374,826 CHILDREN ARE DENIED EIGHT MONTHS SCHOOL

Rural Children Are the Victims of Short Term School; City Schools Have Had a Longer Term for 25 Years

Raleigh, Feb. 20.—(AP)—Nearly one-half of the children in the public schools of North Carolina did not have the opportunity of attending school as much as eight months during the past school year. This is shown by the current issue of State School Facts, publication of the Department of Public Instruction, which is off the press today.

A total of 374,826, or 46.3 per cent, of all the school children in North Carolina, did not have the opportunity to attend school as much as eight months, says the publication.

The current issue of School Facts deals with the school term in North Carolina public schools, and discusses the proposed constitutional amendment to provide for an eight months term over the state, quoting figures with reference to city and rural school terms.

The average term in the schools of the state during the school year, 1924-25 was 144.9 days. The actual terms varied all the way from the constitutional minimum of 120 days, or six school months to 184 days in the Asheville public schools.

In the city schools, only 309 white pupils in city schools were not given the opportunity to attend school, as much as eight months, or eight school months, and these 309 were attending school in a building that was in process of construction.

In the city negro schools, 92.1 per cent of the children had an opportunity to attend school eight months or more.

In the rural schools, on the other hand, 195,518 of the white children, or 45.4 per cent, and 174,374 of the negro children attended schools of less than eight months.

New Hanover lead, all the other counties of the state in length of term. In that county, all the children, city and rural, white and colored, have the advantage of school terms of eight months or more.

In 57 counties, or more than one-half the counties of the state none of the negro children had school terms as long as eight months.

In the city systems, both white and negro children were provided with eight months' terms; in most of the cities, the terms were nine months.

The city systems are divided into three groups, according to population. In group 1, Asheville with a school term of 185 days, or slightly more than nine months—led, while Charlotte, with a term of 173 days, trailed the other larger cities.

Concord, Elizabeth City, Gastonia, Goldsboro, Henderson, Winston-Salem, New Bern, Rocky Mount, and Wilson all had terms of 180 days. Salisbury, the only other city listed in this group, had a term of 177 days.

The cities in group 2 all had a school term of 180 days, or exactly nine school months. In this group were Burlington, Dunn, Greenville, Hickory, Lexington, Mooresville, Morganton, Mount Airy, Reidsville, Roanoke Rapids, Shelby, Smithfield, Statesville, Tarboro, Washington and Fayetteville.

A history of school terms in North Carolina, and of constitutional and legal provisions for the length of the terms is given by School Facts.

GREENVILLE GIRLS WIN GAME WITH ROBERSONVILLE

With a Number of Victories to Their Credit, the Girls Expect to Enter Championship Games

The Greenville girls played the fastest game of this season when they defeated Robersonville last night. Ross of the opposing team, threw the first goal. Greenville followed closely. The first quarter was very close, and when time was called the score was 5-4, our favor. During the second quarter Robersonville fell behind and our girls gained seven points on their opponents. The second half was much closer than the first, and the highest point of excitement was reached during the last quarter. Robersonville pushed up the score considerably, but our guards were on the job and they lost several good chances for goals. After an exciting quarter the game ended with a score of 23-19.

Earl of Craven Presented Badge By Veterans Assn

Ottawa, Ontario, Feb. 20.—(AP)—Honored by war veterans of Ottawa as a war comrade the Earl of Craven has been formally presented with the gold badge of the Ottawa branch of the Great War Veterans' Association. This decoration is given only to great soldiers, statesmen and other deserving of high honors. The Countess of Craven was presented with a bouquet of roses. Both the Earl and the Countess have thrown off the feeling of restraint which had settled over them during the progress of the recent unpleasantness in New York.

Three Burned to Death When Fire Destroys Home

Greenville, S. C., Feb. 20.—(AP)—One man and two children were burned to death and four others seriously injured in a fire at the residence of Mrs. C. I. Smith, here early today. A dozen other residents escaped.

