INAUGURATION OF COOLIDGE TO TAKE PLACE WEDNESDAY

Everything in Readiness for Inaugural Event; Ceremonies to Be Simple; Charity Ball to Take Place Wednesday Evening

Washington, March 3.—Twenty-four hours more and Calvin Coolidge will step into the presidency of the United States in his own right. Of all those who have to do with the impressive ceremony which marks an inauguration, President Coolidge himself seems least concerned about it.

It is business as usual at the White House today; a cabinet session; a conference with the White House newspaper correspondents; the usual run of Congressional callers; tourists gathering for the inaugural ceremonies seeking a chance to shake hands with the President.

The President and Mrs. Coolidge are not concerned in the eleventh hour confusion of moving. As one may put it: "Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Coolidge have renewed for four years their lease on the handsome colonial mansion at No. 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue."

For 125 years now the White House, described by a celebrated American architect as "a typical home of an American gentleman on the banks of the Potomac" has been sheltering presidents and, like every other American home, whether great or lowly, it has at the same time been sheltering success and failure, poverty and riches, happiness and sorrow.

George Washington laid the cornerstone of it in 1792 but never lived there. It was finished during the administration of John Adams in 1800 just in time to let Adams live there a few months. Thomas Jefferson was the first president to enter it fresh from the ceremonies of inauguration. He was one of the occupants who "renewed his lease."

Every school boy knows how it was burned by the British troops in 1814 and almost every visitor to Washington has had pointed out to him the house across Lafayette park to which Dolly Madison fled with the table silver. Closer students of American history know that Washington himself selected the site and that the residence of the president and the seat of government came to be located where they are as a compromise between Alexander Hamilton and Thomas Jefferson on the question of how the assumption of the revolutionary debt of the colonies was to be carried out by the federal government.

The president's home, like all stately residences of its time it was painted white, and in time it became The White House. It is kept white by being given a biennial coat of paint and an annual bath with a fire hose. Although the main structure is practically the same as it was reconstructed after the fire of 1814, the White House of President Coolidge is a more extensive establishment than the White House of Thomas Jefferson or even of William McKinley. The executive offices which comprise the west wing were added during the administration of President Taft, as were the passages to the east which balance the architecture and comprise substantially an east wing. All the presidents, up to and including Taft, did their work in the White House study in the same room where Lincoln bore the trials and tribulations of a civil war.

But in the inaugural ceremonies of tomorrow there will be a striking reminder of the old White House as it was in the day of the first presidents. It will be the simplicity and the economy and the lack of display with which President Coolidge has insisted against all argument, that his inaugural should be conducted. Obviously it will not be as simple as in the early years of the republic when Washington was only a village. But it will be as simple, if not more simple, than President Harding's inauguration of four years ago.

President Harding insisted on cutting down the size of the inaugural procession and simplifying the ceremonies generally, but President Coolidge went even further. He enforced his demand for a lack of display to such an extent that the local

MASS LEGISLATION FACING CONGRESS IN FINAL STRETCH

Appropriation Program Virtually Completed While Agricultural Legislation Seems to Be Caught in Tangle of Opposition

Washington, March 3.—The 68th congress entered its stretch of the final session today with all remaining projects for major legislation losing ground in the race against time. The appropriation program was virtually completed in the early afternoon, but general agricultural legislation, the Muscle Shoals bill, the Crampton Prohibition Unit re-organization measure, the migratory Bird law, and most all of the other legislative proposals, that the leaders had hoped to see written on the statute books, before final adjournment at noon tomorrow, seemed to be caught in a tangle of opposition from which it would not be extricated.

As a consequence, many bills and measures of lesser importance occupied all of the attention of both the Senate and House during most of the day, and promised to keep them busy until late tonight.

One of the last major features of legislation to be abandoned, was the Co-operative Marketing bill. A measure differing from it passed by the House, has been received by the Senate committee, but Senator Capper, of Kansas, head of Farm Plot, designed today that to attempt final action before tomorrow at noon, would be futile. The Senate did approve, however, and sent to the White House a House resolution authorizing the reduction in grazing fees on public land in the West, recommended by the administration for the relief of cattle raisers.

