"LUCKY" LINDBERGH LANDS IN PARIS

AMERICAN ACE FINISHES FIRST NON-STOP TRIP

Lebourget Flying Field, Paris France May 21.—(AP)—Captain Charles Lindbergh, American aviator, landed here safely tonight completing his non stop flight from New York to Paris his plane, the "Spirit of St. Louis," came down on the field at 10:21 P. M. Paris time arriving about two and a half hours ahead of his schedule.

Lindbergh came over Lebourget Flying high slightly to the east of the field. He circled twice slowly then settled down 200 yards west of the main building.

He made a beautiful landing, headed due west with the ground lights flashed on him. The crowd of 25,000 gave a great roar and rushed forward. Dozens of persons were swept off their feet in the wild excitement to reach the wonderful American.

The crowds surged around Lindbergh's plane before he could get out of the cockpit.

A few minutes before the one aviator reached the ground, the American Ambassador, M. T. Herrick, arrived, witnessing his descent from the Administration Building.

The plane was hauled in front of the building. The daring youth was lifted out and carried shoulder-high into the open, where he was enthusiastically acclaimed and cheered for 20 minutes.

Detroit, May 21.—(AP)—"That's all that matters" in these words, Mrs. Evangeline Lodge Lindbergh, mother of Captain Charles Lindbergh, expressed her relief when informed that her intrepid son had arrived safely at Lebourget field, France, after an epochal flight from New York.

Mrs. Lindbergh, who has been silently waiting since the take-off from New York yesterday for the word of her son's safe arrival, allowed herself a few tears of joy and then said:

"I am thankful for his safety and appreciative of the true sympathy expressed by so many people."

New York, May 21.—(AP)—A young eagle whose daring has thrilled the world, from all indications was winging fast this morning over the 1900 mile stretch of the Atlantic ocean between New Found and Ireland.

Behind him were New York and the dangerous Northwestern Atlantic area; before him at the end of an arc of a great circle were Paris, fame and fortune.

Captain Charles "Lucky" Lindbergh, "Slim" to his pals, quit the coast of New Foundland at 7:15 o'clock Eastern daylight time last night, after flying about 1100 miles and with his Spirit of St. Louis humming its challenge to the Atlantic, he entered the most hazardous stretch of his 3,800 miles journey from New York to Paris.

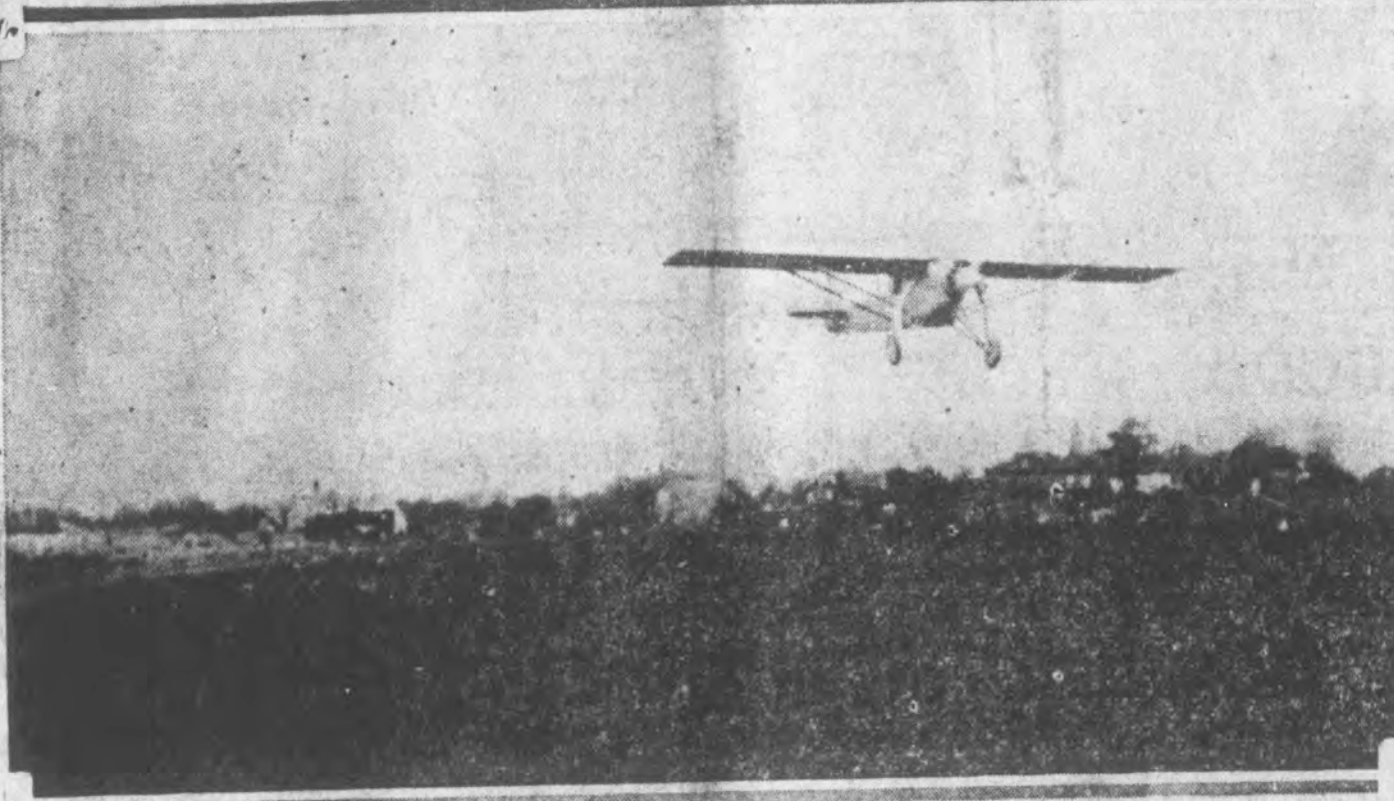

Alone and without radio or any signaling device, but with all the newest aids to air navigation, the 25-year-old flier roared on and each hour served to decrease his hazard. As his fuel decreased his speed could increase, and wind favored him. Word from New Foundland was that a gale was at his back.

Lack of sleep was considered by aviation authorities as the pioneer's greatest danger. Lindbergh expressed this fear to Captain Arthur J. Caperton of the Curtis Airplane Company just before he hopped off at 7:52 o'clock Eastern daylight time, from Roosevelt Field, Long Island, yesterday morning.

Lindbergh covered the first 1100 miles of his journey from New York to New Foundland, in 11 hours and 23 minutes. The youth flew like a homing pigeon and held close to his schedule.

In his first twelve hours in the air he spanned his first two water

FRANCE WAITS TO WELCOME U. S. AIRMEN

Every Available Light Brought to Play in Heavens Along French Coast.