The victims were trapped on the second floor. The body of the two children were found on the sleeping porch.

session. No school legislation was enacted from this time until 1825 at which time an act was passed creating a literary fund. This law was in reference to the method of support. Here again no reference was made to the length of term. In 1838 the first public school law of the State was enacted. This law provided for a system of common schools, but it did not specify any length of term.

"In 1776 the Constitution made provision for the legislative establishment of public schools for the convenient instruction of the youth. This provision made no reference to the length of term these schools were to remain in

(Copyright, 1925) Bring Money. Gun Man Orchestra. Bare Legs, Long Hair. Hire a Lawyer. ARTHUR BRISBANE

Pasadena, Cal., Feb. 20.—To bring information back from your travels, you must take information with you.

To make money here in California, bring money, plus energy, capacity for hard work, WITH YOU.

Do not start for California with a second-hand car and $50 or $250. If you do, you may sell the second-hand car, to buy a ticket home.

California is no place for the shiftless that have failed in a dozen ways in a dozen other places.

People here are intelligent, and work hard. This is the place to live but BRING money here, if you expect to MAKE money here, and to live here in comfort.

Fortunately for those that come with moderate incomes. Hellas on the west coast is extremely reasonable. You read such signs as "Three Boilers for $1," or "Fresh Laid Eggs, 30 Cents a Dozen." You do not read such signs in New York.

But if you want the three brothers, you must have the dollar: If you want the dozen fresh eggs, you must have thirty cents.

Bankers whose institutions are occasionally "held up" might learn from the matter of fact manager of a Tin Jugo gambling house. Pointing to a lottery above the gambling table, he asked, "How do you like my orchestra?" There was no music. The question was puzzling.

He said, "come up and I will show you." Behind the screen of painted wooden slats sat two men with grim faces, each with a repeating rifle, resting upon his knee. The proprietor of the institution said, "Let anybody start anything down there about the money, and these men would pick him off before he knew where he was. Bad men suspect something, behind this screen, and don't start."

At Palm Beach, in the morning, ladies may not swim with legs bare to the knees. But at Palm Beach, in the evening, ladies may dance in public, or play in the wide open gambling house, their bodies naked almost to the waist. Why would that which is modest from the waist up, be officially declared immodest from the knees down? The answer is, "just habit, we get used to anything."

Ignorance craves mystery and believes in miracles of any kind, because being incapable of thought, ignorance seeks a substitute.

Four long haired Yucatecas Indians sit in the graveyard of Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, across the border, and profitably engage in Divine Healing. The rush of patients, crippled, diseased, from both sides of the border compels the Mexican government to interfere to prevent dangerous spreading of disease among the ten thousand that have flocked to the healers.

What particular "Divinity" obeys the orders of those long haired Indians, is not known, or why that "Divinity" does not of its own accord cure sick and suffering creatures that it has created, without awaiting orders from the four long-haired Indians.

However, under our constitution, we are not to criticize. Here, one religion is as good as another, as long as it attends strictly to its own business.

Coal miners on strike for many weeks, are back at work for the same pay, having lost tens of millions in wages.

Coal company stockholders have not lost anything. "Be sure you are right, then go ahead" is good morals. A more practical motto is, "Be sure you can win, then go ahead."

38 Dead, 50 Missing in Avalanche

General view of the countryside about Bingham, Utah, a small town about eighteen miles southwest of Salt Lake City, reported to have been wiped off the map by an avalanche. Thirty-eight bodies have been recovered, and it is reported fifty persons are still missing. Bingham is a mining center and picture shows one of the largest copper mines of the district.

HOPES CONGRESS WILL ADJOURN BEFORE JUNE

Washington, Feb. 20.—(AP)—Adjournment of Congress before June first is now the hope and expectation of Republican leaders in the two Houses. With the tax bill practically out of the way and work on the ten annual appropriation bills well advanced, some of them even estimate that Congress should get away by March 1, but this prediction is not generally shared. As the legislative programs are now arranged there are comparatively few measures of major importance to be acted upon. These include several railroad bills, farm relief legislation, the $165,000,000 public buildings bill and Muscle Shoals.

