12 MORE WORKING DAYS SUBSCRIPTION CAMPAIGN LEFT

Leadership Being Held By Different Workers From Day to Day; All Ten On List Are Exceptional Workers

Just twelve more working days of The Daily Reflector's subscription and prize campaign left after the close of business tonight. Twelve more days and the judges will announce the seven prize winners and award commissions checks to the other three contestants.

With just ten contestants on the list and seven prizes to be awarded, one can see that the chances of winning a valuable prize is high. Even at this writing the automobile winners seem to be still in doubt and it will take hard work each day of the remaining twelve working days for the winners to be determined.

Those who win the autos will be those who carry on hard right up to the close of the campaign on Thursday night October 29th. The work accomplished so far in the campaign has been such as to bring an even half dozen contestants hovering around the very first place. Leadership has been held at least once by about every one on the list. Some have climbed to the top on several occasions only to lose their high standing to one of the other hard workers.

This campaign is unlike most subscriptions campaigns in one particular respect. Most other campaigns have among the contestants listed a certain few who do most of the hard work and thereby secured a lead far and above any of the others.

This campaign of The Reflector's is different. Ten candidates are carried on the list and every one of the ten are considered excellent workers by the Campaign Manager who has had much experience in this particular sort of work.

Friends of the paper ask from time to time who is leading. They want to know who, in our opinion, will be the fortunate one to be awarded the Hudson Coach.

All we say and can say truthfully to them is that the winner of the Hudson Coach, the Ford Coupe, $250 Living Room Suit, $187 Dining Room Suit, $115 Radio, $75 or $50 cash prizes will be those who have the ambition and sticking powers to work hard and hold on to the finish.

Winners in this campaign can be determined in no other way. Subscriptions are probably coming a trifle harder now than at the beginning and the votes given on same don't count so much, but the true worth of a contestant will be shown by the work accomplished from now till the close.

WITNESSES SAY WILES CHARACTER ABOVE REPROACH

Defense Rests Case at 11:28 O'clock After Presenting Several Witnesses

Durham County Court House, Durham, Oct. 15.—(AP)—Two attorneys one for the state and one for defense, had concluded their addresses to the jury when court adjourned at 1:30 for luncheon in the case of Robert J. Wiles, charged with murder.

The defense rested its case at 11:28 o'clock, after it had presented several witnesses from South Carolina, Wiles home state, to prove that the defendant's reputation was good while that of the deceased Gordon was bad, so far as violence was concerned.

Among those who testified as to Wiles' good character were Mark Taylor, Columbia Contractor, and General Robert E. Craig, Attorney General of South Carolina.

All of the witnesses testified that Wiles' character was above reproach while Gordon's character as to violence was bad. Two of the witnesses testified that Gordon told them that he would kill Wiles the first time he put his eyes on him.

Victor Young, opened the argument for the state shortly after noon, with William J. Brogden one of the defense counsel following.

BOWLEY TO DELIVER ADDRESS HERE NEXT TUESDAY EVENING

Will Visit Greenville as Guest of the American Legion; Address to Be Delivered in Court House

The local post of the American Legion has been very fortunate in securing General A. J. Bowley to address the people of Pitt county on next Tuesday evening at eight o'clock in the court house. General Bowley has been commanding officer of Fort Bragg for several years, during which time he has acquired quite a reputation as a speaker as well as a soldier.

With General Bowley will be Mrs. Annie Morgan, State vice president of the Woman's Auxiliary and Mrs. Everly Nimocks, president of Woman's Auxiliary of Fayetteville, N. C. The public is urged to be present that all may learn something of the workings of the Legion and of the Woman's Auxiliary. No doubt General Bowley will have something in store for every one present.

It is always a treat to hear a man of the calibre of General Bowley. We should be proud of the fact that he is coming to Greenville. Come out and pay your respects to one of the bulwark of the nation's defenses in the way of commanding officers.

Unable to Arrive Figures for Reduction Nation's Tax Bill

Washington, Oct. 15.—(AP)—The treasury is prepared to suggest to Congress that a maximum sur tax of 20 percent be written into the next tax law but Secretary Mellon has been unable thus far to arrive at a figure which may be proposed as the maximum amount by which the nation's tax bill may be reduced.

