SCHOOL BOND ELECTION TO BE TOMORROW

Voters Urged to Get Busy and Vote in $100,000 School Improvement Issue.

The $100,000 bond election for improvement of Greenville schools will be held tomorrow. Polls will open at the courthouse promptly at sunrise, and close at sundown. The closing of registration books several days ago showed that 670 voters had registered for the election.

Supporters of the issue were today busily engaged in last minute efforts to convince the citizenship of the necessity of casting a favorable vote. The funds to be derived from the election are to be used in the construction of a new high school building wrecked by fire last spring and improvement to other schools. "The need for improvement of the schools was never more urgent," members of the school board said today. "Numbers of children have to roam the streets between classes because there is not sufficient room in the schools to accommodate them." "This is the most deplorable condition that has ever prevailed in this city," it was declared, "hence it is most imperative that funds be provided to improve the situation."

Three hundred and sixteen votes in favor of the bonds will be necessary to carry the election, therefore it is imperative for those having the future of the schools at heart to put in their appearance at the polls and vote. To remain away and not vote counts against the issue.

TRY TO SELL BOY FOR $100

Mother of 13-year old youth Offers to Dispose of Child to Showman.

Charged with complicity in an attempt to sell her 13-year old son into bondage, Mrs. Rosa Pillingame of Craven county, was being held in custody by local police today while members of the Public Welfare Department continued investigating the affair. Louis Wayne of Vanceboro, is also being held in connection with the case, as it was he who attempted to perfect the transaction. The amount asked for the child according to those who claim to have overheard the bargain, was $100.00.

The attempted sale occurred at the site of the small shop in the rear of the National Bank building on Five Points. Wayne is alleged to have approached the showman with the proposition, while the mother of the boy stood by and was silent assent.

Someone notified the police of what was taking place, and the three were immediately taken into custody and held while members of the Welfare Department investigated and determined upon what action should be taken. Not since the days of slavery, when human life was exchanged in different rase were exchanged in commerce, has such a case been brought to the attention of public officials. Numbers of people thronged the police station during the morning hours looking at the boy whose mother had offered to place him on the auction block.

The case has aroused considerable comment and its outcome will be followed with interest, especially should it be carried to the higher courts.

NUNS EJECTED FROM CONVENT IN MEXICO

San Francisco, Oct. 10.—(AP)—Fifteen Carmelite Nuns today were resting in virtual exile here after fleeing Mexico. They reported having been ejected from their convent in December, 1924. Father Dennis J. Kavanagh arranged a refuge for the nuns after a meeting of three of them wandering in Mexico. Temporary quarters have been found for them in a convent here.

'King of Bootleggers'

George Remus, Cincinnati, Ohio, called "King of Bootleggers," is alleged to have shot his wife and ended her romance with another man. The shooting took place in the presence of their daughter Ruth.

GEORGE REMUS TO TELL JURY OF HIS LIFE

Bootlegger King to Take Chair in Trial For Slaying of His Wife, Imogene.

Cincinnati, Oct. 10.—(AP)—George Remus was ready to bare his varicolored history when state attorneys prepared to ask his life for that of his wife, Imogene. The former multi-millionaire bootlegger king announced he had arranged his facts and that he would present the whole story of his married life "to show the jury just what tortures have gone through. Other events in his career also would be related, Remus said. A new grand jury was scheduled to be impaneled in Judge Chester Shooks common pleas court. As soon as organized, Charles P. Taft county prosecutor, announced he would call Remus and other witnesses before it. Remus said that he would subpoena witnesses from New York, Chicago, Cleveland, St. Louis, Atlanta and other cities. One avenue of escape from the murder charge is still open to Remus. That is the report of Dr. W. C. Kending, county alienist, who examined Remus Thursday a few hours after he had shot his wife to death.

Says South Will Surrender Great Principals Soon

Raleigh, Oct. 10.—(AP)—Before the next general election the politicians of the South will "surrender" two great principles that the South has believed in for years, Dr. E. R. McCauley predicts. Delivering his sermon Sunday at the Holy Trinity Lutheran church, Dr. McCauley drew a figure of the South running before an Arabian chariot, and although he did not explicitly say, apparently intended protestantism and prohibition for the two unnamed principles. "The political history of our country," he said, "shows many instances where it has not always been a matter of truth and righteousness but rather one of political expediency. Too many men have bragged in their home town what they were going to do as legislators but before they got in sight of the assembly halls they have been running before the chief executive's chariot, becoming subservient to the bloc."

WEATHER STILL HOLDS JUNKERS PLANE AT AZORES

Lisbon, Oct. 10.—(AP)—Unfavorable weather conditions today continued to hold the Junkers plane which is enroute to the United States by way of the Azores, from hopping off for the Azores. The plane, aboard which Lilli Dilenz, Viennese actress, is a passenger, reached Lisbon last week from Amsterdam.

STAGE IS SET FOR OPENING COUNTY FAIR

Ninth Annual Attraction to Get Under Way in This City Tomorrow Morning.

The stage is all set for the opening of the ninth annual Pitt County fair here tomorrow morning, according to announcement made this morning by Secretary Haywood Dall.

It was stated that virtually all of the attractions to hold sway on midway had arrived and would have their city tents fully erected when the gate swings open for the thousands to attend the greatest fair in the history of the county.

Agriculture will be one of the preeminent features at the fair this year. Hundreds of exhibits, representing every branch of farm life as it pertains to this immediate territory, will be on display during the four days the fair is in progress, and those who are not familiar with the greatness of Pitt County in the world of agriculture will have ample opportunity of becoming acquainted.

