URGES ALL INHABITANTS OF ATCHAFALAYA BASIN AREA TO FLEE FOR THEIR LIVES

Ominous Warnings Sent Out by Director Of Relief Work in Flood District.

New Orleans, May 19.—(AP)—Residents of the vast area in the western Atchafalaya Basin were leaving their homes today in ever-increasing numbers, spurred by the ominous warnings of the weather bureau here and flood relief director John M. Parker at Baton Rouge. Director Parker last night had a score of telephone operators at work urging all the inhabitants of the region in the line of the flood—an area 100 to 150 miles northwest of New Orleans—to flee. Twenty-seven small towns, none with more than 500 inhabitants, were affected by the warning.

The territory is in the path of the waters from Bayou Des Glaives breaks and the water is pouring through the crevasses on the Atchafalaya at Melville. These are reported to be covering about forty miles below Bayou Des Glaives, to form a great lake extending up the valley to the northern parishes, 250 miles long and from 15 to 100 miles wide.

A sudden inundation of Bunkie was caused by a crevasse which also sent several feet of water upon Beggs, Garland, Dubuisson, Whiteville and into the country surrounding Bunkie was reported last night. Over 5,000 persons are estimated to be in the inundated territory. Rescue workers were busy last night notifying them to rush to the South end Railroad Line, where cars have been placed to take them out.

The facilities of refugee camps at Opelousas became overtaxed yesterday as a new camp was established at Belle, 18 miles away. Four thousand refugees have been registered at Opelousas. Some brought their belongings with them without food and water for 24 hours.

The highway between Beggs and Bunkie has been closed to traffic and is under four feet of water in some places.

Conditions were reported growing steadily worse in the section around Bunkie and rescue workers reported that the stubbornness of the inhabitants in sticking to their homes was causing much trouble.

At Opelousas rescue workers were kept busy with calls for help from inundated sections. Last night 100 persons were removed from precarious positions in box cars and on house tops at Palmetto and an urgent call from Garland, where several score families were menaced was answered.

A naval aviator flying over the Melville section last yesterday reported 200 persons living on the levees there. He also reported 12 persons marooned on a house top at Swayze Lake. A relief boat was dispatched immediately and these were taken to safety.

Two danger spots in the lower valley caused trouble last night, but were reported holding well today. At Belle Helene, seventy miles above New Orleans on the east bank of the Mississippi 150 feet of the levees burst sloughing on the land side. Today it was reported that the damage had been repaired and the levees were holding. The other danger point was at McCrex, 12 miles north of Melville on the east bank of the Atchafalaya. Here it was reported that the swiftness of the current had caused the levees to slough so that there was a straight drop of fifty feet from the top of the levees to the bottom of the river. The crevasse at Melville, while it lowered the height of the water, was said to have so increased the swiftness of the current as to add to the danger rather than to lessen it.

Secretary Hoover who spent yesterday in inspecting relief facilities at Old River, planned to come to New Orleans today and to leave for Alexandria late in the afternoon.

THREATENED STRIKE AVERTED TODAY

Detroit, May 19.—(AP)—A threatened strike on the Pere Marquette Railroad, set for today, was averted when railroad officials and representatives of the various unions reached a working agreement, membership of the Federal Board of Mediation announced.

FOUND GUILTY—MURDER TODAY

Greenville, S. C., May 19.—(AP)—Jerry Hester was found guilty by a jury today of the murder of J. E. D. Thackston, while his sons, Charlie and Claud, tried along with him, were acquitted. The jury recommended mercy and the sentence automatically carries with it life imprisonment.

Hester and both his sons were found guilty of the murder of Thackston without recommendation at a previous trial.

AMERICA CLOSES MEXICAN BORDER NEAR YUMA, ARIZ.

Yuma, Ariz., May 19.—(AP)—American authorities today closed the Mexican border at San Luis, Sonora, 22 miles from here where an automobile loaded with war munitions was seized Tuesday night. A civilian armed guard has been deputized to patrol the international line, a call having been sent to Somerton, Ariz., for men and rifles. Mexican troops are reported to be enroute to San Luis from Mexcala.

FORMER JUROR TESTIFIES IN WILL HEARING

T. A. Ross Says he Thought Judge Brown Was Old and Childish in Last Days

Washington, N. C., May 19.—(AP)—T. A. Ross, member of the grand jury during the last term of court over which Judge Brown presided, took the stand in the case involving the late Judge's will today and admitted, upon cross examination by attorneys for the caveators, that he thought the judge was "old and childish" and that there had been some discussion among jurors about the Judge's condition.

C. F. Harris, local painter and intimate friend of Judge Brown for years, amused the courtroom by his statement that he would never have to paint any more if he had as much sense as Judge Brown had when he talked with him last.

Among the other witnesses put on by the propounders were H. A. Swindell, Jr., F. A. Lilley, S. R. Fowle and Carl Goerch, local newspaper man. Court adjourned at 12:30 in order to permit Judge Daniels to look over two editorials in the Washington Progress, local weekly newspaper, which propounders wished introduced into evidence. Swindell told of collecting money for subscriptions for the Daily News from Judge Brown at his home and said he thought the Judge was of sound mind.

CLAIMS CLAY WOMAN DIED OF INJURIES

Mrs. Mitchell Still Contends She Had Nothing to do With Death.

Asheville, May 19.—(AP)—When Mrs. Mildred Mitchell, nurse, goes on trial during the week of June 20, on a charge of murdering Mrs. Sue E. Clay, who died Tuesday of injuries sustained on the Hendersonville highway early Sunday morning, her plea will be that Mrs. Clay died of injuries inflicted by herself when she jumped from the automobile of W. N. Muir, of Greensboro.

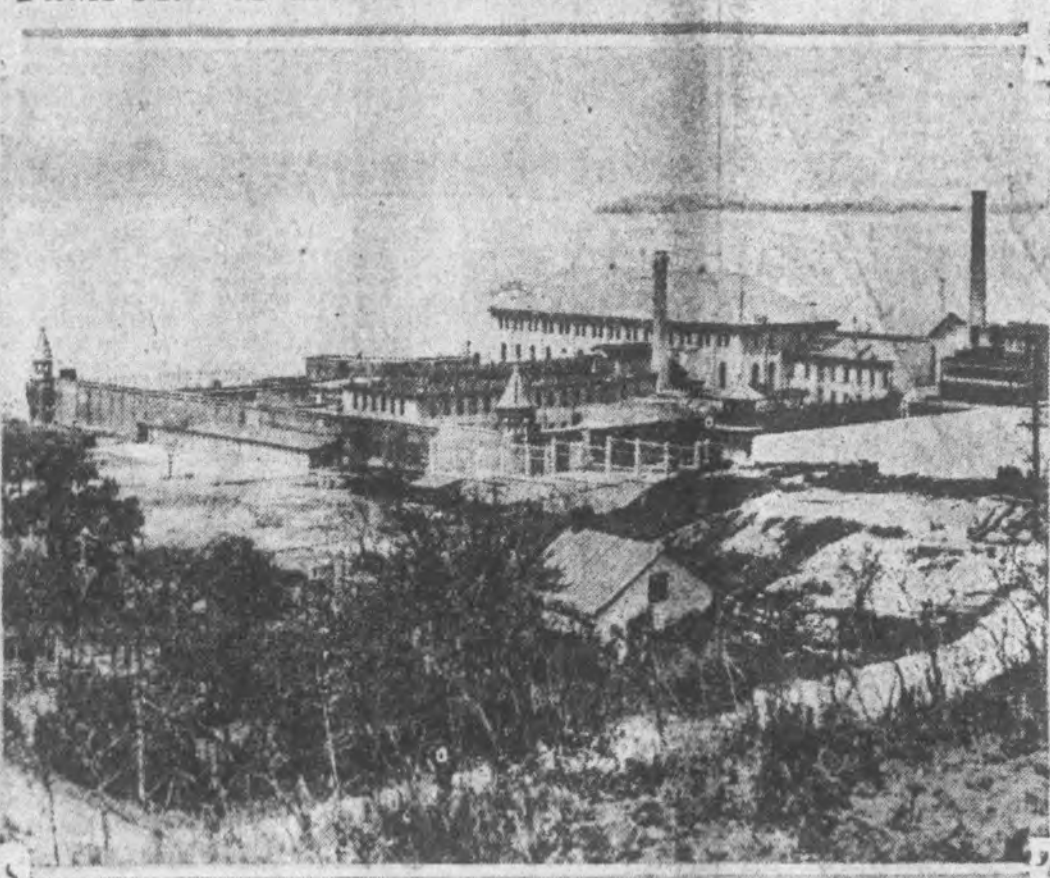

The announcement came today from Robert R. Reynolds, one of the attorneys in Mrs. Mitchell's counsel. Mr. Reynolds made the statement in answer to rumors that a plea of self-defense would be entered.

Mrs. Mitchell, a graduate nurse, was indicted last yesterday afternoon on a murder charge by the Buncombe county grand jury, shortly before the session of the jury was adjourned.

Two other passengers in the car in which Mrs. Mitchell and Mrs. Clay had been riding on the night of the fatal injury of the latter, will be under bond as important State witnesses against Mrs. Mitchell. The two are Muir, driver of the car, and Bryan English, of this city, who said he was unconscious from the effect of alcohol at the time Mrs. Clay sustained her injuries and knew nothing of how it happened.

Muir's bail was fixed at $2,000, and English' at $1,000.

TEMPORARY HOME FOR MRS. SNYDER AND GRAY

Beautiful from the outside is Sing Sing prison on the Hudson river. Inside are tiers and tiers of cells—and the electric chair. Mrs. Ruth Snyder and Henry Judd Gray have cells in opposite ends of the building until their execution for the murder of the woman's husband.

MORE FACTS IN MONTAGUE MURDER CASE

Coroner's Jury Expected to Return Verdict of Guilty This Afternoon.

