COURT MARTIAL TRIAL OF MITCHELL IS STARTED TODAY

General A. C. Bowley Will Not Be Allowed to Sit As a Member of Court; Summerell Withdraws On His Own Motion

Washington, Oct. 28.—(AP)—The court martial trial of Colonel William Mitchell based on his charges against the administration of the army and navy air services began today with challenge against the competence of one member of the court. The challenge was directed against Brigadier General Albert C. Bowley, commanding officer at Fort Fragg, N. C., and was based on the statement "that he is prejudice, hostile and filled with animosity to the accused." A speech made by General Bowley at Greenville, N. C., October 30, was cited in support of the charge. In this speech General Bowley opposed the separate department favored by Colonel Mitchell. After representative Reid, of Ill., read a newspaper account of the speech of General Bowley, said the account was approximately correct, but said he was not prejudice or hostile to Colonel Mitchell. Mr. Reid reiterated his challenge and the court retired to its private chamber for consultation. The court after a seven minute discussion retained the challenge and General Bowley was excused.

A challenge then was lodged by the defense against Major General Charles P. Summerell, head of the court, on the ground that he was prejudice, hostile and bore animosity toward Colonel Mitchell. Defense council quoted from statements made by General Summerell before the President's Air Board.

After the challenge had been placed against Major General Summerell, the officer withdrew from the court on his own motion.

Colonel Mitchell was placed under technical arrest shortly before the trial started and was cautioned that he must remain within the city limits of Washington during the trial. The arrest today carried with it no physical restraint or confinement.

Colonel William Mitchell began his descent at his court martial here today by driving from the bench three members of the court, including its President, Major General Charles P. Summerell.

General Summerell withdrew on his own motion after he had been charged with prejudice against the defendant, Brigadier General Albert J. Bowley was disqualified by his colleagues after a defense challenge had been lodged against him on similar grounds. Major General Fred W. Sladen, Superintendent of the Military Academy at West Point, was excused when the defense preemptorily challenged his presence.

A sharp verbal clash between General Summerell and Representative Frank R. Reid, of Ill., council for Colonel William Mitchell, preceded Summerell's request that the court excuse him from further attendance.

In support of his challenge, Mr. Reid read statements made by Gen. Summerell before the President's Air Board and coupled with them extracts from the report of Colonel Mitchell after he inspected the air defenses of the Hawaiian Department which at that time was commanded by General Summerell. General Summerell's retirement places Major General Robert L. Howze, commanding officer of the Fifth Corps area in the President's chair.

A preemptory challenge was made against Major General Sladen and as this form of challenge permitted of no argument he was excused.

Colonel Mitchell's Hawaiian report which was read to the court, as a part of the challenge against General Summerell, was dated December 1923 and declared the air forces of the Island were badly organized and that General Summerell had shown an ignorance of the principals involved.

In an appended statement by Colonel Mitchell also read in court, the Colonel said the report had indicated that General Summerell "knew practically nothing about aviation." A copy of the report, Colonel Mitchell said, had been handed by him to General Summerell.

The case in behalf of Colonel Mitchell was opened by Mr. Reid

30,000 BOY SCOUTS ARE REGISTERED FOREST GUIDES

New York—Thirty thousand Boy Scouts in Pennsylvania are registered forest guides, according to a statement issued by the National Scout office, based on a report of the Department of Forest and Waters of that state.

With the reading of statements made by the air officer in San Antonio, September 5th and 9th, charging "criminal neglect," "incompetence," and "almost treasonable administration by the air services." It is upon that language Coone Mitchell is being tried on charges of "conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline." These statements, Mr. Reid declared, would not constitute a violation of any article of war.

With Colonel Mitchell standing before the bench, Lieutenant Colonel Joseph McMullen, Assistant Trial Judge Advocate then read the specifications against Colonel Mitchell.

With the reading of the specifications and statements still incomplete, the court adjourned for lunch and with a prospect of an hour's further reading when the hearing was resumed at two o'clock.

