MRS. CUNNINGHAM CONFESSES GIVING CHILDREN POISON

Desire to Join Husband in Heaven Prompted Her to Take Poison Herself; Spared One Daughter Because She Disliked Her

Crown Point, Indiana, April 16.—Calm and unmoved, Mrs. Anna Cunningham, 49, confessed last night that she gave poisoning to three of the five members of her family, mysterious deaths within six years lead to an investigation, resulting in a murder charge against her. The desire to join her husband in heaven prompted Mrs. Cunningham to take poison herself and administer it to Isabell, 18, Charles, 19 and Walter, 13, she said. These three, she killed because she loved them best, the mother told authorities. She spared Mae, 19, her surviving daughter because she disliked her. Mrs. Cunningham denied that she had poisoned her son Harry, in whose exhumed body coroners chemists found arsenic. She admitted giving poison to David, her last son, who is now critically ill in a hospital. Each time she administered arsenic in bread and butter and took a similar dose herself, and after taking the arsenic, she added a teaspoon of iodine, but she recovered. The confession of the woman, who had remained unshaken under questioning of prosecutors for the state, was obtained by Sheriff Benjamin Strong and Miss Maurine McKernan, a Chicago newspaper reporter.

After she had recovered from a state of coma yesterday, into which she had collapsed early Tuesday, Mrs. Cunningham admitted that she might have placed some arsenic in the food of David by mistake, but was unshaken in her denial that she had poisoned any members of her family.

She permitted the reporter to apply cold water to her head, and to aid her in other ways, and she then changed her dress for an apron. Suddenly she asked that her daughter, Mae, be sent for and that she be removed from her cell because of the presence of several witnesses. Then disregarding a frenzied plea for her to remain silent, by her daughter, Mrs. Cunningham made her confession first to Sheriff Strong, and the newspaper woman, and later to official court reporters. The daughter refused to remain and listen to her mother's confession and also declined an offer to remain in jail near her mother during the night.

Crown Point, Ind., April 16.—Mrs. Anna Cunningham, 49-year-old widow, who has confessed to the poisoning of three of five members of her family who died within six years, was found apparently in a cataleptic condition in her cell here today.

Ford Air Service Inaugurated

FORD OPENS AIRLINE

The first real step forward in commercial aviation was made when the Malden Dearborn, the first of Henry Ford's all-metal airplanes, hopped off from Dearborn Field, Detroit, Michigan, laden with thousands of pounds of freight, for Chicago. The Malden Dearborn was piloted by Edward G. Mamin, with Harry Russell as mechanic. The plane is the first of a projected fleet of all-metal ships which will maintain a regular air service between Chicago and Detroit. Ford has announced that as soon as the Chicago-Detroit service is in full swing three new services would be started, one to operate to St. Louis, another to Iron Mountain, Mich., and the third to Minneapolis and St. Paul, Minn. Photo shows Ford placing a package aboard the plane just before it hopped off on its initial flight from Detroit.

Stainslaus Zbyszko Again Rules World as Champion Wrestler

Philadelphia, April 16.—Stanislaus Zbyszko, 58-year-old veteran, again rules the world as champion of wrestlers. He regained the title he lost several years ago by conquering Wayne Munn last night in two falls, and in less than 14 minutes of continual wrestling. A cleverly executed four arm hold earning the first fall was with a four arm and hammer lock hold.

Zbyszko exhibited the same prowess against his more youthful opponent that brought him the championship several years ago, and clearly demonstrated that Munn's great strength was no match for the master grabber.

GRANDFLEET LEAVES FOR ITS HIWAIAN MANEUVERS TODAY

Steaming in to Recapture the Island Oahu From the "Enemy," Last Ship Passed Thru Golden Gate Yesterday

San Francisco, April 16.—With the excitement of its departure off San Francisco Bay, a thing of the past, officers and men of the United States Grand Fleet turned their attention today to the objective toward which they are steaming in to the recapture of the Island of Oahu from the "enemy," who now hold the Nation's far flung out post of defense on the Pacific. The problem began officially yesterday when the last ship passed through the golden gate. The attack and defense of the territory, the military key to the Pacific with its defense centered at Oahu, is the third and last of the series of joint army and navy maneuvers announced more than two years ago to test outlying defenses of the country, and promote efficiency and coordination before the two services. The first of these exercises was held at Panama in the winter of 1921-23, and the second at Calabria in the winter of 1923-24.