URGES A COMPLETE AUDIT PUBLIC DEBT

Audit to Correct Conditions Which Have Led to Duplication of Government Bonds With Fraudulent Purpose

Washington, March 3.—A report urging a complete audit of the public debt, and other measures to correct conditions, which were declared to have led to the duplication of Government Bonds with fraudulent purposes, and to the falsification of records, has been submitted by a majority of the House Committee, which investigated charges of irregularities in the Bureau of Engraving and Printing.

Declaring that the proportion of the bond duplications resulting from frauds "is not yet determined," the committee majority added that the report of the Treasury relating to the matter "is incomplete, contradictory, and evasive."

Washington, March 3.—Secretary Mellon, in a letter to President Coolidge today, informed the Executive that the Treasury's "accusers," charging irregularities in the handling of federal securities "remained as far now from proving their charges, as they were in 1920."

President to Respond Favorably Authorizing Creation Commission

Washington, March 3.—President Coolidge will respond favorably to the resolution of a special commission of three members to investigate Muscle Shoals, Alabama production, on condition that the resolution is referred to him after passage by the House and Senate.

A House resolution authorizing the creation of the Commission has already been passed.

Christian's Condition Shows Improvement

Raleigh, March 3.—Representative Christian was reported at the hospital today to be gradually improving in health. He is having more lengthy intervals of consciousness and now recognizes members of the House and friends, who have called on him continually since the accident, 10 days ago.

Hotel Prepared for Inaugural Ball

Work is going on apace for the inauguration of President Coolidge on March 4, and the grand ball room of the Mayflower Hotel, in Washington, is being trimmed for the great dance which will follow the inauguration ceremonies, and which promises to be the most brilliant of recent years.

BAPTIST MINISTERS PROTEST AGAINST MAGAZINE ARTICLES

Attention of Governor McLean Is Called to Articles on Religious and Social Subjects in Magazines

Gastonia, March 4.—A protest against certain articles being published in journals on social forces, and a publication by the University of North Carolina, today was sent to Governor McLean by Baptist Ministers, of Gaston county, who met here yesterday in their regular monthly session.

The letter to the Executive also declared "We protest against the employment of teachers in state institutions, who hold and teach, and write, and proclaim teachings contrary to, and so subversive of the principals upon which our homes, our churches, our society, and our government are founded."

Attention of the Governor is called to articles on religious and social subjects appearing in January numbers of magazines, and he is asked to have investigated the following questions:

First, "Is this publication paid for, in any part, out of state funds?"

Second, "Is the University of North Carolina, in any way, connected with the publication?"

Favorable Report Secured by Heath Pension Increase

Raleigh, March 3.—Major Heath, of Union, conducted a fight for Confederate veterans before the Appropriation Committee yesterday afternoon. He secured a favorable report on an increase of the annual appropriation for pension, from $1,000,000 to $1,500,000. Major Heath declared that nothing was too good for these men, and their widows. He pointed out that their numbers were steadily decreasing, and asserted that it was the duty of the state to care for them.

Says Re-appointment of Gen. Mitchell in Hands of President

The House Aircraft Committee has closed its investigation, during which Brigadier General Mitchell, Assistant Army Air Chief, and officials of the War Department have been heard.

The next act is now awaited in the War Department. General Mitchell's term, as Assistant Air Chief, expires this month, and Secretary Weeks says the matter of reappointment is entirely in the hands of the President.

Appropriation Bill Twelve Millions Offered Today

Raleigh, March 3.—Cut to conform to the Revenue Bill, the Appropriation measure carrying an annual total of $11,973,408, will be received today by the Full Joint Appropriation Committee. The measure has been in the hands of the sub committee for some time.

Educational institutions will suffer the heaviest cut if the schedules for the bill are adhered to. Most of these had increased their request for the coming biennium, and the committee has pared them sharply. The total requests made by all institutions and departments, originally of the Budget Commission, exceeds $10,000,000 for the two year period, the committee has reduced these to approximately $28,000,000, and the sub committee has further reduced them to approximately $24,000,000 for the biennial. Arrangements to retire $400,000 annually on deficit is made by the sub committee in place of $850,000 as recommended by the Budget Commission.

