PULMAN PASSENGER FARE SUR CHARGE EFFECTIVE DEC. 10TH

Travelers Within State of North Carolina Must Pay Sur Charge Now Levied On All Interstate Travels

Washington, Oct. 22. (AP) - Travelers within the state of North Carolina after December the 10th next must begin paying a pulman passenger fare sur charge that is now levied on all interstate travel.

The Interstate Commerce Commission's order was given notwithstanding that an act of the North Carolina State legislature effective March 1923 ordered abolition of sur charges on all trips made wholly within the borders of North Carolina.

The Interstate Commerce Commission held today that the North Carolina legislature's action resulted in "undue preference of an advantage to passengers traveling in Intra-Commerce and undue prejudice against Interstate Commerce."

The sur charge is an extra fare paid by sleeping and parlor car passengers amounting to fifty percent of the pulman charge, but paid over to the railroads.

The investigation disclosed that Revenues of railroads in North Carolina were reduced approximately $75,000 per year by the abolition of the sur charge.

Under the situation obtaining since the enactment of the legislation a pulman passenger traveling from Greensboro, N. C., to Charlottesville, Va., 171.9 miles, has paid railroad fare and sur charge of $7.35, while a pulman passenger traveling from Greensboro, N. C., to Asheville, a distance of 190.6 miles but entirely within North Carolina, is charged a fare of $6.87.

The commission held that the transportation services performed in each interested may apply for modification of the findings, the decision today said. Commissioners Campbell, McChord, and Cox dissented.

N. C. Fifteenth in Wealth Industries of Agr., Mines, Forests

Raleigh, Oct. 22. (AP) - North Carolina stands fifteenth among the states in the total production of wealth from industries, agriculture, mines, and forests. The total wealth produced in North Carolina from these sources in 1923 was $1,513,368,000.

These facts are shown by figures compiled by S. H. Hobbs, Jr., of the department of rural-social economics of the University of North Carolina, and published in the current issue of the University News Letter, just received here.

North Carolina's total wealth production of more than a billion and a half during the year 1923 was divided as follows: Industry, $951,911,000; agriculture, $513,400,000; forests, $38,051,000; and mines $10,000,000.

New York leads all states, with $9,691,364,000, and Nevada was at the bottom of the list, with total wealth produced of $73,393,000.

Generally speaking, too many people are generally speaking.

Is it any less painful to be run over by a car with hollow tires?

STATE EMPLOYEES WIN FIRST BATTLE WAGE COMMISSION

Attorney General Rules That Commission Has No Authority to Set Aside Holidays Made Legal By General Assembly

Raleigh, Oct. 22. (AP) - The employees of the state won in the first battle with the salary and wage commission here today following the commission's classification of employee's salaries and holidays.

In a statement issued by the commission through its chairman, Julian Price, of Greensboro, the committee asserted that the Attorney General had ruled it had no authority to set aside holidays which previously had been made legal by the General Assembly.

Among the holidays eliminated was Armistice Day and the commission was faced today with vigorous protests from Department heads, American Legionnaires and other interested parties, because of its action in declaring that the State Department should remain open on Armistice Day.

Following consideration of this matter, the commission got busy today with more than 150 protests against salary changes and classification announced in its report of ten days ago to become effective November 1.

3609 Herds Cattle Tested Tuberculosis During September

Raleigh, Oct. 22. (AP) - Three thousand six hundred nine herds of cattle were tested for tuberculosis during the month of September in North Carolina, a summary of the tuberculosis eradication work in the various states, compiled by the bureau of animal industry of the United States Department of Agriculture, and just received here, shows.

The total number of cattle tested during the month in this state was 8,411. Of this number 35 cattle are reported to have reacted to the test.

CORONER'S JURY INVESTIGATING BABY'S DEATH

Raleigh, Oct. 22. (AP) - A coroner's jury today was proceeding with a thorough investigation of the cause of death of an eight hour infant at Rex Hospital here, Sunday. In the meantime the hospital authorities had relieved of duties, pending the outcome of the hearing, two nurses, who had charge of the child, immediately after birth.

The child was born to Mrs. Oscar J. Smith at ten o'clock Sunday morning, and was immediately placed in a receiving basket such as is ordinarily used in such cases. Five hours later the child was removed from the basket suffering with horrible burns and died within three hours. It was found that in the bottom of the basket was a heating pad.

A doctor, who examined the child, pronounced the cause of death to be of accidental burning. The hospital authorities neglected to advise the county coroner of the child's death. County officials were advised of the matter through private sources Tuesday night and immediately began an investigation. Today before the coroner's jury a pad similar to that found in the basket where the child was lain was heated for three hours and attained a heat of 160 degrees, so hot that members of the jury could not touch it with their hands.