Weaknesses in the canal were revealed, chief of which was that modern ships could fire on the forts from positions outside the land gun's range, it was stated. The object of the present attempt to recapture the Oahu and thus the Hawaiian Islands, is to test the defense of the territory, to increase cooperation between the Army and Navy forces descending the island, and to increase the efficiency of the fleet as a whole.

Bennett, secretary of ministerial supply and life service for the Southern Methodist Church, announced today that during 1924 four hundred young Methodists volunteered for some form of Christian service. He reported that 364 new names had been added to a list he had on file in his office, making a grand total of 7,374 volunteers. Of these new names, he said, 236 were offering for the ministry, sixty for the foreign mission fields, forty-one for the home mission field and twenty-seven for other work.

In the church schools and colleges, a total of 1,172 life service volunteers was reported, of whom 478 are studying for the ministry and 694 preparing for some other form of Christian service.

By the assistance of student aid funds, he said, 103 students had been helped to carry on their educational work. Dr. Bennett reported further that these had secured loans totaling $11,060. This showed, he said, an increase of eleven students over the previous year and of $598 in the amounts loaned.

A. K. C. Branch Show Field and Kennel Club In Raleigh Last Week

Raleigh, April 16.—The second annual licensed A. K. C. branch show of the Central Carolina Field and Kennel Club was held in Raleigh Wednesday and Thursday of this week. Dogs were on display from all parts of North Carolina and from many other States.

Officers of the Club said that the show was operated without financial pain but for the sole purpose of arousing interest in better dogs. One of the purposes of the club is to encourage dog owners to seek to have the best animals and to have them inoculated against rabies. Other precautions are also advocated, with a view to improving the kinds of dogs used as domestic pets and for hunting and other sporting purposes.

Visitors at the Raleigh show pronounced it a success. Officers of the Club are: E. Guy Robertson, president; Clyde E. Hornaday and Will D. Briggs, vice-presidents, and Dr. W. T. Scarborough, secretary-treasurer.

The open season is to run from April 15 to September 1, with a day's catch limited to twenty-five fish not less than eight inches long, to be taken exclusively with hook and line or rod and reel.

TORNADOES SELDOM STRAY BEYOND AREA OF CENTRAL WEST

Washington. — The vagaries of tornadoes, one variety of which recently spouted out upwards of 300 lives in the middle west, have almost completely baffled the researchers of science. The suddenness with which they strike, and the destructive force of their attack, have made scientific study extremely difficult.

Prof. William J. Humphreys, of the weather bureau, describes a tornado as "a violent rotating storm of small dimensions." The chances are, he says, that not once in a 1,000 years would a tornado hit the same spot twice.

The name tornado, originally was applied to a violent thunderstorm on the west coast of Africa. The variety of storm now called by that name, however, is peculiar to the Mississippi valley region of the United States, and rarely occurs in any other part of the world. Dr. Humphreys' records show that it does not occur west of Denver; is found only occasionally in southern Canada; is rare in eastern part of the United States, and is not destructive in or east of the Allegheny mountains except in Alabama and Georgia.

The explanation is that the Rocky mountains, extending generally north and south, guides the cold air drifting to the south from the Canadian Rocky region. The drift of winds comes across the warm waters of the Gulf of Mexico, and starts north across the United States. The meeting of these cold and warm currents of air starts up a rotation between them. Dr. Humphreys explains, adding that no other part of the world has that geographic configuration existing in the Rocky Gulf area.

The passage of these currents establishes violent rotations at cloud levels and the whirl beats itself down to the bottom, usually from a level of less than a mile above the earth, to the ground.

The tornado only occurs in connection with a big rain or snow bringing storm and is usually from 1,000 to 1,500 feet wide.

The peculiar phenomenon of the tornado "skipping," striking a spot and jumping over a stretch of country leaving it undisturbed, is not so well understood. The upper part of the tornado seems for some reason to have ahead, breaking off its lower portion, and then, as it speeds on, the whirling wind finds its way to the ground again.

JAPAN WOULD SWAP GOLDFISH FOR SONG BIRDS OF THE WEST

London.—An interested visitor at the national show of cage birds held in London recently was Prince Taka Tsukasa, a cousin of the Prince Regent of Japan. As vice-president of the Japanese Ornithological Society, he came to England to purchase a supply of canaries and other songbirds for the Orient.