The state-wide game bill was finally set, after some discussion, as a special order for tomorrow morning, and the House then turned to the public calendar. The measure sponsored by Governor McLean to provide for advisory commission to study freight rates and water transportation, was passed while the bill to require lawyers to have a high school education was tabled.

In the Senate, the bill to allow New Hanover County to issue bonds in the amount of $1,250,000 for the construction of a bridge across the Cape Fear River to connect Wilmington with the Charlotte-Asheville highway received final favorable consideration, and will become a law immediately upon ratification.

Following are some of the institutions affected:
State Hospital, (1926) $240,000; (1927) $240,000.
Criminal Insane Hospital (Goldboro), (1926) $27,300; (1927), $27,300.
Caswell Training School, (1926) $145,000; (1927) $145,000.
University of North Carolina, (1926) $780,000; (1927) $860,000.
State College of Agriculture and Engineering, (1926) $360,000; (1927) $400,000.
East Carolina Teachers' College, (Greenville), (1926) $140,000; (1927) $150,000.
North Carolina College for Women, (1926) $400,000; (1927) $440,000.

Six Courses Dealing Sunday School Work Be Given Mar. 8-14

Lexington, March 3.—The first annual session of the Lincoln, N. C., standard training school will be held in that city during the week of March 8-14, it was announced today by the Rev. O. V. Woosley, conference superintendent of Sunday school work.

Six courses dealing with Sunday school work in the various departments are to be offered. The faculty will include the following: Rev. C. S. Kirkpatrick, presiding elder of the Shelby district, Prof. Claude T. Carr, Miss Corinne Little, Miss Virginia Jenkins, Mrs. O. V. Woosley, and the Rev. O. V. Woosley.

CHAMPIONSHIP IN BASKETBALL WILL BE DECIDED TONIGHT

Atlanta, March 3.—With little to choose between the contestants, the Basketball Championship of the Southern Conference will be decided here tonight, North Carolina and Tulane being the opposing teams. Only the Tar Heels and the Greenbacks are left to tell the story, and wind up the championship race, in which 18 contests started last Thursday night. North Carolina has twice won the title in the four year conference tournament, while Tulane is making its first bid.

The play of both teams has been expressive throughout the tournament. North Carolina has won four games, while Tulane has won three. The champions have scored 151 points in their games, while Tulane has scored 122 points. High individual scoring honors, barring an up set tonight will go to Cobb of North Carolina, or Edward Henken of Tulane. Cobb has scored 57 points and Henken is credited with 53.

DISARMAMENT OF GERMANY TAKEN UP BY AMBASSADORS

Marshal Foch to Attend Meetings; Conference May Be Called to Finally Deal With Matter

Paris, March 3.—The Inter-Allied Council of Ambassadors is expected to be occupied for several weeks with the question of German disarmament, which it took up today.

Before them, the ambassadors will have the voluminous report of the military control mission, with photographs, and other data assembled in Germany, as well as the written opinion of Marshal Foch, and his colleagues of the Allied War Committee. Marshal Foch will attend regularly, the meetings of the council. He will be ready to furnish explanations on technical information whenever the ambassadors require them. It is believed in diplomatic circles that after authorizing a report, the ambassadors will refer the subject to their governments with an idea of calling an allied conference to deal finally with the matter.

Mr. Foch, and his committee in their written opinion of Military Control Mission report, say that it shows that the Germans are persisting in their determination to maintain a complete staff for an army, such as Germany possessed prior to the world war.

MENDENHALL SPEED BILL PASSES SENATE

Provides Speed Limit on Highways 35 Miles, 20 Miles in Residential Districts and 12 Miles in Congested Sections

Raleigh, March 3.—Acting on the request of Governor McLean, Senator Clark, of Bladen, one of its introducers, requested the Senate today to refer the bill designed to increase the highway commission from 9 to 27 members for the road committee. This was done, virtually killing the bill so far as the 1925 session is concerned. The Senate passed the Mendenhall Speed bill as amended to provide a state highway speed limit of 35 miles, 20 miles in residential districts, and 12 miles in congested sections.

