BIG BEND LEVEE GIVES AWAY UNDER TREMENDOUS STRAIN OF SWIRLING FLOOD WATERS

Loss From New Flood Will Approximate $10,000,000; Thousands Homeless.

New Orleans, May 13.—(AP)—Their conquest of the upper valley complete, the flood waters of the Mississippi today charged through two crevasses in the Big Bend section of the Bayou Des Glaisses levee, 150 miles northwest of New Orleans, to invade the fertile sugar and rice districts of South Central Louisiana.

The breaks ended more than a week of fighting on the part of levee workers to hold back the climbing waters which streamed down upon the Bayou Des Glaisses embankments from crevasses on the west bank of the main stream above Natchez and Vicksburg, few by the flood waters from Arkansas and by the overflow and backwaters of the Red River.

Tons of water pressure came against the narrow Bayou Des Glaisses levee. Situated at the foot of the inland lake submerging Northeastern Louisiana as the crest of the flood moved slowly toward the Gulf of Mexico, the waters reached the top of the ramparts and despite the desperate fight of hundreds of men to restrain them, streamed over the top yesterday in several places.

Baton Rouge, La., May 13.—(AP)—The tremendous pressure of the latest Mississippi River flood in history finally broke the Big Bend levee today at Moreauville on the Lafou Des Glaisses.

The levee, made of buckshot clay, has resisted the steadily rising flood of the waters rushing down from Arkansas and through the crevasses on the west bank of the Mississippi which already have blanketed 13 Louisiana parishes. For the past week more than 1,000 workers labored day and night to strengthen the embankment.

Twenty-five thousand people and sixty thousand acres of land in the immediate vicinity of the Bayou mostly in Avoyelles parish, will be affected by the break, Louisiana's Flood Director, John M. Parker, declared after news of the crevasse.

As the muddy waters course down from the break through the Atchafalaya basin into Grand Lake and through its bayous to the Gulf sixty thousand more people will be driven from their homes and nearly 1,000,000 acres, much of it marshland, will be inundated, it was said. The new flood is expected to break down levees on the Atchafalaya River and cause the spreading of that stream's swollen waters over a huge thickly populated region, jeopardizing more than 150,000 people.

The region in the path of the new inundating waters is the "Sugar Bowl" of Louisiana, the Southern Parishes where practically all the sugar cane of the country is grown besides sugar cane, cotton, rice, corn and sweet potatoes are leading crops. State Commissioner of Agriculture Wilson today estimated the loss from the new flood at $10,000,000.

The parishes in the flood include the lower half of Avoyelles, South of Red River; a third of Saint Landry, two thirds of Saint Martin and two-fifths of Iberville, while a small part of Rapides will be under water.

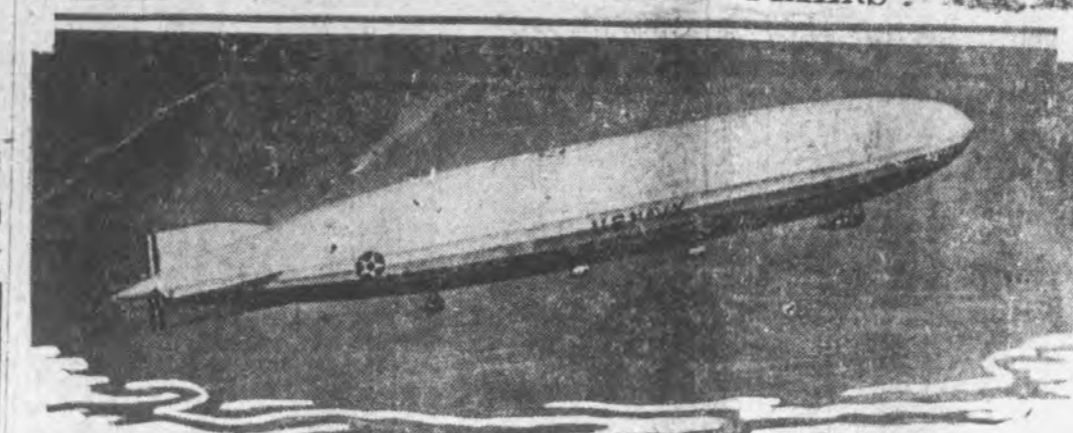

Baton Rouge, La., May 13.—(AP)—The levee at Bordenville, on Bayou Des Glaisses, broke this morning, according to word received here by Flood Relief Director John M. Parker. The crevasse, according to this information, is about 100 feet.

