

BERENGER AWAITS INSTRUCTIONS FROM FRANCE

American Debt Commission Will Meet Again Following the Instructions to the Ambassador

Washington, Apr. 27.—(AP)—The American Debt Commission held a brief session today and decided not to meet again until Ambassador Berenger had received further instructions from Paris.

Meanwhile Secretary Mellon conferred with a representative of the Jugo Slavia Mission, which is endeavoring to reach an agreement on that country's war debts. Although Ambassador Berenger has been given authority by France to negotiate a funding agreement, it was indicated today by Secretary Mellon that some new elements had entered into the discussion, which probably required the Ambassador to confer further with his Government.

He would not say that a counter proposal had been made by the American Commission, but there were different indications that the commission had at least put forward substantial suggestions for M. Berenger to consider in revising his offer.

Women's Bible Club Unique in Its Plan of Teaching

Minneapolis, April 27.—(AP)—Organized for the sole purpose of studying the Bible and drawing its members from nearly all denominations, the Duchan Bible Study club of Minneapolis has within six years doubled its membership and become the first of its kind to be affiliated with the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

Its founder, Mrs. John C. Buchanan, organized the club for the purpose of making American women feel the Bible as a living force. At home she gathers hundreds of women to help them realize the beauty and power and the relation of their own lives to the great Book.

Her methods of teaching is through outline, dividing different periods of Bible history and content into topics. She uses maps and eliminates all unnecessary detail. The club also carries out a program of sacred art, music and literature.

MARK SPOT WHERE PRIESTS TAUGHT GOD TO INDIANS

Tallahassee, Fla., April 27.—(AP)—A bronze tablet now marks the spot where nearly 300 years ago Franciscan priests taught the word of God among warring Indians. It is located near New Smyrna, Fla.

They, the priests taught Indian boys and girls their Catechism, baptized them, received their confessions, married them and officiated at the last rites for the dead.

GOLFERS PURCHASE CHURCH WINDOWS

Willesley, Eng., April 27.—(AP)—Stained glass windows containing figures of golfers and a view of the local golf links are in the church of St. Nicholas.

The Rev. A. E. Doscamp for two years has held a short early service each Sunday for golfers to attend so that they could then go on the links for their game. This has been so appreciated by players that they subscribed for and had the windows put in.

PARADISE OF SLUGGER WENT WITH SALT LAKE TRANSFER

New York, April 27.—(AP)—The paradise of the slugger passed out of organized baseball with the removal of Salt Lake City's franchise in the Pacific Coast League to Hollywood, Cal.

The rarified atmosphere of the Utah capital offering less resistance to hit balls than localities nearer the sea level, was conducive to prolific extra base hitting, while pitchers, at the same time, complained that it was almost impossible to get a good "break" on a fast curve ball. Short fences and the lively ball also were contributory to long ball hitting, declared Dick Sox of the Robins, who formerly played in the coast league for Portland.

C. E. CONVENTION CLOSED SUNDAY

Miss Geneva Exum is Elected President of the Northeastern Christian Endeavorers; Convention a Great Success

The Northeastern Christian Endeavor Convention closed on Sunday afternoon, after a two-day convention. The convention was greatly enjoyed by a large number of people.

Among the speakers were: Dr. R. H. Wright, of the Teachers College, who made a very interesting and inspiring address on Saturday night. Rev. John Barclay, pastor of Wilson Christian church, made a fine address on "Unity," which was the convention theme. Rev. W. S. Harden, pastor of Greenville Presbyterian church, spoke to the Juniors and led the devotional on Sunday afternoon. He stressed the importance of keeping our C. E. pledge in a clear-cut way. Mrs. Agnes Settle spoke to the Juniors as well as the old groups, in beautiful words, about the Book of Books. Mrs. W. S. Harden told the Juniors in a very enjoyable manner, why she believed in Junior C. E. Miss Bettie Mag. Potter made some very helpful suggestions for successful socials. Miss Lucy Crisp, State and District Intermediate Superintendent, spoke on the importance of having every teenage boy and girl in C. E. Miss Novella Exum and her Juniors of this district, gave a very enjoyable hour to the older group on Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Gordon and the Farmville Juniors gave a little playlet; while the Goldsboro Endeavorers gave special music and Bible work. Mr. M. L. Pepper, Superintendent of Publication and Publicity for the State, president of the Western District, and a state-wide Christian Endeavor worker, did much to make the convention a success. He spoke on several subjects; helping the Endeavorers to solve problems, and gave suggestions for future work. Mr. Pepper won the hearts of the Junior convention with his jokes, for he understood children and gave them fun as well as a very enjoyable talk. The Endeavorers owe a great deal to the speakers for the success of their convention.

