FOUNTAIN NEGRO SHOT BY OFFICER DURING MORNING

Was Wanted for At- tempted Assault on White Woman Near Fountain

Walter Corbett, negro, residing in the Fountain community, was shot and killed by Constable Gus Stokes this morning about ten o'clock. Following a post-mortem examination this afternoon, the officer was completely exonerated of any charge of murder.

The shooting occurred at Corbett's home. The officer, had gone there to arrest the negro on a charge of attempting to assault a white woman of the Fountain community. The warrant was being read, when the negro started running around the corner of the house. It was then that the officer fired upon him.

The negro's wife told members of the coroner's jury that she was going around the house to meet her husband when the shot was fired. It was said that a search of the house revealed a loaded gun.

The warrant for Corbett's arrest was sworn out by Miss Nanzy Edwards, who resides near Fountain. She is said to have told the officers that the negro attempted to assault her one night while she was sleeping near an open window. He had hold of her feet, and was attempting to pull her through the window when members of the family came to the rescue.

The negro is said to have made the statement that he would kill the first man that came after him.

No Executions Reported Among Mexican Factions

Mexico City, Aug. 12.—(AP)—Report of excesses of executions growing out of the religious situation has been made to the Arch Bishopric by Arch. Bishop Leopoldo Ruiz Flores of the state of Michoacan. The Ministry of the Interior announces that it has no knowledge of such happenings as the Arch Bishop has reported.

Ohio May Soon Become Another Scene of Battle

Chicago, Aug. 12.—(AP)—Ohio may become the battleground of another wet and dry political fight this fall as a result of the primary victory of former Senator Atlee Pomerene, Democratic nominee for the United States Senate.

Pomerene, long regarded as a liberal, defeated his anti-saloon league endorsed opponent, Mrs. Florence E. Allen, Ohio Supreme Court Justice, by a great margin in Tuesday's primary, and now stands ready to campaign against his Republican opponent Senator B. F. Willis. That Willis will force the wet and dry issue on Pomerene is regarded likely by political leaders inasmuch as Willis had anti-saloon backing in the primary.

Colored Boy Run Down By Automobile

Frank Johnson, 11-year-old colored boy, was run down and probably seriously injured by an automobile this morning on Dickinson Avenue, near the intersection of Columbia Avenue. The car was driven by John Vinson, white.

Vinson carried the boy to a doctor's office where his injuries received attention. The accident is said to have been unavoidable.

SAYS RUM ROW HAS BEEN DEALT A SEVERE BLOW

General Andrews' Agreement With Great Britain Will Have Good Results

New York, Aug. 12.—(AP)—Rum row now faces extermination and bootleggers have been dealt a severe blow in the sale of their home product, in the opinion of General Lincoln C. Andrews, who has just returned from negotiating an agreement with Great Britain to curb rum running. The agreement, General Andrews believes, is the first of its importance ever reached through non-diplomatic channels.

"Instead of trying to come to an understanding by diplomatic correspondence, which is very difficult to undertake sometimes, and a very slow process at best, the British government out of its natural sense of law and order, was good enough to invite us to come and sit around the table with them and clear up these matters in this novel way," said General Andrews.

While General Andrews refused to discuss the nature of the agreement arrived at with Great Britain, he reported the conference as "125 per cent" successful.

The eight recommendations in the agreement have been approved by the British Foreign Office and the United States Department of State, and go into effect at once, according to General Andrews.

MANY INJURED DURING RIOTING AROUND BERLIN

Disorders Feature Celebration of An- niversary of Repub- lican Resolutions

Berlin, Aug. 12.—(AP)—Rioting in which Republicans and Communists participated marred the seventh anniversary celebration of the adoption by Germany of a Republican constitution and resulted in injuries to numerous persons. A strong force of police had to be called out to quell the disorders.

The designated Constitution Day was generally observed throughout Germany with special exercises and a great display of flags. The principal gathering in Berlin was in the Reichstag building where Chancellor Marx delivered an oration and led in the cheering from the "Beloved German Fatherland" and the "German nation United in a Republic." The Chancellor said there was a conviction that the continued well being of the Fatherland could be maintained only on the basis of the Weimar Republic Constitution.

Lumpin Elected Vice-President of the Pythians

Chicago, Aug. 12.—(AP)—Alva N. Lumpkin, of Columbia, S. C., was elected Supreme Vice Chancellor of the Knights of Pythias on the fourth ballot today. Two years hence under the same precedent now followed by the Lodge, he will be elevated to the office of Supreme Chancellor to succeed Richard S. Witte of Milwaukee who today was advanced to that office.

Clemenceau on the N. S. A. Pleasing to the Bald Food Will Last. Big Business Builds. By ARTHUR BRISBANE

The letter that Clemenceau sent to President Coolidge expressed no high opinion of the United States attitude of war debts. The old French tiger is fighting for his country and uses the weapons at hand.

Four years ago, when he wrote an introduction to his book called "Industrial America in the World War," Clemenceau thought well of the United States and what it had done for France. He said this about Mr. Coolidge:

"Meanwhile, here are some eloquent figures. In eighteen months the United States sent us 5,000,000 tons of food supplies and 5,000,000 tons of war material. The steel they sent us represented the raw material for 100,000,000 shells. The foodstuffs they sent us fed 12,000,000 Frenchmen for a year and a half. If this help had not been forthcoming, our army could not have held."

When Clemenceau wrote that, Europe had not yet changed Uncle Sam's name to "Uncle Shylock."