The Bordenville break is about 170 miles northwest of New Orleans and on the opposite side of the river.

TODAY

Detroit, Busy as Usual Ford's Injury Accidental W. S. Knudsen Visits New York Michigan, Civilized State (By Arthur Brisbane) Copyright 1927, by Star Co.

This is written after spending one day in Detroit. Businesses go along as usual in that city of industrial and business miracles.

Henry Ford is all right again after his accident, and will soon give the country and the automobile world something to talk about. He is back at work in his big thousand foot long laboratory, gone from one complicated machine to the other, calling by their first names young mechanics with whose fathers he went to the public school.

Mr. Ford resents the suggestion that the crowding of his car over and down a steep bank was anything but an accident. "It was Sunday" said he, "many cars were on the road. I probably was thinking of something else and went too far over on the left. Snow was falling and the car that crowded me down the bank, hitting my left front wheel did so entirely by accident. With the falling snow the driver probably never saw that I had gone down the bank and thought he only grazed my mud guard."

Detroit is busy collecting four million dollars for a woman's building to house the young woman's Christian Association, the Florence Crittenton home for unmarried mothers, and other feminine philanthropies. Day before yesterday, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ford contributed four hundred thousand dollars, or one tenth of that amount needed. Yesterday, Mr. and Mrs. Edsel Ford contributed four hundred thousand dollars more.

William S. Knudsen, president of the Chevrolet Motor Company on the "Detroit" bound for New York tells this writer that the automobile business is doing nicely. Retail sales of the Chevrolet for the past month were more than 98,000, not counting export sales.

Mr. Knudsen, who formerly worked for Mr. Ford, believes, as do others that Mr. Ford is about to give the automobile world something to talk about.

By the way, those opposed to immigration, convinced that Europe has nothing more to offer us, should be interested in the fact that Mr. Knudsen came to this country from Denmark twenty years ago, bringing with him only a good education and the belief that nothing is impossible—the two things that can accomplish anything.

NEW YORKERS LEAD RACE IN BIG LEAGUES

(By The Associated Press.)
The pennant races in both major leagues today settled down to a grim pursuit of New York's two pace making candidates.

Displaying no visible signs of yielding to aggressive thrusts from their Western rivals, the Giants and Yankees yesterday definitely established their right to lead the chases in both circuits by heading off twin challenges from St. Louis. It required eleven innings of the Giants to subdue the Cardinals, 3 to 2, while the Yankees shaded the Browns in regulation time 4 to 3.

The Giants as a consequence today held a clean cut advantage of two games over the world's champions in the National, while a similar margin in the American squad was held by the Yankee sand second place Chicago.

McGraw's cohorts yesterday found Grover Cleveland Alexander decidedly a more stubborn pitcher than that Jess Haines had proved the previous day. Although the veteran yielded 13 hits in what experts called the "best pitched game of the year," it was only through an error by Douthitt that New York won.

A dropped fly by the Cardinals centerfield allowed Terry to sneak home with the winning run.

The defeat endangered the Cardinals' grip on second place, for the Pirates shot up to within a single game of O'Farrell's contingent by outlasting the Braves in a slugfest 8 to 7. Wright led the Pittsburgh batting onslaught with a single, double and triple.

Hitting timely behind good pitching by Root, the Cubs spilled the Phillies out of first division 4 to 1, and took possession of fourth place. At the same time, Dazzy Vance pitched and batted the Robins to a decisive victory over the Cincinnati Reds 6 to 3.

