

Collins May Not Be Reached Until Next Saturday

Rescuers Hopeful of Striking Natural Entrance Which Would Lead to Imprisoned Man; Shaft is 45 Feet Deep

Cave City, Feb. 12. — Henry R. Carmichael, in charge of the rescue work at Sand Cave where Floyd Collins has been imprisoned 13 days, this afternoon began prospecting in the shaft now being made to find a natural entrance to the cave behind where a "squeeze" closed the passage last Thursday.

Cave City, Ky., Feb. 12.—The official bulletin issued this morning by the engineer representing Governor Field, said that the depth of the rescue shaft was "about 45 feet." He gave 9 o'clock Saturday night as the maximum time to reach the "maximum depth" to which it will be carried.

"We appear to be close to the roof of the cave, and have speeded up the excavation to the rate of 10 feet in 24 hours," the statement said. "There is a great possibility of finding an opening at any time. Tunneling will start, if Collins has not been uncovered, when the shaft reaches 68 or 70 feet."

Cave City, Ky., Feb. 12. — The line stone roof of Floyd Collins' cavern was reached at the base of the rescue tunnel early this morning at the 45 feet stage. "Any minute" the diggers expect to find a crevice or cavern which can be opened sufficiently for rescuers to work their way to Collins, who is imprisoned in a rock vice in the cave. The down draft in the rescue shaft became stronger this morning, nervyng the weary diggers to fresh efforts. The return last night of the Western Normal Football squad, excused from classes until the finish of the race against death, also heartened the diggers, although they all realize that two days may elapse before they reach Collins, unless fate points a way through an unexpected tunnel.

Nineteen Prisoners Escape State Farm Last Night

Prisoners Cut Through Floor and Tunnels Their Way to Freedom; Four Recaptured

Raleigh, Feb. 12.—Nineteen prisoners tunneled their way to freedom last night from the State prison farm in Halifax County, as stated in information received this morning by Geo. Ros. Pou, head of the State Prison. Four of the prisoners have been recaptured early today, but the balance are still at large.

According to information received by Mr. Pou, about 200 prisoners were confined to camp because of the rain during the most of yesterday. They escaped through a hole which was made through the floor of the wooden structure, which is built over a brick foundation. The mortar between the bricks was removed and a means of egress made to the ground below. The men then burrowed through the ground under the foundation to the outside.

All of the prisoners were counted into the camp last night after supper, according to Mr. Pou's information and the break is believed to have occurred some time shortly after that hour. Mr. Pou expressed belief that the forced idleness of the prisoners yesterday gave them an opportunity to make the excavation through which they escaped.

Washington, Feb. 12.—An investigation of the gasoline industry was requested in the Senate today by Senator Trammell, of Florida. The girls were ordered "by the President to garb themselves in clothing in no way conspicuous. He prescribed the following, skirts not more than nine inches from the ground, elbow sleeves, close fitting collars, and rougless faces. The president stated that "the modern girl should be so inconspicuous in her mode of dress that people might not remember her for her clothes, but for personality."

Greensboro, Feb. 12.—With directed verdict in favor of three additional stock salesmen this morning, bringing the total number vindicated by this procedure to 19, and leaving 20 per sons on trial in the case of Bailey Bros., Inc., defunct Winston-Salem tobacco firm, charged with using the mails to defraud, the government and the defense prepared to begin argument.

A request made by Col. Hobgood, of the defense, that an unlimited time be allowed was vetoed by Judge Webb, who stated that he would allow each side sufficient time for presentation of the case, but that he wished to set a definite limit.

Defendants set free this morning were H. C. Baucum, Glenn McCall, and E. G. Mathews. It was said that the evidence against these three men did not warrant further prosecution. The original bill of indictment carried 49 names. One defendant was removed by death, several cases were not pressed, two defendants were never located, and one is ill and unable to attend court.

GLGCOMY FUTURE FORECAST FOR BRITISH SHIPBUILDERS

Glasgow.—The immediate position and outlook in the shipbuilding industry are exceedingly grave, according to John Barr, president of the Shipbuilding Employers' Federation, in an article in the Industrial Review of the Glasgow Herald. The work in hand, where there is any, is approaching completion, and there is little, and in many shipyards nothing, to fill up empty berth, says Mr. Barr. The orders obtainable are taken by builders without hope of profit; in many cases tender prices make only part provision, and in some cases no provision for establishment charges.

