Attorney for Two Banks Which Associ- ation Owes $9,000,- 000 Asks That Insti- tutions Be Made Parties Defendant in Suit

Raleigh, April 2.—(AP)—When federal court convened here today in the dissolution of receivership proceedings against the Tri-State Tobacco Growers Co-operative Marketing Association, Gub B. Hazelgrove, attorney for the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of Baltimore, and the American Trust Company, of Richmond, appeared and asked that these institutions be made parties defendant in the suit.

Judge Meekins denied the petition, arguing that the case had proceeded too far. The grounds for the petitions were that the association owed these banks approximately $9,000,000 and that they preferred from the standpoint of creditors that no receiver be appointed.

"BOUGHT WITH A PRICE" SUBJECT TONIGHT'S SERMON

Dr. Miller Preached Splendid Sermon Last Night at Chris- tian Church On "Modern Pilates"

Dr. Miller will preach on "Bought With a Price" at the Christian church tonight.

The music last night was splendid, special music being sung by the senior and junior choirs. Mr. Spruel Spain and Mrs. Coppige sang a duet, "No Disappointment in Heaven," which was beautifully rendered.

Dr. Miller's subject last night was "Modern Pilates." He took his text from the twenty-seventh chapter of Matthew, "Pilate saith unto them what shall I do with Jesus, which is called the Christ?" Pilate found no fault in Jesus, but he was persuaded by the mob. He was an unrighteous judge, and his motives for turning Jesus over to the Jews was purely selfish.

Mr. Baker Came Back. She'll Tell About Us. Same Worm Twice.

By ARTHUR BRISBANE

DOOR, SAD WALL STREET sat up yesterday, took notice, and felt VERY much better.

George F. Baker left the warm south and came back to the street "to take a hand."

Mr. Baker is eighty-six years old, but years do not count when the mind and will are young—especially if you have more than one million to prop each of the eighty-six years.

Some said a big fight was on in Wall Street, and that the little lambs got their wool rubbed off between the upper and lower millstones of a grinding financial battle.

High finance knows how to knock the financial plus from under any stock. The broker offers stocks for what, ordinarily, would be called "a sweet loan." The lender says: "Throw out that, and throw out THAT."

This means that you can't borrow gambling money on certain stocks, and they wither, like the "runt"—in a sow's liver. The runt, you know, is one more pig than there are spoons in the mother's milk department, so it eats after the others or not at all.

It seems that the worst is over. And, anyhow, the terror of speculators, helping each other to ruin the market, is absurd.

The old fashioned politician who you could not borrow on government bonds, and stocks might go anywhere, will never come again. The Federal Reserve presents that.

But don't gable, destruction lies in that direction. Many poor lambs know it now, that did not know it a month ago.

And don't buy European bonds, above all. That warning has been printed here twenty times in twelve months. New Smoot, head of the Senate Finance Committee, tells you the money will not be repaid. It WON'T because it CAN'T be repaid.

Several million Britishers "listened in" to the broadcasting of an opera at Covent Garden. Twenty-one stations carried the opera to listening millions.

That is really using the radio, and real work for "culture," if you'll excuse the much abused word.

Mr. Otto H. Kahn ought to duplicate that, on a bigger scale, when he inaugurates the magnificent new opera house that he and his associates are building in New York.

The new Metropolitan Opera House will have seats—real and comfortable seats—for more than four thousand people and the prices for good seats will be as low as $1.50.

Think of having real music taken into the home of FORTY MILLION PEOPLE through the air. It would diminish opera receipts, but greatly increase them. Above all, it would make millions of people happier.

JUDGE ENGLISH EITHER TO STAND TRIAL OR RESIGN

Impeachment On Five Counts Was Voted by House Late Yesterday After Three Days' Debate

Washington, April 2.—(AP)—Federal Judge English, of the Eastern Illinois district, must stand trial before the Senate on charges of his misdemeanors in office, or resign.

His impeachment on five counts was voted by the House late yesterday 306 to 62 after the three days of debate during which the frank use of a toothsome epithet he was accused of having used his court startled the galleries, and brought an admonition to members from Speaker Longworth.

The next step in the move to impeach Judge English cannot be taken until next week, as the House adjourned until Monday after approving the charges without appointing the seven managers who are representing it as prosecutors before the Senate, which will be called upon to sit as a court of impeachment for the tenth time in its history.

Selection of the managers was put off yesterday when differences arose over their political line up. The Judiciary Committee slate called for five Republicans and two Democrats and Representative Garrett, of Tennessee, the Democratic floor leader, suggested a four-three ratio instead.