The Secretary and Under Secretary Winston are figuring on how much the total receipts may be cut and are expected to have statistics ready when the House Ways and Means Committee on Monday begins consideration of the new bill. Both officials will appear before the committee at that time.

There has been no change in the treasury's views with respect to elimination of a number of the miscellaneous taxes and for repeal of the publicity provision of the present law.

The Treasury Secretary is not prepared at this time, however, to give details of his ideas. He said today the treasury would make no formal recommendation, but would confine to pointing to the committee the possibility of revision insofar as they effected the volume of receipts by the government.

WASHINGTON'S VISIT BE UNVEILED HERE

Ceremonies to Be Held on the Court House Lawn on November 17; General Bowley to Deliver Address

November 17th is the date set for the unveiling of a tablet in Greenville commemorating and marking General George Washington's journey through the state of North Carolina.

The occasion will be one, not only of local, but of state wide interest. General Bowley has accepted an invitation to deliver the address on this occasion, and there will be several other distinguished guests present, among others, Mrs. E. C. Gregory, of Salisbury, Regent, N. C. D. A. R. and Mrs. William Reynolds, of Winston-Salem, chairman of the committee appointed to mark the journey of Washington, and who will present a tree to be known as the Washington Memorial Tree. The inscription on the bronze marker reads:

In Patriotic Commemoration of the visit of George Washington, on his tour of the Southern States 1791. Marked by the North Carolina Daughters of American Revolution, 1925. This marker is being placed by the Colonel Alexander McAlister Chapter of Snow Hill. The Greenville D. A. R. members are Mrs. W. S. Harden, Mrs. C. M. Warren, Mrs. B. W. Moreley, Miss Dora Mead, Miss Pearl Wright, Mrs. K. R. Beckwith and Mrs. R. H. Wright, who compose the local committee on arrangements.

The site selected for placing the marker is on the court house square. Permission to place the marker here was very courteously granted by the county commissioners.

The Chapter hopes to make this a memorable occasion and is asking for the co-operation of every organization in the city.

British Government Hard on Heels of The Communists

London, Oct. 15.—(AP)—The British Government is hard on the heels of the Communists, whose activities recently in broadcasting pamphlets in citing soldiers and sailors to mutiny have fed the flames of popular anger against them. Raids were made last night on communist headquarters. Some of them were charged with conspiring tradition and mutiny.

recommutation, but would confine to pointing to the committee the possibility of revision insofar as they effected the volume of receipts by the government.

DECLARE BRYSON MADE THREAT TO KILL B. BROOKS

Witnesses for Defense Say Bryson Made Threats to Kill Brooks If He "Ever Crossed His Path"

Hendersonville, Oct. 15.—(AP)—The defense scored today in the trial of Bonnie Brooks, barbershop proprietor, on trial in Superior Court here for his life charged with the murder of Samuel Y. Bryson, of Hendersonville.

Threats made by Bryson that he would kill Brooks if the latter "ever crossed his path" were testified to by witnesses for the defense today. These threats were repeated to Brooks had a marked effect upon him, witness said, and at one time when he was told that Bryson might kill him Brooks broke down and began crying.

Henry W. Hawkins, of Spartanburg, S. C., testified that he saw Bryson at Spartanburg after he had left Hendersonville following the incident when Brooks surprised him at the Brooks home in company with Mrs. Brooks.

CONFERENCE ADOPTS TEXT OF THE DRAFT SECURITY PACT

Germany Announces Her Adhesion to the Rhine Pact; To Be Signed by France, Germany and Belgium

Locarno, Switz., Oct. 15.—(AP)—Germany today officially announced her adhesion to the Rhine Pact of mutual guarantee framed at the Security conference here with the object of outlawing war. The pact will be signed by Germany, France and Belgium as the principal parties and by Great Britain and Italy as guarantors.

A solution of the problem of the Polish German arbitration treaty has practically been reached by enlarging the scope of the treaty to make it virtually the same as the treaties between Germany and France and Germany and Belgium. This means that all possible disputes, even those arising out of frontier questions would be submitted to arbitration.