School children will be admitted free tomorrow, Mr. Dall stated this morning. Hundreds are expected from all sections of the county, and numbers of them will have opportunity of seeing their own schools represented in the educational exhibits. Considerable attention has been given to this department by members of the county department of education and it is expected the showing will surpass anything in recent years.

Some of the fastest horses ever appearing in this part of the county will be seen in action during the afternoon races. Many of the animals have been in service on Northern racing circuits, and have enviable records to their credit.

Feature acts will be presented in front of the grandstand each afternoon during the race program. There will also be a number of feature acts during night performances. Victor's Victorians, under the direction of Michael T. Victor, will offer the musical program at the fair. This talented organization comes to Greenville after a successful tour of the South where they have been a feature at State and county fairs.

The Victorians are well known for their fine programs of diversified musical selections. The band presents all the current hits from the latest New York musical plays, and the fair patrons may rest assured that the peppiest of the latest dance times as well as known standard numbers are foremost in Mr. Victor's repertoire, and such pieces as may be requested shall gladly be played.

With the Victorians, Mr. Victor presents Miss Bettye Bodie as soloist. Miss Bodie recently completed an extensive engagement as radio soloist with station WJAX at Jacksonville, Florida, and comes to Greenville directly from the Winston-Salem fair where she was the outstanding feature of the musical program. Miss Bodie has a voice of rare charm and great flexibility. These features, coupled with her alluring personality, mark her as one of the most popular outdoor singers of the day.

Merrill Winslow who had made a name for himself as premier drummer and xylophone player, will appear on the program in two or three numbers. John Sweet, cornetist, and Andrew Marin euphonium artists, will also present interesting numbers. There are plenty more features in connection with the musical program. These will be presented daily in the bandstand of the grandstand while the races are in progress.

Crowder Trial Resumed Today

Henderson, Oct. 10.—(AP)—Trial of R. B. Crowder, charged with embezzlement in connection with failure of the Farmers and Merchants Bank of Henderson in April, 1924, was resumed today. A number of witness were ready to be called following the questioning of Mrs. W. R. Kearney, court stenographer, by Solicitor Hunt Parker. Mrs. Kearney read into the record certain testimony given in Crowder's first trial. The Supreme Court reversed the first trial which resulted in Crowder's conviction on technical grounds.

TODAY

Another Great City Woman's Will Uneducated Lucoocytes Gruesomely Effective (By Arthur Brisbane) Copyright 1927, by Star Co.

You may soon see another "great city in America." Energetic business men of Oakland and San Francisco on opposite side of the Bay consider and discuss earnestly a combination of Oakland and San Francisco into one great city, to take in, by amicable negotiations, other important communities with a short radius of the centre of the bay, midway between San Francisco and Oakland.

Some local ambitions and competitions, NOT local jealousies, are to be overcome. When that is done, and a suitable name for the great city selected, the fourth city in the United States in population, will be "greater San Francisco-Oakland," with 1,600,000 inhabitants. That would be a blessing for Detroit and Los Angeles now running neck and neck, giving them a useful pacemaker, something to shoot at.

Mr. Ansell, secretary of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, immediately wishes you to know that if any such step is taken in San Francisco and Oakland, Los Angeles will spread out and take in a population amounting to 2,200,000, which seems to be a very exact figure.

In the old days when women struggled for the vote, and men of braver type opposed them, you were told "women lack the qualities of men, especially his dogged determination."

Now Mercedes Oelitz, young British typewriter girl, swims the English channel, after failing in seven attempts. How many men would show more dogged determination with which such young women go on hammering away at their typewriting machines month after month, year after year, patiently correcting the mistakes of men that employ them, enduring ill temper and bad manners.

A "strange malady" attacks natives of Unalaska, a small native settlement on the Alaska coast. The 700 inhabitants may be wiped out before they can reach them.

LOCAL WOMEN ARE HONORED

Elected to Offices in North Carolina Branch of King's Daughters.

At the state convention of the North Carolina branch of the King's Daughters, held at Henderson, October 6 to 9, Mrs. Hortense F. Moye, of Greenville, was unanimously elected president of the North Carolina branch. There were 154 ballots cast by the entire convention and Mrs. Moye received every single ballot. Mrs. Moye has long been an active member and for several terms the president of the Patient Circle of the King's Daughters of Greenville and her deep interest in and her service to this great order, has been recognized throughout the state at large, culminating in her election to the highest office in the North Carolina branch of the international order. This comes as quite a compliment to the Patient Circle of this city, as well as a very deserving distinction to herself and family. Mrs. Moye is much beloved and held in high esteem by the people of her town and possesses all of the qualities and accomplishments necessary for a state office of this kind. Her ability, energy and wise counsel will lead the North Carolina branch of the King's Daughters into larger fields of usefulness during her administration and Greenville appreciates the recognition of Mrs. Moye's fine qualities by the convention, recently held in Henderson.

Mrs. Ada Cherry, also of this city was unanimously re-elected state chaplain. Mrs. Cherry has held this office for a number of years, and is one of the most interested and active members of the Patient Circle of the King's Daughters.

ASSASSINS OF JUGO SLAVIAN KILLED TODAY

Three Alleged Slay-ers of General Kovachevitch Run to Earth, Two Killed.

Belgrade, Jugo-Slavia, Oct. 10.—(AP)—Run to earth in a cave on Mount Malche, two of the alleged assassins of the Jugo-Slav Brigadier General Michael Kovachevitch have been killed and a third captured.

