DEMOCRATIC LEADERS TO TALK UNITY

Western Party Members to Also Endorse Presidential Candidate Today.

Ogden, Utah, Sept. 23.—(AP)—Western Democratic leaders were here today for the opening of a conference to discuss "big problems of the party," including unity in the West and endorsement of a presidential candidate.

Although an invitational letter sent to prominent Democrats in a dozen States failed to mention any particular candidate, Fred W. Johnson of Wyoming, who will preside at the first session, said he expected Governor Al Smith of New York would be endorsed for the presidential nomination.

"Withdrawal of William G. McAdoo has cleared the field," Johnson said on his arrival from his home at Rock Springs. "There is no other candidate."

Eastern and Southern Democrats are watching this conference with great interest for they would like to know just how the West feels. Johnson declared. "But this conference is to talk about problems of the party and will be given to all of them."

The two-thirds rule at National conventions will be one of most important matters to come up as will the unity of Western Democratic plans.

Delbert M. Draper, Democratic State chairman of Utah, said the West and dry question and the matter of Western "sympathy" would be considered. "What the voters of the West want is something west of the Bowers," Draper declared.

It was his opinion that there would be no concerted opposition to Governor Smith in Utah.

Other delegates mentioned tariff legislation to meet the diversified interests of the West, as a probable subject for discussion.

Johnson announced he expected delegations from Utah, Idaho, Montana, Wyoming, Nevada, California, Colorado, South Dakota, Iowa and possibly Washington, Oregon and Arizona.

Lean From Danny.
How Rich We Might Be.
The Baby's Ears.
Why Not Dwight Morrow?
(By Arthur Brisbane)
Copyright 1927, by Star Co.

Fathers and sons, learn something from Danny McMahon. His father, one of the Tammany "big three," Murphy, Haffen and McMahon, gave his son a good education, died and left his $250,000. Now Danny, only 36 years old, having spent his money being a "good fellow," dubs in Bellevue hospital, New York, penniless, no friend with him.

To leave your son money, without having taught him how to use it, is to make misery your executor.

Fire burns more than $550,000,000 a year in this country. The loss is $5.02 per capita for the United States, against 72 cents in Britain, 49 cents in France, 28 cents in Germany, 25 cents in Italy, 11 cents in Holland, etc.

Yesterday United States District Attorney Tuttle, said, "The cost of crime is ten billions a year, according to the National Surety Company. Fences, receivers of stolen goods alone, take in three thousand million dollars' worth of private property."

How rich should we Americans be if we were all careful, intelligent?

Smith had a baby in a Cleveland hospital. She and her husband said it was a boy, when they gave her a girl baby to nurse. The father says: "They can keep that girl, so far as I am concerned, unless they prove it is mine." Something of a prejudice against girl babies in that, perhaps.

One proof offered is that the girl baby's ears are exactly like those of the mother. That is most important. Human ears and the "Darwinian turtleneck" that sometimes goes with them, are often inherited from generation to generation. "How prove heredity" at a glance.

Anyhow, ANY girl baby will repay richly anyone that takes care of her.

Some Senators oppose Dwight W. Morrow as Minister to Mexico.

TUNNEY WINS RING BATTLE FROM DEMPSEY

Defeats Challenger in Most Colorful Ring Battle in Pugilistic History.

By ALAN J. GOULD
(Associated Press Sports Editor)
Chicago, Sept. 23.—(AP)—Gene Tunney today began his second year's term of office as heavyweight champion of the world, only after the backers of his opponent, Jack Dempsey, had vigorously demanded a "recount" of the vital moments in their spectacular battle at Soldier Field.

The stalwart, handsome Marins repeated his victory of exactly a year and by the same verdict, a decision at the end of ten rounds. But this time he came within a second of being knocked out and off the heavyweight throne—dumped, dazed and shaken, to the floor in the seventh round for a count of nine that actually, in the opinion of ringside observers, took from 12 to 15 seconds to reach.

Tunney's hand was raised in triumph, decisively earned by a stirring rally through the last three rounds that had Dempsey in the verge of a knockout himself in the final round. The champion was still a champion and fighting like one at the finish but it seemed to thousands that the gods of fortune were with him, that but for the "break" in the seventh round, and the interpretation of the Illinois Boxing Commission's knockdown rules, he might have been counted out and seen his million-dollar crown pass back to its old wearer.

Knocked down by a sudden, furious and two-fisted assault in the minute of the seventh round and holding the ropes groggily as he sat on the floor, Tunney was saved from a possible knockout by an official ruling that compelled a halt in the count until Dempsey had gone to the "farthest corner."

Instead of the count being started and continued uninterrupted—as in the old prize-ring rules—from the time Tunney hit the floor from the effects of a vicious right-hand smash and a short left hook, the toll was delayed several precious seconds while the referee waved Dempsey to a distant corner.