Vance helped himself to four bluffs, but was unwilling to yield more than that to the entire Cincinnati Club, which was buried in the cellar today under a two-game layoff.

The Yankee-Browns game developed into a pitching duel between Herb Pennock and his former teammate, Sad Sam Jones. Each allowed nine hits, but the Yankees clustered theirs in the fourth and fifth, with Babe Ruth's double accounting for the deciding tally.

Second place fortifications were strengthened by the White Sox with a 5 to 4 verdict over the Senators, while Detroit aided the Chicago cause by smothering a belated Philadelphia rally in the ninth to win 9-7.

STAGE ALL SET FOR KY. DERBY

Louisville, Ky., May 13.—(AP)—Eighteen colts were entered today for the fifty-third renewal of the Kentucky Derby, at a mile and a quarter for $50,000 added money and a gold cup, to be run at Churchill Downs tomorrow afternoon.

Louisville, Ky., May 13.—(AP)—Derby Eve just one day and the Kentucky Derby, America's foremost turf attraction, will be run at Churchill Downs for the fifty-third time!

The hundreds of visitors will be swelled to thousands by sundown tonight. The names of the fittest of the 192 three-year-olds nominated for the race will go through the entry box, and the trainers will give their charges final "openers"—short workouts—in preparation for the $50,444 event.

The Derby "dope" is flowing freely, but nowhere is there any unanimity of opinion as to the winner. It is not a "one horse" race as was the case last year when the East talked Pompey and the West Bubbling Over. Almost every one of the some fifteen derby horses has his own special admirers, and you may hear Whiskery or Rolled Stocking, Osmond or Fred Jr., Scapa Flow or the Bradley entry named on every hand.

Chilly winds from the west will soften to spring breezes as "increasing cloudiness" envelops the city. The Weather Bureau has forecast for today:

The mile oval, around which the horses will race one and a quarter times, was fast and barring rain should be in the best possible condition at post time, about 4:40 p. m. Central Standard time, Saturday.

HIGHS DEFEAT ELM CITY 6 TO 3

The locals defeated Elm City yesterday by the score of 6-3. Curry twirled a nice game for the local highs, letting his opponents down with only five scattered hits. Although he was wild he settled himself out of the hole by nice pitching. Due to the changed lineup the locals didn't get started until the seventh, when they scored two runs to win the game.

The hitting of Swags, Denton and Respass featured the offense while a pretty catch by Denton featured the defense. Sugg's single in the seventh won the game, as two men scored. The fielding of Whitehead featured for Elm City.

This marked the eleventh straight win for the locals while losing only one, the first game of the season.

Carolina-Virginia Battle Today

Raleigh, May 13.—(AP)—Carolina battled Virginia today at Chapel Hill in the second of a three-game series and State went to Wake Forest for the last of a trio of intercollegiate contests. Guilford was at Hampden-Sidney, Va., for a game with the Tigers.

Westmoreland pitched the Tar Heels to a 10-7 ten inning game at Charlottesville to beat the Cavaliers in the first meet and he was the choice for mound duty today.

Wake Forest, with two wins over State to her credit, James pitching both for the Deacons, hoped to make it three in a row against the Techmen.

It is not true, but they think so, and that for the moment is the main point.

MRS. SNYDER AND GRAY TO DIE IN CHAIR

Execution Set For Week of June 20th By Justice Townsend Scudder.

New York, May 13.—(AP)—Mrs. Ruth Brown Snyder and Henry Judd Gray today were sentenced to die in the electric chair at Sing Sing the week of June 20, for the murder of Mrs. Snyder's husband, Albert Snyder, magazine art editor.
 Neither defendant showed any emotion as Justice Townsend Scudder pronounced sentence. Mrs. Snyder was dressed in black, the same costume she wore during the trial. A matron stood on each side of her but beyond clasping and unclasping of her hands, she did not show the strain.
 Gray's figure was tense. He stood about five feet from his blonde paramour, but neither looked at the other.
 Prior to imposition of sentence counsel for both Gray and Mrs. Snyder made motions asking that the verdict be set aside. Justice Scudder denied the motions.