This news from Oxford will please loud men, and shock anti-evolutionists. The strength that Barbarians used growing hair on the head and other parts of the body, is transferred to the brain as hair disappears.

When men climbed down from the trees (The Oxford scientists say it, we don't) they were all hairy. In the time of Adam and Eve hair had disappeared to such an extent that Esau's hairiness seemed strange.

In the process of evolution those with less hair survived, for after men discovered the use of fire, those with long hair caught fire and were burned. Some perhaps invented the fashion of singeing the hair, that they might sit around a fire safely.

The higher apes are born after seven months of prenatal life, and born covered with hair, of course. At luncheon human beings in the seventh month, two months before birth, are thickly covered with a hairy down, which disappears before their birth.

The longer prenatal period of the human race provided two extra months for the development of the super brain, and also got rid of that hairy young ape bringing into the world, and never get rid of. All of this is shocking to the convinced fundamentalist.

Sir Daniel Hall, food expert, tells the Oxford scientific gathering that the earth is in danger of famine. Each year white races alone need millions of acres more for food production.

Population grows fast. But nature's laws will take care of all problems. Henry George pointed out the speed at which a puppy's tail grows. If it kept on growing as fast, each dog would drag a tail many yards long.

Nature stops the growth of the dog's tail when it is long enough. The human race will not grow faster than the earth can feed it. At present land is inadequately cultivated. The state of Texas could feed the entire population of the globe, under intensive cultivation and have plenty to spare.

Sir Daniel Hall, says also that lack of food will make prohibition a reality some day. And all men will become vegetarians, because the earth can produce more vegetable than animal food. It takes 1,600,000 acres to supply barley for great Britain's alcoholic drinks, 4,000,000 acres of vineyards to supply France with wine. Nevertheless, France will continue to have her wine.

Mr. Haley Fiske says the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, of which he is president, is prepared to spend millions to wipe out city slums and provide decent apartments at low rent.

Mr. Stabler, associated with Mr. Fiske, in the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company has shown that high grade rooms can be rented at $9 a month profitably. Seven million five hundred thousand dollars thus spent by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company earns (Continued on Page 6)

WILL COMPLETE TESTIMONY IN HALL MURDER

Final Questioning Will Take Place Today at Summerville, New Jersey

Summerville, N. J., Aug. 12.—(AP)—Today's questioning of witnesses in the Hall-Mills murder mystery will complete the testimony of the state and Senator Alexander Simpson, special investigator, will decide whether to go on with the case or drop it. For three days state police have been taking statements from all those who had a part in the investigation four years ago into the manner in which Edward Wheeler Hall and Mr. Eleanor Mills, his choir singer met death. Mrs. Frances Stevens Hall was arrested two weeks ago charged with both murders and three days later released in $15,000 bail.

After a preliminary investigation detectives this week set out to build anew the story of the crime. To do this more than 50 witnesses were summoned. The final questioning will take place today and after scrutiny of all this testimony Senator Simpson promises to announce sometime tomorrow whether he will fight the case to a finish or abandon it. Important persons who have not yet been questioned include Willie Stevens, brother of Mrs. Hall, Henry Carpenter, her cousin and the "Mystery Woman" in Orange. A week ago Senator Simpson announced, this woman came to his office voluntarily and offered important evidence.

DENIES APPEAL TO SAVE LIFE OF WHITEMORE

Supreme Court Justice Fails to Find Grounds for Writ of Error

Beverly Farms, Mass., Aug. 12.—(AP)—United States Supreme Court Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes, today denied the application for a writ of error made by Attorney George L. Pendleton, in behalf of Richard Reese Whittemore, under sentence of death in Baltimore.

Baltimore, Aug. 12.—(AP)—Richard Reese Whittemore's life, scheduled to end on the gallows a few minutes after midnight tonight, was suspended today on a slender thread of hope that his negro attorney could persuade a United States Supreme Court Justice to set aside the hanging.

Having failed in an attempt to obtain from Judge Robert F. Stanton, either a writ of habeas corpus or a writ of error to stay the execution, pending application to the Supreme Court for a new trial, G. L. Pendleton, negro lawyer, left Baltimore last night to place the case before one of the three Supreme Court Justices now in Massachusetts. Mrs. Margaret Whittemore, wife of the bandit, has refused to relinquish hope.

Rockefeller, was paid today to redeem goods which the young man is charged with attempting to smuggle into this country. The fine was paid by a representative of the estate of the late William G. Rockefeller, the young man's father.

SAY, BOYS!

The moon once asked her mother to make her a dress that would fit.

"But how can I make you a dress that will fit," asked the mother, "when you are a half moon today, a full moon tomorrow and some other kind of moon the next day?"

We will have to hand it to her. Mother Moon was a wise old girl.

And we should profit by her wisdom.

Business houses of Greenville have outgrown their garments of infancy. The city itself has flung aside the swaddling garments of younger days.

The time has come for a change.

But like Baby Moon, we are up a tree. The business houses and the city are changing so rapidly that it is impossible to continue along old lines.

It is up to us to adjust ourselves to changing conditions. We have the possibilities, and the kind of men and women necessary to make up a mighty industrial city.

Let's begin fashioning our garments to meet the future.

MRS. WESTBROOK KILLED IN WRECK AT FALLING CREEK

Greenville Woman Killed Instantly and Husband Injured When Car Wrecks

Kinston, Aug. 12.—Mrs. W. A. Westbrook, 20, is dead, and her husband a patient at the General Hospital, this city, as a result of an automobile accident yesterday afternoon at 4:15 o'clock at Falling Creek, on the Kinston-Goldsboro highway, seven miles from this city.

