LITTLE INTEREST IN LAST ELECTION SHOWN BY SOUTH

Official Returns Indicate Smaller Vote Throughout South Than in 1920 Election

Washington, Dec. 6.—The vote for the three leading presidential candidates in the last election in 19 of the largest states totaled 16,539,932 according to figures received here from Secretaries of States after official canvasses. Official figures from all the states have not yet been received.

Coolidge received 9,991,958 votes in those 10 states; Davis, 4,372,625 and LaFollette, 2,165,459. The states are New York, Illinois, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Michigan, Massachusetts, Indiana, New Jersey, Missouri and Iowa. In each of them President Coolidge received more than half a million votes. In 1920 election those states cast 14,373,014 votes of which President Harding received 9,805,778 and James M. Cox 4,831,326.

Official returns now in show that Coolidge plurality exceeded the vote of Davis in more than a quarter of the states and LaFollette polled a larger vote than Davis in at least five states including Wisconsin where his plurality over Coolidge leaped 142,064.

Interest in the national election apparently was not very keen in the South. Practically every state in that section with the exception of Georgia showed a smaller total vote than in the presidential election of 1920.

Another "Mustache" To Be Added To State Officials

Raleigh, Dec. 6.—Secretary of State William N. Everett will lose the distinction of being the possessor of the only mustache among the heads of the various state departments when Angus Wilton McLean takes office as Governor next month. Secretary Everett has enjoyed the distinction since Commissioner of Labor and Printing M. L. Shipman had his whiskers shaved off several months ago. Both Mr. Everett and Governor-elect McLean wear short, stubby mustaches. The rest of the state officials are clean shaven.

6,577,171 Checks Mailed By Pension Bureau During Year

Washington, Dec. 5.—Preparation and mailing of 6,577,171 checks for an aggregate of $239,004,814 was an item in the year's business of the pension bureau. The bureau's annual report today said it has 525,539 names on its pension lists, as against 539,756 a year ago.

Pensioners now on the roll include 148,815 Civil War veterans; 253,136 Civil War widows; 85,038 Spanish war veterans, and 16,104 Spanish war widows. Still surviving are 31 Mexican war veterans and 33 widows of soldiers of the war of 1812.

During the past year death removed from the lists 21,808 Civil War veterans and 11,444 Civil War widows. These decreases were largely offset by a gain of 16,646 in the Spanish War soldier roll and of 2,987 in the Spanish war widow roll.

A recent reorganization of the bureau has resulted in more expeditious settlement of pension claims, and the speeding up of disposition of pension payments, besides making possible elimination of 150 positions with an estimated saving of $216,000 in government salaries annually.

FRANCE WILL PUT DOWN COMMUNISTS MOVEMENT THERE

Many Foreigners to Be Expelled as Result of Recent Agitation and Demonstrations

Paris, Dec. 6.—The Herriot government has decided to suppress Communist agitation in France which was evidenced strikingly by demonstrations at the Jurets pantheon ceremony and on a more recent occasion of Ambassador Krassin's arrival here from Moscow.

Many foreign mediators will be expelled and the first group of 50 is being started over the frontier today.

Premier Herriot's decision was made public after his conversations yesterday with British Foreign Secretary Austen Chamberlain, who is here on his way to Rome for the meeting of the League of Nations Council.

Receiving reporters last night the Premier said:

"Mr. Chamberlain and I readily agreed to the necessity of putting down Bolshevik activities. We are obliged in France to employ a large number of foreign workmen and it is precisely among these elements that there is disturbance. We need and will use a proper American policy."

Also it is learned the subject was elaborated at length at the last cabinet meeting. It was decided among other things that Communists school teachers dismissed by the preceding government would not be reinstated.

The government is also expected to put into effect a new regulation affecting foreign visitors requiring all who intend to remain more than two weeks to apply within 48 hours after their arrival for cards of identity furnishing a number of particulars about themselves including family history and unmounted photographs. Unless the decision is contradicted meanwhile the regulation will go into effect with the coming of the new year.

The liquor was all poured into the sewer and containers destroyed in the presence of a huge gathering. There was quite an aroma arising from the mixture of monkey rum, corn whiskey, rye whiskey and wine. JAPANESE FEEL NO CONCERN OVER U.S. FLEET MANOEUVERS

New Commander of Imperial Fleet Says He Fears Voice of Press More Than Pacific Manoeuvres

Tokio, Japan, Dec. 6.—Ambassador Okada, the new commander in chief of the Imperial joint naval squadron, told a correspondent of the Associated Press that he would assume the responsibility for asserting that the Imperial Navy felt no concern about the American Navy's proposed Pacific manoeuvres.

"Such exercises carried out 3,000 miles from Japan, though maybe on a little larger scale and of greater duration than is usual for naval manoeuvres, signify very little in our eyes," he said.

He said that were he "a statesman I would feel far more deeply about the attitude of the press over intent on making capital of matters of this kind." Here they fret and fume about the ulterior intentions of America while there they write about Japan's suspicions," he said. "One is as groundless as the other."

