to this new
national institution.

Around the Summer Assembly of the Mt. Mitchell Association of Arts and Sciences, at Little Switzerland, N. C., two hours' drive east of Asheville, is forming a colony of dwellers in high mountain homes, lovers of the outdoors, the recreations of forest and stream. Here small artistic homes can be created at low cost. Wildacres furnishes streets, lights, water and sewer. Ownership gives admission to the clubs—fishing, motor-boating, canoeing, riding, golf, tennis, music, drama, cinema arts, and the Liberal Arts Club, enjoying a forum in which the best minds of America and Europe will discuss world affairs.