Paris, May 21.—(AP)—Captain Lindbergh, America's flying viking, will come into France tonight with a strong quartering wind from the southwest behind him if he succeeds in crossing the Atlantic.

Weather reports this afternoon bore out those issued last night, indicating that the favorable conditions extending over the English Channel will probably last until the Spirit of St. Louis is well over France.

Every available signal light will be on, blazing the way to Lebourget flying field near Paris, while from Mount Valerian at Suresnes the greatest searchlight in the world will throw its powerful beam in a complete circle every five seconds. This light can be seen from the coast when visibility is good.

This afternoon's weather report indicated that it would be cloudy in the Paris region tonight, with perhaps a bit of fog or rain, but not enough to affect the landing.

Lindbergh's fearlessness and his will to win have aroused the admiration of the French public. "Magnificent! What a daring! We hope he succeeds! These are some of the excited exclamations heard everywhere. A few have expressed disgruntlement that an American may win where Nungesser and Goll failed and perhaps lost their lives, but the great body of the people are intense with interest and sincere in their admiration for the courage of the man who started modestly and alone, without elaborate equipment.

The flying field will be kept clear until Lindbergh's arrival and the air will also be kept clear to avoid confusion or accident. Preparations have been made against the possibility of an unsuccessful landing. The fire department and an ambulance crew have been ordered to be ready on the field and the American hospital in Paris is sending doctors, nurses and an ambulance.

A constantly increasing pile of telegrams and cable messages is waiting for the flier and plans to entertain him are growing hour by hour.

By early evening it appeared that Paris was just as excited over the flight as New York. (Continued on page six)

DOCTOR SAYS BROWN KNEW WHAT HE DID

Dr. Josh Tayloe Testifies in Will Hearing At Washington, N. C.

Washington, N. C., May 21.—(AP)—That Judge George H. Brown on January 15, 1926, the day of signing his last will, had the mental capacity to make a will and know the extent of his property, was the statement made on the witness stand in the Brown case by Dr. Joshua Tayloe, one of the longest practicing physicians in Eastern Carolina. On cross examination by attorney H. S. Ward, Dr. Tayloe made the significant statement: "Those who are sane are often the ones who think they are crazy," this brushing aside at least in part previous evidences of the jurist's insanity.

Dr. Tayloe took the stand at 9:45 being under examination and cross examination nearly two hours. Not once was he shaken by the attorneys for the executors. His brother Dr. Dave Tayloe, will probably take the stand this afternoon.

Argument Begins In Efrid Action

Albermarle, May 21.—(AP)—Arguments in the trial of the suit of heirs of J. S. Efrid, seeking to break his will, were started in Superior court here today.

Taking of evidence was completed late yesterday and court adjourned until this morning.

Aside from a personal argument between two attorneys in the case, the feature of the closing day of taking evidence was the large number of witnesses introduced in defense of the will. These witnesses testified that they had business dealings with Mr. Efrid during the final year of his life and that they could discover no evidence of weakness of mind.

LAST OF BATH BLAST VICTIMS BURIED TODAY

Conflicting Theories Regarding Explosion Features Investigation.

Bath, Mich., May 21.—(AP)—Funeral services for the remainder of the victims of Wednesday's school house explosion here, which cost 44 lives and resulted in injuries to 41 persons were held today, while officials continued to marshal evidence to be presented at the inquest set for Monday.

Most of the victims were buried yesterday but a shortage of undertaking facilities caused the holding over until today of last rites for the others.

It developed that the various inquiries being conducted into the explosion had produced conflicting theories as to whether Andrew Kehoe, a demented farmer, who mined the school, was assisted in the work of destruction.

Captain Oscar Olander of the State Department of Safety announced his department was satisfied Kehoe accomplished his malicious deed without an accomplice.

"We have checked every rumor and are not attempting to determine the source of the dynamite."

The dynamite used by Kehoe is believed by officials to have been part of a consignment to the county agricultural agent from Washington for distribution among farmers.

Assessed Value Taxable Property On An Increase

Raleigh, May 21.—(AP)—Assessed valuation of taxable property in North Carolina at the end of 1926 was $2,802,517,124, the highest figures since 1921 when the last revaluation of state-wide nature was made. It is shown in the report of the state educational commission. In 1920 the figures stood at $1,614,440,259.

In the matter of taxable property Forsyth county, home of the Reynolds Tobacco Factories, held onto its reputation as the richest county in the state, the property therein being valued at $178,709,494. Dare county with property valued at $2,415,934, was the poorest county in the state.

Gilford county, with property valued at $168,932,839, and Mecklenburg county with property valued at $168,598,107, were respectively, the second and third richest counties. In contrast to 1920 when property was valued at a higher figure than it is now, Wake county in 1926 had property valued at $95,294,053 as against a valuation of $92,999,811 in 1920.

The Forsyth county tax rate was the lowest in the state. The rate being .55 on the $100. Tax rates in Guilford and Mecklenburg were .85 and .98 respectively. The rate in Dare county was $1.35 and the rate in Wake county was $1.11.

REFUGEES EVACUATE M'CREA AS MEN FIGHT DESPERATELY TO SAVE BIG LEVEE SYSTEM

TODAY

Farms and Machine. One Mother, 8 Twins. The Paris Mill. Mind, Matter, Error.

(By Arthur Brisbane) Copyright 1927, by Star Co.

The hope of the farmer is in better machinery, and more intelligent use of it. It is not alone the selling price of a bushel of wheat that counts, but the amount of farm time and labor used to produce the bushel.

A man working with a pick and shovel could not afford to dig up and sort out gold bearing gravel if it paid him five dollars a ton average. But giant dredging machines in the Sacramento Valley are making million working gravel that pays less than twenty cents a ton.

Edwin J. Clapp shows what machinery is doing and will do to help solve problems, and why United States farms can compete with European cheap labor, and even survive high railroad freight rates. On American farms, one worker on the average produces twelve tons of cereal. In Europe one worker produces one and one-half tons.

From 1910 to 1920, American farm population increased four per cent, while production of wheat increased 58 per cent, corn 35 per cent, cotton 47 per cent, cattle 37 per cent, hogs 65 per cent.

The farm problem is not to be solved, according to Mr. Clapp, by "keeping the boys on the farm," but by letting the boys go to the factories, using more machinery on farms and thus reducing cost of production.

Mussolini pays special honor to the Italian mother of four sets of twins. She deserves it. Italy is proud of the fact that her population is growing, while that of France and some other countries diminishes. But it is fortunate that a mother of eight twins is an exception, even in Italy.

If men, multiplied as mice do, famine, war and plague would be the permanent condition of all on earth. Not how many, but how good, is the important question.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt met in Paris, to fulfill requirements of French law, are not reconciled, and will be divorced. No trouble about it. Mr. Jack Pickford and Miss Marilyn Miller agree to get Paris divorces. No trouble there. That mill grinds smoothly and regularly.