Illinois Coal Mines Give Up the Ghost

Coal City, Ill., Apr. 26.—(INS) Dejection now marks the sites of many former Illinois coal mines, which have vanished, leaving only piles of shale and weather-beaten upper structures to mark their former industry.

For twenty-five to forty years ago, the counties adjacent to this place fairly bristled with mines and teemed with activity. There were numerous shafts here and at Wilmington, Braidwood and other cities. One by one, they have been closed and with the order just received to suspend operation of the Coal City mine, the last of the bituminous shafts in Grundy county will pass into the discard. Ninety miners will be out of work as a result. A year ago the mine at South Wilmington also met with a similar fate, marking the closing of the last of the Will county mines. The lower scale paid to non-union miners in Kentucky made it impossible for the Illinois mines, paying union wages, to compete with the former, and lack of orders necessitated that the Illinois shafts close.

Mexico City, Apr. 27.—(AP)—The claim of the United States for indemnification for the killing of 16 American mining engineers by Villa bandits, in January 1926 has been decided adversely. Dr. Rodrigo Octavio, of Brazil, the neutral presiding judge of the Mexican American special claim commission and the Mexican member of the commission, ruled yesterday that Mexico was not liable to damages. The claim totaling $1,225,000 regarded as a test case for loss of various American lives in Mexico.

Treaty Creates Most Unfavorable Impression

Paris, Apr. 27.—(AP)—The Russo-German Treaty received in official form at the French Foreign Office this morning, created most unfavorable impressions. The Foreign Office experts will carefully examine the text before any decision is taken as to what steps may be necessary. It is said that Germany is likely to be asked to explain the apparent conflict between the terms of the treaty and the Article 16 in the League of Nations covenant before she is admitted to the League in September.

Major Darwin's Plan. Fad News From Peking. Why Oxford Loses. Shakespeare's Birth Day. By ARTHUR BRISBANE

Major Darwin, son of the great scientist, head of a British society that seeks to improve the human race by careful breeding, advocates for a long more than two children in poor families and forbidding children entirely among the unfit. The rich whose doctors tell them how to avoid having children, have few as a rule. But there is no need to worry about dearth of population. Some things Divine wisdom puts beyond man's reach. Major Darwin's plan for having poor families to two children would have kept Carlyle, Napoleon, Curcio and many as great out of the world.

Royalty and wealth have their best children at the beginning, while the husband is still interested in the wife. Poverty has its best children later in life, when the husband learns to respect the wife and relies upon her. The quality of the children, unlike that of race horses, and prize dogs, depends on the husband's affection for his wife and her respect for the father of her children.

Disagreeable news from Peking, yesterday Manchurian soldiers controlling the city, drive people from their homes, with unpleasant killing of men and attacks upon women. The three Changs, leading victorious invaders cannot control their soldiers, or don't take the trouble.

Pray that western Europe and both Americans may know how to keep out Asiatic invasion. Several times Asia came close to conquering and possessing Europe, when Mr. Hordes came afoot and on slow ponies. What they might do with flying machines if they had able leaders, even one man of commanding genius such as Genghis Khan, would not make pleasant reading in future history.

This country ought to have flying machine equipment for defense, but for some mysterious reason, appears unable to accomplish it. Fortunately Europe possesses all fleets. They might help poor Uncle Sam, burdened with his load of gold, and his sound-asleep statesmen, if the wags happens.

Yesterday in many places was celebrated Shakespeare's 362nd birthday, and that should comfort those who believe that children NOT sent to college miss their chance in life. Shakespeare's genius would not have survived a modern college course. That fortunately doesn't matter, because in this scientific and industrial age, no Shakespeare could possibly be born.

