TWO FOUNTAIN YOUTHS AND POLICE OFFICER BOUND OVER TO COURT

Dennis Mercer and Preston Gardner Under Bond of $1,000 for Assaulting Police Officer While Officer is Under $500 Bond on Counter Warrant

Slain; Boy Held

Anna Harris, sixteen, was shot to death in her Brooklyn home. Walter Goldberg, eighteen, next door neighbor and an admirer of the girl, was arrested by police.

Preston Gardner and Dennis Mercer, of Fountain, were this morning bound over to Superior Court under bonds of $1,000 each and Policeman A. D. Gardner, of Fountain, was bound over under bond of $500 as a result of the recent affair in Fountain in which the policeman shot the two young men when they are alleged to have assaulted him after threatening to take his life.

The warrant against the two young men was sworn out before Justice of the Peace C. B. Rowlett while that against Policeman Gardner was obtained from Justice of the Peace H. F. Tyson.

While a number of defense witnesses were on hand for the hearing this morning only State witnesses in the charges against the two boys were placed upon the stand and upon the findings in this case Magistrate Rowlett ordered them held under $1,000 bond for Superior Court.

The warrants under which young Gardner and Mercer were bound over charge them with conspiracy to assault with intent to kill, assault with intent to kill, and driving an automobile on the public highways while in an intoxicated condition.

According to the first stories of the affair the policeman arrested the boys during the afternoon prior to the night the shooting occurred.

He charged that later in the evening they returned to town, raced their car through the streets and then let it be known that they were looking for him to get even.

Evidence would show Senator Reed said that Sapiro sent organizers throughout the country, painting a panacea for the ills of farmers, promising them fine homes, riches, college education for their children and large automobiles.

Cooper Serving Road Sentence in New Hanover

Wilmington, N. C., March 17.—(AP)—Thomas E. Cooper, former Wilmington banker, was today serving time on the New Hanover County roads.

Under an eight year sentence on charges of violating the State banking laws, Cooper early last night reported to the superintendent of the New Hanover County stockade was assigned to a cell.

Friends had asked the superior, tendent to provide light work for the former banker, but Captain "Dick" Burnett, in charge, said that there was no "light" work on the face.

JEFF ASHWORTH NOW ON THE ROAD TO HIS RECOVERY

Hundreds Visit Scene Where Man Was Imprisoned in Well for 13 Hours

Stephens Home, Chatham County, March 17.—(AP)—Jeff Ashworth spent a restless night, but was pronounced on the road to recovery by attending physicians today.

Close watch was being kept today for evidences of possible internal injuries, but none had developed. A continuing headache and stiffness in every joint were the ailments the young farmer complained of most frequently.

More cheerful today than yesterday, Jeff appeared more reluctant to talk about his burrowing experience. He expressed himself as wanting to forget those 13 hours he was buried alive in a 56-foot well under ten tons of stone.

A bulletin issued early today, by Dr. B. W. Burt, described Ashworth as progressing nicely but suffering from stiffness and lacerations that made it unsafe to move him from the Stephens farm to his own home, four miles away over a winding and rocky road.

Today the ten mile trail from Fountains Springs through a corner of Harnett county into Chatham again was cluttered with automobiles bringing their cargoes of sight-seers. The huge stone pile lifted out of the well, stone by stone, from Ashworth's body was gradually disappearing under souvenir hunters' touch.

More cameras than this isolated region had ever seen were brought into play—all the way from dainty postage stamp affairs in the hands of giggling flappers, to regular newspaper machines. Everything was shot and reshot, from the yawning black hole bereft of its stone lining to the gory cloth tumbler's camp that served as the only buffer between the imprisoned man's head and the Atlas-like burden.

Mrs. Ashworth, who stood the suspense of long hours when death lurked in the ancient well her husband had assiduously toiled to protect them. She has a little place on the rocky Chatham soil, but farming last year was not good. Jeff, who knows what low priced cotton means, and yesterday admitted funds were low, actually expressed apprehension about being able to pay the doctor's bills.

The Ashworths are not wealthy. Most of Jeff's immediate kin are dead, and the 22 year old farmer is "on his own." He has a little place on the rocky Chatham soil, but farming last year was not good.

Friends are seeing to that, and already a purse of more than $50 has been raised. Leaders in the community expressed confidence that the Red Cross would aid the Ashworths if JAT's injuries proved so serious as to incapacitate him from farm work, but pending developments they are not calling for outside aid.

Jeff changed his mind about wells today, friends said he told them. "He's through with old rock" (Continued on page six)

Trial of Alleged Slayers "Rum King" Continued to June

Smithfield, March 17.—(AP)—With leafs of the docket book marked "continued," the Forsythe murder case is scheduled to come up for trial in June in Superior court here, along with three others.

Court opened with prospects of trying five capital cases. One, involving negroes, was disposed of before Solicitor C. L. Williams was taken ill with an attack of laryngitis, necessitating postponement of others. The Solicitor can hardly "speak above a whisper" and was ordered to bed for the rest of the week by physicians.

TODAY

They Fired—We Fired. Great Borah—Butler Talk. To Demonstrate Up There. Go West to Seattle.

Chinese troops, near Wuhu, fired bullets against the bridge of the American destroyer Preble, while that war boat was kindly escorting a Standard Oil craft on the Yangtze river.

The Preble answered with machine gun fire. Nobody hurt, except possibly a few Chinese. It could not be helped, and there may be more trouble like that and more serious. Too bad, it CAN'T be helped.

