The County Board of Commissioners met in regular session yesterday with every member of the board present. The meeting was featured by the regular business session, opening bids for the Stokes road, and a dinner at the Proctor Hotel in honor of Dr. E. C. Brooks of Raleigh. On account of the bids being so high the contract was not let for the Stokes road, but will be awarded at the next regular meeting.

Following the morning session Commissioners W. W. Dawson, chairman; Paul Dayenport, S. T. White, Ivey Smith and W. J. Smith were hosts at a delightful dinner at the Proctor Hotel in honor of Dr. E. C. Brooks, of Raleigh, president of the State College, former Superintendent of public instruction in the State, and one of North Carolina's leading educators, having as guests county officials and a few representative citizens.

The dinner provided one of the most enjoyable events of the season. Chairman Dawson in his usual attractive manner introduced Dr. E. C. Brooks, who delivered by far one of the most inspiring addresses ever heard by the county commissioners and their guests.

Dr. Brooks who is touring the State studying the system of county government in the various counties in order to intelligently report to the legislature what he considered the best form of county government, prior to the meeting of the commissioners made a careful study of Pitt County's system going into it in detail. After his investigation he was satisfied over the system and in his address lauded the commissioners, auditor and tax supervisor for their splendid system declaring Pitt County to be in the lead of all other counties in the state, having by far the best and most perfect form of government which had come under his observation.

Dr. Brooks is a native Pitt County man and for his home county grows each year as he sets it going forward up the ladder of success.

With the present system of county government any intelligent person can go in the auditor's office and within a few minutes time tell whether there is a deficit or a surplus. The business of Pitt County amounts to several hundred thousand dollars a year and system is absolutely essential to keep the government in good shape.

Mr. Brooks' address delighted the large number of guests present and especially the Board of County Commissioners who can not be commended too highly for their splendid cooperation and interest in the county which they serve.

Perhaps no one present was any happier than Dr. Brooks when he declared Pitt County to be the leader in government system as it is his home county and no man ever grows too big to love his home and to glory in its success.

After dinner the commissioners reconvened and opened bids for the Stokes road, discussed a few matters of minor importance and adjourned. The day's session proved one of the most interesting ever held and was thoroughly enjoyed by all the commissioners.

Two Contenders for Post of President Pro Tem Confident of Victory and Neither Will Withdraw

Raleigh, Jan. 6.—Chief interest in matters in connection with the convening of the North Carolina General Assembly here tomorrow at noon centers in the election tonight at the Democratic caucus of the Senate of a president pro tempore. W. H. S. Burgwyn, of Northampton, formerly a member of the House and Paul Grady, of Johnston, are contenders for the post.

Lobby efforts were made last night to get one of the other candidates to resign but both refused declaring that they were confident of success. Burgwyn claimed he had 27 votes pledged, three more than necessary for his election. His opponent did not state the number of votes he expected to poll but declared he was certain of winning.

In either case it seemed to be the consensus of political opinion that the loser in the race will be worthily recompensed by being given an important chairmanship of one of the judiciary committees.

The Democratic caucus in the House is not expected to be quite as interesting as that in the Senate. Edgar W. Pharr, of Mecklenburg is opposed for election as speaker. However, there will be the election of clerks and consideration of policies. Similar work will also be taken up by the Senate caucus tonight.

Republican legislators will also meet tonight. One matter bears indication of lively interest, the right of S. J. Turner, Republican, of Mitchell, to his seat in the House is expected to be brought before them.

W. W. Neal, Democrat, McDowell, stated last night that Turner's election probably would be carried to the floor of the House. A group of citizens of Mitchell county had retained attorneys to file charges of alleged bribery against Turner with the clerk of the House. Turner was nominated in a three cornered fight and later was elected by a small majority.

The nomination of Mr. Stone was sent to the Senate within five hours (Continued on page 4)

Beloved Greenville Woman Dies in Wilson Hospital; Services Conducted From the Methodist Church

Funeral services for Mrs. N. L. Holton who died in Moore-Herring hospital, Wilson, N. C., on Saturday afternoon, were conducted yesterday afternoon from the Jarvis Memorial Methodist church, by the Rev. V. P. Seville. Interment took place in Cherry Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Holton, 39, was born in Washington, N. C., and before marriage was Miss Florence Roberts. She had been married for twenty-one years and had made her home in Greenville for the past ten years. She was a member of the Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church and was one of its most loyal and devoted members.