Democratic leaders in the Senate have announced that the question of a unified air service must be brought out, but they are not adverse to an early adjournment as this is a political year with the completion of the new Congress to be determined in the November election. The Senatorial and Congressional campaign committee of the two major parties already laying plans for the campaign and Senators and Representatives will be drafted for campaign speaking in many states.

Although the Countess, has admitting eloping with the Earl of Craven, a married man, in 1922, her attorney contends that her relations with the Earl did not constitute a crime within the Federal laws in this country, nor a crime in the countries in which the confessed acts were committed, France and South Africa.

Arrested on Charge of Using Mails to Defraud

St. Louis, Feb. 20.—(AP)—Clarence Saunders, of Memphis, Tenn., former President of the Piggly Wiggly corporation, was indicted today by a Federal Grand Jury on a charge of using the mails to defraud in sale of corporation stock in 1923.

Textile Worker Killed by Train This Morning

Concord, N. C., Feb. 20.—(AP)—John Goode, middle aged textile worker, was killed here this morning by a Southern passenger train No. 36. Goods was killed when he stepped from the southbound track to one paralleled when he noticed an approaching train. He apparently failed to see the northbound train.

CRUSADE AGAINST ANOTHER MAN FALLS VICTIM "RIFLE MANIAC"

Philadelphia, Feb. 20.—(AP)—A crusade against Thanksgiving day football by colleges was announced today by the Presbyterian Board of Christian Education, of which Dr. William C. Covert is General Secretary. The plan, Dr. Covert said, is to educate the American public to the restoration of the "fundamental observance of Thanksgiving Day as an occasion for serious thought," rather than athletic recreation.

The first college to adopt the principal of not playing football on Thanksgiving Day was Parsons College at Fairfield, Iowa, a Presbyterian institution which has for years played Iowa Wesleyan on that day.

ROSS W. JOHNSON, RAILROAD DETECTIVE, SHOT AND SERIOUSLY WOUNDED AT COUNCIL BLUFFS

Omaha, Neb., Feb. 20.—(AP)—Another man has fallen victim to Omaha's "maniac rifle man." Ross W. Johnson, 28 year old railroad detective, was shot and seriously wounded last night at Council Bluffs, Iowa, across the Missouri River from here.

Five empty 22 calibre shells supplied what the police considered a connecting link between the latest shooting and the mysterious s'aying of the two Omahas early in the week. Similar shells were found near the other victims. The new outrage added to the apprehension of residents of Omaha and vicinity, who have been terrorized for six days by the activities of the new prowling sniper. During that period several persons have been fired at in addition to those slayed or wounded.

Funeral Services Mrs Bryant Tripp Be Held Sunday

Following a brief illness, caused by a fall, Mrs. Bryant Tripp, aged 87 years, died at her home near Winterville, at 12:30 o'clock Friday.

Abigail Nelson was born near Ayden, January 13, 1839. On July 18, 1865 she was married to Bryant Tripp, who preceded her to the grave on July 12, 1922.

She was a devout and faithful member of the Hancock Primitive Baptist Church and attended services there regularly until three months ago, when she became too feeble to go any more.

Her beautiful Christian character has won her a host of friends who will mourn their loss. The funeral services will be conducted from the home at 2:30 o'clock Sunday, Elder W. M. Monsees, of Wilson, officiating, and interment will take place in the Ayden Cemetery by the side of her husband.

The following will act as pallbearers: Messrs. J. F. Harrington, Claude Gaskins, E. D. Forrest, Lloyd Ellis, Clarence Cannon and Roy Turnage.

She is survived by an aged sister, Mrs. Alice Jackson, of Winterville, and nine of the ten children who blessed the union they are: W. M. Carroll, Mrs. C. H. Langston, Miss Elizabeth Tripp, Messrs. Edwin and Heber Tripp of Winterville; Mr. E. A. Tripp, of Bethel; R. C. Tripp, of Wadesville, Va.; F. B. Tripp of Hempstead, N. Y.; and Z. N. Tripp, of Miami, Fla.