Such an education as Bacon had in Shakespeare's day, or as Milton had a little later, would have destroyed Shakespeare. It might have made him great in some other way, but there would have been no Shakespeare.

It is impossible to create genius with education, very easy to stunt or destroy it with over education or unwise education.

Oxford University failed miserably in all recent athletic contests, beaten in every event by Cambridge. Wise men decide that Oxford men, richer as a rule, use more automobiles and thus weaken their legs and lower their physical conditions. Something like that was said one hundred years ago, or earlier, when some Gro-Megon tribe began riding around on tame buffaloes. The same thing will be said more emphatically 100 years hence when everybody files for distances exceeding 50 miles. The people will then sigh for "good old automobile days when men got exercise."

Theodore Roosevelt, son of the original shock prohibitionists, by saying, "It is necessary to check murder, corruption and other evils that follow in the train of prohibition."

He wants the Volstead act repealed or modified, each state allowed to decide for itself what amount of alcohol is harmful. Mr. Roosevelt's attitude is that of many influential Americans. But there will probably be no important change in the drinking (Continued on page 6)

GERMANY PLANS NEW COME BACK OF TOY MAKING

Trade Treaties Concluded During 1925 Stimulated Exports and Manufacture

Washington, April 27.—(INS)—Germany's resourceful economic experts, in planning the campaign for re-capture of pre-war world markets, are devoting considerable attention to assisting the "come-back" of the toy industry, according to a report to the Department of Commerce from American Vice-Counsel F. van den Arend, at Leipzig.

"The German toy industry exerted every effort during 1925 to recover some of the trade lost in foreign markets since the inflation of the post-war period. In quantity, exports last year were 80 per cent of those in 1924 and 75 per cent of those in 1913. The average value, however, was higher.

The steady decline in volume of toy exports during recent years has been accompanied by a practically normal increase in relative values. Figures indicate the higher prices obtained for German toys in spite of keen competition abroad and weak demand at home. The higher prices were not due to the better quality article offered but to increased production costs brought about by a combination of high interest rates, heavier charges for raw materials and the impossibility of keeping factories operating to capacity. The better selling figures, however, were often insufficient to leave a profit, according to members of the German toy industry.

They asserted that owing to severe competition German toy manufacturers are facing throughout the world, it has frequently been necessary to sell at unprofitable prices in order to retain the trade.

Demand deposits were $574,055.59 and time on savings deposits were listed as $34,475.76.

Japan Forms News Agency Similar Associated Press

Tokyo, Apr. 27.—(AP)—Dissolution of Kokusa, Japan's national news agency, and the foundation of a new non-profit mutual news association similar to the Associated Press in America, was announced today following a meeting of representatives of the empire's largest vernacular newspapers.

The Japanese name of the new association is the Nippon Shimbun Rengo, which, translated into English, is "The Associated Press of Japan." Eight newspapers, having 75 per cent of the total newspaper circulation of Japan, compose the charter membership. Regarding the plans of the association, Director Iwanaga said: "We wish to follow as close as possible the policies of the Associated Press of America which undoubtedly is the greatest new, gathering organization today. Owing to the peculiar conditions in Japan, however, we can not hope for attainment of this ideal for some time to come. The newspapers of Japan are not always possible for commissions to be under the direction of the executive as in the case of the Interstate Commerce Commission, the view of the President, that wherever possible regulatory commissions should fall within the executive branch and not be set up as outside agencies.

Johnson, Supt. of Charities and Public Welfare Chairman; A. T. Allen, Supt. of Public Instruction; and Dr. Geo. M. Cooper, acting secretary of the State Board of Health.

House to Tackle Farm Relief Problem Within Few Days

Washington, April 27.—(AP)—An agreement reached after weeks of deliberation on only one point, that the farmer should be given relief in carrying his surplus crop burden, the House Agriculture committee today had completed the preliminary steps toward placing the question of how to put it squarely up to the House as a whole.

The House will tackle the problem later this week or early next week. Three different bills, none of which has majority endorsement from the committee, will provide the basis for its efforts to find a solution. Reports on the measure were prepared by Chairman Hangerman, Representative Tucker, Republican of Kansas, and Representative Aswell, Democrat of Louisiana, the leading proponents of the three differing viewpoints in the committee. Later under the procedure adopted by the committee the Hangerman bill will be called up on the floor with the others in order as substitutes. In this way opportunity will be given to vote on all three.

