the steady stream of traffic over the bridge.

There are numbers of children from the north side of the river who attend school in this city and they should not be allowed to endanger their lives twice each day by having to pick their way through the traffic.

The movement for safer bridge travel will also include an effort to have the bridge well lighted at all hours of the night which will add greatly to the safety of both pedestrians and vehicular travel.

It is to be hoped that action in the matter will be taken at once in order that the present danger accompanying travel over the bridge may be eliminated.

UNFINISHED JOBS

It is with regret that it must be acknowledged that Greenville may soon be termed the "City of Good Intentions" because of the many movements launched with great bursts of enthusiasm only to be forgotten or to die of stagnation.

Recently we have had occasion to refer to the movement for a play ground for Greenville, a movement in which it seems that interest has been lost for there is no outward sign of activity toward the goal.

Again we must mention the Chamber of Commerce organized with three hundred memberships but since organization apparently dead.

Now comes the question as to what has become of the movement for a good roads celebration which was to have been held here in the late summer or early fall. When this movement was first mentioned everyone seemed sold on the idea and at a mass meeting committees were appointed to make all plans for the great meet. Funds were solicited from citizens of Greenville, a tentative program for the event was arranged. Since that time the summer has passed, fall has slipped by and winter approaches but no celebration has yet been held and no one ever mentions it except to refer to it as another relic of Greenville's once good intentions.

As above stated it is with regret that we find it necessary to bring such matters before the citizens of Greenville for this record shows only one of two things, we are either lacking in leadership and ability to put bigger things across or we are lacking in interest in the welfare and progress of our community.

From the standpoint of location, climate, health, religious, educational and industrial advantages, Greenville is unsurpassed, but we are lacking in some of the better things that are within our reach if we will exert the effort necessary to grasp our opportunities.