Such a condition of affairs, Mr. Barr adds, cannot continue indefinitely, nor even for much longer. The feeling actuating shipbuilders generally has been to carry on as best they can, and in doing so they are considering the interests of the work man rather more than those of the shareholders.

House Passes A Bill To Create 4 New Districts

Senate Passes $20,000 Road Bond Measure With Increase in Gasoline Tax From Three to Four Cents

Raleigh, Feb. 12.—Passage by the House on final reading of a bill to redivide the State into 24 judicial districts instead of 20, as at present, passage by the Senate on the second reading of a measure to lower the personal property tax exemption from $300 to $50, and unanimous passage on its second reading of the $20,000,000 bond issue in the Senate and a companion measure to increase gasoline tax from three to four cents per gallon, were the features in today's procedure of the General Assembly.

Raleigh, Feb. 12.—A State-wide Australian ballot measure was introduced at the opening of today's session of the House by Representatives Moss, Falls and Harrison, while in the Senate the $20,000,000 Bond issue bill for road building was passed on its second reading unanimously. In the House, Representative Neal, of Caswell, sent forward a measure designed to repeal the laws now in force authorizing boxing matches in every city in the State. A minority report on the Pool bill designed to prevent the teaching of Evolution in State schools was presented in the lower body, and it is indicated it will come up on the calendar tomorrow.

Action on the $20,000,000 bond issue was not expected in the Senate until a Companion bill providing for increase in the gasoline tax from three to four cents per gallon was presented. However, this companion measure designed to repeal the law indicated that it would be presented at a later date.

In the Senate, Senator Blue announced that proponents of the Wade-Blue State-wide game bill had agreed to eliminate from the measure the provision calling for a $10,000 appropriation, and asked consent to withdraw the measure from the Appropriations Committee and bring it up on the floor. Consent was granted.

The bodies then entered into discussion on the bill by Senator Burgwynn which would reduce the property tax exemption from $300 to $50. In the House the measure Judicial Districts of the State came up for reconsideration on a motion of Murphy, from Rowan. The discussion opened with an amendment by Murphy so as provide for the establishment of four instead of seven additional districts.

Senator Burgwynn's measure was passed by the Senate before adjournment, and decreases the exemption of personal property from taxation from $300 to $50.

Mahler Pays $10.00 For Assault on Bailey

Raleigh, Feb. 12.—Fred W. Mahler, local jeweler, was fined $10.00 upon conviction of assault, and Josiah W. Bailey, local lawyer, was acquitted this morning in City Court as the aftermath of a street clash yesterday morning between the two men in front of the local Post Office.

In disposing of the case, Judge Harris granted a motion made by Bailey to strike out the charge of affray, preferred against him by the public, and substitute a new charge of assault against Mahler. Both men were originally charged with affray. Mahler pleaded guilty that he struck the first blow, while witness stated that Bailey exchanged blows in his own defense.

PALESTINE'S HEALTH REPORT LAUDS WORK OF U. S. WOMEN UNIT

Jerusalem, Jan. — The efficiency of the Hadassah Medical Organization, an American Jewish women's association, is praised in the annual report of the Palestine government's department of health.

Speaking of infant welfare, the report states: "The drop-of-milk scheme in Jerusalem has been merged in the health welfare centers, which the Hadassah Medical Organization is conducting on modern lines under the direction of well trained and experienced personnel."

In the chapter on the mortality rate the report points to the fact that "as a result of the activities of the infant welfare stations in Jerusalem the proportion of deaths among babies in 1924 was 40 per 1000 births, as compared with 150 in 1921-1922."

Appreciation is expressed of the activities of another American organization, the Anti-Malarial Research Unit financed by the Joint Distribution Committee of New York. "The anti-malaria work accomplished by the research unit has been of the greatest value," the director of health states.

Mentioning the Hadassah nurses' school the report recalls that this institution continued its work as the largest center for the education and training of nurses in the country.

Mention is also made of the sick fund (Kupah Cholim) of the Jewish Labor Association and the extension of the work of this fund by the establishments of a network of clinics and convalescent homes within the country.