No charges have been made against anyone in connection with the case as yet, but a thorough probe into every phase of the case is being made by county authorities.

Bulgarians Are Attacked by Greeks

Sofia, Bulgaria, Oct. 22. (AP) - Announcement is made by the Bulgarian telegraphic agency that the Greeks on Wednesday afternoon again attacked the Bulgarians. The agency says that at two o'clock while a Bulgarian Press Officer was waiting for an interview at Demirkapou with a Greek Press officer with a view to arranging an investigation of previous incidents, soldiers of the Greek post opened fire and tried to push forward.

It is added by the agency that Bulgarian government has made further representation to Athens requesting that measures be taken to end such incidents and insisting on the investigation into the commencement of the trouble which they had previously asked for.

The Greek version of the affair to the effect that Bulgarian soldiers attacked the Greek first and occupied several high points along the border is officially denied.

Sofia, Bulgaria, 11:00 a. m., Oct. 22. (AP) - It is officially reported that Greek troops have invaded Bulgarian territory. No declaration of war, however has been received from the Athens Government.

REVIVAL SERVICES NOW IN PROGRESS IMMANUEL CHURCH

Dr. W. H. Horton, of New Bern, is Doing Excellent Preaching Both Afternoon and Evening

A splendid revival meeting is now in progress in the Immanuel Baptist Church. Dr. W. H. Horton of the First Baptist Church of New Bern is doing excellent preaching.

The congregations while not large have been growing from evening to evening Wednesday evening the auditorium was comfortably filled. The pastor of the church who is in charge of the devotional and musical program is giving special emphasis to this feature of the services.

It is also hoped that the various congregations of the city will attend the services which are open to all. For while we may personally be identified with a local church, there is a very real and true sense in which every christian is a member of one great family.

Services are held each afternoon and evening at 3:45 and 7:30. In addition to the regular services, cottage prayer meetings are being held daily in various sections of our city and in various shops, stores and places of business on our main streets.

Expresses Belief That New Plan Involves Larger An. Payments

Paris, Oct. 22. (AP) - Belief that a new plan which Finance Minister Caillaux proposes to submit to the American Debt Commission would involve larger annual payments than previous French proposals was general in political circles today.

On the other hand it is known that M. Caillaux feels that even the temporary arrangements offered by Secretary Mellon would be better than any plan involving higher payment unless such a plan carried some sort of insurance against the crippling of financial resources.

In view of the fact that many members of the French Parliament are opposed to the temporary arrangement which M. Caillaux brought home from Washington, this arrangement will not be submitted to parliament. Instead there will be a new proposal which is expected to be a definite refunding measure covering 62 years.

This proposal will be started shortly, probably soon after the re-opening of the Chamber of Deputies next Thursday. It is asserted that the Finance Minister is not willing to put off a renewal of the debt negotiations until domestic problems have been smoothed over, although it is generally agreed that France's capacity to pay will depend on a solution of the pressing difficulties of the Treasury.

Says Legion Will Not Go Into Politics During Stevens Adm

Raleigh, Oct. 22. (AP) - The North Carolina Department of the American Legion will not go into politics while Henry L. Stevens, of Warsaw, recently elected Commander, is at its head, Mr. Stevens declared here today.

"The Legion ought not to go into politics and it is not going to while I am Commander," Mr. Stevens said. He was in Raleigh to appear before the Salary and Wage Commission to request that Armistice Day be among those holidays allowed employees.

New York, Oct. 22. (AP) - 66 members of the crew of the steamship Comanche which was burned off Florida last Saturday night, arrived in port today aboard the Cherokee and denied passenger's charges of drunkenness and cowardice by negro members of the crew.

McLean Declares No Longer "Race Problem" in South

Raleigh, Oct. 22. (AP) - There is no longer a "race problem" in the south, such a problem exists only in the minds of those of both races, who are seeking advancement for selfish reasons, Governor McLean declared here today speaking at the official opening of the Negro State Fair.

The Governor paid tribute to the patriotism of the American negro, declaring him to be a "most valuable element" in the population of the south, "because he controls our labor supply." He pointed out that the negro's greatest weakness is his lack of thrift and pledged his administration to do everything possible to bring about the advancement of the race in "every line of endeavor."

The Governor congratulated the negroes on the progress made by the race since the days of slavery and held out encouragement to the race to future progress, but he referred throughout his speech to a state government in the hands of "white people."

The Governor asserted that no race in the history of the world starting under "so great a handicap" has ever made a social industrial and intellectual progress that even approaches that of the negro race.

Sec. Mellon Presents New Schedule Normal Income Tax Rates

Washington, Oct. 22. (AP) - A new schedule of normal income tax rates was presented to the House Ways and Means Committee today by Secretary Mellon.