The man took refuge in the cave when pursued by the local militia. An all night siege ensued, many shots being exchanged. This morning the militia rushed the cave and found two of their quarry dead, the third man was taken to Istip, where General Kovachevitch was assassinated last week.

The killing of the Jugo-Slavian general was charged against Macedonian Comitadjis, or irregulars. The Belgrade government made strong representations to Bulgaria regarding this and other crimes attributed to terrorists from over the border.

The times were allegedly committed with the object of stirring up trouble between the two countries.

London, Oct. 10.—(AP)—Considerable concern is felt here over the tense situation between Jugo-Slavia and Bulgaria which has arisen in consequence of the raids over the border and the assassination of General Kovachevitch, charged to Bulgarian Comitadjis. He persists, however, that an amicable arrangement will soon be reached.

Paris, Oct. 10.—(AP)—A detachment of Greek gendarmes fought for more than an hour last night with a band of Bulgarian comitadjis near the village of Gornitsova in the region of Florina, says a Havas dispatch from Saloniki.

The dispatch says that the Bulgarian comitadjis finally retired across the Bulgarian frontier leaving two dead whose bodies were placed on public view in Florina. The comitadjis were believed to have crossed into Greek territory by way of Jugo-Slavia.

NINE DEATHS REPORTED IN THIS STATE

Two Out of Total Number Killed Over Week End Victims of Auto Wrecks.

Raleigh, Oct. 10.—(AP)—Only two out of nine persons reported as having died violently over the week-end in North Carolina, were victims of automobiles.

Both of the victims were pedestrians who were struck by moving machines. Three persons took their own lives over the week-end and two of the deaths were the result of a gasoline explosion earlier in the week.

The Death list is as follows: Peter Lentz and wife, Salisbury. The theory is that Lentz in a fit of insanity shot his wife and then himself.

Dr. T. C. Wallen, retired army surgeon, of Asheboro, Dr. Wallen was run over and killed. J. C. Bundy, Elizabeth City textile worker, Bundy killed himself in a moment of despondency.

Lena Cross, of Boone. This four-year-old child died after having been stung on the hand by a yellow-jacket.

Lawrence Garden and George Rose, Jr., of Tarboro, died Saturday after having been injured earlier in the week in a gasoline explosion. Their deaths brought the total death list from this accident to four. John Dewitt, Wilmington, superintendent of the mails of the Atlantic Coast Line, committed suicide. The seven-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Keefer, of Morganton, was run over by an automobile and killed.

Bridges Declares Citizens And The Trial Judge Sought Parole For Two Brooks Boys

The Reflector is in receipt of a letter from State Pardon Commissioner Edwin Bridges in which he explains the grounds for the parole issued last week to H. F. and T. L. Brooks of this county, who early this year were sentenced to serve six months for violation of the prohibition laws.

The letter was in reply to a recent editorial in this paper in which surprise at the parole was expressed and an explanation as to how same came about unknown to the majority of Pitt County's citizens was asked.

Mr. Bridges declares that the parole was granted upon the request of Judge E. H. Cranmer, the trial judge, supported by a petition of a hundred prominent citizens and new found evidence that caused considerable doubt as to the guilt of the two Brooks boys. He further states that in the rush of business in his office the filing of formal notice that the parole was being sought was overlooked by him, hence the citizens were unaware that steps to gain the parole were being taken.

Mr. Bridges letter follows: Editor Daily Reflector, Greenville, N. C. Dear Sir:

I have recently had an editorial written by your paper brought to my attention and after reading same I feel that it is only fair that I should advise you as to the reasons that the parole of J. P. and T. L. Brooks was granted.

We received a petition signed by more than one hundred citizens of your community together with a recommendation from the trial judge, Hon. E. H. Cranmer, to prosecute and convict and it is the duty of the judge and the responsibility of the judge to mete out punishment. It is the policy of this office to try to correct a form of punishment or sentence, where the judge desires same to be corrected, as we feel that the only means by which a judge can reconsider a sentence of punishment and have same corrected is through this office.

This matter was brought before me by Mr. Frank M. Wooten, who came not as an attorney but as a friend, and made no charge for his work in the matter. I told him at that time if he could furnish me with a letter from Judge Cranmer in which Judge Cranmer asked that the Brooks prisoners be paroled that the same would be granted. I have always found Judge Cranmer exceedingly careful in any requests that he makes through this office for a parole and I have the utmost confidence in his careful consideration of all facts which may develop after the trial which would influence him in asking to having a parole granted.

I also, upon investigation, found that there was a great deal of doubt, as the result of newly discovered evidence after the trial, as to the guilt of these two prisoners. They have lived in their community for a number of years and had good reputations. This was their first offense. I talked to both of them and was impressed with the fact they did not bear the appearance of criminals and I am always reluctant to see one branded as a criminal for the first time.

Taking all of the facts into consideration, especially the fact that the presiding judge, whose sole responsibility in the quantum of punishment, desired to modify or change his sentence, the parole was granted.

Of course, if these young men do not live up to the trust that has been placed in them by the State their paroles can be revoked at any time. I might further state that notice of application for parole was not filed. This was probably due to carelessness on my part and I deserve criticism for failure to notice that this application was not applied for through the papers. However, we consider on an average of thirty to thirty-five applications per day and I have many other duties besides those of considering applications for pardons and paroles.

In this particular case, however, I feel that in view of the letter from the trial judge, the careful investigation made by the sheriff and the petition signed by more than one hundred prominent citizens of your community that the parole should have been granted.

Yours very truly, Edwin Bridges, Commissioner of Pardons

GOVERNMENT WINS TEAPOT DOME ISSUE

Court Holds Sinclair's Lease Was Obtained Through Fraud And Corruption.