YOUNG MAN SHOT TO REFLECTOR CONTEST DEATH BY MEMBER CLOSES TOMORROW 'PURITY' SQUAD NIGHT AT 8 SHARP

Richard A. Fate in Attempt to Get Away in Auto is Shot in Head by Officer John C. Goldsby

Richmond, Oct. 28.—(AP)—Richard A. Fate, 20 years old, was shot and killed here early today by policeman John C. Goldsby, member of the police "Purity" squad. The officer was charged with murder and was later released on $500 bond.

Fate and two companions were driving along main street when the "Purity" squad officers attempted to halt the automobile, but they refused to stop, and a chase of several blocks followed. Shots were fired by the officers two of the bullets puncturing the rear tires and the third striking Fate in the head. The machine finally was halted when the flat tires forced it to swerve into a tree. The driver, Robert H. Lane, escaped, Fate and another man, John Swann, were captured before they could get away. Fate was in a dying condition. The authorities claimed they found 31 gallons of whiskey in the rear of the car. Lane was captured an hour later and he and Swann were charged with illicit transportation.

Judges Expected to Announce Winners to Those Waiting Around 9:30; Last Few Hours' Work Will Determine Auto Winners

The following gentlemen will act as judges at the close of The Reflector Campaign, making the final count and awarding the prizes:

F. J. Forbes, Cashier National Bank of Greenville.
J. H. Waldrop, Asst. Cashier Greenville Banking and Trust Co.
J. M. Short, Cashier Farmers Bank of Greenville.

Tomorrow night at eight sharp the subscription and prize campaign of The Daily Reflector which has been running for the past seven weeks will come to a close with the awarding of a Hudson Coach, Ford Coupe, two suits of furniture, a radio set completely equipped and two cash prizes of $75 and $50 each. Workers not sharing in these prizes will be given a ten per cent cash commission on all subscription money turned in.

The campaign from start to finish has assumed the proportions of an honest to goodness close race. Those who started off rather weakly have picked up speed with each succeeding day while those who started off like a house on fire have slowed. These fast named workers have done wonderful work of course but they just simply couldn't hold the fast pace they set at the start.

Now all indications point to one of the closest newspaper subscription campaigns ever conducted by any paper here in Eastern Carolina. Every place on the list is being hotly contested for and it is the prediction of the campaign manager that the worker will finish in one two three order. In other words, first place winner will be separated from second place winner by the narrow margin of the votes given on a few yearly subscriptions. Second and third the same way and this same condition of affairs will exist right on down the list.

This closeness all depends on the finish of the workers themselves. We are serious when we say that every six month subscription that you bring in will have an important bearing on your outcome.

Every worker is requested to have their slips all filled out properly when they make their final turn in tomorrow. Don't wait until the last minute to come in—come in several times during the day, this will hasten the close and the final count. Be sure your stubs are filled out properly, have enough interest in the folks that helped you to see that they get paper without any worry or delay.

The ballot box will be ready for your votes tomorrow. The list as published today will not be changed. Everything must be in the box by eight sharp tomorrow.

Says Board of Tax Appeals Will Be Forced to Suspend

Washington, Oct. 28.—(AP)—Appropriations recommended by the Budget Bureau for the board of tax appeals next year will force suspension of the board, its chairman today told the House Ways and Means Committee.

Budget director Lord has cut the estimate appropriation for 1927 by $190,000, Chairman Korner declared, adding that a cut of $54,000 in the deficiency appropriation asked for this year will force suspension early in the spring.

Under present regulations the market value of mortgages gauges the amount of tax liabilities but because of the fluctuation of property values, confusion has resulted over taxes, particularly in Florida. Senator Fletcher is anxious to have a definite regulation on mortgage taxation in view of the Florida Land development.

New York Merchants Desirous of Buying North Carolina Goats

Raleigh, Oct. 28.—(AP)—It has just been pointed out here that the latest thing New York commission merchants are desirous of buying from North Carolina is goats—both for "sacrificial and edible purposes." The State Department of Agriculture, through its division of markets, calls attention to the fact that "during the holidays—Thanksgiving and Christmas—common goats bring a good price on the New York market."