The accident occurred as Mr. and Mrs. Westbrook were on their way to Goldsboro from Greenville, where they have recently been making their home, and where he has been connected with his brother in the automobile business.

At the place where the accident took place, the state highway force was engaged in painting a center marker. The customary warnings used by the highway department when doing road work narrow the road considerably, and Mr. Westbrook, who was driving rather fast, allowed the right wheels to leave the concrete for a short distance. He succeeded in getting all four wheels back on the highway, but evidently applied the brakes too quick, with a result that the car skidded and turned over completely on the left side.

Mr. Paul Taylor, of this city, and Judge McCullum, of LaGrange, Mr. George Pollock of Falling Creek, and other who witnessed the accident, rushed to the scene. They found Mrs. Westbrook sitting in a crumpled position, with blood streaming from the back of her head, the result of a fractured skull and other cuts. She was still breathing when removed from the car. Mr. Westbrook was suffering from a lacerated arm and other cuts.

The accident victims were placed in Judge McCullum's car and rushed to the General Memorial Hospital, this city. Mrs. Westbrook was dead when the hospital was reached, and her body was removed to the undertaking parlors of F. A. Garner & Co. where it was prepared for burial.

An examination of Mr. Westbrook's injuries to attending physicians, revealed that he is not in a serious condition and within the course of a few days will be able to leave the hospital.

No funeral arrangements had been made last night, although it is expected that the interment will take place in the family cemetery at Mount Olive.

Mrs. Westbrook was born in Whiteville, marrying Mr. Westbrook several years ago. They moved to Goldsboro, where they have been residing for some time. Mr. Westbrook is in the employ of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, although he was enjoying a 60-day leave of absence.

The body of Mrs. Westbrook will probably be carried to Goldsboro this morning, though nothing definite had been decided upon last night.

Mrs. Westbrook is survived by her husband and one son, Robert age 8 years, and a number of relatives.

Gertrude Ederle Offered $5,000 to Swim Channel

Chicago, Aug. 12.—(AP)—An offer of $5,000 to Gertrude Ederle for an attempt to swim the channel between Catalina Island and the California mainland was made today through the Chicago Tribune by William Wrigley, Jr., Chicago chewing gum magnate.

The channel is 23 miles wide at the most approachable point, as broad as the English Channel where Miss Ederle crossed, but considered a less rough body of water.

The sum, Mr. Wrigley informed the newspaper, would be to underwrite all the expenses of the coast trip and training with the balance as a merited reward to America's greatest swimmer, whether she succeeded in crossing the channel or not.

FIVE ENTOMBED MINERS BROUGHT OUT ALIVE AT HUDSON MINE, KENTUCKY

RECOMMEND LICENSE FOR DEMPSEY-TUNNEY BOUT IN NEW YORK

New York, Aug. 12.—(AP)—The State Athletic Commission in special session today recommended that Jack Dempsey be granted a license to meet Gene Tunney in a contest for the world's heavy-weight championship at the Yankee Stadium on September 16.

The Commission voted two to one in favor of the recommendation. James A. Farley, the Chairman, cast the opposing vote. Farley has held out for a match between Dempsey and Harry Wills, the negro challenger.

The action of the Commission paves the way for the license committee to reconsider its action in denying licenses to Dempsey last Tuesday. There can be no disposition of the Dempsey application, however, until next Monday, as Colonel E. J. H. chairman of the license committee, declined to meet with the commission today.

FREE WILL CHURCH END CONTROVERSY BY CALLING PASTOR

Rev. L. E. Ballard Tells Conference He Will Not Consider Being Recalled

At a conference of the Greenville Free Will Baptist church last evening, the action of a group of the membership on last Wednesday evening in taking vote on the present pastor, resulting in his rejection for pastoral work for the coming year, was ruled out of order and records of the same on the books of the church ordered erased. The ruling will not be presented, it is announced.

The action of last Wednesday followed a controversy over a resolution against questionable amusements, and took place at a meeting of members of the church following action on the resolution.

Rev. L. E. Ballard, on last evening, stated to the church after the vote had been ruled out, that he would not consider a recall, preferring to fight his resolution in the church as a member of the church. The church then proceeded with the election of a pastor. Two ministers were placed before the church, Rev. L. E. Ennis, of Ayden, and Rev. M. L. Hollis, of Vernon, Ala. The vote showed the preference of the church for Rev. Mr. Ennis, who is to be extended a call to the church.

Mr. Ballard stated this morning that while there will perhaps always be a hurt in his heart because of the attitude of some of the members of his church, as shown by treatment of his efforts he has no ill will toward anyone, and is satisfied with the action of the church regarding the unfortunate happening of last Wednesday evening. Mr. Ballard states that he is "firm as ever" in his determination to fight for the resolution against questionable amusements.

"The opposition stated on the floor," he said, "that there was not doubt the leadership of the Holy Spirit in the preparation and presentation of the resolution, and it is my business to follow the leadership of the Holy Spirit."

Several ministers of the Free Will Baptist church have written Mr. Ballard endorsing the stand taken, and commending the resolution, one of the most prominent ministers in the state declaring that the attitude of the local church toward the resolution did not represent the attitude of the denomination toward the question.

The Men Apparently Suffering Only From Weakness, With Ex- ception of One Who Was Delirious; Had Never Given Up Hope of Being Rescued

Salem, Ky., Aug. 12.—(AP)—All five of the miners who were imprisoned by a cave-in at the Hudson Mine last Thursday, were brought to the surface alive this morning.