When the managers have been appointed their first duty will be to report the impeachment to the Senate, which must take it up for consideration at one o'clock the following day.

Judge English will be summoned before the Bar of the Senate after it has resolved itself into a court of impeachment by the application of a special oath to each member. When he has made this appearance with counsel he will be allowed a specified time in which to file a brief and answer to the five articles of impeachment which accused him of wrongful manipulation of bankruptcy funds, usurpation of authority of state officials, use of profane language and threatening of juries and counsel in court. After each precedent is followed the House will present an answer to Judge English's answer and the trial then will proceed.

The Illinois jurist has served on the bench since 1918 when he was appointed by President Wilson upon the recommendation of Samuel Gompers, late head of the American Federation of Labor. Only ten Federal judges and three other Federal officials have been impeached by the House prior to its action yesterday on the English case.

A DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM

North Carolina Democrats are casting about for a platform. They will gather together within a few weeks to state the principles that actuate and sometimes inspire them, and the News and Observer, the organ of Josephus Daniels, former secretary of the state, suggests that the statement be short and snappy. It doesn't expect its advice to be followed, however, for it dolefully predicts that the "platform will be a yard long and seek to cover everything." Out in South Dakota, it observes, the law permits a summary of principles not over ten words long, and the democrats of that state, thus handicapped as to verbiage, issue this platform: "Equal rights to agriculture; special privilege to none." With that example of clarity and brevity before it, the News and Observer suggests this for North Carolina: "We have done big things. We are going to do bigger things in a better way." That exceeds the ten word limit, but it should serve the purpose. Certainly it will serve the purpose just as well as a platform which recites the glories of the democratic party from the days of Thomas Jefferson on down to the lamented present; and it will be more convincing.

It may be doubted if Mr. Daniels, should the lightning strike him in the pre-convention of 1928, and it is persistently reported that his lightning rod is up, would consent to a platform as brief as his newspaper recommends for North Carolina democrats. And still, if the drafting of the document were left to Chairman Shaver, it could be done neatly and leave no less than six words to go under the South Dakota practice. Clem Shaver already has suggested the platform. It is terse and to the point. It sets out concisely and forcefully the objective of the democratic party as Mr. Shaver views it. It is this: "To defeat the republicans." Nothing is left to the imagination there; there can be no dispute as to the intent or the content of this statement of principles. It covers the case completely. As a concession to precedent another six words might be used to point with pride and view with alarm. That problem in condensation will be left to the national committee. In further recommendation of such a platform it may be argued that it will be read and understood, and it will win votes. Of few platforms that have been written in the past can that be said truthfully. — Richmond Times-Dispatch.

Local citizens are urged to help avoid traffic congestion here next week by using their cars as little as possible and under no circumstances to park them on our main thoroughfares.

A treat is in store for all those who attend the Sunrise Sing at the court house Easter Sunday.

The straw vote in progress on the prohibition question is apparently the last straw the wets see to grab.

The welcome extended the Exposition visitors next week by the citizens of our city will have much to do with opinions they form of Greenville. Let everyone do his or her part to see to it that the impressions of Greenville carried away by the visitors are pleasant and lasting ones.

OPENS DEBATE ON FINANCIAL MEASURES Paris, Mar. 30.—(AP)—France can make no settlement of the inter-allied debt that is not based in some measure on reparations payment from Germany, Finance Minister Peret declared in the course of his speech opening the debate on the financial measures in the Chamber of Deputies today. These terms, the Finance Minister added, should include the safe guarantee clause that would give France protection should Germany at any time default. The Chamber listened calmly to M. Peret's speech and to one by the Representative of the Finance Committee, which precede it. The first incident came when the Communists Deputies elected from the second district of Paris Sunday took their seats and applause from the communists and calls from the other deputies. Finally when the Communists began singing the "International" M. Heriot, President of the Chamber, found it necessary to suspend the session.

Daily News Letter

Gossip of Staff Correspondents at World Centers of Population.

London, April 2.—The Duchess of York, King George's only daughter in law, will shortly return from social activities in London society in anticipation of her happy event said to be due about the middle of April.

She is at present busily engaged making preparations, and arrangements for taking over her new London residence in the exclusive Grosvenor Square, but she will do little or no entertaining there until the latter part of the London season.

The nursery which she is planning at her new house is said to be an exact replica of that which was designed for Princess Mary's children at Cheskerfield House, and the walls will be decorated with a series of stencilled designs illustrating the most popular nursery rhymes.

The little duchess is seeking the advice of Queen Mary in the matter of many household arrangements but one of the innovations she has planned is an American kitchen, complete with all the latest labor saving devices.

