GENERAL STRIKE IN ENGLAND CALLED OFF

Dirigible Norge Flew Over North Pole Early Today

MUCH INTEREST IS BEING MANIFESTED
REVIVAL SERVICES

Rev. E. L. Hillman
Delivered a Strong
Sermon in Methodist Church Last Night
On "Prayer"

The revival services which are in progress in the Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church continue to attract attention and are being largely attended. Rev. E. L. Hillman, who arrived Monday to conduct the services, preached a strong sermon last night on "Prayer," and Mr. J. C. Coston, who is conducting the song services, sang, "The Garden of Prayer."

The subject "Prayer," was ably discussed by Mr. Hillman. He told of the great advantage in being able to ask Jesus for His help and guidance, and of having Jesus teach him. The power of prayer to root out our troubles is a great power. God wants a person who will be dedicated to Him. Mr. Hillman at this point, declared that one of the greatest troubles with the churches today was that the members aren't doing their duty. People should pray all the time, and not wait until distress and trouble comes.

The sermon was greatly enjoyed. The large audience felt better for having heard such a wonderful discourse on such a beautiful subject.

This morning Mr. Hillman preached on the subject "The Unlifted Lord," taking his text from 12th chapter of St. John, "And I, if I be lifted up from the earth will draw all men unto Me." The speaker compared Jesus with other great men of the earth and declared no other man but Jesus could get by with the claim of the text. He was lifted up, and by being lifted up. He drew all men unto Him. Since Christ has been the objective in the lives of men, the Kingdom of Christ has been enlarged by the millions. Every person has an objective. If you hold Him up—He is going to win the world.

Much interest is being manifested in the morning services.

The public is cordially invited to take a part in the services. Come and bring a friend.

ANTI-EVOLUTION LEAGUE
GRANTED CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION

Raleigh, May 12.—(AP)—Certificate of incorporation was issued from the office of the Secretary of State today to the Anti-Evolution League of North Carolina with headquarters at Charlotte. This charter is unusual and so far as is known no charter for an organization of this type has ever been issued before in this state.

The corporation is non stock and the incorporators are John R. Eppitt, of Concord, I. W. Durham and H. G. Goods, of Charlotte.

LITTLE TIME DEVOTED EVOLUTION SOUTHERN BAPTIST CONVENTION

Houston, Tex., May 12.—(AP)—Little time was devoted to the question of evolution in the Southern Baptist Convention here today.

"This convention accepts Genesis," the declaration of principals of the convention said, "as teaching that man was the special creation of God and rejects every theory of evolution, or otherwise, which teaches that man originated in, or came by way of a lower ancestry."

GIANT AIRSHIP MAKES A SUCCESSFUL FLIGHT
OVER 'TOP OF WORLD'

Second Air Craft in History to Fly Over
North Pole On Its Way to Landing
Field in Nome

Oslo, Norway, May 12.—(AP)—The dirigible Norge passed over the North Pole early this morning. Flying conditions were reported to be excellent.

The airship Norge, second aircraft in history to fly over the North Pole, was on its way to a landing field in Nome, Alaska today.

The great balloon duplicated within three days the feat of the airplane commanded by Lieut. Commander Richard E. Byrd, with the difference that Commander Byrd returned to Kings Bay, Spitzbergen, in a 1600 mile non-stop flight while the Norge continued a 2,750 mile journey toward Nome. Rival Amundsen, commander of the third expedition, to reach the North Pole and the first human being to reach the South Pole, wired yesterday to the Norwegian Consul at Nome to have 100 men ready to lower the dirigible. He said he would keep Consul Lomen advised of progress by radio.

The Norge left Spitzbergen at 10 A. M., Norwegian time, or 4 A. M. Eastern Standard Time, Tuesday, and sailed over the pole with the 17 members of its crew at one A. M. today, Norwegian time, or seven o'clock last night Eastern Standard Time. The news reached the New York Times and the St. Louis Globe Democrat by radio, in the first message ever received from the North Pole.