Although ill for several months she had only been in the hospital for a few days. She was very popular with a host of friends and was a devoted mother, a true friend and a splendid neighbor.

Mrs. Holton is survived by her husband and four children, Misses Elizabeth and Willie Mae, Luther and Billie Holton. Two sisters and one brother also survive.

The floral tribute was large and beautiful attesting the high esteem in which the deceased was held.

The following were the pall bearers: Active, E. L. Willard, J. L. Kigo, Ralph Garrett, Berry Bostie, J. K. Spivey, John G. Clark, L. L. Rives, E. B. Thomas.

Honorary: H. E. Austin, J. H. Rose, Robert H. Wright, J. L. Little, P. T. Anthony, L. O. Grose, M. K. Blount, H. C. Sugg, K. W. Cobb, Henry Rivers, Geo. H. Clark, E. L. Baker, M. S. Turnage, D. S. Smith, W. S. Dail, G. B. W. Hadley.

French Note Lends NO FURTHER LIGHTS ON DEBT SITUATION

Washington, Jan. 6.—The French debt situation appears to have resolved itself again into a waiting attitude on the part of the Washington government for possible further light on suggestions as to the refunding agreement presented in the memorandum of French Finance Minister Clementel.

While examination of M. Clementel's "personal and unofficial communication" to Ambassador Herriek has not altered the attitude here to accept it as a hopeful sign, it has on the other hand disclosed no concrete proposal for refunding the French debt that might offer a definite foothold for the launching of formal negotiations. It has in fact provided no elaboration of French views on the question beyond what those already known to Secretary Mellon through his conversations with Ambassador Jusserand.

With the possibility of more light being thrown on the situation by further advice from Ambassador Herriek, it is believed any decision as to informal requests by the Treasury Secretary for specific details from M. Clementel on his suggestions would be held in abeyance.

As holding the prospect for more definite developments toward solving the other question now engaging their attention—the matter of payment of America's war claims against Germany, administration officials to

Effort to Override Veto Lacked One Vote of Getting the Necessary Two-Thirds; Vote Was 55 to 29

Washington, Jan. 6.—The Senate this afternoon sustained President Coolidge's veto of the Postal Salary Increase Bill by a vote of 55 the two thirds necessary to override the veto.

Washington, Jan. 6.—President Coolidge's veto of the postal pay increase bill was a direct issue today in the Senate and administration leaders were confident they could muster sufficient strength to sustain the veto.

As the session opened friends of Mr. Coolidge insisted that they not only would be able to hold their full strength on the vote that by agreement must come today but would be able to draw some votes from those opposing the motion to send the bill back to a committee.

Opening the debate today Senator Walsh, Democrat, Massachusetts, argued that an increase in the salaries was necessary to give postal employees a living wage and cited statistics showing increases had been allowed in practically every other branch of the government. The president's veto was also assailed from the Republican ranks when Senator Dail, of Vermont, declared for the bill and insisted his action was not to be considered "disloyal to the chief executive."

The first defense of the veto came from the Democratic ranks when Senator Dail argued that the bill should be defeated for business reasons.

Standing Room Only For General Public At the Inauguration

Washington, Jan. 6.—Standing room only will be provided for the general public at the inaugural ceremonies on capital plaza March 4. Under local auspices, however, stands will be erected along the line of the inaugural parade on Pennsylvania Avenue.

As in the case of the Harding inaugural the president's inaugural address delivered from a temporary stand on the capital steps will be carried out over the plaza by amplifiers.

Local Tobacco Market To Reopen Jan. 12th

The Greenville Tobacco Market which has been closed for the holidays will re-open on Monday, January 12th and on January, 30th close for the season.

Everything is in readiness for the opening on next Monday. All the big companies and independent companies will have buyers on the three sales and it is expected that the prices will be higher than on the opening date. The farmers are urged to grade and sell their tobacco as soon as possible as there are only 15 more selling days for the season.

It is expected that all large companies will want tobacco as they have caught up with all tobacco on hand.