BRITISH GIRL FEARED ARGENTINA MIGHT CAPTURE PRINCE OF WALES

London. — The Prince of Wales was amused at a meeting of the League of Mercy recently when Lady Tree told a story, illustrating the ignorance in some quarters of London of parts of the earth outside the British empire.

While looking at an electric news sign in Trafalgar Square, Lady Tree said she heard a girl say to her man friend:

"The Prince is going to visit Argentina. What's he going to see there for?"

The disdainful reply was: "He's not a the—he's the captain of the All Blacks."

The All Blacks are a visiting and conquering team of New Zealand football players.

HERRIOT INDICATES AILING MEMBER WITH APT REFERENCE TO POLITICS

Paris.—Premier Herriot, who has just recovered from a swelling in one of his legs which kept him confined to his rooms for nearly a month, never once lost his good humor, in spite of the physical pain and the great mental worry over bitter political attacks leveled at his government during his illness.

The government of which M. Herriot is the head is composed of the more advanced elements of the French chamber—excepting the Communists—and is generally called "the government of the lefts."

"Which one of your legs is ailing?" one of his friends whom he received in his sick room, asked him one day. "The right, of course," replied Herriot. "I am the man of the 'lefts,' the 'rights' is seeking revenge."

MEXICO STAND FIRM FOR PROTECTION OF LOCAL WILD ANIMALS

Tucson, Ariz., Feb. 11.—Dust has fallen on the big game hunters in Mexico. Thousands of deer, bear and wild hogs roaming the hunting grounds of northern mountain ranges will be saved from overzealous hunters under restrictions invoked by the chamber of deputies upon the recommendation of Ben Tinker, Tucson, Mexico's American game warden.

Free hunting the year round, without regard for season or bag limit, which heretofore has made the Sinaloa and Sonora mountains a hunter's paradise, new structure of game laws paralyzing the American game restriction and the first on record for preservation of game in the southern republic, observers here say.

Establishment of specified open game seasons according to zones, into which the various states are divided, are provided under the new law, according to Mr. Tinker, who has returned to Tucson from an extended trip through the game regions of the Mexican west coast. But one month each year—October—is set aside for deer hunting along the coast, he said. The law protects both whitetail and blacktail deer from the hunters.

Three large zones, embracing respectively the central northern and coast regions, are provided. In each zone the bag limit on deer will be four for a hunter during the open season.

In the central zone the open deer season will begin Sept. 1 and close Oct. 31 and in the northern zone the season will begin Oct. 1 and end Nov. 30. Similar seasons are established on bear shooting, with the one-month rule also applying in this instance on the west coast, where wild beagles are more plentiful than in other parts of the republic.

The hopes of Dr. William H. Hornaday, manager of the Permanent Wild Life Protection Fund, are realized in the new law, designed primarily, according to Mr. Tinker, to stop wholesale slaughter of Mexico's big game by Mexican market hunters and American trophy hunters.

Convention Year In Asheville

Asheville, Feb. 11.—The year 1925 will be "convention year" in Asheville, according to Norman W. Reed, Convention Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, who has announced that no less than eighteen conventions will be held here during the year. These conventions, he states, will attract thousands of visitors. In addition to the eighteen already definitely scheduled, Mr. Reed states that four or five others are planning to meet here, but as yet have made no decision.

The North Carolina Educational Association, western division, the Playground and Recreation Association of America, Southern Wholesale Confectioners Association, the Klomverse of North Carolina Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and the Southern Newspaper Publishers Association are among the larger conventions that have named this city as their meeting place this year.

The educational convention, it is stated, will bring at least 1,000 teachers to the city and will be held in October, the definite date to be announced later. The Playground and Recreation Association of America will convene October 5 for a period of five days, bringing approximately 1,000 people here. The confectioners are scheduled to meet July 8-10 and it is expected that at least 500 members of this association will attend the meeting. The Ku Klux Klan will probably meet in May, with several hundred delegates attending.

July 6, 7 and 8 are the day, set apart for the meeting of the Southern Newspaper Publishers' Association.

It is stated that at least 500 firemen will attend the sessions of the North Carolina Firemen's Association, which is to be held during the summer, the date to be announced later.

The National Association of Accredited Commercial Schools, another large convention to be held here, this meeting will be held at a local resort hotel June 22-28 and about 350 owners and principals of commercial schools from all parts of the country are expected to come here for the occasion.