Randolph Cobb was the first man to reach the top of the shaft. He called to the crowd which waited anxiously, "Hello there, boys, I'm not sick."

Roy James, for whom little hope had been held as he had been separated from the other miners, after the cave-in occurred, was the next to appear. George Castile was the third. He was suffering from a cold.

U. B. Wilson and Harry Watson were then brought out. Watson was in a bilious mood.

The miners said that during their long vigil underground, they had never given up hope of rescue nor had anyone of them become downcast. They had four matches between them and these they carefully preserved and by burning the miner's lamps they had, one at a time, they were able to have light for a long time. Finally darkness fell and then they lost all sense of time and waited through the long black hours.

A daughter of Cobb was at the mine when her father appeared. At sight of his face she became hysterical and fainted.

James, the miners said, was the hero of the disaster. Instead of attempting to escape when the cave-in occurred, he went back to warn the other four men of the calamity.

The men apparently were suffering only from weakness caused by the lack of food, except Castile. They were immediately taken to a nearby hospital tent.

Three sons and three daughters survive, including W. H. Fleming, of Oxford; R. T. Fleming, of Creedmoor; M. E. Fleming, of Oxford; Mrs. D. D. Carter, of Greenville, N. C.; Mrs. J. T. Moss, of Creedmoor, and Mrs. W. K. Kizette, of Idaho.

Aged Negro Shot Near Greenville

Mack Daniel, aged colored man who resides on the Fleming farm a short distance from Greenville, was shot through the leg yesterday afternoon in what is said to have been a general mix-up over a woman.

It could not be learned exactly how the affair occurred. The only thing Daniel knew about it was that someone knocked him down and then shot him.

Only Woman Who 'Shot' Niagara Is Writing About It

Syracuse, N. Y., Aug. 11.—(INS) —Mrs. Dennis Gallagher, whose name was in the "The Maid of Niagara Falls Rapids" the only woman ever to go through the rapids in a barrel and live to tell of it, is writing a book now, 25 years after the hair-raising episode.

Mrs. Gallagher was Miss Martha E. Waginfuhrer, a show girl when she made her famous barrel trip. The escapade started as a joke, the mature Mrs. Gallagher says today. Her chum, Maud Willard, who was playing at a Niagara Falls theatre, with her—bemoaned life because her sister had married and Miss Waginfuhrer's sister had died.

"Might as well go through the rapids in a barrel as to keep on living. Just the same thing," commented Miss Willard.

Mrs. Gallagher, whose memory of the incident is just as clear today as when she made the perilous trip, told of her troubles in trying to find a suitable barrel. She asked theatre owners to get her one, and failing finally had one made out of oak.

"Before I went into my barrel, there had been a parade, President McKinley was at the Buffalo Exposition and there was a big crowd at Niagara Falls. The attempt had been heralded for weeks and it was a good publicity stunt for a show girl.

"I got into the barrel and just before they shut down the lid, word came of President McKinley's assassination. I wouldn't give up my attempt, however, though the news of the assassination, of course, detracted from the publicity which ordinarily I would have received.

"Well, I got through the rapids and was pulled out when one of the men on shore waded in with a rope around his body and grabbed the rope on by barrel. It was a terrible trip in that barrel, whirling around and being smashed about. I wasn't worried much though.

"I remember, every time the barrel hit a rock, or while I was being whirled around until I was dizzy. When they opened the barrel and I got fresh air I fainted.

"Maud made her attempt the next day. She wasn't as strong as I was. I tried to persuade her to give it up, but she thought I was jealous and went through. When they took her out of the barrel, after it had gone around four times, she was dead. They said it was because the dog she had with her had used on the fresh air, but I know better. Maud wasn't able to stand it.

"We buried Miss Willard in Oakwood Cemetery near Niagara Falls. In that same cemetery is Captain Matthew Webb, who

AIR SERVICE ENLISTS AID OLD TIME STEREOSCOPE

Dayton, O., Aug. 11.—(AP)—The stereoscope, that parlor thriller of the nineties, has come back strong, and in a field where it may save lives. The stereoscope has joined the U. S. Army Air Service.

There are times in war when the topography of a tract of land is as important to an army as the layout of fields and buildings, and ordinary photographs do not show topography well. Now the aerial photographer takes one shot and then a second a hundred feet or so farther on. When he lands, the two photographs are placed in a powerful and specially built stereoscope that makes little hills stand up until they almost poke the gaze in the eye.

Gullies and ravines, indistinguishable in an ordinary photograph yawn ominously when viewed under the stereoscope.

Florida Capital Is Pronounced Inadequate

Tallahassee, Fla., Aug. 10.—(INS) The Florida state capitol, first completed in 1822, and remodelled in 1920 and 1922, again has become inadequate to house the various state departments, and contracts have been awarded for construction of a $300,000 building near the original capitol in which a number of departments will be given new quarters.

The new structure is scheduled to be completed by next April, when the legislature will meet. The state fish and game commission, state fish commission, sanitary livestock board, hotel commission and other department now are occupying committee rooms and offices of the legislature, which must be vacated before the next session.

The state road department, which is inadequately housed in a downtown office building, state geological department, now in the basement of the capitol, automobile registration department (now in a part of the comptroller's office) and some other departments also will be moved to the new building when it is completed.

The new building will be of limestone and brick on a reinforced concrete frame, containing a sub-basement and three floors above the ground, to have a total of seventy office rooms.