The Yangtze is a Chinese river, we should be much annoyed if a Chinese warship were escorting a Chinese oilship, against our will up the Hudson or inside the Golden Gate.

The great Borah and Butler debate is arranged. The Senator will uphold prohibition, the college professor will try to prove that it is the cause of all our ills.

When the debate ends we shall be just where we were, some believe that you can make men good by law, others that they must learn to be wise, stumbling, falling, finally learning, as a child learns to walk.

Meanwhile, we have bootleg whiskey and the world's biggest crime wave. Also we have extraordinary prosperity, and the most amazing savings deposits and land booms.

It is for each to decide for himself, but decide will make no difference. Prohibition is here and will stay until after Senator Borah loses interest in politics and Dr. Butler joins the earth alumni, in realms above.

The League of Nations committee to "stave off war" makes an announcement that should calm any savage breast. In addition to making naval demonstrations against any nation that insists on fighting when the League happens to object, "aerial demonstrations can be used in the future, within reasonable limits."

This means, in plainer English, that the League of Nations will send flying machines roaring over the obstinate nation's big cities, sending down this notice, "We have with us, up here, an assortment of explosive bombs and poisonous gases that would interest you considerably, if we dropped them. Behave yourselves."

Such a demonstration, if the League chose to direct it against this much disliked republic nation would interest us. We have not even the hiding places for our populations, much less resources to protect them. We should have to imitate Crockett's intelligent son, which said "Don't shoot, I'll come down."

Police Capture Hold-up Men on Tip From Negro

Asheville, March 17.—(AP)—A sensational holdup of a local hotel at 3 o'clock this morning which netted two well dressed bandits $100, was frustrated just as the robbers were making their get away through the quick action of a negro fireman and the police.

The two men, R. G. Clark of West Asheville, and Frank R. Carter of Knoxville, Tenn., who held the clerk of the hotel and two negro porters at the point of their pistols were leaving the hotel after an apparently successful haul of the tell cash drawer. On the doorstep they walked into the arms of the police.

Lieutenant Andrew Smith, of the detective force caught Clark on the steps. Patrolman H. M. Jordan overtook Carter a few paces down the street. Both were looked up without bond on a charge of highway robbery. According to C. O. Stephens, 73-year-old hotel clerk, the two men entered the hotel and demanded a room. One signed his name to the register as the other stood by. A negro bell boy came forward to usher the men to their room. Immediately Carter pulled a gun from his pocket and ordered the negro and hotel clerk to stick up their hands, while Clark jumped across the railing and rifled the cash drawer.

STAR WAREHOUSE BEING ENLARGED AND REMODELED

Tobacco Warehouse of Smith and Sugg Being Enlarged for Sixth Time

The work of remodeling and enlarging the Star Warehouse began under way this morning. The present program of enlargement and improvement will add 15,000 more square feet of floor space to the house and will make it modern and up-to-date in every respect.

Smith and Sugg, owners of the Star, comprise the oldest warehouse firm on the Greenville tobacco market and have been great factors in the building of the name.

Messrs. G. V. Smith and R. B. Sugg purchased the Star Warehouse in 1914 and since that time their business has grown to such an extent that already the house has been enlarged five times and the present program makes the sixth enlargement of the house by its present owners.

The Star handled more tobacco during the past season than in any other season since it has been operated by the present owners and it was in order to take care of their ever growing business that they decided at this time to make further enlargements.

In addition to providing more floor space, the interior of the house will be made modern and up-to-date in every respect, according to the owners, and new stables for the teams of the growers who visit the market will be provided. The house, following the present work, will be one of the largest and most modern in the State.

Agents expressed the belief that they had broken up one of the largest narcotic distributing rings in the country.

MacDonald Comes a-Visiting

Accompanied by his daughter, Isabel MacDonald (upper left), Ramsey MacDonald (upper right), former British Labor Premier, planned to visit the United States, leaving England on April 19. And there's a bit of sentiment attached to the journey. MacDonald will visit Miss Lillian D. Wald (below), New York social worker identified with the famous "House on Henry Street," Miss Wald was host to MacDonald when he visited the United States thirty years ago on his honeymoon.

PERSONAL WORK SUBJECT SERMON BY DR. STANFORD

Still larger congregations last night and this morning heard the soul-stirring messages delivered by Rev. A. L. Stanford, at the revival services now in progress at Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church.

Since his arrival here Tuesday Rev. Mr. Stanford's messages have been filled with the need of more real Christian living and more activity on the part of church members and his message last night and today was no exception.

The text last night was taken from Psalm 129, verses 23 and 24. "Search me, O God, and know my heart; try me, and know my thoughts; and see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting."

The text of this morning's message was taken from the first chapter of St. John, 42 verse: "And he brought him to Jesus." With personal work as his theme the minister pictured Andrew bringing his brother to the Master. He stressed the need of real honest effort by individuals in furthering the kingdom of God and declared that not more preachers and more churches but more men and women who will engage in personal work was the greatest need of the kingdom today.

Using illustrations from the Scriptures he emphasized the fact that the greatest sermons that fell from the lips of the Son of God were not to the multitudes but to individuals. In turn, he said, the individuals can accomplish more than all the preachers and all the churches because the individual can carry the message to those who cannot be reached from the pulpit.