Three Killed in Traffic Accidents Charlotte Vicinity

Charlotte, April 27.—(AP)—Three persons were killed in traffic accidents in this vicinity yesterday. J. V. Sparrow, 42 of Shelby, and R. H. Sparrow, 65, of Gaston, were killed when a Southern passenger train struck their automobile in which they were riding near here. The Gastonia man, who had killed instantly, died a few hours later. COTTON IS NEW CROP IN TAMAUPLIPAS STATE

Mexico City, Apr. 26.—The State of Tamaulipas is to devote almost exclusively to the cultivation of cotton, following experiments with last year's crop. Two hundred tons of seed have been imported and planted this early. The soil and temperature is ideal and the crop matures rapidly. To date there has been little trouble with the boll weevil although this pest is supposed to have originated in Mexico.

SENATE APPROVES DEBT FUNDING AGREEMENTS

Ratifies the $6,000,000 Agreement With Latvia and Approves Estonia and Rumania Agreement

Washington, Apr. 27.—(AP)—With machine like regularity the Senate today put its stamp of approval on the debt funding agreements negotiated by the American Debt Commission.

After short debate it first ratified the $6,000,000 debt agreement with Latvia and then in short order it approved the $18,830,000 agreement with Estonia and the $4,494,310 settlement with Rumania.

Washington, Apr. 27.—(AP)—The Latvian debt settlement was approved by the Senate today after a debate of less than one and one-half hours. Ratifications was voted 50 to 18. The agreement now goes to President Coolidge and will come into force when he signs it.

Pres. Coolidge is Inclined to Favor House Radio Bill

Washington, Apr. 27.—(AP)—President Coolidge thinks the Government has about enough independent commissions. For this reason he is inclined to favor the House Radio Bill because it would provide that the control commission would be set up in connection with the Department of Commerce. The Senate's Bill would provide an independent commission and the President views as outlined today at the White House are that this would tend to perpetuate a system of independent commissions within the Government responsible to no one and in his opinion constituting in themselves the very essence of bureaucracy.

While not always possible for commissions to be under the direction of the executive as in the case of the Interstate Commerce Commission, the view of the President is that wherever possible regulatory commissions should fall within the executive branch and not be set up as outside agencies.

PICTURESQUE COURSE DRAWS MANY PLAYERS

Course Is Not Up to Standard in Every Way But Has Some Thrills Hard to Duplicate; People Attracted From Several Cities

Victoria, B. C., April 26.—(AP)—Built on the rocky coast of an arm of the Pacific ocean, where the strait of Juan de Fuca at the southeast end of Vancouver Island, lies a picturesque golf links, which has brought to Victoria, capital of British Columbia, a colony of residents of the United States and eastern Canada. This course is the home of the Victoria Golf club and is known as the Oak Bay links.

On the heights overlooking the links and the sea stands many vacation homes of persons attracted from New York, Boston, Quebec and other cities by the rugged yet peaceful view, the equable climate created by the Japan stream and this golf links.

The course is not up to standard for length, artificial hazards turf or clubhouse, but it has some thrills hard to duplicate. What it lacks in distance and bunkers, nature makes up by lavishing furnishings of rocky inlets, towering granite trees, a green tablet on a ledge that overhangs the ocean and gnarled cypress trees stunted by the salt breeze.

No death of distance in four holes, the first hole, which takes the player 510 yards without disclosing any of the marvels that are in store. And the second hole, 211 yards is even flatter than the opener, but the player soon works his way over to the fifth tee by way of parallel fairways and there the gorgeousness of the seaside confronts him.

This tee is on a high rock, jutting from the very ocean, and the golfer, facing the green, 278 yards away, sees before him a deep gorge of rock in which the briny water lashes the granite sides of the cove. The carry over the water is not long, but the mental hazard to the uninitiated is enormous. The rest of the hole is easy if the approach is not too strong for there is deep grass back of the green, set in the side of the hill.

Then comes the blindest blind hole in the world; for, after driving over a high hill, there is still no green to be seen, although the flag is only 100 yards from the tee. The player sees a vast expanse of sea over the edge of the heights on which he stands, and a flag staff close beside a sentinel rock to the right. A bold iron over the intervening rise, and the golfer is startled to find that his ball has dropped on the carpet, beyond which the plateau drops to the ocean far below.