The state railroad commission has offices in the supreme court building, a handsome structure across the street from the old capitol.

Proves Mother Is Your Closest Friend

Jersey City. Mr. J. Paul writes: "I awakened each morning with an unpleasant taste and was often reminded by my Mother that my breath was disagreeable. I tried perfumed tablets, mouth washes and other camouflages which gave temporary relief. After consulting my dentist and finding my teeth in good condition, a friend suggested my trouble was constipation. After taking a few doses of Carter's Little Liver Pills my stomach and bowels were relieved, foul and impure gases eliminated. Druggists, 25¢ & 50¢ red packages."

You can always count on P.A.

THERE'S something very solid and substantial about Prince Albert. Dependable . . . as a good friend should be. Uniformly mild and mellow. It always tastes the same—which means that it always tastes great! The reason for all this is the excellent quality of the tobacco.

Prince Albert quality has made this one brand the most popular among pipe-lovers; has earned for it the title of the National Joy Smoke. Get yourself a tidy red tin of P. A. today at the nearest P. A. sunshine shop and know for yourself what a grand and glorious smoke it is.

The very first pull will tell you that Prince Albert was made for you. Cool, as a breeze off the water is cool. Sweet, with the uncloying sweetness of sun-ripened fruit. Fragrant, as flowers are fragrant. Fragrant in the tin and fragrant in the bowl of your pipe.

Men who thought they were all set on smokes have tried Prince Albert and become converts from the very first puff. There's a bare possibility that you have been fooling yourself. The pleasure you'll get from a jimmy-pipe and P. A. will top any you think you're getting now!

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half-pound tin humidors, and pound crystal-glass humidors with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of tin and porch removed by the Prince Albert process.

"Haste makes waste"

"I have never yet seen persons really get anywhere who were always in a hurry with never time to care for their motors—picking up gas, all kinds—here, there, and everywhere. They soon find this policy makes their car shy at a hill-climb—whine for second gear—pine for a rest. "Best to make haste slowly. Play safe. Always fill up with 'Standard' Gasoline. It's the result of fifty-six years' experience—always dependable. Right handy everywhere."

AUXILIARY MEETS WITH MRS. PACE

Wednesday afternoon, at her home in College View, Mrs. K. B. Pace entertained the members of the Auxiliary of the Pitt County Post of the American Legion. This was the last meeting of the year, as the new year begins in September. The hostess served tempting refreshments.

Plans were discussed for next year. A membership drive will be put on at once. There are numbers of mothers, wives, sisters and daughters who should be members, and the Auxiliary hopes to make next year the best, and at least double the membership.

The Auxiliary is doing a wonderful work, but without members it can do very little. Think how much the small membership fee and your name as a member will help. The money raised by the Auxiliary is used to help disabled soldiers.

The following report for last year will give some idea of what has been done.

Indianapolis Man Missing 2 Years

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 12.—(INS)—Somewhere in the wide, wide world there stalks a man weighing three hundred pounds and standing over six feet high in stocking feet, who does not know who he is, or where he is from—a victim of amnesia.

This is the belief here of friends and former business associates of James B. Adams, 55, of Indianapolis, former president of the James B. Adams & Son, Inc., brick and tile manufacturing firm.

Accompanied by his son, Adams went to Traction Terminal Station here on the morning of January 19, 1925, ostensibly to board an interurban car for a business trip to Crawfordsville, not more than 45 miles northwest of here and the home of Wabash College.

Adams never reached Crawfordsville and never has been heard from since.

Descriptions of Adams were sent to police authorities all over the country and Canada, and times innumerable radio listeners in all parts of the country have been requested to keep an eye peeled for a man of his distinguished appearance and proportions without bringing any word to the wife and son, whose only supposition is that he suffered a nervous breakdown. With a happy home and financially successful business enterprise, no other solution has been advanced.

"I am living in hops, but am almost ready to give up," said Mrs. Adams, who has made her home with a sister in this city, since the Adam, home in fashionable North Delaware street was given up following the manufacturer's disappearance. "I think he must have suffered a loss of memory."

BRITISH GOBS PETITION FOR MODERNIZED UNIFORM

London, Aug. 12.—(NS)—The British gobs are petitioning the Admiralty to modernize their uniforms.

They want a raincoat which can be worn in place of the present heavy oilskin, better fitting wetted boots, a lighter pattern cap, an improved make of collar without points, and the abolition of the lanyard during working hours.

The last request is the outcome of changed conditions of service. The lanyard was a necessity in the days of sailing ships but the men state that today it gets in their way.

London, Aug. 12.—(INS)—The cult of the "bob" and the "shingle" has spread to China, according to Miss Qui Sing Wong, a young Chinese woman who has just arrived here to take a course in hairdressing.

"I am going to take a permanent waving machine back to China with me," she said in an interview.

N. C. PEACHES ON WAY TO EASTERN MARKETS

Raleigh, Aug. 12.—(INS)—North Carolina's golden harvest of peaches is now moving slowly in carlot shipments to the Eastern markets.

Indications are that nearly 2,000 cars of fruit will be shipped from the Sandhills before the season drawn to an end. The harvest now is in full swing.

Due to the fact that Georgia produced the biggest peach crop in years this summer, the prices are being kept down, market men say.

GOLDSBORO "STEPS OUT" WITH REST OF THE STATE

Goldsboro has laid the cornerstone of a $200,000 high school building.

The people of that progressive city are to be congratulated.