Hoover, there is a fly in the ointment. Former Ambassador Gerard, a learned lawyer, says trouble may come for those Paris divorces in American courts, where some estate, involved in such a divorce, comes up for settlement. He is no Jeremiah, but thinks some that believe themselves free will discover they are still married.

Doctors gathered at Washington say that mind can affect matter and produce ill in the body. They are considering seriously the role that mind plays in disease, and call it "The interdependence of psychology and the science of medicine."

Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy did not care much for doctors, but if she were here, she would be interested in their proceedings, and perhaps tell them some things about "mental mind, error and beliefs."

A maniac, convinced that school taxes had ruined him, killed himself and blew up a school in Michigan, killing 45, nearly all children, and wounding many. This alarms parents, but it should not do so. Such an outbreak of insanity, like a flash of lightning, an earthquake or flood, can come at any moment. There is no use worrying about that which precautions cannot possibly prevent.

As for the unfortunate maniac, torn to pieces by his own dynamite, a clear mind would have shown him that the small sum paid in school

Stream of Refugees Pour in From Martinsville Section Following Warnings.

New Orleans, May 21.—(AP)—Possibility that the Mississippi river might be changing its course so that in the future the stream would run to the Gulf of Mexico through the Atchafalaya Basin, occupied river engineers here today.

The opinion that this might happen was expressed yesterday by Major John Gotwals after a survey of the situation at Melville. George C. Schoenberger, chief state engineer and John Klorer, New Orleans levee board engineer, said they believed it possible. D. C. Waddill, federal engineer in charge of the lower river, said that all that was keeping the mighty current from cutting a new and shorter channel to the Gulf was a pair of stone sills built in the bed of the Atchafalaya in 1896. Whether these sills would hold against the terrific force of the current is problematical, he said.

Refugees continue to pour out of Pointe Coupee Parish today as a result of the warning issued yesterday by relief director John M. Parker. A crevasse in the levee in Pointe Coupee would inundate about 2,000,000 acres, the last of the fertile "Sugar Bowl" section of the state and affect about 100,000 persons. The section in danger is from 130 to 180 miles above New Orleans on the west bank of the Mississippi.

While the evacuation was under way a force of 2,500 men who worked all last night were fighting desperately to save the levee at McCrea, 10 miles below the point where the Atchafalaya joins Old river on the east bank of the Atchafalaya. Hope are staved held that a crevasse may be averted.

A warning delivered personally by secretary of commerce Hoover to residents of the St. Martinsville section, brought a stream of refugees pouring into Lafayette today. Water is expected to reach St. Martinsville, the heart of Acadian country, by noon tomorrow.

Residents left at Breux bridge had moved into upper stories. From the windows of the top floors the flood waters were visible constantly creeping nearer. The streets of the town were expected to be flooded by noon today. Residents of the town spent yesterday moving their furniture on scaffolds and preparing to evacuate.

Telephone advice from Iberia were that refugees from Loreauville and other points in the lower Teche country had already started to pour in there.

New Orleans, May 21.—(AP)—Two thousand men were battling desperately in a slow downpour of rain today at McCrea to hold the current last gnawing away embankments, threatening the two million acres and 107,000 people in Louisiana's "sugar bowl."

The speed of the current ponding into the levee swept away great chunks of the embankment from time to time, but each time the men had anticipated the slough and the water came against new rampart erected behind the old. Five hundred feet of the 600 foot front has been strengthened and the men were concentrating their efforts upon the remaining 100 feet.

Baton Rouge, La., May 21.—(AP)—A radio message received at State Flood relief headquarters here said two lives apparently were lost when a river boat struck a pier opposite Simmesport and sank in the Atchafalaya River today. Four barges the boat was towing are still apart, the message said. No names were given.

Mississippi Mob Kills Negro Man

Mocon, Miss., May 21.—(AP)—A confession that he killed C. T. Patterson, young white farmer, Cliftonville, Miss., Sunday night brought the wrath of a mob of about 400 white men upon Dan Anderson 32 year old negro, late yesterday. His body was riddled with bullets in a swamp near the Alabama state line in Mississippi, after he had been forcibly taken from Sheriff T. B. Adams of Nottoway county, who had brought the negro from Tuscaloosa. Anderson was arrested at Elrod, Ala., a mob met the sheriff as he returned the negro, and seized him.

NEW YORKERS TAKE DEFEAT ON YESTERDAY

(By The Associated Press.) New York's baseball representatives who are leading both major leagues today after tasting unaccustomed defeat.

A Yankee winning streak of seven games was ended by the Cleveland Indians who took a 2 to 1 decision, while the Giants were slugged into submission 8 to 3 by a boisterous party of Pittsburgh Pirates in the twelfth.

Almost as rare as a Yankee defeat was the Yankee error which let in one of the two runs which gave the Indians their victory. It was made in the first by Mark Koenig, shortstop, who muffed a nice pop fly from catcher to catch a steady runner. The run that slipped over the plate then looked big at the end of the game when each team was able to make one run, and no more, in the eighth. George Uhle and Waite Hoyt were evenly matched in a pitching duel with just seven hits off each.

The Pirates won in melodramatic style with Pie Traynor as the hero. Three men were on base in that twelfth stanza when Pie's home-bounced into the left field stands. It ended a hard fought battle in which Lee Meadows and Zek Barnes pitched tight and steady ball most of the way. Barnes gave way in the ninth in favor of a pinch hitter, Melvin Ott, the 19-year-old outfielder from New Orleans. Melvin slammed one for a double which helped to knot the count at 3-all. Traynor's homer later was made off one of Greenfield's slants.

To make the defeat of the metropolitan teams complete, the Brooklyn Robins dropped one to the Chicago Cubs 7 to 5 after a fourth inning in which "Jumbo Jim" Elliott, the heavyweight southpaw, was knocked out of the box to the tune of five runs. Brooklyn's slugging first baseman, Babe Herman, knocked two home runs.

A 12 to 5 victory for the Athletics over the White Sox at Chicago drew attention to a hot battle for second place in the American League behind the Yankees. The Sox hold the coveted run now, but the Athletics are right after them. They proved it by their crushing victory in which Blankenship was driven off the mound in the first under a wave of hitting which scored seven runs.

A doubleheader between the Phils and the Reds gave old Cy Williams, Quaker rightfielder, an opportunity to hit three homers and tie the season's record of nine now held jointly by Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig. He made one in the first which the Reds won 6 to 3, and two in the second which the Phils took 15 to 2.

