ARGENTINES LIKE BASEBALL BUT LACK GOOD PITCHERS

Buenos Aires.-Baseball has at last gained a place among Argentine sports, though as yet a small one. Two teams composed of natives have been organized, coached by Americans, one representing the Buenos Aires Y. M. C. Increasingly large numbers of spectators watch the games which they play with each other; with teams of American residents, and with one team of Japanese residents. Government Permitted to Proceed With the Teapot Dome Trial

Cheyenne, Wyoming, March 17. - Ruling that Madam T. Everhart, a banker, and ranch owner of Pueblo (Colorado, and son in law to Albert H. Fall, must testify as to an alleged deposit he made of liberty bonds in behalf of the former Secretary of the Interior, Federal Judge Kennedy today permitted the Government to proceed in the Teapot Dome suits with an attempt to show a financial connection between Fall and Harry Sinclair, lessee of the big Wyoming Oil Reserve. Everhart yesterday refused to answer the question on the ground that to do so might cause him to incriminate himself. Judge Kennedy's decision held in effect that the action of the witness indicated that he was refusing to give testimony in order to protect a "third party."

Henry A. Wise, counsel for Fall and Everhart, asked for time to confer with the witness before proceeding with the trial and a recess was taken.

McClintock Probe Nears End

William D. Shepherd, heir to the big estate of William N. McClintock, the "millionaire orphan," was taken into the custody of the State's Attorney of Chicago Ill., after Dr. C. C. Faiman, head of a germ school, testified that Shepherd took a one-week course at his school. Dr. Faiman said that after Shepherd left, three tubes of bacilli, one of them containing typhoid fever germs, disappeared. Mrs. Shepherd, foster mother of young McClintock, also fell heir to part of his estate on his death a few months ago, presumably from typhoid fever. Miss Isabelle Pope, McClintock's fiancée, was to have married him, but the nuptials were prevented by his death.

Income Returns Total $2,063,106 Past Two Weeks

Raleigh, March 17.-Federal income taxes collected through the office of the collector of Internal Revenue here aggregated $2,063,106 in North Carolina for the period March 1 to March 16, as compared with $2,751,268 collected during the corresponding period in 1924.

It was stated at the Revenue Collector's office today that there had been a greater number of fully paid returns this year than last. It was explained that this was due, in a large measure, to the fact that the taxes had been decreased. Last year the rate on normal incomes was four percent and eight percent. This year it is two, four and six percent, with twenty-five percent allowances on earned incomes.

THEFT IN OHIO FINALLY LANDS CULPRIT IN THE BULGARIAN JAIL

Sofia, Bulgaria.-The search for a thief who got away with liberty bonds in Ohio in 1923 was ended here recently when a Bulgarian was sentenced to prison for 18 months.

The securities, amounting to $1,500, were stolen while in transit between two banks in Ohio. The loss was still unexplained when a Bulgarian giving the name of R. C. Russell entered a Sofia bank eight months later, and was given cash for liberty bonds to the amount of $1,500. The return of the securities to an American bank brought the information, from their numbers, that they had been stolen. Russell was located, charged with the theft, tried, found guilty and sentenced.

FAIMAN DECLARES SHEPHERD OFFERED BRIBE FOR GERMS

Head of School of Bacteriology Tells Crowe That He Advised Method of Administering Germs Which Killed William N. McClintock

Chicago, March 17.-Statement by Charles C. Faiman, head of a school of bacteriology, that he had given typhoid germs to William D. Shepherd, foster father and chief heir of William N. McClintock, when he knew that they were intended for the "Millionaire orphan," guided State's attorneys in their efforts to obtain a murder indictment today from the grand jury investigating McClintock's death from typhoid.

Faiman, after three days of questioning, shook his finger in Shepherd's face last night and said "I gave those typhoid germs to Shepherd. He told me in plain words that he wanted them 'to inoculate somebody with' and that it was a million dollar deal. He told me he would pay me plenty when he got the million."

"You're a liar," Shepherd retorted. He maintained to Robert E. Crowe, State's attorney, that he had never before seen Faiman.

Faiman declared he told the truth, "and you can't deny it," he said to Shepherd.

Shepherd's plea for admission to probate of the will, which left him the $1,000,000 McClintock fortune, with the exception of an $8,000 annuity to Miss Isabelle Pope, McClintock's fiancée, who waited at his death for a license to be married to him, was scheduled for hearing today. The will is contested by distant relatives of McClintock.