In the House a bill providing for a constitutional amendment to give the Governor veto power was introduced by Miss Alexander, of Mecklenburg. Thirty-two local measures were received by the body, and a favorable report was returned on the bill to require the vaccination of dogs against rabies. The House then took up consideration of State wide game bill, and a lengthy debate ensued.

The Highway Commission bill was opposed vigorously by Chairman Frank Page, of the Commission, who had indicated that he would probably resign if the bill was passed, as he considered it destructive of the work done by the committee for the last four years, and detrimental to future work. Re-reference, it was agreed, meant death of the measure, as the session is to near its close for it to come out of the committee again.

Gov't. to Observe 150th Anniversary Declaration Day

Washington, March 3.—House sanction was given today to a Senate bill which would authorize a $10,000 appropriation, and an appointment of a commission for the United States participation in observance of the 150 anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence at Charlotte, N. C., May 20, 1775.

The measure would provide for the appointment of a commission for the observance comprising Senators, Representatives, and members of the public to be named by the President. The anniversary will be observed on May 20, of this year.

ROAD SENTENCES FEATURE MONDAY'S SESSION OF COURT

Large Docket Consumes Entire Day; Several Defendants Appeal While Others Are Given Suspended Judgments

Bud Andrews, charged with driving auto while intoxicated, was adjudged guilty and fined $50.00 and costs, and 90 days to work on county roads. Capias not to issue except at suggestion of solicitor.

Bud Andrews, William Andrews, charged with receiving, transporting and possessing whiskey, adjudged not guilty.

Abraham Swindell was adjudged guilty of manufacturing whiskey, and was sentenced to six months in jail to be assigned to work on county roads. Defendant appeals to Superior court under bond of $300.

John Patrick was adjudged guilty of having whiskey for sale and was fined $50.00 and costs and sentenced to four months in jail to be assigned to work on county roads. Capias to issue at suggestion of solicitor.

Jack Adkinson was found guilty of larceny and was sentenced to 90 days in jail to be assigned to work on roads.

Cherry Johnson was found not guilty of the charge of larceny.

R. V. Edmondson, operating a car while drunk was adjudged guilty and was fined $50.00 and cost and sentenced to 90 days in jail to be assigned to work on roads.

Capias not to issue except at suggestion of solicitor.

G. H. Hopewell was adjudged guilty of having whiskey for sale and was fined $150.00 and cost.

Seas Highsmith was found guilty of the charge of larceny and was fined $25.00 and cost.

G. H. Hopewell charged with transporting whiskey. Defendant pleads guilty. Judgment is suspended for a term of two years with consent of solicitor and counsel. Defendant shall remain of good behavior for said term and shall specifically not violate the prohibition laws of this state. Judgment suspended upon further understanding that if defendant shall violate any of the terms of this judgment he shall be confined in jail for a term of one year and work roads and pay costs. The court further orders that autos in transfer of whiskey be confiscated. W. R. Hopewell declares auto his property but states that he had no knowledge of its use in transporting said liquor and through his lawyers moves for jury trial to prove his ownership. It was therefore ordered and adjudged that said matter be transferred to civil court for final disposition. The car being in possession of sheriff, it is ordered that same be returned to W. R. Hopewell upon execution of good bond in the sum of $200 to be approved by the clerk.

Carl Ross and Lucy Ross, charged with selling whiskey, is transferred to Superior Court for jury trial.

C. R. Willoughby, was adjudged not guilty of running a gambling house. C. R. Willoughby, Bob Nichols, Clifton Perry, Guy Sutton, Linwood Nichols, J. D. Little and S. D. Boyce, charged with gambling. Defendants plead not guilty. Adjudged guilty. Boyce was fined $75 and costs; J. D. Little, $25 and costs; Linwood Nichols, $25, Guy Sutton, (Continued on page three)

MOTOR VEHICLE FATALITIES

The Department of Commerce announces that in 1923 practically one-fifth of all fatalities from accidents were the result of automobile accidents. Approximately twice as many deaths from automobile accidents occurred in urban as in rural districts; a difference doubtless due in part, to the greater number of hospitals in urban districts.