Each of Mr. Stanford's messages has furnished inspirations to high goals for all those who have heard him, while Mrs. Stiedley with her gospel song and word has brought delight to her hearers. Tonight's subject will be "Sonship" and the public is urged to take advantage of the opportunity of attending this series of real spiritual revival services.

MELLON BELIEVES TREASURY SURPLUS TO REACH HALF BILLION

Washington, March 17.—(AP)—Secretary Mellon believes the Treasury surplus will pass the half billion dollar mark this fiscal year. The March collection of income taxes is expected to reach $625,000,000.

The surplus will be applied to the public debt.

SINCLAIR FOUND GUILTY CONTEMPT OF U. S. SENATE

Oil Magnate Faces Fine and Jail Sentence Unless a New Trial is Granted

Washington, March 17.—(AP)—Convicted by a jury of his peers of contempt of the Senate, Harry F. Sinclair was determined today to fight his way to the highest tribunal in the land in an effort to keep out of jail.

The multi-millionaire oil operator was found guilty late last night on each of four counts in an indictment charging him with refusing to answer questions in the now historic Senate Teapot Dome oil investigation.

Unless he grants a motion for a new trial, Justice Hitz has no option other than to impose a jail sentence and a fine—a minimum of one month and $100 and a maximum of 12 months and a fine of $1,000.

Sentence will probably be passed next week and meanwhile Sinclair remains at liberty under the $5,000 bond he gave when the Grand Jury returned the indictment in the District of Columbia Supreme Court almost three years ago.

The man who rose from obscurity to a place as one of the great oil operators of the country was calm as the foreman of the jury announced the verdict. The case went to the jury at 1:59 p. m., and three hours later court recessed when it became apparent that the jury was then in serious disagreement.

Sinclair returned to the court room at 8:30 p. m. At 9:10 the case was passed, that the jury had reached a verdict but there was a wait of nearly an hour while Justice Hitz was being communicated with and proceeding to the courthouse.

As Justice Hitz arrived, the defendant stepped into the courtroom and sat down just within the rail while the jury filed to their places nearby. The roll of the jury was called and then came the question from the clerk: "Gentlemen of the jury, have you arrived at a verdict?"

"We have," returned the foreman. "What say you as to the first count?" inquired the clerk. "Guilty," came the response in a clear tone. Dead silence ensued for a second, only to be broken again by the clerk. "What say you as to the second count?"

"Guilty," was the response—and so the questions and answers went on the other two counts. Sinclair betrayed no emotion and did not even change his position as his bail bond was continued.

Names Members of New State Board of Conservation

Raleigh, N. C., March 17.—(AP)—Governor McLean today named the New State Board of Conservation and Development. The board is charged with administration of the old Fisheries Commission affairs and the newly enacted Statewide game law, in addition to regular duties of the old Conservation Department Board.

The personnel announced today is composed of E. S. Askew, Merry Hill; F. S. Worthy, Washington; R. Bruce Elmeridge, Manteo; Sanford Martin, Winston-Salem, N. C.; J. Q. Gilkey, Marion; G. L. Hampton, Canton; Frank H. Steadman, Fayetteville; George G. K. McClure, Jr., Asheville; H. L. McLara, Charlotte; S. Wade Marr, Raleigh; Fred R. Sutton, Winston; and Ed. C. Cranford, Asheville.

Of the new board, Messrs. Martin, Steadman, Gilkey, Hampton, Worthy, Askew, and Elmeridge were members of the Old Fisheries Board.

The first meeting of the board is set for March 25 here. It is slated to be a preliminary organization session. The new board takes hold April 1, when the consolidations authorized by the Legislature become effective.

Mark's Miss. March 17.—(AP)—A continuous fight by citizens and National Guardsmen was being maintained along the levees of the Pomper Lake District and the Tallahatchie River today, while fear for the safety of lives and property mounted as the result of flood conditions caused by recent heavy rains.

STATE STUDENTS OBSERVE ST. PATRICK'S DAY WITH PARADE

State College, Raleigh, March 17.—(AP)—Students and faculty members here observed St. Patrick's Day with a street parade and an engineer's fair, to be followed by a dance tonight.

Golfers Begin Their Northward Flight

Pinehurst, N. C., March 17.—(AP)—Flight of the birds and winter tourists northward from the more salubrious climes of the extreme South, and the annual United North and South sport carnival here long have been synonymous. This year will be no exception.

The Women's United North and South Golf championship will open March 24, and six days later the United North and South open will be underway. Then on April 4, the United North and South amateur tournament will draw a strong list of players.

It was back in 1901 when the tournaments had their beginning, and three years later the women's event came into formal being. Mrs. Myra D. Paterson, Englewood, N. J., won the qualifying round that year with a score of 101—quite a contrast to Glenna Collett's 77 in 1924.

Among the open champions are Donald J. Ross, now the noted golf course architect; Alex Ross, his brother; Jim Barnes, Walter Hagen, Fred McLeod, Jack Hutchinson, Macgregor Smith and Bobby Croickshank, the defending title holder this year.

Glenna Collett, Mrs. Paterson, Mary Townes, Mrs. Ronald H. Barlow, now president of the Women's Senior Golf Association, and Louise Purdy, defending champion, are a few of the women title winners.

The open and women's events often have been stepping stones to higher honors. Alex Ross won his second Pinehurst championship the same year he romped away with the National open money. In 1900, McLeod possessed his capture of the National open with a win in the North and South. Jim Barnes held the North and South and Professional Golf Association titles in 1907, and Hutchinson repeated in 1921.