One of the largest commission firms in West Washington Street, New York, reported to the division recently that these goats are used for both sacrificial and edible purposes. This firm told the division that goats are sold alive by the head and that the most desirable ones ranged in age from six weeks to six or eight months.

The division of markets is making efforts to get in touch with owners of common goats, with a view to helping them market their products.

Paris, Oct. 28.—(AP)—President Doumergue today summoned Premier Painleve to ask him to form a new cabinet in succession to the one which resigned yesterday.

Consideration doubts expressed whether M. Painleve will accept. He is understood to have told friends that he would recommend that the President choose former Premier Herriot in his place. M. Painleve told President Doumergue he would consult his friends and the party leaders before definitely accepting the task of forming a new cabinet.

Health Department Arranges Return Visit for Clinician; Diagnostic Clinic to Be Held in County Week Beginning November 30

The Health Department through the extension department of the State Sanatorium has arranged for another tuberculosis diagnostic clinic to be held in Pitt County the week beginning November 30th.

If you have tuberculosis you should know it so you can get well. Make an appointment for examination and let's try to find out.

FRESH OUTBREAK OCCURS BULGARIAN GREEK FRONTIERS

New Incidents Threaten to Interfere With Pacifying Effort of League of Nations

New incidents along the frontier of Greece and Bulgaria threaten to interfere with the pacifying effort of the League of Nations.

Each side blamed the other for the fresh outbreak. Sofia officially states that Greeks opened fire on the Bulgarian frontier forces early this morning, while Athens says the Greeks near Ranna in Greek territory were attacked.

A report from Saloniki, Greece, claims the Greeks were attacked while withdrawing from Bulgarian territory in conformity with the League council and as a result of this incident it is believed the evacuation must have ceased.

Meanwhile representatives of both countries appearing before the League Council in Paris, apparently prior to reports of the fresh outbreak, assured the council that it thought it would be carried out. It is understood that the Greek troops in the frontier territory will not be withdrawn for the time being.

Sofia, Bulgaria, Oct. 28.—(AP)—Despite the warnings of the League of Nations council, Greek troops continued to occupy Bulgarian territory today and there were no signs that they intended to withdraw.

Bulgarian officers in making this announcement said a number of villages were bombarded during the early morning hours.

Sofia, Bulgaria, Oct. 28.—(AP)—It is officially announced that the Greeks opened fire on the Bulgarian frontier post number five at about one o'clock this morning.

Paris, Oct. 28.—(AP)—Greece announced at today's meeting of the League of Nations council that she had given orders for her troops in Bulgarian territory to retire behind her own frontier. She assured the council that complete evacuation of Bulgaria would be carried out within the sixty hour limit laid down by the council.

Enrollment from other states besides North Carolina is: Virginia, 25; Georgia, 11; South Carolina, 11; Alabama, 3; New York, 3; Tennessee, Florida, 1; Illinois, 1; Massachusetts, 1; and Texas, 1.

Summary of Crop Weather Conditions For the Past Week

Washington, Oct. 28.—(AP)—Crop and weather conditions in Southern states for the week ended yesterday were summarized by the Department of Agriculture today.

There was less rain fall and more sunshine over the western half of the cotton belt making better conditions for harvesting, especially in the north western portions of the belt. In the eastern belt heavy rains the last half of the week caused some interruption in picking and ginning and there was some lowering of the grade. More material frost damage has occurred. Cotton has made little new growth in Texas, and still unfavorable because of weevils and worms. For North Carolina the report said there were moderate rains but the strong winds in the latter part of the week damaged open cotton and delayed picking. Conditions of the week were favorable for other farming activities.

