Prize Wreck Fish In Hub Aquarium

Boston, Mar. 26.—(INS)—A wreck fish, which, according to Acting Director William O'Brien is as fine a wreck fish as ever plowed the deep, is now a resident of the Aquarium.
 The new addition to the fish family at South Boston was discovered off Woods Hole by a committee from the United States Geological Survey.
 The wreck fish is the first of its kind ever exhibited alive in New England and probably the only one now alive in this country.
 Wreck fish are natives of European waters and are very rarely found on this side of the Atlantic. Until 1910 only two were known to have crossed. One of these was caught in the Gulf Stream off the Grand Banks, and the other more than doubled its weight in four months.
 According to Acting Director O'Brien the young wreck fish—also called stonebass—live in shallow water about rocks and floating timber.
 The only one now in the Aquarium is young and only sixteen pounds long, and now weighs about two pounds.

WILL NEVER FORGET HOW MUCH KARNAK HAS MENT

BUILT HER UP JUST IN TIME TO SAVE HER FROM COMPLETE BREAK-DOWN. SAYS 'SPAKTANBUNG' WOMAN—'SO GREAT AS SPRING TONIC'
 With springtime at hand, now when thousands of people will be out reaching to fight the system against the change of the season, whether they are actually sick or not, most everyone will be interested in what Mrs. J. W. Lowe who resides on Route No. 14 Spartansburg, has to say about the great health builder, Karnak, in this respect.
 "I simply can't say enough for Karnak for the splendid way in which it has built me up," declares Mrs. Lowe. "Why, it has just meant so much to me, I will never forget it.
 "It was in April of last year, I had been dragging along for months so weak I could hardly stay out of bed. I did not have strength to do my housework, and it was just a dread to move. I got to the place where I felt a little more than enough to keep body and soul together, and go scarcely any nourishment at all. Then, there was my sleep—I simply could not get a restful night's sleep. I was just so nervous would roll and tumble all night and mornings I'd be so tired could hardly get out of bed.

 "If I hadn't noticed the statement of somebody else, I don't know whether I would have ever tried Karnak or not, that's why I feel like it's my duty now to tell everybody I can how fine this medicine has been to me.
 "Why, three bottles of Karnak just fixed me up so fine I can now eat anything I want (things that used to make me sick every time, and they don't bother me a particle now. Every night I just go to bed and go right off to sleep like a child. Then, mornings I'm refreshed and full of energy, and anxious to get about my housework. I believe Karnak just built me up in time to save me from a complete breakdown, and I just want to do all I can for it."
 Karnak is sold in Greenville by B. S. Warren; and by every other reliable druggist in Greenville and in every other town.

ANNA CASE AMERICA'S FAVORITE SINGER HAS REMARKABLE ABILITY

When Anna Case, the noted soprano gives one of her famous recitals at Greenville, April 6 of the Eastern Carolina Exposition, music lovers of this city will have an opportunity of coming in contact with one of the few outstanding personalities of the concert world.

A great impresario has truly stated that a singer's success is due to the extent of at least one half to personality, with voice and musicianship for the remaining quarters. And it is for this reason that Miss Case has come to be known as America's favorite soprano, for she has the faculty to a high degree of delivering personally to each auditor the message of beauty imparted by a master song.

Contests for Free Trip to Golden West Opens Today

The campaign for the three free trips to California got underway this morning with a large number of contestants already in the race. Nine of the city's business firms have arranged with the Reeves De Luxe Tours to send three ladies as their guests.

The tour of the Golden West will take place in June and all that the successful contestants have to do is have a good time—every expense will be paid from the time the party leaves Greenville until they return 28 days later.

This trip through the west is one of the most beautiful trips imaginable. Every day there will be something different, new scenes, new points of interest, and in fact, everything that makes a wonderful trip.

The fortunate ones to take this inspiring trip will be the three ladies who receive the largest number of votes. The friends of the contestants save their coupons for their favorite, each coupon counts for so many votes. At the close of the contest in June, the ballot boxes are opened, the votes counted and the three highest will be given the free trips.

