OFFICIAL STATE SONG ADOPTED BY ASSEMBLY TODAY

Great Smoky Mountain Park Measure Sent to the House by the Senate Today

Raleigh, Feb. 17.—(AP)—The legislators today adopted an official state song and sent two measures appropriating a total of more than $3,000,000 on their way thru the routine of passage.

"The Old North State" became the official song of the state with the passage of the House bill by the Senate.

The Senate passed the $2,000,000 Great Smokies National Park bill and sent it to the House, and the House passed the Cape Fear river bridge bill appropriating $1,200,000 and sent it to the Senate.

Besides this both Houses passed a number of bills of lesser importance and a mass of bills were added to the calendars.

The roads committee voted a favorable report on the bill for issuance of $30,000,000 more of state highway bonds.

The state wide game bill passed second House reading 83 to 20, carrying an amendment excluding rabbits and foxes from the game law provisions.

The amendment to exclude Guilford county and one by Leggett, Halifax, to place administration of the measure under the Department of Conservation and Development and eliminate creation of a new game commission, were both voted down.

The Creekmore compulsory school extension bill, which passed yesterday on second reading 41 to 43, was killed, 55 to 41, after Rep. Turlington, Republican, maintained it was a "joke" to lead down the school system with "dead heads."

The bill had been sponsored by the state Parent-Teachers Association providing that children up to 16 who have not completed the fourth grade in school may not go to work until they have, unless excused on grounds of mental incapacity.

The House 50 to 38, tabled the Sutton bill to regulate loans for agricultural purposes after debate on one side from the introducer that the farmer's interest rates would be lowered and from Rep. Satterwhite, Warren, on the other, that the measure in effect would increase his burden.

Other state wide bills passed by the House: Changing date automobile license registration from July 1 to January 1.

Amending certain banking laws to require at least $25,000 capital and reducing amount that may be loaned.

Amending powers of board of directors of state hospital for the insane.

Prohibiting lending of money by banks to state bank examiners.

Accepting federal agricultural experiment fund under the Purnell act.

SMITH WILL NOT GET SENATE SEAT AT THIS SESSION

Illness of Illinois Senator-Designate Prevents Appearance at Hearing

Washington, Feb. 17.—(AP)—Any hope that Frank L. Smith of Illinois will be seated in the Senate at this session of Congress disappeared today when the elections committee was advised by his counsel that illness would prevent the Senator-Designate from coming before the committee.

The short term for which Smith was appointed by Governor Small expires March 4. The committee previously had decided not to send him pending hearings on his campaign expenditures at which he was requested to be present.

The hearings were to have begun today but Smith's attorney, C. J. Doyle, asked for indefinite postponement.

"Colonel Smith is a very sick man," Doyle told the committee. We had hoped he would be present today but his physicians will not permit him to leave his home.

"He has a very serious infection of the ear. I think his coming to Washington during the cold weather last month caused that infection. The greatest care is necessary if a mastoid is to be avoided and he is not in physical condition for that."

Chinese representatives of League of Nations at Geneva announce their country has demanded withdrawal of British order directing troops to China.

Rescue party from West Portal, Colorado, saves 50 persons caught by blizzard on summit of Bert House Pass; 20 others fight their way through storm to Idaho Springs.

Airplanes and Marines ordered from San Diego, Calif. to Corinto, Nicaragua.

Premier Wakatsuki of Japan, says his government strongly favors Coolidge's disarmament proposal and will do everything to aid it.

Senate passes ten million dollar European corn borer extermination bill which now goes to President Coolidge.

Three army fliers killed when two airplanes collided at Camp Stanley Texas; former police captain killed and aviator probably fatally hurt in crash near Fort Worth.

Benjamin H. Turner, convicted murderer at Portland, Maine, breaks five day hunger strike and decides to appeal his conviction.

Congregational commission of inter-church relations and Universal Commission of Christian community and unity at Boston recommend to National Councils' closest practical fellowship.

Scientists in England, locked in padded room, aid Sir Oliver Lodge in extensive radio telegraph test.

The Senate concurred in the House bill of Rep. Winston, Bertie, and the song, "The Old North State," becomes legally North Carolina's official song upon ratification which follows automatically.

TODAY

Brutal Peter, Worse Ivan A Killer at Twelve. Please Define "Liberty." Queen of the Universe.

