BOND ISSUE $20,000,000 FOR ROAD IMPROVEMENT INTRODUCED IN SENATE

Adherence to World Court is Urged By Mrs. Catts in Address Before Assembly; Measure for Bridging the Chowan Introduced

Raleigh, Feb. 3.—The introduction of a bill in the Senate by Senator Sams, of Forsyth county, to provide for a bond issue of $20,000,000 for highway improvements was the outstanding development of today's session.

Senator Sams' bill presages the fight between those in favor of the $35,000,000 bond issue bill introduced by Representative Bowie, and Senator Heath, and those who favored Gov. McLean's announced program of $20,000,000 for highway improvements.

The road committees of both houses will get together tonight to consider matters before them, and it is thought probable that the Bowie-Heath bill will come up for action.

Raleigh, Feb. 3.—A plea that the United States give its adherence to the World Court, was made here today before the General Assembly by Mrs. Carré Chapman Catt, noted American suffragist leader.

Miss Julia Alexander, of Mecklenburg, for the first time that she has spoken at length on the floor, voiced her opposition to the measure, declaring that she did not need any advice from back home as to how to vote on the bill.

The measure was finally called up in the House from the unfavorable calendar and upon roll call was defeated 86 to 17.

The upper House in this morning's session devoted its consideration to the measure designed to give the Corporation Commission control of the operation of busses on public roads.

After discussion and with consent of the Senator from Rowan, the amendment was changed to provide for a width not to exceed 86 inches and was adopted.

Following Mrs. Catt's address on adherence to the World Court, and International Peace, both bodies reconvened for consideration of pending legislation.

Among the most important bills introduced in the upper bodies today was the one by Senator McMillin, Burgwyn, and Hargett, which would authorize an appropriation of $400,000 for erection of a bridge over lower Chowan River to connect with the "Lost Provinces of the North East."

Bids for construction of the Junior High School here will be opened this afternoon and contracts for the building let. It is understood the structure will cost approximately $50,000 to $60,000.

The new building is to be located on the site just to the rear of the present high school building, and will no doubt in time become a part of the present school. The arrangement of the new building is to be such that when the need of the town and the school should necessitate it the two buildings can be joined together by an auditorium and the auditorium in the present building be converted into class rooms.

Fear Bloody K. K. K. Outbreak in Herrin

Chief of Police Walker, of Herrin, Ill., and Sheriff George Galligan, of "Bloody Williamson" County, have urged that State troops be sent to Herrin, and that the town be placed under martial law until all citizens are disarmed. They declare the police are powerless, and that they fear a bloody Ku Klux Klan outbreak, following the death of S. Glenn Young, K. K. K., self-appointed law enforcer; Deputy Sheriff Ora Thomas and two other men, killed in a revolver duel. Hundreds of Klansmen, in full Klan regalia, attended the funeral services for Young, whose body is shown being taken from the First Baptist Church, to the cemetery.

Bessemer, Ala., Feb. 3.—A mistrial was declared today in the case of W. Edwards, who is charged with wife murder. The jury, which retired Saturday, reported to Judge Gwyn that it was hopelessly deadlocked.

The jury had deliberated more than 70 hours. It was announced by members of the jury that the first vote was 10 to 2 for acquittal. The next vote was 11 to 1 for acquittal, and that this vote had never changed through the long hours of deliberation.

COMMISSION LETS CONTRACT FOR TWO MORE PAVED ROADS

Stokes and Ayden to Ridge Springs Projects Let By County Board Yesterday at $20,468 Per Mile

Contracts for construction of a sixteen foot concrete road from highway number 11 to Stokes, and for a similar road from Ayden to Ridge Springs (Greene County line) were let by the Pitt County Highway Commission yesterday at a price of $20,468 per mile. It is understood that this figure is far below that of the bids refused by the commission several weeks ago and is said to be the lowest cost per mile ever paid for construction of such a road in the state.

The contract was awarded to the Robert Paving Company, of Salisbury, Maryland, and work is to begin not later than April 15. The contract calls for the completion of the 6.4 mile of the Stokes road (the first to be built) within three months from the date operation begins and for completion of the 4.1 miles of the Ayden to Ridge Springs road two months later.

The completion of these two projects will add much to the county's present system of highways and will be a great benefit to residents of the sections through which these roads pass as well as to the towns to which they lead.

Washington, Feb. 3.—Faced by a jam of legislation in the single month remaining of the present congress, the Republican Steering Committee of the Senate has selected a priority list of the nine measures to be placed for action in that body between now and March 4th, when adjournment will be taken.

Second in line is the McLanahan bill authorizing the Treasury Department to reduce the interest on government loans to the railroads, subject to the approval of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Commission on the list of the Farm Relief Measure, recommended by the President's Agriculture Committee was explained to the leaders, that they are still in a formative state. The Agriculture Committee of both the Senate and House are meeting today for a hearing.

Other measures on the Steering Committee's program include the Civil Service Retirement Bill, the McFadden Banking Bill, and the Government Department Reorganization measure.