After the announcement of Germany's adhesion the conference at its eighth plenary meeting adopted the text of the draft security pact.

MacNider Appointed Asst. Sec. of War

Washington, Oct. 15.—(AP)—Hanford McNider, of Mason City, Iowa, was appointed assistant secretary of war today. McNider, who is a former commander of the American Legion, succeeds Dwight F. Davis, who was advanced to the post of Secretary of war upon the resignation of Secretary Weeks.

SENATOR SAMUEL RALSTON DIED LAST NIGHT IN INDIANA

Venerated Patriarch of Indiana Democracy Dies After Six Weeks' Illness; Beloved in Home State

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 15.—(AP)—Samuel M. Ralston, Junior United States Senator from Indiana and venerated patriarch of Indiana Democracy died at his home here last night as the result of illness of six weeks. He was 67 years old.

Death came to the Senator after 22 hours of unconsciousness, the victim of an attack of uremic poisoning which had confined the Senator to his bed since September 5th and had impaired his health since early this year. Members of his family and more than a score of intimate friends were gathered at the home to receive the news shortly after eleven o'clock last night that death had come. Senator Ralston had known for some weeks of his condition and soon after he had bidden his family and friends farewell he lapsed into the unconsciousness which preceded his death.

Since runner in his early youth, Ralston later farmed and taught school before turning to the study of law, which opened a political career for him and brought him in 1912 to the Governorship of Indiana and in 1922 to the United States Senatorship.

A lawyer by profession and a farmer by inclination, Mr. Ralston never really cared for political office. He preferred the battles of the law, tempered by the quiet and peace of the rolling acres of his Indiana farm. He had an abiding interest in politics, however, and was a firm believer in the bed rock principles of democracy.

Until he was swept into the governor's chair in 1912, Mr. Ralston had sought public office only twice, and each time was defeated. After his four years' term as chief executive, he retired to his farm near Indianapolis, and confided to friends that he was through with politics.

The record he had made as governor and his campaigning ability, however, drew the political leaders again and again to his doorstep. In 1920 his party pleaded with him to enter again the race for governor, but he refused. It was not for long, however, for he was persuaded two years later to become a candidate for the Senate against Albert J. Beveridge, and was elected.

Senator Ralston stood out as a man among men wherever he went. More than six feet tall he was proportioned to fit his height. His friends declared he looked, thought and acted like a Grover Cleveland. He was a sticker for the Constitution and strictly a party man.

Born on a farm in Tuscarawas county, Ohio, on December 1, 1857, Senator Ralston came from a hardy pioneer stock.

Mr. Ralston's ability to go out among the people and gain friends through his sincerity was recognized, and in 1912 he was nominated for governor. During his service in that office he wiped out the state debt and got behind the formation of the public utilities commission, an inheritance tax law, a blue sky law and a workman's compensation law.

Wants Immigrant Issued Certificate By U. S. Consuler

Washington, Oct. 15.—(AP)—Secretary Davis, whose position at the head of the Labor Department put him in direct charge of immigration law administration, has just published a book urging selection at the source for all future immigration to the United States. He proposed that a certificate issued by the United States-Consular officer abroad be requested of each immigrant and that such a system be coupled with another registering of immigrants after their arrival.

HUMAN TO BE CARELESS

The history of accidents indicates that to be careless is human—that man is most natural when he is most careless.

Carelessness requires no mental or physical exertion. The jay-walker finds it arduous to watch for vehicles and keep within the jay-lines. Reckless motorists speed over railroad grade crossings, risking the lives of themselves and others, because it is inconvenient to "stop," look and listen. Oil and gasoline are poured into stoves because that is the easiest way to start a fire. "Safety First" rules would be excellent if they did not have to be memorized with entailed mental effort.

Humanity unwittingly confesses its sins and faults in language. Telltale words and idioms betray human weaknesses. The whole story of human negligence is summed up in the idiom "take pains" and in the word "pains-taking."

The definition of the word painstaking is to be careful, to use care. And when one uses the idiomatic expression "take pains" it is in the sentence of exercising caution and using care.