Washington, Oct. 10.—(AP)—The government won a complete victory today in the supreme court in its effort to have Harry F. Sinclair's lease of the Teapot Dome naval oil reserve in Wyoming cancelled.

The court, in a unanimous opinion delivered by associate justice Butler, held that Sinclair's lease and contract had been made by Albert B. Fall, while Secretary of the Interior, without authority of law and that fraud and corruption in the transaction had been proven by the evidence.

The decision ends the civil litigation over the naval oil reserve, growing out of the Senate's investigation. The government's victory today was as sweeping as it was in the Doherty case, which resulted in the cancellation of that oil magnate's lease of the Elk Hills naval reserve in California.

Fall, who is to go on trial next Monday with Sinclair on a criminal charge of conspiracy to defraud the government in connection with the leasing, was denounced in the lengthy opinion read by justice Butler as a "faithless public officer."

The effect of the decision was to affirm the decision of the eighth circuit court of appeals, rendered by Judge Kenyon, cancelling the Sinclair lease and contract on the ground of fraud and corruption.

The court held that the Sinclair lease and contract was a purchase and the Sinclair lease and contract was a purchase and the Sinclair lease and contract was a purchase and the Sinclair lease and contract was a purchase.

POLICE SEEK BOMB MAKERS IN NEW YORK

Believe Men Carried on Systematic Manufacture of Explosives in West Side.

New York, Oct. 10.—(AP)—New York's fourth bombing within four months, which killed five persons and injured 11 others, has left in the ruins of a west side tenement house evidence of what police called another bomb factory, similar to those repeatedly operated by five men now awaiting trial for the attempted wrecking of the supreme court building in Brooklyn on September 4.

The entire personnel of the bomb and homicide squads of the police department today was searching for two young men, who authorities believed carried on a systematic manufacture of explosives in a room of a west 35th street tenement destroyed in the latest blast Saturday.

A bomb found intact in the ruins of the building, police said, was identical in construction with one found in the interborough subway tunnel under the East river previous to the wrecking of two subway stations by bombs last July. The failure of the bomb to explode is believed to have saved the lives of many children in St. Mary's Free Hospital for children, adjoining the wrecked tenement house.

Andrew Covello, whose wife owns the property, said he had received threat from enemies yesterday. It is thought the bomb may have been exploded accidentally in the workshop of its makers. Two youths carried mysterious packages because they never sleep in the place and kept carefully to themselves.

Only one of the robberies have been directly reported to the department, Chief Jones said this morning, and police have been handicapped in their efforts to round up the thieves.

Citizens whose homes have been entered are urged to get in touch with the department, at once, so that investigations may be started. Chief Jones appealed citizens to observe every precaution to prevent break up of the epidemic of robberies. This may be done by closing of homes upon departure and the reporting of suspicious characters loitering in any particular locality. Among the homes entered, as reported to this office today, were those of Frank Harrington, Leon Smith, Felix Labaki and Mrs. Redd, an employe of Willard's store.

SAYS YANKEES ARE BEST CLUB OF ALL TIME

(By ALAN J. GOULD)
AP Sports Editor
New York, Oct. 10.—(AP)—Regardless of how much the Pirates contributed to the decisive world series victory of the Yankees, the result strengthened the claims of these experts who class the American League champions among the greatest teams of all times.

Even to staunch a National Leaguer as Wilbert Robinson, manager of the Brooklyn Robins, said before the series that he rated the Yankees a few notches above the famous old Baltimore Orioles or any other team in baseball history.

In Donie Bush's opinion, the Yankees are at least the best club that represented either league in the world's series since the war.

The big issue, among the American League teams looking toward next season is "How can the Yankees be stopped?"

They ran away with the race this year. The outcome virtually was assured in June and at the finish the Yankees had the overwhelming margin of 19 games over the second place Athletics, who had been picked before hand by a majority of experts to win the pennant.

The Athletics had some hard luck, perhaps, but their veteran pilot freely admitted late in the season that not even the benefit of all the breaks would have enabled his club to beat out the Yankees.

"I don't intend to give up trying to beat them," Connie remarked. "We will strengthen our club for 1928. I have a great pitching staff and am banking heavily on it. Our club showed almost as much hitting power as the Yankees, even though not of the long distance variety. We hope to make it close, anyway, next year."

Next year will be Mack's 28th at the helm of the Athletics, but he has no idea of quitting the game.

The Yanks, baseball men agree have everything and look capable as any club has of prolonging its stay at the peak. It is the ambition of Miller Huggins, dimwit manager, and the club owner, Col. Jacob Ruppert, to equal or surpass the record of the Giants of capturing four successive pennants.

Huggins has built up a brilliant combination of youth and experience. The three kid infielders—Koenig, Lazzeri and Gehrig—whom gained regular posts last year, have developed into as great a trio as any in either league. Gehrig has come along in sensational fashion at bat. He gave Ruth a hot race most of the season for home run leaders and may do even better next year. Joe Dugan, the veteran at third, may not last much longer, though he was up to his best defensive form in the world series.

Ruth, a marvelous athlete, at 33 has had one of his greatest seasons, breaking his own home run record with a mark of 60, one more than he registered in 1921 when he was a youthful 27. Bob Meusel, another durable veteran, and Ew Combs, a brilliant youngster, just reaching his prime, round out a great outfield.

The Yankees may need some strengthening behind the bat and a few pitching replacements but two newcomers have taken their places as stars this year. Wilc Moore and George Pipgras. They were among the year's outstanding pitching sensations. Each was tested in the world's series for the first time, and not found wanting. They will step into the places left by Shawkey and possibly Shocker and Reuther, who are well along toward the turning point of their careers.