Some cliff scaling takes the player to the seventh tee, carved from the side of the granite bluff, and 200 feet beneath him he sees, 208 yards away, the verdant green, right on the edge of a bluff that falls almost perpendicularly into the sea. Between the mountainous tee and the green are a series of jutting, jagged rocks.

The 118 yard eighth hole has its tee on a great rock which projects into the water, so that the player looks into the deep on three sides, at shoots inland to a terraced green. The short ninth is similar, and then the way winds back over the pinnacle, out on the plain and back to the highland, where he finds a new wonder.

The tee of the 174 yard thirteenth is among the tumbled boulders, and the shot is over a wall of granite to a hidden green. Here one must wait until the preceding players have sounded a large church bell, which means that the way is clear. If the player has skill and nerve, he lands on a pleasant green near the clubhouse; and, after clapping the bell for those who follow he is through with the convolutions of nature. The rest of the links is ordinary, but pleasing, two fairways running through a forest.

ASTOR DENIED MONROE, BUT HE DID IT DIPLOMATICALLY

New York, April 26.—(AP)—When John Jacob Astor of 1912 decided to dun former President James Monroe for an old loan, he delicately sandwiched his request between congratulations and best wishes.

This is revealed in an autographed Astor letter just sold by the American Art Galleries. Dated in this city, April 26, 1862, and addressed to Hon. James Monroe, the communication reads:

"Dear Sir: Permit me to congratulate you on your honorable retirement (from public life) in which I most sincerely wish you may enjoy that peace and tranquility to which you are so justly entitled.

"Without wishing to cause you any inconvenience on account of the loan which I so long since made you I would be glad if you would put in by a train of settlement if not whole lot if be a part with the interest due.

"I hope dear sir that you and Mrs. Monroe enjoy the best of health and that you may live years to witness the prosperity of the country to which you have so eminently contributed.

"I am most respectfully, dear sir, Your obed. Srv. J. Ja. Astor."

DEPENDABLE MERCHANDISE

Take CARDUI THE WOMAN'S TONIC

Columbus, Ga.—Mrs. George S. Hunter, of this city, writes: "After I married, thirteen months ago, I suffered with dreadful pains in my sides during... My side hurt so bad it nearly killed me. I had to go to bed and stay sometimes two weeks at a time. I could not work and I just dragged around the house. "I got very thin—I went from 126 pounds down to less than 100. My mother had long been a user of Cardui and she knew what a good medicine it was for this trouble, so she told me to get some and take it. I sent to the store after it and before I had taken the first bottle I began to improve. "My side hurt less and I began to improve in health... The Cardui acted as a fine tonic and I do not feel like the same person. I am so much better. I am well now. I have gained ten pounds and am still gaining. My sides do not trouble me at all. "I wish every suffering woman knew about Cardui." NC-100

MEXICO OPENS CAMPAIGN TO STOP POPPY GROWING
 Mexico City, Apr. 27.—(INS)—The State of Sonora, has launched a campaign to suppress the growth of the opium poppy, which has become widespread. This is one of the few states in which there is a large Chinese colonization. Investigation proved that every little colony, most of them in remote agricultural sections, had a poppy patch.

Not only was the opium produced for domestic consumption but in such quantities as to be sold all over the republic and smuggled into the States. Mexicans are cooperating and destroying every field located.

BELGIUM IS STUDYING PROGRAM FOR OPENING CONGO TO SEA TRADE
 Brussels, Apr. 26.—(INS)—Belgian engineers are studying the possibility of opening up the Belgian Congo to more intensive exploitation by transforming 150 miles of the Congo River into a navigable canal capable of handling 10,000-ton ocean going vessels.

From the ocean port of Matadi to the Stanley Pool the Congo would be transformed by means of a series of ten dams and locks. The entire cost, it is estimated, would be about $350,000,000. Hydroelectric plants would be installed at every dam furnishing 100,000 horse power of energy, which would eventually pay for the cost of the transformation.

The project is only about one-fifteenth as large as the building of the Panama Canal, but Belgian finances are not now in such a state as to insure immediate working out of the scheme.

