FATHER SWEENEY ANNOUNCE PRIZES TELLS NECESSITY FOR TRACK MEET OF RELIGION BE HELD MONDAY

Two Services Each Day to Be Held in St. Peters Chapel Car; Sunday Morning Service Be Held in Church

The services last evening at St. Patrick's Chapel Car were very well attended. Rev. Stephen Sweeney, C. P., the missionary in charge of the car first conducted the devotion of the Way of the Cross. The Way of the Cross is a devotion common to the Catholic Church, practiced particularly during the Holy Season of Lent. In it are commemorated the various events in the passion and death of Jesus Christ from His condemnation to death by Pilate to His crucifixion on Mount Calvary. The congregation joined in prayer with the priest during this devotion, asking God's pardon for all the sinners of the world.

The Reverend Preacher announced services for every evening at 7:45 o'clock and each week day morning at 7:30. Sunday morning services will be at 11:00 o'clock in the Greenville Church.

The subject of Rev. Sweeney's discourse was "The Necessity of Religion." He said in part: "Religion is the recognition of a Supreme Being. There has never been a time in the history when a Supreme Being, whom we today call by the name of God, was not recognized. The most cultured people as well as the most illiterate, have always practiced some religion. As the ancient Roman orator Cicero says: 'You can find cities without walls, people without education, but you can find no people without their God.' Religion has been common to the civilized and uncivilized. Religion has occupied the most prominent place in the literature of all times.

If we believe, as surely we all do believe that there is a great Being called God who has created us and preserves us in being, and to whom our very nature tells us we must render an account of our lives, then it is wrong for any one, absolutely wrong, to go through life without recognizing the rights and claims He has over us.

You know that in its own way all nature praises God. The inanimate would praise God in obeying the laws given them for their government. The animal would praise God in being true to the instincts which are implanted in their nature. But we can give God an infinitely higher service. We can give Him a rational service—a service of gratitude and love. This He demands of us. 'Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with thy whole heart—and with thy whole soul, with all thy mind and with all thy strength.'

A person indifferent to God—indifferent to his best Benefactor. Such a one spurns the hand which bestows every gift upon him. And yet there are some who apparently glory in the fact that they practice no religion, analyze their conduct and you find them to be ingrates.

Rev. Sweeney then dwelt for a few moments upon liturgy in religion. He pleaded for fair play. Examine for yourself, he said the claims of any church before you pass judgment upon it. The Catholic Church never proselytizes. Before any one is received into the church he must study the claims of the church and first be convinced of the truth of every dogma of our holy faith.

A question box is provided in the chapel car. Any person wishing to make any inquiries about religion may place questions in this box. Before the sermon each evening Rev. Sweeney will answer them. The subject of this evening's lecture will be "Honesty and Common Sense in Religion."

Broadway Lures Thaw Again

HARRY THAW (On right) with the gaiety of Broadway has not lost its appeal for Harry Thaw, the slayer of Stanford White twenty years ago. He admits it, and he posed with two fellow revellers at a recent masquerade in a New York night club. Thaw is on the right, wearing a mask.

The Ku Klux Klan has opposed the Italian settlement. Why, is not clear. They object to foreigners coming to this country, although like the rest of us, they are descendants of foreigners. But in the Italian debt settlement there is no question of Italians coming here. They only send money. Why object to that?

It is said in the Senate, that the Ku Klux dislike Mussolini, another mistake. He is, in some ways, their kind of man. Strong arm methods are his methods. It makes people work. When Judge Gary, of the big steel company, met Mussolini in Rome this conversation occurred.

"How did you come to Rome?" "By train." "Did you notice the Italian countryside, early this morning?" "Yes, it was looking out of the window at daybreak." "Did you see anybody?" "Yes, the fields were covered with people, before sunrise, all working hard."

"That's it," said Mussolini: "That's my idea of the welfare of Italy. EVERYBODY'S WORKING." Mussolini works, makes everybody else work, and out of the hard work Italy will send millions to us. Nobody, Senator or Ku Kluxer, should object to that.

John D. Rockefeller, Jr. will receive from the King of Spain a "the plus ultra gold medal" struck to commemorate the flight of a Spanish airplane from Europe to South America. It is given to Mr. Rockefeller, who deserves it, for his work in fighting disease and establishing a great scientific institute.

That medal, a "royal decoration" worth having, is considerably better than the highest of all British decorations, which is the Order of the Garter, given in memory of a Bon Mot, made by an English king when he picked up a garter, dropped by some woman on a ballroom floor.

Some day, when this garter is handed to some Englishman will say, "no thanks, I do not accept ladies' garters or any other ladies' underwear. Give me something better."