A crowd not nearly so large as the smallest to attend the trial was in the courtroom when sentence was imposed. There were no demonstrations.
 The voices of counsel and Justice Scudder were so low they were inaudible a few feet from the bench, amplifiers used during the trial having been removed. The crowd did not know sentence had been passed until reporters began to rush to their wires.
 Neither Gray nor Mrs. Snyder replied when the Clerk of Court asked if they had anything to say as to why sentence should not be imposed. Attorneys for both interpellated that the defendants had nothing to say at this time.
 Appeals are being contemplated. Court attaches and Mrs. Snyder and Gray would be taken to Sing Sing next Monday.
 Counsel for Gray denied reports that Gray had asked the privilege of saying goodbye to his erstwhile paramour. Jail attendants quoted him as saying he "wanted only to see her in heaven."

Friday the Thirteenth.
 The weather man promises possible rain for tomorrow's Kentucky Derby, but prohibition officials declare that rain will be the only kind of wet the annual Kentucky event will get this year. Dry agents have been concentrated at Louisville with instructions to see to it that all the derby parties are dry.

Cotton dealers and manufacturers must be delighted with these cotton festivals all over the state since the farmer has sold his cotton to them at a very cheap price.

Records kept in hog feeding tests are teaching some farmers the value of keeping accurate accounts on the farming business.

The expressions of anxiety on every hand for the safety of the two French flyers and the frantic efforts of the American government is quite a contrast to the attitude taken by the French people toward America on account of the failure of the flight.

A visit to the tobacco section of this city will convince you that preparations are being made to make this the biggest season in the history of the Greenville Tobacco Market. At almost every turn you note warehouses and factories in the process of being remodeled and enlarged to take care of the ever increasing business of the local market. The tobacco market is indeed one of Greenville's greatest industries and every business man in the city should be interested in its continued growth and expansion.

HEED THE AMBASSADOR

In view of the situation which has arisen out of the loss of the two French flyers who started on the Paris-New York flight, the only course open to the Americans who are about to undertake the same feat is to postpone their departure until the air has cleared.

On the surface, the attitude of the French people is unreasonable; it seems absurd that the failure of their flyers should be the signal for an outburst of feeling against the United States. But if we look deeper we can understand it. France, to begin with, is a nation of frayed nerves and exhausted stamina; for many years it has been so harassed by war and peace that it has had little chance to do the things which provoke cheers and engender locked to him to do some thing glorious for his country, and the present outburst is understood.—N. Y. World.

Gentlemen:

As you will remember, I purchased a Pontiac Six Coupe from you on February 27, 1926. Since that time I have driven it between nineteen and twenty thousand miles.

The Pontiac is by far the best car I have ever driven and I fully believe it is the most economical six cylinder car on the market.

I average about twenty miles to the gallon of gasoline and use about one quart of oil every five hundred miles. I am still using the original tires and believe they are good for ten thousand more.

The Pontiac Six is a car I can recommend to anybody. Wishing you much success with the Oakland and Pontiacs in Greenville and your territory, I remain, Memphis, Tenn., May 11.—(INS) —Modern flappers, with their short skirts, rolled hose and lipstick, are by no means cowards.

In fact they are about the bravest people in the world, that is in at least six Southern States, anyway.

Not one, but many, in fact, hundreds of hells girls, throughout Southern States proved themselves real heroines during the Mississippi river's greatest flood in history.

With the raging, swirling, mad and muddy waters of the Great Father of Waters sweeping down main-made levees, taking human life by the hundreds, crumbling buildings, flooding towns, driving people from their homes, these girls of 1927 proved their undying loyalty.