Asheville, N. C., May 19.—(AP)—Startling discoveries inside the Cooper residence weaving the web of circumstantial evidence more tightly around Mrs. Anna Montague, 46-year-old nurse, than previously believed possible, greatly strengthened the hopes of the police today that the coroner's jury at the inquest this afternoon would return a verdict that Mrs. Mary R. Cooper, 61-year-old widow, came to her death at the hands of Mrs. Montague, nearly a fortnight ago.

Significant developments in the mysterious murder case today were:

1. The finding of a broken glass, smeared with blood, hidden away in a dresser drawer in a bedroom in the Cooper home. The police believe that this blood-stained piece conclusively proves that the murder was an "inside job" and that Mrs. Cooper was killed with her glasses on. The remainder of Mrs. Cooper's glasses had not been found.

2. The elimination of robbery as a motive for the crime. John Anderson, attorney for the Cooper family and now administrator of the Cooper estate up until today had been unable to find $2,000 which Mrs. Cooper had gotten by cashing in some bonds just a short time before her death. The money was found in a local bank.

3. The receipt of a telegram from Marion D. Cooper, estranged son of the late Arthur S. Cooper and stepson of the murdered woman, that he would arrive here tomorrow to assist in unraveling the case. He is a prominent electrical engineer of Cleveland, Ohio.

4. The arrival of Dr. S. S. Montague, of Oxford, N. C., estranged husband of the accused woman. He said he would do what he could to assist his wife but has not yet visited her in jail.

The inquest is scheduled to take place at 1:30 o'clock.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR NOTED DANCER

Lusanne, Switzerland, May 19.—Funeral services for Maurice Moutvet, international known professional dancer who died here last night, will be held in the Church of the Madeleine, Paris, next Monday. He will be buried in Montparnasse Cemetery, Paris.

Moline, Ill., May 19.—(AP)—Floyd Ketner, Moline aviator, was killed near the Moline airport today when a plane, which he built himself, crashed to the ground.

WAR GAME ENDS

Newport, R. I., May 19.—(AP)—The joint Navy and Army maneuvers ended at 12:35 Eastern Standard Time today, when the Blue defending forces won a sweeping victory in defeating the Blacks, who sought to invade New York and Southern New England.

TODAY

No Charity Job. Under the Buttonwood. Standard Oil Flying. Get Your Automobile.

(By Arthur Brisbane)

Copyright 1927, by Star Co.

Today's bad news from the Mississippi valley tells of another serious break, one of many, that of the Atchafalaya-dike, that will render 175,000 homeless. All that the Red Cross can do in such a calamity by using methods, can amount to little.

It is the business of this government to take the situation in hand, and not rely on any earnest body of Red Cross distributors, with more or less uncertain overhead.

When Europe was in trouble, it seemed easy enough to send billions—of which many will never come back. There ought to be some government interest in a "devastated" American region, with hundreds of thousands homeless, more than a thousand million dollars of loss.

One hundred and thirty-five years ago yesterday, May 17, 1792, a few men gathered under a buttonwood tree, formed an association to trade in stocks and made a solemn agreement, faithfully kept, "not to buy or sell any kind of public stock for a less commission than a quarter of 1 per cent."

That was the beginning of New York's stock exchange, when George Washington was President, and Hamilton Secretary of the Treasury. Twenty-five years later the exchange had a roof over its head. W. B. Wadsworth, still active, bought his seat in 1869 for $1,000. Two seats were sold this week for $210,000 each. Nice profit. But had Mr. Wadsworth invested his $1,000 judiciously in New York City real estate in 1869 he would now be as rich as Rockefeller.

Standard Oil of Indiana announced yesterday the purchase from Henry and Edsel Ford of a huge all metal, three engine monoplane "to provide safe, fast and comfortable trips" for its officials, to outlying oil regions.

The time of a good oil man is worth more than the price of several airplanes.

Perhaps Standard Oil will contribute to American flying on its own account, and build that "real flying machine" which Henry Ford suggests, to cost $1,000,000.

Four hundred thousand automobiles were manufactured in April, 1927, passenger cars, the others, trucks and omnibuses.

The real automobile boom of 1927 will come late, you will see it about August or September.

The country has now running 22,000,000 automobiles. NOT enough. Two automobiles per family should be the average.

Unlike the horse, the automobile does not eat when it isn't working. A man without a car is like a bird without wings. Get your automobile.

PREDICTS BIG TAX SURPLUS FOR AMERICA

Senator Simmons Says Treasury Will Have $500,000,000 by Next Congress

Washington, May 19.—(AP)—Prediction that a tax surplus of $500,000,000 will be in the Treasury by the time Congress meets in December was made today by Senator Simmons, North Carolina, ranking Democrat on the Senate finance committee.

In a letter to a North Carolina constituent, Senator Simmons charged the administration with collecting hundreds of millions of dollars out of the people last year and using it for paying Liberty Bonds when the holders of the bonds were not asking payment.

There should be in the Treasury when Congress meets next December another enormous surplus amounting to at least $500,000,000, he letter said. "I presume that the administration leaders will allow this to be returned to the people in order that the administration may have campaign capital in the Presidential election campaign of 1928."

The constituent had written the Senator asking his advice about responding to a request for contributions from American Taxpayers League.

"Of course I do not know what the league desires to raise money for," the Senator said in reply. "It is for the purpose of lobbying in Washington or otherwise using it to influence legislation it is highly improper."

Negro Assailant Takes His Place On "Death Row"

Raleigh, May 18.—(AP)—State prison guards today placed Joe Andrews, negro attacker of the two and a half-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Slones, Franklin County, in death row to await electrocution Friday, July 1.

Andrews was rushed here following his conviction last yesterday in Franklin Superior Court after a ten minute consideration by the jury.

No demonstration accompanied the conviction, no military guard or extra deputies were needed and his reception here was equally quiet.

Federal Parole Board Ready To Pardon McCray

Washington, May 19.—(AP)—The federal parole board has recommended that Warren T. McCray for governor of Indiana, sentenced to the Atlanta penitentiary for 15 years, be paroled in August when he becomes eligible for that clemency.

Attorney General Sargent said today he had received the recommendation and would take it under immediate consideration. McCray was sentenced to the penitentiary in 1924 for using the mails in furtherance of a scheme to defraud in connection with his obtaining loans on cattle paper.

FLOOD RELIEF FUND

With contributions of $56 today brought the Red Cross flood relief fund close to $1,800. Chairman W. H. Rogers today expressed hope that the total fund would reach the two thousand mark by the end of the week.

FLOOD CAUSES EIGHT DEATHS IN IDAHO TOWN

Several Hundred Persons Driven From Home in Illinois and Indiana.

Idaho Falls, Idaho, May 19.—(AP)—Nature has restored the topography of the upper Gros Ventre river valley to a semblance of its original appearance at a cost of at least eight lives. It was revealed today as flood waters released by a "slide" dam continued to menace several communities.

The "slide" dam created when Sheep mountain shifted several feet in June 1925, to send an avalanche of rocks, dirt and trees across the Gros Ventre river, collapsed yesterday to send a wall of water down the sparsely settled valley. The lake created by the natural dam held approximately 100,000 acres of water.

Kelly, little northwestern Wyoming community, where about 75 persons lived, was inundated virtually without warning as the town is located only four miles below the dam, several persons were drowned before they could reach the nearby hills. Although the death list stood at eight, others were unaccounted for.

Continuing down the valley, the flood struck Wilson, 25 miles below Kelly, within two hours. Ranchers declared the torrent retained its crest of nearly 20 feet. The river soon was nearly a mile and a half wide. No lives were lost at Wilson as residents had been warned.

As the water rushed into the Snake river at its junction with the Gros Ventre, near Wilson, warnings were issued to farmers for more than 100 miles along the twisting valley.

BLAST HORROR INCREASES IN BATH MICHIGAN

The rain at Peoria and surrounding territory was accompanied by a heavy fall of hail which broke thousands of windows. Damage was estimated at nearly $750,000.

More than 45 persons were injured in Indianapolis; some seriously, when an 80 mile an hour wind struck that city, flattening a number of houses, and outside the downtown area and blowing down a gospel mission tent while services were in progress. Telephone and telegraph wires throughout the city were crippled. The storm damage was estimated at $3,000,000.

Final Checkup Shows 43 Killed and 44 injured in Village School Tragedy.

Bath, Mich., May 19.—(AP)—The magnitude of the horror that befell this little village yesterday when a demented farmer blew up the consolidated school, killing nearly two score children and several adults, continued to grow today. Up to noon 37 pupils and six adults were numbered in the death list. Forty-three others were seriously injured, some perhaps fatally.

Stricken not only by death but by debt as well, the village of 300 population was in dire straits. At Lansing, Governor Frew W. Green issued a proclamation calling state wide aid in raising funds for relief of the stricken families—one-fourth of the children of the village were killed in the blasts—and the rebuilding of their school.

The death toll mounted to 43 with the discovery of a woman's body and the death in a Lansing hospital of Cleo Clayton, 8, one of the pupils.

Included in the dead is Andrew Kehoe, revenge maddened farmer treasurer of the township school board, who mined the school with dynamite and gunpowder and blew himself into eternity after watching the blast tear the north wing of the school.

LLOYD BERTAUD WILL NOT BE A PARTICIPANT IN THE NEW YORK TO PARIS FLIGHT

MANY MISSING AS RESULT OF HEAVY STORMS

Several Communities Menaced by Waters Let Loose by Collapse of Dam.

Ueorla, Ills., May 19.—(AP)—Five persons were believed to have lost their lives, one of them, Walter Mueller, son of Mayor of Peoria, in floods and rainstorms in Peoria and vicinity late yesterday. A score more were reported unaccounted for.

Three hundred and fifty are homeless and damage is estimated at a million and a half dollars.

Train service at Peoria was demoralized here today due to washouts.

Young Mueller, a mine superintendent and Lester Jones were walking on the Toledo, Peoria and Western Railway tracks when caught in the flood waters of Le March Creek. Jones, who escaped, and others described it as a wall of water 13 feet high, which swept them into the torrent.