The prince says that canaries, introduced in Japan about 200 years ago by the Dutch, have become very popular as pets, and fresh supplies are being bought regularly in Europe to meet the increasing demand. One of the outcomes of the visit of the prince may be the organization of an international syndicate to bring goldfish from Tokio to be traded for linnets, goldfinches and other songsters which must be imported into Japan.

STOCKHOLM EVICTS TENANTS WHO PAY TOO LITTLE RENT

Stockholm.—A landlord who puts out his tenants when they become too prosperous, in order to make room for poorer ones, preferably those with children, is the curious spectacle presented by the city of Stockholm. As there is a shortage in housing, the city has ordered those who can't afford to pay higher rents to move in order to provide homes for those with less means, many of whom are now living in temporary shelters.

It is only after careful investigation, however, that the city authorities give a tenant notice. Thus, out of 800 families proposed for eviction this year, only 200 have been selected. These are chiefly bachelors or childless couples whose incomes are out of all proportion to the low rent they pay, and special consideration has been shown for aged couples who have lived for a long time in the same quarters. By next fall the city hopes to have adequate dwellings for all the war-time squatters.

AIR ROUTE OVER NORTH POLE AROUSES INTEREST IN JAPAN

Berlin.—Germany, the Scandinavian countries and Japan, all are showing interest in a proposal to operate an air route over the North Pole area from the coast of Russia to Alaska. The idea is not particularly new, but it has been revived recently because of the improvements of late years, in airship construction. It is understood that Dr. Fridtjof Nansen has offered to lead such an enterprise, under international support.

An airship a little larger than the Los Angeles is contemplated for the run. May is regarded as the best month in which to start. Murmansk, on the north coast of Russia, would be the European point of departure. The route would be over Emperor Francis Joseph Land to the Pole and then over the unknown territory of North Canada to Alaska. The return trip would be over Bering Strait, Wrangel Island, DeLong Island, and the unexplored territory of Nova Zembla.

The Japanese are especially interested because success might result in quicker communication between Europe and Japan.

ST. LOUIS IS ONLY BIG LEAGUE ENTRY NOT IN FLAG WINNING CLASS

New York. — Once again St. Louis' two major league baseball teams set forth upon the journey that never has won them a pennant.

Always boasting some of baseball's greatest players, the Mound City today is the only member of the major league organizations which has failed to participate in a World Series. A year ago Washington was in the same category but came through to fame under the brilliant leadership of the remarkable young pilot, Bucky Harris.

Mention of St. Louis in a baseball way necessitates mention of Rogers Hornsby, one of the most remarkable athletes of all time. To the Cardinals he is priceless, a man whose performances make baseball pay. For five years he has led the National League in hitting, erasing the record previously held by the illustrious Hans Wagner, sturdy shortstop of the Pirates.

Twice Hornsby has beaten the 400 mark and last season attained the worthy percentage of .423, nine points behind the record made by baseball's greatest place-batter, the late Willie Keeler, with Brooklyn in 1897.

Of heavy build, the easy-going second baseman of the Cardinals appears almost awkward upon the field, but wields a bat with tremendous power, slashing through the infield and driving on a line always. Hornsby cuts at them; he smashes. When he appears at the plate there is every reason for the infield to tremble for his shots are vicious, every ounce of a well developed poundage placed behind a terrific swing.

The Browns of the American League also furnish a superb attraction, with their clever first-basing manager, George Sisler, a college-bred, enthusiastic athlete who appears to enjoy every minute of a diamond battle. An excellent hitter and fielder, with the accepted form of a ball player, perfect rhythm and machine-like reception of high and low throws from his teammates, Sisler today stands out as one of the game's best drawing cards.

Baseball observers often have attributed St. Louis' failure to win pennants to the extreme heat of the home fields during the summer months.

The new season offers them a new opportunity. The experts have no use for them on the higher rungs of the ladder, yet they can be depended upon to fight furiously throughout the season.

Organized Playgrounds Save Crime Bills

New York, April 14.—Organized playgrounds in American cities measurably reduce juvenile delinquency and save crime bills, according to the Playground and Recreation Association of America, and cities in the United States and Canada, during 1924, expended $20,052,558 for public recreation. The year book of the association, issued today, says this sum is $6,000,000 greater than last year's, and is 14 times the expenditure 15 years ago. A total of 711 cities reported organized recreation.