Drastic alterations are to be made in the famous grounds of Buckingham palace in preparation for the new London season. There are to be three Royal garden parties this season, and in view of this Queen Mary is anxious to carry out a number of improvements in the palace grounds which she has had in mind for some years.

The size of the famous grounds have, in the opinion of the queen, always been limited by the number of shrubberies that abound. The alterations that she has planned include the removal of a greater portion of these and the substitution of flower beds of all kinds.

This, it is expected, will effect a considerable improvement, and the best landscape gardeners in the country have been requested to assist in increasing the size of the four acres of gardens.

In addition to the three garden parties four courts are to be held, and this fact is being hailed with great satisfaction by social London. Both British and American hostesses are planning many big private functions, while the Prince of Wales has already dates in his social calendar as far ahead as August.

So numerous have been the applications from abroad for presentation at one of the four courts this season that many British mothers, fearing that their first application may not be successful, have placed the names of the daughters before the Lord Chamberlain before they reach the recognized age of eighteen.

This was hailed as an excellent idea, but it is now being discovered that American mothers have been doing the same, and the congestion which has arisen, causing the lord chamberlain's department many anxious hours.

It is considered indiscreet to inquire too closely into the age of girls who desire to be presented to King George but it is certain that next year all applications from girls under 21 will have to bear their actual age. The shingle style of hair dressing is making it doubly difficult to discover the deception.

London society is fluttered over a report that Mrs. Harry Brown, of Pittsburgh, most prodigal of all American hostesses, will entertain in London during the coming season.

Her lavish parties and entertaining during the past two years have won her considerable fame, and on two or three memorable occasions during the last London season she received the final cachet of having her parties graded by royalty.

Mrs. Brown has usually leased the magnificent Norfolk house, the town house of the Norfolk family, but the duchess states that she is occupying the mansion during this season.

Whether Mrs. Brown has decided that the London season, on such a vast scale is not worth the dollars, and is unwilling to entertain on more modest lines, or whether merely the physical and mental strain of entertaining has proven too much, remains a mystery.

American society women are responsible for the latest innovation here—Sunday dances and parties, hitherto almost unknown among the fashionable set. Mrs. A. L. Beaton, of New York, was mainly responsible for this innovation, and many society people prophesied failure when she started her Sunday afternoon dances nearly a month ago, but they have been the first to imitate her.

Ex-Convicts Are Enforcing Law

Columbus, Ohio, April 2.—(INS.)—Practice of the federal prohibition department in Ohio, in employing ex-convicts to enforce the dry laws threatens to cause a serious break between the federal department and state officials.

Judge E. L. Porterfield, federal prohibition administrator for the Ohio-Michigan division, is standing by his guns and defending his enforcement methods.

"Sunday School teachers can't catch bootleggers," he replied to his critics. "We employ men who have been in the bootlegging game because they know the business, and are better able to cope with the rum runners."

State's Attorney General Crabbe and City Prosecutor Chester are leading the fight against Porterfield's methods. "There's not an ex-criminal on the city vice squad and they manage to bring in the offenders," is Chester's comment, while the attorney general declares that such a practical results in contempt of the law.

"How can you expect an honorific in the hands of a citizen to have confidence in a man who has violated the same law which is entrusted to enforce?"

The breach between opposing factions reached a near climax when a federal prohibition officer and a bootlegger engaged in a gun battle, both being wounded.

Investigation revealed that the prohibition officer was Sam Rosofsky, who has a long police record in the local courts and who has been convicted of the crime of bootlegging. Further investigation disclosed that a paroled convict from the state penitentiary had been carried on the federal enforcement payroll as an informer or stool pigeon.

Porterfield admitted that former criminal had been given employment in his department and insisted that their past connections, fitted them for the work of enforcing the law and apprehending others in the same business.

Work Resumed On Orphanage

Lexington, March 29.—Monday morning work is scheduled to be resumed on the orphanage being erected here by the Junior Order United American Mechanics.

After a period of several months of inactivity announcement has been made that the work will be again started and that it will be carried through to a successful conclusion, giving North Carolina one of the largest and most modern institutions for the care of the fatherless and motherless children of this and other states in the country.

Work was held up at the order of the national councilor, Charlie Walters, of Philadelphia, pending the outcome of conference held with the state board and for several months Juniors of North Carolina have been impatiently awaiting the resumption of work. Announcement was made some time ago that work was to be started again but not until this week was the time set for it to begin.

LAW DRAMA ON THE SCREEN AT WHITE'S

The glamorous spell of printer's ink is cast over Associated Exhibitors production, "Council for the Defense," at White's Theatre today.