Four other persons were believed to have lost their lives in the lowlands near here. The rainfall here was 5.63 inches.

Chicago, May 19.—(AP)—Peoria, Ills., and Indianapolis, Ind., were hit in the latest of a series of spring storms, which lashed the portions of Illinois and Indiana.

Several persons were believed today to have been drowned at Peoria where six inches of rain fell within a few hours, flooding downtown streets and basements, tying up railroad, automobile and street car traffic and sending farm creeks on a rampage.

Government boats were sent into the lowlands of East Peoria to rescue 300 families driven from their homes by the rising creek. Newspaper reporters who toured the area brought in estimates to Peoria early today of a possible death list of 15 in East Peoria and Pekin, while police checked up on a number of missing persons. Les Jones who with Walter Mueller, son of the Mayor of Peoria, was swept three miles down a creek when a bridge gave way under them, was taken to Peoria suffering from exposure. He had no word of Mueller's fate.

The rain at Peoria and surrounding territory was accompanied by a heavy fall of hail which broke thousands of windows. Damage was estimated at nearly $750,000.

More than 45 persons were injured in Indianapolis; some seriously, when an 80 mile an hour wind struck that city, flattening a number of houses, and outside the downtown area and blowing down a gospel mission tent while services were in progress. Telephone and telegraph wires throughout the city were crippled. The storm damage was estimated at $3,000,000.

Bandit Band Is Cornered at Quay

O'Fallon, Okla., May 19.—(AP)—Matthew Kimes and his bandit band, who held up two Begg Bank yesterday morning, killed Chief of Police W. J. McNulty and escaped with $17,961.49. Have been cornered at Quay, in Pawnee County, by posse of more than 100 armed citizens and officers, according to telephone calls this morning from Constable E. V. Jones of Beggs, who was leading the posse.

Jones declared that the bank robbers had been trailed through Bristol, Hamrick, Cushing and Vard that apparently they were headed for Osage County, where it is believed they have been making headquarters.

Shriners Meet In Goldsboro

Goldsboro, May 18.—(AP)—Five thousand Shriners were here today for the 11th annual ceremonial of "Social Temple" of the Ancient Arabic Order of the Mystic Shrine. Besides the street parade at noon and initiation of 60 candidates in the afternoon, and a drill drill night and potentes' ball, a business session gave attention to organization of a joint ceremonial between Oasis Temple and Sudan Temple, to be held at Chapel Hill in September, as suggested at the recent ceremonial of the Oasis in Greensboro. Potentiate Fred B. Crowson, Sr., of Goldsboro, presided.

Differences Not Settled Between Navigator and Owner of Plane.

New York, May 19.—(AP)—Lloyd Bertaud definitely will not make the Paris flight in the Bellanca Monoplane with Clarence Chamberlin, and his successor is already selected. Charles A. Levine, head of the company backing the flight, told the Associated Press this afternoon.

Levine's announcement followed tardily on an almost night-long conference at the end of which Bertaud had said that all difficulties had been ironed out and that he would go on the flight as navigator as originally planned.

Levine made no statement at the time but when reports gained circulation that the situation was not quite as Bertaud believed it to be, he was asked to state definitely what the results of the conference were.

"Bertaud is not going," he replied. "That is definite. His successor has been selected but his identity will not be revealed until the plane is ready to hop off."

New York, May 19.—(AP)—Differences that threatened the New York-Paris flight of the Bellanca monoplane Columbia were settled yesterday. Lloyd W. Bertaud, navigator of the plane, announced after a conference with Charles A. Levine, sponsor of the trip.

Bertaud said injunction proceedings to prevent the Columbia from starting on its trip without home would be withdrawn. The navigator felt satisfied, he said he would see Clarence Chamberlin when the craft hops off.

A temporary injunction returnable tomorrow was obtained by Bertaud yesterday.

Adverse weather reports delayed the Bellanca flight. Storms between here and the New Foundland coast also held to earth Commander Rich E. Byrd's giant Fokker monoplane America, and Captain Charles Lindbergh's monoplane, The Spirit of St. Louis.

Marked activity about the Byrd hangar today, however, indicated completion of final preparations for the flight of the America. Mechanics hustled about the huge craft making it ready for what might be its last test flight preparatory to start tomorrow.

"The mid-Atlantic," said the weather reports, "was clear but favorable skies the entire extent of the route probably would not appear before tomorrow."

Lindbergh was ready to start. Foodstuffs and safety devices have been put in Byrd's plane.

The food includes enough pemican to last Byrd, his pilot, 11,000 miles. George O. Neville, and Bert Acosta, their companion, six weeks' matted milk, hard tack and six gallons of distilled water.

The safety devices include pneumatic boots, one of which is 14 feet long; fishing tackle; a box kite, to be used either as a float or as a boat sail; a signal for signalling and flares. Byrd declared the preparations would make an ocean landing as safe as floating on the lake at Central Park "compared with precautions taken by 'tires in the past'."

4 CONTENDERS SECOND PLACE IN NATIONAL

Swift descent of the World Champion St. Louis Cardinals from second to fifth place in the national league drew attention today to a red hot struggle for second place by four teams.

While the Giants, like their fellow townsmen, the Yankees, in the American league had a good hold on first place, the next four teams were lunched so closely a cap would cover them.

These four were the Cubs, Phillies, Pirates and Cardinals, named in the order of their present rank. Between the first and last of this quartet just 21 points intervened.

A single defeat is enough to send one of the four down several steps. Cardinals when they lost to the Braves 8 to 1 while Pittsburgh was trouncing the league leading Giants 13 to 6. Chicago was beating Brooklyn 7 to 4 and the Phillies were idle.

Woe Willie Sherdel of the Cardinals, slow ball king, was batted out of the box in the seventh. Larry Benton, of Boston, held the champions to eight hits and added a double of his own in the sixth that tallied three runs.

The corsairs crushed out 18 hits off three pitchers while Vic Aldridge held the Giants bats to just half that number. Joe Harris, Pittsburgh first sacker, had a perfect day at bat with four singles and a pass in five attempts. Home runs were made by Wright and Taylor of the victors and Doc Farrell, the youthful Giant.

Charlie Root's pitching plus loose Brooklyn fielding, gave the Cubs the victory that carried them from fourth to second place. It was Root's sixth win of the season.

Shake up in the American League took place when the Tigers made their hits count to defeat Washington 5 to 3, and the Browns outgamed the Red Sox for an 8 to 6 decision. The Senators thus rank from fourth to a tie with Cleveland for next to last while Detroit and St. Louis were ducked in fourth position. Disputes with the umpires featured the Detroit game and one man of each team was banished for talking back. With all tanned ten Senators. The high spots at St. Louis was the batting of "Bing" Miller of the Browns, who made four hits, one a homer, in five times up and boosted his average to .446.

Eddie Collins, now with the Athletics, was handed a Wrist Watch, Diamond stick pin and a base on balls by his old teammates at Chicago before rain ended the game in the second inning.

GENE TUNNEY TO WITNESS BIG FIGHT

New York, May 18. (AP)—Gene Tunney, ex-marine Heavyweight boxing champion of the world, will be one of 60,000 spectators tonight as Jack Sharkey, ex-gob, and Jimmy Malone, ex-doughboy, two of the foremost contenders for his crown, fight it out over the 15-round route in the Yankee stadium.

The battle holds special interest for the ex-marine for its winner is to meet Jack Dempsey in August for a title bout with the champion in September.

Men in the street and expert alike were hard put to it today to pick the winner. The consensus was that two formidable heavyweights were evenly matched.

Besides the prospect of $150,000 as his share of the gate, each of the Boston maulers has a fine chance for a commemorative bout with Dempsey, followed, if successful, by a match with Tunney with a fortune as the reward.

Maloney and Sharkey were identified each in his own way. Maloney was quiet and confident; Sharkey loud and sure. Sharkey weighed 200 pounds of powerful bone and muscle; Maloney was down to 211 pounds.

The prospect of rain was a consideration by Tex Rickard, the promoter of the fight, but he said that the fight would be held regardless.

Preliminaries will start at 7:45 Eastern Standard Time and the main bout about 9:30. Broadcast time, Fairbanks, 10:30 a.m. W. and W. stations will radio the bout.

DOAK PICKS ALL STATE COLLEGE 9

Raleigh, May 19. (AP)—Four N. C. State players, two each from Duke, Carolina and Wake Forest, and one of Elon were named to night on Coach Charles G. (Chick) Doak's 1927 All-State college nine.

The State mentor gave his selections to The Associated Press as follows:

Hellingsworth, Duke, catcher. Harrell, State, first base. Dertin, Wake Forest, second base.

Clayton, Wake Forest, shortstop. Saunders, Duke, third base. Outen, State, left field.

Malley, Carolina, centerfield. Hovis, State, rightfield. Westmoreland, Carolina, pitcher.

Powder, Elon, pitcher. Deal, State, pitcher.

Winston-Salem And Wilson Highs To Clash Saturday

Raleigh, May 19. (AP)—Today found Wilson, Eastern winners and Winston-Salem, Western titleholders in the high school championship race, going through final workouts for the final battle at Chapel Hill Saturday. The winner will be crowned State champion.

Winston-Salem, and Pioneer Winston-Salem, mound ace, played big parts in their clubs' reaching the finals.

Duke - Carolina Battle Today

Raleigh, May 19. (AP)—North Carolina college fans today watched with interest the outcome of the Carolina-Duke baseball tilt at Chapel Hill which may crown the Tar Heels 1927 champions or give the Blue Devils further claim to highest honors.

Carolina entered the contest with a better record, having defeated Wake Forest twice. The Blue Devils had a loss to the Baptists against them.

CAPS ON TOP IN PIEDMONT

Raleigh, May 19. (AP)—A meekly looking lad named Harry Moger, pitcher, has upset standings in the Piedmont loop and today his team the Raleigh Caps, trod the highest boards in the circuit.

Moger's stellar hurling saved the Caps four times in five days. Yesterday, Moger's slants sent Rocky Mount slab artists back with nary a hit or a bare in 21 straight at-bats. It was the Caps 7th consecutive victory for the leadership with a 7 point margin over Winston-Salem.