The condition of city schools is a kind of an index to the character of the people. It has not always been the case. But it will always be the case in the future.

It is gratifying indeed to note that North Carolina is taking so much interest in education. It has not been so very long since we occupied an unenviable position in the educational field. But she has awakened at last, and the future holds out great things for us.

It used to be that the proposal of a bond issue for educational purposes brought forth a storm of criticism from those not educated enough themselves to appreciate what it meant to the country. What has become of those people today? All of them cannot possibly be dead. That is not the reason for the lack of dissenting votes when funds for educational purposes are needed.

There is only one reason. They have been shamed into silence.

The enlargement of our school systems has already brought wonderful results in all parts of the state. The little one and two room school houses have given way to the march of progress. Splendid brick buildings have taken their places and the child in the rural communities are enjoying many of the comforts and conveniences of the city child.

Consolidation is doing more to improve education in the rural communities than any other one thing. It brings together children of two or three school districts, and gives them the advantages and comforts never heard of until a few years ago. This bringing together two or three schools into one district is one of the best things that could have happened. It offers great things for the future.

North Carolina will not long remain behind in an educational way. The thousands of young men attending the higher schools of learning will find their places filled every session by other minds searching for the truth. And they will not be turned away. The money is being provided for enlarging educational systems in all counties and cities of the state. And with this awakening, there is every reason to believe every year will see an increase.

WOMEN SHOULD SURVEY THEIR SEX IN INDUSTRY

The proposed survey of women in industry in North Carolina is attracting no little attention.

It is attracting attention for the simple reason of so much opposition from those who should favor it. This opposition, however, does not come from manufacturers alone. It has developed among the forces intensely interested in its success when the plan was first proposed.

There was a faction that wanted the survey directed by a man. And there was a faction that wanted it directed by a woman. Inasmuch as it directly concerns woman, we are of the opinion that the issue should be left in the hands of women.

In fact, it is entirely a woman's matter. No one knows more what women need than a woman herself. No one is more capable of improving women in industry than a woman who has watched the development of her sex for the last several years. And as we said before, we believe it is a woman's job entirely.

Women who have taken an active part in state affairs had a right to interfere when the matter was put into the hands of men. They did what they thought was right, in discouraging something so vitally affecting the future life of North Carolina women.

There are more women in industry today than ever before. This is not only the case in North Carolina. It is the case of every state of the union. They are taking the places formerly occupied by men. They are performing the work capably and satisfactorily. Yet, in many instances, they work longer hours than the men and at less pay.

In hundreds of the larger cities they have become slaves of industry. They have put their shoulders to the wheel and are endeavoring to carry on despite every turn of adversity.

The public would like to know exactly what women are doing in this state. But they want to see it presented from the viewpoint of a woman. They are desirous of seeing the situation investigated by women capable of judging whether conditions are exactly what they should be.

The settlement of this important question is in the hands of Governor McLean. It is to be hoped he will see it in the light it deserves to be seen, and act accordingly.

If you need a shave your chin won't skid when eating watermelon.—Lakeland Ledger.

RESERVE BANKS YEARLY HANDLE $12,000,000,000

Entire Volume of Money Gets Average Turnover Every Five Months; Changes of Amounts in Circulation Reflect the Business Situation

Washington, Aug. 12.—(INS)—More than $12,000,000,000 passes over the counters of the Federal Reserve Banks annually, according to a statement issued by the reserve board.

The entire volume of money in circulation has an average turnover through the reserve banks of once in every five months, since the amount handled every year by the system is about two and one half times the average circulation in the country.

Among the services performed by the Federal Reserve System, the supplying of currency to the country in accordance with its needs is one of the most important, an official statement of the board said.

It is the 12 reserve banks, with their 23 branches, three agencies and three currency depots, that the banks of the country apply for additional currency when a demand for it reaches them through their customers. It is to the reserve banks with their subsidiary offices that the currency is returned when the amount in circulation exceeds the current demand, the statement further declared.