Meet the Crown Prince of Swat! Gehrig Seen as Certain Successor to Babe Ruth

Lou Gehrig is doped as the logical successor to Babe Ruth, and he's already rivaling the Bambino in the matter of home runs. Much is attributed to his powerful physique. His forearm, detailed above, is more powerful than Ruth's. He's fast on the bases, too, as the smaller action picture shows.

By JACK Y. KEENE
International Illustrated News Sports Authority
NEW YORK (I-N)—It must be tough to be the two hundred pound home run king of the diamond, still in your prime, and watch your throne being measured for the crown prince.

Our sympathy goes out to Babe Ruth. But he doesn't need it now as much as he will in a few years from now when the fans, between cheers for Lou Gehrig, will murmur, "Poor Babe! He was a good fellow when he had it."

For Larruping Lou seems foreordained to be the next cock o' the base lines.

Five years ago Gehrig was graduated, like Eddie Collins, from Columbia University into the New York Yankees college. He was assigned to understudy Walter Pipp, regular first baseman. He showed little more than promise for the first two years, but the promise was good. He wasn't a flashy player, but he was determined and hard working.

SMITH BIDS FOR HONORS IN PIEDMONT

Raleigh, May 21.—(AP)—J. Smith, bespectacled outfielder of the High Point Club, who led the Piedmont in batting for 1922 with an average of .306, is making another bid for the honors of being the best man at the plate in 1927. Latest averages show that he has passed Hob Brummitt, erstwhile leader in hitting and now tops the Piedmonters with a grand total of .449. The averages include all games up to last Wednesday's frays.

Brummitt, who had been leading the cigarette batters and who boasted an average of .480 ten days ago, slumped in his hitting and had dropped to .423 or just two points in front of Albaugh, Pointer first baseman, in third place.

The hitting of J. Smith during the 10 days following the release of averages of May 7, has been heavy. In 36 times at bat he cracked out 18 blows, including six doubles, one triple and three homers. He boosted his figures from .419 to .449.

Among the first 10 leading hitters now are J. Smith, the real leader, with .449; Crumpler, .471; Brummitt, .428; Clabaugh, .425; Peori, .416; Wade, .414; Lundeen and Diehl, .412 each; Haury, .331, and "Howe, .387.

"Croaker" Wade, the fence-busting fly chaser of the Twins, and Clabaugh of the Pointers, are tied for the most hits—46; while Maltby of the Twins, is the best scorer with 19 runs to his credit. Clabaugh who got 62 homers last year in the East Texas loop, has jumped to the front as the leading circuit batter in the Piedmont. He has poked out seven-fourplay swats.

Herb Pennock, Yankee moundsman, leads with five victories and no defeats charged against him. Lefty Groves of the Athletics, has whiffed 37 batters.

Babe Ruth is still hovering around .321 but in games up to Wednesday he led the majors in home runs with nine.

Al Simmons, besides his improved hitting is tied with Goose Goslin, of Washington, in stolen bases with seven.

SWIMMING, NO END!

SHARKEY WINS OVER MALONEY BY KNOCK OUT

New York, May 21.—(AP)—Jack Sharkey, Boston fighter of Lithuanian ancestry, loomed today as a formidable contender for the heavyweight crown.

With a tigerish two-fisted attack he battered his way to a technical knockout over his fellow Bostonian, Jimmy Maloney, in the fifth round of their battle at the Yankee stadium last night.

Lying in wait through the earlier rounds, the lithe ex-sailor held the fire of his charge until the fourth round, when he sprang with a fury that sent Maloney to the floor with a mashing right to the jaw. As Maloney bounded to his feet the bell clanged, but his head still was hazy as the fifth began.

Maloney tried to rise, but fell forward, all but senseless. The referee intervened. But the count was over.

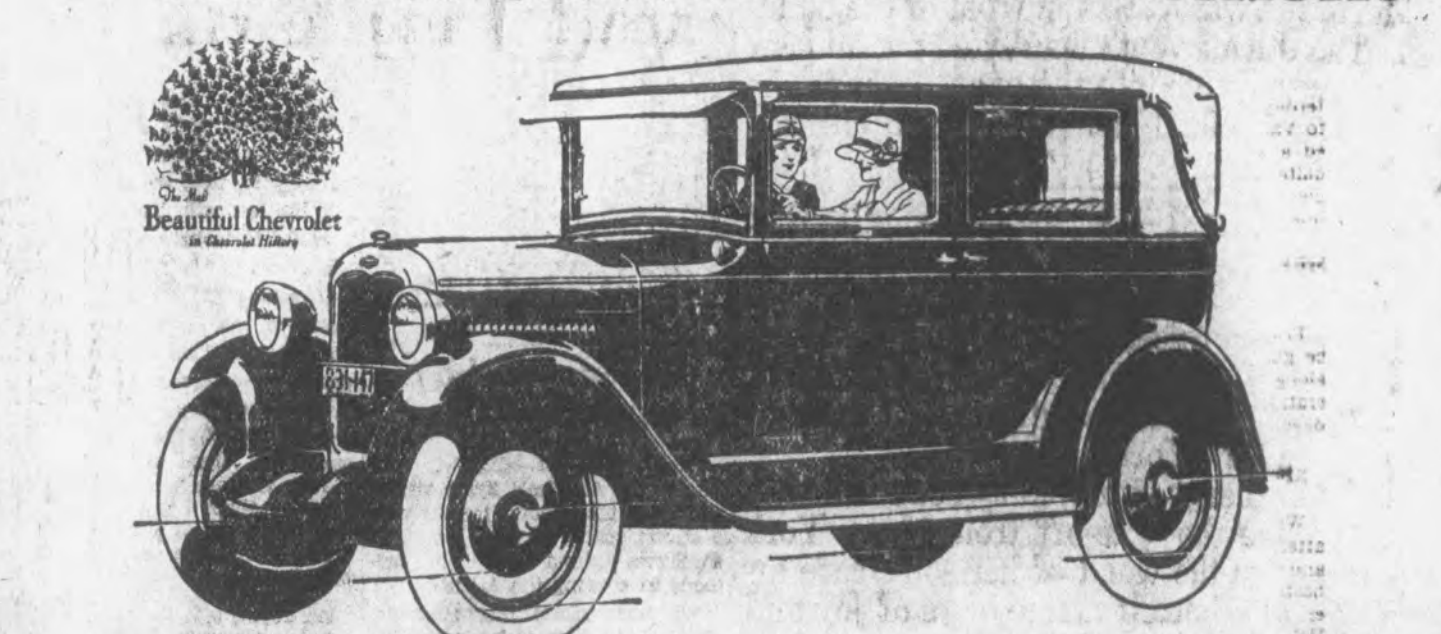

"Technical knockout," the end was called, but it carried all the finality of a straight "kavo."

To do it Sharkey brought to bear a power of punch which brought gasps of surprise. The blow was a newly developed weapon, a devastating right.