This has been a most successful season taking every thing into consideration and the remainder of the season is being looked forward to with great expectations by warehousemen, buyers and farmers.

France and Germany Fail to Agree Upon Commercial Treaty

Paris, Jan. 6.—Negotiations between France and Germany for a commercial treaty have reached a deadlock.

At the present time both sides are avoiding any action of declaration that might be interpreted as a formal rupture but no secret is made in French official circles that since the German delegation's return from their holiday trip to Germany they have made further negotiations impossible.

The modus vivendi proposed by the French as a final resort to replace the provisions of the old commercial agreement which will expire January 10 has not yet been accepted by Germany and French delegates are exceedingly pessimistic as to the outcome.

Morrison Declares His Job Finished and Recommendations for Future Are Duty of Incoming Governor

Raleigh, Jan. 6.—Governor Cameron Morrison who will retire from office January 14 will make absolutely no recommendations nor address to the General Assembly during the remainder of his term he announced today. He expressed opinion that recommendations for the future were the duty of Governor-Elect Angus W. McLean and added that he had completed his job and that all he would do now would be to go home and work.

Governor Morrison in discussing the reports that he was to deliver an address to the legislature before retiring said that "My administration has accomplished what it started out to do and now it is useless to repeat the same thing again. The state has advanced greatly on a plan of progressiveness and yet it was handled in a conservative manner."

"The next administration will be Mr. McLean's and I will not go before the General Assembly to make any suggestions or recommendations," Governor and Mrs. Morrison will leave Raleigh on the night of January 14 for Charlotte where they will make their future home.

Mr. Charles Hober Forbes, Jr., has returned to Bedford, Va., to resume his studies.

THE WORLD COURT AGAIN

Representative Hamilton Fish, Jr., knows that no declaration by the House in favor of American adherence to the world court can be made binding upon the United States. Nevertheless, he urges such action. He urges it as a veteran of the war, loyal to the memory of the men who gave up their lives, as a believer in the peaceful settlement of controversies between nations; as an advocate of international arbitration, and last, as a Republican member of Congress with a true sense of responsibility to the country.

Mr. Fish cites from the record, how almost two years ago, President Harding submitted to the Senate the proposal that the United States adhere to the world court and how President Coolidge renewed the same recommendations. He names many civic and religious organizations as having indorsed the proposal. With even more point he might call attention to the direct pledge of the Republican Party in the platform adopted at Cleveland last June.

To all such appeals and instructions the Senate has so far been deaf. The world-court proposals of President Harding and President Coolidge still lie slumbering in the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, of which Senator Borah is Chairman. Its members may imagine that their own inaction will help to quiet the popular demand for American adherence to the world court. If they do, they are mistaken. Public opinion has not been silenced but stimulated because of the Senate's delay. The Fish resolution is only one more indication, added to many, of rising impatience throughout the country.—N. Y. World.

All roads lead to Raleigh, where on tomorrow at noon, the gavel will start the 1925 session of the General Assembly in motion. With both contenders for the post of President Pro Tempore of the Senate claiming victory and refusing to withdraw, tonight's Senate caucus bids fair to furnish more excitement than the formal opening tomorrow.

Dr. E. C. Brooks' high praise of Pitt County's system of government and the manner in which the county board of commissioners is conducting its administration is more indication that the eyes of the whole state are upon the county as a model. The fact that Dr. Brooks will recommend that other counties adopt like systems should be gratifying to citizens of this county and cause a more appreciative attitude for the services being rendered to the county.

FRENCH LITIGANTS WAIT YEARS TO GET INTO COURT

Paris.—The Paris Court of Appeals has well over 14,000 cases on its docket awaiting trial, and the principal provincial courts of higher jurisdiction are in much the same situation. At the same time cases are added faster than old ones are decided. Rene Renoult, minister of justice, in revealing these facts to the chamber of Deputies, said litigants often had to wait two years for hearings, and in some instances even four.

Dangerous Coughs Go Quickly With Old-Time Pine-Tar Honey

Perhaps the best remedy ever discovered for a persistent cough that has hung on and on, and which may develop into a more serious condition, is that old-time tried and proved medicine that our parents and grandparents relied on—Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar Honey. The prompt relief is almost magical, and a day or two will break up a bad cough or chest cold entirely. Doctors say the pine tar quickly loosens and removes the phlegm and congestion which are the direct cause of the cough, also healing soreness, while the honey both soothes irritation and gives a pleasant taste.