Mrs. Dorothy Campbell Hurd was runner-up in the North and South when she held the British, American and Canadian titles in 1917, and the following year she returned to capture the Pinehurst event.

Many of the former champions, as well as other prominent golfers, will participate in this season's journey.

Philadelphia, March 17.—(AP)—The Philadelphia Athletics training camp at Fort Myers, Fla., was nearly abandoned today. Today and tomorrow the Athletics meet the Boston Braves in St. Petersburg. On Friday they meet the Phillies in Bradenton and on Sunday the Giants at St. Augustine.

Manager McMillin's Phillies have won their first victory of the training season, defeating the Buffalo Internationals yesterday 7-4.

TRACK CLOTHES USED AS TAKE-OFF MARKERS

New Haven, Conn., March 17.—Sabin Carr, Yale's great pole vaulter, has a habit of distributing his surplus clothing along the runway to the take-off. He parks his gym shirt at one spot, trousers at another and occasionally an extra shoe at a third mark. He does it to aid in judging the pace of his dash down the narrow cinder path.

GUARD LEADS LEAGUE IN SCORING BASKETS

Newton, Kas., March 17.—Forrest Cox, a guard on the Newton high school basketball team, lead the Arkansas Valley League in scoring this season. He scored 44 field goals and 14 free throws for a total of 102 points, or an average of 11.5 points per game.

Cox, who was named an All-American guard for work at the National Interscholastic basketball tournament at Chicago last year, has played four years with the Newton team and was captain of the 1926-27 squad.

Many of his shots were made from the center of the floor.

HARRIS GIVING ATTENTION TO HIS RECRUITS

Washington, March 17.—(AP)—With his infield and catching problems settled Manager "Bucky" Harris of the Senators today turned his attention to the recruits gathered at the Tampa, Fla., training camp with a view of selecting an outfielder. West and Ducky appear most promising. The Senators today play a second game with the Cincinnati Reds.

Boy Plays Detective for Few Minutes, but He Gets His Men

14-Year-Old Lad Shows Finished Technique in Trapping 2 Suspects

JOHN CONWAY, fourteen-year-old New York boy, was on his way to buy a bottle of castor oil at a drug store the other evening.

As he passed a sheet metal work, he saw three men back out, jump in an automobile, and speed away. Half a dozen men followed out of the building shouting "Police, robbers!" John thought fast.

He jumped on the running board of a passing auto and commanded the driver to follow the first car. He got the license number as he sped along.

When the chase got into traffic, John jumped off his machine and started to follow on foot. But the pursued car turned down a side street, and the lad lost sight of it.

Sadly he started to retrace his steps. He had gone but a little distance when he saw an automobile that resembled the one he had been chasing. It stopped to where a bicycle race was being held. Two men got out and mingled with the crowd. Carefully John followed.

In the mass he came to two policemen.

"Those men are robbers," he whispered, "but be careful, they have guns."

The police seized the men from behind. Their deft action prevented any struggle.

Both men were arrested and gave statements to the police, which the police said would lead to other arrests.

And John, having had his thrilling moment of real detective work, returned to the prosaic matter of buying castor oil.

JOHN CONWAY.

SOX LOSE OUT TO TEXAS LEAGUERS

Chicago, March 17.—(AP)—Boss Schalk sent two of his veteran pitchers, Ted Blankenship and Vernon Fisher, against the Shreveport Texas Leaguers yesterday, but the White Sox standbys permitted the locals to nose out a 9 to 8 victory. Out at Catalina, Elwood English, the expensive new shortstop of the Cubs, will get his first chance to show his goods when the Chicagoans tie into Marty Krug's Angels at Los Angeles Friday.

YANKS HAVE MASCOT IN FLORIDA CAMP

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 17.

—One member of the New York Yankee training staff will be out of the opening game line up. He is Eddie Bennett, the mascot, who is making the spring trip and spends hours each day shagging fly balls. Mascots and bat boys are novelties in major league training camps.

HERB PENNOCK IS ONLY HOLD-OUT IN YANKEE RANKS

New York, March 17.—(AP)—Hold-outs in the New York Yankee ranks, rumored at 10 or more only a month ago, had dwindled today to the lone figure of Herb Pennock, southpaw pitcher. Lanky Bob Mensel yesterday deserted the holdout ranks for a two year contract. Unofficial estimates set the terms at $17,500 a season. Colonel Jacob Ruppert who dropped in yesterday asserted Pennock's demands are unreasonable.

Burleigh Grimes took his slipper and into the Giant's box yesterday against the Boston Braves at St. Petersburg. The Braves won 4 to 0.

Babe Herman was an engineering leader in Brooklyn's defeat by the St. Louis Browns at Clearwater.

RED SOX TO TAKE IT EASY FOR FEW DAYS

Boston, March 17.—(AP)—The Red Sox are to enjoy a let-up for a few days. Summer heat and the coming three games with the New Orleans Pelicans have caused Manager Carrigan to order his men to take it somewhat more easy.

At St. Petersburg, Fla., the Braves pitchers held the Giants to three runs, winning by a margin of one.

'SAYS BASEBALL NOT WHAT IT USED TO BE

Tarpon Springs, Fla., March 17.—Bill Friel, business manager of the St. Louis Browns, says times have changed in baseball.