At the count of nine, Tunney got up to back off hastily and circle in full retreat until his faculties cleared, but he had already had the benefit of at least three and possibly five or six additional seconds in which to pull himself together. Dempsey's handlers hotly asserted he should have been counted out, that Dempsey was "robbed" of a knockout victory that would have made him the first ex-champion to regain the heights. But Tunney's handlers declared their man was simply profiting by the rules, that he was ready to get up at "nine," whenever that count was reached; that, as a matter of fact, he started to arise at "five" but stayed down to get the benefit of the long count on advice from his corner.

So far as he rules are concerned, they were subjected to various interpretations but Boxing Commissioner Paul Pehr, at the ringside, made it clear that no actual count was possible, under them, while Dempsey was not in a corner well away from his fallen foe.

However close a call he had, whatever "break" he benefitted by in this seventh round, there was no question in the minds of observers that otherwise Tunney was master. He outpointed Dempsey for the first half of the fight and after weathering the old warrior's most furious bid for victory, outfought, outboxed and outgeneralized the challenger in the closing three rounds.

Tunney met and vanquished a Dempsey that was a far different fighter, a more dangerous pouncer and a more flaming spirit than the uncertain, floundering figure that was topped from the fistie throne a year ago. The champion, jolted and jarred as he never has been before and as he isn't likely to be again without losing, had the stamina, boxing ability and courage to pull himself back from the brink of disaster, to batter his way to victory after it seemed that one more solid wallop would have ended his reign as king.

At the finish, there was a mighty ovation for the gameness, for the unquenchable spirit of one of the greatest battlers of all time, Dempsey; but there was a blonde, blue-eyed giant who came back to slash and cut his foe into semi-helplessness at the end.

LEVINE'S ATTEMPT TO FLY TO INDIA ENDS IN FORCED LANDING AT VIENNA TODAY

Giant Monoplane Columbia Forced Down in Pouring Rain After Being in Air Only Few Hours.

Vienna, Sept. 23.—(AP)—The attempt of Charles A. Levine and Captain Walter Hinchliffe to set a non-stop distance record ended today when the monoplane Columbia, landed here at 5:58 p. m., in a pouring rain.

The plane landed safely.

The Columbia's route in the early stages of her flight was planned to take her diagonally across Europe in an almost straight line to Constantinople.

Striking across the lower part of the North Sea and over Holland and Belgium, the route touches Cologne, thence Linz, on the Danube River and on to Constantinople.

From the former Turkish capital the route is by way of Aleppo, Syria; Basra, Irak; Bushire and Jask Persia, following the Persian Gulf, then Karachi, India, and Delhi, between Aleppo and Basra the airmen will fly over the Arabian Desert.

Cranwell, England, Sept. 23.—(AP)—Balked by bad weather in his expressed desire to fly back to America, Charles A. Levine, stormy petrel of the air took with Captain Walter Hinchliffe at 8:06 o'clock this morning, in an endeavor to beat the long distance non-stop record in an easterly direction. Their goal was understood to be Delhi, capital of India, approximately 4,750 miles Cranwell, or with good luck Calcutta 800 miles farther. Either would far surpass the record set by Levine and Clarence Chamberlin in their flight from New York to Germany in the Columbia, the same monoplane used in the present attempt.

The heavily loaded Columbia bumped the ground in hop-skip-jump fashion twice before she rose with the aid of a 36-mile wind and circled to dart away to the east in a clearing sky. There had been some rain, and the plain at the take-off was headed into a rainbow, hailed by those on the field as a good omen.

Levine wore the lucky blue striped suit and shirt in which he crossed the Atlantic. He and the Imperial airway pilot had apparently settled the differences which arose between them last week, as there was no friction at the start and Levine made a last minute arrangement for insurance for Mrs. Hinchliffe in case of a crash.

Bidding goodbye to his wife and daughter, Captain Hinchliffe said: "Don't worry. The next message you get from me will be dated India."

It was estimated that the Columbia would be able to stay in the air 55 hours.

WILSON ASKS RESIGNATION OF JARDINE

Mississippi Man Requests Coolidge to Ask Agriculture Dept Heads to Quit.

Washington, Sept. 23.—(AP)—Resignation of Secretary Jardine as the official responsible for the recent drop in cotton prices that followed publication of a department of agriculture report containing price trends was demanded in a letter to President Coolidge prepared today by Representative Wilson of Mississippi.

The letter, Mr. Wilson's office announced, insisted upon Jardine's resignation and suggested to the President that his failure to act would render him subject to impeachment. Mississippi farmers the Representative's secretary said had lost heavily in the cotton drop and felt that the responsibility should be fixed upon the head of the department of agriculture.

W. C. DOWD DIED TODAY

Publisher of Charlotte News Succumbs Suddenly to Heart Trouble.

Charlotte, Sept. 23.—(AP)—W. C. Dowd, Sr., 62 years old, president and general manager of the Charlotte News, died at his home here today. Heart trouble was the immediate cause of death.

Active in affairs of the community with which he had been identified throughout most of his life, Mr. Dowd never relinquished his interest in affairs although for the past two years he had spent most of his time in Florida and the North Carolina mountains. Returning from Linville, N. C., his summer home, Mr. Dowd last week told friends he had not felt better in years.