July 1-3, inclusive, are the dates scheduled for the meeting of the North Carolina Bar Association, and approximately 300 judges and lawyers are expected to attend the session.

About 225 members of the North Carolina Cotton Manufacturers' Association are expected to register for the session of that body, which will be held July 3-4.

Among the other conventions scheduled for the year are:

American Institute of Architects, Southeastern Division, February 19-20.

American Waterwork Association, North Carolina division, in October.

Lions Club of North Carolina, District 31, June 9-10.

Motion Picture Theatre Owners of North Carolina, in June.

CITIZENS MILITARY TRAINING CAMPS TO OPEN ABOUT JULY 1

The Various Citizens Military Training Camps throughout the United States will open this year about July 1st. All infantry training will be at Camp McPherson, Anniston, Ala., field artillery at Fort Bragg, N. C., and coast artillery at Fort Barrancas, Florida.

Congress has only recently increased the appropriation for these camps to such an amount as will enable 40,000 young men to receive training. And the nation at large is urging that all young men, who possibly can do so, will take advantage of the camps.

Applications for entrance into the C. M. T. C., can be had from Arthur B. Corey, Greenville, N. C., about 15th of this month. It is greatly hoped that Pitt county will be better represented in the C. M. T. C., than any other county in North Carolina, or any other state in this Corp Area.

SWEDEN WARNS AGAINST BREAKING AMERICAN LAWS

Stockholm.—The lure of the Gold on West is as strong as ever in Sweden, and the applications for visas received at the United States consulates have practically exhausted the quotas for the remainder of the immigration year.

In view of this situation the Swedish authorities, as well as the Swedish-American Line, are making efforts to prevent Swedes from yielding to the temptation of entering the United States illegally. Thus the government social board has published in its latest bulletin a warning against attempts to slip over the Canadian frontier by persons who have been legally transported to the Dominion.

Vienna Covets Tax on Radio

Vienna is in the throes of a conflict over taxes. The city administration, which is Socialist, holds that the amusement tax levied on theatres and concert halls is also applicable to the radio service. It therefore seeks to collect a tax upon the use of radio sets in restaurants and coffee houses.

FREE STATES LEAGUE STANDING, THEY SAY, NOT INDIVIDUAL

Dublin.—The attitude of the British government towards registration of the Anglo-Irish treaty with the League of Nations, summed up in the declaration that the treaty was an internal concern of the British empire and of no international significance, has served to strengthen the position of the Ulster and of the Republican parties in their antagonism towards the league.

In this matter the two extremes of Irish politics find themselves in common ground in disparaging the importance of the Free State's membership in the league, both contending that the Free State has no weight in the league apart from Great Britain.

The Republicans contend that the recently expressed attitude of Great Britain towards registration of the Irish treaty confirms their assertions, while the Ulstermen deny that the treaty was properly a treaty at all.

Meanwhile, pro-league opinion in Ireland has been expressed on the treaty question by the recent submission by the Irish League of Nations Society to the international organization on a protest against the British action.

The Irish Society, which is non-political, numerically small, and is headed by Senator James Douglas, vice-president of the Free State senate, argued that the treaty was rightly and necessarily registered and that the failure to register would have been repudiation by the Free State of the covenant.

HAWAIIAN MILITIA WILL TRY TO "REPULSE" FLEET

Honolulu.—Every member of the Hawaii national guard on Oahu island, where Honolulu is situated, will be called to active service to assist the Hawaiian department of the army in "repulsing" the American fleet that will theoretically attack the territory during the naval maneuvers next spring, if the chief of the militia bureau in Washington is able to appropriate approximately $20,000 for pay and allowances.

Colonel Perry M. Smoot, territorial adjutant-general, has asked Washington for the funds. If the request is granted, approximately 700 officers and men of the guard will be available.

Hawaiian Income Taxes Large.

Honolulu.—The territory of Hawaii paid into the United States treasury during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1924, individual income taxes of $5,021,422 and miscellaneous taxes of $775,355, making a grand total of $5,796,777, according to official figures released by the collector of internal revenue.

The total individual income tax payment exceeded the payments of each of 12 states in the union, the announcement said.

LINEAGE, DATING TO REVOLUTIONARY WAR SAVES DOOMED HORSE'S LIFE

Manhattan, Kan.—Riley County (Kansas) is boasting of a horse that is eligible to membership in the Sons of the American Revolution.