A foster son, R. S. Harris, resides in Durham. A number of grandchildren survive, among whom are Mrs. Askel Jones, of Greenville, Illinois and Miss, Kate Bell Tripp, of Kansas City, Mo., daughters of the eldest son who left North Carolina several years ago to live in the west.

INSISTS COAST GUARD CUTTER SHELLED VESSEL

Capt. Spindle Says His Vessel, the Eastwood, Was Struck at Least 60 Times By Shells From the U. S. S. Seneca

Halifax, Nova Scotia, Feb. 20.—(AP)—Over the telephone from Lunenburg, Captain Spindler, of the Schooner Eastwood, insisted today that his vessel had been struck at least 60 times by shells from the United States Coast Guard Cutter, Seneca, while the liquor laden schooner was flying the British flag and lying at anchor 21 miles off the Long Island coast.

The New York Coast Guard officer, said last night that his narrative was hardly possible. Captain Spindler said, "I would not have thought that such a thing could possibly in this age if I had not been there myself and had the fact impressed upon me in a most uncomfortable manner."

The skipper declared that the cutter fired the first shot on the schooner's port side and then shelled it upon the starboard side. None of the crew was injured. They took refuge in the schooner's hold. The firing was from a short distance and began after the Seneca had placed a target within 100 yards of the Eastwood, he said.

The skipper claimed that the target put out by the Seneca had been only a "blind."

"They had the whole sea for their target," he said. "If it was target practice they wanted, why did they select a particular spot not more than 100 yards away from my port side and then circle my ship, pumping out shells, the majority of which were scoring hits, not only the target, but on my vessel and endangering the lives of myself and my crew."

Captain Eugene Blake, Jr., of the Coast Guard Patrol Boat Seneca, today denied reports from Nova Scotia that the Seneca had fired on the schooner Eastwood as stated by the Captain of the latter vessel when he reached Lunenburg yesterday. The Seneca is now undergoing an overhauling at the Brooklyn Navy Yard.

Captain Blake said that no shots had been fired for any reason by the Seneca.

BURNED TO DEATH BY FIRE CAUSED BY CIGARETTE

Frederic B. Person, Heir to $2,000,000 Estate Burned to Death in Chicago Hotel

Chicago, Feb. 20.—(AP)—Frederick B. Pearson, 30, whose father died two years ago leaving a $2,000,000 estate, was burned to death today in a fire in his room at the Aridge Hotel, started by a lighted cigarette. John H. Hogshead, his young companion in a night of revelry, narrowly escaped a similar fate.

The young man registered at the hotel at 4:45 A. M., after a night at the six-day bicycle races and pleasure resort. Both had been drinking. Hogshead told the police. The room was in flames before Hogshead, who had thrown himself upon the bed with his clothing on, was awakened. His clothes were afire and the flames had singed his hair before he staggered to the door and shouted for help.

Hotel employees prevented the fire from spreading and when firemen arrived it had been extinguished. They looked about and left. After policemen arrived Hogshead began asking for his companion. Investigation disclosed Pearson's body badly burned seated in the charred remnants of an overstuffed chair into which he had fallen. Young Pearson inherited most of the $2,000,000 estate of his father.

"ONE ESCAPE" TO BE SUBJECT OF SERMON SUNDAY

Rev. H. Frederick Jones of Memorial Baptist Church to Preach Two Strong Sermons Tomorrow

The revival services which are in progress at the Memorial Baptist Church, were largely attended last night, despite the inclement weather and Dr. H. Frederick Jones, delivered a splendid sermon on "In the Garden There was a Grave." Prof. Waislagel's musical program was again a feature of the service.

Dr. Jones developed his sermon from the text John 19:41. "Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden, and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was never man yet laid." Into this sepulchre the body of Christ was committed. The speaker related incidents leading up to the "grave in the garden," then of the grave, and the resurrection. Dr. Jones also showed that in a garden there can be a grave. He connected his thoughts with a man's soul. A Christian who lives a strong Christian life and dies, is a garden in a grave.

Everyday life has its grave, its sadness and disappointments. Some people are continually having uncovered to them graves in their families. Things that perhaps go back several generations, but nevertheless, the wrongs do not remain covered up. Someone opens the grave and someone suffers.