Herb Penneck, in spite of his sensational three hit performance cannot stand as much work as he used to, but when in form there is still no greater southpaw in the business. Waite Hoyt, long on experience, but only 28 years old probably can be counted on for some years to come.

Huggins is looking ahead. He might very well stand pat for material for next season as any eighth place manager. His aim, like that of John McGraw's, is to have replacements ready the instant a gap occurs in the regular line. It is but one of the secrets of his success that he has been able to develop star young talent when veterans faded from the picture. Pipgras, Moore, Combs, Koenig, Lazzeri and Gehrig all are products of Huggins' tutorage.

Protect your family.

FOOTBALL

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 10.—(AP)—The Atlanta Athletic Club will lead the football battalions shift from Georgia to front line conflict with designated enemies of their own camp next week-end when V. P. I., Mississippi A. & M. and Kentucky array themselves respectively against Maryland, Tulane and Florida.

Two more teams still remain on more distant horizons and will face formidable intersectional foes before they take their turn in the list of battles that turns the final tide of conference championship. Washington and Lee dares the Princeton Tiger and Vanderbilt, fares forth to meet the Texas Long Horns before lining their potent threats against conference competition.

Events of the week just past served to heighten interest in the game which will be played in Atlanta between Georgia Tech and Alabama Tech, in beating Tulane, and in an attack of power that had not been altogether suspected, while Alabama, despite a total of 11 first downs to L. S. U.'s one, met a check from Mike Donahue's hussies.

Maryland will be attempting to avenge the sting of North Carolina's defeat when they tackle V. P. I., fresh from the intersectional triumph that has proved that team such worthy material for reflection in possible contenders.

L. S. U. will step from a so-called "moral victory" over Alabama to ace an Auburn team that will be using every ounce of its effort and energy to atone for the surprising whipping that Florida forced upon them.

North Carolina and South Carolina both leave victories behind to stage their coming struggle—the Tar Heels at the expense of Maryland, the Gamecocks charged to Virginia.

Tennessee victor in her only conference game, with North Carolina Aces Of Miss, who lost her only organization tilt to Tulane.

In addition to the intersectional ties of the Generals and the Commodores and while Sewanee is idle three other meet non-conference opposition: North Carolina vs Wake Forest (Friday) Clemson vs Erskine and Georgia vs Furman.

State College, Raleigh, Oct. 10.—(AP)—The stars of N. C. State College's football team today were nursing injuries received in Saturday's victory over Clemson, 18-0, Chink Outen, half, Hunsucker, back and Vaughn, guard. Whether they would be able to play in Thursday's annual game here with Wake Forest was doubtful.

Chapel Hill, Oct. 10.—(AP)—Whelan, quarterback, who made the one touchdown which gave the University of North Carolina its 7-6 victory Saturday over Maryland, and his gridiron partner were preparing for another hard battle today, the game with South Carolina at Columbia, Saturday. North Carolina won last year.

Davidson, Oct. 10.—(AP)—Davidson College, winner 12-2 over Wake Forest Saturday, turned its attention today to try to solve the attack which brought Elon its tie with the Deacons of Wake Forest. Elon plays here Saturday and Davidson is out to keep its triple chain of 1927 victories unbroken.

Durham, Oct. 10.—(AP)—Duke University's eleven, winner over Boston College but loser to Furman and to Washington and Lee, Saturday, 12 to 7, when Gene White, sick with acute indigestion, hunched from his hospital bed and pulled himself together long enough to make the winning touchdown, was given working out today for the invasion of Richmond University here Saturday.

Five Pouches of Mail Stolen
Los Angeles, Oct. 10.—(AP)—Five pouches of registered mail containing mostly checks amounting to more than $100,000, were stolen from Frank F. Wilmoth, Bank of Italy messenger, by two armed robbers today. The mail was being taken from the Hollywood branch to the bank headquarters here

TWO HURT IN WRECK HERE

Negro Women Probably Fatally Injured When Auto and Train Collided Sunday.

Minne Teel and Della Arthur, colored, received probably fatal injuries when an automobile in which they were riding collided with a west bound Norfolk-Southern passenger train yesterday afternoon about four o'clock on the outskirts of this city. Norman Arthur another occupant suffered injuries of a minor nature.

The accident occurred at the intersection of Evans street and the Norfolk-Southern railway. The occupants of the car, it was said today, could not see the approaching train because of a warehouse building. The car was completely wrecked by the force of the impact. The negroes were rushed to a hospital where they received medical aid, and it was not thought at the time that the two women would recover.

PORK BARREL NOW EMPTY

Indications That Congress Will Have Few Requests For Appropriations this Year.

Washington, Oct. 10.—(AP)—The "pork barrel," the popular characterization of federal appropriations for local or sectional projects sponsored each session by members of Congress, may be empty at the next Congress.

This has been indicated by view-mantling from the White House which represented President Coolidge as seeking both the reduction of the national public debt and of taxes and a strict adherence of Congress to economy in government administration.

The President, while he is represented as feeling the Mississippi flood problem and other related must be given a place in the government budget, is understood to consider that executive approval should be given only to such projects where their need is deemed imperative.

A program of $400,000,000 (tax reduction has been formulated by the United States Chamber of Commerce and is being distributed to its 1,500 member organizations for a referendum vote to determine its policy during the congressional deliberations on revenue legislation. The program calls for repeal of the federal estate tax and the war excise levies and reduction of the corporate income taxes. The government officials have placed the reduction estimate in the neighborhood of $300,000,000.