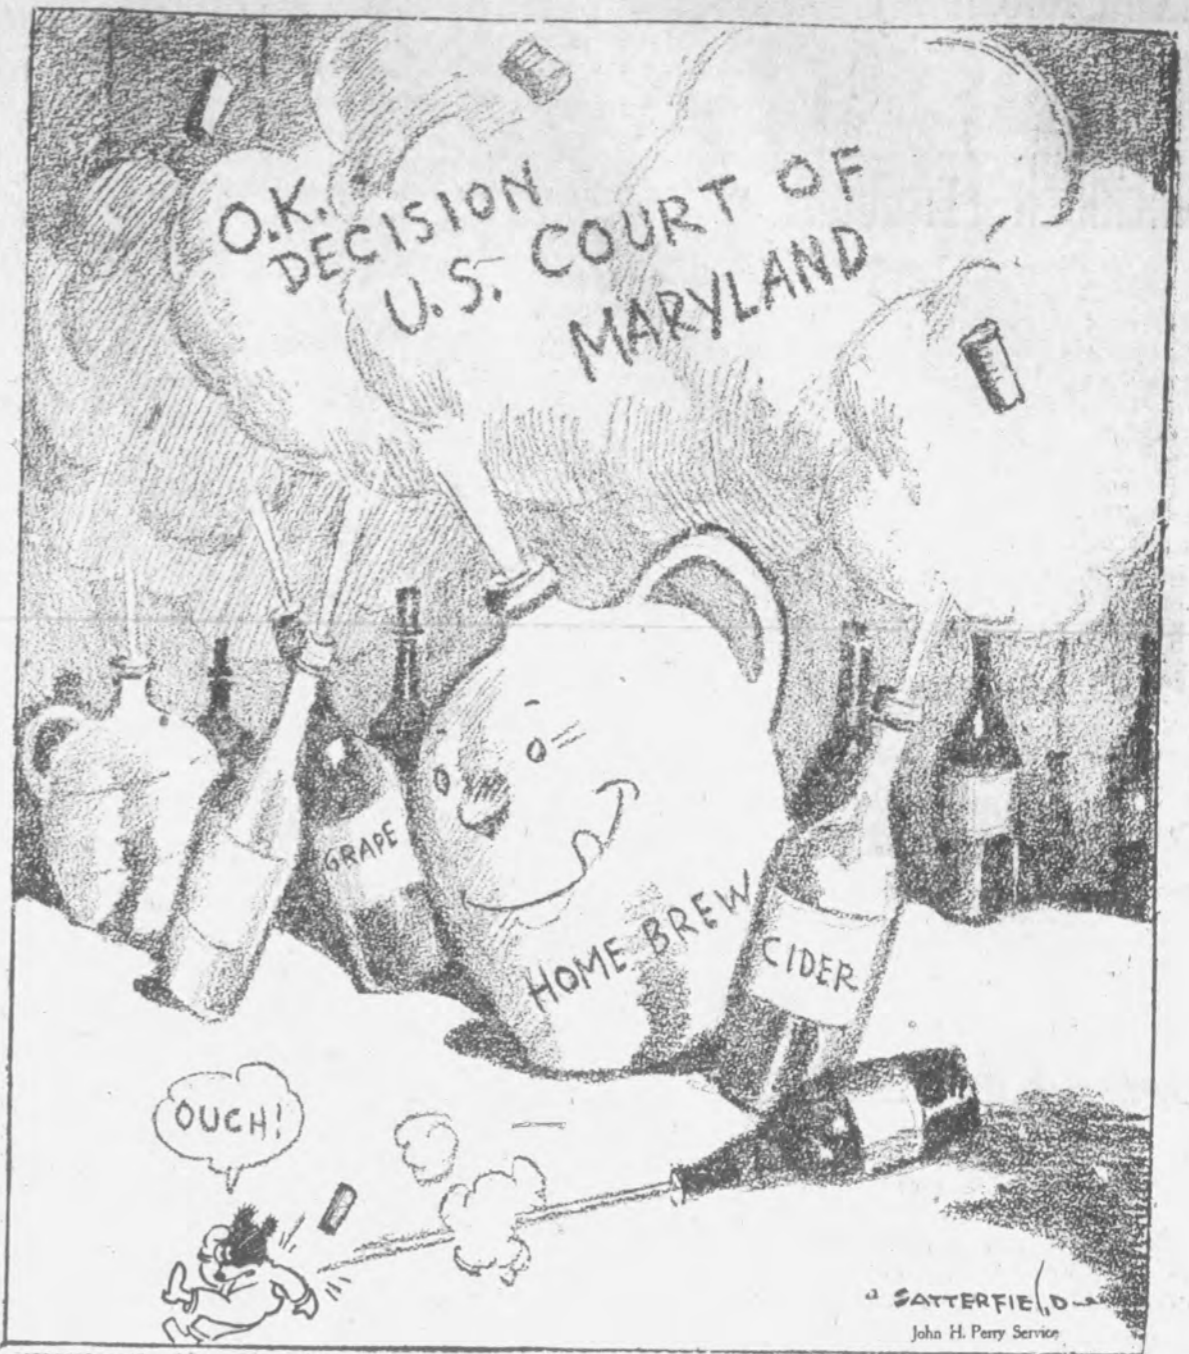

It is not too late for Greenville to recover from her past mistakes and seeming lack of interest. Let us awake from our slumbers and everyone put their shoulder to the wheel to make the coming year one of the greatest for progress in the history of Greenville.

EFFERVESING!!

POLAND FORCED TO BUY U. S. GRAIN BECAUSE THE FLOODS REDUCED HARVEST

Warsaw.—Rain and flood have reduced the harvest of grain in Poland this year, although the sown area is larger than it was last year. Poland, therefore, will be forced to purchase more grain in America than last season.

The Polish-American Chamber of Commerce will take steps to protect the consumer by getting hold of the chief supplies from United States and selling them as cheaply as possible.

Stanislas Arcl, formerly Polish High Commissioner for food purchases in America, will go to the United States in this connection.

TRAVELOGUE GREATLY ENJOYED AT COLLEGE

Those who saw the beautiful pictures of Alaska shown last evening at East Carolina Teachers College and heard Edgar Raines' illuminating talk accompanying them, giving explanations, bits of experience, and facts and figures, felt as if they had actually traveled through that wonderland, Alaska. The marvelous vegetation in a land where things grow twenty-four hours every day while they do grow, dispelled the idea that Alaska is altogether a land of ice and snow. The color and light in the pictures were caught by an artist who traveled with Mr. Raines. The man who brought this Travelogue to the college is an authority on Alaska, not a mere tourist who has visited the country. He has traveled thousands of miles in connection with work he was doing in and for the country. He has known it from the early days of the rush to the Klondike. He has known well such men as Robert Service, whose "Spell of the Yukon" has been read by thousands, and Rex Beach, whose stories of this region are read every where.

About six years ago Mr. Raines gave his Travelogue at the college and it was liked so well that a return engagement was asked for.

TWO VALUABLE FARMS TO BE SOLD AT AUCTION ON FRIDAY, NOV. 21.

On Friday Nov. 21st, at 10.30 a. m., the Atlantic Coast Realty Company will sell at auction the J. H. Corey home place located three miles from Winterville and six miles from Greenville. This farm, one of the best in the county, contains 300 acres with approximately 100 acres cleared, the balance in woodland. The buildings on the place consist of the main dwelling, a two story nine room house, three three room tenant houses, four tobacco barns, one pack house, stables, out buildings and other farm buildings.

The sale will be held regardless of weather conditions.

Horace Cox Farm.
Immediately following the sale of the Corey farm the J. Horace Cox farm will be sold with the sale being conducted on the J. H. Corey home place.