Sometime in the dim past, probably when the English language was still young, some philosopher made the discovery that observance of care was accompanied by pain, so he created the idiom "to take pains" and the word "painstaking." Both expressions are still in common usage with their significance increased instead of diminished.

When this much-talked-of super-man of the future is evolved one of his outstanding superiorities will doubtlessly be the full appreciation that the pain which results from carelessness is greater than the pain of being careful.

VALUE OF A NAME

What's in a name? The answer for generations back has been "nothing." True a rose by any other name would smell as sweet but try to sell it under a different name if you would better estimate the value of a name.

The name of Alexander, Hannibal, Caesar and Napoleon evacuated walled cities, turned whole armies into disastrous retreat, and conquered empires. Those names obtained their magic from the deeds of their owners.

Because his name might have been Smith would not have prevented Shakespeare from writing his classic tragedies and in spite of their common names George Washington and Abraham Lincoln won immortal fame. Genius is as accidental as its name.

And yet American manufacturers spend millions annually on names. For the purpose of establishing a trade name business enterprises conduct nation-wide and even world-wide advertising campaigns. To many manufacturers the name of their product is their fortune, a fortune which could not be amassed without the aid of advertising.

Modern business has learned that the three essentials for success in merchandising are a worthy product, a trade-mark and an adequate advertising campaign. Advertising is as essential to retail business as to the manufacture.

About the time the weather gets too cold for pleasant touring detours will be no longer necessary.

French and Spanish troops fighting the Riffs are hindered by rain. Perhaps the supply of umbrellas is inadequate.

"I haven't a thing to wear," is frequently a woman's assertion, and modern styles go rather far in bearing out the statement.

Married students are barred at an Illinois university, possibly on the theory that marriage provides thorough education in itself.

SUFFERED WITH PILES FOR YEARS

Says Hamadala Has Cured Him

315 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y., August 15, 1924.

Gentlemen—I have been troubled with piles for twelve or thirteen years and although I consulted several of the best recommended physicians, and used various salves prescribed by them as remedies, I was never able to obtain relief.

Through an acquaintance I was advised to try Hamadala Pile Tablets which I did. I took just one box. Nearly four months have elapsed since I stopped taking the tablets, and there is no sign of the piles returning. I am therefore writing this letter with the absolute belief that Hamadala Tablets have positively and permanently corrected my trouble.

Yours very truly,
JOHN A. McALLISTER.

Hamadala is an internal constitutional treatment for blind, bleeding or protruding piles. It is dispensed under refund guarantee by P. A. Drug Co., and all good druggists. Out of town sufferers can obtain it by mail. Price $1.00.

SOUTH DAKOTA WILL START POLITICAL POT BOILING DECEMBER 1

Pierre, S. D.—The opening salute of the 1926 national campaign will be fired here December 1 when the political parties of South Dakota assemble to designate their candidates for the United States Senate, Congress and state offices.

Few outstanding issues are noted between the republicans, democrats and farmer-laborites, but the republican party itself—which for years has dominated the state politics—is divided into factions on participation by the state in private industry.

The progressive wing of the republican party was responsible for the rural credit act, the state cement plant, the state coal mine and state participation in the retailing of gasoline. There is little doubt but that Senator Peter Norbeck and Governor Carl Gunderson, both of whom will support the state's past record in these activities.

Another wing of the republican party in which Sam H. Elrod, former governor, stands out as a leader, expressed itself as irrevocably against participation by the state in the field of private enterprise.

This faction resolved it would seek to nominate candidates "who will be true to republican principles and who will give support to a republican president."

On November 10 the people will gather in the precincts to choose their county delegates. These delegates will attend county meetings November 17 when three proposals will be selected. Then on December 1 the county proposals will meet in Pierre.

The vote of the three county proposalsmen depends on the number of votes cast for the party's candidate for governor in the last general election.

The party meetings then select their candidates. If five or more proposalsmen disagree they may hold a meeting of their own and name a "minority ticket." The tickets and platforms are submitted to the counties for ratification on December 22 and individual candidates may file on platforms different from either the majority or minority stands, until January 1, 1926.