BLUE LAW CHANGE PERMITS KENTUCKY SUNDAY BASEBALL
 Frankfort, Ky., Apr. 24.—(AP)—In Kentucky it is all right to knock the "kiver" off the base ball on Sunday nowadays.

The general assembly has lifted the age-old Sunday blue law restriction as to playing of baseball on the Sabbath. It did so over Governor Fields' veto, citing the Fourth Commandment: Kentucky's counterpart to the Commandment reads in part:

AMERICAN TOURISTS SPENT $1,200 EACH IN EUROPE IN 1925, FIGURES SHOW
 Washington, Apr. 27.—(AP)—American tourists visiting Europe in 1925 spent an average of $1,200, according to the Department of Commerce.

The total tourist expenditure was $660,000,000, including the expenses of Americans who reside abroad "more or less permanently."

During the year 356,155 American citizens left the country on business or pleasure trips, for countries other than Canada, an increase of 18 per cent from 1924.

Reports show that American tourists spent about $190,000,000 in Canada. Approximately 2,000,000 automobiles, carrying 5,000,000 persons, entered Canada from the United States last year.

"In 1925 there was a notable reduction in the minimum costs of steamship travel so that European tours were brought within the means of thousands of Americans who formerly could not afford them," the department said.

New Gang War On East Side; Eleven Killed
 New York, April 27.—(INS)—A new gang war hovers over the East Side and the members of the "Little Augie" and the "Kid Dropper" gangs are keeping fingers clutched on "rats."

Max Goldberg, lieutenant of the "Little Augie's," and a quick man with the gun himself, according to police, lies in his grave with a bullet through his brain, lured to his death by a girl's soft voice over the telephone. While Goldberg listened with a smile on his face, they shot him dead from the back.

Goldberg makes number eleven in the toll of killings between the two gangs and there will be more to come, according to police predictions. Those in the underworld "know" say that Goldberg was marked for death since Charlie Rosenhaus, the gambler, was murdered. Goldberg was arrested recently in connection with the kill-

THE WORTH OF A TOWN

Can we estimate the worth of a man by his size? Do the scales determine a man's value to society.

If a man developed a fifty pound tumor, would he boast of it? Some towns are foolish enough to boast of increasing population when the citizens added are a liability instead of an asset.

Towns ought to grow no faster than the new population can be assimilated. Of course, it is not impossible for the new population to be an improvement over the old—but this is not usual.

Hence if population is doubled by the addition of persons having a mere animal standard of life, the standards already attained by the previous worthy citizenship may be lost and the town go backward instead of forward.

Too often we think we are better off merely because men come to our town to buy groceries and dry goods and real estate. Why not give them something more than these very necessary things when they join us? Man has something more than a stomach.

We therefore will not cast envious eyes upon towns that are merely larger than our town, since a town, like a person, needs something besides size to make it worthy. Whether our town increases in population or not, it may surely be made to increase in real values, and it will, if our citizens care and plan and sacrifice.

MOVIE MEN MAKING SAHARA OF THEIR OWN

When Sahara Desert Was Needed for Filming Picture, Riffs Were Fighting; They "Roll Their Own"

Yuma, Ariz., April 27.—(AP)—Riffs can go on with their war undisturbed as the motion picture industry does not need their Sahara desert. It is building one of its own in Arizona.

While the result of their handiwork will not be a bigger, it will be a better Sahara, say the movie property men who are laying out the trackless vistas in the glaring sands along the Mexican border.

The desert was needed for the filming of "Ben Hur," a story of the French foreign legion. The scenario called for a location on the African desert but troubled with the Riffs made the cooperation of the French government impossible, so it was decided to lay out a desert nearer home.

Conformation of the land on the Arizona sand stretches is similar to that of the Sahara. The sand white fine, is of a reddish color and photographs better than that of the African desert. The glaring whiteness of which makes trouble for the cameraman. A hundred men of the producers property staff went to work building a wooden branch road from the main plank highway leading from Imperial Valley, California, and constructing a large fort. Materials were hauled to the end of the plank road, then shot down a chute over a 500-foot dune to the valley below, then across country for two miles.

When the company is on location it becomes a camp of 1,000 men.