The 2,750 mile journey was in the Land of the Midnight Sun making it a daylight trip throughout. After passing the pole the Norge headed for an unexplored area estimated at 1,000,000 square miles and never visited by man. Explorers of the path believe they have found evidence of land in this area. This last geographical mystery of the globe stretches from North of Alaska to the Pole. It is practically the last lure left to explorers who wish to determine whether there is anything but ice-garbled rock and barren waste such as fringe the Polar sea in which it lies. The Norge traveled at approximately 50 miles an hour and it was estimated that if she kept this pace she would reach Point Barrow enroute to Nome at ten o'clock tonight Eastern Standard Time.

London, May 12.—(AP)—An exchange of telegraph dispatches from Oslo, says that when the Amundsen-Ellsworth dirigible Norge passed over the North Pole, she dropped the American Norwegian and Italian flags.

CHANGES OF HAUGEN
FARM RELIEF BILL
AGREED UPON TODAY

Washington, May 12.—(AP)—Important changes in the Haugen Farm Relief Bill including reduction of the price of stabilization appropriation from $375,000,000 to $175,000,000 were agreed upon today by the supporters of the measure.

U. S. DISCIPLINE FOR AIR MAIL EMPLOYEES

Washington, May 12.—(INS)—Uncle Sam will exercise as strict discipline over his air mail service as over any other branch of the Post Office Department, it was indicated when the Senate passed a bill authorizing the Postmaster General to make deductions and assess "fines" whenever air mail contractors "fall down" on their jobs.

A Troubled World.
Over the Pole.
Three Useful Men.
Hint for Vincent Astor.
By ARTHUR BRISBANE

It is a troubled world—look at today's news. Americans are fortunate in their prosperity and safety.

The French killed many in Damascus—REBELS, they are called, because they won't submit to foreign rule.

Spaniards and French, fighting desperately against the Rifis, said to be in flight over the Sandhills of north Africa. Those hills belong to the Rifis, but Europe wants obedience there.

Rebels in Nicaragua seize coast towns, revolution there, American marines have pacified things somewhat.

The Belgian cabinet is out and the king must ask Emile Brunet, socialist, to head the government. Hard on the king, it would scare high finance to death in this country. But they are used to it in Europe, where half the statesmanship belongs to the socialist party.

Then consider little things.

Theodore Kappel, San Francisco janitor, tired of poverty and hard work, rented a fine room, hung the walls with velvet, spread a handsome yellow silk curtain over the bed, bought and wore a "full dress" suit, representing his idea of luxury, arranged tall candles around his bed, turned on the gas and died.

At about the same time Tom Murray, a desperado who killed two guards in an effort to escape from prison, hanged himself in his cell. So goes the world. Be grateful if you have no serious worries.

Pearl, American, was first of our era to REACH the North Pole. For years he tried, spent months locked in the ice, crawling over the snow, dragged by dogs.

Commander Byrd, America, is the first that ever FLEW over the Pole, making the trip in a few hours, driven by the power of gasoline hidden in the earth millions of years ago. Good credit should go to Fokker, who manufactured the airplane that carried him.

More important than flying over the pole is PROGRESS as shown in the change from dog sled to flying machine.