Of the thirty-eight states in the United States registration area, only three—Kentucky, Mississippi, and Wyoming—had higher mortality rates from railroad accidents than from automobile accidents. California had the highest mortality rates from automobile accidents with 32.6 per 100,000 of population while Mississippi had the lowest with 4.4 per 100,000 of population.

Nine states had fewer automobile mortalities in 1923 than North Carolina. The year registered an average of 9.6 deaths per 100,000 population. Our automobile destiny was 90 per 1000 of population. Nebraska with a lower fatality rate than North Carolina has over twice as many automobiles per 1000 of population. We would do well to inquire into the measures of conditions by which Nebraska people manage to operate a large number of automobiles with relatively few deaths from accidents. Montana and Iowa also may have valuable preventative measures to teach us.

Fatalities from automobile accidents in North Carolina exceed fatalities from railroad accidents by 4.2 deaths per 100,000 of population. Or in straight figures, 258 people were killed by automobiles and 144 by railroad accidents in 1923. Winston-Salem with 14 had the most automobile fatalities and Asheville with 10 had the most railroad fatalities.

The number of deaths from automobile accidents in our chief cities were as follows: Asheville, 12; Charlotte, 12; Durham, 3; Gastonia, 5; Greensboro, 5; High Point, 3;

Raleigh, 10; Salisbury, 3; Wilmington, 2; Winston-Salem, 14.

There is no need to point any moral to adorn this tale. Perhaps accidents are necessary by products of an automobile age, but that their number should be reduced to a minimum confronts us as an equal need. The reckless driver, careless of his own life and heedless of the rights of others, is more dangerous than a criminal bent on pillage and plunder. In the words of an old adage, it is much better to be safe than sorry—E. T. Thompson.—University News Letter.

BETTER CHECK THESE UP

A large majority of fires start in the chimney and flues. "Safeguarding America Against Fire" cites ten reasons for this.

1. Use of terra cotta sewer pipe or other unprotected tile or hollow blocks as a chimney.
2. Construction of chimney with bricks laid on edge instead of flat.
3. Chimney walls built with brick flat-wise or only one brick thick, and flues unlined.
4. Supporting chimney on the timber construction of a building or upon brackets; or insufficient masonry foundation, when the chimney rests on the ground.
5. Two or more connections to the same flue.
6. Building woodwork into the wall of a chimney, or placing it in contact with, or even in close proximity to, its exterior.
7. Smoke-pipes arranged to enter a chimney in vertical line.
8. Carelessness in sealing the connection between smoke-pipe and chimney, and failure to anchor the pipe to the chimney.
9. Carelessness in not renewing a rusted smoke-pipe and also in allowing combustible material too near the pipe.
10. Carelessness in not keeping the chimney clean and joints in brickwork properly pointed.

THE THING NEEDED

If every one in North Carolina who has money to invest in stocks or bonds would take on at least some of the securities of a public service corporation serving his community, it would accomplish two great ends: It would give the companies capital and confidence for adequate extension and service; and develop the country enormously so that all values would increase and further, it would pay the investor at least as good rates as outside securities besides all the collateral benefits of building up one's own state.

The man who has no faith in his country, must send all of investment money away for safety, is a business and industrial slacker. Also he is a fool to expect outsiders to put up all the money to develop his community in which he has not sufficient faith to invest part of his savings.

Woman's Club Held Splendid Meeting Here Last Friday

An all day session of the Woman's Club, under the auspices of the Home Economics Department, was held in the High School auditorium on last Friday. The session was featured by talks by Miss Maude Wallace, of Raleigh and Miss Florence Simpson, of Craven county. Mrs. Hull of this city, gave demonstrations in making novelties.

The meeting was opened by the vice president, Mrs. H. E. Austin who extended to the visitors and Misses Wallace and Simpson a most cordial welcome. Following her short talk, the High School Glee Club gave two selections which proved most enjoyable.

Miss Wallace spoke most interestingly on the subject of "nutrition," in the morning session, while Miss Simpson, Home Demonstrator of Craven county, gave a demonstration in a "well balanced school lunch."