The proposal suggests a rate of one percent on the first $3,000 of taxable income, two percent on the next $1,000, three five percent thereafter.

This arrangement, the Secretary said, in a letter to Chairman Green, probably would be more satisfactory than the recently submitted treasury schedule suggesting one percent on the first $3,000 of taxable income, three percent on the next $4,000, and five percent there after.

Present normal rates are two percent on the first $4,000, four percent on the next $4,000 and six percent on the remainder.

Mr. Mellon submitted the new figures not as a "definite proposal but as an alternative plan to that laid before the committee in writing Monday. It really is the third tentative outline of rate the treasury has submitted, Mr. Mellon having suggested orally when he appeared before the committee Monday that the rate be made one and one half percent on the first $4,000, three percent on between $4,000 and $8,000, and five percent for all over $8,000.

HON. F. H. BROOKS TO SPEAK AT FAIR GROUNDS FRIDAY

Prominent Smithfield Man to Make Closing Talk at Special Thanksgiving Service

Hon. Frederick H. Brooks, of Smithfield is to be the speaker at the closing service of the Thanksgiving services tomorrow, beginning at 11 a. m.

Judge Brooks was licensed to practice law in 1901 and became a partner with Hon. E. W. Töu in Smithfield. This partnership lasted until 1911, when he was appointed Judge of the Recorder's Court of Johnston county. This position he held until the campaign of 1922, when he voluntarily resigned in favor of Judge A. M. Noble.

Judge Brooks has been town and county attorney, president of the Board of Trustees of the Graded Schools for Smithfield.

He has also been very active in church work as a layman, and is an easy and interesting speaker. He is one of those who were instrumental in promoting the yearly Thanksgiving services for Johnston county. This annual event began in 1923, and has continued ever since. Johnston county reports the largest crops this year in its history, and they attribute it to the willingness with which the people give God the credit for their success.

Let everyone remember to come prepared to hear Dr. Horton in the morning, and Judge Brooks in the afternoon. Keep the hour in mind: 11 a. m. sermon by Rev. W. H. Horton, D.D., 1 p. m. basket dinner on the grounds. 2 p. m. address by Frederick H. Brooks, and adjournment. The place is Greenville, and at the Pitt County Fair Grounds.

"Protection of Plants in Ukraine" Subject 76 Page Pamphlet

Raleigh, Oct. 22. (AP) - "Protection of Plants in the Ukraine" is the translated title of a 76-page pamphlet received here by the State Department of Agriculture from the government of the Ukraine.

The pamphlet, written in the language of that country, which uses the Greek alphabet, gives one an idea of what is of interest to Ukrainian farmers by virtue of the fact that the title and the sub-titles throughout the book all are translated into English. Even the translation, in some cases, however, is far from clear.

One sub-title, for example, is translated: "From the redaction." Other sub-titles include the following:

"Sketch of the combats of injurious insects and diseases of plants in the Ukraine in 1924;" "Injurious insects and the combats with them in the gov. of Kharkov in 1924;" "about weeds in the gov. of Kharkov in 1924;" "about the fundamentele directions of the experimental phyto-pathology works;" "about hunt on etc.

MARY HARRINGTON LEADS FOR WEEK IN CIRCULATION DRIVE

Several Others Press Close; Votes Given On Subscriptions in Reflector's $2,700 Campaign Decrease After Tonight

Just a few more hours to go before the Second Period in The Daily Reflector's subscription campaign will come to a close. Mary G. Harrington of Winterville holds the record for the best work done this week so far but several others are pressing her hard for the high honors.

Mrs. Lucy J. Moye, Mrs. R. C. Abee and Mrs. F. J. Diener are all pushing steadily onward with the realization that a subscription turned in before the close of business today will mean a whole lot more in votes than later.

One or two candidates who made a flashy beginning have gradually lost ground during the past week or so, while a strange thing about the campaign is the steady gain of those who at the outset were conceded small chance of earning one of the leading prizes. These folks continue to push on and on, climbing ever upward until now at this writing they are strong contenders for one of the automobiles.

Steady and consistent work—that's what counts. The flashy performer is good only in a short race but this campaign is one of seven weeks duration with six weeks of it behind. Those who have carried on doing the best they can need have no fear of the ultimate result. Those at the top of the list will be these same sort of folks, and you, if you have given the best you have, will no doubt be listed among them.

The finish of the campaign is just six more working days away. Six more days to make your last canvases and bring in all your promises. Those folks who have promised to help you should be rounded up now and all made ready for one last final push on to victory. One great big week between now and the close of the campaign one week from tonight and you no doubt will ride home in a new automobile.