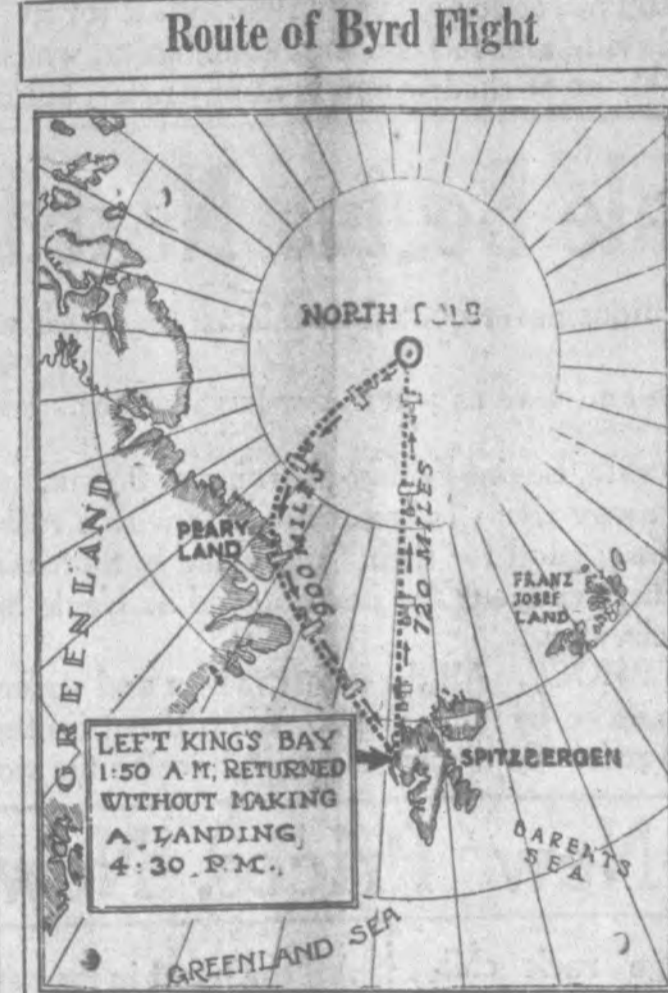

In a few years anybody that chooses to sail through cold air may look down upon APPROXIMATELY the place where the North Pole is Commander Byrd could not within twenty miles locate the pole exactly.

Many semi-human beings have been there before him, in past geological eras, when another spot on earth was the North Pole, and another star, the "Polar Star."

This winging, shifting earth, turns round before the sun like a spilt bowl before the fire changes its position and its "poles" through the ages. Men have lived here five hundred thousand years, at least, and have seen many a shift. Naked savages, probably hunted tiger like animals on the spot that we now call the North Pole.

But an American was first to fly over the frozen pole of today. That is something.

This paragraph helps us to realize what the flying machine will mean to transportation. "Byrd" intended to return by way of Peary.—(Continued on page 6)

This diagram shows how Commander Richard E. Byrd of the U. S. Navy placed the Stars and Stripes at the North Pole for the second time in history, dropping the emblem from a plane which took him and his pilot from Kings Bay, Spitzbergen, to the Pole and back again in fourteen hours and forty minutes.

'SUBURBAN DAY' A GREAT SUCCESS

Initial Event of Special Selling Days
Attracts Large Crowds to the City

"Suburban Day," the initial event of special selling days which will be sponsored by the Merchants Association during the summer months, was staged here yesterday with twelve members of the association participating. The day was a great success and predicted great things for the future.

Due to the fact that people throughout the rural districts are busy, having been delayed in the planting of their crops, a large number were prevented from taking advantage of the wonderful bargains, but nevertheless, the rural districts were well represented. Scores of people from adjoining towns and counties were here, and were well pleased with the city, its merchants and the splendid bargains which they found.

"Suburban Day" was extensively advertised and attracted people to Greenville who had never been here before.

DISCOVER PLOT TO RESTORE THE KAISER TO GERMAN THRONE

Berlin, May 12.—(AP)—The discovery of detailed plans for the establishment of a German Fascist dictatorship whose object was the "restoration of the Hohenzollern Empire in renewed splendor" was announced by the police today.

Continuing police raids on the homes of alleged German Fascist leaders, the police reported that they had unearthed a mass of documents which included a detailed plan for an attack on Berlin. While the police were questioning numerous political leaders of the alleged plot in an effort to get to the bottom of it, they said they regarded it as merely a dream worked out on paper.

MR. J. R. JOHNSTON DIED LAST NIGHT

Prominent Citizen of Winterville Speculates to Complications Following Influenza;

Mr. James R. Johnston, 64, prominent citizen of Winterville, died last night at eleven o'clock at his home, from complications following influenza. Funeral services will be conducted from St. Luke's Episcopal church, Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock with interment following in the Winterville cemetery. Services at the grave will be conducted by the Masons and Red Men.