The primary election is held March 23, 1926, at which each voter must designate his party affiliation and is given a ballot which contains only the names of the majority, minority and individual candidates in that party.

BOY SCOUTS REQUIRE MORE LEADERS IN THEIR PROGRAM

New York.—The Boy Scouts of America will need at least 300 men to serve as executives and assistant executives in connection with the operation of the 606 first-class councils now operating and the new councils to be organized.

To meet this need plans have been made for a series of intensive training courses in different parts of the country.

The first course will be held with the cooperation of Teachers College, Columbia University, and will open October 24. The course will be restricted to men with such educational qualifications and general aptitude as will reasonably assure their success in this particular field of educational work.

During the summer season approximately 300,000 boys and the benefit of camps conducted by the Boy Scouts of America.

Membership in the Scout movement increased during the year by more than 100,000, and now totals 680,000 men and boys. The Lone Scout division has 91,593 members.

In the volunteer service of 160,000 men, there are less than 1,900 men employed professionally. The aim has been to keep the Boy Scout movement as largely as possible on a volunteer basis, but when men are engaged in the work professionally it is desired to have them receive special training.

under the laws.

Deputy General Rafael Cramer chief of the constabulary, calling the attention of the secretary to the subject says:

"Since the attorney general in his opinion of several years ago held that poker was a game of chance and punishable, instructions were given the constabulary to apprehend and prosecute all persons engaged in playing poker and these instructions are still in vogue. However, since judges have taken upon themselves to adjudge persons engaged in poker playing, there seems to be no further need of the constabulary spending time and money in raiding these games, if the men caught will be acquitted."

Steps have been taken to bring a case before the Supreme Court in order that a final decision on the subject may be obtained.

FILIPINO COURT TO DECIDE STATUS OF POKER AS GAME

Manila.—Meeting will have serious results in the courts in the prosecution of persons arrested on charges of playing poker, the constabulary authorities have concluded that further raids on these games would be useless expenditure of time and money until the question of whether poker is a game of skill or chance is decided by the Supreme Court.

The courts of first instance have held that poker is a game of skill while the attorney general has rendered an opinion that it is a game of chance and as such is punishable

PAINS ALL OVER

Lady Says She Took Cardui and Never Saw Such Improvement—Was So Weak Couldn't Stand.

Weatherby, Miss.—Mrs. James M. Hall, of this place, writes that she was "getting weaker all the time" when Cardui, the woman's tonic, was first brought to her attention. After she had taken Cardui a while, she writes that she "never did see such an improvement."

"I suffered all the time and had pains all over," says Mrs. Hall. "I was so weak I could not stand. My skin was cold and flabby. I did not have any color. I had always been a very active woman—used to outdoor exercise, walking and going where I pleased, and to get down, not able to get myself a drink, was indeed a hardship."

"Nothing seemed to help me, till I began on Cardui. The first bottle seemed to strengthen me, and I sent for five more. By the time I had taken these, I was on my feet, going around, doing my work, gained in health and strength."

"I took two more bottles, and I am well and strong. Can work my garden. I haven't had any more sickness."

PRODIGY AT AGE OF FOUR ENTERS COLLEGE AT 12

Berkley, Cal.—Matthew Marsh, of this city, who at the age of four was declared by I. J. Mar'a Montessori, noted educator, to be "the original boy in California," has entered the University of California at 12.

Marsh is small for his age and so has been barred from the R. O. T. C. ranks, but otherwise he is taking part in all the normal activities of a freshman. In celebration of his admission, Marsh donned his first "long trousers."

POPULARITY OF NAVY BAND DUE LARGELY TO SOLOISTS

"No chain is stronger than the weakest link" may apply very well to chains, but applying the principle, in reverse, to a musical organization, it may be well said that no band can attain great success without outstanding artists as soloists. It was a realization of the truth of this principle which guided Lieut. Charles Benter, leader of the United States Navy Band, in building up his organization.