Dr. Jones appealed to his large audience to plant flowers over the grave. Cover them up, give up their sin, and give their hearts to God, so that when they are buried, a garden will be in their graves.

On tomorrow, Dr. Jones will preach on the subject, "One Escape." Heb. 2:3, from the text "How shall we escape if we neglect so great salvation?" The evening subject will be, "Jordan is a Hard Road to Travel."

The public is invited to attend the services.

OUR SATURDAY NIGHT MEDITATION

THE DIMENSIONS OF GOD'S LOVE
 Ephesians 3:17-19 — "That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height; and to know the love of Christ which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fullness of God."

1. The love of God is very broad.
 This is in distinct contrast to human love. We are naturally narrow in our faiths and in our affections. Look at the old religions. The tribe or nation had its own God, its own peculiar property. None of the surrounding nations has any share in it whatever.
 The Jews had a wider vision than most, but they were possessed with this idea, that God was "their God"; the Gentiles were outside aliens, and if they wanted to share in the Covenant mercies of God they must become Jews or they could have no share.
 Then Christ came and broke down all those barriers, and taught that there was no distinction. Jew or Gentile, bond or free, Greek or heathen, God's love embraced them all.
 "For the love of God is broader Than the measures of man's mind."
 We have not even yet gripped that fact of the all-embracing love of God.

2. The love of God is very long.
 That, again, is contrary to our usual human experience. We forget. Our lives are strewn with the dead leaves of lost loves and forgotten friendships.
 True, we do find instances of the love that defies distance and time, but they are very rare.
 You remember the story of Romney, the painter, who, when a young man married a bride, Mary, of Kendal; and his master, Sir Joshua Reynolds said:
 "You will never make a great artist now; marriage ruins art." So he left his bride and went to London to seek favor at Court; and during the years he cruelly neglected his wife and hardly set eyes on her while seeking fame and fortune. Yet, with all his skill, he was never one of the greatest painters. Then premature old age came upon him and his sight began to fail. All his fair-weather friends turned away; and his heart went back to the bride of his youth, and he went home to Kendal and Mary.

 She received him without a word of reproach, as though he had never left her. She comforted him, nursed him in his last illness and he died in her arms.
 Tennyson sings of her as: "The truest, kindest, noblest-hearted wife That ever wore a Christian marriage-ring."

Thank God! We do find instances of a love like that! It is the reflection of His own love that follows us from the cradle to the grave; aye, and who would dare to put the limit there to the great love of God? His love is always the same. It cannot change, for He is God, and God knows no change; and the moment we turn from our wicked wanderings in sin, we find the Father's heart and outstretched hands ready to welcome and forgive. Yes, the love of God is very long.

3. The love of God is very deep.
 There are many deep things in life with which we are familiar. There are depths of ignorance, depths of prejudice, depths of poverty, depths of sin—most awful depths of sin.
 Is there anything deeper than sin? I know only one thing deeper and that is the love of God. However deep the sin may be, underneath are the everlasting arms. There is no despair with God. He is "able to save to the uttermost." Millions of souls have been redeemed from the depths of sin by the wonderful love of God.
 4. The love of God is very high.

It is a tremendous comfort to think of a love "so broad" that it embraces all, "so long" that we can never get beyond it, "so deep" that we need never despair; but that is not all. The love of God is "very high." It makes great demands upon us. In a very real sense of the word it is an AWFUL thing to be loved by God, because of these demands. "My son, give me thine heart." "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, with all thy mind, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength."
 How far short of this we all fall!

It may be necessary for God to chastise us. "Whom the Lord loveth He chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom He receiveth."
 Suffering is perhaps the highest proof of God's love. He is a consuming fire, burning the evil within us, because He is love.
 He will not rest until He has lifted us up to His own likeness and made us worthy of His love.

Daily News Letter
 Gossip of Staff Correspondents at World Centers of Population.

