Raleigh, Jan. 5.—(AP)—The General Assembly convened at noon today in what Speaker Fountain predicted would be one of he most important biennial ses-ions in North Carolina history.

The assembly convened under a cloud of uncertainty. Members realized that they would be called upon to pass upon outstanding legislation, but few could say what form it would take. Ideas were general.

Economy was the expressed key note. Almost universally the opinion was expressed that it was an administration assembly. Leaders in the senate were known to be Governor McLean's supporters and the election of R. T. Fountain. Rocky Mount, to the house repeakership, settled that side.

Last minute developments in the speakership campaign brought.

In Sinking the first oil well, the from our extensive assortment,

Greenville, N. C. January 5th

To the Men of This Community:

I want to point out to you certain facts about clothes which I believe will appeal to your common

For 34 years I've bought and sold men's clothes and I'll tell you there are more ways to "gip" you when you buy clothes than there is in a horse trade. I know I've been "stuck" many times. I've learned my lesson.

A crooked manufacturer can take out enough from the inside of a garment - where the value lies-to make it almost a crime, to sell it to a customer for a suit.

That's the reason I long ago began to buy and feature Clothes With a Reputation.

Ldon't mean clothes with a mere name. Anyone can originate a clever name, buy a fancy silk label and sew it on a coat. Even the cheapest kind of clothing have fancy silk labels. That's modern "bunk."

What I mean by reputation is a National Reputation. A reputation known in every city, town and hamlet in this country for making uniformly good clothes year after year. Always foremost in new ideas, the latest fashion, workmanship, fit and all 'round satisfaction.

That's the reason you should always LOOK at the LABEL.

When I bought Kuppenheimer and Styleplus clothes I had the field from which to make my selection of lines. I still have opportunities every season to buy other national lines.

When I bought Kuppenheimer and Styleplus I believed them to give, in ther respective grades, the best values it was possible for me to offer my customers. I'm more convinced than ever that my judgment has been sound. I believe them to be the Standard of standard clothes.

In my January Clearance Sale you will find 90 to 95 per cent. of the garments are Kuppenheimer, Styleplus and Schloss Bros. clothes. All were a part of my 1926 fall stock. The original price ticket is on every garment. LOOK AT LME LABEL.

You may find suits, overcoats and topcoats as low in price as I'm offering in this sale, but you will not find in Eastern North Carolina such a complete assortment from which to make your selection-of Clothes With a Reputation.

These are the prices for suits, overcoats, and topcoat -- $25 values $14.75; $35 values $19.75; $40 values $24.75; $50 values $29.75.

My terms during this sale are strictly cash.

Cordially Yours,

FRANK WILSON, King Clothier