Mr. Coolidge feels that if the members of Congress watch expenditures carefully there can be a reduction of the taxes and a substantial cutting down of the debt despite the estimate from the treasury which placed the surplus for next year short of what it has been in the past.

The President also is said to feel that the greatest boon to the people would be the wiping out of the national debt and that if this was accomplished the interest now paid on the debt would satisfy every reasonable request for funds for internal improvements that is made in any one year.

COLDS THAT DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

First for Finer Flavor—No Throat Irritation—No Cough

11,105* doctors give written opinions.

"Roxy," a favorite in Radio-land, writes:

"During a strenuous rehearsal, with the work entailed in operating the World's Largest Theatre, where one's nervous system is working under great pressure, there is nothing quite like a 'Lucky Strike' cigarette. It does not impair the voice, and gives the mental relaxation so essential to carry on."

WHAT is the quality that Giuseppe Danise, Queena Mario, Adam Didur, Antonio Cortis, Nanette Guilford, Wilton Lackaye, Lenore Ulric, "Roxy," and other famous singers, actors, broadcasters and public speakers have found that makes LUCKY STRIKES delightful and of no possible injury to their voices?

For the answer we turned to medical men and asked them this question:

Do you think from your experience with LUCKY STRIKE cigarettes that they are less irritating to sensitive or tender throats than other cigarettes, whatever the reason?

11,105* doctors answered this question "YES."

Consider what these figures mean; consider that they represent the opinion and experience of doctors, those whose business it is to know.

News from Mexico, most gruesome, indicates that somebody is determined to end the series of revolutions. One candidate for the presidency, opposing the government candidate, was arrested and shot. No loss of time.

Alfonso De La Huerta, brother of a former president of Mexico, is shot down, and his body riddled with bullets, exhibited in the public square, tied to a tree with a bloody rope, labeled, "Another Rebel General."

It is not pleasant work, but it will discourage revolution.

Europe may soon "enjoy" another war in the Balkans. Borders between Jugoslavia and Bulgaria are closed, and soldiers hurry to the frontiers. That is the usual preliminary of war.

To set up new nations, artificially, is as easy as setting up handsome dummies in front of a clothing store, but it is not so easy to keep them standing.

The League of Nations could easily bully the little Balkan countries into fairly decent behavior. But France, Italy, England, have different Balkan interests and may not agree on the same plan for coercion.

About Town

We never knew that an elephant bore the slightest resemblance to a mouse until we read about it in John Robinson's essay contest conducted through the columns of this paper several days ago.
 And it was left to Herbert Register, a pupil of Greenville public schools, to call this matter to our attention.
 "Young Register was one of the twenty five awarded free tickets to the circus, and his originality of expression caused us to believe the judges did wisely by deciding in his favor.
 "The elephant reminds me very much of a mouse," read the first sentence of the young literary genius' manuscript. "Did you ever stop to think of the resemblance? They favor as though they belong to the same family and so far as I know they might."
 "A strange thing about the elephant is that he has two tails, whereas the mouse has only one. Most people call the front tail of the elephant a trunk, then the rear tail must be a vanity case."
 "The elephant's pants are long and broad at the bottom exposing only the toes. His ears take the place of costly 'fly swatters.'
 Since the mouse is not so fortunate as to possess either a trunk or a vanity case, cake-eating pants or fly-swallowing ears, I have chosen to let the elephant domineer this essay."

"The school improvement election will be held Tuesday, October 11th" June Rose, superintendent of city schools said today.
 "I should like to impress upon the people of Greenville the necessity of voting in this election. In my mind it is one of the most important issues we have had up for years, and its success is largely determined the status of Greenville schools in the future.
 "It is needless for me to reiterate the need for a new high school building and improvements to other schools. The public has been informed of these conditions many times during the last few days, and I feel sure everybody is fully familiar with the seriousness of the situation.
 "The schools are congested as they probably never have been before. If this state of affairs should be allowed to continue for a period of several months everything the faculty might do would accomplish only fair results.
 "Development of our public school system is at stake in this election. The voter must let his conscience be his guide."
 "Much has been said about the opening of the Pitt county fair tomorrow, John L. Wooten, assistant secretary said this morning," but not half of the true greatness has been told.
 "I am convinced beyond question that the agricultural department will surpass anything during the nine years the fair has been in existence. We have held enthusiastic meetings in virtually every part of the county and received nothing but the most encouraging receptions.
 "Exhibits for this department have already begun arriving, and when the gates of the ninth annual attraction are thrown open tomorrow morning, we will have the greatest display of farm products ever seen at a county fair.
 "The department of agriculture gave us the rating of the best county fair in the state last year. We hope to do even better this year because we have greater support of the farmer.
 "The Pitt county fair is destined to occupy a prominent place in the life of our community. It is an institution for the people and they must determine its success."
 "Today is the beginning of Fire Prevention Week," members of the local fire department stated this morning.
 "We hope the citizenship of Greenville will do everything possible to help us reduce loss by fire in the future. The loss last year assumed greater proportions than should have been the case largely because of carelessness.
 "We can't be too careful. The fire demon is one of the greatest enemies of mankind. Once let him get foothold, and his power of destruction is appalling.
 "Fire prevention will be talked in the homes and schools of America this week. Many splendid lessons in preventing fires will be taught the children. Careless grown-ups should heed these lessons, because in many instances some of the greatest conflagrations resulted from their carelessness."
 Now that the World's series has been brought to a close the majority of us can get down to business with out feeling like we are going to miss something.