Fate of Aged Mountaineer in Hands of Jury

Burnsville, N. C., March 26.—(AP)—The fate of Jonathan Bennett, on trial here for his life in Yancey county Superior court, was with the jury at noon today and a verdict was expected momentarily.

The aged mountaineer went on trial Wednesday charged with murder in the first degree in connection with the death of two aged negroes. It was charged that Bennett shot and killed the aged couple in their little cabin while the latter were befriending him when he was a fugitive from justice.

QUEENS' ROSTER FOR EXPOSITION

Complete List of Queens Entered in Senior Contest Shows Great Representation of Candidates

The complete list of Queens entered in the Senior contest for the Eastern Carolina Exposition which is to be held in Greenville the week of April 5th, has been compiled and shows the largest representation of candidates of any previous exposition. It is rather singular that every town within any reasonable distance of Greenville has a candidate which means that there will be a spirited contest from start to finish.

As has been the custom heretofore, there are two separate contests; one for Pitt county representatives and one for towns outside of Pitt county. Everybody will vote for two and the two young ladies receiving the largest number of votes will be crowned Queen of Pitt county and Eastern Carolina respectively.

Each of these winners will be given a handsome diamond ring. The complete list of the senior Queens is as follows:—Ayden will be represented by Misses Irene Bullock and Sallie Turnage; Farmville by Misses Bonnie Bell Windham and Mildred Barrett; Greenville by Misses Mamie Ruth Fleming, Mary Moye Savage, Lillian Hooker, Alice Lee Hooker, Hannah Dixon; Bethel by Miss Addie Lee Grimes; Conetoe by Miss Clara Parks Godwin; Kenly by Miss Mildred Dardon; Morehead City by Miss Clara Lee Ortlieb; Plymouth by Miss Mildred Swain; Pine Tops by Miss Edna Webb; Roanoke Rapids by Rosemary by Miss Mary Tray, ham Wiche; Robersonville by Miss Ruth Whitfield; Rocky Mount by Miss Margaret Horne; Smithfield by Miss John Abel; Wandler by Miss Ruth Dunning; Windsor by Miss Virginia Spivey; Wilson by Miss Alma Grey Deans; Kinston by Miss Margaret Copeland; Silerby by Miss Eloise McArthur;

PROGRESS MADE
Y. M. C. A. DURING PAST 2 MONTHS

Six Active Organizations, With At Least Four Older Boys Holding Office in the Eastern Territory

In the short space of two months and a half, the time the North Carolina State Y. M. C. A. has had a representative in the eastern territory, with headquarters in Greenville Y. M. C. A. work has been established among the high school boys and others in the following important centers of population: Ayden, Farmville, Greenville, Goldsboro, Kinston, and Tarboro according to a recent report issued by C. A. Witherspoon, district secretary. Mr. Witherspoon's brief report further reads: "When it is recorded that the Y. M. C. A. work has been established in any place, this means that the following three important things have been accomplished: First, a substantial group of leading Christian men have been enlisted to give time, their good influence, and financial support to the work; second, young men have been secured to act as adult leaders; and third, a representative group of Christian older boys have been interested to join in the high school club purpose; which is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character. The adult leaders of the work in Greenville are K. T. Putrell, and Herman H. Duncan; Kinston, R. T. Hardaway and Randolph Spear; Goldsboro, W. A. Mahler; Tarboro, F. C. Andrews, W. C. Ramsay, and E. V. Harris; Farmville, G. R. Wheeler; Ayden, R. B. Spencer and L. R. Ennis. There are now six organizations with at least four older boys holding office in each club, such as, president, vice president, secretary and treasurer, not to mention those appointed to serve on the three important service committees, namely, Bible study, social activities, Christian service tasks. The total membership of all clubs, including the adult leaders is ninety-three and growing.

The principal effort so far, reports Mr. Witherspoon, has been to bring together a group of representative boys in each community to get a thorough working understanding of the Y. M. C. A. that they may bring in others on the right basis. Older boys are now being consistently invited to join, not too fast, to hinder the doing of a good part for and by all. The specific service tasks being promoted are campaigns for clean sports, clean habits, clean scholarship and regular day school and Sunday school attendance. Another important service task that is being boosted, is the leading of younger boys' groups by the most outstanding older boys, as some are already doing.