A charming lady, an American, comes back from Europe carrying a sweet little four-pawed black and tan dog—a refined, elegant little dog. It wore a silk hood on its head, a little flannel jacket buttoned tightly around its stomach and chest. A cloak of warm wool, a nice little handkerchief, used by the maid to wipe its nose and eyes. It had gloves, or shoes, of the finest kid for its four little feet. Once in a while, it must run around on the ground and might hurt its toes.

This well cared for dog costs, the lady says, $4,000 a year for upkeep. Fathers bringing up a family on $2,500 a year or less are invited by earnest radicals to think and roar about this. There is no need of roaring.

More Wall St. Sorrow, Gary and Mussolini, John D's New Medal, A Clear Little Dog, By ARTHUR BRISBANE

More Wall Street agitation yesterday. Sixty-five more stocks found new low resting places. Nothing is the matter with the country or with Wall Street. It was said yesterday that Mr. Durant, the able automobile gentleman, was letting others have some of the stuff that he bought at low prices. In other words, "liquidating."

Nobody was hurt except the gamblers, and the whole world knows that the only way to discourage vice is to make it expensive. Wall Street always makes gambling expensive, if you keep at it.

The Senate undoubtedly will confirm debt arrangement with Italy, as it should do. The settlement was fair. Without Italy the victory of the Marne would have been impossible. Instead of collecting money from Germany now, the French and English might be carrying out the orders of President Wilson, transported from Berlin to Paris and London.

The Ku Klux Klan has opposed the Italian settlement. Why, is not clear. They object to foreigners coming to this country, although like the rest of us, they are descendants of foreigners. PITT COUNTY BAR COMMENDS WORK OF JUDGE NUNN

Express Highest Appreciation for Splendid Service in Conduct of Court Here for Past Two Weeks

State of North Carolina, County of Pitt. Whereas, Honorable Romulus A. Nunn, has just concluded the two weeks' term of Pitt Superior Court, and has presided over said Court in an able and impartial manner with fairness and impartiality, and courtesy to everyone; and whereas, the Bar of Pitt County desires to express their appreciation of his splendid service in the conduct of said Court, and the courteous treatment accorded to everyone, and the fair, impartial and able manner in which he has heard and disposed of the causes and matters coming before him at the March term 1926, of Pitt Superior Court.

This 27th day of March, 1926. Sam O. Worthington, M. K. Blount, James L. Evans, K. A. Pittman, W. A. Darden, J. C. Lanier, Albion Dunn, F. G. James, L. W. Gaylord, Lewis G. Three Negroes Burned to Death
Fayetteville, Mar. 27.—(AP)—Three negroes were burned to death four miles from here early today when a State Highway Commission truck in which they were sleeping caught fire from undetermined causes. The men, Lucy Evans and Eugene and Felton McMillan, were sleeping in a house which had been built on one of the State trucks.

Awakened by groans, foreman McLamb, who with another white man was sleeping a short distance away, rushed out of his tent to find the truck in flames, which rendered rescue impossible. By the position of the bodies when the truck fell to pieces it is thought that two of the men never awakened and were smothered to death, but the third had evidently tried to fight his way out of the flames. The cook of the outfit who sleeps in the truck, went to Fayetteville last night and thus escaped a similar fate.

R. F. McLamb, foreman of the outfit, is in a local hospital, for his young brother was in charge of the gang at the time of the tragedy.

Secretary Cloaks Investigation
Charlotte, March 27.—(AP)—Secrecy today cloaked the investigation of charges involving moral turpitude against Chief of Police C. R. Ferguson here, although members of the city commission admitted they were still probing the matter.

Mayor Harvey Moore announced that the secret hearings might not be concluded before Monday.

foolish with their MONEY, as many that are too poor are extremely foolish with their TIME. The owner of the little dog would probably waste the money on her self, if she didn't spend it on the dog. What difference does it make, whether the money is wasted on the black and tan, or on the lady?

It is possible to be too convincing. Macario Simon, head of a "Satanic Mystic Order of Lucifer," said he possessed "the magic stone," with which he worked wonders. There were no wonders, of course, and no magic stone. But his foolish followers didn't know that. They tortured the aged impostor to death to make him tell where the magic stone was.

A Dog's Life

MRS. SIDNEY WILLIAMS
Most people would be willing to lead a dog's life, if it were as comfortable and happy as that of Francie, the eighteen-month black and tan brought home by Mrs. Sidney Williams, of New Rochelle, N. Y., on her return from Europe. Francie's expenses are $4,000 a year and Mrs. Williams, a society woman, spends $27,000 a year on him and four other pups.