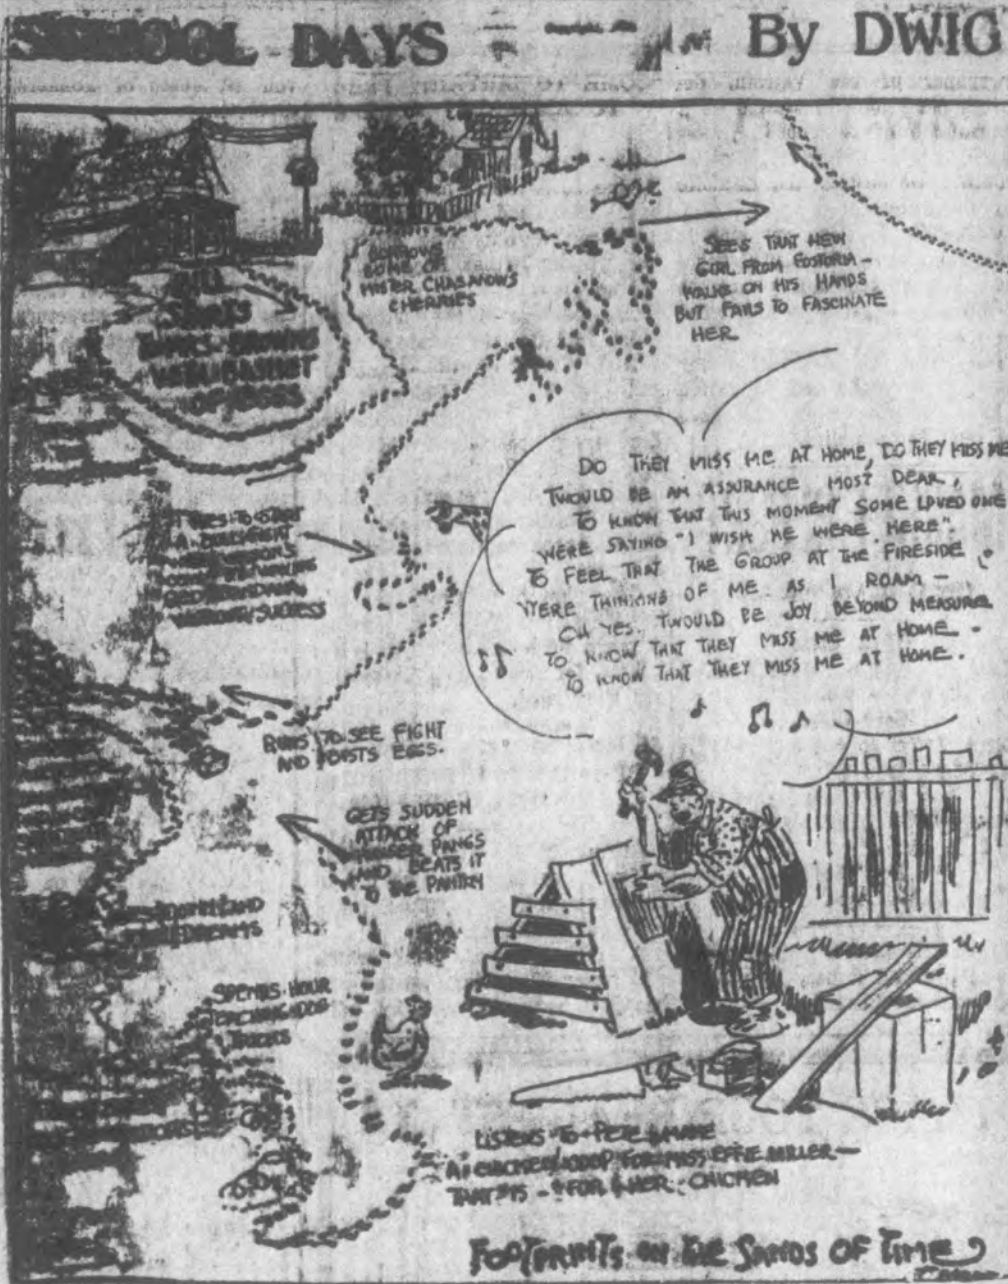

Worn out and unfit currency of all kinds is for the most part presented to the reserve banks and there exchanged for new and clean notes. In supplying clean currency to the community the reserve banks act not only in their capacity as note issuing institutions, but also as fiscal agents for the United States treasury, performing the function of sub-treasuries, whose place they have taken.

Under the federal reserve act, currency in the tills of member banks does not count as reserve and the entire legal reserves required against the deposit liabilities are carried as balances at the reserve banks.

Since commercial banks, as profit making institutions, do not as a rule leave any considerable volume of their resources unnecessarily unproductive, it is the practice of member banks to carry in their vaults only such an amount of currency as is required by the day to day needs of the customers, the statement said.

Any surplus above this amount is sent to the reserve banks to be credited to the members' reserve account. When, on the other hand, the demand for currency at the member banks increases and cash in their tills is reduced by withdrawals on the part of customers in excess of cash deposits, the member banks apply to the reserve banks for currency to be charged against their reserve balances.

Under existing conditions, it was explained, the general public like the member banks, keep on hand only such an amount of cash as is needed for pocket money, and payroll requirements. With the growth of the banking habit and of the custom of payment by check for the greater part of purchases, and with hoarding of currency not prevalent in this country, all cash in the hands of the public in excess of immediate needs is deposited with the banks.

Movies Rival Stage for Varied Program Now

New York, Aug. 11.—(AP)—The large motion picture houses of Broadway fast are approaching the legitimate theatres in the magnitude of their stage presentations.

Many of them now are miniature musical productions differentiated from the musical shows only in length.

Symphony orchestras long have been a feature of the large houses, with classical music interspersed with popular airs, but the stage remained merely a decorated background for the projection screen. The first novelty effects on the stage consisted of playing multi-colored lights on special curtains, but soon individual performers were put on the stage between pictures. Usually there was only a soloist, picked any where from the Broadway army of unemployed.

The last year has seen the great development. Ballet masters, stage masters, and chorus troupes have been added to the house staffs, while equal attention has been devoted to the development of costumes and scenery. Players sometimes have been placed under long term contracts, learning new presentations with each picture change.

Throughout this change the customary show built a two hours has been observed, but it has led to the reduction in length of feature pictures. An hour and a quarter once was the customary length of the picture, but it has been cut some twenty minutes.

The time of each picture and number, even the overtime, is so clearly defined that, often fractions of minutes are noted.

With all this artistic expansion the motion picture houses have not encroached on the legitimate theatre in New York, although there has been a change in other cities. This is evidenced by the present building of ten new theatres for plays and musical shows, while several movie houses also are being constructed, including one with a seating capacity of 6,000 at a top price of two dollars.

MRS. ROSS UNOPPOSED IN COMING PRIMARY

Cheyenne, Aug. 11.—(AP)—Nellie Taylor Ross, the first woman governor of the United States, appears to be the unanimous choice of the Democrats in the Wyoming election on August 17. No opposing candidate will be on her ballot and political observers do not believe a single name will be written in by the voters.