Winston-Salem defeated Salisbury 7-1 while Durham set High Point, leaders, back 8-3.

New City, N. Y.—Hearst of gossip about Hiram Holden, 23-year-old school principal, and a teacher with whom he had been out walking, the village board of education demands that he resign and offers him a fine recommendation, having found the gossip unjustified. He says he won't resign.

In Training

Wood-chopping keeps Jack Dempsey busy hours daily in his comeback training camp in the isolated Ojai Valley, California. Here's Jack as a woodsman.

ROCKETS TO BANTAM FAME IN 19 MONTHS

Chicago, May 19. (AP)—They Can Zzerri, a New Orleans youngster with a Rooseveltian smile has rushed in 19 months to the forefront of contention for the world bantamweight championship by dogging the footsteps of the man he idolized—Pete Herman, last great bantam titleholder.

From his early team Canzoneri has followed Leman around; and today, at 21, he gives promise of overshadowing the spectacular ring career of his friend and teacher.

Climaxing the scant year and a half since he fought his first professional bout Canzoneri is matched for the second time to battle for the world bantamweight crown, an achievement remarkable in the history of glove fighting.

He meets Rudy Taylor, blonde Terre Haute terror, here June 2 in a match figured to end dispute over ownership of the title. Taylor is recognized as champion in Illinois and 19 other states. He and Canzoneri fought ten slashing rounds here in March to a draw.

Canzoneri like Herman is a native of New Orleans. An Italian with the vivid imagination of his race, he became a worshiper of Herman at 14, and the association blossomed into warm friendship.

When Pete retired in 1920 he gave long hours to developing the natural talent Tony possessed and found in him courage, skill, punching ability and real ring smartness.

After Tony won 17 straight amateur victories in New Orleans, Herlman sent him to his oldtime manager in New York. Turning professional at 20 in 40 bouts he has won 21 decisions, scored ten knockouts, boxed two no-decision, fought three draws and lost a single decision.

If he conquers Taylor he will outdo Herman's record, for Pete began fighting in 1912 and was not champion until 1917.

Canzoneri's wide smile is a winner. His grin reveals a row of teeth white and wide, set as evenly as corn on a cob.

Maloney - Sharkey Bout Postponed Until Tomorrow

New York, May 19. (AP)—The fifteen round heavy weight elimination bout scheduled tonight at the Yankee stadium between Jimmy Maloney and Jack Sharkey has been postponed until tomorrow night. Promoter Tex Rickard announced today.

Rain that started this morning was still falling when the announcement of the postponement was made at 11 o'clock.

WANT ADS PAY

LOW RATES

for time payments on these cars

ANY FAMILY entitled to credit may buy a General Motors car and pay for it while using it, under the GMAC Plan.

When time payments first became an accepted form of car purchase, General Motors organized its own finance company, the General Motors Acceptance Corporation, to make sure that the sale of its cars on time would be in the buyer's interest and that the finance charges would be fair.

GMAC rates have always been low; and the last reduction has saved General Motors' customers more than $12,000,000.

The General Motors line includes "a car for every purse and purpose"—a suitable model for every income. You can buy it out of income, paying no more than the cash delivered price, plus only the low GMAC financing charge. And the whole transaction is so conducted as to keep your goodwill and satisfaction.

CLIP THE COUPON

USE THE GMAC PLAN to enjoy a new car now. Use it to get a better car for what you plan to spend. Have General Motors quality. Share in the economies of volume production. Look over the list of General Motors cars below. See which car suits your purse. Then check and mail the coupon. We will send you full information about that car and about the fair, low-cost GMAC Plan of paying for it out of income. Don't wait. Clip the coupon and mail it TODAY.

Negro Men Cut Each Other Up Over A Woman
Jerry Farmer and Dallas Sheppard, colored, are confined in the city jail today awaiting hearing on a charge of assault and battery resulting from a cutline affair yesterday afternoon near the ice factory, in which both were the principal actors.

Both men are suffering from painful wounds in all parts of their bodies. Police found that a pocket knife and razor were used in the combat, but it could not be determined which used the knife and which used the razor.

A colored damsel appeared at the police station a short time following the arrest of the two men and required to see one of them. It was at this part of the episode that officers learned that all the cutting had been done over a woman. They were not able to learn whether the woman in this case desired to give hand or sympathy, as she was not permitted to get nearer than halting distance to her belligerent wooers.

PRODUCT OF GENERAL MOTORS

$1,500 a week and some weeks 100,000 flowers are made by its workers.

For four of its seven years it has been directed by Mrs. Maude G. Winters.

Men weighted down by physical and financial burdens, many of them discouraged by failure to adapt themselves to veteran's hospital to peace time tasks, come to the poppy shop for work.

They are put to making poppies of a cent apiece. Some become expert enough to make 125 an hour, while others take half a day or longer to make their quota of 300 or 300. The schedule is arranged to give part time work to all veterans who want it. Several of the workers are adept despite the loss of arms in battle.

Between orders for poppies the workers make wicker baskets, rugs, lampshades, favors and similar trinkets.

IMPROVEMENT PROGRAM AT FORT BRAGG IS GETTING UNDER WAY

Charlotte, May 19—(AP)—A program of permanent construction at Fort Bragg which ultimately will involve $5,000,000 is just getting under way. Major General A. J. Bowley, commander, told the Charlotte Engineers' Club in an address here today. The first barracks to cost $250,000 and providing quarters for 400 artillery men will be completed within a few months.

Plans of the War Department for development of the Fort will make it one of the most attractive and comfortable in the United States, the General said. Several years must elapse, however, before the extensive construction program is finished, he pointed out.

The beginning of this work, said General Bowley, marked the end of a struggle of six and a half years for something permanent that will nail down the post. While the plans now made contemplate expenditure of $4,500,000 the General said he expects additional work will increase the expenditure to $5,000,000 and "also we hope that a million or two dollars will be spent" for desirable purposes at the Fort.

From his laboratories Thomas A. Edison has from time to time issued questionnaires. Now, he has consented to become the interrogated—has agreed to lay bare his half-century effort to give the world perfect reproduction of music.

In plain, untechnical words, Mr. Edison here tells how he has made a marvelous musical instrument with all the painstaking care and individual detail of a Stradivarius Violin.

The question asked Mr. Edison were:

Ques. Do you take advantage of the economic of mass production in the making of your phonograph?

Ans. I consider the New Edison Phonograph a musical instrument and not a machine to be made in the manner of automobiles, cheap furniture or other things in which uniform quality is not a prime essential.

Ques. Isn't it possible to make instruments of Edison quality by mass production?

Ans. No greater proof of the fallacy of this, as far as phonographs and other musical instruments are concerned, can be offered than the vain efforts of violin manufacturers to make violins of Stradivarius quality by mass production. For although every part of the instrument may be exactly alike as to size, unless there is the individual human touch, there is bound to be a variation in tone quality.

Ques. How can the layman tell the difference between a phonograph made by mass production and one made by craftsmen?

Ans. Anyone is apt to be satisfied with existing conditions until he hears something better; may even excuse distorted tone for want of a superior instrument. But when an ordinary phonograph turned out in quantity is compared side by side with one in which human hand work has played its part, the glaring difference instantly is apparent.

Ques. What do you consider the truest test of phonograph quality?

Ans. There is no measure of tone quality like the human ear. For this reason I urge comparison between the New Edison and other phonographs. To this end, I have advised every Edison dealer to place—without obligation to the prospective buyer—the New Edison in any home where comparison with other types of phonographs is desired.

Ques. How would you describe the tone of the New Edison Phonograph?

Ans. It is sheer nonsense to speak of the tone of a phonograph or of its resonance. A phonograph should have no tone of its own. The instrument should be only a medium of Re-Creation. Obviously you should be unconscious of it and hear only the beautiful music it Re-Creates.

I worked for five years and spent more than $3,000,000 in experimental work to remove any false tone from the New Edison. Even when I, myself, was satisfied with the results I did not stop there. I insisted that the New Edison be submitted publicly to the test of side by side comparison with living artists whose performances had been recorded. Exacting music critics could detect no difference between living and Re-Created performance.

A phonograph can be no better than the artist's performance

Five thousand times critical audiences have heard living artists sing or play in direct comparison with their Edison records in the leading concert halls of the world. Eminent musical critics have put themselves on record to the effect that there is no difference between the artist's performance and the New Edison Re-Creation of it. Send for free booklet "What the Critics Say."

Only the New Edison does this test of direct comparison.

Now two thousand FRIGIDAIREs a day!

Two thousand Frigidaires a day are now required to supply the enormous demand—a demand that has already placed more Frigidaires in use than all other electric refrigerators combined.

Two thousand more Frigidaires to provide carefree, economical refrigeration for homes and stores—to bring two thousand more users of refrigeration a new independence of outside ice supply.

The amazing growth in popularity of Frigidaire is conclusive proof that it is filling a real need—a need for better, more economical food preservation. Modern homes and stores find that Frigidaire pays for itself many times over in better refrigeration at low costs.

Three divorces were granted in Durham in twenty minutes, yet there are those in our state who endeavor to get the last Legislature to amend the present divorce laws in order that divorces might be more easily obtained. If there is any trouble with the present divorce law it is that it is not strict enough, and already divorces in the state are too easy to get.

A WISE MOVE

Residents of the section below Cox's Mill will rejoice at the news that the extension of the Cox Mill hard surface road to Vanceboro has been taken over as a part of the state highway system, and work will begin on the project at an early date. For a long time the residents of this community have been cut off from the county seat by a stretch of bad road beyond Cox's Mill, but the action by the Highway Commission yesterday will soon make it possible for these people to get to and from town with their produce regardless of weather conditions. The Highway Commission made a wise decision in taking over the road which, when completed, will furnish the most direct route by hard surface between the county seats of Pitt and Craven counties, and shorten the distance to the coast resorts from this city and all points north of here.