In Washington, home of the Navy Band, and where the public is accustomed to the best procurable in music and the arts, the Navy Band has attained an enviable position. Known to all classes of the cosmopolitan, this organization has had an almost miraculous rise to favor in a short period. Its public concerts have been largely attended and its programs at official functions and at the White House have aroused the admiration and appreciation of music lovers from other nations. That discriminating people who know music have placed the Navy Band on a pedestal argues that it will remain there.

Many reasons have been advanced for the popularity of the Navy Band—the indefatigable efforts of its leader, Lieut. Charles Benter; the discrimination with which its members are chosen and the esprit de corps which dominates the organization.

W. L. Radcliffe, head of the Radcliffe enterprises, who is managing the tour of this band which will bring it to Greenville for matinee and night concerts on Monday, Oct. 19, believes that a large part of the success gained is due to the excellence of the soloists. "Lieut. Benter has exercised unusual care in the selection of his soloists," says Mr. Radcliffe, "and the wisdom of this is apparent whenever the band plays those complicated compositions where the art of expression falls at critical moments upon one or more instruments. Lieut. Benter has been extraordinarily successful in getting men who are masters of their instruments and unusually well versed in the technique of music. I would hesitate to say the solo work is responsible for the bands' success, for no one factor is responsible, but I would unhesitatingly say that this has contributed largely."

PIERCE'S COMMUNITY CLUB WOMEN MEET

A number of the women of Pierce's community and Miss Bertha Lee Ferguson, county demonstration, met, at Mrs. C. W. Humbles, September 16, and had an all day job in millinery. It was very interesting and we got several good ideas in the making of hats, but on account of rain in the morning several of the members and other women of the community were not with us, too, some misunderstood about the time the meeting was to be held. We are expecting a good attendance next time and feel sure Miss Ferguson will have something beneficial and well worth the time spent at the meeting. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Blaney Sumrell, third Wednesday, October 21, beginning at 2:30 o'clock. The study of color and designing in dress, will be for this meeting. All the women of the community are cordially invited.

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth. Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs. Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. Creomulsion Company, Atlanta, Ga. (adv.)

ROUND TABLE CLUB.

Mrs. Milton White entertained the Round Table Club with Mrs. G. A. Spence of Norfolk. Mrs. E. W. Harvey, Miss Lylerly and Miss Thomas, of the Greenville Schools, as guests on Tuesday afternoon. The President, Mrs. Herring, opened the meeting by reading the messages of both the National and State presidents found in the new Federated Club year book. She also read the beautiful and inspiring club prayer.

Mrs. W. C. Vincent was welcomed as a new member and Miss Hand, of the High School faculty, as a guest of the club for the year. Mrs. H. E. Austin was elected as a delegate to the district meeting to be held in Robersonville next week.

Our neighbor country, Canada, was the subject of study. Miss Denney read a very clear and interesting paper taken from the book "Canada, the Spell Binder," by Lillian Whiting and from her own personal experiences while traveling in Canada. The picturesque and fruitful domains from the 16th to 20th centuries, as explored and developed by traders, missionaries, pioneers, and others followed by detailed descriptions of various localities, the wonderful climate, a visit to the famous Cobalt Mine, glimpses of cherry and apple blossoms, cool summer resorts and colder winter resorts, where one may go for winter sports, made Canada seem more like a neighbor. As several present had traveled there the discussion which followed brought out many more important and interesting facts not found in books. Seventeen members were present. During the social hour Miss Thomas rendered several piano solos which were very much enjoyed.

PHILATHEA CLASS MEETING OF METHODIST CHURCH

On Tuesday evening, the Wesley Philathea Class of Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church held a very interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. Ernest Baker on Eighth street. The guests were cordially welcomed by the hostesses, Mrs. Rives, Mrs. Fleming, Mrs. Perkins and Mrs. Baker and invited into the living room, which was lovely with baskets of chrysanthemums and beautiful green ferns.

The meeting was called to order and a short scripture lesson was read by the president, Mrs. O. G. Gully, after which we were led in prayer by Mrs. Wiley Brown.