Contestants should keep ever in mind the fact that a second subscription give in the campaign, (the first one may have been given to you or another) will count you the same votes as though that subscription were secured during the First Period of the campaign when the most votes of the entire contest were given on subscriptions. Just marked the stub that you turn in to the campaign department—"First Period."

If you turn in a second subscription and that subscription is for six months, you get the votes given on a six months subscription during the First Period. And the same with a year.

This ruling will hold good right up to the day before the close of the campaign. It positively will not count the last day.

BRITISH TAKE STEPS TO WIPE OFF LAST SPOT

Geneva - The last spot on the British Empire's map where human slavery still exists is the Hukawng Valley in the upper portion of the Indian province of Burma. By next May the Empire hopes to have removed this last vestige from the dominions and colonies directly under its control, and from those bordering it as well.

The local potentates have agreed that a fixed price shall be set for each class of slave in the Hukawng valley, and once it is fixed the bondsmen in question shall immediately become free and enjoy all the rights and privileges of other freemen. The slave is then to work out the purchase of his freedom by paying easy annual instalments.

PROGRESS

Extended education such as provided by the public schools of the country has exerted a gigantic influence in the past decade or two which is being felt in all walks of life.

The Cincinnati Inquirer comes out wholeheartedly for the cause of popular education and the editorial, which is given below, should reassure those who in the dust of present day building of system, plant, principle and theory, fail to see, on looking backward, the great stretch of road already travelled toward the ideal "the American public school, non-partisan, non-sectarian, efficient, democratic; for all the people; equal educational opportunities for all."

"America has set another record for magnitude—an amazing record in the field of popular education. For the first time in the history of the world more than a million children are now attending public school in a single city—New York. Daily this unthinkable army a thousand thousands of American boys and girls of every racial origin and creed, gathers up its million satchels and proceeds to school, elementary, junior high, high, training and vocational.

"The gigantic influence of the last generation's already broadened facilities for education is felt everywhere today. It appears in notable exploits by trained and educated leaders every day in the year—leaders in government, in business and finance, in the professions, lay, the secular, the army and the navy, the civil service and the councils of labor. Science is advancing as never before—due to education. Government in some of its many phases is more expert than formerly—due to education. Knowledge of the science of economics has greatly enhanced the vision and effectiveness of modern business. Manufacturing and commercial enterprise advance to new heights of conquest all the reached out into a vast number of new, constructive fields, and capital and labor come together more than ever before in a spirit of moderation and constructive adjustment for the general good. All these great expansions in the national achievement are due largely to the same cause—extended education.

"Education is the basis essential of a nation's continuing and growing greatness, second in importance to character and energy alone. Coupled with these it enabled Jefferson to write the Declaration of Independence and empowered the founders of the government to build the Constitution. In the nation's development self-education has played a mighty part—self-education of the kind that made a supremely broad, farseeing statesman out of Lincoln, and enabled him to save the Union by a combination of patience and timely use of force that amounted to genius. Effective self-education, however, is for the few who have outstanding character enough to win it. Modern public education is for these and all the others—the exceptional men and women who would find it without aid from others on a bleak frontier, and the vast majority of average young people who need it none the less.

"By providing education facilities for all, the nation insures for herself a glorious continuing advance into the future. What the past generation's schooling has done is richly evident. What of the abounding promise for the future that lies in the general education of today, when every child in the country goes to school, a million in a single city? It is stupendous, past all imagining."

BILIOUS ATTACKS

From Which Kentucky Man Suffered Two or Three Times a Month, Relieved by Black-Draught.

Lawrenceburg, Ky.—Mr. J. P. Nevins, a local coal dealer and farmer, about two years ago learned of the value of Theford's Black-Draught liver medicine, and now he says:

"Until then I suffered with severe bilious attacks that came on two or three times each month. I would get nauseated. I would have dizziness and couldn't work."

"I would take pills until I was worn-out with them. I didn't seem to get relief. After taking the pills my bowels would act a couple or three times, then I would be very constipated."

"A neighbor told me of Black-Draught and I began its use. I never have found so much relief as it gave me. I would not be without it for anything."

"It seemed to cleanse my whole system and make me feel like new. I would take a few doses—get rid of the bile and have my usual clear head, feel full of 'pep' and could do twice the work."

Wrestling Practice May Start Soon After Christmas

Davidson, Oct. 20.—(AP)—Davidson College has heretofore waited until after Christmas to start wrestling practice, but this year Coach Weems, who has charge of wrestling practice, hopes to start soon after Christmas. The team this year will probably meet, among others, the Concord Y. M. C. A., Carolina, North Carolina State, Duke University, the University of Virginia, and the U. S. Naval Academy Plebes. The schedule, however, has not been definitely arranged.