Nationwide Search Started for Teacher

New York, March 26.—(INS) A nation wide appeal for information concerning the whereabouts of Jackson B. McKinney, instructor of Marietta, Ohio, who disappeared mysteriously last February 11, from New Haven, Conn., where he planned to enroll in the graduating school of Yale University, was broadcast by the Missing Persons Bureau of the New York police department. Relatives of the missing instructor can offer no logical explanation for his disappearance, describing McKinney as quiet, studious and fond of the theatre. He had been an instructor in various colleges for the past 12 or 14 years with the exception of the time he spent in war service. McKinney occasionally talked of getting a job in the dramatic department of a New York or Chicago newspaper.

The missing instructor is a brother of Frank P. McKinney, president and W. P. McKinney, secretary-treasurer of the Marietta Times, Marietta, Ohio. The description of the missing Jackson B. McKinney follows: "Age, 39 years. Height, about five feet nine inches; weight about 140 pounds. Complexion, dark, thin face; gray eyes; brown, rather thin hair; heavy eyebrows; with hands and forearms somewhat hairy. Five or six teeth missing in back of mouth."

Gossip of Staff Correspondents at World Centers of Population.

INS Staff Correspondent
Moscow, March 26.—"America is the enemy." This is the lesson communists of the world assemble here in the expanded plenum of the Communist International learned from their leader, Gregory Zinoviev, when he delivered his report summing up the forces working for and against the world revolution.

For the first time since October 1917, Zinoviev admitted that the Communist International is on the defensive. Two American forces appeared in his report as the spearheads of the attack, one, the immense economic might of the United States, and the other, the influence upon the European labor movement of the example set by America's system of "labor aristocracy."

Of the two elements dangerous for communism, Zinoviev devoted most attention to the "Americanization of the European labor movement."

"The United States," he said "has become the land of reformism, and American methods are beginning to be transplanted to European lands. I have an intuition that the Western European countries do not know what a tremendous role will be played by this sort of Americanization."

"In Germany we can already see that there they are holding up American democracy as superior to the Soviet Union. They are opening workers' banks, and the idea of Fordism is extolled by the Social Democrats instead of Marxism."

"An attempt will be made to plant these so-called American methods in all countries which have a developed working movement. The propaganda in favor of Soviet Russia will be counteracted by propaganda in favor of imperialist America."

Following his discovery of a method of determining race and sex by blood examination, Dr. Manoyloff has announced to the Moscow Medical Association a method of determining the sex of a child before birth.

His method depends upon an examination of the blood of the mother. According to Dr. Manoyloff, the reaction has proved accurate in 99 per cent of the cases tried.

Seventeen half completed ships will be washed into the Caspian sea and destroyed this spring because the Gorokhovetz ship building trust has been unable to obtain the necessary steel to finish them before the annual freshet at the break up of the winter ice. The ship yards are situated in the valley of the river Kizil, which each spring overflows its banks and sweeps everything before it.

Experience of the Gorokhovetz trust is startling evidence of the seriousness of the metal famine in Russia. In spite of the fact that destruction of the half built ships will cause a loss of several million dollars, the Metal syndicate was unable to supply the steel required to complete their construction before spring.

Pity the poor senator who has not yet advanced a plan for operation of Muscle Shoals.—Albany - Decatur Daily.

Why have OAKLAND Sales Doubled

All America has bestowed upon the Oakland Six the one sure mark of preference—ever-growing demand. State after state has favored the car so strongly that sales have doubled in the past six months.

The reasons for this unprecedented favor will be readily apparent to anyone who tests Oakland Six abilities.

The car has power for any hill you will encounter—more speed than you will care to use—acceleration that excites envy—smoothness of performance unmatched in its field—and, better still, a rugged endurance that assures years of service.

Moreover, Oakland's amazing prices—$70 to $350 lower—single out the Oakland Six as an unequalled investment.