By G. AGRONSKY, INS Staff Correspondent.
 Jerusalem, Feb. 20.—Fugitives from the long arm of justice will not be immune in Palestine from arrest and extradition to the United States. Such is the burden of an article in the newly-ratified convention between "His Britannic Majesty and the President of the United States of America with respect to the rights of the Government and nationals of the United States in Palestine." Sir Auston Chamberlain, for the Great Britain, and Frank B. Kellogg, for the United States, are signatories to the convention.
 The first article deals with the consent of the United States to the administration of Palestine by the British, subject to the provisions of the League's Mandate, which is published in full, together with the preamble concerning the Jewish National Home, in the convention. The respect by the British Government of American vested property rights in Palestine, the establishment and maintenance of educational, philanthropic and religious institutions by American subjects, and the furnishing of a duplicate of the British report to the League of Nations, are other articles.

Local lawyers, merchants, physicians and even a hotel-owner of Arab and Jewish persuasion form the directorate of a new company that has been formed "to restore the ancient splendor of the Holy Land."
 The company is shortly to make its debut in the Palestine building industry, and one of its avowed purposes is the fostering of Arab-Jewish co-operation.
 It will employ impartial Arab and Jewish labor, and make no distinction whatever when engaging its hands. A programme of utility works is being prepared.

Elections to the second Jewish National Assembly were concluded with a decided victory for the Laborites. Out of a possible 72,000 the two Labor groups, "Ahith Avodah" and "Hapoel Hatzair," combined, gained 14,188 votes, beating all runners by several thousand votes. Communists made a poor showing, gaining six delegates, but the Labor representation of eighty-eight seats will certainly go a long way towards making its influence felt in divisions.
 Equal suffrage was a unique feature of the polling, thirteen women candidates being returned. Palestinian women have as yet not learned how to use their vote, for it was noticed that most of them put crosses to their husbands' choice.
 Tel-Aviv was by far the largest polling center, 11,388 votes being registered for the various parties; Jerusalem polled a total of 5,892, the other centers providing the remaining half.

NEW TYPE OF MAN APE SEEN IN EAST INDIES
 Amsterdam, Feb. 20. (INS)—A new type of man-ape is claimed to have been seen by sportsmen in Java and Sumatra, Dutch East Indies.
 They describe it as a species of ape about four feet high with hair hanging on to its shoulders. It travels in an upright position, holding on the lower branches of trees by its hands.
 Prominent Dutch scientists are to watch out for the creature in an endeavor to ascertain whether it is a new type, and if so, whether it is the famous "missing link."

"ACHED & ACHED"
 Lady Says Her Back "Hurt Night and Day"—Least Noise Upset Her. Better After Taking Cardui.

Winfield, Texas—"My back hurt night and day," says Mrs. C. L. Eason, of R. F. D. 1, this place. "I ached and ached until I could hardly go. I felt weak and did not feel like doing anything. My work was a great burden to me. I just hated to do up the dishes, even. I was no-account and extremely nervous."
 "My mother had taken Cardui and she thought it would do me good, so she told me to take it. My husband got me a bottle and I began on it. I began to improve at once. It was such a help that I continued it until after the baby's birth."
 "I took eight bottles and I can certainly say that it helped me. It is a fine tonic. It built me up and seemed to strengthen me. I grew less nervous and began to sleep better."
 "I can certainly recommend Cardui to expectant mothers, for to me it was a wonderful help. . . . In every way I felt better after taking it and I think it is a splendid medicine."
 Cardui is purely vegetable, and contains no harmful drugs.

State of North Carolina, County of Pitt,
TO THE TAX PAYERS OF PITT COUNTY
 You have made for yourselves a record as having paid taxes more promptly than the tax payers of any other county in the state. Dr. Brooks stated in the papers of the state last summer that Pitt County was the best governed county in the state, and that in his opinion the other counties would profit by instituting the same system. We are all real anxious to keep up the record we have made for ourselves. As sheriff I am unable to do so without your cooperation. Kindly see that your 1925 taxes are paid at once and save me the embarrassment of having to levy on your personal property. Thanking you for the courtesy of your attention, I am,
 Very truly yours,

THE SILENT DRAMA SPEAKS WHEN D. W. GRIFFITH DIRECTS

Silence is the one thing missing from the silent drama when D. W. Griffith is making a picture. It becomes articulate; it screams it shouts, it laughs, it cries it is drama in the broadest sense of the word, and it can be heard. Hard-boiled electricians become so absorbed at times they forget to trim their spotlights.