They stuck to their posts, answering distress calls, warning people in the outlying sections that the floods were coming, and giving out information as to the safety of many to relatives in foreign cities.

From more than a dozen towns, where the river flowed through the streets for weeks, these girls worked day and night giving the greatest exhibition of courage that womankind has ever shown.

Telephone officials proudly boast that in a dozen or more towns these girls never fled the exchange while water was flowing in the streets outside from ten to fifteen feet deep, and the cities otherwise were evacuated.

Food was taken to them in boats. They slept what little sleeping they did do—in the operating room. Complain? Listen to what the telephone officials say:

"Despite the fact that our girls worked day and night in flooded towns, working when the town was being rapidly deserted by frightened people, not one single operator ever complained or deserted her post."

"The telephone company will pay them all for the overtime they put in during the floods but that is nothing compared with the risk of life many of them took to say nothing of the rush they went through in handling five or ten times their usual number of calls."

New Orleans prohibition agents reported that enforcement of the eighteenth amendment would be an easy matter, so far as New Orleans was concerned, if the floods lasted twelve months a year.

All entries to the city were cut off. Boats carrying liquor would have to land in the heart of the city, if at all.

From Natchez, Miss., came reports of snakes, marooned in trees, drowning on refuge and rescue boats, causing a reign of terror. Several negroes were bitten when snakes lost hold on the trees and fell on them.

Refugees, marooned for several days on levees, were probably saved from starvation by the fact that rabbits and other game were also marooned on the same place and were killed for food, they said after being rescued. Many drank river water, but boiled it before drinking, thus preventing illness.

Natchez, Miss., reported that all coast guard boats used to chase gams in the cabins, and served as...

rum runners, tucked their machine merry boats during the flood.

Airplanes were brought into use in carrying first class mail between Little Rock and Memphis when rail traffic was suspended due to floods.

A Tennessee law prohibiting performances on the Sabbath was broken to give benefit shows to raise funds for the Red Cross relief fund by three theatres in Memphis and nobody said anything about it. Regular shows were given and thousands attended.

Carolina Tennis Players Win in Morning's Play

Chapel Hill, N. C., May 13.—(AP)—Charles Waddell, University of North Carolina, eliminated Berry Grant of Georgia Tech in the morning's singles round of the Southern intercollegiate tennis tournament here today.

The score was 6-0, 6-3.

A. Allen, Sewanee veteran, won a well earned victory over Frank Harris of Florida, who had been seeded at the top of the draw, 3-6, 6-3, 6-6.

Tom Slade, University of Florida, defeating singles champion, was forced to extend himself to defeat Cesar Cone, University of North Carolina, 7-5, 4-6, 6-3.

Captain Elgin of North Carolina playing at the top of his game sweep Allison, Alabama's ace, off his feet, 6-2, 6-0, and Dalrymple, rated second man on the North Carolina team, furnished the galter several thrills in winning his match with Kels Boland, University of Georgia, 7-5, 4-6, 6-0.

DOROTHY MACKAYE ON STAND TODAY IN MURDER TRIAL

Los Angeles, May 13.—(AP)—Dorothy Mackaye, access widow of P. V. Raymond, admitted from the witness stand today in the trial of Paul Kelly for her husband's murder, that she had heard Raymond order Kelly from their home. She denied that she heard Kelly tell Raymond the order was because he was in love with Miss Mackaye.

Miss Mackaye at first was controlled, but under fire of questioning of assistant prosecutor George Kemp, she flinched and groped for replies. During a brief let up in the questioning she bit her lips and appeared ready to cry.

Farmer Defies Police Forces

Cleveland, N. D., May 12.—(AP)—Barricaded in the granary on his farm with his two sons, 14 and 15 years old, Sayles Hastings, 50-year-old farmer, wanted for the fatal shooting of William Flint, a neighbor, defied police early today to take him into custody.

A large quantity of ammunition and firearms were in Hastings' possession. He was charged in a warrant with slaying Flint and with wounding the latter's son yesterday.