"When I reported to St. Louis many years ago," he declares, "Billie McAleer asked me where my uniform was. I thought the club would furnish a uniform and said so, but I had to practice two days in my street clothes. The next year I was wiser and brought my uniform with me. Even then I had to buy soap and a towel so I could bathe after practice. But now—the players want the club to have their dental work done."

and admirers in all parts of the country. They are among the most popular couples in the State. A delicious course dinner was served at a long table in the dining room. After dinner coffee was served in the drawing room of the attractive residence furnished with colonial furniture and interesting home features. Of special interest was the burning of one of the huge golden cathedral candles, used at the Golden Wedding Anniversary of the Cottens in 1916 and at the various weddings of members of the family.
Mrs. Cotten is prominently known as the Mother of North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs, having been particularly active in pioneer woman's club work in the State and now serving as its honorary president. An oil painting of her was recently presented by Colonel Cotten to the Sallie Southall Cotten dormitory at North Carolina College for Women in Greensboro.
Colonel and Mrs. Cotten were married on March 14, 1866, at 8 o'clock in the evening at the bride's home in Murfreesboro, Va. After the ceremony they left by train for Norfolk and thence by boat for a two weeks' honeymoon in Baltimore. Upon their return they resided at Barbours. The bride wore a handsome gown for traveling, measuring nine yards around the bottom of the skirt. The ceremony was performed after the release of Colonel Cotten from the Confederate Army, with which he took a distinguished part in the War between the States.
Although the Colonel is now 87 years young and his wife is 80 years young, they remain well and active, interested in modern life and keeping up to the notch on current matters of importance. Their thousands of friends will be pleased to learn of the celebration of their 61st anniversary, an unusual attainment for married especially in modern times.
A feature that made the day particularly happy for the couple was the fact that for the first time they saw that day their only great-grandchild, Julian B. Timberlake, III, born almost three months ago. The four generations had their photographs snapped on the day.
Relatives present to spend the day with the honor guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Julian B. Timberlake, of Raleigh, the latter a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cotten; Mrs. Russell B. Wiggins, of Boston, Mass., a daughter; Mrs. Lou J. Newton, of Miami, Oklahoma, a granddaughter; Lieutenant-Commander Julian B. Timberlake, U. S. N., of Norfolk, a grandson, who recently came home from two years' duty in China; Mrs. Julian B. Timberlake, Jr., and their young son, Julian III.
Others enjoying the day at Cottendale were: Mrs. James Jordan, of Virginia Beach, mother of Mrs. Julian Timberlake, Jr.; Mrs. M. H. Schell, of Farmville; Mrs. C. Turnage, of Farmville; Mrs. Clyde Eby, Mrs. R. B. Nixon, Miss Sarah Stewart and Miss Gertrude Carraway, of New Bern.

THE ROUND TABLE MEETS
(Reported)
Mrs. S. J. Everett was hostess to the Round Table Club on Tuesday afternoon and the meeting was most interesting and delightful.
As the members arrived, the hostess ushered them to the parlor, where Mrs. E. B. Higgs served delicious punch from a large block of ice profusely decorated with purple violets and green foliage, making a scene refreshing and beautiful. The purple and

MRS. RYAN ELLIS HONORED
Winterville, N. C., March 17.—Mesdames Loyd Ellis and Laurie Ellis entertained a number of their friends at the home of Mrs. Loyd Ellis in Winterville, on Saturday afternoon, March 12, in honor of Mrs. Ryan Ellis, a bride of recent date.
The home was made attractive with spring flowers, jonquils being used in profusion and shamrock, horseshoes and four-leaf clovers, suggestion of St. Patrick's day.
After the guests had enjoyed a number of games in keeping with the day, there came the surprise of the afternoon, a large roke with pig in it was brought in and Mrs. Ryan Ellis was asked to start the game by pulling the pig's tail. On doing this she found a lovely shower of linens, the gift of her friends.

The hostess then served a most delicious salad course carrying out the yellow and green idea. Tea and mints were also served.

KIWANIS MINSTREL TO PLAY FARMVILLE ON TUESDAY NIGHT
Mr. C. B. Rowlett has placed the Kiwanis minstrel in Farmville for the benefit of the Farmville Christian Church Men's Club, and the Methodist Church Bible class. With his already semi-professional cast of talented minstrel stars, supported by a selection of Farmville donors of black cork and harmony singers, assures the big crowd that greets the performers at Perkins' Hall, there, the highest class minstrel show ever convened in this part of the state.
Mr. Rowlett is loud in his praise of the Farmville talent and the business-like way in which these two active Farmville clubs have put their shoulder to the wheel, which is sure to make the minstrel bigger and better to the smallest detail. The big crowd that fills Perkins Hall will enjoy the treat of the year. It is as everyone in the big audience here acclaimed it, a riot of fun, laughter, mirth and music, with its funny comedians, snappy songs, soothing harmony and beautiful girls make it just what a real high class minstrel performance should be, and there has never been two hours of cleaner entertainment put together in one big program of merry making.

green was further carried out in the library where large vases of old fashioned hyacinths greeted the eye, all of which grew in the garden of Mrs. Everett's childhood home.
Several charming guests added greatly to the pleasure of the occasion. Mrs. C. L. Steidley, of Charlotte; Mrs. Gorrell, of Wake Forest; Miss Gorrell, of the College; and Miss Addie Meadows.
Mrs. Vincent, the new president, was in the chair, and all new officers on duty.
When the matter of business had been finished, the most outstanding report of which was the wonderful growth of our town library, Mrs. Tighman took charge of the program, and announced the continuation of the study "Under the Open Sky." Mr. Luther Herring gave us a comprehensive discussion on "Keeping Time," tracing the history of the divisions of time into seasons, moons, years, months, days and hours. Then the development of the sundial, the clock and the watch, telling us of some wonderful timepieces in this country and elsewhere. Miss Nellie Denny then gave us the "Story of the Watchmakers' Guild." The patience of these artisans, and their devotion to their craft makes interesting reading, and gives us a keener appreciation of some things we enjoy today, which custom makes almost commonplace.
During the pleasant social moments, Miss Elizabeth Higgs and Miss Margaret Everett served a dainty ice course.