An indictment containing 15 counts was drawn up by Assistant Prosecutor Marshall for submission of a vote by the Grand jury today. If a true bill is voted, Faiman will be the State's star witness. Mr. Crowe said, and may gain the minimum penalty if not complete immunity for his part in the case.

COOLIDGE NAMES JOHN G. SARGANT FOR CABINET POST

Warren Advises President That He Does Not Desire Recess Appointment as Attorney General

Washington, March 17.-John George Sargent, of Vermont, was nominated today by President Coolidge to be Attorney General.

Washington, March 17.-Charles B. Warren today advised President Coolidge that he did not desire a recess appointment as Attorney General. Coincident with the sending of Mr. Sargent's name to the Senate, the White House made public an exchange of correspondence between the President and Mr. Warren, in which both sides made references to the fight against the latter's confirmation as a "political controversy."

Mr. Coolidge's letter reviewed his offer of a recess appointment and Mr. Warren's declined of the ground that his acceptance would prolong the controversy to the probable annoyance of the administration. As soon as the new appointment reached the Senate Chamber, it was referred to the Judiciary committee and the leaders indicated that confirmation would be voted in time to permit the Senate to end its special session tomorrow. The whole situation had been canvassed in advance by the President in a conference with Senators Curtis and Robinson, the Republican and Democrat floor leaders, and the President told them quite frankly that he did not wish to submit a new appointment to such an ordeal as that through which Mr. Warren had passed. They agreed that such a prospect was unlikely.

STUDENT BARDS WRITE ONE POEM EACH WEEK

Seattle.-To produce poets is the purpose of a course in the dramatic art department of the University of Washington. Glenn Hughes, assistant professor in the department, teaches the class for bards which has already turned out a book of verse to show the world that poets are made as well as born. In Mr. Hughes' class no attempt is made at first to teach rhyme. He avers that if students begin or rhyme their verse will be "doggerel" or lacking in the elements of poetry. Free verse is welcomed as allowing the students to concentrate on the images they are creating rather than on meter and rhyme. Each student submits a poem every week.

PRINCE PACKS KIT FOR LONG JOURNEY BELOW EQUATOR

London. — The globe-trotting Prince of Wales is packing his trunk—or trunk—preparatory to starting on another jaunt to strengthen his claim to the title as the most extensively traveled young man in the world. Having made prolonged visits to three continents and the island continent of Australia, his forthcoming tour to South Africa and Argentina will complete his rounds of the major divisions into which the land surface of the earth is divided. He plans to leave England March 29.

This will be the sixth extensive trip the prince has taken since he started out in 1919 to see the world, and by it he will continue his record of having spent a long period away from home each year since that time. The future king has had a standing invitation for several years to visit South Africa, and it was some what of a surprise at home as well as in Argentina when it was announced that he would visit the latter country after his stay on the dark continent.

On four of his previous journeys the prince touched upon United States territory, but missed nothing under the American flag in 1923 when he went on a vacation in Canada. When leaving Manila for home in May, 1922, he remarked that one of the pleasant features of his visit to the Philippine Islands was that it enabled him to keep up his record on his long trips of having set foot on United States territory.

The first extensive trip taken by the Prince of Wales was in 1919, when he traveled on the battleship Renown for a visit to Canada and the United States. Upon his departure the press of England generally commented upon the trip as an event of great importance. The Evening News said: "The future peace of the world depends upon the solidarity of the British Empire and the friendship between it and the United States. It is in the cause of the peace of the world that the Prince of Wales sets out upon this journey."

After spending more than two months in the Dominion visiting cities from coast to coast the prince entered the United States at Rouse Point, N. Y., where he was received by a party of American officials and gentlemen headed by Robert Lansing, secretary of state, who officially welcomed the royal visitor on behalf of the government. He was in the United States about ten days, dividing the time principally between Washington and New York. While in the capital he visited President Wilson at the White House.

The prince had been home less than four months when he started out again on the Renown to visit Australia, the trip was made by way of the Panama Canal and on the way stops were made at San Diego, Cal., where two days were spent, and at Honolulu. The return voyage after several months in Australia was made over the same route with stops at Honolulu and the British east Indies. The prince was back home in October after an absence of seven months.