On arising this morning, Mr. Dowd appeared in good health but soon complained of feeling unwell. The end came suddenly.

Mr. Dowd was born in Moore county March 21, 1865. When a boy, his father and mother, Capt. J. C. and Henrietta Dowd, moved to Mecklenburg county. He was educated at the Carolina Military Institute and Wake Forest College and while in the latter institution was a member of the football team that won the southern championship.

On Nov. 23, 1892, Mr. Dowd married Miss Eloise Jordan Buat. Three children, all surviving, were born of this union. They are: W. Carey Dowd, Jr., business manager of the Charlotte News; Mrs. Morehead Jones of Charlotte, and J. E. Dowd of Richmond, Va.

After leaving college Mr. Dowd taught in the Carolina Military Academy for a time and planned to study law. He purchased a weekly newspaper, the Mecklenburg Times-Democrat, from Wade Harris, now editor of the Charlotte Observer, and purchased the Charlotte News in 1895. He then bought the Charlotte Chronicle and combined the publications.

Mr. Dowd was elected to the State Senate in 1895 and in 1897 and 1900 he was a delegate to the Democratic national convention. He was presidential elector from the sixth district in 1900 and from 1907 to 1911 he was speaker of the North Carolina House of Representatives.

Mr. Dowd was a member of the Associated Press through his newspaper and one of its staunchest supporters. He was at one time a member of the board of directors of the organization and for many years was a member of the southern division advisory board and frequently was called upon for advice in the handling of affairs of the organization.

Mr. Dowd was a Baptist in faith and a teacher of the business men's Sunday school class. He was twice president of the State Baptist Convention and served as moderator of the Mecklenburg-Cabarrus Baptist Association.

Mr. Dowd's first wife died April 26, 1926 and in July 1917 he married Miss Ellen Furness Gayle, of Montgomery, Ala., from whom he was divorced. In July 1924 he married Mrs. Thomas Turner, of High Point, who with the children by his first marriage survives him.

WORLD'S SERIES TO BE PLAYED OCT. 5th IN NAT. LEAGUE CITY

Chicago, Sept. 23.—(AP)—The first game of the world's series will be played on October 5th in the city whose club wins the National Baseball League pennant. It was decided here today at a conference among representatives of the leading club of the National and American Leagues and baseball commissioner K. M. Landis.

PUZZLE BABY GIVEN HOME

Judge Weygant at Cleveland Rules Baby is Property of Mr. and Mrs. Smith.

Cleveland, Sept. 23.—(AP)—All smiles and dimples, the month-old baby girl that Mr. and Mrs. Sam Smith brought to their home last night kicked vigorously at the sides of her crib today and waited patiently for her parents to give her a name.

The doubt that clouded her identity was dispelled legally by Common Pleas Judge Carl V. Weygant yesterday, but it still existed in the minds of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Smith when they went home with the infant in their care.

Judge Weygant dismissed the habeas corpus action by which the Smiths hoped to compel officials of Fairview Park Hospital to give them back their son "George."

When Judge Weygant decided that the infant girl was hers, Mrs. Smith became hysterical and wept bitterly as though she had hoped the judge would surely find her boy somewhere and return him to her. Scores of fathers and mothers in the courtroom, wiping tears from their eyes, offered their sympathy to the heartbroken woman. Some of them offered to take the baby girl and care for her.

Mrs. Smith became composed and with her husband went to the hospital to get the disputed child.

When they arrived home Mrs. Smith nursed the baby, procured another blanket and put her to sleep in the little crib. Her four other children stood around wide-eyed admiring and welcoming their new sister.

TUNNEY-DEMPSEY FIGHT NETTED $2,658,660

Chicago, Sept. 23.—(AP)—The receipts of the Tunney-Dempsey fight were $2,658,660 the record gate of pugilism, Promoter Tex Rickard announced today.

The gate was $763,660 more than the battle of the Sesqui at Philadelphia last year when Tunney and Dempsey fought for the first time.

Rickard's famous poker face was wreathed in smiles today when the check-up revealed the staggering gate receipts. It was his greatest triumph financially and competitively. The receipts topped the Dempsey-Carpentier gate by $1,032,080 and the Firpo battle by $1,576,670.

38 COPS ARE SUSPENDED AT MEMPHIS, TENN

Memphis, Tenn., Sept. 23.—(AP)—A little green book, the day-by-day record of expenditures of an alleged ring of bootleggers, today by its disclosures had struck deep in the ranks of the Memphis police force and caused the suspension of 38 men many of them high ranking officials of the department.

The city's detective bureau, noted for its enviable record was in confusion following the removal of a deputy inspector, the chiefs of the homicide and the narcotic divisions, two lieutenants, seven sergeants and two detectives. Other departments of the force also had suffered losses.

The names of all the men suspended, according to Police Commissioner Thomas H. Allen, were found in the "pay off" book, with various sums noted against each.

The book was found in April during a raid by Federal officers on the grocery store and alleged bootlegging establishment of John Bellomoni. Its starting contents were not published nor was any action taken against the men named in it at that time.