A crowd of 30,000 saw Sharkey's triumph.

At the close of the fourth progression of the bridge players, little Charles Alfred Forbes, two year old nephew of Miss McLawhorn, came in to inform the bride-elect that it was raining on the porch. WHITEHURST-McLAWHORN

Winterville, N. C., May 20.—A beautiful wedding was solemnized in the Bethany church, near Winterville, on Thursday afternoon, May 19, at 6:30 o'clock, when Miss Helen McLawhorn, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McLawhorn, became the bride of Mr. J. Clarence Whitehurst of Bethel, N. C.

The handsome brick church surrounded by pines, was artistically and effectively decorated, carrying out a pink and green color scheme. The white altar was banked profusely with cedar, potted plants and huge baskets of pink roses tied with pink tulle. The altar, before which the vows were taken, was adorned with ivy and formed a part for the pink cathedral candles. Pedestals bearing silver baskets of pink roses and silver candelabras bearing tall pink cathedral candles were abundantly used, aiding in producing a beautiful effect and in casting a mellow glow around the altar forming a background for the bridal party.

Prior to the ceremony a beautiful musical program was rendered. Miss Myrtle McLawhorn, sister of the bride, wearing a lovely yellow georgette dress, trimmed with a touch of green, and wearing a large picture hat to match and a shoulder bouquet of pink roses and sweet peas, beautifully rendered "Trauer-merci" by Schumann, after which Rev. R. F. Pittman, of Ayden, sang "O Promise Me" by Koven, in his usual pleasing manner. Then Miss Mary Ida McLawhorn, another sister of the bride, wearing a lovely creation of cream lace and peach georgette with picture hat to match and carrying a large shower bouquet of sweetheart roses and sweet peas, with pink and blue ribbons, charmingly sang, "Heart of Gold," by Matinee, and "The Sweetest Story Ever Told," by Stults.

As the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March pealed forth, Rev. R. F. Pittman, pastor of the bride, and Rev. W. T. Phipps of Bethel, pastor of the groom, took their places before the altar.

Down opposite aisles came the ushers, Messrs. R. H. and D. T. McLawhorn, brothers of the bride, taking their places near the altar. They were followed by the two bridesmaids, Misses Reba Whitehurst, of Bethel, sister of the groom, and Elizabeth Forbes, cousin of the bride. Miss Whitehurst was attractive in an orchid georgette and lace dress with an orchid picture hat and carried an arm bouquet of yellow snap dragons and orchid sweet peas tied with lavender tulle. Miss Forbes was daintily gowned in honeydew georgette with large picture hat to match and carried an arm bouquet of pink sweet peas tied with pink tulle.

Next to enter were the groomsmen, Messrs. W. Jasper Smith, Jr. of Bethel, and Roy Coburn, of Winterville, followed by the brides of honor, Mesdames Coy L. Forbes, of Stokes, and Obed Castelle, of Washington, sisters of the bride. Mrs. Forbes, who was elegantly gowned in a coral pink georgette dress trimmed with cream lace, with picture hat to match, carried a large arm bouquet of lavender sweet peas tied with green tulle, while Mrs. Castelle, who was charmingly dressed in an ashen of rose georgette gown trimmed in lace and beads with picture hat to match carried a large arm bouquet of pink sweet peas tied with blue tulle.

Next to enter was the maid of honor, Miss Leckie McLawhorn, youngest sister of the bride. She was strikingly dressed in a georgette gown and picture hat of cream pink. She carried a shower bouquet of sweetheart roses and pink sweet peas with pink and blue ribbons.

Preceding the bride came the flower girls, Jean Langston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Langston and Clarissa Brooks Edwards, cousins of the bride, daintily dressed in pink and orchid organdy respectively. They carried baskets made of chiffon and tulle, from which they scattered rose petals in the path of the bride. Down the opposite aisle came little R. H. McLawhorn, Jr., nephew of the bride, wearing a pretty white suit and bearing a ring on a silver tray, in the hand of a rose.

The bride, entering with her father, Mr. Charles McLawhorn, who gave her in marriage, never looked more beautiful than in her wedding costume. She was handsomely dressed in a three-piece going-away suit of navy blue faille silk and blonde crepe Elizabeth, with navy hat and gloves and carried a large shower bouquet of bride's roses and white sweet peas. She was met at the altar by the groom and his best man and cousin, Mr. Sam Whitehurst, of Bethel.

The impressive ring ceremony was used, the bride's pastor officiating the groom's pastor assisting. During the ceremony, "To a Wild Rose" by McDowell, was rendered by the pianist.

Mrs. Whitehurst, the talented and attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McLawhorn, is a charming young lady of the exquisite blonde type. She is very popular and makes friends quickly among both young and old. She numbers her friends by the score throughout the State and has been the recipient of many social functions since the announcement of her engagement.

Mr. Whitehurst, son of Mr. Fernando Whitehurst, is a young man of truly sterling qualities. He is highly esteemed as a leader in the social and church circles of his home town. His future as a planter is very promising.

After the ceremony the happy couple left by motor for a honeymoon. They will be at home after June first near Bethel. The large array of gifts received attest to the popularity of the young couple.

INDEED A HERO

Since announcement of Captain Charles Lindbergh's hop-off for Paris early yesterday morning, no other news has appeared important to the public, if inquiries at newspaper offices can be used as a barometer.

Since yesterday morning throngs have visited our office in eager search of news of the flier while inquiries by telephone have broken all precedents. What is true in our case is equally true throughout the country and it can truly be said that today the hearts of the American people are flying with Charles Lindbergh and his kitten in their daring trip to Paris.

America and the world loves real sportsmanship and daring and the feat of Lindbergh has furnished a superlative of the latter. If good wishes could keep a plane aloft there is no doubt that he will reach his goal, but whether or not he reaches Paris, he is indeed a hero so far as the American people are concerned.

THREE MONTHS' SENTENCE

It is many months since Fall and Doheny and Sinclair conspired to take hundreds of millions of dollars worth of petroleum from the navy. Nobody has yet gone to prison. In the first trial Doheny and Fall were acquitted by the jury. The Supreme Court has functioned in a great way and Uncle Sam gets the oil back, but until yesterday no individual received punishment.

Even now the sentence of three months imprisonment of Sinclair, delayed by appeal, is for contempt of the Senate in refusing to answer questions propounded and not for the illegal getting of the oil. However, the attorneys engaged to prosecute are moving for conviction in other trials. It is justice on trial as much as the men under indictment for the crime. Senator Norris says "you cannot convict a million dollars." This case makes that question one to be determined.—News and Observer.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to the Newbernian on its 64 page Industrial Edition. The issue from the standpoint of get-up and attractiveness would do credit to any city many times larger than New Bern but the appearance of the issue is not the best of it. Set forth in a clear and attractive manner are the many advantages which New Bern and Eastern North Carolina have to offer to those persons who are looking the ideal part of the globe in which to make their home.