SUPPORT THE BAND

Since the organization of the high school band here sometime ago, the organization has meant much to the community and has served willingly, with or without pay, whenever its services have been needed. In the recent fire that destroyed the Junior High School building here, several of the band's instruments and effects were lost, and in order to raise funds to replace same, the organization will render a special concert in the college auditorium next Monday night. If you attend this band concert you will not only be getting a full evening's enjoyment, but you will be helping that means much to the town.

SELF-"RENOMINATION"

Possibly Mr. Coolidge will not be disturbed by the story from Boston that in 1912 he was a member of the Anti-Third-Term League in opposition to the candidacy of Theodore Roosevelt. He may think he has as much right to change his mind as "T. R." had, and of course such charges are more or less inevitable under the pressure of personal ambition. It is of interest to note, however, that Mr. Roosevelt's change of heart was limited, and, though sufficient for his own purposes, failed to cover the case of Mr. Coolidge. In 1912, after he had been out of the White House four years, Mr. Roosevelt confidently announced: "The third term tradition has reference only to a third consecutive term. It grew out of the fact that a President of the United States, under the present convention system of electing delegates, can, if he knows how to use the machinery at his disposal, renominate himself even though the majority of the party is against him."

—and the Worst is Yet to Come

Such a view of the "tradition," if accepted, would have let Mr. Roosevelt in, but obviously it would shut Mr. Coolidge out. And with such an utterance on record the advocates of a Coolidge third term would be wise not to cite the Roosevelt precedent in favor of their cause. Indeed, this utterance might convey to the public mind the uneasy impression that if a President be allowed to "renominate" himself for a third term, he might do it for a fourth, a fifth and an indefinite number of terms. This Roosevelt assertion that a President is in possession of machinery wherewith to "renominate" himself even though the majority of the party be against him would be of interest at any time, and is particularly interesting just now.

Veteran Players
Furnish Inspiration
For Youngsters

New York, May 17.—(AP)—Three cases in which a promising youngster in the major leagues is being carried along at a remarkable batting clip apparently through the inspiration and example of a veteran teammate were presented today by the figures showing performances to date.

Rogers Hornsby and a University of Pennsylvania product, Farrell, infield mates on the Giants, were heading the National League in batting, each with an average of .393. Ty Cobb and Simmons, old and young outfielders of the Athletics, were tied for second in the American League with a mark of .416. The pair are such friends that when one was suspended recently for umpire-baiting the other was suspended too.

The third case involves Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig. The latter, who was a student at Columbia not so long ago, is even with his illustrious teammate in home run hitting with eight apiece, a mark which leads both leagues.

To Investigate
Truckline For North Carolina

Raleigh, May 19.—(AP)—I. M. Bailey, executive secretary of the State transportation advisory commission today sought out an expert traffic analyst to work with him in investigating possibilities of water and truckline transportation and lower freight rates in the State.

The commission, following its first meeting, decided today to meet again next month when its full plans will be announced.

The fact that the State already is being benefited by water transportation was brought out at the meeting by E. K. Bishop, of New Bern, who described the fast growing truck line business out of New Bern which is engaged in hauling produce into that port by recently established ship lines. Mr. Bishop said the truck lines were serving a number of Eastern Carolina cities, including Goldsboro, Wilson, Kingston and Greenville, at a marked saving over rail rates.

Progress also was reported in securing the right-of-way for the Beaufort-Wilmington inland waterway extension, for which $75,000 was appropriated by the last legislature. A committee composed of J. Allen Taylor, Wilmington; E. K. Bishop, New Bern, and John W. House, Wilson, was named to take this project in charge.

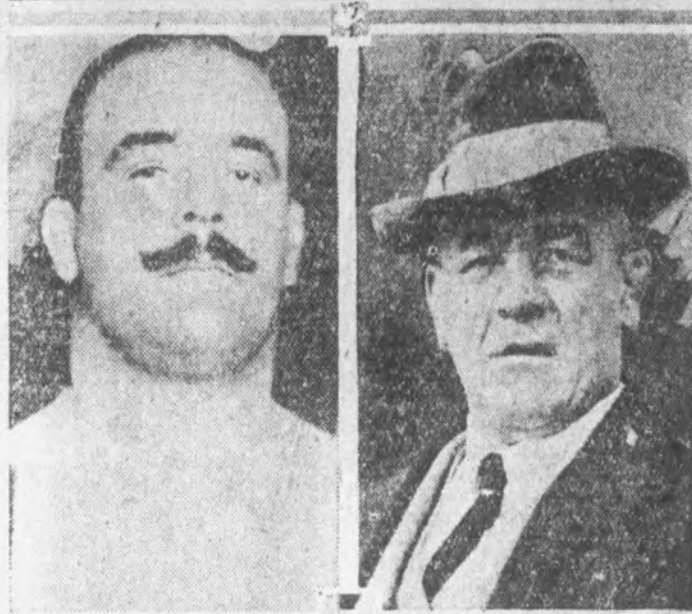

Mr. House recited that dredging of the bar to provide a 25 foot channel into the Beaufort-Morehead City harbor was progressing nicely, and according to Major Snow, U. S. district engineer, would be complete in about three weeks.

Sam P. Burton, Asheville, was named to succeed Fred Kent on the commission. Mr. Kent also was a resident of Asheville and died last fall while en route to a meeting of the commission here.

Following members were present at the meeting: A. C. Meyer, Gastonia, chairman; J. T. Purdue, Fayetteville; John W. House, Wilson; Chas. G. Yates, Greensboro; George Marsh, Raleigh; J. Allen Taylor, Wilmington, and E. K. Bishop, New Bern.

KELLY ADMITS HIS LOVE FOR MISS MACKAYE

Alleged Murderer of Ray Raymond Tells Of Trouble Over Musician's Wife.

Los Angeles, May 19.—(AP)—Scenes were shifted today for the closing act of the Paul Kelly murder trial drama in which the film actor is charged with having caused the death of Ray Raymond by a beating administered in a quarrel over the musical comedy star's wife, Dorothy Mackaye.

Kelly, on the stand at the close of yesterday's court session telling his version of the fist fight, was programmed as the last witness in the case. Attorneys predicted that with testimony to be completed today the fate of the film actor would be in the hands of jury by tomorrow night.

The screen juvenile in his story of the affair switched the roles of Paul Kelly and Ray Raymond as they had been pictured in the battle, the only witness of the battle. He declared the stage star was the aggressor. Raymond, he said, started the fight by accusing Kelly of living with his wife, calling him vile names, and threatening to beat him.

Kelly said he struck the first blow, two light backhand slaps on Raymond's mouth as they sat on a sofa in the Raymond home. At no time he declared, did he encourage Raymond to fight and merely defended himself. Raymond was coming toward him threatening to knock him down, according to his story when Kelly hit him again. They clinched and exchanged blows. Raymond went down but arose and refused to accept Kelly's proffered hand.

The story of Charlotte Lee, the maid, was that Kelly beat the son and dance man while Raymond pleaded that he was too ill and tired to fight, that the husky young film player held his opponent with one hand while he belabored him with the other, and that it was a one-sided battle with every advantage of weight and health to Kelly. Soon after he reached the witness stand, Kelly admitted his love for Miss Mackaye and took on the defense of her name. He denied the statements of Charlotte Lee and the charges of his own Japanese houseboy, "Gangle," that the actress had made all night visits to his apartment.

Charlotte Plans Celebration Of Mecklenburg Day

Charlotte, May 19.—(AP)—Military companies from Fort Bragg and a half dozen western North Carolina communities as well as notables of the American Legion and army circles, are expected here during today in preparation for tomorrow's celebration of the 152nd anniversary of the signing of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence.

Howard P. Savage, of Indianapolis, commander of the American Legion, and Major General A. J. Bowley, commander of Fort Bragg, are due here during the day. Mr. Savage will attend a meeting tonight of the executives of the North Carolina Department of the American Legion and General Bowley will address the Charlotte Engineers' Club this afternoon. Mr. Savage comes here from Spartanburg, S. C.

Major General Charles P. Summrell, chief of staff, U. S. Army, and Keneas Mountain Landis, the baseball high commissioner, who will be among the chief speakers at a banquet tomorrow night, are due Friday morning. Other guests expected include General Malin Craig, Atlanta, commander of the Fourth Army Corps area; Gov. F. W. McLean, Adjutant General A. J. Van Metts and General Albert Cox of the N. C. National Guard.

The regular army units from Fort Bragg and the National Guard units besides participating in a parade tomorrow, will stage a sham battle tomorrow night.

Presbyterians Ask Dismissal Members Of Education Board

Lakeland, Fla., May 19.—(AP)—Dismissal of five members of the board of education of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church is demanded by five of the 13 synods and presbyteries which memorialized the 97th general assembly of the church here today.

The convention will take cognizance of the memorials tomorrow in referring them to committees. Charges that six members of the board, one of whom has resigned, "deliberately refused to comply with the findings" of a commission appointed by the moderator of the church to investigate alleged denominational disloyalties at Bethel College, McKenzie, Tenn., are made in memorial from the synod of Arkansas.

Even of the 13 memorials ask that the findings of the educational commission be upheld; one memorial defends the board of education; and one petition urges the assembly to "deal with these men as Christian brethren."

A memorial from the West Tennessee synod, in session at Dyer, endorsed the action of the commission. To this memorial a protest was filed the next day by ten members, alleging that the matter was not properly presented to the synod.

The Ohio presbytery of the West Tennessee synod, the Knoxville presbytery of East Tennessee, the East Tennessee presbytery of the West Tennessee synod, the Cookeville presbytery of Tennessee, the Indian presbytery, and the Ozark presbytery of Missouri asked that the findings of the commission be upheld. The Springfield presbytery of Missouri and the McInnis presbytery of Tennessee added demands for the removal of the board members. Hopewell presbytery of West Tennessee urged that the assembly deal "with these men as Christian brethren." The synod of Arkansas asks that the findings be ratified.