But working in close co-operation Memphis officials and agents of the Department of Justice ran down one by one the clues it offered. In New York, in Chicago and in the State penitentiary at Nashville, officers went to question men who they believed to have been connected with the Bellomoni ring. Two men were traced to Italy and efforts are to be made to have them returned.

Alan McNamara, notorious underworld character and confessed partner of Bellomoni was pardoned from a long prison term in order that authorities might secure his testimony and evidence against the police officers named in the little book.

The suspended men are charged with "conduct unbecoming an officer, incompetence and inefficiency." They are not charged with bribetaking, as the whole matter is to be presented to a Federal Grand Jury which is to convene October 3.

Bellomoni is out on bond on charges of conspiracy to violate the prohibition law. Joe Rinaldi, "bookkeeper" for Bellomoni, two negroes, McNamara and John Bocchini, the latter found in Chicago, were all arrested and have "talked."

Dino Chiochetti and Narso Vannucci, alleged partners of Bellomoni had disappeared and were trailed to their homes in Italy by the Department of Justice. Their return will be sought.

Pending action of the Grand Jury a police board will look into the charges brought against the officers and will give those who choose an opportunity to clear themselves.

AMBASSADOR IS KILLED IN PLANE CRASH

German Representative to U. S., Three Passengers and Pilot Die Near Leipsic.

Berlin, Sept. 23.—(AP)—Baron Ago von Maltzan, ambassador to the United States, was killed today in an airplane crash between Leipzig and Nuremberg.

The ambassador, three passengers and the pilot were killed when their Lufthansa Plane D-585 enroute from Berlin to Munich crashed from some undetermined cause near Schleiz, Saxony.

Von Maltzan was just completing his holiday in Germany and intended to return to the United States early in October.

The others killed were an official of the German Federal Airways, a pupil of the Staken, School of Pilots, a traffic man of the Lufthansa Company and Pilot Charlett.

The only eye witness to be found was one who reported to the post-office at Schleiz that he saw one of the wings of the plane breaking and then the plane crashed to the ground.

That the wing of the plane crumpled is regarded as inconceivable in air circles here as the machine had been inspected and passed this morning prior to its departure.

The theory has been expressed that the accident may have been due to malicious interference by a third party. Lufthansa officials point out that Charlett has been a pilot since 1912 and flown 260,000 kilometers for the company without a mishap. The company also points out that both the pilot and mechanic have flown the Berlin-Munich constantly and are familiar with every section of the territory.

As the accident occurred in a district where there are no mountains the officials are quite mystified at a mishap to an airplane which has been in the service since May.

Baron von Maltzan was Germany's second ambassador to the United States since diplomatic relations were severed by the World War.

Many High Officials Involved in Disclosure of Records of Bootleg Ring.

Washington, Sept. 23.—(AP)—Baron Ago von Maltzan, German Ambassador to the United States, was considered one of the most brilliant foreign diplomats in the National Capital. He came to Washington on March 12, 1925, succeeding Dr. Otto Wiedfeldt.

Secretary Kellogg paid tribute to the ability of Baron von Maltzan in a statement issued at the State Department today.

Baron von Maltzan was one of Germany's most accomplished diplomats. He proved his ability in Washington as he had long since proved it in Berlin.

MAYOR DUVALL SENTENCED TO COUNTY PRISON

Indianapolis, Sept. 23.—(AP)—Found guilty of violating the corrupt practices act, fined $1,000 and sentenced to spend thirty days in the Marion County jail, Mayor John L. Duvall's status as a public official was a question of debate among attorneys here today.

A jury last night found the mayor guilty of having made a deal with William H. Armitage, a local politician, to let him name two members of the board of public works and the city civil engineer in exchange for $10,000 and his support at the polls in the 1925 election. The jury was out a little more than three hours.

The verdict carried with the added penalty that Duvall be barred from holding public office for four years from the date of the commission of the crime of which he was convicted November 2, 1925. It is on that point that local legal lights are in conflict some believing Duvall is ineligible to continue in office.

It's All Over Guess I'm Through Jack Tells Wife

Chicago, Sept. 23.—(AP)—Jack Dempsey went back to his wife early today without the "bacon" he promised to bring home.

"It's all right," said Estelle, when she had taken one good look. "I thought from the radio story you had been hurt."

"It's all over," Jack said. "I guess I am through fighting."

"What's the difference?" Estelle asked.

After the seventh round had failed to bring victory, Mrs. Dempsey, sitting by a radio in a North-side hotel, became hysterical and it was sometime before her champion could quiet her. In the last two rounds, when Jack was slowly but surely losing, Mrs. Dempsey began to weep, she threw herself on the bed and fainted at the announcement of Tunney's victory.

It did not take long, though, for her to recover her composure and by that time Jack had arrived, an hour later she was calm and smiling.

Two Firemen Killed Today At Columbus

Columbus, Miss., Sept. 23.—(AP)—J. P. Neeves and William Lagrone, firemen, were killed and R. E. Funk, chief of the Columbus fire department, was severely injured early today in a fire which destroyed the Farmers and Shippers Cotton Warehouse. The property damage was estimated at $150,000. Approximately 1,500 bales of cotton were destroyed.