(By Arthur Brisbane)

Bolshevism uses radio to tell peasants about old Czars, describing Peter the Great as drunken, cruel, bestial, decapitating prisoners for the fun of it, and often burying men alive.

All true and more. He asked the King of Denmark to let him see his instruments of torture at work. "Please put somebody in and work them," said he.

And Peter was a model of propriety, compared with his predecessor, Ivan the Terrible, who fiddled babies, made sure they had been baptized, then threw them out of windows, soldiers below catching them on spears. He drove his lance through the foot of a messenger that brought him disagreeable news, executed tens of thousands and inflicted upon women such horrible cruelties as could not even be mentioned.

All that does not mean much. The worst things that Ivan the Terrible did were not much worse than things done by good Christian King Louis the Eleventh of France. And he, strangely, was the most useful king France ever had, establishing unity of weights, measures and money, creating the French nation beating down the great nobles. You can't judge the present by the past.

Michael Ponkrashaw, Jr., twelve years old, killed a storekeeper yesterday. Usual motive, robbery. At this "high spot" in the youth full crime wave, ancient heads will wag and you will hear "modern" ways of bringing up children without punishment, leads to such things.

However, this particular boy said he left home, got his pistol and did the killing after receiving from his father a beating that he considered unjust. That is also something to think about.

As Bertrand Russell says, in his recent most admirable book on "Education and the Good Life," Englishmen beaten as boys for disobedience at Eton, thought it quite natural to beat natives in India when they were disobedient.

Dr. See says China demands "liberty," which is reasonable, but new, in Asia. In all India's literature of five thousand years, the word "liberty" does not occur.

Chinese, however, are different from the people of India. What is the Chinese definition of "liberty"? Every nation, almost every man has a different definition. Liberty means one thing in Italy, another in Moscow, Jesting Pilate, asked "what is truth?" and would not wait for an answer. Liberty is more difficult to define than truth.

If possible, go to Galveston, Texas, in May. See the beauty contest which will give to some girl the title "Beauty Queen of the Universe."

She will deserve the title, although it would surprise us if we could see some other beauty queens scattered through this universe. For instance, female beauty on the planets that revolve around the suns in the great distant Nebula of Orion, 1,000,000 light years or so from here, may be amazingly different from the (Continued on page six)

Moro Uprising in Philippines Cotabato, Philippine Islands, Feb. 17.—(AP)—Conflicts between Philippine government forces and Moros in the up-river districts of Cotabato province were indicated by a message received today by Colonel Luther Stevens of the constabulary.

The message came from Governor Gutierrez of Cotabato and called for Stevens' immediate presence, saying that 500 Moro outlaws in the district were defying the government force.

Stevens, who only recently quieted the Batu Tabil Moro disturbance on Jolo Island, left last night taking with him the same artillery used against Tabil. The present situation promises to be more serious than the Tabil uprising and the territory is more extensive.

FAVORABLE REPORT FOR $30,000,000 ROAD BOND ISSUE

Raleigh, Feb. 17.—(AP)—The Senate roads committee, meeting today, reported favorably on the bill providing thirty million dollars for construction of roads during the next biennium.

The bill was introduced early in the session by Senator Hargett of Jones, chairman of the Senate roads committee. There was no discussion of the measure in committee, since the members present were in general accord with the proposal to add thirty million dollars more to the road construction budget of the state which was started in 1921.

This is the amount suggested by Governor McLean in his annual message to the legislature and is the amount suggested by the highway commission as needed to complete the highway system in North Carolina.

While the Washington government is hopeful that the recent conference between Rear Admiral Latimer, in charge of the special service squadron in Nicaraguan waters, and Dr. Juan R. Sacasa, Liberal faction leader, may inaugurate a peaceful solution of the civil warfare, it feels further precautionary steps toward the protection of American interests are necessary.

Considerable anxiety is manifested by the Washington officials over the continued fighting in important towns in Nicaragua where Americans and other foreigners are residents.

In addition to the San Diego units, the naval transport Henderson, which is preparing to sail today from Philadelphia to Newport, R. I., to take aboard 800 bluejackets for duty with the fleet in Cuban waters, also is being held in readiness by the Navy Department to transport marines from the Quantico, Va., base to Southern waters if need for them arises. Three cruisers, the Richmond, Cincinnati and Marblehead, which arrived yesterday at Honolulu from Nicaragua en route to the Asiatic fleet, are being detained at the Hawaiian port to await further orders.