DIPLOMACY AN EASY VICTOR WHEN MARIE MEETS PRESS

Belgrade.—Queen Marie of Yugoslavia, a Rumanian by birth and a Serbian by marriage, who is accompanying King Alexander on his tour through southern Serbia, has aroused a warm controversy between Bulgarian and Serbia ethnologists, by the costume she has been wearing on her travels.

She appeared at Skopie in a local costume of bright colors on a white woolen ground. When the ethnologists in Sofia heard of this, they made the charge that he was wearing a Bulgarian population. The Belgrade ethnologists retorted spiritedly that Queen Marie was wearing a Serbian costume. So much local interest was manifested that finally the question was referred to the Queen herself. To the inquiring newspaper reporter she made answer: "I am wearing the costume of my people, and the reason is that I find it becoming."

RESCURERS WORK TO FREE CAVE EXPLORER FROM LIVING DEATH

With Feet Pinned Beneath Eight Tons of Rock in Underground Passage the Victim Awaits Success of Their Efforts

Cave City, Ky., Feb. 3.—Stone workers, monument men and engineers, united their efforts today to free Floyd Collins, 35, from his prison in Sand Cave, six miles from here, where a huge boulder caught his foot Friday morning and pinned him in a narrow cavern.

Rescuers this morning had carried away small pieces of stone and handfuls of mud until a passage had been cleared as far back as his knees. The debris was removed piece by piece for 150 feet within the narrow tunnel through which men crawled nine-tenths of the way. Rain and dripping water drained from the mouth down a 10 foot drop before striking the underground channel, which zigzags through jagged rocks at a decidedly downward angle. Mud and water constituted the floor of the tunnel and some of the men entering the cave returned cut, bruised, and water soaked.

Collins was still hopeful this morning of being taken out alive. Rescuers told him of each mechanical implement that had been rushed to the scene from Louisville and of the efforts of various delegations to reach him from behind.

Today the strain of nearly 100 hours of torture showed its effects. Collins begged his rescuers not to leave him alone. Tiny pieces of rock described as entirely too small to inflict pain fell upon him, and brought gasps from the captive. Physicians warned against further efforts to push the cave explorer out by force, as death from rupture probably would result. Three doctors are in constant attendance upon him in order to relieve pain while rescuers worked in an effort to raise the eight tons of rocks which hold him fast in the cavern.

Local Post American Legion Will Conduct Membership Drive

The Annual State-wide membership campaign of the American Legion started February 1st. The local post which is vitally interested in increasing its membership will during the next few days send out members of the Post who will visit every ex-service man and solicit his membership.

The posts in the state have been divided into four groups and classed as follows: All posts with a past membership of over 200 are placed in Class A; all posts with a past membership of from 76 to 200 are in Class B; all posts with a membership of from 21 to 75 are in Class C, and all posts with a past membership of from 15 to 20 are in Class D. The Pitt County Post is now in Class B, and is very anxious to reach Class A. Only the ex-service men can make this possible.

The Department headquarters is presenting to the post of each of these four classes that obtain the highest percentage of membership a beautiful Loving Cup. These will be temporarily presented on or about March 15th.

Mr. Wade H. Phillips, Department Commander, and Mr. Paul G. Noel, Department Adjutant, are urging every ex-service man to join the Legion.

The local post will make every effort possible to increase its membership and invite every ex-service man in Pitt county to become a member.

TO REGULATE SKATING

In view of the dangers surrounding street skating many complaints have reached the Board of Aldermen and it is understood that body will take up the matter at its regular meeting next Thursday night with a view to either regulating or prohibiting skating upon our city streets.

While it has been pointed out that the children of the city have no place to skate except upon the streets we do not believe that the children should be permitted to subject themselves to the present dangers that accompany street skating here. Before prohibiting all skating, however, it might be well for the City Fathers to endeavor to regulate it to such an extent that the present dangers would be removed and the child still be given opportunity to enjoy the pastime. It has been suggested that the city be zoned for this purpose. In other words, during certain hours of the week let the commissioners set aside certain portions of our city streets for the use of the children and during such hours prohibit traffic from these districts. By mapping out a varied program whereby the different zones could be used by the children at different times it would give opportunity for all those who desire to skate to do so in the immediate neighborhood of their homes where they would be subject to supervision of their parents.

If given the proper attention this zoning could be mapped out with but very little if any inconvenience to traffic and the children could be permitted to enjoy the outdoor sports without subjecting themselves to the dangers of injury or death among the city's traffic.

BUSINESS ABILITY COUNTS

The Pitt County Highway Commission deserves much credit for its business ability in the handling of the county's road affairs and especially the letting yesterday of the contract for the Stokes road and the Ayden-Ridge Springs road.

Several weeks ago bids on the contract for the Stokes road were opened by the Commissioners and it was announced that the contract would not be let because all bids were considered too high. This failure to let the contract on scheduled time by the board caused some criticism by those who are anxious to see the county road program completed but the commission explained that it would be better for construction work not to begin until after the bad weather and that in the meantime they were sure the contract could be let at a price below the lowest of the bids on file.