We are living in an age of tension," says a moralist. To be specific, an age of extension, pretension and contention.

There's a comet coming this way with a carbon monoxide tail, but our motorists will probably insist, as usual, on getting their carbon monoxide indoors.

WHEN EXPERTS AGREE

Hoover says the United States is in the infancy of its greatness. Education is in its beginnings. Our economic stability has hardly begun. In every respect the nation marches onward. But with all his forward looking, with all his optimism, he stresses the danger and foolishness of waste.

Prof. B. H. Barrows of the University of Chicago, is depressed and pessimistic about our growth of population. He also urges us to look to our waste.

When two people differing so strongly in point of view see so plainly the same evil, the ordinary fellow might well take a look at his day, his health, his backyard and his budget.

AIR BASE IN HAWAII

The United States Navy, by agreement with the Army, is planning to develop a great aviation center in Hawaii. By a curious coincidence, the island chosen for this purpose is named Ford Island. It is not apparent that Henry Ford, who is today the leading commercial exponent of aviation, has anything to do with it.

Hawaii, our half-way station across the Pacific, and always regarded as a natural site for a naval base, is likewise a natural site for an air base. From there, a great air fleet, capable of long-range operations, might command the greatest of oceans, maintain ready communication with our homeland and the Philippines, and keep in touch with western Asia.

Such development seems

As Thrilling in Beauty as in Performance ~ ~ ~
 Everyone says "Nothing like it in the world"

The mere announcement of the Super-Six principle, freed to the limit, focused on Hudson a dramatic public expectancy such as never awaited any other car. In appearance and value, as well as performance, it is the most talked of car of the year.

New riders, new buyers and thousands who merely witness its vivid dash on the road are saying "There is nothing like it in the world."

In all it does, there is effortless ease, from its swift, smooth glide into motion, to sustained high speed, and back to the soft instantaneous stopping action of its four-wheel brakes. It has been accorded the greatest public reception in Hudson history.

T. J. MANN HAS QUIETUS PUT ON THE AUCTION BILL

There was a bill introduced by Mr. Martin of Washington in which to tax the auction salesmen of the State of horses and mules to the extent of the profit almost. But when T. J. Mann of Lake Landing got a whiff of this he immediately made investigation and found that they were fixing to mess up his business by the horse and mule sales. He got in touch with W. H. Sawyer and Walter L. Spencer to represent him at this reading. The results was as follows: A bill to regulate auction sales of horses and mules was reported unfavorably by the House Committee on Agriculture after public hearing at which James Griffin representing the North Carolina Horse Dealers Association appeared for the measure. Walter L. Spencer and W. H. Sawyer opposed the bill, representing T. J. Mann, of Lake Landing.

When you think that the Hyde County people is sleeping and let them pull anything on them why you are only fooling yourself, for T. J. has already sold over five hundred horses and mules since that bill was defeated and expects to sell that many more by the first of the month. Ad.

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

SUGAR

New York, March 17.—(AP)—Raw sugar 1-32 cent lower on the basis of 4.71 duty paid. Raw futures at midday were 1 to 4 points net lower. Refined unchanged at 5.90 to 6.20 for fine granulated.

STOCK OPENING

New York, March 17.—(AP)—Prices moved uniformly higher at the opening of today's market. American Telephone and Telegraph continued to advance on an overnight accumulation of orders, scoring an initial gain of over 3 points.

An overnight jump of 15 points to 17.46 cents in Spanish pesetas featured the foreign exchange opening. Demand sterling was quoted around $4.85 3-16 and French francs just above 3.90 cents.

COTTON OPENING

New York, March 17.—(AP)—Cotton futures opened steady today. March 13.82; May 14.00; July 14.08; October 14.26; December 14.43.

The cotton market opened steady today at unchanged prices to a decline of 1 point in response to relatively easy Liverpool cables and reports of fairly good weather in the south. Considerable liquidation and southern selling on the decline carried the price of May off to 13.84 and October to 14.17 in early trading or about 8 to 11 points net lower. Covering and trade buying seemed in sufficient volume to steady the market at the lower prices, however, and there were bulges of 2 or 3 points from the lowest toward the end of the first hour.

LIVERPOOL COTTON

Liverpool, March 17.—(AP)—Cotton spot moderate business; prices steady. American strict good middling 8.59; good middling 8.24; strict middling 7.89; middling 7.64; strict low middling 7.18; low middling 6.89; strict good ordinary 6.39; good ordinary 5.94; sales 7,000 bales, including 6,000 American. Receipts 3,400 bales, all American. Futures closed quiet; March 7.26; May 7.39; July 7.51; October 7.79; January 7.66.

COTTON SEED OIL

New York, March 17.—(AP)—Cotton seed oil closed firm. Prime summer yellow 9.40; prime crude 7.50 to 7.81 1-2; March 9.50; April 9.37; May 9.36; June 9.44; July 9.26; August 9.07; September 9.08; October 9.32. Sales 20,800.