A trip to India had been planned for the prince in 1921, but it was postponed from time to time because of the feeling, accompanied by riots in various cities, aroused by opponents of British rule. Finally, in October, the prince again made the Renown his sea home and sailed for India. Notwithstanding that hartals, or boycotts against the royal visit, were observed in several cities, the prince received enthusiastic wel-

Mail of the United States, it is charged, are flooded with requests to speculate in a big Danish lottery, said to be sponsored and guaranteed by King Christian of Denmark. "Prince" Zerdecheno, self-styled czar of Khurdistan, has been deported from New York to Europe by Federal authorities. Hanford MacNider, of Mason City, Iowa, former national commander of the American Legion, has been secretly married in Mason City to Miss Margaret McAuley, his boyhood sweetheart. Mrs. Leonard Kip Rhinelanders, in whose veins is said to be negro blood, and whose marriage to the scion of the famous New York family caused a sensation and a suit for annulment, laughed at the statement that her name was to be omitted from the social register, after having appeared in a monthly supplement.

comes in every city he visited. After his tour of India he proceeded to Japan, where he was lavishly entertained with dinner parties, balls and other ceremonies in the various cities for several weeks. The Renown then carried the prince to Manila, where he was the guest of Governor General Wood. This trip kept the prince away from the British capital until May, 1922. Throughout England there had been a feeling of apprehension, especially while he was in India, and his safe arrival home was greeted by a crowd estimated at more than 50,000. He was affectionately welcomed by the king and queen and his sister, Princess Mary, who had been married during his absence. The prince's next trip was during the latter part of 1923, when he went to his ranch near Calgary, Alberta, traveling as an ordinary traveler on the steamship Empress of France. He went directly to the ranch and after several weeks sailed for home on the same ship, maintaining his incognito as Lord Renfrew until he arrived in London.

What was perhaps the most pleasant trip yet made by the Prince of Wales was that last year to the United States, taken primarily to witness the international polo matches between the teams representing the United States and England. The heir to the throne attempted to travel incognito, but he was the Prince of Wales everywhere and to everybody.

Making his home at the Burden residence on Long Island, the most formal event of his stay in America was his visit to Washington to lunch with and pay his respects to President and Mrs. Coolidge. And even that was informal, as presidential luncheons and receptions to royal visitors are for there were no guests. On that occasion the prince spent two months on the American continent, all of which was in the United States with the exception of a few days spent at his Alberta ranch.

WINE DRINKERS RETALIATE WHEN DEALERS LIFT PRICES

Berlin. — Spanish wine is driving

German wine out of the German markets. Therefore the domestic wine industry is appealing to the government for a modification of the commercial treaty between Spain and Germany which admits Spanish wine under such a low duty that German wine growers say ordinary Spanish wine can be sold in large quantities in this country at 45 marks, or about $17 a hectoliter. The hectoliter contains 26 gallons, so the cost of Spanish wine a gallon in large quantities here is about 41 cents. German wine growers say it costs them from two to four times this amount to produce wine.

INDOCHINA MAY BECOME IMPORTANT SUGAR CENTER

Manila. — George H. Fairchild, publisher of the Manila Times, as well as a large producer and exporter of sugar, who recently returned from a three months' visit to Indo-China, Java, Straits Settlement and Inc. stated that the sugar industry in Indo-China is destined to become of considerable importance in the future. Mr. Fairchild said there was much optimism in the Straits Settlement and apparently no country in the Far East here is about 41 cents. German wine growers say it costs them from two to four times this amount to produce wine.

ALL OUT OF SORTS?

So Was This Greenville Woman Who Tells Her Experience

All too often women accept their pains and aches as natural to their sex. They fail to realize that weak kidneys are often to blame for that headache, those headaches, dizzy spells and that tired, depressed feeling. Thousands have found new health and strength by helping the weakened kidneys with Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic. This Greenville case is one of many:

Mrs. J. J. Nobles, 1100 Washington St., says: "I was had off with my kidneys and back. This trouble had me feeling miserable all the time. When I was on my feet my back pained so badly I couldn't lift anything or bend over without a sharp, shooting pain through my kidneys. Specks floated before my eyes and my kidneys didn't act right, either. I used Doan's Pills from the Warren Drug Co., and two boxes relieved me." 60c. at all dealers. GEORGE W. PATTERSON, JR.

Acclaimed by his classmates in Yale in 1914 as "the one most likely to succeed," George W. Patterson, Jr., son of the assistant dean of the College of Engineering of the University of Michigan and hero of the French Foreign Legion, has disappeared from his New York City home and is believed to have thrown himself off an ocean liner. His father-in-law declared he believed Patterson suffered from an "inferiority complex," with the result he believed he had been a failure in life.