A brick wall caved in upon the three as they entered the warehouse.

The fire had enveloped the building before it was discovered.

The building was partially covered by insurance but the cotton was not.

GERMAN FLIER TO RESUME TRIP SATURDAY

Democrates, However Prepared to Put Full Ticket in Field at December Session.

Washington, Sept. 23.—(AP)—Democratic leaders are not disposed to attempt to organize the Senate in December even if the republican majority of one is reduced to a minority of one by refusing the oath to Senators-elect Smith, of Illinois, and Vane, of Pennsylvania pending further investigation of their cases.

With the republicans having a normal majority, the minority leaders take the position that they should be permitted to organize the Senate and assume the responsibility for any action or lack of action on the major problems confronting the new congress.

Leaders of the majority are ready to put through their organization plans and to accept the responsibility during the coming presidential campaign for the record which the republican congress will be able to write between its assembly in December and its adjournment just before the political convention next June.

While willing to permit the republicans to organize if they can muster the necessary votes, the democrats are prepared to put a full ticket of senate officers in the field and the leaders say that with few exceptions the minority will support the slate. Should the republicans insurgents support any of the democratic candidates the republicans would be defeated.

Democratic leaders are positive in the declaration, however, that they will seek no agreements or understandings with the republican insurgents on this way or any other matter during the forthcoming session.

Four years ago, when the insurgents joined with the democrats and elected Senator Smith, of South Carolina, as chairman of the interstate Commerce Committee there were charges that the minority had entered into an agreement with the insurgents, but this is denied by the democrats.

Tobacco Market Running at Full Capacity Today

Yesterday's sales on the Greenville tobacco market were 856,218 pounds of tobacco for $111,129.84, an average of $128, according to official figures made public today by K. W. Cobb, board of trade secretary.

With sales beginning promptly at nine o'clock and continuing until five in the afternoon, the market was running at full capacity and indications were that everything will be cleared up today.

Coast Line To Give Direct Service Wilmington, Sept. 23.—(AP)—

The Atlantic Coast Line Railroad next Sunday will inaugurate direct service between Wilmington and Washington. The train will be known as the "Tar Heel."

GERMAN SIGNS ARBITRATION CLAUSES

Geneva, Sept. 23.—(AP)—Germany's signature has been affixed to the compulsory arbitration clause of the court of international justice. Foreign Minister Stresemann announced today.

Round By Round Story of Fight

Round One—Dempsey missed a left lunge, falling into a clinch. Jack piled in again with two left hooks to the ribs. In the clinch that followed he clipped Gene four times with a right on the back of the head. They sparred cautiously. Dempsey preferring to feint for openings while Tunney lived back. Gene snapped a left to Dempsey's chin and followed with a solid right smash to the chin. Jack fell into a clinch, taking another right to the head as he came in. Jack dropped a left on Tunney's body. Jack backed away while the champion followed him across the ring with a volley of left and right hooks to the head close to the ropes. Gene missed an overhand right as the bell sounded.

Round Two—Dempsey was fighting cautiously, apparently seeking to evade the disastrous first round at Philadelphia last fall. They came out boxing again and Gene shot a left and right to the chin. They were dancing, boxing high. Gene dropped an overhand right on Dempsey's chin after chasing him to a corner. Another right missed and Dempsey smashed a left to the body and three lefts to the chin before Tunney could tie him up. Hand high Jack dodged away from a right. There was little action as they sparred carefully in the center. Tunney's left was short, but Dempsey merely fell into a clinch. Gene missed two more lefts, while Jack clipped two short left hooks to the body. As Dempsey lunged low, Tunney missed again but managed to catch himself and flick two soft lefts to Jack's face as the round ended.

Round Three—Again they boxed carefully, slowly in the center of the ring. Dempsey apparently was trying to tantalize Tunney into leading and making an open fight of it. Tunney sneaked over a pretty left jab, but took half a dozen raps on the back of the neck. Gene took the offensive, driving Dempsey into the ropes, where Jack tied him tight. As they bobbed in the center, Tunney led, and fell into Dempsey's straight right smash to the body. Gene held, while Jack clouted both hands to the midsection. A right smash to the heart drove Tunney back. As they fiddled about Dempsey wove in close again to cuff the back of Tunney's head with his right and dig his left twice around to the champion's ribs.

Round Four—Dempsey took the offensive but Tunney's right cracked on his chin. Gene's left found the same mark. While Dempsey rapped two lefts to the body Gene complained that the blows were foul and fought Jack desperately as they fell against the ropes. Gene missed with a right and took another left hook to the body. Jack was leading again now, short lefts to the body, while Tunney counted just as lightly to the head. Tunney trying to nail Jack coming in, missed with both hands but saved himself by falling into a clinch. Two right smashes to the chin stung Dempsey. Gene lefted two more left hooks to the head and rapped Dempsey on the ropes. A right sent Dempsey reeling into a corner. A left hook nearly floored him. As Dempsey lay against the ropes stunned, Tunney missed with both hands and the bell killed his opportunity.