The swiftly growing popularity of public recreation is due largely to the recognition of decreased delinquency, the association says and developing this theme the year book declares that the reduction in Schenectady, New York, was 69 1-2 per cent in six yards which contain half the city's population, according to the judge of the juvenile court. In Los Angeles the operation of a playground under able leaders in a difficult district reduced delinquency from 100 cases to three in a year's time. After 1,004 New Haven boys were organized into an amateur baseball league by New Haven Community Service, arrests for delinquency which had numbered 67 in this group fell to one in the year following the formation of the league.

Organized celebrations practically eliminated Halloween vandalism and mischief in many cities, the statistics show.

One hundred thirty-two athletic fields were opened in 1924 for the first time. There are also 359 new tennis courts, 281 new quail courts, and 146 new ball fields. Tennis courts in 410 cities total 4,866. Numerous other facilities include 625 swimming pools and 1,092 picnic grounds.

APPLICATION BLANK. COMMANDING GENERAL, 4TH CORPS AREA, ATLANTA, GEORGIA. PLEASE SEND ME FULL PARTICULARS CONCERNING ABOVE MENTIONED CAMPS. NAME..... ADDRESS.....

In the spring a young man's fancy turns not always lightly to thoughts of love, but often to thoughts of where and how he will spend his summer vacation. More and more, nowadays, young men plan seriously their summer outings, with the view of obtaining the greatest amount of benefit, mentally and physically, in the short period of time allotted to them for that purpose.

Why not, instead of spending these vacation days in riotous living and returning to work or college, all fagged out and shot to pieces, attend one of the Citizens' Military Training Camps, where everything is done for the moral, intellectual and physical make-up that is possible; where hours are regular, food is substantial, food, all free; and best of all transportation charges paid in going and coming. Recognizing the wonderful good that can be accomplished in these ways, the congress of the United States has appropriated a sum each year, to take care of four camps in the Fourth Corps Area embracing eight southern states, where four thousand young men will receive not only physical training, but will be taught, under expert instructors, the obligation and responsibility of citizenship.

The Fourth Corps Area needs a few more applications this week in order that it may hold first place in having submitted the greatest number of applicants for C. M. T. C. trainings. Fathers and mothers who wish to do well by your sons, send them to one of these camps and know that you have done the very best for them. Application blanks may be had from Arthur B. Corey, in the Blount Building.

was a monastery. It was remodeled many years ago by Sir Everard and, taking in all the old nooks of the ancient buildings, was found to have about 260 rooms.

Sir Everard was extremely simple in his tastes, and one of his favorite remarks to his intimate friends was that his home contained about 255 rooms more than he required. Outside of his library, the favorite haunt of Sir Everard was the basement. Here he had fixed up a work shop, and spent many hours each day pottering with hammers and saws and other tools used by workers in wood. The banker frequently remarked that he had always, in a way, regretted that he had not been a cabinet maker by trade.

The Hambro London banking firm of which Sir Everard was the head, contained some of the finest financial traditions of the last century. The company assisted materially in the reconstruction of Italy after the financial disaster which overtook the country in the days of Napoleon.

JEWISH BEQUEST EXPENDED TO EDUCATE ARAB BOYS

Jerusalem.—A farm school for Arab boys and a high school for Jewish children will soon be established at Bullaram and Jerusalem, respectively, with the funds of the $500,000 bequest of the late Sir Ellis Kadoorie, a Jewish philanthropist of Shanghai. Both schools will bear the name of the donor, who bequeathed one-third of his estate to the British government to be spent by it on the provision of schools in Palestine or Mesopotamia.

Although several of the other bequests of the will were for institutions for the benefit of Jews, no such provision was made with regard to this particular gift. The British government accepted the bequest, and decided that the funds be spent in Palestine. In view of the terms of the will, it has not felt itself justified in limiting the expenditure to schools for the Jewish population exclusively.

GERMANS SPENT MODERATELY FOR FUNERAL OF PRES. EBERT

London.—Press comments on the funeral costs of Germany's first president, Friedrich Ebert, which amounted to approximately $50,000, have recalled the fact that England's most expensive funerals was that of the Duke of Wellington, which cost the nation $500,000.

According to the estimates in London the expense of President Ebert's burial was very moderate compared with the cost of the obsequies for old Emperor William in 1888, when the city of Berlin spent $430,000 and the imperial treasury more than $550,000 in addition. The funeral expenses of King Edward were about $200,000 and those of Queen Victoria $175,000.