North Carolina and especially Eastern North Carolina, is on the eve of its greatest era of growth, and no doubt this special issue of the Newbernian will have much to do with attracting newcomers to the section.

Consider Conduct College Faculty

Lakeland, Fla., May 21.—(AP)—Committees of the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian church took over business of the 97th Annual Session today. Only a 45 minute session was allotted to general business.

Differences arising from conduct of the faculty at the church's Bethel College, at McKenzie, Tenn., seemed to hinge on the Education Committee action with regard to a compromise resolution offered by the Rev. I. K. Floyd, of Dallas, retiring moderator.

The Rev. Mr. Floyd proposed that the Assembly accept an agreement of Professor G. I. Meek that he would resign from the Bethel faculty on payment of $1,500. Previously the education board asked for Mr. Meek's dismissal and later an investigating committee recommended his retirement.

After twice being disappointed, Jackson, Tenn., was thought assured of selection as 1928 convention city.

TURN'S SMOKESTACK INTO RIFLE RANGE

Indianapolis, May 20.—(AP)—A smokestack placed on its side under the ground and opening into his basement, is the target range on which James Hurt, world champion indoor marksman, keeps in trim.

Other dwellings are so thick around his home that Hurt could not have an outdoor range without endangering the neighbors, so he devised the smokestack range. He shoots from the point where the stack enters the basement and a lighting system makes the target visible at the other end.

Hurt won the indoor marksmanship title by scoring a perfect 200 from a prone position at 50 feet with 48 bullseyes in the Indiana rifle matches at Culver. The former record was made by T. K. Lee, of Birmingham, Ala., who also had a perfect 200 score but put only 4 pellets within the bullseye.

CENTURY OF HONEY RUINS FARM HOUSE

Gomshall, England, May 20.—(AP)—There's so much honey in the roof of a 15th century farmhouse here called "Cole Kitchen Farm" that the ceiling of the room immediately underneath is giving way beneath the weight after 100 years service as a gigantic beehive.

T. H. English, the owner, says nobody ever tried to get the honey because it would necessitate removing the roof.

In the swarming season the place is smothered with bees.

CUMBERLAND FARMER HELD ON CHARGE OF KILLING WIFE

Coroner's inquest has not been completed, but it is said that the body of the 21 year old woman was in a terrible condition. Everett will be held for the grand jury which convenes on May 30.

INDIAN STILL FISHES
BUT SQUAW CASTS NETS

Minneapolis, May 20.—(AP)—Fishing primitive industry of the American Indian, still constitutes a principal means of livelihood for the 12,000 aborigines of Minnesota. Almost every month in the year finds them along the rivers, employing members of their families, headed by the indispensable squaw, to raise and lower the nets and to seine under State supervision for rough fish.
One of the biggest fishing projects in the state is a packing plant supplied entirely by the red man. It is on Red Lake, in northern Minnesota, and it packs annually thousands of choice fish caught by the Indians and shipped to all parts of the country.

STOCK MARKET
New York, May 21.—(AP)—Buying of standard railroad and industrial shares was on a large scale in the stock market today, following enthusiasm created by a resumption of enormous absorption of U. S. steel in consequence of optimism created by Elbert H. Gray's cheerful observation on the industry and trade outlook in general. U. S. steel, which has been sluggish for some little time, climbed rapidly to 173 3-8, the highest figure ever achieved. Total sales approximated 1,300,000 share. The closing was strong.

WEEKLY FINANCIAL
New York, May 21.—(AP)—The violent advance in the stock market to new high ground this week was accomplished in seeking disregard of such outside news developments as the extension of the Mississippi river flood damage, the renewed weakness of Japanese exchange and the interstate commerce commission's rejection of the southwestern railroad merger. While weakness cropped out in some of the oils, securities and minor specialties, this selling was completely overshadowed by the sensational rise in the high priced industrial specialties, many of which attained new peaks prices for all times.

Easy money rates and the continued absence of any sharp setbacks in general business apparently provided the background for the advance. While recessions were reported in several leading industries, they were generally regarded as seasonal, and except in the oils, failed to bring about any heavy liquidation.

Renewed selling of the oil shares was inspired by the obstacles being raised to the proposed plan to bring about a general curtailment of production.

Steel shares held relatively firm despite a further shrinkage in output and demand. Executives of the leading companies who gathered here this week for the semi-annual meeting of the American steel institute were optimistic regarding business in the last half of the year.

General motors crossed the 200 mark which had been predicted for it by its stock market sponsors several months ago but encountered heavy profit-taking around that level and settled back a few points.

Signs of strength developed in some of the other motors, despite recent price cuts, particularly Mack truck, Hudson, Chrysler, and Pierce Arrow, preferred.

COTTON GOODS
New York, May 21.—(AP)—Under the influence of continued large production and light demand gray cloth prices have softened a little with sales small. The wash fabrics trade is awaiting more favorable weather to stimulate the season-end clean up in primary and wholesale channels. Finished goods have held firm in staple lines and advances are being sought due to the rise in raw cotton. Some of the bleached goods have been advanced 1-2 cent a yard. All staple tickings are now on 1-2 cent a yard higher basis. These are not free sellers for late delivery owing to the higher range of future cotton values. Prints have sold more freely for Fall sheetings are slow. Flannels are very well ordered due to accumulations of rayons mixed fancies. Towels are in moderate demand.

Cotton duck is irregular with some grades available at extremely discounts notably some of the wide duck. Tire fabrics are comfortable sold ahead.

Ginghams are quiet. Most of the coarse colored cottons are well under order into August. While new business has been slower on fine and fancy colors the mills are very well occupied and converters are ordering small lots of fancies for Fall and Spring.

Yarn markets are fairly steady. Prices current in primary markets are as follows:
Print cloth, 28 inch 64X64s, 5 1-2 cents 64X66s, 5 3-8 cents; 38 1-2 inch 64X64s, 7 1-2 cents; brown sheeting southern standards 11 cents; denim 14 1-2 cents; tickings 18 1-2 cents and 20 cents staple ginghams 9 cents; dress ginghams 14 5-8 cents prints 8 cents.

WEEKLY GRAIN
Chicago, May 21.—(AP)—Face by extraordinary persistent wet weather delays to plowing and planting, corn is making a seldom-equalled steep advance in price. An unusual feature is that despite the big upturn of values, practically no corn has been forthcoming from rural sources.

Compared with a week ago, corn was 5 cents to 6 1-2 cents a bushel higher this morning with wheat showing 2 1-2 cents to 3 cents rise oats varying from 3-4 to 7-8 cents off to 1-2 to 5-8 cents up and provisions at gains of 5 to 9 cents.