The airplane division, consisting of 100 officers and men, will be used in reconnaissance work particularly to keep the American naval commanders on both the east and west coasts of Nicaragua posted on the movements of the Nicaraguan factions' forces. The planes also will carry standard machine guns and bombing equipment.

Weaver, oldest citizen of this town and father of Congressman Zebulon Weaver of the Tenth North Carolina District, received a serious injury to his left hip yesterday afternoon in a fall when his feet became entangled in a rope being dragged by a rebelled cow. He was thrown violently to the ground and his hip was badly dislocated although not broken. Captain Weaver is 85 years old, a Confederate veteran and one of Buncombe's best known citizens. He was reported resting well at an Asheville hospital today.

OVER TWO HUNDRED BELIEVED KILLED IN SERIES QUAKE

Another Earthquake in Herzegovina Yesterday Took Lives of 91 Persons

Belgrade, Jugoslavia Feb. 17.—(AP)—The populace today had scarcely recovered from tremors of Sunday and Tuesday when yesterday a violent shock virtually destroyed a small town killing 91 persons.

The new tremors felt at Sarajevo, where an avalanche caused by the quakes, killed 12 persons on Tuesday. Inhabitants of Southern Herzegovina were thrown into panic when a small river disappeared through a shift in the earth's strata.

It was believed today that at least two hundred persons lost their lives in the three day's quakes with the possibility of the figure going higher when communication with isolated towns is restored.

Little hope was held out by the Belgrade seismological station that the disturbances were at an end.

NORTHERN ARMY LOSING GROUND IN CHINESE WAR

Reports Today Indicate Fall of Hangchow and Retreat of Sun's Troops

Shanghai Feb. 17.—(AP)—Hangchow, regarded as the gateway to Shanghai, was believed to have fallen into the hands of the Cantonese invaders. The troops of Marshal Sun Chuan-fang ruler of the province of Kiangsu of which Shanghai is the chief city, were reported evacuating Hangchow after their defeat by the Cantonese.

Fighting was taking place in the outskirts of Hangchow, city of 800,000 population as early as last night, said a foreigner who arrived here by train. The soldiers of Sun were falling back then, demoralized before the Cantonese onslaught.

Nationalist claims of the capture of Hangchow had not been confirmed here tonight but railway officials of the Hangchow-Shanghai line said there was the utmost confusion in that city because of trains standing by there to evacuate the headquarters of Marshal Sun Chuan-fang's defending army.

The Cantonese forces were only ten miles from Hangchow this morning, lining up on the city and west approaches to the north and pressing hard on the retreating Northern army. Confirmation of the city's fall was expected momentarily, as it may already have become an accomplished fact.

It is clear that the Northern army in Chekiang province, of which Hangchow is the capital, has collapsed but whether disintegration is so complete as to prevent further effective resistance to an attack on Shanghai is uncertain. Hangchow is but 113 miles from here.

Foreign authorities here believe Marshal Sun has finally lost Chekiang province unless he receives reinforcements from the Shantung Northern army. No Shantung support has been forthcoming up to the present.

HOPE FOR VOTE ON FARM MEASURE THIS AFTERNOON

Proponents of McNary-Haugen Bill Making Effort to Force Vote Late Today

Washington, Feb. 17.—(AP)—Advocates of the McNary-Haugen farm relief bill will attempt to force a vote late today, and if their more is unsuccessful they believe the final roll call on the measure will be taken not later than 5 p. m. tomorrow.

Chairman Haugen of the agricultural committee in charge of the bill said that while there had been numerous requests by House members for time to air their views the great bulk of the House appeared ready to vote.

The House today refused to substitute the Aswell farm relief bill for the McNary-Haugen measure. The vote against substitution was 100 to 144.

Although a second vote on the Aswell bill may come later today's action narrowed the fight more closely between the Curtis-Crisp bill and the McNary-Haugen measure and gave the first preliminary test of strength as between two of the rival bills. There was no record vote. Representative Crisp, Democrat, Georgia next moved substitution of the bill bearing his name.

DEATH TOLL FROM STORM CLIMBS AS REPORTS COME IN

More Than Score Known Dead in West Coast Storm and Property Damage $7,000,000

San Francisco, Feb. 17.—(AP)—Despite the confusion and roar of high water, flood stricken Southern California today turned an eye toward the growing totals of death and destruction as the result of the worst storm in its history, while thousands of its besieged citizens sought refuge from a menace still unabated.