COTTON

New York, March 17.—(AP)—The cotton market was very quiet today with prices lower under a renewal of liquidation and some southern or local selling promoted by easier Liverpool cables. Reports of a falling off in spot demand and rumors of a slightly easier market on low grades in the south. May was selling around 14.00 on October 14.14 in the mid-afternoon market or about 12 to 18 points net lower.

Futures closed steady 12 to 16 points lower. Spots quiet; middling 14.00.

STOCK MARKET

New York, March 17.—(AP)—Major speculative interest in today's market was again on the upside although occasional selling squalls set in motion by bear traders had a temporary unsettling effect. As in most recent sessions the upward movement was led by the high priced industrial and railroads popularly referred to as the "Blue Chips" by professional traders. Scattered commission house buying was only moderate in character.

CASH GRAIN

CHICAGO POTATOES

Chicago, March 17.—(AP)—Potatoes receipts 67 cars; on track 234; total U. S. shipments 674; supplies liberal; demand and trading slow; market about steady; Wisconsin sacked round whites 1.85 to 2.00; mostly 1.90 to 1.95; Idaho sacked russets 2.70 to 2.80; mostly 2.75 to 2.80.

G RAIN

Chicago, March 17.—(AP)—Increased selling which developed during the last hour today brought about a sharp break in wheat after a slight early advance. The late selling was due largely to failure of efforts to lift prices further because of talk of possible low temperatures in domestic wheat crop territory. Crop prospects remained favorable and actual new export business out to be relatively small.

Wheat closed weak 1 3-4 to 2 cents net lower; corn 1-2 to 1 1-8 down; oats 3-8 to 1-2 off; and provisions unchanged to a setback of 1 point.

CHILDREN'S ILLS

Arkansas Lady Says She Has Never Found a Better Laxative Than Theodor's Black-Draught.

Mineral Springs, Ark.—"We use Black-Draught in our family of six children," says Mrs. C. E. Nutt, of this place, "and we find it a good bowel regulator. I give it to my children for colds and constipation, or any other stomach disorders, and it certainly is very helpful. I have never known it to fail them. Where there are so many children, it is a good idea to keep a laxative on hand, and Black-Draught is what we use."

"I have taken it myself for indigestion. I would feel dizzy, have gas and sour stomach. I would also feel a tightness in my chest. I took a good dose of Theodor's Black-Draught when I felt that way and it would relieve me. I would feel better for days."

"My husband takes Black-Draught for biliousness. He says he has never found its equal. When he has the tired, heavy feeling, he takes Black-Draught night and morning for a few days and he doesn't complain any more. I sure do recommend Black-Draught."

Quarter of a Hundred Years Old

The first real sign of the long hoped for Spring are our new Silk Dresses, so full of the freshness and newness of this most delightful season. This Spring color, in its softer hues, plays an all important style-role.

The quarter-century milestone of the foundation of this Company is reached this year. From an unpretentious start, the Company's progress has been notable in mercantile history.

This has not been simply because of its remarkable growth, but more noticeably on account of the success its many stores have attained in giving a service to the public that has been idealized by customers.

Through all the 25 years, the concern of the Company has been chiefly in providing high standard quality goods at lowest possible prices and safeguarding its customers so that this service might always be enjoyed by them.

Day after day and year after year, the Company in every way, has endeavored to serve the public better than was expected. That it has succeeded in these endeavors is shown by the fact that the combined sales of all its stores in 1926 were approximately $25,000,000 more than in 1925.

Daily News Letter

Gossip of Staff Correspondents at World Centers of Population.

Rochester, N. Y., March 16.—Enough dirt and dust is drawn into Rochesterians' lungs to change them from a "pretty pink" to the color of soot, the local Health Officer George W. Goler, who said that Rochester atmosphere rivals that of London, England.

"Aside from cancer," said Dr. Goler, "the only disease man has to fear in this part of the world are the respiratory diseases—bronchitis, pneumonia, etc. While we are learning more and more every year about causes, courses and treatment of these diseases, judging by the impurities in man-made city air, we seem to promote them by fouling the air with vast quantities of foreign and irritating matter—smoke, soot, dust, tar and acid fumes."

Dr. Goler declared air to be the first food of man and into this food, he said, a ton of soot for every square mile of air is poured every day. In one breath declared Dr. Goler, there is breathed about a pint of air, with easily a thousand dust particles.

In the attempt to combat the evils of air pollution Dr. Goler placed in front of the health bureau, preserved in alcohol, the lungs of a city man who had died from an accident and the lungs of a country dweller, who also died suddenly from an unnatural cause. The difference between the lungs was apparent to the most casual eye; he reported; those of the city man's were black and discolored, while those of the man from the open spaces were clear and pinkish.

Israel J. Chamberlain is not listed in Who's Who but he belongs to a small and distinguished group to which only twelve men in the entire world have been admitted.

There is nothing in the farm ledger to indicate that his deeds of courage and daring have won him the French Medaille Militaire, which has been won only by but four Americans. Only twelve have been awarded this most distinguished honor, which France confers on her military heroes. On a farm near Albion his daily work is carried out with the deeds which also won him the Croix de Guerre and the Distinguished Service Cross almost forgotten, he admits.