Otto Woods Resumes Work Chain Factory At the State Prison

Raleigh, Dec. 6.—Otto Woods, serving a 30-year sentence for the murder of a Greensboro pawnbroker, who made a sensational escape from the State Prison here several months ago is now back at his old job in the chair factory.

Woods was very defiant when he was returned to the prison after his capture in Roanoke, Va., and it was necessary for the prison officials to keep him in his cell for several weeks. He was recently sent back to work in the chair factory and officials say he is making a good prisoner.

Woods and another prisoner overpowered and disarmed a guard in the chair factory, stole an automobile and made their escape last summer. They were later arrested in Virginia.

several of the old friends of John Sarleycorn.

WHISKEY VALUED NEARLY MILLION STOLEN CHICAGO

Federal Authorities Believe Thieves Who Broke Into Government Warehouse Had Assistance From the Inside

Chicago, Dec. 6.—Eight members of the guard supposed to have been on 24 hour vigil at the warehouse from which it became known yesterday hundreds of cases of liquor had been stolen, were under arrest today. The stolen liquor was a part of a $3,000,000 hoard seized by prohibition and Deputy United States Marshals.

Chicago, Dec. 6.—Rare whiskies and wines with an estimated value of $800,000 have been stolen from a $3,000,000 store of fine liquors in a U. S. Army warehouse while armed soldiers patrolled or were supposed to be patrolling the premises, according to United States Marshall Robert K. Levy, custodian of seized liquors in a federal district here.

Fifteen steel doors were cut away and the store and government padlocks and bolts were shattered by the robbers who are believed by federal officers to have had inside assistance.

The raid probably occurred early last Sunday morning they said. Since discovery of the theft more than 80 soldiers and government employees have been questioned but no arrests have yet been made.

THE GREENVILLE MARKET

The average of $594.68 net per acre made by one of Pitt County's farmers on the local market for his entire crop of tobacco is a record of which we as citizens should be justly proud. That our tobacco market is one of our greatest assets cannot be denied and news that the market is living up to its reputation of being the Best Market in the State is a source of pride to us.

FOR THE NEXT SERMON ON ECONOMY

President Coolidge's talk of economy in Government operations is fine. His personal practice of economy is excellent. His declared objection to Federal aid for the States in the matter of good roads as encouraging waste, debt and extravagance is still better. But how comes it that the President's searching economy and efficiency eye is missing the greatest nursery of all for industrial uneconomy and inefficiency which can be charged to the Washington Government? This is the high tariff, which seems to be as great a pet of the President as of the most reactionary of the Old Guard.

If Mr. Coolidge wants an example he can find it abundantly in his own adopted state. It is afforded by the cotton manufacturers, whose mills have been largely closed most of the year and who are now cutting wages by way of starting up again. They charge that imports over their own dictated tariff are the trouble and they are moving to get more tariff under the flexible provisions of the Fordney-McCumber law.

But these imports are generally of fine qualities of cotton goods which the highly protected American manufacturers do not make. They have been finding it easier to stick to old lines. They have been tariff-coddled into ruts. Government has kindly ridden them of the stimulus of foreign competition and they have just naturally grown careless and lazy and inefficient.

The President can preach no sermons so well as one of economy. Why not a sermon on this greatest of all the breeders of national extravagance and inefficiency—the Republican high tariff? N. Y. World.

MRS. D. L. MANGUM ENTERTAINS OFFICERS OF THE WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY METHODIST CHURCH

On Friday afternoon, at her home on West 4th street, Mrs. D. L. Mangum delightfully entertained the officers and circle chairmen of the Missionary Society of the Methodist Church.

An artistic color scheme of pink was used in all the rooms. The chandeliers were especially attractive, with crepe paper shades, pink flowers and bows of mulline.

The guests were asked to bring their sewing, but before many stitches had been taken, Mrs. Milton White, acting as mistress of ceremonies, brought around a contest, which taxed our minds to solve. It was to fill in blank spaces in a very clever "poem" with the names of automobiles. Five contestants had the same number of correct answers, and drew for the prize, Mrs. G. E. Powell being the lucky winner of a beautiful embroidered buffet set, the handiwork of the hostess. The "booby" fell to Mrs. A. B. Ellington, a box of Christmas cards.

While we were still talking automobiles, each one was handed a blank telegram and told to write a ten word message, each word of which must begin with a W. Hereafter many of us will think in terms of W, for we almost exhausted the dictionary in our efforts to make sense. The results were read aloud, and the unanimous opinion was that Mrs. I. F. Lee had earned the prize, a dainty hand-made handkerchief, for the most sensible message. Mrs. Wiley Brown declared that her, was sensible to anyone who had been to Stumpy Point, but as none of the rest of us had ever been there, and could not understand the jumble of "wind" and "wave," Mrs. Brown was awarded the "booby" a darling little doll pin cushion, and she was perfectly satisfied.