With the known death toll standing at 21, property losses from rain, snow and wind which has beset the Southland with unprecedented violence for four days probably will total several million dollars. Up to an early hour today 5,000 persons had been driven from their homes.

A survey late last night made up from reports received over limited lines of communication, showed at least 20 cities had been partly or wholly deluged, seven of them badly. Damage to bridges alone in Los Angeles was estimated at $1,000,000.

The estimate of the San Diego losses could not be made early today.

A survey of damage at Taft, which is out of the southern flood area, where a wind-torn trolley covered nearly 100 oil derricks, indicated the loss there would run to $250,000 or more. San Francisco shippers claimed a loss of $119,000 due to the weather.

Union Pacific railroad officials said equipment destroyed in the wreck of the road's Los Angeles Chicago flyer at Whittier Tuesday night would represent a $150,000 loss.

Untold damage was caused to crops, orchards, highways and homes in the San Fernando Valley, where several towns were inundated.

The death toll in the snowslide in the mountains about Elyria reached 13 last night when coroners' reports had been checked. Two avalanches struck the camp of the Southern California Edison Company there, causing the greatest tragedy of the storm. Twenty four persons caught in the slide are still in hospitals.

Besides San Diego and Los Angeles, the badly flooded cities include Long Beach, where some 2,500 persons were driven from their homes. Venice where 600 or more were forced to flee; Anaheim, with 20 blocks inundated, and Fullerton, where 40 blocks were under water.

At Anaheim an oil tank hopped over and added its 80,000 barrels of petroleum to the flood. At Escondido, one of the show places of San Diego County, 6.62 inches of rain fell Tuesday and early Wednesday.

Traffic in the southland was completely paralyzed for a time but limited eastward train service was resumed at Los Angeles last night.

The death list included one drowning at San Diego, four from traffic accidents in Los Angeles, one death at Taft and one at Riverside.

In several of the cities the water reached a depth of three to six feet. Some places in the Mission Valley of San Diego County were reported to have been under 10 feet of water.

San Gabriel River threatened for a time to break through the control levees and the Santa Ana River left its banks late yesterday impeding the Anaheim-Garden Grove district. Other rivers in Southern California, normally mere ribbons of dry sand, have been on rampages, ripping out bridges sweeping houses from their foundations and gouging out highways.

Inter-city communication by roads and railways still was demoralized with San Diego Riverside, San Bernardino, Oceansouth and Chatsworth isolated.

Denver, Colo., Feb. 17.—(AP)—Three persons were dead, several injured and damage to highways and railroads was reported today following heavy snow and rain storms in the Rocky Mountain States.

The three dead were victims of separate snow slides which swept uping communities near Price, Utah, yesterday. The slides occurred on both sides of Indian Summit, blocking all traffic into the Utah basin.

Rainstorms of cloudburst proportions washed out roads in Southern Utah.

Broadway to Again See the "Captive" on Next Monday

New York, Feb. 17.—(AP)—The entire cast of "The Captive," railed Broadway play, was enrolled today in the ranks of a new producer, Horace Liveright, publisher, for performances in defiance of police mandate.

Liveright announced his intentions after four members of the cast were freed of the charges of producing an immoral play, on their promise that the production would close. Charges were also withdrawn against the men who have been producing the play.

Liveright's announcement prompted a new declaration of war from acting Mayor McKee. "We will meet that challenge," he said. "If Mr. Liveright attempts to put on that show, he and every member of his cast will be placed under arrest."

Liveright announced "The Captive" would reopen Monday, although he has yet to obtain a license. He declined to announce the theatre in which the show will be presented. He said he has obtained cabined authorization from Edouard Bourdet of Paris, author of the play. Plans for obtaining a protective injunction are being considered.

A statement issued over the signatures of the members of the cast said the players "refuse to be intimidated." "Far from feeling that we have been engaged in the commission of a crime for the past six months," the statement read, "we feel that we have been privileged in using our talents in a play of highest literary merit and social value."

The setting of the play is in France and the theme is abnormal fascination.

JUNIOR CLASS TO PRESENT "THE INTIMATE STRANGERS"

The junior college class of East Carolina Teachers College, will present to the public, on February 25, Booth-Tarkington's modern play, "The Intimate Strangers." The same wholesome humor which characterizes Mr. Tarkington's former plays is found in the comedy, which the college students are to present. It richly abounds in love, life and laughter.