Women were barred, even the nurses in the emergency hospital being men. Five hundred horses, many of them Arabians, were shipped from the movie capital to the desert sites.

"A SOCIAL CELEBRITY" AT WHITE'S THEATRE

Some years ago, Chester Conklin and Gloria Swanson played together in a Mack Sennett comedy under the direction of Clarence Badger. Though none of the three knew it at the time, that opus marked their last appearance together under the comedy king's banner. Thereafter, though the players and Mr. Badger continued in their chosen work, the trio's paths did not again converge.

History tells us that Gloria Swanson became a featured player in Paramount productions and subsequently, a star in her own right. Chester Conklin stayed with Sennett for a time; later made two-reel laugh hits for another producer; and eventually, he too, graduated from short subjects to feature film; appearing in "Greed," "Pola Negri," "A Woman of the World," and Marshall Neilan's "The Great Love." Badger is now a Paramount director.

"A Social Celebrity," which comes to White's Theatre, Thursday, and, Chester Conklin playing the part of an old barber in a little village. Mr. Menjou is seen as his son. The cast also includes Louise Brooks.

PRISON LABOR TO BE LINKED WITH OUTSIDE INDUSTRY

The subject from the industrial standpoint is still under study at the Department of Commerce.

In connection with the attention which the Department of Justice is giving the subject of prison labor in participation or development of a program of diversified industries in Federal prisons, the Bureau of Efficiency has been requested to co-operate with the prison division in an effort to determine what products of standard type in continuous demand in the various governmental departments could be made in Federal prisons to the advantage of both the Government and the prisoners.

Sargent said: "It is contemplated not only securing an analysis of the present

Washington, April 26.—Steps to convert the American Federal prison system into an important link of the industrial machine of the country are being taken by Attorney General Sargent.

"The extent to which the Federal prison authorities will be able to develop new and diversified productive industries, however, depends upon action by Congress in providing the requisite funds for such purpose," Sargent explained.

The Government is confronted by two conflicting phases of this project. Industries employing free labor have protested to Secretary of Commerce Hoover and to the

At present the activities in Federal prisons are chiefly confined to farming and to the production of certain textiles in the mill at Atlanta prison. Installation is in progress of a modern shoe shop at Leavenworth penitentiary. The productive operations in the Federal prisons are conducted solely on the "state's use" plan, which means the production only of commodities which may be utilized in government institution, as well as in the prisons, and not commodities which enter into competition with free labor made goods in the open market.

The Atlanta prison mill, which employs 700 men, produces about 4,000,000 yards of textiles a year, the bulk being heavy duck or light canvass made for the Post Office Department. The navy and coast guard use some of these products.

ONE 1c SALE

WHAT IS A ONE-CENT SALE?

It is a sale where you buy an item at the regular price, then another item of the same kind for one cent. As an illustration: The standard price of Klezno Dental Creme is 50c; you buy a tube at this price and by paying 1 cent more, or 51 cents, you get two tubes. Every article in this sale is a high class standard piece of merchandise, just the same as is sold everyday at the regular price.

A PROFIT-SHARING METHOD OF ADVERTISING

This sale was developed by the United Drug Co., as an advertising plan. Rather than spend large sums of money in other ways to convince you of the merit of these goods, they are spending it on this sale in permitting us to sell you a full size package of high standard merchandise for 1 cent. It costs money to get new customers, but the sacrifice in profit is justified, as we know the goods will please you.

Gossip of Staff Correspondents at World Centers of Population.

London, Apr. 27.—(INS)—The largest gathering of foreign royalties that London has seen for many years will be present at the first Royal Court of the season at Buckingham Palace.

Princess Astrid of Sweden, whose name rumor is still persistently connecting with that of the Prince of Wales, will be one of the first to arrive. Then will come the Infanta Beatrice, eldest daughter of the King and Queen of Spain, with her younger sister.

The Infanta, who is 17 years old and very beautiful, will probably be accompanied by both her parents, and will be the guest of her grandmother, Princess Beatrice, at Kensington Palace. While he is in England, King Alfonso is expected to play a good deal of polo.

Fashion has come up against a formidable barrier at this year's Courts in regard to the length of skirts to be worn. The official length of skirts for wear at the Court is now from four to five inches from the ground, and this length has Queen Mary's approval for these functions.