Americans Manage Village of French Tag Paper Makers
Quimperle, France May 20.—(AP)—Two Americans run a model village here, built for the Breton workers in the factories which furnish half of the paper for the 100,000,000 cigarettes which the United States smokes each year.

Fred R. Harris, of Brockport, N. Y., and his assistant, Franklin H. Stafford, of Pittsburgh, Princeton graduate of 1910 employ 600 men and women. Model dwellings fitted with baths, hot and cold water, electric lights, and gas are furnished to the workers rent free.

The houses cluster about parked areas. Each family has its own garden plot for which the company provides seeds and fertilizer. There also is a large sports field with a dugby gridiron, cinder track, locker room and shower baths, all at the disposal of employees. As a consequence labor trouble is unknown among the workers.

U. S. CHANCES GOOD IN RYDER CUP MATCHES

By O. B. KELLER

The American amateur golfers may have formed a tall-talking habit in dealing with the British Lion in team play, but the American professionals are not as yet thus addicted.

While the amateurs were winning the Walker Cup the fourth successive time at St. Andrews last summer, the American professionals were taking a fearful lacing at Wentworth, in Surrey, England, in the first competition for the Ryder Cup.

I saw the match and it was a rout for our side. There were five scores at fourstones and ten at singles, and Bill Mehlhorn won his match in singles and Emmet French halved his match, and we lost all the rest of them. The British rout, headed by Ted Ray, beat us 13 1-2 joints to 11-2.

Now they are coming over here to give us a return match at Worcester, Mass., June 10 and 11, just before the United States open championship at Oakmont.

The teams have been chosen, our team all homebred—a proper policy. I think, though of course we could pick a stronger team by including some imports like Mac Smith, Jim Barnes, Tommy Armour and Bobby Cruickshank.

Sir Walter Hagen, who led the embattled cohorts at Wentworth, again is captain, and his trusty band includes Gene Sarazen, Johnny Farrell, the Beautiful Irishman, Leo Diegel, John Golden, Wild Bill Mehlhorn, Jo E. Turnesa and Al Watrous.

The invading army has Abe Mitchell as captain; George Duncan, the D'Artagnan of golf who walloped Sir Walter so thoroughly last summer; Ted Ray, Fred Robson, Charlie Whitcombe, Aubrey Boomer, the big figure in British professional golf last year; Archie Compston, George Gadd and Arthur Havers.

Monday was spent in and around Ayden. Called on C. C. Harris relative to some drainage work he had underway and while there culled out flock of hens. Mr. R. P. Hart was also visited and carried a blueprint for building a self feeder for hogs. Mr. Hart has decided to grow more hogs and join us in our cooperative shipment of hogs in the spring. In this connection a pasture was selected on the back of the farm. We also looked over his orchard and will start some orchard work next winter. I also visited Mr. Chas. McLawhorn to look over his orchard. This orchard was one County Agent Ferguson assisted Mr. McLawhorn in setting some ten years ago.

Tuesday was spent with the club boys in Simpson and com' farmers in Bethel. The club boys, 12 in number met at the school house and had their records, books on hand to be checked over and corrected. They have their pigs weighed up and the poultry club members have their biddies growing fine. On hand from W. J. Lewis of Bethel request from W. J. Lewis of Bethel I visited his farm to inspect a fine grass pasture he has which was sown in a cut over piece of land with a number of green trees standing. Mr. Lewis sowed perennial rye grass and rape. Later he added some lespedeza all of which is doing fine and the hogs on this pasture putting on cheap gains. I also visited the dairy of Mr. M. O. Blount and found him on the farm planning for pasture and for the enlargement of his milk barn by an annex of 48 foot double milk barn. He is also planning for more silo capacity by the addition of another silo. Mr. Blount has a herd of high producing cows. Called on Dr. Hemingway but found no one at the poultry yard.

Wednesday was spent in Claybrook Neck calling on the following farmers: O. W. Moore, E. O. Smith, Saul Haddock and J. E. Conner. Mr. Conner had just completed his duck is planning the construction soon. I arranged for a test with cash tobacco against local variety with Mr. Conner and Mr. Smith. The farmers in this section have agreed to feed out hogs for spring delivery and to ship with the farmers of Grafton. I also stopped in for conferences with Dr. W. W. Dawson and H. P. Quimby of Grafton.

Thursday I visited the boys club at Stokesland found ten of the twelve boys waiting for me at the school house. After checking over their record books all ten of the boys crawled in my runabout farm and we proceeded to visit some of the projects of the boys. The first one visited was that of Cary Page. We found a brand new brooder house and 90 frying size standard Rhode Island Red chicks. Cary is proud of his young flock. He plans to separate the cockerels and feed them for market. The next boy visited was Joe Whitehurst who raises tobacco for his project. The boys proceeded to measure his acre and after a discussion of how to cultivate an acre of tobacco we visited Hassell Gurganus' project which consisted of 43 standard Rhode Island Reds. He had them housed in his mother's flower house which made a very good brooder. From here we went to see David L. Robertson's pure bred Essex pig, by the way which is fine one. He paid $18 for this pig and she is worth the money. Keep an eye on David. You will hear more about him some day. The five poultry club members have 33 standard bred Rhode Island Red chicks. In the afternoon I visited Fannie Laughinghouse of Cox's Mill. He has poultry and Mr. Laughinghouse promised him a pig also. I also dropped by to see Mr. L. A. Stokes. Six of his fine peach tree have a prospect of a good crop of peaches.

Friday had an engagement to go to Wilson for a conference with manager of the Southern Dairies with the local manager, Mr. Sanford, but this trip was called off due to the fact that the Wilson manager was in Washington, D. C. for the week. I called on Mr. McArthur and Willoughby and Hemby in the Arthur section.

Saturday worked with the farmers on the curb market grounds, rearranging the tables and the afternoon was spent in the office.

In addition to the above activities between twelve and fifteen hundred letters were sent out through the office and numerous conferences were held with farmers in the office. Traveled 234 miles.

ED. FLANAGAN TALKS ABOUT LOCAL RIVER

Tells Kiwanis Club Tar River Should be Made Navigable to Ocean Vessels.

E. G. Flanagan, one of Eastern Carolina's best known business men, told members of the Greenville Kiwanis Club last night that Pitt county people should get busy and demand the Congress of the United States to provide sufficient appropriations with which to make Tar river navigable to ocean going vessels.

The talk came at the conclusion of a short and entertaining program put on under the direction of J. C. Galloway, of Grimsland, who is known as the "baby Kiwanian." The subject of the evening was "How Can the Kiwanis Club Help Greenville and Pitt County," and was discussed in a brief way by Kiwanians representing various branches of industry. W. H. Wool and presided over the session.