But be sure you get the genuine and original Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar Honey, and no other. There have been many imitations, but the original is still the best, as it is scientifically compounded of just the right proportions of pine tar, honey and other healing ingredients which the best doctors have found to aid in quick relief. For coughs, chest colds, bronchitis and almost every other throat irritation, including children's croup and colds, often stops a severe cough overnight. Dr. Bell's is only 30c at any good druggist.

Stomach Backache! Many Greenville Folks Have Found the Way

Is a dull, nerve-racking backache wearing you out? Do you feel older and slower than you should? Are you tired, weak and nervous; find it impossible to be happy, or enjoy the good times around you? Then there's something wrong and likely it's your kidneys. Why not get at the cause? Use Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys. Your neighbors recommend Doan's. Read what this Greenville resident says:

W. P. Symonds, carpenter, 207 Washington St., Greenville, says: "My kidneys were out of order, and I had pains in my back and loins. I was restless at night and couldn't sleep well. I had headaches and dizzy spells. The kidney secretions were scanty and contained sediment. Doan's Pills from the Warren Drug Co. soon relieved me."

SEVERAL YEARS LATER Mr. Symonds added: "I get the same good results from Doan's as I did in the past."

Markets

(Furnished by J. W. Cobb)

COTTON LETTER

New Orleans, Jan. 6.—The market displayed a better undertone today because of better cable than expected favorable domestic and foreign trade advices and owing to the continuance of dry weather in Texas and free exports from the United States.

Liverpool cables reported continued buying on breaks considerable over night American buying, a brisk spot demand, Manchester doing a good business in cloth and yarns, and that Indian spinners were calling cotton largely in Liverpool all day.

Liverpool and all Europe appear to be bullish on the basis of 13 pence for American mid in Liverpool which is about the present price there and it is likely that market will receive better support at current price level.

This favorable view of the situation in the face of ample supplies on raw cotton for this season is due to the uncertainty attending the making of another good crop this year, last years crop having been the first good crop in four years.

Advices from Texas are to effect that farmers are becoming very much concerned because of the absence of sufficient rainfall in that important state, particularly in west Texas which is delaying preparations for the next crop; the soil being too dry and hard to plow. Not only are preparations for the next crop being delayed in the southwest the very light rainfall in Texas during the past six months has removed subsoil moisture which is essential for nourishing the land during the summer months in event of summer drought.

The total average Autumn rainfall in Texas, that is for Sept., Oct., and Nov., of this season was only 4.24 inches against 12.23 last season, 7.22 season beforelast and normal of 7.83.

The winter rainfall in Texas so far is very light also, having been light for December whereas in December last season the average was 0.82 and so far this month the better part of Texas has been almost rainless whereas the average for January of last year was 1.78.

Compared with last season exports from the U. S. since Aug. 1 total 4,325,000 vs. 3,338,000 and will likely be about five million by the end of January vs. 3,658,000 for the whole of last season and 4,643,000 for whole of season before last.

Attorney General Stone Is Appointed To Supreme Court

after vacancy in the highest court was created through the retirement of Associate Justice Joseph McKenna who himself was appointed to the court from the Attorney Generalship 27 years ago by President McKinley. The desire of Justice McKenna to leave the court was communicated to the president several weeks ago and accordingly the formal announcement of his retirement was followed by quick action by the White House.

While Mr. Stone will not leave the Department of Justice until his nomination is confirmed by the Senate thought will be given immediately by Mr. Coolidge as to the appointment of a successor. All indications of an official nature are that he has not reached any preliminary conclusions but immediately after the appointment of Mr. Stone a dozen names were being mentioned in connection with the office.

French Note Lends No Further Light On Debt Situation

day were giving their thoughts principally to the meeting of the Allied Finance Ministers convening in Paris tomorrow.

In his reply yesterday to the recent British note on the question Secretary Hughes reaffirmed the attitude of the Washington government that American claims were entitled to equal treatment as those of the allied governments in the allocation of German reparations payments by the conference.