Although eighteen inches from the ground is a common length for ordinary wear, some of the principal dressmakers are advocating Court dresses, which will be about eight to nine inches from the ground, and has voiced this opinion to the Lord Chamberlain, whose department has sole charge of all Court functions.

The Lord Chamberlain's department, however, is adamant, and has intimated that it considers that enough consideration has already been shown to present fashions—especially as train, have now been decreased in length from four yards to eighteen inches.

As a result of a series of experiments conducted at the famous Lister Institute, it is hoped that in the near future young children may be rendered immune from tuberculosis by the use of vaccine.

The experiments, it is announced, show conclusively that it is possible to give active immunity to animals against a virulent dose of tubercle bacilli.

Rabbit, and guinea pigs were given protective doses of vaccine, which had been prepared from human cultures, states Dr. Nathan Raw in the British Medical Journal. After two protective doses the animals were given some virulent bovine bacilli.

The protected animal, gained weight and thrived, says Dr. Raw, while the unprotected ones died. Postmortems by Dr. Raw and Dr. Schutze found no trace of tubercle in any of the organs of the inoculated animals.

"It seems probable that children may be protected against infection in the household," writes Dr. Raw, "but some years must elapse before this can be finally established. All children over the age of one year who are living in the house with a tuberculous member of the family ought to be protected, if possible, against infection. It is the early years of life that such infection usually occurs."

Mr. Ed Stuart, of Washington, a worker among the Presbyterian young people and a fine lawyer, state-wide known for his ability as a speaker, made a fine address on Sunday afternoon. He gave to the young people beautiful word pictures to carry in their hearts. His talk was strong, clear and inspiring to the young people to take the Golden Rule as their motto.

Dr. Albert R. H. Miller preached the convention sermon and installed the new officers on Sunday.

The officers for the ensuing year are: President, Miss Geneva Exum, Greenville; Vice-President, Miss Ruth Bowen, Plymouth; Secretary, Miss Ella Fleming, Greenville; Treasurer, Mr. Otto Nixon, Goldsboro; Supt. of Tenth Legion and Missions, Mr. Joe Wilkinson, Washington; Supt. SYMPHONIC MUSIC LURES THE PUBLIC TO N. Y. MUSEUM

Results Are Good When Metropolitan Museum Combines Music With the Plastic Arts to Create More Interest in Its Exhibits

New York, April 27.—(AP)—The Metropolitan Museum has combined music with the plastic arts to create more interest in its exhibits—and is getting good results.

Within a setting of paintings, sculptures and many other treasures, which have come down through the ages to find themselves displayed in massive galleries, weekly symphonic concerts were given.

At first, the crowds, some of which reached ten thousand persons, did not remain after the music had finished. But soon officials saw their theory was correct. Gradually the number of persons staying to visit the exhibits became larger until today the concerts are regarded as a permanent feature of the museum.

The idea developed after the first concert had been given during the war for soldiers, sailors and marines. David Mannes, the conductor then, continues in charge of the music, provided for through gifts by E. S. Harkness, Henry Walters, the Juilliard Musical Foundation, John D. Rockefeller, Jr., and others.

The orchestra takes its place in the gallery facing the Fifth Avenue entrance. Hundreds of chairs are placed here, but as the strains of old music masters permeate the large building, the musicians are not visible to all, for many listeners seek their favorite surroundings in the numerous wings.

BRITISH TENNIS CRAZE REACHES NEW HEIGHTS

Wimbledon, Eng., Apr. 26.—(INS)—Britain is going "tennis crazy."

Experts predict that the lawn-tennis craze will reach unparalleled heights in Britain this year. Aided by the great publicity given to the Wil's-Lengien match on the Riviera recently, it threatens to oust cricket as the national sport of the country.

Thousands of additional lawn-tennis courts are being laid out in and around London alone, while much of the grass space in the public parks of the principal cities is being devoted to the game.

On the courts of the London County Council alone last year there were 11,500,000 games of lawn-tennis played. This year the accommodation is to be doubled.

In the "governors' crypt" of the Invalides there are vacant cells for thirty-nine bodies, sufficient for all the most important French war generals.