Mr. Johnston was born on September 9, 1861, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Johnston, of Ayden township. He was one of Winterville's best known and most beloved citizens, and was held in high esteem in religious, business and fraternal circles. He was a devoted member of the St. Luke's Episcopal church and a loyal member of the Masonic and Red Men fraternal orders. For a number of years he had been in the Government's employ as rural mail carrier, and had the distinction of serving in this capacity longer than any present carrier in the county. He was a true friend, a devoted husband and father, and possessed a strong Christian character. Mr. Johnston will be greatly missed by people throughout his community, and his family has the sympathy of a host of friends in their bereavement.

The deceased is survived by his wife, three daughters, Mrs. H. D. McLawhorn, Kinston; Mrs. G. H. Cox, Robersonville, and Mrs. R. W. Smithwick, Louisville; five sons, Gordon W. and Hardy Johnston, of Fountain; J. R. Johnston, Wilmington; Charles C. and Willis Johnston, Winterville; two sisters, Mrs. Charles Rountree, Greenville; and Mrs. Kate Powell, Goldsboro; two brothers, Dr. Hardy Johnston, Pink Hill; and C. K. Johnston, Richmond, Va.

LUTHER'S CABINET RESIGNED TODAY

Berlin, May 12.—(AP)—Chancellor Luther's Cabinet resigned today. The expected resignation followed a vote of non-confidence in the Government which was given in the Reichstag today.

President Von Hindenburg accepted the cabinet resignation but asked it to carry on for the present.

Two Stills Were Captured Tuesday
Pactolus Township

Constable H. D. Savage, of this city, and W. B. Paramore, of Grimesland, on yesterday afternoon visited Pactolus township and captured two 65-gallon copper stills, and destroyed 400 gallons of beer.

The stills were located back of the Jule Fleming farm. One was cold, but the other showed signs of recent operation.

Presents Evidence
Support Charges Against Meekins

Washington, May 12.—(AP)—Evidence to support his petition for impeachment of Federal Judge Isaac M. Meekins, of North Carolina, was presented by Daniel Hickey, former employee of the Interstate Revenue Bureau at a closing session of the House Judiciary sub committee today.

Hickey was given this recognition after nearly two years of action seeking the removal of the jurist who was counsel for the Allen Property Custodian, when Thomas M. Miller, now under indictment in New York, held that office. No action was taken on a petition sent to the Judiciary Committee last year, but an identical communication addressed last week to the speaker of the House was referred to the Judiciary Committee for action and subsequent support to the House. All of the allegations in the affidavit relate to Meekins' activities before going to the bench with the argument that a man "guilty of such actions is not fit" to try others for similar offenses.

The affidavit accused Meekins of acting as "tax fixer" in adjustments in filing of returns through "influence with David H. Blair, Commissioner of Internal Revenue and other leaders" and of having voting interest in a chemical company when reconsideration of a decision reacted to the benefit of that company.

Further congressional action is contingent upon the sub committee's report on today's hearing.

Y. M. C. A. CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY AMONG CZECHS

Berlin, May 12.—(INS)—The fifth anniversary of the establishment of the Y. M. C. A. in Czechoslovakia was celebrated this month by a huge meeting at which most of the government officials were present. The American body first began work among the Czechs with the Czechoslovakian legions in Siberia and has continued it within the confines of the country since the Peace Treaty became effective.

The Y. M. C. A. now has premises in nine towns in addition to the capital and operates two holiday camps.

Trade Union Leaders
At Noon Today
Advised Premier Baldwin
That the General Strike Was Off

London, May 12.—(AP)—The Great Britain general strike was called off today. The leaders of the Trades Union, which initiated the movement in sympathy with the striking miners, visited Premier Baldwin and his cabinet ministers at noon and announced that the strike was off.

This action was taken, Chairman Arthur Pugh said, in order to enable resumption of the movement in sympathy with the miners' grievances, which negotiations the Government had declared could not be resumed while the general strike lasted. The Trades Union Congress dispatched telegram, to the effect to the affiliated Unions throughout the country. The individual Union must await definite instructions from their own executive council. However, it is expected the Trade Union Congress' instruction will have quick effect and that the resumption of industry which were stilled a week ago last Monday, midnight, will begin to turn again almost immediately.