The nucleus for the team this year is smaller than in former years, Coach Weems says.

"STREET OF FORGOTTEN MEN" BOWERY ROMANCE

The Bowery in the late 90's! That was the heyday of romance and sentiment, of simplicity and un-sophistication, all of which was reflected in the songs of the period, "Little Annie Rooney," "East Side, West Side," "The Belle of Avenue A"—what memories these simple melodies bring back to the men and women of today who were just stepping into mature years when the Bowery was the country's center of domestic interest!

The romance, however, was mostly in the imaginations of those who didn't know the district from first hand experience. The wise men in those days found the Bowery a night-time fine place to stay away from and the stranger who ventured into its sinister confines counted himself lucky to get out again with a whole skin. Many an innocent and unsuspecting sightseer could vouch for the truth of the experiences related in that familiar song, "The Bowery."

Probably there was no tougher place in the world than this congested area in the 90's and the early years of the present century. Here was a hotbed of crime, political corruption and violence of every kind. Here plots were hatched and plans laid for atrocities that make the blood run cold in remembrance of them. "Billy" McGlory's saloon on Hester Street was one of the most notorious of the many gathering places for the night-blooming gentry of the district, and other dives such as The Glass Barrel, The Silvan Divan, The Slide and "The" Allen's on Bleeker Street contributed to the outward gaiety and the inner maliciousness of the old Bowery.

High School Filing Entrance Football Championship Test

Chapel Hill, Oct. 22.—High schools throughout North Carolina are now filling with the executive committee of the State High School Athletic Association individual entry blanks for the entrance of their football teams in the State high school football championship contest for this season, it was stated today by E. R. Rankin, secretary.

The schedule of the eastern championship series and the schedule of the western championship series will be arranged by conferences of cautions managers of the schools concerned which will be held early next week in the west. The games of the championship series will begin at once after the conferences have been held. Strict rules of eligibility governing the participation of high school students in the championship contest are called for and adhered to under the regulations of the State High School Athletic Association, it was stated today by Secretary Rankin.

The annual State high school football championship contest was inaugurated in 1913 and has been conducted every year since with the exception of 1918 when war conditions prevented. The contest this year will thus be the twelfth since the annual high school title contest was started.

The state championship has been won in the past by high schools as follows: Raleigh high school, 1913; Raleigh high school, 1914; Raleigh high school, 1915; Charlotte high school, 1916; Charlotte high school, 1917; Chapel Hill high school, 1919; Chapel Hill high school, 1920; Fayetteville high school, 1921; Asheville high school, 1922; Charlotte high school, 1923; and Rockingham high school, 1924.

The state high school football championship contest is a contest of the state High School Athletic Association. Membership in the association is open to accredited public high schools of the state. The association conducts, in addition to the high school football contest, state championship contests in high school basketball, baseball, track and tennis. There are now 186 member schools of the association.

The executive committee of the association is composed of the following members: N. W. Walker, chairman, Chapel Hill; E. R. Rankin, secretary, Chapel Hill; T. Wingate Andrews, High Point; A. W. Hobbs, Chapel Hill; W. R. Kirkman, Statesville; C. E. Phillips, Durham; R. A. Fetzer, Chapel Hill; G. B. Phillips, Salisbury; C. D. Snel, Chapel Hill; O. A. Hamilton, Goldsboro; H. D. Meyer, Chapel Hill; C. E. Teague, Sanford; C. T. Woolen, Chapel Hill; H. B. Smith, New Bern; McK. Fetzer, Chapel Hill; and H. M. Roland, Scotland Neck.

A trophy cup will be awarded by the association to the high school whose team wins the state high school football championship for the season.

ONE-PROFIT Facilities Alone Make Possible this Sedan of fine quality—at the lowest price ever placed on a Sedan by Studebaker

THERE was a time when the automobile buyer seeking greatest value for his dollar was justified in considering a car of second-grade quality, which was reasonably satisfactory from the standpoint of transportation alone. But with the advent of Studebaker's One-Profit manufacturing policy, cars of the finest quality, such as the Standard Six Sedan illustrated below, are now only slightly higher in price than those of second grade. This small difference in price is practically nothing in comparison to the vast difference in materials and workmanship—plus increased pride of ownership and the extra service that a Studebaker gives. Under this One-Profit system we build in our own plants all bodies, engines, clutches, steering gears, differentials, springs, gear sets, axles, gray iron castings and drop forgings. Thus we eliminate extra profits and overhead that all other manufacturers (except Ford) must pay to outside parts and body makers—and what we save goes to the buyers of Studebaker cars. And because we have facilities for manufacturing all vital parts on this One-Profit basis, we are able to design, engineer and build every Studebaker car as a complete harmonious unit. Being Unit-Built, the Studebaker functions as a unit—with all the advantages of unit over assembled construction. The result is years longer life—scores of thousands of miles of excess transportation—greater riding comfort—minimum repair costs—and, finally, higher resale value.