 The series this year, according to C. E. Rowlett, who acted as announcer at the Reflector matinee, contained many unique features. The most prominent was the record-breaking performance of the Yankees in winning four straight games.
 Then, too, there is the work of that illustrious welder of the willow Babe Ruth, king of wallplop who cinched the final game of the series with a four base wallop, scoring a runner ahead of him. It was the second time the Babe accomplished the circuit clout stunt during the series, and the last time he will get an opportunity of doing it again until next season.
 Many said Ruth would never be able to equal his old record for home runs. He not only reached the high water mark, but surpassed it as easily as he reached it.
 Ruth is still the idol of millions of fans in this country, and while his glory may dim with the change of years, there will be thousands who will continue to remember his performance of this season.
 The Yankees unquestionably have the most formidable aggregation in the world. They have the pitching staff, the slugging ability, and the endurance necessary to break up a ball game without a moment's notice.
 They have set a record the American public will not be slow forgetting.

FRENCH ACES FLYING SOUTH

Abandon Trip to New York and Take Off For Buenos Aires at 9:43 Today.
 Lebourget, France, Oct. 10.—(AP)—Prevented by bad weather from attempting the Paris to New York flight at this late in the season, Dioume Costes and Lt. Le Brix turned the nose of their plane, the "Nungesser-Coli" to the South today, with Buenos Aires as their ultimate destination.
 They took off at 9:43 o'clock, hoping to make St. Louis, Senegal, 2,700 miles away, on the first hop, then cross the south Atlantic to Natal, on the Brazilian coast, and proceed to the Argentina capital with one more stop at Rio Janeiro.
 Their Breguet military biplane, in which Costes has made several rotatable long distance flights totaling 47,000 miles with various companions, rose easily after a run of 1,800 yards, circled the field twice and soon disappeared to the southward on its way by a military plane which had previously gone aloft to investigate weather conditions.
 Soon after the start Le Brix was heard signalling on the radio that all was going well. The start was delayed for more than an hour awaiting the clearing of a haze which hung over the field. Then Costes discovered he had forgotten his favorite leather helmet and it was brought over from Villacoublay by another plane.
 A great crowd of South American aviators and French notables waved farewell to the men, whose flight is expected to blaze the way for an air mail service between Paris and South America. The plane carries about 1,700 pounds of baggage and newspapers and mail including two small packages addressed to President De Alvear of Argentina by Secretary Bemberg of the legation in Paris.

 Only 650 gallons of gasoline, about three fourths of the plane's capacity, were taken for the first leg of the flight. The plane is driven by a single 550 horsepower Hispano-Suiza motor. All the tanks are equipped with a quick-emptying device which also seals them and converts them into buoys for the plane in case of a forced landing at sea. The cockpit is watertight. A collapsed balloon bag is stored under part of the fuselage with a bottle of compressed air attached to aid in floating the plane in an emergency. In addition to these precautions carried include champagne, coffee, distilled water, biscuits, sandwiches, bananas and sugar. Sun helmets were taken along for use in the torrid zone. The plane's radio has a range of about 300 miles, and the call letters are "FRAM".
 The route of the first leg lay south to Bordeaux, across Spain to Gibraltar, Tangier and Rabat, Morocco, and thence down the coast to St. Louis.
 "Paris to Buenos Aires in three days—that's what we are after," said Costes as he climbed into the cockpit. Experts agreed that, if successful, the flight would be a more valuable air feat for France than the crossing of the North Atlantic in one hop, as it would supply data for the Paris-Buenos Aires mail for which the Latecoere Company has a contract.
 The plane thus constitutes the first regular air mail ever leaving Paris for South America, when the plane took off today two of her fuel tanks, each of 250 gallons capacity, were empty. These tanks remodeled into postoffice compartments, were labelled with the names of the cities to be visited and filled with letters and small parcels.

 He is charged with the murder of Mrs. Sallie Smith Williams whom he shot with fatal effect as she sat in her automobile in Mangum Street after which he turned the pistol upon himself. This suicidal attempt failed a first and second and third.

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON

New York, Oct. 10.—(AP)—A week of about $3.50 a bale in the New York cotton market today accompanied heavy liquidation by recent buyers, prompted by unexpected weakness in the Liverpool market and reports of favorable weather conditions over the cotton belt.

The early decline carried the market off to 20.77 for December and 21.10 for March or about 45 to 70 points below Saturday's closing quotations, and in the case of December contracts, 103 points below the high price touched after the publication of the government crop report on Saturday. The volume of offerings, attributed largely to liquidation of contracts carried over from recent declines or bought on the advance of Saturday morning, tapered off at these figures and trading became comparatively quiet with the tone a shade steadier on covering. At midday December was selling around 20.88 or about 11 points up from the low.

Active months sold about 70 to 80 points below Saturday's closing figures. The mid-afternoon market was within six or seven points of the lowest.

Putters closed weak, 87 to 92 points lower. Spot quiet, Middling 20.85.

GRAIN

Chicago, Oct. 10.—(AP)—Decided by a decline of demand for wheat from North America and a decline in the market was toward the last. Sales to Europe were estimated at 1,300,000 bushels against 1,100,000 bushels last year.

The German wheat crop was officially estimated at 113,000,000 bushels against 132,000,000 bushels last year.

Wheat closed unsettled at the same as yesterday's finish to 1-1/2 to 1-3/4 higher; corn 1/2 to 1-1/4 higher; oats unchanged; rye 1/2 to 3/4 higher; and provisions ranging from 1/2 to 3/4 to a rise of 1/2 cent.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Oct. 10.—(AP)—Renewal of selling pressure against pivotal industrials and rails brought about another sharp reaction in today's stock market. Net declines ran from 1 to 5 points despite the efforts of pools to revive bullish interest by marking up a few specialties to new high records, and the retention of the four per cent call money rate in the face of another deficit in clearing house reserves.