Almost as soon as the decision was made known to the cabinet it was flashed throughout the country by radio to an anxious public which had been informed earlier that peace negotiations might take place.

The London hotels and restaurant, announcement of the news was received with cheers and handclapping and when an orchestra on the radio struck up "God Save the King" thousands throughout the country sprang to their feet and stood at attention.

Sir Herbert Samuel as chairman of the Royal Commission which made the report on the British coal industry, about which the general strike centered, was the natural go-between in the settlement of the strike. His memorandum, which the general committee of the Trade Union Congress accepted as a basis for calling off the general strike and resuming negotiations on the coal controversy, containing the following points:

1. The coal subsidy to be renewed for such time as may be required.
2. Creation of a national wage board including representatives of the miners, mine owners, and neutrals with an independent chairman to revise the miners' wages.
3. It is understood there shall be no revision of the previous wages without sufficient assurances that reorganization of the coal industry as proposed by the Royal Commission shall be executed.
4. A committee to be named by the Government with representation of the miners shall prepare legislative and executive measures necessary to effect reconstruction of the coal industry.

It is authoritatively stated that the termination of the general strike was absolutely unconditional. It is understood that neither the miners' attitude nor the affect upon the miners' strike was mentioned in the 30 minute interview between the general council of the Trades Union Congress and the Cabinet today.

SHIP WITH CARGO LIQUOR HELD ON CHARGE PIRACY

Steamer Donnetta Is Captured With $1-500,000 Cargo of Liquor; Believed to Be Connected With Bootleg Ring

New York, May 12.—(AP)—23 sailors brought into port "roaring drunk and obstreperous" none of whom admitted he was an officer, today were held on the steamer Donnetta with a $1,500,000 liquor cargo, accused of piracy.

Another ship, the Atlanta, described as a 50-foot power boat with an armored super structure, was free today after a pitched battle last night near Atlantic City with patrol boat 113. The Donnetta was captured Monday night by the Coast Guard Cutter Seneca, and brought into New York last night where it was anchored by the Statute of Liberty and the hatches sealed. Coast guardsmen called it the biggest prohibition prize captured in two years and expressed the belief it was connected with a bootleg ring of Port Chester, N. Y.

The ship flew the American flag, but no ship papers nor officers' credentials were found on it, which brings it under a technical classification of piracy, guardsmen said. Commander Blake of the Seneca, said that when he pulled alongside the Donnetta at sea he got a gigantic whiff of alcoholic contents which would have staggered a theatre crowd. When he boarded the vessel he said champagne was flowing freely and members of the crew were on deck drinking it from pitchers.

JAZZ GETS BLAME FOR PRAGUE DIVORCE RECORD

Prague, May 12.—(INS)—Jazz has played a sorry part in the life of Prague.

It has been the cause of thirty divorces among a people who rarely ever take their domestic troubles to this extreme. The recent session of the court had to take up about forty cases, a record for this old city, and in thirty of the cases the reason given was that one member of the alliance fell into evil ways because of the whirl of modern life.

and development of the American nation commingled with characterizations of those personalities significant in the basic principles of our nationality. These personalities are: Samuel Adams and Benjamin Franklin, "Forerunners of the Nation"; George Washington, "Father of His Country"; Alexander Hamilton and James Madison, "Master Builders"; Thomas Jefferson, "The Democratic Spirit"; John Marshall, Daniel Webster, and Andrew Jackson, "Welders of the Nation in Law and in Public Opinion"; Abraham Lincoln, "Defender and Preserver of National Unity and Peace."

"The Changing Chinese," by Edward Alsworth Ross, is an authoritative interpretation of the Chinese people. It is unusually interesting both for the general reader and for the student.