A small town daily newspaper office is the scene of much of the action which takes place in this stirring melodrama, and the spirit of such an office is brought to the screen as truly as any artist could do it.

The story concerns a girl, fresh from law school, who returns home to find her father jailed as the victim of a frame-up, and who goes dauntlessly into legal battle to save her father's honor.

FIFTY BILLION WORDS DAILY OVER PHONES

Washington, March 27.—About 50,000,000,000 words of conversation more than half of which is of feminine origin pass over the telephone lines of the United States every day.

This conservative estimate of the wire conversation of America is based on official reports of the American Telephone and Telegraph company that more than 67,700,000 telephone calls are made daily.

America does more talking over the telephone than all the rest of the world put together, but just what per cent of the eighteen trillion words a year is idle chatter and gossip is a matter of considerable conjecture.

In 1876 there were only two telephones in the world. They were connected by thirty feet of wire. Today there are over 16,000,000 telephones in the United States alone, with 51,000,000 miles of wire.

The United States with 5 per cent of the world's area and 6 per cent of the population, has 61 per cent of the telephones. There is about $2,940,000,000 invested in the country's telephone plant.

Army Tries Bullet Proof Shields

San Francisco, April 2.—(INS)—A new bullet proof shield which deflects the most terrific machine gun fire less than a foot from a soldier's face is now undergoing tests on army proving grounds, according to information given out at Ninth corps area headquarters here. A soldier on a platform behind it is absolutely sheltered from the hardest kind of rifle and machine gun fire, it is stated in army circles.

Between the soldier on the platform and the guns attacking him is half an inch of solid steel, impervious to rifle and machine gun fire, and through this shield he sees perfectly the entire field of operations around him, and the guns firing at him.

The shield was developed by the ordnance department to protect the gunners on tanks from flying shell fragments, machine gun fire and lead sprays from bullets splattering to bits on the sides of the tank.

It consists of a huge, mushroom shaped cap of half inch armor steel. The cap is about three feet wide at its largest diameter and is about two feet high.

A series of saw cuts about an inch apart pierce the steel. The cuts are too narrow to permit clear vision when the shield is at rest.

When it is in use, however, the whole shield is rotated at high speed. The saw cuts become a band of light the operator in the gun turret sees perfectly. Bullets striking the whirling steel are shattered and flung aside, even if they land directly on one of the thin cuts in the steel.

Preliminary tests have shown the device to be of extraordinary value, it is said. It is expected to be part of the equipment of all new tanks built for the government.

PONTIAC SIX

At the New York Automobile Show—a spectacular triumph! Wherever it has since been presented—a brilliant success! Here in town, a conquest of public opinion which excited interest to fever heat!

Three years ago General Motors determined to develop a Six, so high in quality and low in price, as to win instant public acceptance. To that end were devoted the almost limitless resources of the corporation.

As a result, the Pontiac Six introduces into the field of low-priced sixes, features so new and unique, that a radical revision of the national idea on motor car values is already under way.

Sensible investors, the country over, are turning to a Six that offers beauty, bigness, comfort, stamina, quality and thrilling big-engine performance, for only $825—less than the cost of some four-cylinder cars.

And there can be but one result—not enough cars to go around.

Arrange to place your order now. Assure yourself of getting delivery when you are ready to take it. Hundreds are going to be compelled to wait this spring. Now is the time for you to act!

Oakland Six, Companion to Pontiac Six, $1025 to $1295. All prices at factory.

Dealers prices of Oakland and Pontiac Six have been reduced in accordance with the new tax rate.

SERVICES IN CHAPEL CAR TO CLOSE TONIGHT

Father Sweeney Will Lecture On "The Greatest Story Ever Told of the Greatest Lover Who Ever Lived"

Services in St. Peter's Chapel Car last evening were wonderfully attended. The car was much too small to accommodate the crowds who came to listen to Father Sweeney's eloquent discourse on God's Greatest Gift to the World. The altar in the Chapel Car was most tastefully adorned with flowers and candles and Father Sweeney explained the meaning of the solemnity of Holy Thursday as is celebrated in the Catholic Church. Father Sweeney's discourse was as follows:

God's greatest gift to the world is His own Divine Son, Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist. We Catholics believe that our Blessed Lord lives in our churches, in the tabernacles of the altar, under the humble appearance of bread and wine. The words of Christ Jesus we accept in their literal meaning. This is My body. This is My blood. And also do we accept literally the commission given apostles and to their successors in the priesthood. Do this in commemoration of Me. This sacrament is the central doctrine of our Catholic faith. It is God's greatest gift to the world. It is God's greatest gift to the world because in this sacrament Jesus Christ acts powerfully, gives generously and suffers heroically for us.