In the afternoon session, Miss Wallace, gave a splendid and instructive talk on "Dress Appreciation," bringing out six points necessary for a well dressed woman. Her talk was followed by a demonstration in making novelties by Mrs. Hull. Mrs. Hull, for several years, was connected with the Denison Crepe Paper People, and her demonstration was thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

Miss Wallace spent last week in Pitt county giving talks on nutrition, and the women became so interested in her subject that they attended the Friday meeting in large numbers. Nearly every town in the county was represented.

The meeting was one of the most enjoyable ever held and Misses Wallace and Simpson and Mrs. Hull will long be remembered for their part in making the day such a success.

Income Tax Payers Required File Returns On Or Before Mar. 15

Raleigh, March 3.—The Commissioner of Revenue R. A. Doughton, has called attention to the law requiring that all income tax payers are required to file their returns one or before March 15, if they wish to avoid the penalties that are prescribed by law. In a formal statement issued here today, Commissioner Doughton said:

"All income tax payers, either corporations or individuals, are required to file their returns, according to law, with the State Department of Revenue on or before March 15, unless they have established a fiscal year. After that date penalties are required to be imposed.

"Deputies will be found in Raleigh, Charlotte, Winston-Salem, Asheville, Wilmington, and other principal towns of the State to receive returns.

"Blanks have been sent to the registers of deeds of the different counties to the end that tax payers may obtain them in order to make their returns. Blanks have also been sent to all those who made returns for the past year.

"The central office at Raleigh has a clerical force sufficient to accommodate the tax payers of the city and nearby territory.

"All tax payers are urgently requested to make their returns as required by law and avoid the imposition of penalty.

"If any tax payer subject to payment of income tax shall not have received a blank, same will be forwarded from this office immediately upon request.

ATE TOO FAST

South Carolinian Took Black-Draught For Indigestion, and Says He Could Soon Eat Anything.

Dallentine, S. C.—Mr. W. D. Bouknight, of this place, gave the following account of his use of Theford's Black-Draught.

"Just after I married I had indigestion. Working out, I got in the habit of eating fast, for which I soon paid by having a tight, bloated feeling after meals. This made me very uncomfortable. I would feel stupid and drowsy, didn't feel like working. I was told it was indigestion. Some one recommended Black-Draught and I took it after meals. I soon could eat anything any time.

"I use it for colds and biliousness and it will knock out a cold and carry away the bile better and quicker than any liver medicine I have ever found."

Eating too fast, too much, or faulty chewing of your food, often causes discomfort after meals. A pinch of Black-Draught, washed down with a swallow of water, will help to bring prompt relief. Bloating, gas, cramps, heartburn, indigestion and other common symptoms of Black-Draught have been taken for several days.

Good Health, Good Looks

MRS. J. E. HENDERSON

"For about five years I was in very poor health brought on through a nervous breakdown," said Mrs. J. E. Henderson, who resides at 423 South Columbia St., Gastonia, N. C. "I lost in weight, got very thin and almost too weak to get around. I could not sleep or get any rest, had no appetite was completely worn out and suffered so with my head that I would nearly go mad. I had backaches and pains in my side. I doctored and took medicine but it was Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription that finally restored me to health. It was worth hundreds of dollars to me, for it made me a well woman. I gained back my weight and have enjoyed the very best of health since."

You should obtain this famous Prescription now at your nearest drug store in tablets or liquid, or send 10c to Dr. Pierce's Invalid Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y., for trial pkg. Write for free medical advice.

Spring Coats

Tailored coats enter a new color era; colors of past seasons are conspicuous by their absence. Now the gayest of tints of the rainbow are seen. Fabrics, too, are delightfully new, exploiting pleasant patterns. Interesting stylings are noted. The strictly tailored mode and the double breasted effects are very popular. Furs whose richness is undimmed are a favored garniture.

The new Charmeen Coats received today prove interesting to the coat buyer. These are shown in all the desired shades, many which are fur-trimmed.

Announcement!

This is to announce to the public that I have opened a Studio in the offices formerly occupied by the Pitt County Chamber of Commerce.