The first scene is laid in a railway station. That's not queer when you recollect that a lot of romance happens on trains. If you like people for their naturalness, you will become friends with the old station master who is ticket agent, telegraph operator, baggage man and janitor at this obscure junction in the country.

There are Ames and Isabel, victims of circumstance as well as of the storm. You'll laugh at our old Aunt Ellen and say, "That's just the way with old folks." But Florence and Johnny White do give her some pretty severe shocks. Under the capable direction of Mrs. D. C. Gordon, of Farmville, the junior class is well able to give a clear and pleasing interpretation of this delightful comedy. Come "live, laugh, love and be happy" with "The Intimate Strangers."

MASQUERADE SKATING

HUMAN NATURE
 That there is still within the breast of human beings a desire to lift up the fallen and relieve suffering, despite the fact that calamity howlers would have you believe the whole world is money mad and nothing else matters, was evidenced by the citizens of Woodruff, South Carolina, who on yesterday closed their places of business to aid in the rescue of a dog entombed in a cave by a rock fall. Makes no difference if it was only a dog, it was the pet of the community and its life was at stake. After many long hours the rescuers were rewarded by the sound of a joyous bark from the canine followed by the sight of its wagging tail as the animal bounded forth from its prison into the arms of its master. There was great rejoicing among the residents of Woodruff just before dawn today when the rescuers returned from their labors feeling that they were justly rewarded for the long hours they had spent in the rescue. Even though it was "just a dog" the event goes to show that there is still feeling and a desire to be of service within the heart of the people.

THE GOSPEL OF GOOD ROADS
 It is not so long ago that the Caterpillar Tractor Company published a most interesting volume, entitled "Out of the Rut." This book's story began almost at the beginning of time and showed the history of road building up to the present. It brought out forcibly the fact that in many sections of the county the gospel of good roads is still in that stage characteristic of the middle 19th Century, covering only the veriest beginnings of modern roadway system. It is almost inconceivable that any American community could countenance indefinitely the handicap of poor roads. The whole history of the world's advance is inseparable from its transportation facilities. The world has prospered with the development of transportation rather than transportation with the development of the world. Those who live on the great highways suffer because there are places in this nation where good roads do not abound. It is for the general welfare that we should spread the gospel of good roads until it taps and develops the hindmost regions, adding wealth and greater prosperity to our unified nation.

"CROPPING" TIMBER
 "A shift from a 'mining' to a 'cropping' system of timber utilization," is a new phrase used to describe the changing attitude of the American people with regard to making forest lands more productive. The old custom consisted in extracting timber much as metals have to be mined from the earth, making the most of available supplies. It looked upon a stand of timber as upon a lode of metal—to be used once. The cropping system looks upon trees as upon any other self-perpetuating crop, to be so developed as to give the highest yield over an endless period of time. One of the principal advantages of the cropping system is that it often improves the entire stand by removing trees that are too crowded, and by eliminating underbrush which leads often to forest fires. As the success of the large lumber companies in applying this system becomes known, the small owners of forest lands throughout the country, will doubtless be induced to take it up.

KIWANIS MINSTRELS REHEARSALS IN FULL SWING
 Performers in the big Kiwanis minstrels are rounding into shape to the tune of the snappiest, fastest stepping song numbers ever heard in Greenville, and on Tuesday, March 1st, Greenville's greatest home talent minstrel will flash behind the footlights in a real Kiwanian manner; sending on its premier a swift moving spectacle of fun, specialty acts and music. The college auditorium stage with a wonderful setting and a spectacular cast will cause the folks to rub their eyes for it will dazzle like the dew drops caressed by the morning sunshine. Not only is the Kiwanis minstrel first part an eye opener on the scale of a big city production, but the olio and all of the acts in between are well staged with the best lighting and costuming effects to show them off. In the first part two huge flood lights will be played on the set from angles behind the main drop and a big spot light will be in the back part of the house for the stars to twinkle in. The producers, Heritage and Morris, minstrel men of note, upon their arrival in Greenville to direct the rehearsals, were more than pleased to renew acquaintance with Mr. C. B. Rowlett, Kiwanis secretary, whom they remembered in days gone by as a star of the first magnitude with various professional musical comedies among them the outstanding musical comedy "Silver Slipper," where he had carved a niche in the marble of the celebrities. The fact that he is one of the best known Kiwanian secretaries in North Carolina is a mere incident, and to hear him sing his famous end song "When the Banana Skins Are Falling Off, I'll Come Sliding Home to You" will be with out a doubt, the biggest fun treat of the season. And when "Tige" Gardner another premier black face comedian tells you about "His Corned Indiana Girl," who had to buy a sofa cause the davenport was week"—you will rock in your seats with laughter, and these are only two of the well known cast of 50 incomparable fun makers that are giving their time and talents for the benefit of our city public library, through the Greenville Kiwanis Club, representing the leading citizens of Greenville who have a reputation for doing things it starts and doing them according to the highest standards and this big minstrel show will be no exception to the rule.