Father Sweeney developed each point separately showing how the blessed sacrament fulfills every need of human life. He exhorted his Catholic hearers to great devotion to the blessed sacrament. He exhorted his non-Catholic hearers to learn what the Catholic Church teaches and to examine the claims of the Eucharist for themselves.

Father Sweeney will deliver the final lecture of his mission in the Chapel Car this evening at 7:30 o'clock on "The Greatest Story Ever Told of the Greatest Lover Who Ever Lived."

Thompson Appointed Look After Affairs in the Philippines

Washington, April 2.—(AP)—Carmel A. Thompson, of Ohio, was appointed today by Presdent Coolidge to be special commissioner to survey economic and internal conditions in the Philippines. The decision of the President to take this step, a White House announcement said, follows the increased interest in congress recently in regard to the Philippine islands.

"Moreover the President feels that an intensive study of the possibilities of the insular may lead to increased development of the natural resources and that such a study will be of great benefit and importance not only to the United States, but the Philippines as well."

"It is his desire to obtain further information gathered by a man in whom he has confidence and whose practical experience will enable him to give the President a comprehensive and accurate report."

Mr. Thompson has conferred with Secretary Davis twice this week, but Mr. Davis said today he had not the haziest idea concerning the appointment. Philippine affairs are strictly under the war department.

It was indicated in White House circles after the formal statement had been issued that the commissioner was going to the island with the knowledge and approval of General Wood, and that his mission carried no significance beyond that contained in the announcement. The administration has repeatedly announced its full support of the governor general.

Cranford Case Considered Closed for Present Term

Albemarle, April 2.—(AP)—Attorneys for both sides today considered the case of N. C. Cranford charged with first degree murder in connection with the deaths of two negro convicts in 1918 while he was Stanley County convict superintendent as a closed issue for the present term of Superior Court. There are still pending before the court a motion to quash and another to transfer the trial to another county. There appeared little likelihood that the case would be called for trial at this term.

The mother-in-law says the jewels were only lent. But Standard Oil has good lawyers, and it will probably amuse the young Congress's father to keep the bait, that was supposed to catch the Standard Oil fish—and didn't!

Mr. Scrips, who died owning many newspapers—little ones, chiefly—leaves an interesting will. One-third of the income from his estate is set aside to buy more newspapers. His son inherits Scrips' newspapers and Roy W. Howard will help manage them.

Nothing more interesting than newspapers, which are the people's eyes and voices; nothing more valuable when successful; nothing harder to kill, once firmly established; no investment more dangerous until value is proven.

Bonds of a good newspaper with earning records, are gilt-edged. Stock in newspapers you should NOT buy—BECAUSE IF IT IS SO GOOD THAT YOU CAN'T BUY IT. The kind you can buy is not worth buying.

The Junker Company, at Dessau, Germany, has working plans and complete model of an airplane that would fly to New York, carrying 100 passengers. Cabins and engine rooms are built inside the metal wings. The Versailles Treaty will not allow German engineers to finish the ship.

They ought to find capital and courage to build the machine here. We are not YET in the World Court or the League, and may build an airship if we want to.

Henry Ford, or that aggressive young financier, Clarence Dillon, who has started and annoyed old fogies, might help with the job.

Or Judge Gary, who feels as young as he looks, might have the steel company do the building. Flying machines, one day, will use more steel than automobiles use now. And "steel" should promote flying.

Meanwhile, a daring French ace will soon try a flight from New York's Central Park to the BOIS DE BOULOGNE in Paris. His machine will be made in America, carry three French engines, and he expects to fly the 3,000 odd miles in thirty-six hours. Success to him.

Consideration of Brookhart - Stech Contest Deferred

Washington, April 2.—(AP)—Senate consideration of the Brookhart-Stech Iowa Senatorial contest was deferred today until Monday. Agreement was reached to delay the case until Monday because Chairman Ernst of the Senate Election Committee was not prepared to present the majority report which recommended the unseating of Senator Brookhart, Republican, to Daniel F. Stech, Democrat.

Saunders Wins Step Fight Against Federal Indictment

Memphis, Tenn., April 2.—(AP)—Clarence Saunders today won another step in his fight against a federal indictment returned against him in St. Louis when the ruling by Judge Harry B. Anderson in Federal District Court here, upholding the opinion of John R. Walker Jr., United States Commissioner that the indictment failed to show that Saunders had committed an offense against the United States. Judge Anderson in so holding overruled a petition presented on behalf of the Government seeking Saunders' arrest and his removal to St. Louis.