Scenes are repeated hour after hour. Instead of becoming boring they become hypnotic. The troubles or joys, the laughter or tears become contagious. And when the portrayals reach this point of realism, they are photographed. It is exhausting work, but the reputation of D. W. Griffith productions is built upon the results.

"That Royle Girl" is a stirring melodrama laid against the glittering, yet sordid background of the Chicago underworld and jazz zone. Cecil Dempster, W. C. Fields, James Kirkwood and Harrison Ford are the featured players. The pictures comes to and pray for some unevangelized White, Theatre, Monday and friend. If you are not a Chris-

Rev. L. R. O'Brian in Series Sermons Sayings On Cross

This is the season when our minds naturally turn to remember those last weeks and days and hours of our Lord's sojourn here upon earth. We cannot come to the Easter-tide without having brought afresh to our minds the great suffering and death of our dear Saviour. That we may better use the spirit of the season for our spiritual edification and a deeper consciousness of His sufferings and death, the pastor of the Immanuel Baptist Church is beginning Sunday a series of sermons on the "Seven Sayings of Jesus Upon the Cross." The card which has been given to the membership and to others is as follows:

- Morning Services—beginning Sunday, February 21st.
 - First—The Paternal Petition. "Father Forgive Them—"
 - Second—The Answered Cry for Help—"Today shalt thou—"
 - Third—The Sword Pierced Heart—"Woman, behold—"
 - Fourth—The Blackness of Sin—"My God, My God—"
 - Fifth—The Humanity of Jesus—"I thirst—"
 - Sixth—The Glorious Consummation—"It is finished—"
 - Seventh—The Saviour's dying Prayer—"Father, into Thy Hands—"
- The Ensemble Quartet of the Eastern Carolina Teachers College, directed by Miss Lois Gorell, will render two numbers at the morning preaching service hour.

Series of Services Holiness Church

Rev. A. H. Butler, pastor of the Pentecostal Holiness Church, is conducting services every night, assisted by other workers. Services begin at 7:30 o'clock. There will be three sermons of Sunday, at 11 o'clock, 2 o'clock and 7:30 o'clock. A hearty welcome will be extended to visitors at these services.

Mrs. Blanche Harriss Dies In Richmond

Mrs. Blanche A. R. House, R. S. May, and Charles Blanchard left today for Richmond in response to a message announcing the death of their sister-in-law, Mrs. Blanche Harriss which occurred this morning at 2 o'clock, following a long illness. Funeral services will be conducted from her late home Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, with interment taking place in the Richmond cemetery. Mrs. Nellie Harriss and Mrs. E. T. Christian will go from Norfolk to attend the funeral.

Mrs. Blanche Harriss was the widow of the late Mr. James I. Harriss, of this city; and before marriage was Miss Blanche Boyette of Scotland Neck. She has a host of friends here, who will regret to learn of her death. Although Mrs. Harriss had been ill for several weeks, her condition was considered greatly improved, and news of her death was a great

Husband, Wife Shot to Death Last Friday Night

Raleigh, Feb. 20.—(AP)—Pink Jackson, well known farmer, of the Leesville section of Wake county, and his wife were shot to death and a relative, believed to be Mrs. Jackson's sister, was seriously wounded some time Friday night. Information was received to this effect this afternoon by Sheriff Harrison, who immediately went to the scene with a force of deputies.

The information received by Sheriff Jackson was of a meager nature and was contained in a telephone call to the effect that a couple had been shot to death and Mrs. Jackson's sister seriously wounded.

Wheeling Folks Money By Doing Trading in Ohio

Wheeling, W. Va., Feb. 20.—(INS)—Bridgeport, O., just across the Ohio River, is the toll city for Wheelingites who would escape West Virginia taxation. Thousands of dollars of Wheeling money are deposited in Bridgeport banks. Recent failure of one of the institutions is said to have affected financially quite a number of local citizens and enterprises. The fact that the stockholders in the institution will lose their investments and may be forced to pay in an amount equal to their stock holdings may make the situation more serious.