Mr. Flanagan told of the early days of Greenville and Pitt county. He recalled the days when steamboats used to ply their way up and down Tar river, bringing to this section the bulk of its commodities. He told of how the service was gradually disrupted by the railroads, and how it eventually disappeared, leaving the public victims of discriminatory freight rates.

Appropriations at the present time being used in dredging Tar river are literally thrown away, Mr. Flanagan declared. In a short time after the channel is opened, it is filled again by shifting sandbars. There is only one way to bring about an improvement in this situation and that is to build better along the river banks, deepen the channels, and let the current eliminate the constantly shifting sand.

He declared that boat lines are ready to send their vessels up Tar river the minute the stream becomes navigable. Big business is being diverted to other parts of the state simply because it cannot reach Greenville by water. Freight rates, he declared are of vital consideration to a concern with millions of dollars worth of goods to ship, annually, and the section able to offer those rates is the one that gets the business.

He urged the Kiwanians to give the project the consideration of which it is so deserving, and declared that it would be the means of opening up greater possibilities and opportunities for commercial and industrial development of this territory.

The first matter considered following the serving of supper, was that pertaining to club finances. George Woodard, chairman of the finance committee, presented a report and asked that members give it careful consideration.

Frank Harrington, clerk of Superior court of Pitt county, suggested that the club use its influence in behalf of the county indigent. The field for service, in this one direction is as great as any body of men could desire, he declared, and it is incumbent upon the progressive citizen to provide for those unable to provide for themselves. He also called attention to the problem presented by wayward boys and girls.

Mr. Harrington is also judge of juvenile court of this county, and is familiar with conditions as they exist among the youths of the county. There are numbers of children surrounded by an environment of crime and crime, he said, and they are to become law-abiding God-fearing citizens, it is incumbent upon the people to provide a better place for them.

There is no reason on earth why Pitt county should not have a detention home for such people, he said. There are funds available through certain state channels with which to make such a home possible. The people, however, must first show a disposition that they want and are in need of such an institution before they will be able to get it.

Ed Griffin said he believed the county's poor, especially the young, should have more consideration. He urged the club to give serious thought to what the juvenile league had had to say about the matter.

B. B. Sugg said he believed the club should meet with clubs of other towns more frequently and let them know what Greenville and Pitt county are doing. He said this would have a tendency of bringing hundreds of people to the section annually, and also of bringing additional business. A spirit of altruism dominated his entire talk. It was a direct and forceful plea for a great and more progressive Pitt county.

Rev. L. R. O'Brien, pastor of the Immanuel Baptist Church, said the spirit of Kiwanis should dominate every member. He declared that every member is dependent upon the other for success, and that great things should be accomplished through united effort.

C. B. Rowlett stressed the need of a wide-awake chamber of commerce. He spoke briefly of the need of such an organization, and declared that the city could never be what it should be without an institution of the kind. He asked the Kiwanians to give their support to the organization of such a body and to do it immediately.

A committee composed of E. G. Flanagan, M. K. Blount and George Woodard, was appointed to draft resolutions dealing with the improvement of Tar river to be read at the next meeting of the club. President Woodard asked members of the various committees to meet with members of the board of directors Tuesday night at eight o'clock in the directors' room of the Greenville Banking & Trust Co.

taxes, is the nation's greatest asset.

We watch three American planes preparing for trans-Atlantic flight, knowing that to come down on the ocean means death, barring good fortune. Commander Byrd, it is said, takes a rubber boat that might keep him afloat in water not too rough.

The practical British, taking flying and its future seriously, are building a powerful, all metal seagoing plane, especially planned to survive on rough waves, for an indefinite time.

The heroism of our fliers, and of the brave Frenchmen is admirable also. Permanent, regular flying is more important than any stunts, although the stunt must come first, to interest the cautious, and the capitalist.

"The Baltimore Catholic Review" denies a statement sent broadcast as to Baltimore's recent mayoralty election.

The Democratic candidate who normally would have been elected by about 60,000 was defeated by a Republican with 17,000 votes to spare and it was said the upset was due to the fact that the Democratic candidate was a Catholic.

"The Baltimore Catholic Review" declares that there was no religious issue involved, and explains that the victory of a Republican Protestant was due to a row within the Democratic party. The Review says "Catholics refuse to be the scape-goat."

FRANCE WANTS TO WELCOME U. S. AIRMAN

feat of the daring young American as it had been over the ill-fated flight of Nungesser and Coll. Big newspaper office waiting patiently crowds gathered in front of every bulletin. They seemed heartily joyful when early advices reported him nearing the Irish coast.
The Place de L'Opera was jammed and there were so many American in front of the office of the Paris edition of the New York Herald-Tribune, a little father down the avenue that the police denounced their efforts to make clear the sidewalks and directed passersby to walk through the street.
Although experts shook their heads over the daring of the youth, the Frenchmen's readily kindled imagination appreciated the captain's in seeking unhesitatingly what appeared to him an excellent chance to achieve his ambition.
There was relief when the cables announced that he had negotiated successfully the first stage of his adventurous trip and headed out over the ocean from New Foundland.
There was no doubt he would get a welcome such as it vouchsafed few visitors to France.

Gossip of Staff Correspondents at World Centers of Population

Madrid, May 21.—"Women should not work," says Gregorio Marañon, one of Spain's most celebrated doctors who, like many a Spaniard believes that Cleopatra's nose had much more influence on a greater number than all the suffragette propaganda and speeches modern Eve could ever dream of.

A woman is not a man, the Spanish savant goes on to say, in spite of political feminism which has brought women to believe the two sexes equal. They are neither superior, nor inferior, one to the other, but simply distinct. Dr. Marañon is referring especially to the married women, but affirms that even the unmarried woman was not born to work like a man.

"Maternity and physical labor are absolutely incompatible. And to bring children into the world and then care for them—this is the unique mission of every woman. Nature intended them to be happy and happiness is centered in love. Just as nearly every man prefers the simple 'modiste' to the intellectual woman doctor, lawyer or professor.

When asked what about the cases of lonely married women who had been unable to find their soulsmates, Dr. Marañon replied that "what a woman wants, God grants," and that if she really wants to be feminine, she will be, and thus fulfill the task for which she was created to be a good mother.

Madrid is the most expensive city in Europe, according to recent statistics published by the Spanish government. And more than that prices show a constant upward trend. Americans find themselves quite at home in Madrid where they pay "American prices" for nearly everything, from a cup of coffee to an automobile. But these prices are the same for everybody, including the poorest workman, and one wonders where he finds the food to feed the many mouths in his family.

A few commodities have remained stable during the past year, but none of them have lowered. Bread is the most important of them. It has maintained its high price of thirty-five centimos a pound loaf for more than a year. This means about five cents for the poor Spaniard, for whom bread is really the staff of life.