Round Five—Dempsey's handworked furiously on his during the intermission while Tunney's handlers yelled that the stimulants were unfair. Tunney missed a right and they fell into a clinch. Jack fell in close, pounding to the body, when Tunney over anxious missed again. Jack backed away now, falling into the ropes as Tunney took to the attack. When Jack tied him up they sparred out to the center of the ring. Dempsey bobbed out of three left jabs. He sent Tunney's head back with a stiff straight left. A right high on the temple shook Dempsey badly. The champion backed away, however, content to jab and wait. In another clinch, Jack rapped again on the back of Tunney's neck. Gene dug twice into Dempsey's body at the bell.

Round Six—They boxed carefully several rounds, before coming together for a flurry of body punches. The crowd yelled as Dempsey's right hand, "old iron Mike" smashed under Tunney's heart, but the champion came back ripping both hands to the chin. Dempsey, tiring, fell into a clinch after the blows. Bobbing in through a stiff left, Jack turned the champion half way around with a right hook to the head. Tunney came back strong. But two more left hooks and a straight right stung the champion. Missing a long left, Jack took a right under the heart, as they fell again into a clinch.

Round Seven—Dempsey's handlers pleaded with him to keep his chin down. As he came out bobbing, weaving under Tunney's right Jack slapped a soft right to the ribs. A volley of right and left hooks to the head floored Tunney for the count of nine. Dempsey wove on him as a wild cat as Gene pedaled backwards around the ring. Dempsey was in close with a smash to the body. Wobbly and dazed Tunney could only jump and flounder backwards. Dempsey cornered him at the ropes and smashed a left and right to the body. Gene came back weakly, jabbing a left to the head. Dempsey laughed and urged Gene to come in and fight. Losing his temper Jack smashed Tunney with left and right swings to the head. Gene badly dazed, grabbed Dempsey with both hands and still was holding on fiercely at the bell.

Round Nine—Tunney's retreating tactics, drew bores from the crowd between rounds. Jack grabbed the champion and smashed him half a dozen times on the back of the neck. They both had slowed up from the fierce pace. Tunney, standing in the center of the ring, held Jack off for a few moments with three straight left jabs, but Jack bore right to close quarters. Coming in Gene's right opened a cut over Dempsey's right eye. The champion went after the wound fiercely. Snapping out both hands high to the head Jack tried to bob but two solid bounced off his jaw. Dempsey was wobbly but as he cocked his right Gene ran away. The champion came back however, and rocked Jack again with swinging smashes to the head. Dempsey came to his corner a bit wobbly as the gong sounded.

Round Ten—They shook hands in the center of the ring. Jack floored Tunney again with a left and right to the chin. Gene was up before the time could start counting. Jack's right smashed into Gene's head again and the water from Jack's hair splashed over the ringside writers. Jack, the tiger again, whaled in with both hands, but Tunney tied up in a clinch. They paused, and as Dempsey dropped his hands Tunney whipped a left and right hook into the Manassa mauler's face. Gene came into the attack, flipping both hands to the head, while Dempsey appeared to tire. Gene laid him on the ropes, but the champion's two handed attack was a bit wild. Dempsey dug several rights to the body. Gene countered with a left eye. Badly staggered Dempsey wobbled about the ring as the bell sounded.

CARDS TAKE SECOND PLACE IN NATIONAL

(By The Associated Press)
The St. Louis Cardinals were back in second place today in the National League pennant scramble, their six-five victory over the Boston Braves yesterday having enabled them to gain ground on both Pittsburgh and the New York Giants, who split a double-header.

Ray Kremer pitched the Pirates to a 5-2 victory in the first game with New York while Larry Benton was being pounded from the box. Viv Aldridge, a world's series hero, against Washington two years ago was blasted.

Out of the second game in the first inning, Rogers Hornsby's second home-run of the double-header touching off the fireworks in New York's seven to one verdict.

The Cardinals rallied for two runs in the ninth to trim Boston. The world's champions are now three games behind Pittsburgh and a half game ahead of the Giants.

Cincinnati took both ends of a doubleheader with Brooklyn 2-1 and 4-2. The first game went 12 innings. Luque and Donohue batted ed Petty and Ehrhardt.

Charlie Root turned in his 26th victory of the year at the expense of Philadelphia 8-4, the Chicagoans took advantage of Prutt's wildness. Hack Wilson smashed his 28th homer and tied Cy Williams for the leadership of the National League. Babe Ruth's home run in the ninth, with Koenig on base gave the Yanks a 8-7 decision over Detroit. It was the Bambino's 56th circuit clout.

Walter Johnson was hit hard by the St. Louis Browns but he was succeeded by Burke and Braxton who stopped the attack while Washington pulled out a 10-7 win.

The Philadelphia Athletics took a doubleheader from Cleveland, 4-3 and 5-2.