A UNIT-BUILT CAR Value Stabilized by "No-Yearly-Models" The fine Studebaker Standard Six Sedan illustrated below is upholstered in genuine Mohair cloth. Carpets are wool. Windows are real plate glass. Four wide doors. Equipment includes an 8-day clock, gasoline gauge, coincidental lock to ignition and steering gear, automatic windshield cleaner, ash receiver, rear-view mirror, stop light, dome light, safety lighting control on steering wheel, and full-size balloon tires. This Sedan has many superiorities—hidden as well as obvious. Body pillars are of fine northern white ash, cross-members of hard maple. We pay a premium for the best steels. Slam the door and the sound says "quality." Swing on the door. Run one wheel up on the curb and note how the doors still open and close—how the motor still runs smoothly. Sit on the firm, heavy fenders. Try the steering gear. See how easily it handles the full-size balloon tires. Test the comfort of the deep, wide seats. Run the engine—the most powerful in any car of its size and weight, according to the ratings of the N. A. C. C. and the Society of Automotive Engineers. This is Studebaker's lowest priced Sedan. Make comparisons—then realize why no car at a comparable price has more than superficial resemblance. Come in and let us demonstrate this sturdy One-Profit car.

Studebaker Standard Six 5-Passenger Sedan (Mohair Trimmed) $1675.00 Delivered for Cash in Greenville Or, under Studebaker's fair and liberal Budget Payment Plan, this Sedan may be purchased out of monthly income with an initial payment of only $558.00 down.

ENDURED MISERY OF PILES FOR YEARS

In Agony Most All the Time—Writes This Grateful Letter.

202 Carolina Street, Buffalo, N. Y. Gentlemen—I was afflicted with the worst case of piles that you can imagine. For years I tried remedy after remedy without obtaining any lasting benefit, and when the Hamadala Pile Tablets were recommended to me I felt it would be only another useless experiment, but I was willing to take another chance as I had got to where I was in agony about all the time. After I commenced taking the second box I began to see results, and today I am absolutely cured of my trouble, and have almost forgotten that I ever had the piles. Hamadala Tablets have made a new man of me, and I want to do everything I can to bring them to the attention of those who are suffering as I was. Very truly yours, W. STEDMON. The Hamadala treatment is an inexpensive internal constitutional treatment for blind, bleeding or protruding piles that comes in tablet form. It is dispensed under return guarantee by Pitt Drug Co., and all good druggists.

Beautiful Wedding Solemnized in Memorial Baptist Church Wednesday Morning.

One of the prettiest and most attractive weddings of the autumn season, and one of statewide interest was solemnized on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock in the Memorial Baptist church, when Miss Frances Skinner Whedbee became the bride of Dr. Malcolm Drake Thompson. The church was simply but beautifully decorated with ferns and cathedral candles.

Proceeding the impressive ring ceremony which was read by the Rev. James E. W. Cook, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Mrs. Hunter Marshall, of Charlotte, N. C., gowned in black georgette and wearing a corsage of yellow roses, sang "Because." Mr. Charlie James rendered two selections, "Until" and "The Sweetest Story Ever Told." They were accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Ray Tyson who was gowned in black velvet and wore a corsage of Richmond roses.

The bridal party entered to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march. The first to enter were the ushers, Messrs. Meredith Moseley, of Raleigh, W. L. Whedbee, of Greenville, brother of the bride, Silas Whedbee, of Hertford, and Dr. C. J. Ellen, of Greenville. Mrs. Jesse V. Hundley, of Durham, was dame of honor. She wore a gown of sapphire blue, crepe back satin with silver trimmings, a velvet picture hat to match, and carried a arm bouquet of pink Columbia roses.

The bride entered with her father, Judge H. W. Whedbee, who gave her in marriage. She was gowned in a going away costume of Black Prince panne velvet trimmed in silver braid and chinchilla. She wore a small hat to match her costume, grey slippers and gloves, and carried a bouquet of brides roses, valley lilies and orchids. They were met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Dr. Thomas Sparrow, of Charlotte.

Shubert's Serenade was softly played during the ceremony and Lohegrin's wedding march was used as a recessional.