Could we rest then? Oh, no. It was too brilliant an assemblage to let our brains rust, so we were bidden to turn our cards over, and find on the back the letters forming the given name of one of our number, and to write adjectives beginning with each letter of the name, descriptive of the person. When these were read, each woman there felt so flattered by all the nice things written about her, that nobody needed any prize.

And then came the "eats," an elaborate two course luncheon, topped off with some of the hostess' Christmas fruit cake, and served by Misses Mildred Mangum, Elizabeth Austin and Frances Norman.

We had had such a good time, we all hated to go home, but the 6 o'clock whistle had blown, and we knew our husbands and children were at home waiting for supper, so we tore ourselves reluctantly away, with many expressions of appreciation to Mrs. Mangum for her charming hospitality.

MRS. H. E. AUSTIN.

Orphanage Day S. S. Tomorrow

The Sunday School is the friend of childhood; the inspiration of youth; the strength of the middle life and the comfort of declining years. The Sunday School builds character, instructs the mind, warms the heart, feeds ambition, encourages the faint hearted, shields the tempted and points the way of life for all. The Sunday School deserves the sympathetic support, the prayerful interest, the loyal co-operation of every loving Christian, of every patriotic citizen and every aspiring youth. The Sunday School stretches out a friendly hand to one and all. I appeal to every member of the Memorial Baptist Church to take an active interest in our Sunday School and enjoy the blessings that will come to them through this work.

Our school is growing from Sunday to Sunday, both spiritually and numerically, but we cannot be satisfied until every church member is supporting this work. Won't you make a special effort to meet with us tomorrow morning at 9:45 and join in this great work. I urge everyone to be on hand promptly at 9:45 and help in the opening exercises. You will help the school and the school will help you. Visitors are cordially invited to meet with us.

Tomorrow is Orphanage day. Make your contributions as liberal as possible, and help to make a big Christmas for the Orphans.

J. B. KITTRELL, Sup'l.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to extend sincere thanks and appreciation to the Greenville Fire Department for their quick response on a call to our home yesterday, also to our many friends who seemed anxious to help us. We feel confident if the fire had been more serious the Greenville Fire Department would have mastered it by their quick action.

WALL STREET STOCK REVIEW
Stock prices displayed irregularity at today's opening of the market with the largest changes on the up side. United States Realty, preferred, advanced one and three quarters and the common one and one half while Baltimore and Ohio and Dupont each advanced a point. Several specialties yielded fractionally on profit taking.

COTTON LETTER
New Orleans, Dec. 6. While there is probably more than ample supply of American and foreign growths for world requirements this season, the market at moment is in a state of nervousness as regards the Government annual crop estimate and report on ginnings to Dec. 1.

The average of 16 private crop estimates is 13,214 highest 13,675, lowest 12,256, highest 12,532 lowest 12,515. The Government report will be released on Monday, Dec. 8, at 10 a. m. New Orleans time will give indicated crop based on bales of 500 pounds gross weight or on the same basis as the Nov. 21 Government report, which pointed to a yield of 12,992.

All cotton futures market will suspend trading for 20 minutes Monday or from 5 minutes before the report is read until 15 minutes after report, when trading will be resumed on a call beginning with Dec. and continuing through the list after the call is over general trading will follow. If the Government returns indicate a production of 13,300 or more market may decline, especially if ginnings are very heavy probably advance if 13,130 or less particularly if ginnings are smaller than expected the trade is looking for a Government of about 13,200 and for ginnings of about 12,250.

Because of the indicated ample supplies of raw for this section, the market after the report has its effect will probably dominated mainly by the character of the trade demand to be experienced in the future.

Meanwhile traders will have to reckon with public sentiment which is bullish in nearly all speculative markets because of genera trade improvement.

Mrs. Sally Hales Died Yesterday

Mrs. Sally Hales, widow of the late Mr. Joseph Hales, died about 3 o'clock yesterday, Friday afternoon, December 5, in the home of Mr. E. Luther Joyner, her son-in-law, on the Falkland road, some seven miles west of Greenville.

Mrs. Hales was sixty two years of age, and is survived by two daughters, who mourn her departure.

The interment will take place today in the family burying ground on the Brown farm in Edgecomb County.

She had for some years been a member of the Free Will Baptist Church, and during her last illness talked frequently and freely about death and had her faith happily placed in her Saviour.

GORMAN'S MARKET REPORT
The sales have been small all the week until Friday when we finished about three o'clock. The market was very dull Monday, but improved each day. Gorman's customers have all gone home satisfied each day, but it has taken judgment and the nerve to buy to do this. We look for a stronger market the coming week as the independent buyers have received some new orders and the Imperial is buying more freely of the grades that suit them.

We have had several to sell with us for the first time this week and they were high in their praise of our salesmanship. Send us your tobacco and you will go home satisfied. We protect each pile sold on our floor.

We have 1st sale Monday; 1st 2nd sale Tuesday; 1st sale Wednesday; 2nd sale Thursday and 1st sale Friday.