Arrangements were being made to bring National Guard troops from Jamestown to the Hastings farm.

Shriners Gather in Greensboro

Greensboro, N. C., May 13.—(AP)—Culminating tonight in the potentate's ball at the King Cotton Hotel the annual spring festivities of the Shriners of Oasis Temple held the center of the stage in Greensboro Thursday afternoon and today close to four thousand nobles from the Western section of the State were on hand for the great celebration.

The drill of the Arab Patrol, a band concert by the Oasis Temple Band, a beautiful parade through the center of the city and the annual ceremonial at which a large class of "fresh meat" crossed the burning sands were the high lights of today's activities. During the morning there was a business meeting and the afternoon was to be entirely given over to entertaintensely interested in the courageous flying adventures of Nungesser and his companion captain, Col. M. G. Byrd, editor of the Detroit Times, says that interest in the trans-Atlantic flight was at least ten times greater among his readers than interest in the Snyder murder case.

The state of Michigan is still trying to reach a decision on capital punishment. Certain legislators appear to think that to discourage murder the state must imitate the murder and inflict death.

It is proposed to restore capital punishment in Michigan where it has long been unknown.

Michigan is a civilized state, an example to others in many ways. It is to be hoped the legislature will not decide that civilization in Michigan needs the help of a hangman or a man to throw the switch on an electric chair.

What is the ideal child, in your opinion? Secretary Hoover, president of the American Child Health Association says the normal child "is not superfluously happy, or deeply discouraged, is robust, vociferous, not ruled by emotion." That is a good definition of a child destined to develop into a go-getter.

On the other hand, Napoleon who told all the adult children of Europe was what they should do, was not vociferous, or robust or healthy, yellow, sulked in a corner, because his school mates laughed at his Corsican accent, and was entirely ruled by his one emotion, ambition.

Negro Distiller and Still Taken This Afternoon

Jess Moore, colored, a 60 gallon still, three gallons of whiskey and 700 gallons of beer were captured by deputy sheriffs in the Pactivol community this afternoon about two o'clock. The capture was made by deputies Sellars, Pierce and Harris.

The still was in full operation when the officers surrounded it. Moore fired upon deputy Sellars and then ran. But instead of gaining his liberty as he expected, he landed squarely in the arms of deputy Harris.

A small still of about ten gallon capacity was found at the same place. It was one of the most distinctive outfits seen in many a day and formed a striking contrast to the larger one in operation.

State Briefs

Raleigh, May 13.—(AP)—The Virginia and Carolina Southern Railway, subsidiary of the Atlantic Coast Line, extending from Hope Mills to Elizabethtown and to Lumberton, is authorized by the Interstate Commerce Commission to charge an arbitrary additional 50 cents per net ton freight on account of being a short line railroad, effective July 1.

The first carload of the early Irish Potato crop, estimated to be worth about four million dollars, will move out of the State about May 25, marketing experts of the State College of Agriculture say. Last year the Elizabeth City section, including Currituck, Camden and Pasquotank Counties, shipped one-fourth to one-third of the total State movement. Prospects are fair, George R. Ross, chief of the Division of Markets, says.

The State Board of Charities and Public Welfare will make a study of child welfare among negroes in compliance with offer of $5,000 by Julius Rosenwald, Chicago, if the $5,000 is matched by the State. The North Carolina Federation of White Women's Clubs pledges $100, the North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance company the same.

Salesman For Face Cream
Learns a Good Lesson

Mr. Vandiver, New York, writes: "I was a salesman of creams for healing pimples, blemishes, etc., but when my face broke out with blotches, pimples and blackheads, I tried one salve after another with no results. I found it impossible to sell skin creams as a bald headed man finds selling hair tonic. Finally I decided I would have to get at the cause—constipation. I was amazed to find that within a few days after taking CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILL, my skin took on a new healthful look." Druggists, 25c and 75c. Red packages. Try to-night—To-morrow refreshed.