Kansas City, Feb. 17.—(INS)—The passing of the Jazz Rage, recently heralded by the social philosophers of Manhattan, is bringing forth loud and numerous hallooings from the agrarian stretches between the Rockies and the Mississippi, where apprehension for the modern trend of American civilization has always been the gravest and where provincial prophets have foreseen the blackest consequences.

Already, in press and pulp opinion, a change for the better can be detected, particularly in the habits and diversions of the rising generation. Youth in the Middle West does not come in for the censure that it did. Perhaps that is the reason it has slackened its pace—if it has.

It seems to be uncertain whether there has been a detectable jading in its taste for the unconventional or whether this is an imaginary observation, resulting from a more tolerant attitude on the part of the Midwest's social commentators.

A real change for the better, so far as the stage is concerned, has been noted by the veteran actor George Arliss.

The theatre is not going to the dogs, Arliss told an audience of women here the other day. Patrons of the drama soon will be satisfied with "dirt" plays, he predicted, even as some time ago they became satisfied with "leg shows," diversified dramas will die a natural death, he said.

Arliss, in blaming producers for the decline of plays remarked:

"It is unfortunate we have a financing center so large and important as New York. There are so many theatres there that the managers engage in a wild scramble for the sensational. First it was bare legs, then it was bad language; now it is plays that are in bad taste. But they will pass."

Honourables here have been warned against a red-headed sailor who is trying to exchange two 40 Turkish rugs for women's blouses.

This droll salesman was first reported a few days ago by a woman on the south side who, after listening interestingly to the story of how he obtained the rugs while on shore leave in Turkey, offered him a check for $10 for one of them. The sailor had asked $40 but finally took the check and departed.

An examination of the rug revealed it was imitation, and when the sailor went to cash the check, he learned payment on it had been stopped. He returned to his customer, who offered to give him back the rug.

The sailor then told her he did not want the rug. He would give it to her for a kiss, he said. She refused. He countered with an offer of both rugs for a kiss. The woman threatened to scream. The sailor hurried away.

He took the rugs with him.

Samuel Insull, Chicago traction magnate, and Robert E. Charges that William D. Shepherd, of Chicago, killed his ward, William Nelson McClintock, of which Shepherd was once acquitted, were revived by relatives who sought to obtain McClintock's estate. Alexander P. Moore former Ambassador to Spain, refused the post of censor of to wear. At least that's what prompted Francis S. Brown to steal a large bundle of nightshirts from a clothing establishment here, he told the judge. Brown admitted the theft and drew a $100 fine for shoplifting.

The only man in the Middle West if not in America, to hold a diploma from an accredited meat school is a distinction that belongs to Henry C. Nener, a meat dealer here. He was graduated in 1909 from the Meat School of Leipzig, Germany, which is devoted entirely to the study of meat, dispreparation and blending. The diploma, signed by a director of the school has an artistic and symbolic border depicting mankind bearing meat products to the feet of a goddess.

Men! Let's Talk Clothes

Suits That Have the Punch of Good Style and Real Value! Furnishings, Hats and Shoes Too

A Customer's Confidence In Our Business Method

Not long ago, a man came into one of our stores and talked in an interested way about our method of doing business.

"I certainly like to trade in a J. C. Penney Company Store," he said, "and the main reason is not that I realize that I save and thereby make money on my purchases.

"The main reason is that you do not tell me you are selling me a ten dollar article for six dollars; you sell your merchandise upon its merits.

"When you sell me a pair of Shoes at five dollars and ninety cents, I am confident that every thing that can be put into that pair of Shoes at that price is in them. Truly you have a great and good method."

What greater satisfaction can be derived from being in business than to hear one's customers talk that way about his store?