Supreme Court To Continue Hearing Of Appeals Today

Raleigh, May 19.—(AP)—The Supreme Court continued hearing appeals today, in oral arguments, following its handing down of 15 opinions yesterday evening.

When Thomas Brinkley, Cabarrus county man, entered a plea of guilty to prostitution after being charged with seduction, he cut off every avenue of escape from serving the 18 months sentence that Judge Stack imposed upon him, the Supreme Court holds.

Judge Sinclair is reversed by the Supreme Court in the opinion handed down in the case of State vs. Sullivan, in which four defendants were charged with kidnapping. Judge Sinclair ordered one of the defendants discharged without ordering the jury from the room, declaring that from his testimony he clearly wasn't guilty, and Justice Clarkson says that this was an expression of opinion.

"We know the great burden of the courts below and wonder at their ability to make so few errors in administering justice," says Justice Clarkson.

The Supreme Court sent back for new trial the case of Taylor versus Jones Construction Company, because Emergency Judge R. Lee Wright failed to charge properly concerning the limit of damages in the case. The plaintiff, a carpenter, was awarded $22,875 in damages for injuries sustained when a steel beam struck him on a scaffold, the construction company being held secondarily liable and J. W. Markham, steel builder, primarily liable.

Says Scientists Are Helping Man Work With God

Eldorado, Ark., May 19.—(AP)—"No other class of men are doing more to make it possible for men to work with God than scientists," Dr. J. W. Skinner, president of the Texas-Mexican Industrial Institute for boys, at Kingsville, Texas, declared in the opening sermon to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States here today.

Scientists—"A class by the thoughtless and uniform often rallied against—have done more in the last few years to make the world safe for a new race of men, more to make available more favorable conditions for men, more to take fear out of the hearts of men more to take the drudgery out of human toil, more to banish ignorance, more to bring in light, than the church of God did for 1,000 years, in the centuries between 600 and 1400," Dr. Skinner said.

"God is known as a greater God today than was taught 200 years ago. The Bible is a richer treasure of truth in the light of the illumination of modern science. No class of men live and labor more in the spirit of Jesus Christ than the many self-effacing men in the scientific research laboratories," he declared.

"Please understand these statements, Jesus said, 'Not every one that saith, Lord! Lord! shall enter the kingdom of heaven!'"

Dr. Skinner said "startlingly suggestive parallels" in the history of the world led him to believe "a new creation is in process."

Present Bill to Legalize Betting On Race Track

Chicago, May 19.—(AP)—Just a year from the time legalized betting returned to Illinois, the first bill to legalize race track betting since its abolishment in the '30s was before Governor Len Small today. It was passed by the Senate yesterday. At the same time counsel for H. D. "Curly" Brown, California capitalist and sportsman, announced that he had completed plans for a $2,000,000 race track to be built just north of Chicago. Three sites are under option and final selection will be made within a few days.

More than $700,000 a year will accrue to the State Agricultural Department under the terms of the bill, its proponents figure. A daily license fee of $2,500 for Chicago and East St. Louis tracks and $1,500 for those more than 25 miles from the metropolitan centers, with a tax of 20 cents on each admission ticket.

OUCH! BACKACHE! RUB LUMBAGO AWAY

When your back is sore and lame or lumbago, sciatica or rheumatism has you stiffened up, don't suffer! Get a 35 cent bottle of old, honest St. Jacobs Oil at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub it right on your aching back, and the soreness and lameness is gone. In use for 65 years, this soothing, penetrating oil takes the pain right out, and ends the misery. It is absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin.

We Are Dealers For THE PERFECTION OIL STOVE Any Model—Any Size Any Kind of Part HOME FURNITURE CO.

needs no watching

The modern Perfection Oil Stove cooks merrily away while you do other things

Put your roast or cake into the Perfection Oven, your vegetables on to boil. Set the flames high or low, to suit your cooking needs. They will not "creep up." You can trust them to remain as you set them, while you work in the garden, finish a dress, or do other things.

When you touch a match to the wick, cooking begins. A solid column of clean heat is driven full force right to the cooking. Intense heat covers the entire cooking surface on the utensils. That's why food is always so thoroughly cooked on the Perfection Stove—and not just in spots.

Back of these newest Perfections stands the satisfaction of more than 4,500,000 Perfection owners. Have your dealer demonstrate the newest Perfections. You can then see for yourself that they need no watching. One to five burner sizes. Priced from $7.25 to $130.

Hickory Men Are Indicted by Jury

Charlotte, May 19.—(AP)—Charles Heavner, of Hickory, and Dr. W. E. Wishart, Roy Davis and James M. Smith, of Charlotte, were indicted by the Mecklenburg county grand jury today as a result of charges brought by Miss Margaret Carpenter, of Hickory.

The grand jury investigation grew out of filing suit by the girl against Dr. Wishart and the others for damages alleged to have been performed on the girl in a hotel here.

Bond for the men had not been fixed at noon today but it was expected the solicitor would agree to a proper amount during the afternoon. Solicitor John G. Carpenter said the cases would come up for trial at the June term of Superior court.

The four men indicted were formally placed under arrest and gave bond in the sum of $1,500 each for appearance in Superior court June 13th.

PROMINENT VIRGINIAN HELD FOR MANSLAUGHTER

Greensboro, May 19.—(AP)—Nelson Harris, member of a prominent Danville, Va. family and a descendant of Governor Morehead of North Carolina, was under bond of $5,000 here today on a charge of manslaughter. Preliminary hearing will be given tomorrow.

Harris, it is charged, caused the death of Duff McCrary, negro of Winston-Salem when he drove into a negro's car yesterday afternoon and ran over him.

The cause is—R. O. E. TAOI. The accused, officers stated, was intoxicated and after being arrested and allowed bond was placed in local institution for treatment.

SAVE TIME WITH OVEN COOKERY

(Editor's Note: This is one of the series of cooking articles by 6 famous cooks running exclusively in this paper. Post it in your cook book.)

When days are fullest, and time is most precious, try an oven-cooked meal. You will save yourself many minutes in preparation and watching. And you will be able to serve a tasty meal—the kind which will make your family exclaim, "Let's have this again soon!" The menu given today is by Mrs. Belle DeGraf, San Francisco, home economics counsellor.

A Delicious Oven Meal

Beef and Macaroni, San Francisco
Baked Lima Beans, Paprika
Pineapple and Cheese Salad
Stanford Prune Whip Pie

The actual cooking time for this meal is three hours. But, with a reliable stove, the cook does not need to stay in the kitchen more than half an hour!

First, heat the oven well for 1 minutes at 250 degrees, while you make a pie crust. Bake for 10 minutes. Then put meat and beans into oven, and reduce heat to "moderate," or 150 degrees. You need pay no more attention to this cooking for 1 hours, when meal is ready to serve.

A heat regulator takes the guesswork out of baking. It registers the exact degree of heat. One, made especially for oil stoves, may be fastened easily to practically any glass-door oven.

Beef and Macaroni San Francisco

Select about 2 pounds of lean beef cut into pieces suitable for serving. Sprinkle each piece with salt and dredge with flour.

Heat drippings of fat, flour, salt and pepper in a frying pan, then add meat and quickly brown each piece on all sides. When browned place in a large casserole and pour over 2 cups of tomato sauce, or pureed tomato, one teaspoon of salt and enough hot water to cover meat. Add 12 or more ripe or stuffed olives. Cover casserole.

Place in a moderate oven and cook about 3 hours. An hour before meal is to be served add 1 1/2 cups elbow macaroni or macaroni broken into inch lengths. If more liquid is needed add either tomato or stock.

Baked Lima Beans, Paprika

Soak lima beans overnight, or at least for several hours. Drain, cover with fresh cold water and set over heat, bringing slowly to the boiling point. Drain again, and place in a casserole or bean pot.

Cover with water, add 1 teaspoon of salt, 2 teaspoons paprika, and 2 tablespoons butter. Cover and cook with the meat, allowing about the same time.

In your oven so built that you can cook fish, cake, and onions in it at the same time with no blending of flavors? One manufacturer is selling just such ovens. They have such perfect air circulation that all odors are carried away. There is not the slightest blending of flavors.

Pineapple and Cheese Salad

Allow one slice of pineapple for each service. Place a tablespoonful of well seasoned cottage cheese in center of each slice or make cheese balls with butter ball paddles. Make a French dressing with lemon juice.

A good French dressing is made as follows:
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon sugar
1 teaspoon mustard
1/2 cup lemon juice or vinegar
1/4 cup olive oil (or other good salad oil)

Oil and juice should be cold. Put all ingredients into fruit jar and shake well.

Stanford Prune Whip Pie

Bake a pie crust, then add the prune whip:

1 cup prune pulp
1/2 cup sugar
1 egg whites unbeaten
1/2 cup finely shredded almonds or walnuts

Rub stoned stewed prunes through a coarse sieve. Put sugar, prune pulp and unbeaten egg whites in a bowl and beat with a whip until beater until stiff enough to hold its shape. Fold in part of the nuts then heap mixture in the baked pie crust. Sprinkle nuts on top and place on top grate of oven until nuts are delicately browned.

This is a good substantial meal which hungry folks will relish. There are innumerable combinations which may be oven-cooked, too. For example, roast beef, Yorkshire pudding, potatoes browned in the pan on onion soups, and custard pie. You can readily think of many others.

If you wash rice in two warm waters instead of cold, it will remove the starch much quicker.

Raid Soviet Bureau

Soviet Russia was aroused by a raid on the Russian Trade Headquarters in London by Scotland Yard detectives under the direction of Sir William Joynton-Hicks (top), Home Secretary, and under the direct command of Sir Wyndham Childs, head of the Special Branch of Scotland Yard. The raid was to recover British documents alleged to have found their way into the headquarters.

SAYS SOUTH SHOULD GROW MEN FOR THE PRESIDENTIAL RACE

Asheville, May 19.—(AP)—The Democratic party is making a mistake not to groom a southern man for the presidential nomination, Frank W. Mondell, of Wyoming, former Republican leader in the national House of Representatives, told newspaper men here today.