RARE RABBITS MAY BRING WEALTH TO SASKATCHEWAN

Moose Jaw, Sask.—Howard Smith, a railwayman of this city, has started something new in Canada in the way of farming, the raising of Chinchilla rabbits for the commercial trade.

Chinchilla rabbits are small and bluegray, and about the size of squirrels. The pelts sell from $3.50 to $10, and Chinchilla wraps bring from $10,000 to $15,000. These rabbits are found naturally only on the eastern slope of the Andes Mountains, in Chile, Peru and Bolivia. They are small, hooping animals and make deep burrows in the ground, especially between rocks. They eat almost anything and thrive in cold weather.

HAZEL SWITCH VINDICATED WHEN DIGGERS FIND WATER

Proedlitz, Czechoslovakia.—The people of Proedlitz no longer doubt the efficacy of the divining rod as a means of locating water under the surface of the earth. They have had a demonstration, they aver, which is conclusive.

Badly in need of a water supply three years ago the town employed Heinrich Otto, a local expert with the divining rod, to locate a well. He did so, but a shaft 20 feet deep gave nothing but dry soil, and the project was abandoned. The town managed to get along until this winter, when existing supplies became so scant that Heinrich again was called in. He walked about with his divining rod, and as he passed over the old well, the story goes, the hazel switch was actually pulled out of his hands.

Town workmen went to the bottom of the old shaft, dug down six feet more, and found an abundant supply.

SECOND-HAND INFORMATION

In commenting on getting second-hand information instead of "the exact language used at the White House" the New York World has the following to say:

"Because newspapers in Paris were disturbed by certain remarks of Mr. Coolidge's, and because nobody knew, actually, what the President had said, the French Ambassador in Washington is now cabling to Paris 'the exact language used * * * at the White House, Friday, after the resignation of Premier Herriot.' So the Associated Press reports.

"There exists, of course, a record of 'the exact language used at the White House' after all these newspaper conferences in which the President expresses his views on current issues. This record consists of a stenographic report of the questions put to the President by the correspondents and the President's replies. But no part of this record is ever given to the public. If the President is to stake the Administration to a stand on some such important issue as the French debt, a disarmament conference or revision in the tariff, it is assumed a more statesmanlike performance for the reporters, instead of quoting the President from the record and over his own name, to invent a mysterious personage called 'a White House spokesman' or 'a high administrative circle' and attribute to that dignitary what they can remember of the President's remarks.

"Mr. Robert Choate, Washington correspondent of so good an Administration paper as the Boston Herald, reports that with 'the most powerful publicity outlet ever known to any man' the President's conference system is 'misleading, productive of little information and wholly inadequate.' In Mr. Choate's opinion, an opinion with which other correspondents agree, 'the no-quotation rule places all the responsibility on the writers and none on the President. If the interpretation does not please him he can repudiate it, as was done in the Jusserand case when the President said one thing to the newspaper men one day and quite the reverse in an official statement the next, after Ambassador Jusserand had squealed to the State Department.'

"Only on rare occasions—such as the present occasion, when a text is wanted for transmission to Paris—does the record of 'the exact language used at the White House' ever see the light of day. Yet the record is there, much more accurate and much more informing than any second-hand report. The President is entitled to speak only when he wishes to. But if there is something worth saying on a subject which is improved by accuracy, why should he not speak in his own words and with his own emphasis rather than in the words which fifty different men remember for him and the emphasis they choose individually to read into anything he says?"

NOTES ON TARHEELIA

Two State holidays occur in North Carolina in May, these being the 10th, Confederate Memorial Day, and the 20th, Mecklenburg Independence Day. The 30th, National Decoration Day, though not a State holiday, is observed by the postoffices and in Raleigh the Confederate veterans usually decorate the graves of the Federal dead in the National Cemetery.

The history of the Great Seal of North Carolina dates back to 1665. The first Seal bore the name "Albemarle." This was 1 and 7/16 inches in diameter and had only one side. The Great Seal of the present day is a more elaborate affair.

The State Board of Equalization is composed of the Commissioner of Revenue, chairman; the chairman of the Corporation Commission, and the Attorney General of the State. This board hears appeals from tax valuations and is subject to the call of the Commissioner of Revenue.

William J. Hafey, first bishop of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Raleigh, is expected to take up his residence in Raleigh in the late spring. He will reside, for a time, at least, in the rectory of the Church of the Sacred Heart, of which the Rev. Father Griffin, formerly of Baltimore, is pastor.