His most distinguished feat was the crossing of 400 feet between the front lines of the opposing forces in the face of a murderous machine gun fire in order to obtain the location of friendly troops in front of his regiment. He made the trip in safety and was urged to remain with the French troops he had made the trip to seek. He refused and fought his way back single-handed, killing two and wounding another who had opposed his return.

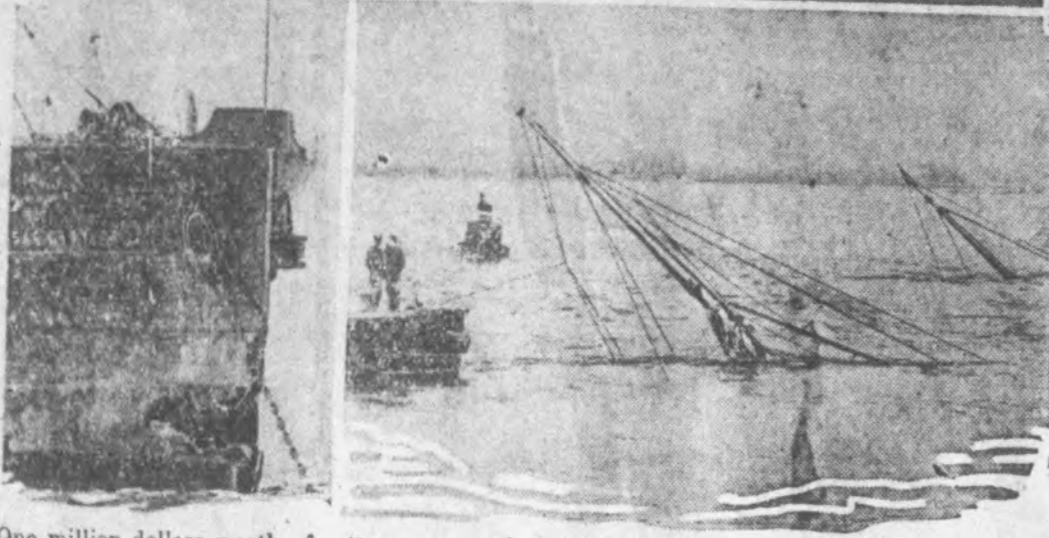

Hunters from Buffalo, Rochester and communities in Western New York have banded together to combat the ravages of coyotes, led by a timber wolf, lean and ferocious, who has been named "Old Renegade."

Three towns in Orleans County have estimated their losses among the sheep flocks at more than $21,000 and offers from hunters to exterminate the band have been received from all over the western part of the state.

All signs here point to the busiest part of a summer picnic season with all picnic resorts reporting an unprecedented demand for accommodations.

Freighters Collide in New York Harbor; Loss $1,000,000

One million dollars worth of cotton went to the bottom of New York harbor after the freighter Sae City, collided with the freighter El Sol, which carried the valuable cargo. The Sae City's damaged bow and all that can be seen of the El Sol—the top of the masts—are shown. One man was drowned, but forty-three others of the crew of the El Sol were rescued.

west" and grow up with the country, has an opportunity in the opening this week of the Seattle Bond and Stock Exchange. It starts with only twenty-two members, compared with eleven hundred in New York's exchange and will take in a few more, one in three months at most.

Very able northwestern business men are back of this exchange, which in days to come will compare with the New York institution as the Pacific compares with the Atlantic.

As New York on the big Atlantic exceeds in trade Venice of old on the little Mediterranean, so will the western coast one day, on the great Pacific, excel the cities on the small Atlantic.

Any rich man desiring an opening for an ambitious son-in-law should try to get him one of those little Seattle stock exchange seats Apply to Dietrich G. Schmitz, of the Seattle National Bank of Commerce.

There, in Seattle, is a chance no way to lay the foundation of a fortune beyond the dreams of avarice, if your temperament can stand the wear and tear of stock exchange work and resist the temptation to gamble.

Walter Goldberg, eighteen, admits that he shot and killed Anna Harris, a high school girl of sixteen—and weeps, which does no good to Anna Harris.

Her parents say it was murder, he says it was accident.

Two pistols figure in the killing. You may say that in these reform, prohibition days, one youthful murder, more or less, makes little difference, but some one ought to be interested in the fact that a neurotic youth finds it easy to get "guns" and ammunition.

A great deal of Standard Oil prosperity, by the way, has been achieved in a market of hard competition by intelligent newspaper advertising. It is to be hoped the able managers know that, and realize that it pays to talk directly to the people thru newspaper advertising. lined wells," they said, "but he's willing to go into a modern pipe lined well tomorrow."

The well he was trapped in was more than fifty years old. It was constructed long before use of terra cotta piping for lining became prevalent. The stones that caved in upon him had been gathered from adjacent fields and cemented into a wall with homemade mortar. There are many wells of the stone-lined type in the region, and they have been regularly cleaned in the past without disaster.

Talk began to seep out from Fuquay Springs today about prospective stage and movie offers for Jeff, but nothing concrete had developed this morning.

Communication with the outside world must come by personal messenger. It is ten miles to the telegraph office at Fuquay Springs and there are no telephones in this vicinity. The Stephens home is located on a county byway, unmarked, a contrast to the state's concrete highways, and the pilgrim must pick his way with caution to find the place.

This accounts for the long hours it took the news of the rescue to reach the world. The neighbors were too busy digging the imprisoned man out to inform nearby towns where there were wire facilities, and the news correspondents who rushed to the scene when the first news seeped out were forced to use automobile couriers to carry their dispatches from the scene.
