GANG WARFARE IN CHICAGO HAS STARTED ANEW

Peace Past Between Rival Bootleg Gangs Brought to End With Last Night's Killing

Chicago, March 12.—(AP)—Gangland's truce has ended. Two henchmen of Joe Saltis, who recently signed a peace pact with members of a rival band of liquor rangers, were slain late last night when they were riddled with machine gun bullets poured into their automobile on the West side.

A slaying earlier in the evening also was linked by police to a renewal of the warfare.

Belief existed that Saltis, himself, may have been an intended victim of the fullscale, as the car in which his slain lieutenants were riding belonged to the former Cicero street gang.

The recent arrest of four men who were siphoning whiskey from a government warehouse holding $1,000,000 worth of pre-prohibition liquor was believed to have started gangland seething.

Rumors were prevalent that the arrests were the result of a tip by liquor rivals and reprisals were expected.

The men slain last night were Frank "Lefty" Koneil and Frank Hubback, who had several aliases police said.

The man earlier in the night was Benjamin Schneider, real estate dealer and reputed companion of northside bootleggers.

Koneil and Hubback were found dead in the large expensive automobile in which they had been riding. A hole three inches in diameter had been blown through the rear left door of the car. All the windows on both sides and the rear had been shattered with gunfire, as had the windshield.

Machine gun fire had cut thru the front part of the car across the driver's seat so that not only the windows but their upright supports on both sides had been almost cut away.

Hubback had fallen about 15 feet away from the limousine. Koneil, trailing blood, had got half a block away from the car. He had plotted his escape across a prairie to the northeast, but was brought down by a fatal wound or collapsed from other wounds.

500 ARMED TROOPS ATTEMPT TO ENTER FOREIGN DISTRICT

Infantry Holds Back Shantungese Who Rush International Settlement Shanghai

(By The Associated Press.) The first attempted invasion of the international settlement at Shanghai by armed Shantungese soldiers occurred today.

A group numbering about 500 approached the settlement but 200 British soldiers of the Durham Light Infantry were rushed up and the Shantungese withdrew.

Guards about the international settlement at Shanghai were doubled this afternoon.

Native bankers at Shanghai are worried over the demands of General Chang Tsung-Chang, Shantungese leader, for money to finance his defense of the city against the Cantonese.

The second anniversary of the death of Dr. Sun Yat Sen, pioneer Chinese Republican leader, was observed at Shanghai today, many factories failing to open. Labor unrest there is increasing and strikes multiplying.

Despite the bad weather Chang Tsung Chang continues to bring up reinforcements to defend Shanghai. According to reports in London the Cantonese may start a big drive to capture Shanghai within a week.

Business activities are resuming at Wuhu, on the Yangtze river where anti-foreign riots occurred a few days ago.

Shanghai, March 12.—(AP)—Five hundred armed Shantungese attempted to enter the international settlement in Shanghai today, but were kept out by a detachment of Durham Light Infantry.

It was understood this morning that 100 Shantungese had received permission to pass through the settlement but on the provision that they first be disarmed.

Later, two English guards on the bridge leading to the settlement saw a large body of troops approaching. The guards refused passage to the Chinese, and in response to requests for reinforcements, 200 men of the Durham Light Infantry rushed up, ready for action.

The Shantungese apparently realizing the futility of attempting to force a passage, retired. The guards at the entrances to the settlement were doubled this afternoon.

Of this amount $190,000 came in yesterday.

ATTEMPTS LIFE OF AMERICAN CONSUL SAO PAULO, BRAZIL

Aged American Resident of Brazil Inflicts Knife Wounds That May Prove Fatal

Buenos Aires, March 12.—(AP)—A dispatch to La Nacion from Sao Paulo, Brazil, today said Horacio W. Goforth, American consul there, was still in the hospital today in a grave condition, from the knife wounds inflicted upon him yesterday. His assailant, an American giving the name of David C. field, is 73 years old and has been a resident of Brazil since 1871.

About two years ago, the dispatch says, C. field made an effort to return to the United States but found that he could not obtain a passport. Recently he had again been pressing to regular authorities in this connection.

He called at the consular office at about 10 o'clock yesterday morning and talked violently to Mr. Goforth. Finally he produced a knife and stabbed the consul several times. He told the police that he had acted in self defense.

Raleigh, N. C., March 12.—(AP)—At least one man was more than aware of the fact today that it is not best to carry liquor on one's person while attending justices of the peace court.