I am prepared to take care of your picture business. I have all the best and up-to-date machines necessary for a Studio.

My father, Mr. W. H. Baker, has been located in Washington, N. C., for the past 18 years and is known to be among the best or best Photographer in the state. I studied under my father, and for the past 12 years have been working with him. I feel sure that I can please you with any style or type of picture that you may desire. We would appreciate an opportunity to prove the superiority of our work.

We are also prepared to finish your Kodak work.

GRAIN.

Clement Curtis—There has been heavy profit taking.

Marin Winthrop—The markets at present have an overbought appearance and we look for lower prices.

Bartlett Frazier—We expect heavy buying power and a good export demand to develop in wheat on all declines. We believe the fact in the corn situation will bring in good buying.

Logan and Bryan—We believe good support will be forthcoming on any further disposition.

Lowitz—We feel that underlying conditions do not warrant existing price levels.

MARKET LOOKS LOWER.

N. C., S. C. and Ga.—Generally fair rising temperature.

Florida—Generally fair warmer tonight and in northwest Wednesday.

Alabama—Fair and warmer tonight; Wednesday part cloudy, warmer in south and east.

Mississippi—Generally fair and warmer tonight; Wednesday part cloudy warmer southeast.

Market steadier after opening owing to poor prospects, rain west belt, especially in Texas.

and takes the oath of office. Then at the head of the inaugural procession, such as it is, he drives back to the White House, and from a small stand reviews the procession as it passes. Then he returns to his desk and goes to work.

In the evening there will be a charity ball—but not an inaugural ball. Most of the dignitaries who would attend an inaugural ball, if there were one, probably will be there, including Vice-President and Mrs. Dawes. President Coolidge, however, will be spending the evening quietly at home with Mrs. Coolidge, going to bed early in order that he may get up early next morning and go to work again.

and population, can boast of more bicycles than any other country in the world. One out of every nine men, women and children in Belgium owns a wheel, the official figures being 792,384 out of a population of a little over 7,000,000.

Bicycle racing is the national sport of the little kingdom, and 54 velodromes are holding weekly and bi-weekly meets.

Belgian riders are noted for their endurance and they devote most of their efforts to road racing over long distances. Up to 1923 and 1924, when Henri Peeters of France and Ottavio Bottecchia of Italy won the 4,000 miles "Tour de France" the race had been regularly carried off by Belgians. Local riders all look forward to the winning of a six-day race in America as the crowning success of their careers.

Centre Brick Warehouse

Our warehouse on Broad street was partially destroyed by fire Wednesday evening, February 18th. This warehouse contained some of the best furniture on the market. We have not carried a single piece of this furniture that was in the fire to our store, but we have moved it to the Centre Brick Warehouse on Dickinson avenue where the sale will be held, beginning WEDNESDAY MORNING, MARCH 4.

You have heard of bargains in furniture, but this will surpass anything seen in Greenville before:

Here are listed some of the things on sale:—

Sellers Kitchen Cabinets, Simmons Metal Beds (from their cheapest up to their best included)—3 piece Beds, four poster Beds, Chairs, Twin Beds, including many colors and styles. New Perfection Oil Stoves, Florence Automatic Oil Stoves, Ranges, Cook Stoves, Laundry Heaters, Boss Ovens, Cedar Chests, Bed Springs, Dressers, Sewing Machines, Kiddie Koops, Refrigerators, Ice Boxes, Phonographs, In fact, most anything carried in a Furniture Store.

Remember date and place and be on hand Wednesday morning.

This sale will be "DIRT CHEAP" and for "CASH" only, though this sale will in no way interfere with our regular TIME BUSINESS at the store.

We have between 25 and 40 Bed Steads that we want to give away to the families in this community who are not able to buy. Only one to a family. They must be called for. If you know a family that needs one — TELL THEM ABOUT OUR OFFER.

What to Do For A Persistent Cough

Everybody knows how foolish and dangerous it is to let a cough hang on and on. The proper thing to do is to stop it—quick—and for this purpose there is nothing better than that great old home remedy that our parents and grandparents used so successfully—Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey. It often relieves a severe cough overnight. Doctors say there is really nothing like pine tar