"The idea that a southern man could not make a creditable race for the presidency is out of date," Mr. Mondell said.

"Furthermore the nomination of a man because he is believed to have a following which will swing doubtful states often fails. Many Republicans have voted for Al Smith for Governor of New York, but I doubt if any of them would vote for him for President."

WISCONSIN ASSEMBLY FAVORS HOME BREW

Madison, Wis., May 19.—(AP)—The lower house of the State Assembly today passed Assemblyman Duncanson's bill of right for the home brewer by a vote of 56 to 34. The bill would legalize the manufacture of beer 2.75 per cent alcoholic content by persons in their homes.

CHARGE SECRETARY WITH MURDER OF GEORGE B. POWELL

Los Angeles, May 19.—(AP)—A coroner's jury here today returned a verdict that George B. Powell, Jr., wealthy business man, was shot by his secretary, Margie Pike, with homicidal intent before she turned the gun on herself. The bodies were found Tuesday morning in Powell's auto.

Ambert, Mass.—One of the best warblers of that famous college song, "Lord Jeffrey Ambert" is welcome to the White House when he can call. John Coolidge received honorable mention in the annual inter-class singing.

Smith Examined In Efrid Will Hearing Today

Albany, N. C., May 19.—(AP)—Cross examination of R. L. Smith, attorney who drew the will of the late John S. Efrid, local millionaire, featured today's session of the suit brought by certain heirs to break the will. It is alleged that Mr. Efrid was of unsound mind during his last days.

Mr. Smith in direct testimony yesterday told how Mr. Efrid had outlined his wishes to him. He said he drew a rough draft of the will and turned it over to the cotton mill man. Mr. Efrid kept the draft overnight, went over it carefully and made certain changes in it.

Mr. Smith asserted that he had been personal counsel for Mr. Efrid since 1903 and that he never saw him more alert or clear minded than at the time the will was drawn. He said Mr. Efrid told him he planned to give one fifth of his estate to church and charity but was undecided how to give it and planned a codicil but died before it could be drawn.

Two brothers of Mr. Efrid, A. L. Efrid and K. P. Efrid, testified yesterday that they did not believe their brother's mind was normal at the time he executed the will. Mrs. Bessie Lee Efrid Morris, a granddaughter, testified similarly.

W. T. Efrid, who is seeking to break the will, testified that during his later days his father was not just right mentally. He said that at times his father was unable to recognize him.

MEICANS SEIZE GUNS AND AMMUNITION

Yuma, Ariz., May 19.—(AP)—A special dispatch to the Yuma Morning Sun today said Mexican authorities had seized an automobile loaded with rifles and ammunition at San Louis, 23 miles from here on the border, as Mexico n revolutionists were attempting to take it across the line. Numerous residents of San Louis were reported to have crossed the border into Arizona fearing fun-pun.

INFECTED FOOT FORCES ROOSEVELT TO TAKE HIS BED

Oyster Bay, N. Y., May 19.—(AP)—An infected right foot, neglected the last six months while he attended to pressing business, forced Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., to bed at his home today. He has been instructed by his doctors to rest several days to give the foot a chance to heal. The trouble is not serious.

WOMAN NOT GUILTY OF KILLING HUSBAND

Oklahoma City, Okla., May 19.—(AP)—Mrs. Edith Bishop, charged with the slaying of her husband, Luther Bishop, a State detective, in their home here last December, was adjudged not guilty by a jury in District Court here today.

WILSON TO GET GRAND LODGE MEET

Burlington, May 19.—(AP)—Wilson will be the next meeting place of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows. It will be held the third Tuesday of May, 1928.

Salesman For Face Cream Learns a Good Lesson

Mr. Vandivier, New York, writes: "I was a salesman of creams for healing pimples, blemishes, etc., but when my face broke out with blotches, pimples and blackheads, I tried one salve after another with no results. I found it impossible to sell skin creams as a bald headed man finds selling hair tonic. Finally I decided I would have to get at the cause—constipation. I was amazed to find that within a few days after taking CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS my skin took on a new healthy look. Druggists, 25c. and 75c. red packages. Try to-night—To-morrow refreshed."

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS

THE OLD-TIME GINGER

Jack Dempsey became the man-killer again for a few seconds the other day. Get that Bosco look on his face! It was at a sparring match at Santa Monica, Cal., for the benefit of the Mississippi flood victims.

SEVENTEEN NEGRO HOUSES DESTROYED BY FIRE LAST NIGHT

Gibson, N. C., May 19.—(AP)—Ashes remained today where 17 negro homes had been yesterday while police estimated damage from last night's fire at $50,000.

The Seaboard Air Line men were repairing crippled wire service caused by the burning of the dwelling adjacent to the poles.

A negro Methodist church also was destroyed. All escaped but some narrowly. One child was removed from a house a moment before the roof fell.

PRETTY ASHEVILLE GIRL CHARGED WITH DRIVING AUTO WHILE DRUNK

Charlotte, May 19.—(AP)—Ruth Bryson, pretty Asheville girl was placed in the county jail here today to await trial on charges of having driven an automobile while intoxicated. She was injured last Sunday while driving an automobile which was wrecked a short distance outside the city limits. She was alone at the time. She was discharged from the hospital today. Bail was fixed at $250, but she was unable to furnish it.

BAD PAINS IN SIDE

Spells of Nervousness Also Troubled This Lady Who Gives Cardui Credit for Helping Her Get Well.

Depew, Okla.—"For six years," says Mrs. Ed Burton, of this place, "I suffered as bad as a woman can suffer and still keep going."

"I was good for nothing, was lifeless and pale, unable to eat anything. Nothing agreed with me. At times I had such bad pains in my sides and back I would have to go to bed. I had cramping spells and would faint if I stood on my feet any length of time. My nerves would become upset at the least little thing and I would have spells of crying that were so exhausting they left me prostrate."

"Several of my friends suggested that I take Cardui. They told me of their experiences with it, how much they have been helped. At last I decided to try it."

"In a few weeks, I could see that I was improving, so I kept on. I did not expect the troubles of years to disappear in a few days, nor did they, but in time I was much better. I kept up the Cardui treatment for several months and thanks to it, I am a well woman now."

Studebaker Commander set ten world records by traveling 5000 miles in less than 5000 minutes.

BUT- What does it mean to You?

OF COURSE, you don't want to go 5000 continuous miles at better than a mile-a-minute. But this sensational performance proved by the most brutal test ever recorded, that anything an ordinary driver wants in speed and endurance, is child's play to THE COMMANDER.

33 Million Engine Explosions

To the ear, only a sound like the wind whistling through a grove; to the eye, only a fast moving bulk with contour dulled by its terrific speed... But within the six cylinders of the Commander's mighty engine, a fusillade of red hot explosions—over thirty-three million of them during the run! Connecting rods plunged upward and downward about eleven million times, wheels revolved over three million times.

Harry Hartz Says:

"It will maintain any given speed up to sixty-five miles per hour, longer, more smoothly, and at less expense per hour traveled, for gasoline, oil and repairs, than any other stock automobile now being built in the United States."

Because of its super-abundant power, The Commander will perform eagerly, easily, smoothly—with no labor or effort—any and all tasks placed upon it.

Studebaker has produced in these new models, cars which will excel even the staunch, dependable Studebakers of the past in low repair and maintenance costs. It is now possible to purchase a truly great automobile at a moderate price! The Commander is justly known as "the greatest post-war achievement in automotive engineering."

Despite this ordeal, mechanical repairs were limited to three grease cups (damaged by hasty greasing) and a spark plug—negligible when you consider that this astounding performance is equivalent to 25,000 miles of ordinary going.

Let Harry Hartz—America's Champion Driver—tell you out of his own experience what a stock COMMANDER will do.

Figures Which Show the Strain of 5000 Miles in 4909 Minutes

Total of 33,000,000 explosions in the engine.

11,000,000 strokes of each piston.

9,200,000 feet, or about 1750 miles, traveled by each piston!

3,330,000 revolutions for each wheel!

This is what an engine must do to travel 5000 miles—but more than a thousand Studebaker cars have been driven 100,000 to 500,000 miles—and many of them are still in service!

No wonder the Big Six outsells the combined totals of all the other cars in the world of equal or greater rated power.

See It and Drive It Today!

An exact duplicate of the champion COMMANDER is ready for you and "rarin' to go! Drive it yourself and draw your own conclusions. What Harry Hartz' Commander did, any Commander will do!

Commander Sedan, $1585; Commander Victoria, $1575; (broadsheet upholstery, $1645) Commander Coupe, $1545; (with rumble seat, $1645). . . All prices f. o. b. factory, including front and rear bumpers, mudshoes all around, and four-wheel brakes. Other Studebaker and Engine models range in price from $945 to $2245.

Market Report

Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON
New York, May 19.—(AP)—Unfavorable weather reports and forecasts seemed responsible for increased activity and strength in the cotton market today. Prices for all months made new high ground for the movement on covering combined with trade and commission house buying. July sold up to 16.09 and December to 16.68 or 23 to 25 points net higher. The mid-afternoon market was within 5 or 6 points of the best.

Futures closed firm, 32 to 38 higher. Spot steady; middling 16.20.

STOCK MARKET
New York, May 19.—(AP)—A series of bullish demonstrations in the high priced industrials, several of which including Baldwin, General Motors, American Smelting and U. S. Steel Iron Pipe touched new record high prices, contrasted with the weakness of the oils, textiles and New York tractors in today's irregular stock market. Trading was again in unusually heavy volume.

Easy money rates, the renewal charge on call loans being fixed at 4 per cent, was again a leading 'bull' factor.

The closing was irregular. Total sales approximated 2,200,000 shares.

CHICAGO GRAIN
Chicago, May 19.—(AP)—Corn prices shot skyward today and went to more than 30 cents a bushel over recent low figures. Excessive rains throughout the Central West as much as six inches at some points in Illinois, led to feverish buying and hoisted both spot and future deliveries to the highest prices yet this season.