The tag was found by officers in the home of John Robertson, negro, against whom liquor charges have been preferred.

Held in Death of Boy

The finding of the body of four-year-old John H. Doe, for whom Mrs. Kelley kept house, was alleged to have struck a blow from which the boy died. The woman brought her 17-month-old baby, James, to jail with her, but authorities separated them. Mussolini doesn't believe in democracy. Thus far results seem to support his beliefs.

Democracy, on the other hand, doesn't believe in Mussolini. Whether in their early long run democracy or Mussolini had the right idea, only history will tell.

Meanwhile, Mussolini plans to do away with anything like democratic government in Italian colonies. Something like the old Roman system of pro-consuls will be established, and colonies directed by the governing intelligence of Italy.

Great Britain, old in colonizing, takes, the other tack, saying to her colonies, "run yourselves, let's be friendly."

Britain's next big test is promised in India. Non-Asiatic observers predict trouble and "raging discontent." They find everywhere a demand for "liberty," which is interesting, considering that in five thousand year of Indian literature the word "liberty" was never printed until recently.

Whatever may happen to Britain in India future generations will remember with amazement that one hundred thousand Britishers in India were able to hold down three hundred million Asiatics, and at the same time do away with suttee, the burning alive of India's widows and the horrible system of child marriage.

PRI SONERS UNDER DEATH SENTENCE ATTEMPT ESCAPE

Two Made Getaway, Another Shot Down, Three Others Subdued After Battle of Hours

Joilet, Ill., March 12.—(AP)—An investigation of the Joilet jail break was started today by the state's attorney's office after Charles Duchowski, one of the three subdued convicts, asserted in his cell that "It took $1,500 to pull the job."

The prisoner declined to discuss in detail the escape and statements obtained from his two trembling comrades were incoherent.

Chicago, March 12.—(AP)—Three of six desperate convicts under sentence to hang for murder, were subdued in their cell at the Joilet jail early today after a battle of hours with officers, while three companions in a sensational prison break, escaped to Chicago, where one of them wounded two policemen and a taxi driver. Robert Torrez was shot and captured and apprehension of the other two was expected momentarily.

The six were members of a band of seven who escaped last May after killing Peter M. N. Klein, deputy warden of the model new penitentiary at Joliet, Ill. All but one of the band subsequently was captured, returned to prison, tried and sentenced to be hanged.

By a coincidence one of the dates set for the execution was this morning, but an appeal to the State Supreme Court gave them a respite.

The settee included three Americans and three Mexicans and it was the latter trio that got away taking a deputy with them as a cover. They made their way to Chicago in a stolen automobile. Detective squads had been dispatched to the city's outlying districts in an attempt to capture the convicts and in a brush with one of these, one of the fleeing men shot two patrolmen.

The policemen were rushed to a hospital where one was said to be in a serious condition with a wound in his stomach.

The six had been confined in the county jail at Joilet since their conviction and it was said there that the three Americans finally were subdued under a barrage of tear gas bombs, after they had held off a large force of police and guards for several hours.

Jail officials had turned off all lights and advancing through the darkened building, the attackers captured the trio without a casualty. The prisoners were relieved of two guns and then strapped to the bars of their cells. They are Charles Duchowski, and Walter Stalock, reputed leaders of the May jail break plot and Charles Shadler, a triple slayer at the age of 19.

The Mexicans were Bernardo Roberto Torrez and Gregorio Rizo.

STATE COLLEGE SCHEDULES GRID CONTEST FOR DECEMBER

Washington, March 12.—(AP)—Johnson J. Hayes of Greensboro, N. To Begin Probe Board of Health During Next Week

Raleigh, N. C., March 12.—(AP)—Attorney General Brummitt, directed by Governor McLean to investigate charges of irregularities in the State Board of Health's administration of sanitary laws, is not expected to act upon the executive's request before next week.

The legal official has been ill this week, he said, but will act on the matter as soon as possible.

The request for investigation resulted from the recent fight in the legislature over modification of the privy law in which Senator Rivers Johnson, of Duplin, said on the floor of the Senate that "somebody is getting craft out of the contracts that are letting for building of privies." He added that he would be glad to appear before any investigator the Governor might name and give such information he might have.

Tallahassee, Fla., March 12.—(AP)—Governor John W. Martin today ordered Sheriff Paul C. Bryan, of Broward County, to "break up the gambling at the 'Empress' race track," and county Judge Fred R. Shipley to co-operate with the sheriff in doing so.