Coughs Always Dangerous—Quick Way to Stop Them

Chronic coughs and chest colds often lead to more serious trouble. Not only is the infection itself dangerous, but the continual coughing spasm day and night weakens your entire system and may bring on a longer light of life.

So stop a cough the quickest way you can. Take this there is nothing better than that old-time tried and proved remedy—Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey. Doctors say there is nothing but pine tar extract to quickly loosen and remove the phlegm and congestion which are the direct cause of the cough, while the honey both gives a pleasant taste and helps soothe irritation. This cough relief is the standard cough remedy for all ages.

But be sure you get the genuine Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey, and no substitute. Dr. Bell is the original inventor of this remedy and has known for over a quarter of a century as the best. It is secreted in the pine needles of the pine tree, and is the only natural source of pine tar extract. It is the only natural source of pine tar extract. It is the only natural source of pine tar extract.

each 36 feet long, aided by 15 craft of 15 feet, has been commissioned and assigned to patrol Puget Sound and the western coast of the state. It has been estimated that the monthly outlay will be $40,000. The construction of the boats cost $410,000. "The coast guard service is closing up the gaps," said Captain Dodge. "Orders have been issued to commanders to shoot to sink and kill if signals. If they have no liquor aboard, pick them up for violations of the navigation laws. Harass the rum runner in every possible manner." "The government has appropriated $15,000,000 to stop the smuggling of liquor. We are going to do it to the best of our ability. We have the equipment, men and money."

Such popularity must be deserved

"The man-in-the-street," the "man-in-the-brownie"—men in all walks of life, laugh with Bud Fisher. He draws more smiles, perhaps, than any other cartoonist in America. Depend upon it, the public recognizes the real thing—whether it's cartoons or cigarettes. Witness the sustained popularity of Chesterfield cigarettes. Here again men have found the real thing, in better tobaccos, and in richer, milder, more satisfying taste.

St. Patrick's Day

Work on the playground is progressing rapidly and points to early completion. The playground will fill a long felt need in Greenville and will be welcomed by all.

The action of Judge M. V. Barnhill in not having the jury for the present term of civil court report, until after such time as compromise cases and those not requiring jury attention had been disposed of, in order to save the county unnecessary jury expense is a right step toward economy and is an example that other public officials will do well to follow.

Arrangements for the fight against the boll weevil this year is now taking form and as the time for the real campaign approaches more and more growers are becoming interested in the matter. Government tests have proven that the most effective weapon against the pest is poison and the employment of experts to superintend the campaign in the county will no doubt prove a great benefit to the growers:

SHOWS PETULANT SPIRIT

Andrew Jackson was a stern and uncompromising fighter, but he did recognize the Constitution as being binding upon the Senate as well as the President. The Constitution specifically provides that the President shall make appointments to offices "by and with the consent of the Senate."

This is a plain mandate of the people to two different branches of the government. It is no indication of strength for a President to defy it. It is on the contrary an evidence of weakness. Only one other President before Coolidge attempted to defy it. He was not one of the outstanding Presidents of his time and made no permanent impression upon his country's history.

President Tyler sent in a nomination for a vacancy in his cabinet three times in one day and the Senate as many times rejected the appointment. President Coolidge twice sent in the names of Charles Beecher Warren as nominee for Attorney General of the United States, and the Senate has twice rejected the nomination. It was an indication of weakness on the part of the President to fail to recognize the constitutional prerogatives of the Senate. It may be that it will be this one act that will signalize his administration in the annals of history.

Strong men do not undertake to override the lawful and constitutional rights of others. Strong men rule by reason of their strength of intellect and character and not by exhibitions of petulance when they fail to get what they want.—News & Observer.

LOYAL DAUGHTERS SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS IN INTERESTING MEETING

The Loyal Daughters Sunday School Class of the Christian Church met in regular monthly meeting on Friday night at the home of Mrs. J. Knott Proctor.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Bradsher, Mrs. Jim Moore, teacher of the class, presided during the business session. The class earlier in the year had assumed the obligation of helping a needy family and despite the fact that this obligation had demanded a great financial effort on the part of the members the treasurer reported that all bills had been paid and we still have a balance in the bank.

During the past month several of our members including our ever faithful president have been very ill, the class has shown its love and interest for these by the numerous visits and little kindnesses shown them.