Chicago's White Sox lost their 12th straight, Boston nosing out a victory in the tenth when Carlyle singled home Myer for the winning run. The final count was 2-1.

ENTERTAINS BRIDGE CLUB IN HONOR OF MISS JONES

Yesterday at her home on Evans street, Miss Hennie Whichard entertained her bridge club and a few friends in honor of her house guest Miss Elizabeth Jones, of Tampa, Florida. Quantities of wild asters, zinnias and yellow dahlias were used for decorations.

Top score for the club was made by Mrs. L. H. Bowling, who was given a tea pot, and for the visitors by Mrs. F. J. Forbes, who was given a desk set. Miss Jones, the honoree, and Mrs. John Carroll, of Winterville, were remembered with gifts. Mrs. Carroll was also winner of the consolation.

Following the game, Mrs. S. L. Bridgers and Mrs. F. R. Elmore assisted in serving a salad course.

Bite yourself an Alphabet

My dear, pretzeleering is so educational

Really, you know, this younger generation is SUCH a problem. Why Junior just simply COULDN'T learn his letters until we PRETZELIZED him. Showed him how to BITE his alphabet. Simply MARVELOUS the progress he's making. You should SEE him spell out:

Juniors bite them. Then they eat them. There's no age limit for pretzeleering, particularly if you bite things out of O-So-Guds, made by Uneeda Bakers.

They're crispy, and crunchy, and salty. They're good to eat and good for all who eat them.

Try O-So-Guds with soup, with salad, with cheese. Serve them with tea and iced drinks. Have them handy for between-meal nibbling.

The up-and-coming grocer in your neighborhood has plenty of pretzels made by Uneeda Bakers. Ask him.

Mr. Farmer, are you bringing your tobacco to town and carrying back in its place a load of hay and provisions? If you are, you are just swapping dollars and fooling yourself into believing that you are getting along. Not until the farmers learn to live at home, by raising their necessary supplies, can they hope to get on the road to financial independence. Now is a good time to decide that next year you will adopt just such a policy.

Resignation of Secretary Jardine, as the official responsible for the recent drop in cotton, has been demanded by Representative Wilson, of Mississippi. Mr. Wilson might be right so far as he goes, but the real trouble as we see it is that the United States Government permits speculative dealing in futures. A federal law prohibiting this legalized form of gambling is no doubt the best way to stabilize prices. Even the law of supply and demand will not bring the farmer a fair price for his cotton just so long as he is in the hands and at the mercy of the gamblers.

Now that the big fight is over and the fans have had a day for post mortems, attention tomorrow will shift to the opening of a new football season. This will be followed shortly by the World Series and then the Thanksgiving football, basket ball, and early in the spring, the beginning of

About Town

"State game laws must be enforced," emphatically declared S. M. Jones, of Bethel, county game warden who was in Greenville yesterday, assisting in the prosecution of three persons charged with the violation of the game laws in this county.

"There is only one way to stop hunting out of season," Mr. Jones continued, and that is to convince the public that State laws regulating this sport will be enforced.

"Ignorance of the game laws is responsible for some of our most flagrant violations. But the time has come when not even ignorance may be excused. Preservation of our game is one of the most important problems of the moment, and unless drastic action is taken this will be impossible in the course of a few more years.

"Every hunter must be licensed this year. In other words, he must obtain a badge from a clerk of superior court, giving him authority to hunt in the county or other parts of the State. Those who fail to comply with this law will be prosecuted just like the man guilty of shooting game out of the season."

The Reflector office was a scene of most intense excitement last night while reports of the Dempsey-Tunney fight were being received. And, of course, there were all kinds of opinions expressed as to another baseball season, and possibly talk of another championship bout. The fans have no trouble finding something to occupy their minds and cause them to eagerly scan the sport pages daily.

the outcome of the fight. Some favored Dempsey because he was said to be in the best physical trim in years. Others sided with Tunney because he was credited with being one of the cleanest fighters in the ring. But decide as they would, none had the slightest idea how the battle would end until the final blow had been struck.

The crowd gathered in front of the office was quiet and orderly. Good humor prevailed everywhere. Little men posted their more Herculean brothers good naturedly, and offered to bet most anything, although, to their credit, they never did get up enough nerve to put out any cash.

But the real merriment started when a certain deacon of the Methodist church met with a pillar of the Baptist church.

Said the deacon of the Methodist church to the pillar of the Baptist church:

"I have one penny that Dempsey wins."

The pillar of the Baptist church conducted an exploratory examination of his pockets and produced four shining pennies.

"Four to one on Tunney," "You're on!" shouted the deacon. The crowd roared.

Whether or not they realized it, these two gentlemen established a record for the fight.

Four to one on Tunney outshone any wager the world of sport so far has been able to produce.

"Billy Sunday is one of the greatest preachers of this generation. That he will prove one of the best drawing cards the city has ever had goes without saying. He will bring people here who wouldn't come once a year under ordinary circumstances, and while they are here, it may be many of them will find their way to real service in the church."

"Greenville and this section should undergo a real spiritual revival under the leadership of this great evangelist. His coming should prove a blessing to the community."