The animal's proud lineage recently saved its life in the veterinary hospital of the Kansas State Agricultural College here. The horse was brought to the hospital with an incurable foot disease, and veterinarians recommended killing it. The farmer, however, objected strenuously to parting with his steed. He said that his own grandfather, a major in the War of the Revolution, had ridden an ancestor of the horse, and that his line had remained in his family ever since.

The horse has gone into honorable retirement in the hospital here.

LINCOLN AND LEE

During the sixty years that have elapsed since the end of the strife between the states the barriers between the sections have gradually given way to the spirit of real Americanism and it is fitting that today, the anniversary of the birthday of Abraham Lincoln, that his name and that of Robert E. Lee should be linked together as the Great Americans.

The leadership and efforts of these two men following the Civil War caused the building of a world power from the ruins of four years of bitter strife and as the country becomes more closely bound together the real worth of these Great Americans is becoming more and more realized. The banks of flowers that today bedecked the busts of both Lincoln and Lee in the Hall of Fame in New York, set forth more clearly that "the works of men live after them" and their lives of sacrifice and efforts in behalf of their people occupy a place in the hearts of the whole nation.

Long skirts, high necks and pale faces must supplant the present attire and makeup of the co-ed students of a Lincoln, Nebraska, college, according to the ultimatum issued by the president of the college yesterday. It appears that the college head is determined to bring back the days "When Grandma Was a Girl" and those of the fairer sex who fail to comply with the provisions of the new ruling will be prohibited from classes.

While rumors as to whether the stories of Floyd Collins' imprisonment in Sand Cave are genuine, are flying thick and fast military authorities in charge of operations there have announced that digging will continue until recovery of Collins, dead or alive, if he is in the cave and the public will know the truth from this official source.

PUBLIC FORUM

E. B. HIGGS REPLIES TO MAYOR D. M. CLARK

Feb. 12, 1925.

D. M. Clark, Mayor.

In its editorial of February 9, The Daily Reflector quotes you as saying that "When the site for the school was being chosen the town's plan was outlined to Messrs. Higgs Brothers and that they signified their willingness to such extension of the limits in case the school was built on the proposed site. No such outline was ever submitted to us. On February 11, I made a personal visit to every man on the school board, and every member visited stated that he knew of no such agreement or understanding."

In your letter to The Reflector under date of February 11, you make the following statement: "The proposed extensions of the city limits is absolutely essential to the progress and development of the town. However, the Board of Aldermen in determining upon the extent of the extensions decided not to take any more territory than was absolutely necessary and such as could be improved and developed during the next two years." This statement is greatly exaggerated. We now have ten acres of unimproved land in town without a house on it. This property has been inside the city limits for the past ten years. Your proposed extension would add approximately twenty acres, making a total of about thirty acres within the city limits, with only one house on it, and that a farm house. Now, Mr. Mayor, be honest. Do you believe this extension on that would take in such a large block of unimproved land is "absolutely necessary" for the town's development during the next two years? You say, "The whole controversy involves three blocks of 300 feet by 300 feet, making a total of six acres." These three blocks are not square as you state and they involve 7.1-2 acres instead of six acres. For proof of this statement that blocks are not square, I refer to deed given to the Trustees of the City Schools. The controversy also involves about 7.1-2 acres near Coburn's old market and the James Moore land. So instead of six there are about 15 (fifteen) acres "involved."

You further state: "If this property is valued at $200 per acre it would in its present state cost the owners in town taxes the magnificent sum of $12 per year." We find no fault with your valuation. If the town of Greenville will guarantee to us that the taxes will not exceed $2 per acre, while this land remains unimproved, we will raise no further protest against the lines you propose; on the contrary, if you like, you may take in the entire tract.

You state, "The very property across the street that the Mr. Higgs says should be left out of town cannot be bought for $1,000 per lot, or $20 per front foot." This is not true. Come tomorrow with the cash, and take your choice of lots at that price.

Your letter implies strongly that Higgs Brothers are non-progressive, or rather that we are standing in the way of progress. We came to Greenville about thirty-five years ago. Practically all we have ever made has been invested in Greenville. We immediately acquired land and began to build homes here, and have been continuously building to the present time. We and our associates have created and fostered several of the biggest enterprises in Greenville today. Our record is behind us. The people of Greenville may judge for themselves.