Father Griffin has been in Raleigh longer than any other minister at the present time. He came here more than twenty-five years ago. Under his leadership the church of the Sacred Heart has erected a new building of solid granite which has been made a cathedral. He also erected, after years of saving for that purpose, a granite rectory, which adjoins the church and a school run by the Dominican Sisters.

The new bishop is one of the youngest in the United States, being under forty. He comes from Baltimore, Father Griffin's boyhood home. The Roman Catholic Church also maintains an orphanage near Raleigh at Nanareth. This was established something like twenty years ago and the plant is made up of several brick buildings, including that of the Church of the Holy Name of Jesus.

"These," said E. Guy Robertson, president of the Club, "are noted dog authorities."

Lady Says Her Back "Hurt Night and Day"—Least Noise Upset Her. Better After Taking Cardui.

Winfield, Texas.—"My back hurt night and day," says Mrs. C. L. Eason, of R. F. D. 1, this place. "I ached and ached until I could hardly go. I felt weak and did not feel like doing anything. My work was a great burden to me. I just hated to do up the dishes, even. I was no-account and extremely nervous. My mother had taken Cardui and she thought it would do me good, so she told me to take it. My husband got me a bottle and I began on it. I began to improve at once. It was such a help that I continued it until after the baby's birth.

"I took eight bottles and I can certainly say that it helped me. It is a fine tonic. It built me up and seemed to strengthen me. I grew less nervous and began to sleep better. I can certainly recommend Cardui to expectant mothers, for to me it was a wonderful help. In every way I felt better after taking it and I think it is a splendid medicine."

At the intersection of Washington Boulevard and Grand River Avenue, the new structure will be the tallest building in Michigan, and is but another unit in the plan to make the boulevard Detroit's "Fifth Avenue."

Among other projects announced is the new town house of the Aviation Town and Country Club, also a skyscraper, to be erected on the present site of the Y. W. C. A., at the corner of Clifford Street and Washington Boulevard.

Names Assigned to Children Isn't Fictitious, Says Register

name?" asked Dr. F. M. Register, of the Department of Vital Statistics of the North Carolina State Board of Health.

He then proceeded to point out a few names assigned to some of the 88,496 children both in North Carolina in 1924. Each was registered on the official record that is required by law to be kept in Dr. Register's office.

Dr. Register gave none of the surnames of the children—only the given or Christian names.

First, there was "Queen Poor." Running through the card index, Dr. Register found "Hardtimes Hall." The next was "Brass Mule." Then these: "America England," "Spain France Belgium Bangle," "Brown Pig," "Nathan the Prophet," "Bonnie Part," "Queen Ester and last, but not least, "Vital Statistics."

Then Dr. Register added: "You have heard all about this 'Kate and Duplicate' stuff you see in joke books, in connection with naming twins. Well, that isn't all fiction."

He consulted his official records and jotted down these names as he found them: "Alpha and Omega," "Max and Climax," "Pete and Repeat" and "Kate and Duplicate."

"You see," went on the vital statistician, "that explodes the joke books pet references to twins' freak names. They aren't freak names, at all. They are a matter of record right here in this office."

Collections Christian Education Fund '24 Was $5,719,199

Nashville, Tenn., April 16.—Total collections on the $18,000,000 Christian education fund of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in 1924 reached $5,719,199. This was announced today by Dr. H. H. Sherman, associate secretary of the Board of Education which has direction of the church-wide Christian education movement. During the past twelve months, he reported, the payments on accounts subscribed in the campaign amounted to $1,394,318.63, the peak of collections having been reached in November, when $207,605.71 was paid in. These amounts do not include $4,882,258 reported as "new money," which represents to individual schools nor the $25,000,000 given to Trinity College by J. B. Duke.

Innsbruck, Austria.—Because there was no snow in the mountains, as set forth in an advertisement, a group of Englishmen have set out against a travel bureau, asking for damages, railroad fare and hotel expenses.

The English tourists were in Innsbruck, seeking winter sports, but the weather was so mild that nowhere could they find snow. They read an advertisement of a certain resort saying the snow was, or soon would be, deep, and the skating good. So they travelled thither, only to find on arrival that the reported snow was a myth, and the lakes all open. Aggrieved and out of pocket, suit was begun against the travel bureau responsible for the misleading announcement.

