GREENVILLE GOLF TEAM GOES TO GOLDSBORO

Members of the golf team of the Greenville Country Club left this morning for Goldsboro where they will play the fifth match for the Eastern Division Championship of the East Carolina Golf Association. Members taking part in today's tournament are: Messrs. James Little, W. L. Whitehead, W. W. Lee, Julian White, Tom Smoot, W. Z. Morton, E. B. Ferguson, J. H. Waldrop, Knott Proctor, Luther Herring and L. H. Bowling.

NOTES ON TARHEELIA

The Board of Trustees of the North Carolina State College of Agriculture and Engineering consists of 62 members, elected by joint ballot of both branches of the General Assembly. The Governor is the president, ex-officio, and the State Superintendent of Public Instruction is a member ex-officio.

The principal streets in the territory included in the boundaries of the city of Raleigh as laid off in 1792 are the property of the State but are kept up by the Raleigh city government. The state also owns two of the public parks of Raleigh, which are kept up by the city as places of recreation.

The State Hospital for the Negro Insane at Goldsboro has nine directors. These are appointed by the Governor.

North Carolina has a law, passed by the 1925 general assembly, prohibiting men from "annoying" college girls. Under this law, any college girl who is "disturbed" by a "masher" can report him to the authorities and the "masher" will be subject to arrest.

FIREMEN AND ENGINEERS' OFFICERS SEEK RE-ELECTION

Detroit.—The thirtieth convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers will open here June 1, continuing for about a month, with representatives of 920 subordinate lodges and a score or more of grand officers in attendance. The convention will represent approximately 115,000 members.

Much of the time of the convention will be devoted to a study of its insurance department, through which there are at present in effect policies aggregating more than $60,000,000. All the grand officers will be candidates for re-election.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the organization, with 483 lodges and a corresponding number of delegates, representing a membership of 21,000 also convenes here June 1.

ONE SURE THING ABOUT THE DEBTS

The Administration has not asked the nine Governments whose debts are still unfunded to begin paying interest and principal. It has asked them to begin discussion as to what they can and will do at some unspecified time in the future.

There can be no reasonable objection in Europe to this request, for if France, Italy and the other debtor nations are in earnest about the reform of their finances and the ordering of their budgets they must desire that the debts be placed on some definite basis. As they stand to-day they mock all claims that the budgets are balanced and they constitute a constant menace to the stability of the exchanges. They are also a political irritant in the United States. While they are unfunded they will present an irresistible temptation to irresponsible Congressional orators. And finally, in sheer justice to Great Britain, it is necessary sooner or later to end the discrimination by which the British people alone among the large Allies are compelled to pay.

It would, however, be idle to suppose that the conversations which President Coolidge has inaugurated will produce a settlement like that with Great Britain. If there are any members of Congress who cherish the illusion that we are about to obtain $150,000,000 to $200,000,000 a year they had better abandon it now. No matter how the thing is phrased or concealed, these negotiations can lead only to a substantial reduction of the debt. The reduction may be effected by moratorium or by very low interest rates or by some other financial device, we shall not connect the whole interest and capital. Neither the French nor the Italians can or will pay us more annually than they can hope to collect from Germany. And Great Britain, which is also their creditor for about as large a sum, could not in fairness to its own taxpayers permit France or Italy to turn over to us an amount much greater than is paid to Great Britain. The terms of our settlement with Great Britain cannot be the terms of our settlement with France and Italy unless they are also the terms of the settlements between Britain and France and Italy. We can hardly ask the British to pay us more than France pays us and to accept less from France than we. We cannot in all fairness expect the British to meet maximum terms as debtors and to be satisfied with minimum terms as creditors.

These are some of the inevitable difficulties in the enterprise on which the President is engaged. They are great and the matter is delicate. At this stage the negotiations cannot be conducted with much publicity, for, unhappily, in all countries concerned the financial jingoes are primed with angry speeches. Nevertheless, The World believes that the Administration will make trouble for itself in the future if it allows the impression to prevail that it expects to collect on the terms of the British settlement. Sooner or later, Mr. Coolidge will have to assume the leadership of opinion in this matter and prepare Congress and the opinion behind Congress for the inevitable reduction of the debts.—N. Y. World.

ARBITRATORS TO DECIDE PAY OF GERMAN ACTORS

Berlin.—The long conflict between the theater producers of Germany and the stars, or prominent actors as they call themselves, has at last been ended. The stars have scored what will probably prove an empty victory. The clause in the managers' agreement to which they particularly objected was that by which they were placed in four hard-and-fast classes, with definite maximum fees for each class. They declared this was incompatible with their dignity as artists, and that no artist could submit to having such a strait-jacket put on him. The classification has been abandoned. Every actor is free to make his arrangements from play to play. But whenever an actor wants to emerge beyond the ordinary class whose maximum fee is fixed at $75 a night, an arbitration board of three men must deliver an opinion as to whether his claim for a higher wage is justified.

The feeling in German theater circles is that the stars have saved their pride at the expense of their pocket-books.

BILL HITS AT FOREIGN REAL ESTATE BUYERS IN FRANCE

Paris.—Foreigners purchasing real estate in France would be subjected to a real estate sales tax four times as large as that levied upon natives if a bill now in the hands of the finance committee of the chamber is approved by the French parliament. The present law imposes a tax of 13 percent of the price paid, while the new bill would amend the law by making it 52 percent when the buyer is a foreigner, "even when such a foreigner has a legal domicile in France."

"The depreciation of our currency has incited a certain number of capitalists belonging to countries favored on the international exchange market, to invest their capital in France, in the hope of realizing heavy profits, when the franc returns toward its par value," the preamble says.

