Meet To Authorize Issuance of Notes

Raleigh, May 23.-(AP)-The board of advisers of the World War too poor to spend a dozen million veteran's loan act of North Carolina met today to authorize issuance of bond anticipation notes.

First checks covering loans by the State to the vets were mailed out at the same time following the board's approval of loans aggregating $135,000. A total of $40,000 more were submitted at today's meeting.

The maximum under the law is $3,000 but the average was $2,500. and if the average is maintained 800 loans may be made out of the origissue of two million dollars Colonel John Hall Manning, commissioner of the fund, said

In the Lindbergh flight there are suggestions that ought to interest this country, and wake it up. The President sent his best wishes to Captain Lindbergh. He should now send him thanks for teaching this nation a lesson. Congress, it's to be presumed, will confer an appropriate medal, and resolutions, but nothing can repay one millionth part of the service Lindbergh has rendered.