As a result of yesterday's meeting the commission let the bids for both projects, a total of ten and one half miles at a cost of $20,468 per mile which figure is more than $30,000 less on the whole project than would have been paid under the lowest of the former bids. It is understood that yesterday's letting was at the lowest rate ever procured anywhere in the state for the construction of such a road.

We reiterate that Pitt County is fortunate in having men with business ability in charge of the expenditure of the public's money.

Many persons are expressing regret that today was not the day for "Mr. Ground Hog" to make his appearance instead of yesterday.

At last Greenville's playground promises to become a reality. With the letting of the contract this afternoon for the new Junior High School building excavation work will begin immediately and the earth removed from the school site is to be used to fill in the playground site to make it ready for the equipment. The Kiwanis Club has announced that it will launch a campaign to procure equipment for the playground just as soon as the site is in suitable condition for the placing of such equipment.

FLOATING BOTTLE SURVIVES

ELEVEN ROUGH YEARS AT SEA
Falmouth Eng. Jan.—Eleven years ago Capt. J. K. Moore, the landlord of a local hotel here, was in charge of the motor launch Fort Church when the vessel was caught in a blizzard at Fort Perriquet Bay, on the Labrador coast.

Thinking that his ship was doomed and that the crew would perish, the captain enclosed farewell messages in a bottle and threw them overboard. After he had done this it was found possible to beach the vessel and all lives were saved.

Capt. Moore has now received word from the Hudson Bay Company to the effect that the bottle with the message has been washed up on the island at Labrador.

HERE IS THE BEST POINTER ANYONE CAN GIVE YOU—SAVE

We all travel down the same pathway in life. With the passing of the years, our earning power grows less. Poverty stands always ready to clutch us UNLESS we provide for the situation IN ADVANCE.

Nobody holds a reserved seat in life's performance. Each person is subject to the same laws. Chance really plays but a small part.

Fact is, you can't afford the inevitable by DRIFTING. You must prepare by saving a part of your income OR you must suffer the usual consequences.

It may be hard to save now but it will be a lot harder just to live, when you have passed the warm noonday of life.

There is but one sensible conclusion: SAVE.

I had to go to bed and stay sometimes two weeks at a time. I could not work and I just dragged around the house. "I got very thin—I went from 126 pounds down to less than 100. BETHEL SCHOOL NEWS

THE RESCUE

The sun was casting heating rays across the calm waters of the Atlantic ocean. Never was there a more cooling or refreshing sight than to see scores of people bathing, laughing, playing pranks on one another, in the water trying to white away the hot, dreary day. The laughing of merry children with the sound of the mild splashing of waves upon the shore. People seemed to be merrier than usual, but at heart were putting on, to hide the restless, oppressed, tired feeling within.

Annie O'Neil and Peggy McLow, the most popular beauties of the fashionable resort and summer school, seemed unusually depressed and restless. To while away the weary moments, they decided to take a swim, and became very enthusiastic and reckless over it. At length, they were beyond the noisy shore, rushing on to meet their fate.

Neither noticed the dark clouds gathering overhead nor the distant roar of the thunder. Louder and louder it rumbled from one side of the horizon to the other. The lightning flashed, the waves beat higher upon the crowded shore, foaming and raving like a mad beast.

Annie and Peggy were so wrapped up in their sport, they were wholly unaware of all these proceedings, until—alas! Too late! When, finally, they did find their mistake in coming so far, they cast a longing gaze back to the shore. How their hearts seemed to sink like lead when they saw not a single soul in sight!

Never were there two girls more down hearted and frightened than they were when they started toward the shore amid a downpour of rain, while the lightning flashed across the heavens and the rumbling and roaring of thunder could be heard far and wide.

They were about one third of a mile from the shore when their strength failed them. With their arms clasped about each other, everything grew dark as they slowly descended through the waves for the first time.

Meantime, the shore was in a general uproar, as people began to throng the porches of hotels, boarding houses, summer houses, and the like. Annie and Peggy were missed by two young men who had seemed to pay very much attention to them. After very much inquiring and searching, they were finally told that the last time the two girls had been seen, they were swimming with all their strength toward the opposite side of the little bay. Of course, the love-stricken lads knew Annie and Peggy had not had time to reach the further shore, and this thought made them frantic with fear.

Against all advice, they left the shore in a very poor canoe, endangering their own lives to the mad, rushing waves. After a daring search, they rescued the unconscious girls just as they came up for the second time.

Soon after, they had a double wedding, which of course, was a very happy outcome to what almost amounted to a tragedy.

GRAIN

Clement—Support evident on dips. Hulburd Warren—All grains look too high and we expect a good break all around.

Harris—Until there is a nearer approach to actual scarcity we remain skeptical as to existing price levels.

Bartlett—We advise conservatism in trading in wheat. Underlying conditions in coarse grains are not bullish.