SAY GOLD STRIKE IS RICHEST FIND IN ALL HISTORY

Movie of Early Gold Rush Cannot Equal Present Scenes at Weepah, Nevada

Tonopah, Nev., March 12.—(AP)—Evidence that Weepah, new gold boom town northwest of here, rests on a golden foundation was plentiful here today after its discovery had given demonstrations to skeptical arrivals.

While 200 persons looked on, a reporter, guided by Frank Horton, owner of Weepah's principal claim, dug his fist into the earth and pulled out as much rock soil as his hand could hold. Another newspaperman crushed it, and it was panned by Horton. It produced two tablespoonsful of gold.

Thirteen ore snags filled as the result of leisurely picking on the claim stood nearby. Each contained 80 pounds of ore. Horton said each sack would produce $1,800 worth of gold.

Fred Gilbert, seasoned young "desert rat" who recently sold a claim 12 miles from Weepah to New York interests for $100,000 and who not so long ago found ore near here which produced $12 in gold to the pound, declared after seeing the find that he "never would speak of high grade ore again."

Sourdoughs and prospectors who have ranged from the Yukon to Peru and from Crispin Creek to Hudson Bay, said they never had seen such pay ore.

Weepah today began to bloom forth as a real town. Its first "emporium" hung out a sign reading:

"Water $2 a barrel; gasoline 50 cents a gallon; ham and eggs 80 cents; white mule 60 cents a drum; chaser free."

Guy Millard, prospector who saw goldfield at its height, said after examining the Horton-Trail claim, that he had seen rock which was worth $80,000 to $100,000 a ton.

So far as blooming into a regular town, Weepah is under serious handicap. No one will work for $10 a day at carpenter work while there is prospect of becoming rich overnight by hunting gold. There is no lumber in the camp with which to build.

OUR SATURDAY NIGHT MEDITATION

ON MAKING THINGS AGAIN

Jeremiah 18:4: — "So he made it again."

The prophet has been describing a potter in the act of moulding a piece of clay into a vessel of usefulness; and somehow he had marred in the making. Instead of throwing it out on the rubbish heap, he set himself to make it again, and to fashion it into something else. It was not an unusual thing for a potter to do. But the prophet had a high appreciation of common ordinary things. He could feel the wonder of the usual—a gift which we can all cultivate to some extent, and for which we should earnestly strive.

Being a religious man, the prophet read into this simple action a divine significance. He saw and felt profoundly, that this potter was an acted variable of God. God is always making things again.

This is true in NATURE. God is always making it again. An artist paints a picture of the Spring, beautiful and riotous with color; but when he has painted it, he has done with it; that picture he never paints a second time. But God not only paints the Spring, but every year He paints it again. He works by repetition—yet we never weary of it. Every morning the sun is in the east; every evening the stars bedeck the sky; every year the Spring comes back scattering its largesse over hill and meadow; every Autumn the woods are garlanded in russet and crimson and gold—but we do not tire of them because they reveal something of the depths of His eternal patience who "maketh them AGAIN."

That is also true of SCRIPTURE. How wonderfully the Book Divine changes to us! Is not God continually making it again? When we were young, it was a Book little understood, but full of stories which held our interest especially when mother told them to us in the evenings. Now the years have flown, knowledge has come—knowledge of life and of sin; we have been near to shipwreck perhaps; and is not the Bible a new Book to us?

By every temptation we have been called to face, by every burden we have had to bear, by every sin and failure, we have been led into the heart of the Book and to grip its promises as a drowning man grips a spar. Yet it is the same old Bible of our childhood days, with the same old stories, of Daniel in the lion's den, and Joseph let down into the pit.

But it is a thousand times richer and deeper because through the chequering strain of life, God has been "making it again."

3. How true this is, also, of LIFE. It is the secret and foundation of our human brotherhood. Thousands of years ago, perhaps millions, He made the human heart; ever since He has been making it again. You were a baby once, innocent and ignorant, and "with no language but a cry," and now, perhaps, you have a little baby of your own. The whole deep kinship of humanity, with its oneness through the scattered ages, is only the other side of this truth, "He maketh it again."

4. Then, when we turn to JESUS CHRIST we find the same patient and beautiful persistence. He is, indeed, "the express image" of God's person. He made things, and He made them beautifully. He made wine out of the common spring water. He made a feast out of a few loaves and two small fishes. He made a calm sea out of a storm. But the glory of His redeeming work is seen in His recreations. His "making things again."