"The franc having lost 80 percent of its value, the English and the Americans are thus able to buy French property at prices much below those prevailing in 1914."

STURDY OUTDOOR WOMEN EXCEL IN EMBROIDERY

London.—The modern girl is taking a more intelligent interest in needlework than did the early Victorian, according to Mrs. Mary Antrobus, who is restorer by royal warrant of the tapestries in Holywood, Windsor Castle and Buckingham Palace.

Mrs. Antrobus acted as one of the judges at an international needlework contest here, and is considered one of the greatest authorities in Europe on these materials. Hunting women, and the girls who play hockey and tennis and take an interest in outdoor sports are, as a whole, the women who do the best embroidery today, in the opinion of Mrs. Antrobus. Needlework fulfills a side of their lives which sports do not, she says, because sports are not creative and needlework certainly."

MEETING OF THE ROUND TABLE

On Tuesday afternoon, May 18th, the last regular meeting of the Round Table for this year was held with Mrs. J. E. Nobles, who has been a guest of the Club since the removal of Mrs. Paul Fitzgerald from the city. Eighteen members and one guest, Mrs. I. N. Hardy of Kinston, were present.

The business of the club year had been completed, and the programs for next year are ready for distribution. The treasurer reported funds in the treasury to purchase books for circulation next year.

Mrs. R. E. Smith, who was our delegate to the State Federation at Pinehurst, gave an interesting report of the business sessions, breakfast conferences, addresses, and pleasure trips.

One of the most enjoyable study courses of the club was brought to a close in the topic of the day, "The New and the Old in Art." Mrs. J. W. Higgs gave the story of Stone Mountain, paying tribute to its gifted designer, Gutzon Borglum. That this great Memorial to the heroes of the South, designed to stand until the end of Time, should be completed as originally conceived, was the united opinion of the club, and great regret was expressed at the unfortunate controversy which has hindered the work.

Several members added a personal touch to the discussion from their own visits to the Memorial, or from having heard Gutzon Borglum speak.

Recent discoveries in Archeology was the subject of a fascinating paper read by Mrs. J. E. Winslow, who took us all over the world and gave us glimpses of the proofs of past civilizations, many of them discovered by merest accident, and some of them even under the sea. We realized more than ever that we and our generation are but specks in God's great Universe, where truly, "a thousand years are but as a day."

Pictures of places discussed, and music on the Victrola, completed the program. The house was beautifully decorated with the season's brightest flowers, and each guest was given a flower souvenir of the delightful afternoon.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to express our sincere appreciation for the many expressions of sympathy in this time of our great sorrow.

MISS ELIZABETH ANDREWS ENTERTAINS IN BETHEL

Bethel, May 21.—Miss Elizabeth Andrews, very delightfully entertained the Senior Class of the Bethel High School at her home Tuesday evening, from 8:30 to 11 o'clock. The guests were met at the door by Miss Effie Martin and ushered to the punch bowl by Miss Andrews. Mrs. Waffle Carson and Mrs. F. L. Andrews graciously presided over the punch.

The class colors, white and lavender, were used in decorating the rooms. Steamers in these colors were hung throughout the house. The class flower, sweet peas, was also used in the decorating. A large "1925" pennant was used to further advance the color scheme.

Contests were participated in by the guests. Professor and Mrs. Page won the prize for having the most correct answers and were presented with the top-scorer's prize. The "booby" went to Miss Arue Brown and Mr. Ashley James.

A very delightful ice course was served, during which Mr. Hubert Burroughs, President of the class, made a few fitting remarks concerning the class and the important place in it held by the hostess.

Members of the school faculty enjoying Miss Andrews' hospitality were: Professor and Mrs. Page, Professor Grimes, Miss Jones, Miss Simpson, and Miss Kensey. The members of the class present were: Misses Annie Dare Hooker, Camille Staton, Frances Barnhill, Doris Whitehurst, Hortense Lewis, Arue Brown, Elizabeth Harper, Effie Martin, Elizabeth Andrews, Mesdames Hubert Burroughs, Renald Reddick, Achley James, James Smith, and Martin Luther Carson.

Other guests present were: Misses Jackie Andrews and Harriet Pollard, and Messrs. J. B. Bunting, F. F. Pollard, W. J. Smith, Jr., and Rev. F. A. Burns.

AMERICAN PUTS DARWINISM IN SAME CLASS WITH DODO

London.—Assertion that Darwinism was as "dead as the dodo," so far as its being regarded as a vera causa of the origin of species is concerned was made recently by George McCready, professor of geology at Union College, Nebraska, addressing the Victoria Institute on "Revelation and Evolution. Can they be harmonized?"

Professor McCready contended that the most hopelessly pessimistic of the world's prophets were those who had most completely adopted and assimilated the doctrine of organic evolution. Such a scheme of cosmic despair, he said, was completely at variance with that portrayed in the Christian's Bible.

"The time has fully arrived for those who think for themselves and who do not entrust the keeping of their opinions to any set of supposed experts, to dismiss once for all the idea that man may possibly have arisen by a long drawn out process of development from preceding animal ancestors," said the professor. "I am confident that in this year, 1925, sufficient scientific facts are available to settle this long debated problem in a way entirely satisfactory to the believer in the literal truthfulness of the first chapter of Genesis."

Strauss Objects to Fixed Pay.

Berlin.—Richard Strauss has decided to boycott the German Theatrical Association. He has refused Max von S-hilling's invitation to conduct a number of performances at the Berlin State Opera with the explanation that he does not consider it conformable with his professional standing to submit to a conventional fine imposed by the Theatrical Association in the nature of fixing the maximum remuneration for an artist of his position.