THIS TIME MAY COME

The time may come:
When someone will not be extolling the "good old days."
When oldsters will not be viewing with alarm the goings-on among the young people.
When the comic sheets will not pretend that husbands are henpecked.
When a reporter, a detective and a parson on the stage or in the movies will resemble a reporter, a detective and a parson in real life.
When popular magazines will think up some new way to adorn their covers without glorifying the American girl.
When a man will work as hard as he leads his wife and his friends to think he works.
When a "business conference" means a business conference and not a game of golf.
When cynics will not be knocking the church and the church will not be knocking the world.
When an employe admits he is being paid all he's worth.
When professional reformers admit that society is O. K. and voluntarily quit their jobs.
When a man gives up his automobile and explains that he cannot afford one.
When somebody will not be prophesying that the world is coming to an end.
When suckers will not be stung by fake investments salesmen.
When bores will not take the perfunctory cue "how are you?" as an invitation to give an "organ recital."
Yes, the time may come. But we don't expect to be alive to enjoy that millennial dawn!

THE LAW AND THE EVIDENCE

Judge N. A. Sinclair, who distinguished himself by his vigorous and impartial conduct of the trials resulting in the conviction of the perpetrators of the Needleman outrages in North Carolina last spring has no more patience with lawyers who try to circumvent the law than he has with mobs. In charging a grand jury at Ahoskie this week Judge Sinclair denounced attorneys who go beyond the law and the evidence to find a basis for their pleas. At the same time Judge Sinclair recalled that he had only a few days before called down two lawyers for asking juries whether the jurors would not have done the same things as their clients if placed in similar circumstances. In taking the stand which these statements indicate, Judge Sinclair has come very close to uncovering one of the practices most responsible for bringing the administration of criminal justice in America into disrepute. Jurors are sworn to try cases in accordance with the law and the evidence, but in many cases the attorneys, who as much as the jurors are the sworn officers of the courts, fail to keep themselves within the same limits. They base their pleas not on the law and the evidence but upon sentimental considerations entirely beyond the law. Too often the attorneys are not called to account by the trial judges. The result is seen in a large number of verdicts like that in the Cole case recently tried at Rockingham in which the law goes down before the appeal of the emotions. If lawyers were held strictly within the confines of the law and the evidence as Judge Sinclair endeavors to hold them, criminal justice would be more certain and crime more easily dealt with.—Virginian Pilot.

EASTERN BACKS LOOM LARGE IN ALL STAR RACE

New York.—For the first time in several seasons, the East may have a few plausible backfield candidates to offer when the All American plums are distributed.

The backs of national note have come from the Middle West, featuring Grange and the Four Horsemen of Notre Dame; the South where Wyckoff, of Georgia Tech, has held fort for three seasons, and from California and Stanford.

Now however, the Eastern ball runner seems to be coming back. Pennsylvania uncovered a fine pair in the Yale game, Kreuz and Rogers. Yale also has a couple of candidates, while Wilson, Hewitt and Buell, of the Army, are sectional leaders, even at this immature moment.

Shapely, of the Navy, is above the average. So is Keefe, of Brown, not to mention Oberlander, of Dartmouth, and Pease, of Columbia.

Gustafson, of Pittsburgh, can also join the line forming on the left. Carlin, of W. and J., and Foley, of Syracuse, are very likely entries.

This brings the issue down to a man who has been around and about for years, receiving general recognition for his greatness, but escaping official notice, or being ignored by same.

If ever he is to come into his own, Tryon must do it this season, since it is to be his last.

Princeton has a good back in Slagle, but Harvard has nothing, at least at this moment. It has one Miller, a 200-pounder, who has bettered 10 seconds on the track, but Miller, either through non-support or a frank lack of ability, has yet to astound or even interest the natives.

However, the day is early and the field large. Anything may happen in November. Things usually do.

There is little likelihood that the East will produce another Thorpe or Mahan for another generation, not to mention the season of 1925. But, with the present calibre of material on hand, it has better than an even chance of turning out a really representative back for the first time since Killinger operated.

WAITS 19 YEARS IN VAIN, SEEKS $75,000 BALM

Minneapolis.—Disappointment after waiting 19 years for wedding bells to ring is worth $75,000 believes Miss Adelaide Etringer of this city.