In "My Diplomatic Education" Norval Richardson gives a thoroughly readable account of seven years experience in diplomatic adventures in Havana, Copenhagen, Santiago, Lisbon and Rome, in the latter of which he spent seven years during the war time and peace conference. Mr. Richardson being an intelligent observer, a trained novelist and having a keen sense of humor, combines in an unusual degree, information, literary quality, humor and above all, reader's interest in his book on Diplomatic Education.

Nicholas Murray Butler again arouses our Americanism in his "Is America Worth Saving?" by discussing many current subjects such as labor problems, high cost of living, durable peace, league of nations, higher education. He presents these questions in the light of an historical background which is an essential aid in the solution of current problems.

ENGLAND NEEDS FINANCIAL BOSS TO HOLD PURSE

Treasury Deficit Indicates Need of Dictator to Take Charge of Money

London, May 11—(INS)—The rising tide of governmental expenditure, coupled with a treasury deficit which may have to be met by increased taxation, is leading to the possibility of the appointment of a financial dictator to take charge of the public purse for the next decade.

As such a scheme would be calculated to deprive Parliament of all control of the national finances, and would involve sweeping changes in the constitutional structure, it has only the smallest chance of being put into effect, but that the suggestion should be made at all indicates the acuteness of the problem confronting the Government. Europe has had many dictators, both political and economic, since the war, and their success has aroused admiration in England among persons who have lost confidence in the ability of the parliamentary system to deal effectively with post-war problems of finance and administration.

Two examples are constantly before English men of affairs—that has proven itself practically helpless in handling the national finances while the country slides slowly toward bankruptcy, and that of Italy, where a dictatorship and the virtual suppression of parliamentary government has resulted in the restoration of the national credit and an apparent ability and determination to pay external debts.

Among British business leaders who believe that this country should draw a valuable lesson from the French situation is Viscount Incheape, the banker and shipping magnate. To keep Great Britain from going the way of France, Lord Incheape would entrust national finances to a dictator of the Mussolini type taking the power away from the House of Commons.

"We are groaning under heavy taxation," he declares, "the bulk of which is the result of the deficit we incurred during the war. Most of us think that our expenditure should be reduced materially to enable us to get back within a reasonable period to something like what it was in 1914. But many members of the House of Commons appear to be like the Deputies in France. They won't back the Government in their attempts at economy. They seem to think more of the votes of their constituents than of the good of the country.

England, almost as much as France, wants a Mussolini to put his foot down and stop all expenditure except what is absolutely necessary for defense, justice and economical administration for the next ten years."

Concerning France, Lord Incheape says that national bankruptcy is inevitable unless the country can pull itself together and face stern economic facts.

Flammarion's Widow Is Named as Director of Juvisy Astronomy

Paris, May 12.—(INS)—Madame Gabrielle Flammarion, the young widow of the noted French astronomer, has just succeeded her late husband as director of the Juvisy Observatory, chief of the three in France which are devoted to physical astronomy, and has been elected General Secretary of the Societe Astronomique de France, founded and administered by Camille Flammarion until his death at the age of 83. Already the collaborator with him in much of his published work that bears his name, she will now undertake the task of publishing his posthumous volumes, ten in all.

Gabrielle Renaudot is the daughter of Maria Latini, the lovely Roman who was the original of Henri Reynault's painting of "Salome" in the Metropolitan Museum of New York. She is a direct descendant of Theophrastus Renaudot who fathered French journalism under Louis XIII and founded the famous institution of the State Paw Shops, called "Tante Marie," Aunt Mary, in France.

Early in her youth she found that science was her calling. The great astronomer became her advisor when she became an orphan and, at the age of eighteen she became his secretary. The war separated the two scientists for Mlle. Gabrielle became a naval nurse, and was severely wounded, later receiving the silver medal of honor, and Flammarion himself, did his share.

In the year 1919 Gabrielle Renaudot and the great astronomer were married, continuing the work in which they first collaborated twenty years before.

Wealthiest Woman May Wed

Mrs. Horace E. Dodge, widow of the automobile manufacturer, said to be the wealthiest woman in the United States refused to comment upon reports that she intends to marry Hugh Dillman, actor, and divorced husband of Marjorie Rambeau, actress. Mrs. Dodge recently spent $3,000,000 for a home at Palm Beach, where the above photo with Dillman was taken at a masquerade ball.