N. C. Reported 109 Knit Goods Manufacturing Plants in Year of 1923

Raleigh, April 16.—Department of Commerce figures, made public today, showed that out of 2,323 knit goods manufacturing plants reported in 1923, 886 were located in New York, 610 in Pennsylvania and 109 each in North Carolina and New Jersey. Massachusetts had 87.

Establishments engaged primarily in the manufacture of knit goods reported products valued at $848,176,734, in 1923, which was an increase of 33.8 per cent as compared with 1921 reports. Of this total, $378,732,878 was contributed by hosiery, $160,901,752 by underwear, $187,158,178 by fancy knit goods, including sweaters, and more than $42,000,000 by minor products.

NEW STAMPS BY THE MILLION DISTRIBUTED FOR APRIL FIFTEENTH

Washington.—The new postal rates, effective April 15, have created a vast amount of work for the bureau of engraving and printing. It has become necessary to get out, prior to April 15, 1,250,000,000 one and one-half cent stamps; 300,000,000 half cent stamps; 100,000,000 of the new 15 and 20 cent special delivery stamps, and 400,000,000 one and one-half cent postcards. The post office department has made plans to ship eight carloads of postcards to New York City alone, each car containing 6,000,000 cards.

The stamped envelope contractor at Dayton, O., also has been operating on a 24 hour basis to prepare and ship approximately 200,000,000 one and one-half cent envelopes and newspaper wrappers.

JEWELERS BEMOAN WOMEN'S SIMPLE TASTE IN GEMS

London.—Women's constantly changing ideas regarding what they shall or shall not wear always affect some trade or another. This time it is the jewelry trade which is suffering, owing to the new simplicity of tastes regarding the wearing of jewelry. All women want pearl necklaces for the moment, and if they can not get real ones they will have imitations, with the result that pendants with ornate gold settings as well as brooches are out of fashion.

According to the head of a jewelry association in Birmingham, where much jewelry is manufactured, there is today a slump in gold watch wretlets because women are now wearing a plain moire ribbon band, and whereas it was quite usual for a woman to wear four rings it is now only usual to wear two, a wedding and an engagement ring.

ENGLAND'S UNEMPLOYED SET TO DIG OUT ROMAN RUINS

Deal, Eng.—Some of England's unemployed recently became seekers of hidden treasure. The first job to which several score of men was assigned was that of excavations at the Roman Richborough Castle, near Deal, which work is designed partly to solve the mystery of a great pile of a concrete substance within the center of the ruins.

Bronze brooches and pins, believed to have been used by the women of those days for fixing up their hair, were unearthed recently, as well as parts of bronze statues, chains, and an embossed gold ornament, also probably worn by women. About 90 Roman coins were also dug up by the excavators, among them being a gold piece of the Emperor Arcadius dating from 388 A. D. to 395 A. D.

GERMANS QUIT WRANGLING OVER RATES OF EXCHANGE

Berlin.—The stabilizing of the German mark evidently has had the result of reducing in large measure litigation among German businessmen. The mercantile courts of the country, which deal largely with commercial disputes, report a large falling off of cases since January, 1924, when the Rentenmark first made its appearance. For one thing there has come an end to the countless disputes over exchange rates.

MISSIONARY WORKER REFUSES TO BE DENIED

London—Ten years ago a young man offered himself to the Baptist Missionary Society for service as a missionary in the Congo.

The applicant was rejected by a doctor, and subsequently went into business with the determination to devote his profits to the cause he had hoped to serve in another way. It was announced recently that in the ten years since his rejection his gifts to the society have amounted to $125,000.

Freed from Vows by Pope, Nun Weds

Mrs. Webb Levering. Miss Marie Hirst, who recently was released from the Order of the Sacred Heart by special dispensation from Pope Pius, has been married in Philadelphia to Webb Levering, prominent in Baltimore, Md., society circles. Miss Hirst had served thirteen years in the religious order, which she entered suddenly at the time preparations for her debut into society were being made.

Holy City "Mourns" for Balfour

Some sections of the city of Jerusalem ironically draped themselves in black flags on the arrival of the Earl of Balfour to dedicate a Jewish university there. He had been practically boycotted by the Arab natives, who resented his declaration fostering the recolonization of the Holy City by the Jews. The British political leader's residence at Damascus was stoned during a riot over the issue, and the military had to be called out to quell the disturbance.