Think of the Gadarene demoniac. Once he was a strong and happy man, living at home with his loving wife and children; now he was a spectacle more repulsive than a beast. Then Christ came, met him and spoke to him, and by His recreating power the demoniac was remade. Christ touched the leper, and made him again. He healed the palsied, and made him again. He got into touch with despised Zaccheus, and when He left him Zaccheus was remade.

That is the Saviour we all need, The Saviour who, if we will yield to His plastic touch, can "save unto the uttermost," and make us over again.

Our highest wisdom is to yield to Him; our earnest prayer should be: "Lord remake me: make me again what Thou wouldst have me be."

INDIGESTION

North Carolina Lady Says She Had An Awful Time With Indigestion, Till She Took Black-Draught.

Pilot Mountain, N. C.—"For several years I suffered with a bad case of chronic indigestion," says Mrs. Sam C. Inman, of this place. "I had bad spells with my stomach. At times I had severe pains in my right side. My stomach would get upset and I would have an awful time. It seemed like everything I ate disagreed with me. I was in pretty bad shape."

"My husband had been using Theford's Black-Draught for some time for indigestion. He had spells of it too, so he suggested that I try Black-Draught. I took some from his box, just to see if it would help me, and I found it was the very thing for my trouble. It did me a great deal of good. My condition was brought on by a chronic case of constipation and, by getting relief from this, I found my general health was much better."

"We keep Black-Draught in the house all the time. Whenever I find I need it, I take several doses and thus avert a bad spell of indigestion. It is a splendid medicine and I am glad to say so."

STOCK MARKET
New York, March 12.—(AP)—The usual week-end shifting of speculative accounts imparted irregularity to the price movement in today's stock market but the main tendency appeared to be upward. Fortified by the practical assurance of easy money rates for some time to come, operators for the rise confidently bid up their favorites but bear traders continued to resist the advance in many issues.

WEEKLY GRAIN REPORT
Chicago, March 12.—(AP)—Sharp differences are developing as to how much wheat is available for export and carry over in the United States between now and July 1. Authoritative estimates current today put the amount at 4,000,000 bushels more than was the case a year ago, and there is no denying that sellers of late had had the advantage.
Compared with a week ago, wheat this morning showed 13-4 to 23-4 cent drop, with corn 3-8 to 1-2 to 1-4 cent down, oats 1 to 11-8 to 13-4 cent off and provisions at a setback of 12 cents to 25 cents.

WEEKLY STOCK REVIEW
New York, March 12.—(AP)—The stock market, after a further slight readjustment of the weakened technical position resulting from February's almost perpendicular advance, started upward again this week with speculative interest shifting from the industrial to the railroad shares. The announcement of the new government financing, practically furnishing assurance of easy money rates for some time to come, was the principal sustaining factor. Despite the competition afforded by new offerings and the approach of income tax payments, bond prices also moved upward to record high levels. Some of the United States Government issues touched the highest levels reached by a federal government security since the Civil War.
Steel shares displayed a firm undertone in reflection of expanding mill operations and the firming price tendency.
Further unsettlement developed in the oil shares as a result of the extension of recent gasoline and crude oil price cuts but favorable dividend announcements helped to revive confidence in oil securities.

Construction work is starting on the big territorial natatorium at Waikiki beach this city, which is to be the territory's memorial to those who served in the great war.

The money for this project was appropriated in 1919, but owing to government red tape was not available for use until certain alterations had been made in the original plans. It is expected that the natatorium will be completed in time for the international swimming meet which is to be held here the last week in August of this year.

Governor W. R. Farrington has been authorized by the bureau of aeronautics of the department of commerce to act as its representative for the control of all commercial flying in the territory of Hawaii. Contemporaneous with the governor's appointment was the announcement by local business men that a corporation would shortly be organized here to conduct commercial aviation among the various islands on regular schedules.

which is to meet in Honolulu next July. The total Japanese delegation will number fifteen, including a number of experts in various branches of economics and industry. This will be the second session of the Institute, the first having been held here in July 1925.

New York State considers stage censorship to discourage stage decency.

Clergymen appearing before the Legislature did not agree. A spokesman for Bishop Manning, of the Protestant Episcopal church, opposed censorship.

Monsignor Lavelle said to the Legislature, "I bring a message from Cardinal Hayes. He is heart and soul for cleaning up the stage and for this bill."

The odds are about 100 to 1 that the bill will be passed and stage censorship established.

Decent managers and actors will have their less respectable colleagues to thank for the censorship.