MRS ALEX BLOW ENTERTAINS BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. Alex Blow was hostess on Tuesday evening to the members of her duplicate bridge club. The home was decorated with spring flowers.

Mrs. W. M. Scales, making the tap score, was presented attractive candlesticks and holders.

Following the game the hostess served a salad course.

LIBRARY NEWS

Our Slogan: "Let the Library Serve Greenville"

Library Hours—2 to 6 P. M. and 7 to 9:30 P. M.

We are giving our entire space to the International Mind Above again, this week and we shall continue until all the books have been given an introduction to our readers. We are greatly pleased in the way the people are using these books, both by some as reference material in writing papers and by others as a source for general reading of world interest. In all the reviews, given we confine ourselves to the condensed review sent with each book.

"The Arab at Home," by Paul W. Harrison, M.D., is a description of the Bedouin of the desert—the lean, indefatigable nomad with the eyes of a falcon, proud, hungry, and indescribably dirty. There is also a description of the dwellers in the oases and move favored spots, and the pearl divers of the West Coast. Dr. Harrison describes the various tribes at home, in the market place, in the mosque, or out with the hot, dusty caravan. He reviews each scene with sympathetic eyes and is broadly tolerant even of their vices. He shows that the Arabians are a logical product of their environment and upbringing. His style is easy and untrifling, with many humorous anecdotes. The Arab at Home is a valuable contribution to the better understanding of the Orient.

In "Beyond the Utmost Purple Rim" by E. Alexander Powell, we have the author's impressions experiences and adventures in Abyssinia, which was an old nation when Genesis was written. We see a veiled Empress who traces her descent to the Queen of Sheba; and we learn of a legal system which is based on the Mosaic Law of "an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth." We find a civilization whose inspiration is based on the court of Solomon and with no contact with the outside world for more than a thousand years, furnishes much the same principles as did Europe during the Dark Ages. This book is wonderfully illustrated with two maps and over a hundred remarkable photographs.

"Building the American Nation," by Nicholas Murray Butler, turns out attention to the homeland by giving an impressive interpretation of the origin

CLARENCE

Greenville Civic Clubs, as well as the patrons of the schools are watching with interest the progress of "Clarence," the high school senior play. It promises to be one of the best productions a class has ever given, both because Booth Tarkington appeals to everyone with his delightful humor, and because the cast is a talented and well selected group.

Children like "Clarence" because it is funny, and mature men and women like it just as much because Tarkington's fun is based on a wide knowledge of human nature. It shows up the teenage boy and girl in a realistic manner, but as they seldom see themselves, you will love Cora and Bobby in spite of their faults, but Miss Pinney in her unique position, and Clarence, the peace-maker, cannot fail to hold your admiration and interest.

Has Thanksgiving Every Day

"Two years ago, after suffering many years with stomach trouble, I took a course of MAYER'S and haven't been sick a day since. I can eat anything I want and have no pain at all. Three doctors had advised operation, but your remedy has cured me. Every day is thanksgiving for me." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale by all druggists.

Daily News Letter

Gossip of Staff Correspondents at World Centers of Population.

Los Angeles, May 12.—(INS)—Although naval officers stationed at San Pedro with the Pacific battle fleet will soon offer their free services to the University of Southern California and the University of California, Southern Branch, there is little likelihood of Southern California crews threatening the aquatic supremacy of Washington University on the Pacific Coast.

In the first place, it is considered unlikely that the offer of these navy enthusiasts, members of the Annapolis championship crews of several years ago, will be accepted.

Even if the offer is approved, so many natural disadvantages are apparent that there is little prospect of the southern schools becoming serious contenders for the coast title. The nearest water is twenty-five miles away. Going and returning would require at least two hours of the daily practice session. The only smooth water is in the Long Beach channel, where two shells could not pass with ease and where the oarsmen would have to compete with fishing boats and tugs for a precarious right of way.