Registrations Begin for Tacna Arica Plebiscite
Arica file, Mar. 27.—(AP)—Registrations began this morning for the Tacna-Arica Plebiscite with the Peruvians absent from the board and the Chilean and Americans acting. The registrations were started despite the fact that both Chile and Peru have agreed for the time being to forego the holding of Plebiscite pending an attempt to direct settlement of the dispute of the Sovereignty territory through the good offices of the United States.

The Peruvian's decision to absent themselves from the registration boards is understood to have been reached during the night in consequence of last night's differences of opinion between the Chileans and Americans regarding the terms on which the Chileans had accepted the Good offices of the American Government. The Americans participated in the registration in the absent of any order to the contrary from the plebiscitary commission.

COOLIDGE ASKED EXTEND CLEMENCY FORMER GOV. McGray
Washington, March 27.—(AP)—President Coolidge was asked today to extend executive clemency to former Governor McGray, of Indiana, who is serving a term in the Atlanta penitentiary for misuse of the money, by an Indiana delegation headed by Senator Watson.

At the conference at the White House ill health was pleaded on behalf of the former governor.

CAFES AND AMUSEMENTS NOW PROSPER IN JAPAN
Tokyo, March 27.—(INS)—Hard times may prevail in Japan, but the cafes, restaurants, theaters and other places of amusement are prosperous and flourishing, according to officials of the Metropolitan Police bureau.

An investigation conducted by the police department reveals that during the first ten days of January a period always given over to celebrations in Japan, more than $4,000,000 was spent by Tokyo pleasure seekers.

COUPLE ARRESTED CHARGED SELLING FICTITIOUS STOCK

Mr. and Mrs. Bange Charged With Swindling Friends and Relatives Out of Nearly $450,000 in Fictitious Stock Transactions

New York, Mar. 27.—(AP)—Mrs. Grace Ott Bange and her husband, a $40 a week clerk, were under arrest today charged with swindling friends and relatives out of nearly $40,000 in fictitious stock transactions.

Mrs. Bange admitted to police, they say, that she told friends, she was an employee of the American Telephone Company, to buy the company's stock at par, which is under the market price. They flocked to her asking her to invest money for the man she gave them receipts, but no stock. From time to time she paid dividends and spent the rest in luxurious living for three years.

The heaviest loser, police believe, is H. A. Dennister, an executive of the Standard Oil Co., and employer of the husband. Mr. Dennister, police were told, paid $75,000 for the fictitious stock. Fifteen victims have been identified.

Warren Appears Before Committee Waterway Projects

Congressman Lindsay Warren today appeared before the subcommittee on rivers and harbors in behalf of certain waterway projects that he has initiated in his district. The committee favorably reported the following first district bills, rolling for preliminary surveys: Douglas Bay and Far Creek, Hyde county; Mample, Creek House and Point Harbor, Currituck county; Gardner's creek, Martin county, and Runyon's creek, Beaufort county.

It is still doubtful whether or not there will be a rivers and harbors bill at this session of congress, but if a bill is passed the above projects will be included in same. Mr. Warren's bill provides for a survey of Silver Lake on Ocracoke Island did not require passage by congress, and the engineers are now examining same.

Representatives Warren and Kerr today appeared before the committee on Flood control, and spoke in behalf of the bill introduced by Mr. Warren to investigate the flood conditions of the Roanoke and Tar rivers. After hearing them, the committee reported the bill favorably. It carries an initial appropriation of $3,500 for the purposes of the investigation.

Sermour is said to have destroyed more liquor stills than any other raider who ever worked in North Eastern Carolina.

OUR SATURDAY NIGHT MEDITATION

PALM SUNDAY

5. Matt. 21:10—"And when He was come into Jerusalem, all the city was stirred, saying, Who is this?"

Last scenes are always impressive. The last word, the last look, the last kiss are rarely forgotten. They are indelibly impressed on the tablets of memory by their very finality.

The last week in our Lord's earthly ministry—the greatest week in all the world's history—will never be forgotten by the sons of men.

And Palm Sunday, the last Sunday he spent among men as man, has left its mark on the mind of many nations. Even in lands where the palm does not grow, branches of other trees are used on this festival day. In Wales it is called Yew Sunday; in Italy, Olive Sunday; in Russia, Willow Sunday. Wherever the story of the Passion has been told there Palm Sunday is observed.