Committees composed of Mrs. Evelyn Gorman, Mrs. E. J. Garrett, Misses Lillian Jones and Kathleen Spain were appointed to look after the interests of the class for the coming month.

This completed the business and the hostess took charge of the social program.

Since one of our members Miss Alice Galloway is soon to be married, we had a most interesting contest called a "musical Romance" in which were woven the courtship and engagement of Miss Galloway and Mr. Gorman. At the close of the contest Miss Galloway was very much surprised when little Edith Lane Gorman "showered" her with the many packages brought by members of the class.

Mrs. Proctor served a delicious salad course. RUBY EVANS, Reporter.

FIDELIS CLASS MET AT THE VINES HOUSE

The Fidelis class of the Immanuel Baptist church met on the 2nd Friday night in March at the Vines House, and held its regular business and social meeting.

The meeting opened by singing the class song in Unison. After which sentence prayers were offered for the "Growth and Betterment" of our class.

The President, Mrs. C. L. Roebuck read for the Scripture lesson verses taken from Mark and Luke. After a brief comment, the President illustrated the teaching of the verses, by telling a beautiful story.

The class joined in singing "Bless Be The Tie."

After the secretary read the minutes of the last meeting, roll called dues collected, the reports from the three vice presidents, treasurer, and Home Department, were then given. Besides several other members of the class reported much personal service work during the past month.

The president suggested a trip to "Kennedy Home," which was put in the form of a motion, and carried by a unanimous vote also it was decided to correspond with a foreign missionary.

Several other business matters came up before the class and discussed.

After repeating the class verse, the social hour was then given over to the hostesses.

A huge basket of yellow roses was passed each member in taking a rose, found she had a "dressed up" pencil, to later use in a very interesting contest.

Mrs. Rush proving the successful contestant was awarded a beautiful potted plant, yellow and green, the color scheme.

Special music was rendered by Miss Thomas and much fun and enjoyment was kept up for an hour.

The hostesses then served an iced course, salted almonds and mints.

Upon voting this to be one of the most enjoyable meetings the Fidelis class ever held, they bid their hostesses, Misses Millsaps, Huggins, McKennie, Thomas, Ayers and Rodwell good night.

ENGLAND FOLLOWS LEAD OF AMERICAN ADVERTISERS

London.—A movement is on foot to start British Empire Canned Goods Week, to advertise and sell British canned commodities.

Writing on the subject Godfrey Cheseman, general secretary of the National Union of Manufacturers, says everybody is being urged to eat more fruit, but it is not suggested that they should eat fruit produced within the British Empire. He expressed the belief that a week devoted to the advertising and sale of British canned commodities would show most beneficial results.

Irish Would Curb Fox Killing

Dublin.—Hunting in the Free State, a pastime in which it is said $6,000,000 annually is spent, and which attracts many sportsmen from England, is threatened by the conditional destruction of foxes which are caught in large numbers and sold for their skins.

There are 23 packs of foxhounds in the Free State and the government is urged to protect the sport by legislation, penalizing the destruction of the animals.

GRAIN
It was said after the close by those in a position to know that Florida traders who sold entire grain list and were largely responsible for the break in prices were heavy sellers of stocks and cotton in New York after the grain markets had closed. The traders in Florida have been bearish for some time and have put enough grain on the market to prevent the maintenance of recent bulges. Under such conditions opinions are of little value, especially in a wheat market that will break eight cents in the face of bullish news. July wheat was under pressure from big commission houses who sold heavily against purchases of May.

Safe Fat Reduction

Why be fat? The answer of most fat people is that constant dieting is hard, continual exercise is tiresome and exhaustive—and then, too, it might be harmful to force the weight down. That was the old-fashioned idea. Today in Marmola Prescription Tablets all these difficulties are overcome. Just a pleasant little tablet after each meal and at bedtime causes fat to vanish. This modern method is easy, entails no dieting or exercising and has the added advantage of cheapness.

Get a box of these tablets and start taking them now. Within a short time you will be getting rid of fat steadily and easily without starvation diet or tiresome exercise. You will be comfortable and able to enjoy the food you like and want. Even after taking off many pounds, there will be no flabbiness or wrinkles remaining. You will feel 100 per cent better. All drug stores the world over sell Marmola Prescription Tablets at one dollar for a box, or the Marmola Company, General Motors Building, Detroit, Mich., will gladly send them to you on receipt of the price.