The woman governor, however, is certain to face a man in the November election, as the two candidates for the Republican nomination are men. They are Secretary of State Frank E. Lucas and State Engineer Frank C. Emerson. Thrust into the governorship from the role of housewife following the death of her husband, to complete two years of his unexpired term, Mrs. Ross' supporters say she has given Wyoming a notable state administration. Mrs. Ross, unlike the situation in Texas, has had no husband to guide her hand in the intricacies of state affairs.

EASE WOMEN DRIVERS' TEST

Berlin, Aug. 11.—(AP)—Police no longer try unofficially to discourage women from taking the difficult tests for automobile drivers' licenses in Berlin. Several motor vehicle districts have praised women as drivers, saying they are unusually more careful than men, although as a general rule they were either hopeless or excellent with no in-between class.

As a result the mechanical end of tests for women has been eased up. Hitherto women as well as men had to take part and put together the principal parts of an automobile engine.

AUTO OF KING BORIS USED TO SMUGGLE SILK

Sofia, Aug. 10.—(INS)—The good will of King Boris has been misused by his attendants to cheat his own government out of several thousand dollars in duties. The king recently ordered a new automobile in Vienna which was sent by road to Sofia in charge of a court attendant. At the frontier of Bulgaria, although royal cars are not searched, an inquisitive official discovered hidden in the car large amounts of silk sacra. The attendant was arrested and admitted that on many journeys he had made in royal cars over the frontier he had smuggled a half million dollars worth of contraband goods.

Daily News Letter

Gossip of Staff Correspondents at World Centers of Population.

Vienna, Aug. 12.—(INS)—Handel's opera, Julius Caesar, has been presented for the first time here. The opera, although one of his earlier works, has had an instant success and will be given several times in the program of the Burg Theatre next autumn. It is musically captivating in its arias and choruses and has great dramatic value, both of which appeal to the very discriminating Viennese audiences.

Handel, as an opera-composer, is just becoming popular in Austria. Heretofore it is chiefly as a master of oratorios and orchestral works, that he has been known by Austrians. A movement to produce his operas, started in Germany, has reached Vienna and it is planned to produce all his works of this class within the next year.

Even though this is a nation of music lovers, the state operas of Austria continue to show a deficit at the end of each year that has to be met from the funds of the Republic. The government has decided to try the management of a business man in place of a musician, and has appointed Franz Schneiderhan, formerly Austrian Consul at Breslau to the task of making the operas pay.

Schneiderhan was one time the director of a large hat factory, is a capable business man and also a well known connoisseur of music, which the government thinks an excellent background for their theatre manager. Mr. Schneiderhan will be allowed a free hand in his work and given the best cabinet of musical advisors in the country.

Spectators at Vienna's bathing resorts are experiencing shocks at the appearance of new and elaborate bathing suits on feminine bathers. It has been almost a tradition and certainly a boast that Viennese women unlike their sisters elsewhere are good swimmers and when they don a bathing suit it is with the honest intention of entering the water. For this reason the suits of the Viennese have always been the single one piece variety, a concession to the enjoyment of swimming, if not fashion.

Many women have recently appeared wearing the latest in American bathing suits, with the fancy skirts and cloaks. Now daily more and more women are taking up the demoralizing fashion.

The supposed composer of many of the popular marches of the new Austrian army has been dismissed from his post because it was found that instead of actually composing the works he merely added new words to marches played in the army many years ago, so long ago that no one remembered them. Zanetti, the musician, is suing for unjustifiable dismissal from his position as conductor of the military band.

The most popular march in the army today is the Vaugoin March which he brought out a few years ago and dedicated to the Minister of War, Henry Vaugoin. It has been discovered that the march is identical with that of the Mattonovich March played for years ago in the imperial army and is anonymous. It has been now withdrawn from the list of approved marches as were seven other Zanetti marches found to have been copied.

The government owned Redoutensall theatre, despite its publicity advantage of being a part of the Imperial palace and the ball room and private theatre of Francis Joseph, has been closed because it could not pay expenses. The management has tried all classes of performances in the theatre and obtained the service of leading artists, but the public has been reticent to trod on the floor where once danced the royalty and aristocracy of the Empire.

The theatre is an exceptionally fine hall with white and gold walls on which hang some of the most valuable Gobelin in the country.

"COME TO BRITAIN" PLEA TO AMERICAN TOURISTS

London, Aug. 12.—(INS)—A "Come to Britain" movement has been launched here to attract American tourists, who otherwise pass up the British Isles in favor of the Continent.

The backers of the movement, which includes the Association of British Chambers of Commerce and the American Chamber of Commerce in London, declare that many tourists avoid England, Wales, Scotland or Ireland because of the "erroneous idea" that Continental countries, with their depreciated currencies, are cheaper.

The plan is to prove to tourists that Britain is a cheaper country to tour, and that is facilities for health and enjoyment are unrivalled.

ALBANY TO HAVE STATE BUILDING 26 STORES HIGH TO COST OVER $6,000,000

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 12.—(INS)—New York State is planning to spend upwards of $6,000,000 for a state office building.

A draft of the structure, which will tower 26 stories into the sky, has just been completed by Sullvan W. Jones of Yonkers, state architect.

When completed, the building will be the tallest in the state between New York City and Buffalo. It is to be erected on a city block to the west of the state capital. Bids have just been advertised for the work of clearing the site for the new structure. The site alone will cost the state more than $1,000,000.