Respectfully,
E. B. HIGGS.

MR. JAMES L. MOORE OPPOSES CITY EXTENSION INCLUDING HIS PROPERTY

D. M. Clark, Mayor
I am an old Confederate soldier. I understand that the proposed extensions will take within the city limits about fifteen acres of my farm land.

If this extension is made it will do me a great injustice.

NORTH CAROLINA NEGROES WANT STATE NORMAL INTO "A" GRADE COLLEGE DURHAM

To the Tax Paying Citizens of Pitt County, and East Carolina:
An effort is on to establish an "A" Grade Negro College in this state for negro teachers. Our Representatives in Senate and House have always been liberal to the negro citizens of this state if matters were properly presented.

There are certain requirements that must be met by our teachers. There is a crying need for properly certified high school teachers.

We have only one "A" Grade institution in the state. That is controlled by the Baptists. The state has been liberal in that from an appropriation of fifteen thousand dollars the different denominational schools are aided materially in teacher training work. We are not sure, how long the state will be willing to do this; Shaw University for years received from the Federal Government an allowance from the "Land Script" Fund—until one section of negro citizens complained—and the A. & M. College for Negroes was established at Greensboro by a Democratic legislature, under Mr. Webster, of Reidsville, established State Normal at Winston-Salem. Later on the Populists established the Elizabeth City State Normal. In 1877 the first effort by the dominant race in the state to aid its negro citizens was made by Zebulon B. Vance, who summoned fifteen negro leaders, the most conservative men of that day and the result of that conference was the Fayetteville State Normal. Later another of North Carolina's Governors, the lamented model Governor Thomas J. Jarvis established the Plymouth, Goldsboro and Franklinton State Normals. After years of effort to build up a strong educational system, the invincible Charles Brantley Aycock administration eliminated all the former schools except three, Fayetteville, Winston-Salem and Elizabeth City Normals. But the National Training School, a private institution, under the leadership of Dr. James E. Shephard of Durham, had so impressed itself on the people of the state and country that it was acquired by Governor Morrison's administration. It is being backed by Durham's best citizens and an overwhelming number of county and city superintendents, by ninety per cent of negro citizens of the state and virtually all the East. I appeal to our friends who believe in inter-racial "Good Will" to delay not, but write a letter to your representatives in the legislature urging them to vote for Durham, as the place for the college.

It's the "environment and location in convenience of travel for all negroes and lessons in thrift they would get aside from the college.

Whether you appreciate the fact or not it's plain real North Carolina negroes desire always to be near their home friends.

Inspiration comes to us from beyond the "River of Death—from the Immortals, Vance, Jarvis, Aycock, Carr, Bickett, Grimes. All wrought well for the negro, I have faith in North Carolina's rulers and pleading with my Eastern friends, because of that faith faltering nor doubting to stand by Durham, the home of negroes who know how to maintain the best relations with their white neighbors.

Respectfully
C. M. EPPES.

METHODIST PHILATHEA CLASS HOLDS MEETING

Messdames Corey, D. S. Smith, M. H. White, Z. W. Brown, R. G. Fitzgerald and Miss Addie Conleton acted as hostesses and the evening was a very delightful one to the large crowd in attendance.

Suggestions of St. Valentine were carried out in decorations and refreshments.

The fun of the evening consisted of a "Mysterious Marriage" in which the wedding party became a bunch of "nuts," the writing and reading of several short stories each sentence written by a different couple not knowing the previous sentence; and a very unique automobile contest from which all issued with aching sides—no not a wreck, just laughter.

The hostesses then served an ice course after which all departed, each glad that she had been there.

COTTON LETTER

New Orleans, Feb. 12.—The continuance of dry weather for the southwest, especially in Texas, and better cables than due, influenced values to a higher level today.

There are two low pressures in the far west, however, one along the Pacific coast moving inland, where the barometer is 29.50, and another low barometer over Nebraska, attended by rising temperatures, which may cause increasing cloudiness, perhaps some rain in the southwest over the week-end. This feature of the situation checked the advancing tendency of values.

The market, for the present, being dominated mainly by Texas weather conditions, its future course will likely depend principally on climatic developments in that important state.