The class maintain the support of our little orphan girl at our Methodist Orphanage in Raleigh and the main business of the evening consisted of getting together a list of necessary articles of clothing, etc., to be sent immediately to this little girl. Two very interesting contests were arranged for the evening, the winners being Mrs. H. E. Austin in the first contest and Mr. Watkins and Mrs. Gully tying for honors in the second contest. During the social hour a very tempting chicken salad course and spiced tea was served. MRS. J. W. HIGGS, Reporter.

Miss Elizabeth Best making the top score was presented a silver bud vase while Miss Frances Whedbee, bride-elect, was given an attractive trousseau gift. The visitor's prize, a hand-made handkerchief was presented Miss Jane Turner, of Henderson, house guest of Miss Frances Whedbee. Misses Taft remembered their home guest with silver candle sticks.

After the games an ice course was served.

ENGLISH BARRISTERS TO REVIVE MOOTS TO AID YOUNG COUNSEL

London. — A revival of the old custom of holding "moots" in the Middle Temple is being planned for November.

The moot is a mock trial designed to give men in the legal profession—and now women—the opportunity of arguing legal problems arising from established facts, in the form in which cases are argued in the Court of Appeal. Two counsel are assigned for each side and when they have put their case, the judge gives judgment. Justice Sankey has promised to preside over the first moot.

This is considered to be one of the best methods of giving junior counsel an opportunity of putting and arguing a case, as well as gathering hints regarding procedure, and pitfalls to be avoided when taking a legal case into the glare of a public court.

Weather

Warm temperatures prevail over entire belt, continued drizzling general over east and central belts also Ark., Okla., and Mo. Light rainfall Amarillo district and 3 1/2 inches in Galveston district.

Forecast Thursday: Entire belt cloudy and showers.

May rally on continued rains.

Sugar

We believe the market is sufficiently low to buy and while no substantial improvement may occur in the immediate future, we see no reason to expect much lower levels to prevail.

Liverpool

Grain Opinions

Bartlett Frazer—It will require enlarged buying power to maintain present values in wheat so long as heavy Canadian movement continues. Interest in coarse grains large professional.

Sten—Believe market now in position to respond very quickly to favorable news developments.

Hulburd Warren—Would buy wheat on all moderate setbacks. Think purchases of corn on scale down from this level eventually prove profitable.

Harr's Winthrop—Barring accidents in Argentine and Australian crops look for lower wheat prices.

Jackson—Believe market is gaining friends because of the heavy premiums in the Southwest.

Cotton Opinions

Weld—In the present unfavorable rains continue or are followed by killing frost, an incentive may be had for speculative and trade buying which would result in a sharp and immediate advance. On the other hand, should the weather turn clear and warm, the resumption of speculative pressure might result in a somewhat lower market.

Hubbard Bros.—There is no fresh buying power attracted by the bad weather but as we have pointed out the hedge selling has been markedly diminished.

Orvis—In view of the markets irregularity, we think a trading program is advisable temporarily.

Hentz—While we do not doubt that further declines will be met with an increased demand from trade sources, it should be well to keep in mind the fact that this demand must be very broad to absorb the volume of cotton which must still be marketed.

Railways to Make Concession in Behalf Crippled Children

Fayetteville, Oct. 15.—(AP) — Through the efforts of Mrs. Evelyn M. Nimocks, of Fayetteville, a member of the Board of trustees of the State Orthopaedic Hospital at Gastonia, all North Carolina railways have agreed to grant each child a prospective patient at the hospital, and an attendant half-fare rates from their homes to the hospital and return, it has been learned here. When Mrs. Nimocks became a member of the board of trustees, she learned that the Southern Railway sion to the children and attendants, and, through her, the matter was taken up with the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad. This company, in turn, took it up with the associated railways in this state.

A letter from the Atlantic Coast Line has been received here advising that all of the North Carolina lines, the Seaboard Air Line, the Norfolk and Southern, the Winston-Salem Southbound, and the Atlantic Coast Line have agreed to make this concession in behalf of the crippled children of the state. The other North Carolina railway, the Southern, had already made the concession.

Under the plan agreed upon, the hospital is furnished with blanks, which are filled out by the parents of the crippled child for the child and attendant, whereupon the half-fare privilege is accorded the child and its attendant.