You are sure of their return.

Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON
 New York, Sept. 23.—(AP)—The Census Bureau report showing 3,905,582 bales of cotton ginned prior to Sept. 16, compared with 3,506,103 last year, apparently below expectations, was followed by a quick advance of approximately a cent a pound in the cotton market today.
 The higher levels, however, seemed to attract realizing or southern selling and part of the advance was lost in later trading. The mid-afternoon market was quiet, with the native months about 33 to 36 points net higher.

GRAIN
 Chicago, Sept. 23.—(AP)—Report of severe drought throughout the greater part of Australia did a good deal to make wheat prices average higher today. Selling, however, headed by houses with northwest connections eased the market at the last. Failure of frost to develop brought about general selling of corn.
 Wheat closed firm 7-8 to 1 3/4 net higher; corn 3-8 to 1 off; oat 1/4 to 1/2 decline to an equal advance and provisions varying from 15 cent back to a rise of 25 cents.

ence the price movement, although the jump of $5 a bale in cotton futures on publication of the government's ginning report had a bullish effect on sentiment.
 Speculative activity centered largely in the motors. Nash was bid up to a new high for the year on buying presumably influenced by the declaration of an extra dividend of 50 cents. General Motors and some of the other dividend paying shares of that group were well supported, but Pitney Bowes preferred sank 2 points to a low for the year at 41. General Motors new stock was traded in on a regular basis for the first time. Retention of the 4 per cent call money rate over the week-end was expected in view of the increase in brokers' loans which, incidentally was smaller than Wall Street had looked for, because of the heavy financing incidental to the conversion of General Motors stocks.
 The closing was strong. Total sales approximated 1,600,000 shares.

SELL YOUR TOBACCO IN GREENVILLE WITH

McGOWAN & CANNON

The Leaders in Prices

We have had this week several hundred new satisfied customers which say that we are having the best sales in Greenville. We sold over one million pounds of tobacco in 4 sale days, which is more pounds than has ever been sold on one warehouse in the history of the Greenville tobacco market. We paid the Farmers last season $10,300.00 per million above the market average. There is a reason why we lead. We would advise the Farmers to keep their primings home for a while and sell their tips now, as we think the luggy grades will be better later. We have had several customers to average 45 cts. for their entire loads. If you are not selling with us, come around and watch our sales and we will convince you that we sell it higher. Bring us your next load and we will please you.

First Sale Mon., Sept 26th; First Sale Wed., Sept. 28th; First Second Sale Thurs., Sept. 29th; 1st Sale Fri., Sept. 30th.

Why? Mr. Morrow is able, intelligent, has made his own career. No Senator can question his honesty. He was Mr. Coolidge's classmate at Amherst, and his nomination is based on long acquaintance.

No one objected when President Harding selected Mr. Mellon, whom Harding described to this writer before he appointed him as "the second richest man in the world." It was fortunate that "the second richest man in the world" was willing to look after Uncle Sam's finances.

Mr. Morrow, who has resigned from the firm of J. Pierpont Morgan and Company—a step not at all necessary—is well fitted for the work that the President gives him. He understands finance, international relationships, and this country is interested in Mexico's prosperity, success and friendship.

On all sides evidences of increased business activity, says Mr. Hoover, Secretary of Commerce. The business barometer "indicates prevailing, gratifying prosperity."

Ten-cent stores, important as evidence, gain of 11 per cent in 1927 against the first eight months of 1926. Nothing to worry those that attend to business, refrain from gambling, sleep regularly, breathe deeply, avoid bootleggers and "cultivate a disposition to be pleased."

In little Rolio's day, a good boy would stoop to pick up a pin. The rich, observant banker would notice him, employ him marry him to his daughter, leave him his fortune. Economy was the watchword. Modern James McStowe, of Canton, Ohio, says it is an exploded watchword. In Chicago he picked up a dime from the floor and as he stooped, someone stole his pocketbook with $800. His motto reads: "Look after your $800. The dimes will look after themselves.

The American Legion in Paris yesterday adopted the report of its national defense committee, demanding establishment of a national air force as a separate department, with an "air force secretary" in the cabinet, Common sense.

The man that had employed a coachman got a chauffeur when the automobile came in. Intelligent nations will add to their secretary of war, secretary of the navy—a secretary of the air, now that flying machines have come.

Young William B. Leeds, son of the "Tin Plate King" started his Fokker three-motored engine flying machine for Chicago yesterday with six passengers and a relief pilot. They were to stop at Cleveland last night, then on to Chicago. Young men with money can promote flying to this day as W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr. and other young men with money promoted motoring 25 years ago.

SMITH & SUGG MARKET REPORT

Imperial and Export began Wednesday buying much larger per cent of the sales, resulting in strengthening of prices. Our market is getting in better condition, and we believe prices are going to be much stronger. We again urge gradual marketing. Farmers from practically every county in Eastern Carolina have sold on our floor during this week. Those in position to absolutely know say we are highest market in bright belt. The official reports show we are higher than the other markets.