There are other sustaining features but of minor influence, such as the continuance of a good demand for desirable cotton in the interior, at the highest basis of the season, and the firmness of the goods market, in which general heavy weight makes have been withdrawn from sale, indicating light stocks of the finisher product.

Furthermore, exports from the United States continue to run ahead of shipments at this time last year, so far this season being nearly as large as for the whole of last season 5,648,000 against 5,658,000.

EAT TOO FAST

South Carolinian Took Black-Draught For Indigestion, and Says He Could Soon Eat Anything.

Ballentine, S. C.—Mr. W. B. Bouknight, of this place, gave the following account of his use of Theford's Black-Draught.

"Just after I married I had indigestion. Working out, I got in the habit of eating fast, for which I soon paid by having a tight, bloated feeling after meals. This made me very uncomfortable. I would feel stupid and drowsy. I would feel like working. I was told it was indigestion. Some one recommended Black-Draught and I took it after meals. I soon could eat anything any time.

"I use it for colds and biliousness and it will knock out a cold and carry away the bile better and quicker than any liver medicine I have ever found."

Eating too fast, too much, or faulty chewing of your food, often causes discomfort after meals. A pinch of Black-Draught, washed down with a swallow of water, will help to bring prompt relief. Bloating, gas, eructations, bad breath and other common symptoms of indigestion have disappeared after Black-Draught has been taken for several days. NO-164

Theford's BLACK-DRAUGHT LIVER MEDICINE

YOUNG PEOPLE TOLD TO BEWARE OF PATH TROD BY NARCISSUS

London.—Discouragement of what was termed the gladiatorial spirit, which has been reported creeping into the British schools, was argued recently by Dr. H. Crofton Miller in an address to members of the British Association of Physical Training on the subject of "Hygiene for Adolescents." Educationalists, he said, sought simplification of life in generalizations, and the physical training expert was liable to believe that everybody needed physical training. Dr. Miller, however, did not believe this to be universally true, and there were certain youths for whom physical training was bad.

Referring to Greek mythology, Dr. Miller spoke of Narcissus who fell in love with his own reflection in the water of a spring. There were Narcissians today who made themselves the object of their own love and who cultivated their own bodies to be an extent which was actually dangerous. He challenged the generalizations on which he said many physical culturists based their enthusiasm. Dr. Miller contended that generations hence self-confidence among school boys would be based entirely upon the values of intellect and character.

Today the physical animal factor predominated, and consequently a great many adolescent boys were going wrong in their character development owing to their physical make-up.

Dr. Miller advised the association members not to think merely in terms of chest expansion when dealing with individual requirements of their pupils but rather of character.

"We have here in London a stadium accommodating 120,000 persons which has been used for a boxing match that was all over in 60 seconds," asserted the speaker. "This should furnish us something to think about. Even in schools, the way in which watching a part game of football is considered as part of school loyalty far greater than playing the game, is a serious tendency."

The Strongest Endorsement That Is Possible To Give Any Fertilizer

On this page you will find the names of two of Pitt county's most prosperous farmers, men who are known from one end of the county to the other for their honesty and integrity. Would they mislead you — Then read what they say:

Pamlico Chemical Co., Washington, N. C.

Gentlemen:

I have been using fertilizers for the past twenty years, and have tried many different makes, but for the past two years I have put yours to a test under Corn, Cotton and Tobacco with some of the best fertilizers I could buy elsewhere. I could tell your fertilizers to the row, especially under tobacco. I made more weight and by far the best quality with yours.

From my own experience your fertilizers are worth more than any other sold in this community, and there are at least a half dozen or more I take pleasure in recommending your goods to all wanting the best.

(Signed)

Yours truly,

MEDIAVAL STATUE'S VALUE REALIZED AFTER 600 YEARS

Lincoln, Eng.—For long regarded as of very little value, the statue of Queen Margaret on the side of the south porch of the cathedral here, has now been acclaimed by an authority on architecture as "possibly the finest and most perfect example of medieval portrait sculpture left in Europe."

Search is now being made for the name of the sculptor. After 600 years of exposure only the hands and the lower parts of the draperies are appreciably damaged. A suggestion that the statue should be removed from its present exposed position and placed in a specially prepared niche at the back of the altar screen in the Angel Choir has not been favorably received by the dean and chapter, but it has been enclosed in a wooden case to prevent further damage.