Mrs. Thompson is the only daughter of Judge and Mrs. H. W. Whedbee, of this city. She is one of the most popular members of Greenville's younger social set, and numbers her friends by the score. She was educated at St. Mary's School, Raleigh. Her popularity here has been attested by the number of social events which have been given in her honor. A large silver basket of bride's roses formed the center piece while marine streamers entwined with smilax were suspended from the lights to the four corners of the table. Silver candlesticks with white burning tapers were arranged around the room and added much to the effectiveness of the decorations.

Upon arrival the guests were given a cordial welcome by Dr. and Mrs. L. C. Skinner. In the reception hall they were received by Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Moseley, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. INDIANS WHIPPING TREE AND CAPITOL STILL SERVES Okmulgee, Cal.—The ancient whipping tree and the old capitol of a vanished Indian nation still are doing service in the this city.

In the heart of Okmulgee stands the council house of the Creek nation erected in 1878. The Y. M. C. A. and the Chamber of Commerce have their headquarters in the building, and a bus line uses one corner for an office.

The building and its grounds occupy a block in the center of the business district. Among the numerous trees on the ground are two where the execution and the legal whipping took place.

The Creek had no jails. They had only two methods of punishments—whipping and shooting. The punishment for robbery, for instance, was 80 lashes for the first offense, 100 lashes for the second, and death for the third. In case of execution, the condemned Indian was led to the tree and shot. Damage suits were settled in cash, work or 50 lashes on the bare back.

The council house is a two-story building of native sandstone. On the first floor were the departments of government on the second the legislative halls.

The Creeks were one of the five civilized tribes moved by the government from the southeastern part of the United States to this territory about 1830. They established here a complete system of government similar to the American republic, but with much simpler form.

Their legislature was composed of the House of Kings (Senators) and the House of Warriors. The head of the state was the principal chief, elected for four years by a majority vote of the males of the nation. His assistant was the second chief, elected in the same manner.

There was a high court and a district court, each district having a prosecuting attorney, judge and a company of light horsemen, which were in the nature of mounted police.

The council house belongs to the city of Okmulgee. Efforts are now being made among the remaining Indians to move the building to a national Indian park planned near here.

has made good.

With the aid of the Dog Star Sirius and its celestial but invisible "pup," Dr. Walter S. Adams, director of the Mount Wilson observatory, said that one of the bases of Einstein's proposition, which says that light has mass an dis subject to gravitational attraction, has been further substantiated.

Sirius' companion is said to have a density so great that a pint bucketful of its substance would weigh 25 tons on this earth. With such density goes exceptional gravitational pull, say the scientists, and Dr. Adams' experiments established the fact that the sun's rays in traveling past this star were bent by this heavy drag.

The conclusion reached was that light is not illuminated nothingness, but that it has mass and, that being the case, it is prone to be attracted or repelled by certain forces, notably that of gravitation.

ITALIAN PRESS CENSOR ASKED TO CONDEMN EARLY

Rome—Ital an newspapers allied politically with the parties opposing the present Fascist government whose daily destinies are at the mercy of the Press Censor, have addressed a plea to the Censor that "he condemn them quickly if he intends to condemn them."

The press law provides that the censor approve each issue of each newspaper, the penalty being suspension of the edition if anything is found objectionable.

Recently the censor changed his office hours so that he did not examine the newspapers until several hours after their appearance. The result was that condemnations came so late that the newspaper was unable to print a later expurgated edition, as was previously the custom. Consequently all the copies of the newspaper were seized and the regular readers had no copies at all.

Please, Mr. Censor," the newspapers said, "would you mind condemning us quickly if you intend to do so?"

LOBSTER BOOTLEGGERS ARE ACTIVE OFF JERSEY COAST on Highlands, N. J.—Lobster bootleggers are active off the New Jersey coast. Lying outside of the three mile limit of state jurisdiction, they buy "shorts" and smuggle their contraband ashore to resorts and even to the large cities. A "short" is a lobster measuring less than four and one-eighth inches from butt of tail to tip of the horn at the head. This traffic has reduced the average weight of the lobster caught in these waters from five pounds to one. It is an icy day that keeps the lobstermen ashore. Working usually two to a boat, 25 feet 11-12 inches over all, open, cabinless and unprotected from weather, the fishermen in their quest anywhere from 3 to 10 miles out are lucky if they net an average of $10 a day. Four tises each containing from 20 to 30 pots keep two men busy. The pot is a wooden frame covered with laths one inch apart and containing an opening through a knitted cord arrangement which narrows from the entrance. Decaying menhaden, caught by the fishermen of Sandy Hook bay, are threaded to the inside of the pot with copper wire and among the inedible sea crabs and unpopular ling—a quick dying fish—is found on occasional crustacean. Sometimes it is a "short." Occasionally a heavy lobster is brought up, one taken this year having weighed seven pounds. Sometimes the pots yield a "shedder" in his annual round of casting off the old shell and putting on a new one. A prime delicacy, the letter die quickly and are of little commercial value to the lobstermen.