In her suit for breach of promise against Matt L. Doll for this amount she said they became engaged in 1906, dates were set for the wedding in 1911, 1920, and 1924, and thrice it was postponed. Then on December 5, 1925, she alleges, Doll married Mrs. Marie B. Knotz.

WHITE PLAGUE EXACTS HEAVY TOLL IN PARIS IS A PROFIT COLONY

Paris.—There is more tuberculosis in Paris than in any other city in the world. This was the startling statement made before the Council General de la Seine in December.

The last period which preceded the war showed a general decrease in mortality from pulmonary disease among all nations, France excepted. Death increased in Germany at the rate of 15.4 for every 1,000 inhabitants; 14.8 in Belgium, 13.3 in England and 17.7 in France.

Such a situation called for immediate clearing up. The sanitary service discovered six groups of streets, in all about five thousand houses, where the malady caused three times as many deaths as in all the rest of the capital.

Every child upon entering school must now present a health certificate. Once the danger is signalled, the work is infinitely easier. If there are any signs of the disease the child is sent to a preventorium or to a sanatorium, or merely to a fresh air school, which is usually effective.

Fresh air all day long and all night as well is being urged for the many French who are afraid of night air and sleep in crowded quarters with the window sealed. Old houses in unsanitary districts are being torn down.

ARCTIC NIGHT SETTLES TO SEE NORTH MORE DESOLATE

Longyear City, Spitzbergen.—The Arctic night has settled over these desolate regions, and not a glimmer of sunlight will be seen again until the end of April.

At Green Harbor, the Dutch Company will have odd jobs for about 50 men, but only a dozen hardy Swedes will keep a lonely watch at the remote Swedish mine at Braganza Bay, which this year was inaccessible even in the middle of June.

The Great Northern Coal Company, the most important concern, will endeavor to carry on here with 400 operatives, and a monthly output of 25,000 tons is expected. Conditions here are more favorable and the quality of the coal is superior.

The isolation of the smaller outposts is less complete since the advent of wireless. A suggestion to adapt Amundsen's remaining polar plane for conveying mail and occasional passengers to and from Spitzbergen has been abandoned by the Oslo government on the score of expense.

Next spring, of course, mining operations will be resumed in full force, with the Norwegian government officials for the first time in control of the archipelago.

For the first time, the entire west coast of Spitzbergen has now been completely charted. This work has taken 20 years. A government Cartographic expedition returned this week to Tromsø with the final data collected by the state hydrographers who carried out their mission on the Amundsen former supply ship Farn.

"No Place Like Home" Jackson, Miss.—The whirl of the city holds no charm for "Spot," a young fox terrier. Taken to Chicago by Fred Jiska, the dog escaped from his kennel and made his way back 400 miles to his "home town."

KNOWN AS 'POVERTY ROW' IN MOVIES BUT IS A PROFIT COLONY

Hollywood.—More than 50 small independent movie companies, located principally on West Sunset Boulevard, are clustered in what is known as "Poverty Row."

Because of the high cost of interior settings the photoplays are mostly Western, riddled with arson and breath-taking thrills, taken with rugged scenery as their background.

Small casts are employed. The producer often is versatile, writing, directing and directing a story. He often is the business man in addition to all else and sometimes, if necessary stars in the picture.

RUSSIANS NOW MARRY ON A THREE YEAR PROBATION Berlin.—Marriages on three year probation have been authorized by the Soviet government, writes the Berliner Lokal Anzeiger. After this period both parties will be privileged to contract on a new and permanent marriage, if mutually the bond has proved satisfactory.

The law was passed to clarify the state of matrimonial confusion existing in Russia, said the Anzeiger. The probationary marriage needs only to be registered at the city clerk's office. If the marriage ends in failure, the registrar will simply draw a blue pencil mark through both names, whereby, officially at least, the marriage will be shown never to have existed.