Then again, it is estimated that it would require at least $10,000 to put a shell into the water. While perhaps not so sagacious financially as Jack Kearns, the university athletic managers are smart enough to think twice before expending that amount with no visible returns in sight.

Stanford University, several years ago, abandoned rowing because they were thirty-five miles away from the water and felt they could not do themselves justice with such a handicap to overcome.

The University of Washington has its rowing field right at its own back door. Under these circumstances and despite the improbable acceptance of the offer of the former Annapolis stars, Washington will probably continue to be the maritime champions of the Pacific Coast with California University offering enough competition to make the reign of the Huskies interesting.

A corresponding school boxer used to be about as funny as the well known Swiss navy, but Roscoe Hall of De Moines, has given the terms a new significance.

Roscoe, who as a lightweight back in Iowa, defeated Johnny O'Donnell, Russic LeRoy, Billy Petroll, and Alvan Ryan, calmly admits that he learned to box through a mail order house. He first took a correspondence school course in "body building," and after that, learned the fine art of using his "dukes" through the (Continued from page 1) land, and estimated that the round trip of 1600 miles would require 24 hours. He beat his own estimate by 8-12 hours.

Sixteen hundred miles over the frozen North in 15-12 hours, this means that Chicago will soon be 3 hours from New York City and 7 hours from the Pacific Coast.

Congratulations are due to John D. Rockefeller, Jr., Edsel Ford, and Vincent Astor who supplied the money for Commander Byrd's flight.

The plane was named "the Josephine Ford" for Edsel Ford's daughter, granddaughter of Henry Ford. The fact that it wasn't a Ford flying machine made no difference to Edsel Ford, who wants to PROMOTE FLYING, however it can be done.

Vincent Astor who established one of the first commercial flying planes in the country, from New York to New York some years ago, and gave it up, when one flight ended disastrously, should return to commercial aviation. He has enthusiasm, a large fortune and OUGHT to inherit a knowledge of real estate. He could be richer than all of his cousins in twenty years if he located air ports at present real estate prices near the big cities, and started in aerial transportation as old Cornelius Vanderbilt did with steam railways.

Christian Endeavor Societies Falkland Hold Joint Meet

Falkland, May 12.—At the evening service on last Sunday, the Intermediate and Junior Christian Endeavor Societies held a joint meeting in the Falkland Presbyterian church, presenting a special Mother's Day program. Fifty people were present, some to give, some to receive that honor which Mothers so richly merit, but sometimes do not receive. Brownie Fleming, vice-president of the Intermediates, presided over the meeting. The welcome address was given by Mattie Little and Mrs. S. M. Crisp, Mother of the Intermediates superintendent, in responding, assured the Endeavorers that the Mothers were happy to be present, and to have their children thus honor them, also making a plea for closer understanding between parents and their boys and girls.

Others taking part on the program, were Ashley Garriss, Ruth Pittman, Brown Mayo, members of the Intermediates; Mrs. C. P. Pierce, Mother of the Junior president; and Miss Olive, who has been particularly interested in the Endeavorers and of great help to them. The Juniors sang two of their Junior songs, and when the meeting closed with the singing of the Mizpah, there was a prevailing feeling that the fellowship of the hour had been a thing not soon to be forgotten, but something to be treasured as a worth while memory.

People throughout the village and community saw Monday come with a sense of genuine regret, for it was then that members of the school faculty took their departure for their summer vacations. They will be sadly missed in the community of which they have come to be a very desirable part, and it is a matter for sincere regret that not all of them will return next year. Mr. and Mrs. House expect to spend their vacation in Durham, where Mr. House will attend the Duke summer school. Miss Olive will be with her sister in Godwin. Misses Worthington and McGlohorn will spend the summer at their homes near Winterville. Miss Brown, hers at near Macclesfield. Misses Patterson and Gilkeson left on Monday for their homes at Manteo and Staunton, Virginia.

This age will be remembered as the one when liquor instead of the weather furnished the inspiration for 98 per cent of the conservatives. —Arkansas Democrat.