OF INTEREST TO WEARERS OF GLASSES AND PEOPLE WITH WEAK EYES

It will be noted in today's Reflector that Dr. W. L. Best is equipped to examine eyes and deliver glasses the same day. Having a complete grinding equipment makes it possible to do this. Broken lenses and frames can also be duplicated. This is certainly a convenience for the wearer of glasses. Dr. Best has devoted a number of years to the study of the eye, both as to lens fitting and frame fitting. It is just as important to have a well fitting frame as it is to have the proper lenses. People certainly should pay more attention to their eyes.

HARD COAL SUCKED FROM RIVER BEDS FINDS MARKET NOW

Harrisburg—Hard coal sucked from the beds of three rivers, much of it washed out as fine as sand by a method similar to the principle of panning gold, is in greater demand as the result of the strike of anthracite coal miners. The "miners" working the Susquehanna, Lehigh and Schuylkill rivers annually take approximately a half-million tons of hard coal from their beds—coal picked up by these rivers as they traverse the anthracite coal regions. The industry is the outgrowth of careless mining methods of early days.

When coal was plentiful and easily obtained little effort was made by operators to save the small sizes or to utilize any that was swept into the culm banks. These banks piled up along the streams in the vicinity of the collieries and washeries until thousands of tons accumulated. Much of this waste went into the streams and huge quantities of coal of good quality but small in size were washed down by the spring freshets.

When the discovery was made that this coal was of value efforts were started to recover it. The methods most employed consist of the use of suction pumps by which the coal is drawn from the river beds upon flat scoops. The sand is washed out and the resulting product is a good grade of hard coal, much of it as fine as sand.

Its use requires special blower attachments upon boilers but many residents of the region where the bulk of the river coal is recovered have found the installation of the apparatus an economy and use it in their homes. Public utility plants make up the largest consumers. During the last few years the quantity of river coal recovered has decreased as a result of better mining methods and increased utilization of the small sizes.

The river coal "miner" is not a miner in the general sense of the word. He has no affiliation with the hard coal industry itself. Each year, however, these workers dredged out coal valued at more than $600,000. Shipments by dredgers along the Susquehanna river were reported as considerably heavier during September than usual, although the season had not been more than ordinarily successful.

WHY MANY WOMEN PREFER AUTO TO A MODERN HOME TOLD

New York—Escape from the monotony rather than the drudgery of the housewife's lot has caused her to choose luxuries instead of conveniences, concludes the General Federation of Women's Clubs after a canvass on "What women want in their homes." The average American housewife prefers an automobile and a telephone rather than have modern plumbing arrangements in her home, because "these offer relief from a monotony that has driven many of her predecessors into insane asylums."

The Federation's findings were written by Mrs. Mary Sherman, national president, in the Woman's Home Companion. "The housewife does not mind washing stacks of dishes under the glow of an electric globe, but the task doubles or triples if she must do it by the smoky dim light from a kerosene lamp," said Mrs. Sherman. "She does not mind sweeping the lower floor of the house if she knows that at the end of her task she can sit down and chat via the telephone with a neighbor five miles away, and she will beat rugs for an hour—if the evening brings the relaxation of an automobile drive."

While 65 per cent of a large number of homes investigated were found to have inside sanitary arrangements and 50 per cent of them had bathtubs, 70 per cent of these families had automobiles and 68 per cent of them were equipped with telephones. The research made by the Federation covered 415,987 homes scattered through 237 communities. In 40 per cent of the homes it was found that there were no stationary washbowls and water had to be carried in and out, and 25 per cent of them were not even equipped with kitchen sinks. But 87 per cent had electric light and 7 per cent were equipped with electric irons. Radios were found in 17.6 per cent of the homes, pianos in 46 per cent, phonographs in 50 per cent.

In discussing the high percentage of homes equipped with automobiles and telephones but not with plumbing, Mrs. Sherman declared: "Sentimentalists will say that the fault lies with the men. But we club women who study conditions from the inside of the home understand the situation better. Women no longer undervalue their services in the home. They run their homes on the budget plan and have personal allowances to spend as they like.

"Then why do they choose luxuries instead of conveniences? Why does the automobile take precedence over the stationary tub, the telephone over the vacuum cleaner and the radio over the power-run sewing machine? "Because the housewife for generations has sought escape from the monotony rather than the drudgery of her lot. She can and does endure toil, actual physical labor, patiently and cheerfully; but she breaks physically and nervously under monotony. The automobile, the telephone and the talking machine or radio offer the modern home-maker the escape from that monotony which drove many of her predecessors into insane asylums."