The annual Paschal celebration was largely attended. Historians say that as many as 3,000,000 people gathered at Jerusalem from all parts of the country and from the most distant Jewish settlements in all the Roman Empire. The city was crowded. The surrounding villages were full. And the news spread like wild fire among the holiday crowds that the Prophet of Nazareth was on His way to the Holy City. Multitudes came out to meet Him, singing one of the Psalms of the "Hallel" which had been sung at the Passover from time immemorial: "Hosanna, to the son of David: Blessed is He that cometh in the name of the Lord: Hosanna in the highest."

For the incidents that marked that most royal procession the world has ever seen, you must read the New Testament story.

It will be worthwhile. When they reached the city excitement and expectation ran high. "Who is this?" they asked as they leaned out of lattices and over house tops, or as they stood aside in the bazaars and streets to let the procession pass. The joyous multitude, sensing the hostility of the city with wavering courage did not reply "This is our King; This is the Son of David," but answered: "This is Jesus, the prophet of Nazareth." Before they reached the Shushan gate of the temple the crowds dispersed. They could not go farther as a procession, nor with dusty feet. And as Jesus entered the gate, passing from sight, the cry still resounded through the city street, "Who is this?"

He was a King; but His Kingdom was of lowliness, peace, righteousness and joy. How different from what they expected or desired!

We are beginning to realize more than ever that He is the only solution of the tangled problems of our modern life. He is the greatest certainty in this uncertain world. To class Him with other teachers is merely absurd.

"One in a Judean manger, And one by Avon stream; One over against the mouths of Nile, And one in the Academe."

Other men have been broken lights. In Him we see the light undimmed. "We beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth."

May this same Jesus come to our hearts again this Palm Sunday; and if the curious ask us, "Who is this?" may we be able truthfully to say, "He is more than all the world to me. He is my Teacher, my Friend, my Redeemer, my Life, my Joy, my Hope, my Lord and my God!"

OUR RIGID INSPECTION IS YOUR PROTECTION

Back of the growing preference for Oldsmobile, stands performance. Back of that performance, stands quality. Back of that quality, stands a manufacturing policy that does not tolerate the slightest variation from accuracy.

One inspector to every seven workers, is the ratio in the Oldsmobile factory. Every material is tested to the highest standards, every measurement verified with the greatest precision, every driving demand anticipated and provided for.

The firm foundation upon which the growing confidence in Oldsmobile has been built, is just this strict observance of care and accuracy in every detail, by every man at every bench and lathe and drill.

You can depend upon a car built like that. You can recognize the difference the moment you take the wheel. The more you drive the Oldsmobile, the more you will appreciate these exacting standards. For they guard that fine performance steadily, as months and miles roll by.

The car illustrated here is the DeLuxe Sedan, priced at $1115, at Lansing.

Chapel Hill, Mar. 26.—Regulations governing the fourteen annual inter-scholastic track meet for North Carolina high schools were announced here today by the High School Athletic Association of North Carolina. The date is April 16, during high school week.

Only member schools of the association are eligible to compete. Contests will be held in the following events: (1) 100-yard dash, (2) 220 yard dash, (3) 440 yard run, (4) 880 yard run, (5) one mile run, (6) 120 yard low hurdles, (7) high jump, (8) broad jump, (9) pole vault, (10) 12 pound shot put, (11) discuss throw, (12) Javelin throw, (13) a relay race.

The school winning the largest number of points will be awarded the state championship cup. This school will retain possession for one year, and the school that wins it for three years will have permanent possession. The school which wins the relay race will be awarded a trophy cup, this to remain in permanent possession of the school winning it. To every contestant winning a first place in any event, a silver medal will be awarded; and to every contestant winning a second place, a bronze medal will be awarded.

The points will be counted thus: 5 for first place, 3 for second place, 2 for third, and 1 for fourth place. The relay race will not count in the scoring of points.

The rules of the National Collegiate Athletic association will govern this meet. A copy of these rules may be secured at any sporting goods store with Spaulding & Co.'s agency.

To be eligible to represent any school a student must be in regular attendance at that school at the time of the inter-scholastic track meet, and he must have made an average daily attendance record in that school of at least 60 per cent, measuring from the opening day of that school in the fall of 1925 up to the date of the meet.

No student who became 21 or before last September is eligible. No post graduate of a school is eligible. No student below the eighth grade is eligible.

Entry blanks for all contestants must be filled out by the superintendent or high school principal and sent to F. R. Rankin, secretary of the committee, on or before April 3. Other members of the committee in charge of the contests are N. W. Walker, chairman; G. B. Phillips, R. A. Fetzer, H. D. Meyer, J. W. Moore, C. F. Teague, C. D. Snell and Harry Howell.

High Point won the first contest in 1913. Then for seven years in succession the Friendship high school won the meet.