Corn closed unsettled 1 to 2 net higher, wheat 1-3 to 3-8 up, oats at 3-8 to 3-4 gain and provisions varying from 5 cents decline to a rise of 20 cents.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK
Chicago, May 19.—(AP)—Hogs 22,000; mostly 10 to 15 cents higher; big packers holding; packing cows mostly 8.60 to 8.85; best slaughter pigs 9.35 to 9.65; heavy-weight hogs 9.30 to 9.80.

Cattle 9,000; fed steers active, strong to 20 cents higher; medium weight and weighty kinds 25 cents up; best heavy steers 13.75; scaling around 1,500 pounds; long yearlings 12.50; medium steers very scarce; good trade on yearlings and she stock; bulls 10 to 15 cents higher; vealers 25 to 50 cents lower.

Sheep 14,000; better grades spring lambs in fairly active demand; about steady with Wednesday; clipped lambs opening very slow; around 25 cents lower; desirable clipped lambs eligible at 14.00 to 14.50; sheep 25 to 50 cents lower; heavy ewes hard to move; desirable ewes sold up to 8.00.

NOTICE OF SALE $100,000.00
FUNDING BONDS OF THE COUNTY OF PITT, NORTH CAROLINA

Sealed bids, addressed to the undersigned, will be received by the Board of Commissioners of Pitt County, at the office of County Commissioners at the court house at Greenville, North Carolina, until June 6th, 1927, at two o'clock p. m., for the purchase of $100,000.00 Funding Bonds of Pitt County, North Carolina, maturing $3,000.00 annually, May 1st, 1928 to 1947, inclusive and $4,000.00 bonds annually, May 1st, 1948 to 1957, inclusive. Bonds dated May 1st, 1927. Interest payable semi-annually (May 1st and November 1st). Coupon bonds, denomination $1,000.00 payable at Hanover National Bank, New York City. General obligations. Unlimited tax. Bonds registrable as to both principal and interest. Purchasers will be furnished with approving opinion of Messrs. Reed, Dougherty, Hoyt & Washburn of New York.

Bidders are invited to name the rate of interest which the bonds are to bear. The rate must be a multiple of one-quarter of one per cent, must not exceed five per cent, and must be the same for all the bonds. The bonds will be awarded to the bidder offering to take them at the lowest rate of interest. As between bidders naming the same rate of interest, the amount of premium will determine the award. The right is reserved to reject all bids.

A certified check, payable to the order of the Board of Commissioners of Pitt County, for two per cent of the amount of the bonds bid for must accompany bid.

Dated May 2nd, 1927.

Gossip of Staff Correspondents at World Centers of Population

London.—The most vigorous denunciation of the death penalty ever yet made, is uttered by Lord Buckmaster in his preface to "Capital Punishment in the 20th Century" by E. Roy Calvert. Lord Buckmaster is a former Lord Chancellor of England and is regarded as its foremost legal luminary.

"People will long look back," writes Lord Buckmaster, "with pity, contempt and horror on much of our social conduct today, just as we look back on the barbarities of a hundred years ago. If we believe life to be the most mysterious and sacred thing there is, we are, through capital punishment, desecrating the very thing we should hold high."

"It was reported some months ago that at a recent execution there were people listening with their ears against the walls of the prison so as to hear the thud of the falling body. . . . The death penalty fails utterly of its purpose. It does not stop murders in the least."

Roy Calvert points out that up to as late as 1780 the English law recognized over 200 capital crimes and people were hanged for such offenses as picking pockets, associating for a month with gypsies, and assuming the title of a Greenwich pensioner. Less than a hundred years ago a boy who broke a London and stole toys forth four cents was sentenced to death.

There may be a difference in the musical quality of opera at the Metropolitan, New York and Covent Garden easily takes the palm.

The present season is the smartest since the war. Tail coat, white waistcoat and white tie are the order of the day, and the two or three men who unfortunately arrive every night wearing black ties which themselves miles distant.

Not so many white kid gloves are worn as in pre-war days, but old-timers Lord Harewood, father-in-law of Princess Mary, cling to the old custom. The real test of good style is waistcoats.

Some of the younger and perhaps the more musical type prefer the double-breasted model, cut straight at the waist, and carrying a square opening. Then there are double-breasted with only one button, the center forming a "V" but the good old-fashioned single-breasted waistcoat with three buttons at the waistline, V opening and double breasted lapel matching the shirt is still their favorite.

The young set show a preference for that evening tailed coat, lunched last year, reminiscent of the 1840 period because of its short lapel and high waist; but the coat that is most popular is a very firm-fitting one, broad across the shoulders, wide lapels, long pointed tails—a garment that gave the impression that it had been moulded on the figure.

The high silk hat is seen everywhere; the opera hat seems to have gone the way of all things.

"Every oculist has his collection of souvenirs or trophies," says Sir Rinch Cruise, oculist to King George. "They take many forms. I can instance a woman, once sightless, who now does the most delicate embroidery, and I can think of a brace of birds shot by a man formerly practically blind."

There is the man, formerly without sight, who from the grandstand can now detect if the horse he has played is first, second or third when on the far side of Ascot racecourse.

A major eye operation is neck or nothing. What putting is to golf, so is ophthalmic surgery to general surgery. There is no margin for error.

Hero of War Wins Struggle to Become Hero of Peace

Lieutenant Guy Envin was made blind and deaf by a German shell that tore thirty wounds in his body. The same courage that carried him into the war has carried him through Harvard, and now he plans to be an attorney as well as a teacher, lecturer and writer.

By ELMER CLARK,
International Illustrated News Staff Correspondent.

NEW YORK (I-I-N)—A handsome young Frenchman is about to hang out his shingle as an attorney here.

Ordinarily, that wouldn't be a story. Hundreds of young men do the same thing every year. But in this case it is a story—a story of determination, determination, determination.

Back a few years—
A German shell burst on the Champagne front. Medical corps men turned over the body of Lieutenant Guy Envin. Both eyes were gone. The concussion had shattered his ear drums. Blood dripped from thirty wounds. But there was still life.

They patched him together as best they could and when he was able to make the journey, they pinned the highest medals on him and sent him to his mother's home.

Under her loving care a great determination came over Envin. He continued the studies he had abandoned before the war. He won the Victor Chapman scholarship, which gave him two years of free study at Harvard.

During these years he learned to support himself. Boston physicians, learning of the fight of this sightless, deaf shell of a man, took an interest in his case. After many the school to pieces and hurl the bodies of its little pupils through windows and walls.

Only a whim of fate or accident prevented destruction of the entire village. Mrs. Kehoe was the first victim of his fury. It was established today. Portions of her body were found in the ashes of one of the outbuildings on the Kehoe farm—her skull was crushed, leading to the belief that Kehoe killed her before casting her body into the building to be burned.

Investigation showed that Kehoe, angered because of a school tax levied against him and nursing his opposition to the erection of the school building. It came at 9:45 a. m., only a few minutes after classes had been assembled. The time has been fixed definitely because all of the clocks in the wrecked wing stopped at that minute. The third blast came in Kehoe's automobile in front of the school, about ten seconds later.

Kehoe was sitting in the car. Emory E. Huyck, superintendent of schools, was talking with him. One foot was on the running board. Glenn O. Smith, village postmaster, and Nelson McFarren, an aged man, were standing on the sidewalk a few feet away. Suddenly a terrific blast came from the machine. The bodies of Kehoe and Huyck were blown to bits. McFarren was killed outright and Smith so badly injured he died in a hospital shortly afterward.

Kehoe's car was torn to pieces. The rear wheels and differential were hurled across the road.

Lansing, Mich., May 19.—(AP)—Governor Fred W. Green today issued a state-wide appeal for funds for the relief of Bath township, stricken by both death and grief yesterday when dynamite explosions, touched off by Andrew Kehoe, revenge crazed treasurer of the district, killed 43 persons, 37 of them pupils in the consolidated school.

The appeal, contained in an official proclamation indicated that the wrecked school house will be replaced either by public subscriptions or from the coffers of the state. The township is heavily in debt it was learned today, a bond issue passed in recent years having proved a heavy burden on the meagre population. Destruction of the school promised to place a heavier financial burden on the taxpayers.

wealthy California woman, aged 53, "bought him for a husband," agreeing to pay him $250 a month, for life. That really is not "buying," only renting.

The pay seems small, for a real prince. One American father-in-law paid seven millions cash to a Duke that married his daughter and the Duke did not stay married. Galitzine's ancestors would be interested in their descendant's way of earning a living.

The tiny republic of Andorra, tucked away in the Pyrennes, with about 5,000 inhabitants, has paid its annual tribute of 1,400 francs, $56, to the President of France and to the Spanish Bishop of Argui, in Spain.

For six hundred and forty-nine years, the little republic has paid its comic tribute to earthly and heavenly powers, and lived free and happy in its mountain valley.

We, in America, never paid much attention to it. But now Andorra has sent us, from some cottage on the mountain side, Mr. Paulino Uzcudon, big and strong, who thinks he can take the heavyweight prize fight championship from Tunney. That does interest us.

When Uncle Sam advertises, he ADVERTISES. The Treasury announcement, recalling $1,650,000,000 of second Liberty Loan four and a quarter per cent bonds will be published in fifteen thousand American newspapers, daily and weekly.

Mr. Mellon shows good judgment, putting the advertising in thousands of country weeklies and small dailies. In proportion to their circulation, they are THE best mediums.

start, don't overlook De Pinedo, the Italian airman, who is flying all the time. He flew from Tokio to Rome, thence to South America then to New Orleans, to Chicago, and yesterday, in his Santa Maria second, he flew over Buffalo to Montreal. He has flown over four continents, and presently will fly back to Italy. There is a real flyer.

Gold from Europe pours into this country at a rate puzzling to the Treasury. France recently sent more than $89,000,000 worth of gold to England—and we have it all. Many that ask each other about "business conditions" may be interested in the opinion of Secretary Mellon, who KNOWS conditions. "It would be hard to imagine a nation in better financial condition than this country."