The present age at which a young man in Russia may marry is 18 and that of a girl 16. The wife may either adopt the name of her husband or retain her own. A third contingency is that the husband may adopt his wife's name. The children again may also be named after the father or mother, or one child may assume the name of one parent and another that of the other.

EVOLUTION POT BOILS IN NEW YORK NOW New York.—The controversy over evolution continues to boil. Dudley Field Malone, society man, globe trotter and counsel in the Scopes trial at Dayton, Tenn., has been dared by the Rev. Dr. John Roush Straton, prominent New York minister, to debate the theory of evolution "to a finish."

The challenge has resulted in a heated passage of epithets. Malone declared he would not debate the issue "with a bigot or a clergyman who preaches hatred."

Dr. Straton countered by branding Malone a "slanderer and a religious and political radical."

Club of 1000 Creating Interest

The officers of the Home Building and Loan Association are starting something worth while with their Club of 1000 ideas, and you will be on the right track if you join. We have no preference amongst the building and loan associations, being strong for them all. It will rejoice to see that Club of 1000 plan carried promptly to success, and to see the other associations similarly strengthened, financially, by the people of the community who have money to invest.

The ideal condition would be that in which every person who has not a home would be enrolled in the membership of the associations, and saving something each week toward the building of a home; and in which the associations were properly financed by the investing element of the community so that they could supply, with reasonable promptness, the desire of borrowing stockholders to build.

The people of our city have done nothing more wholesome than to emphasize this building and loan association enterprise. Those who need the aid of these organizations are alive to the advantages offered, and applications on file for loans will not be filled for many months, unless there is considerable expansion of the capital. That is the phase of the enterprise that lags. The Club of 1000 will provide for this one association $130,000 in the year to finance new homes, to make room for new people in our city, and that by setting aside only $2.50 per week by each member of the club, for an investment of the best sort.

Mrs. Nannie Quinerly, of Grifton, spent last night with Mrs. Lucy Moye.

WATCHMAN DAMAGES RARE ONYX TREASURE

Naples. — The Tazza Farnese, an Alexandrian work of the Greek period, and one of the most treasured works of art in the world, has been damaged by a watchman at the National Museum because he was reprimanded for negligence. The watchman struck the cup with an umbrella, but luckily only broke it into two parts, which renders repair possible. Specialists have been summoned from Florence to do the necessary work, and the vindictive watchman has been arrested.

The Tazza Farnese is cut from a single piece of onyx considered the largest in the world. It is decorated with exquisite cameo work. It formerly belonged to the Vatican, but passed into the possession of the Farnese family after many vicissitudes.

3,362 SCOUT CAMPS CONDUCTED LAST SUMMER

New York. — Approximately 312,116 boy weeks of attendance were registered at the 3,362 camps conducted by the Boy Scout organization last summer. The figures appear in a report just issued by the National Scout Camp Department.

In the Annual campaign to make "Every Scout a Swimmer," 10,007 Scouts were taught to swim. Outstanding progress in all water-front activities is reported.

The Buddy System for swimmers as a means of insuring water safety has been adopted by 244 council camps.

COL. HARRY SKINNER, Says:

Building and Loan and Savings Associations are a great stimulus to home ownership, and therefore a most desirable community asset. As these investments are entirely safe, every man should carry some Building and Loan stock as his part in assisting others in home ownership. I hope your campaign will be thoroughly successful and all that I can do will certainly be done.

DR. C. O'H. LAUGHINGHOUSE, Says:

The most practical and absolute method of saving that is offered to any young man, woman or child, is found in Building and Loan Associations. If one realizes with what little effort a large sum can be saved, and what can be accomplished with it after it is saved, I feel sure that such a person would adopt my advice at once, and that is, join the Building and Loan Association today.