Although a drop of 7.924 tons in the unfiled orders of the United States Steel Corporation was about in line with expectations, liquidation of steel common was quite persistent, the stock dropping below 144 as against a high of 163 1/2, less than a month ago. Bethlehem sold down to 54 as speculative hopes of a dividend resumption this year faded away.

Outside the stock market chief interest centered in a drop of 2000 a bale in cotton futures in reflection of a weak Liverpool market, and more favorable crop weather.

Cash Thrashing Machine, AV Reduction, Union Carbide, American Water Works, Abitibi Powers United States Gas, Iron Pipe, New York Central and many other recent leaders sold down three to five points.

The closing heavy. Total sales approximately 2,400,000 shares.

"Scrap" Proctor Again in Toils of Police Here

"Scrap" Proctor, Pitt county man wanted in Richmond, for alleged theft of an automobile, was taken into custody by members of the local police force today. Proctor was at his home on Second street, when the arrest was made.

Chief Jones stated that a member of the Richmond police department was already on the way to Greenville, with extradition papers to take the prisoner in charge.

Proctor was arrested here one day last week, but succeeded in escaping while being transferred from the police station to the jail. Chief Jones received a letter from the man a day or so ago, advising him not to spend any more money looking for him, that he was innocent of the charge held against him in Richmond, and would prove it at a later date.

Russell Scott Takes Own Life

Chicago, Oct. 10.—(AP)—In the morgue, where they had taken him, a simple eulogy was spoken over Russell Scott yesterday by the wife who for three years worked to save him from the court sentence. "To be hanged by the neck until dead." "The poor kid," were her only words for Scott, who took his own life by hanging in his jail cell Saturday night.

To her, the suicide of Russell Scott on the eve of a new effort by the State to send him to his death for the murder of a drug clerk in a holdup three years ago, was unexpected. He had hinted vaguely of self-destruction before, she said. In a letter he wrote to her a week ago, Scott spoke feelingly of his earlier married life and their happiness together. In closing, he wrote: "Please get down on your knees and ask for my forgiveness."

In her visit with Scott a few hours before his body was found, Mrs. Scott said her husband seemed more cheerful, and they made plans for re-establishing a home for their three children.

Russell Scott's death had become today a subject of interest to many who had evidenced no interest in him since the Common Council Wolf said he had rejected proposals from alienists and medical schools of universities for the brain of Scott, so that they might seek the secret that made a millionaire—and then a killer.

*New comfort
new joy in living tomorrow!*

MEASURE your sleep by depth, not length. If you sleep deeply and dreamlessly, completely relaxed, you don't have to sleep so long to be completely rested.

Deep sleep comes easily on the luxurious De Luxe bedspring. For a De Luxe spring molds itself to meet your body—you don't have to make your body fit the bed. Tired muscles and nerves gratefully relax into its yielding depths... you drop gently off into deep, sound sleep that quickly renews mental and physical energy.

Sideways is impossible with a De Luxe spring. It is perfectly noiseless, too; never creaks, squeaks or groans just when you're in the borderland between wakefulness and sleep. And it doesn't tip you towards the middle of the bed, either; two persons, no matter how different their weights, can sleep together in complete comfort without disturbing each other. If you have never slept on a De Luxe spring a delightful experience awaits you.

Arrange at once with your furniture or department store for a trial. But be sure the spring is a De Luxe, for the downright comfort and lifetime wear of a De Luxe spring is found only in bedsprings that bear the De Luxe label.

ROME Company INC.

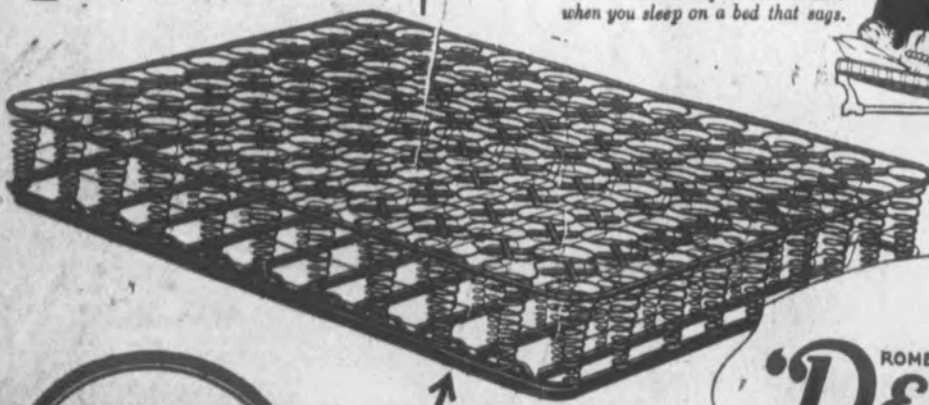

Below you see how straight the spine remains when you sleep on a bed that fits the body. Here every muscle is relaxed... nerve tension is released... the spine is relieved of weight... and the body is comfortable.

The diagram on the right shows the distortion that the spine must endure when you sleep on a bed that sags.

Below is a general view showing the shape and design of "the bedspring luxurious." A hinged tie wires connects the coils. It releases tension on the spirals and permits perfect freedom of action on the part of every individual coil.

Your guarantee of getting all the quality points that only the De Luxe bedspring has, is the De Luxe label stamped on the side rail. Look for it and be sure!