Score of Wheeling residents who want to escape into the Ohio states in West Virginia seek Ohio licenses under West Virginia addresses. It is stated authoritatively, a license for a Ford, costs $4 in Ohio; in West Virginia the charge is $13. The West Virginia rate is higher for other machines.

Bridgeport $2000 for years as a source of Wheeling's loose supply. After West Virginia went dry, the largest bar in the world was established by Samuel Ungerleider, now a member of the New York Stock Exchange with brokerage offices throughout the Central West, to cater to the Wheeling trade.

General Motors' New Six is here!

GENERAL MOTORS now presents through its Oakland division the New Pontiac Six—the first six-cylinder car it has ever named and sponsored from the original design.

Representing the supreme embodiment of the corporation's almost limitless resources, this new Six is destined to compel a complete revision of existing ideas in motor car value.

The Pontiac Six is not another of the so-called "revolutionary" cars.

It is simply and solely a car of high quality developed to dominate a definite market... and as such represents an achievement no less significant, no less unprecedented, no less epochal than the invention of the first six-cylinder engine.

In the Pontiac Six you are offered a new order of beauty—that grace of line and balanced proportion characteristic only of Fisher craftsmanship. You are offered precisely the enduring body construction that is used on cars selling for $2,000 or more, finished in rich Duco colors.

You are offered a roadability of extraordinary scope—exhilarating power for hills, refreshing agility in traffic, a maximum speed you will use only in emergencies.

Add to this new order of beauty and this performance of unprecedented brilliance, the equally important matter of accessory equipment, and the preponderance of Pontiac value becomes literally irresistible—

—for the Pontiac Six comes equipped with full balloon cords, nicked radiator, Fisher VV windshield, automatic windshield cleaner, indirectly illuminated instrument panel, rear vision mirror, high-speed window regulators and other important essentials to pride of ownership.

The Pontiac Six is now on display in our salesrooms. Demonstrations may be arranged for. We not only invite you to see this newest creation of General Motors at the earliest possible moment—we urge you to come prepared for a new and unique experience—for here at last is the Six you have always wanted... at a price so unexpectedly low that only General Motors could possibly achieve it.

The Pontiac Six, companion car to the Oakland Six, is built and distributed by the

Doctor Learns Surgery Removing Appendix Knife

Boston, Feb. 20.—(INS)—In order that he might get to London and there complete his training in the field of medicine and surgery at the Middlesex Hospital, Dr. Walter Bremmer sailed on the Commonwealth-Dominion liner Port Bowen.
The cruise gave him practical education, more practical, perhaps, than he might acquire under the tutelage of Sir John Hart, the King's physician.
A few days out of Auckland

William Torrington, member of the crew on the Port Bowen, was stricken with appendicitis. Dr. Bremmer treated him medically, but when the trouble became acute it was apparent an operation would be necessary.

Dr. Bremmer had few surgical instruments with him. But he did have resourcefulness. So he had some of the kitchen knives sharpened and sterilized.

He had a table in the ship's dining room cleared and with chloroform for an anaesthetic he set about his task.

Among the passengers were Miss Alison Barnett and Miss Eugenie Jouralhias, trained nurses, of Boston.

The operation was performed successfully by Dr. Bremmer, who then nursed his patient back to perfect health.

When the ship returned to Boston, exactly three weeks after the operation was performed Torrington was attending his duties about the ship's kitchen.

Money isn't everything, but it is very handy to have around the house in case of trouble.—Mobile News-Item.

British O. M. S. Has Military Adherents

London, Feb. 20.—(INS)—One million adherents have joined its ranks since last fall claims the O. M. S.—the Organization for the Maintenance of Supplies. The members consist almost equally of men and women, state the organizers—of whom Lord Hardinge is chief—and they also aver that whole fleets of automobiles have been placed at their complete disposal.

The organization maintains that it is strictly non-political.