Orthophonic Victrola Proves Great Success

The Victor Talking Machine Co., of Camden, N. J., has completed a new invention known as the Orthophonic Victrola. The Victor Co., together with the Western Electric Co. and the American Telephone Co., has worked untiringly all this year on the invention and millions of dollars have been spent in the discovery. Scientist and engineers have acclaimed it one of the greatest contributions to music since the invention of the first Victor Talking Machine thirty years ago. Hearing this new instrument will open your eyes wide with amazement and astonishment. You can hardly realize you are hearing reproduced music. Unless your eyes are centered on the instrument you will surely look around the room to see the orchestra or artist. Tests prove that music is actually made 100 per cent clearer and more natural, bringing out all the pure tones as they are played. In playing records sung by John McCormack you can actually hear him breathe. Whispers can be recorded and understood on the new instrument. This is impossible on the old machine. The new models are very pretty, made to fit any size room and will be placed on the market at popular prices.

The designs of the instruments have been completely changed. Four models have replaced the numerous models of the old type. The prices are lower on the new instruments and the cabinets much prettier.

The same records are used on the new instrument as have been used heretofore on the old machine. The new discovery is in the machine alone which will be proven at the demonstration next Monday at White's Theatre when both the old and the new models will be played to bring out the great difference.

Your idea of music will be entirely changed on hearing the new instrument. Sousa said this about it when he first heard it, Gentlemen, that's an instrument with a soul, I can hear distinctly each and every instrument in my band, its as good as the real performance and I can't tell the difference."

Twenty couples can dance to the music of the New Victrola without drowning out the rhythm of the orchestra. This will afford many a pleasant evening for the young folks. You do not have to say "listen" to a certain part of the music when you want to call attention to a minor or high note. You do not have to quit those listening to the music to hear the words of a song. The music is actually better across the room from the instrument and more distinct.

The sample models will arrive in Greenville the latter part of this week and will not be shown until next Monday, "Victor Day." There will be a special demonstration of the new instrument at White's Theatre both matinee and night Monday and Tuesday, Nov. 2nd and 3rd. This demonstration will be staged by Wilkerson & Williams, local Victor dealers. Other demonstrations will be held in various parts of Greenville. Places and dates of demonstrations will be announced later.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOLING BY MAIL TRIED FOR THE ISOLATED CHILDREN

Chicago.—Religious instruction by mail for children in isolated and rural districts is the solution of the problem of those who live too far to attend Sunday School regularly, in the opinion of Miss Vera L. Noyes, supervisor of Religious Education in the Chicago Diocese of the Episcopal Church.

Miss Noyes has worked out a system that aims to bring religion into the every-day life of the child, "so that religion may be real, attractive, and effective."

"Each week the pupil receives through the mail material which will not only cause the child to learn some thing, but also to think and to do," she said. "The lessons are graded and planned to fit the needs of the various ages of childhood."

"And yet the correspondence is not for the child alone. It is great ing in every home it touches a religious atmosphere."

TYPOTHETAE MEMBERS TO RENEW POSTAL RATE REVISION AT MEET

Chicago.—Two thousand delegates to the 29th convention of the United Typothetae of America, who met here the week of October 19, are to consider a renewal of their fight for revision of postal rates.

Great Britain will be represented at the convention by A. E. Goodwin of London, secretary of the Federation of Master Printers and Allied Trades, and A. E. Owen Jones, editor of Caxton Magazine, London. The opening day will be devoted to registration and to group meetings, among which are the Typothetae Cost Accounting Association, the International Trade Composition Association, the American Printers' Cost Commission and the Council Presidents.

REPORT PRESIDENT COSGRAVE A SPY DURING FIRST MANEUVERS

Dublin.— Press reports credited President Cosgrave with unwittingly playing the role of spy during the first army maneuvers of the Free State, which showed the troops to be well trained and equipped.

When the fighting was in the neighborhood of the Dublin mountains, not far from his house, President Cosgrave rode out to look on. He was questioned by a young officer as to what cars he had passed on the road and the information the President gave was sufficient to betray the blue defending force.

After an umpire had reminded the President that civilians were not supposed to divulge valuable army news, President Cosgrave besought the young Red officer to make no use of the information. With all the affability of a Gilbertian soldier, he consented and put the President at ease.