This farm which is located on the Calico to Washington road, 15 miles from Greenville, contains about 170 acres with about 50 acres cleared and in a high state of cultivation. On the place there is sufficient wood for all farming purposes. The soil is fertile and adaptable to the cultivation by all crops grown in this section.

The building on the place consist of one good six room residence, with electric lights and other modern improvements.

The attention of the public is called to the two sales. The Corey farm, subdivided, will be offered for sale first followed by the sale of the Cox farm.

PROF. R. C. DEAL ADDRESSES JOINT MEETING OF PARENT-TEACHERS ASSO.

The two Parent-Teacher Associations of the city met in joint session at the High School Wednesday afternoon with a big attendance of parents from both Model and Graded Schools. All business of the associations was dispensed with, except the report of the nominating committee, which again conferred upon Mrs. Winslow, the presidency of the Model School Association, for another year. A list of Grade Mothers from the Evans Street School, was read as follows:

- 1a Mrs. L. B. Burke.
- 1b Mrs. Jack Teel.
- 2a Mrs. Gus Forbes; 2b Mrs. G. A. Forrest; 3a Mrs. K. W. Cobb; 3b Mrs. J. M. Edwards; 4a Mrs. Berry Botic; 4b Mrs. H. L. Rivers; 5a Mrs. J. W. Hardee; 5b Mrs. N. L. Holton; 5c Mrs. C. Washington; 6a Mrs. E. W. Harvey; 6b Mrs. R. E. Curran; 6b2 Mrs. W. L. Best; 7th Girls, Mrs. G. A. Clark; 7th Boys, Mrs. Geo. Coppedge.

Mrs. Winslow then announced the program made up of band numbers and patriotic selections from Seventh Grade, Model School, and Thanksgiving recitations and songs from the Sixth Grade, Evans Street School.

Prof. Deal was then introduced to bring the message of National Book Week, to the parents and children. In a thoroughly live and original manner, he told how boys and girls will always read something. Whether this is good or bad can be decided by parents and libraries. The parents can supplant the Jesse James type of stories, with far better and more interesting stories of such life and action that the child will eagerly devour them. His strong plea was for parents to so inform themselves as to be able to give or recommend to the child, the book in the line of reading he prefers and to give the best in this line.

In attendance of parents, Miss Lytle's Fourth Grade, won the first prize, and Miss Goggin's seventh grade, the second prize. In the Evans Street School, Miss Smith's Grade 11 received the attendance prize.

WHAT IS IT?

All the horse shoes in the world won't bring you luck unless you save.

Ninety per cent of the people who come to want, who get "up against it" for money, who reach old age without enough to pay for their salt, have themselves to blame.

There was a period when it would have been just as easy for them to save as for the friends and neighbors who now have success and plenty.

Good luck is largely a matter of thrift and the will to save SOMETHING regardless of the size of the pay envelope.

MOVEMENT TO MAKE MUSIC FACTOR IN THE CHILDREN'S LIVES

Fort Worth, Texas, Nov. 13. — Believing that the children of today make the musicians or the audiences of tomorrow, the Federation of Music Clubs, co-operating with the Lyceum and Chautauqua associations, will form music clubs among the junior workers to make music a permanent factor in the lives of children.

A plan has been perfected whereby Chautauqua junior workers, in conjunction with the state and national organizations of the music clubs, will organize permanent groups at the Chautauquas and Assemblies to federate through the effort of the national officers and chairmen, Mrs. John F. Lyons, president, has announced.

"We believe this plan will make for a great impetus in our Junior Department," Mrs. Lyons said.

"Our musicians and audiences of the future are the children of today. Training the children in the way it should go musically will help materially to solve many of the problems confronting the American musician in this generation."

Honey Producers To Celebrate Nat. "Honey - Week"

Raleigh, Nov. 18.—The American Honey Producers League is celebrating National Honey Week during the seven days ending Saturday, November 22, and a concentrated effort on the part of the North Carolina State Bee-Keepers' Association is being made to have every farmer as well as bee-keeper of North Carolina realize the importance and the benefits of raising bees.

It is pointed out, by J. E. Eckert, secretary of the North Carolina Bee-Keepers' Association that during the war an effort was made, with some success, to have honey substituted for sugar for home consumption, but that while the consumption of honey increased, the price did not increase in proportion to other commodities or in proportion to the demand for honey in this country. The general effect of this war time drive is shown to be that more people are eating honey now than ever before but that in some sections of the country especially the Southern states, the production has not increased as much as it should have.

According to secretary Eckert, North Carolina has only a medium crop of honey this year and has fallen far short of what the early reports indicated. In this state, he says, the consumption is not up to the high rate of that of other states and as a result farmers are not inclined to spend their time in raising the bees. The relief is offered by Mr. Eckert in that people be educated to eat more honey and for the farmers to produce it in such a way as to bring the home grown product to the attention of North Carolinians.
