SINCLAIR AND ASSOCIATES ARE ORDERED TO APPEAR ON CONTEMPT OF COURT CHARGE

Government Also Compels William J. Burns to Appear For Hearing.

Washington, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Charging intent to bribe and intimidate the Fall-Sinclair oil jury, the government today obtained from the District of Columbia Supreme Court an order compelling Harry P. Sinclair, William J. Burns and four of their associates to show cause why they should not be held in contempt of court.

At the same time, at the suggestion of Justice Siddons, the District Attorney agreed to file a separate contempt petition against Juror Edward J. Kidwell, who was accused of talking too freely during the oil trial and whose activities played a part in the resulting dismissal of the trial jury.

Justice Siddons himself handed down the contempt ruling which was based on activities of the Burns agents in keeping the jury under surveillance, as well as on remarks attributed to Kidwell.

Sinclair was charged specifically in the petition with having ordered, directed and induced Day and Clark to come to Washington and engage the services of the Burns Detective Agency, supervised their activities, receive reports from them and forward the reports to Sinclair.

The objects sought, the petition added, were:

"To spy upon said jurors and each of them, to bribe, intimidate and influence said jurors and each of any of them, and to do anything calculated to interfere with and impede said jurors and each of them in the unbiased discharge of their duties and to influence, pervert, impede and prevent said jurors in the discharge of their duties as jurors, and to impede, pervert and prevent the due administration of justice in said court in the trial of said criminal prosecution, either by corruptly influencing said jurors to decide the issues of said prosecution in favor of the defendants therein, or to disagree as to said issues, by unlawfully spying upon the said jurors and each of them for the purpose of concocting false charges against one or more of the said jurors in case such a course should seem advantageous to said defendants in said case, with a view of bringing about a mistrial of the case aforesaid; or otherwise accomplish such purpose."

William J. Burns and W. Sherman Burns were charged with procuring "the making of false affidavit purporting to show that a representative of the department of justice approached and held conversation with Norman L. Glascock," one of the jurors in the case.

The Burns, it was set forth knowing said affidavit to be false and without truth and fact," had the affidavit submitted to the court, intending thereby to provide evidence, such as it was, that the United States of America, through one of its employees, had tampered with said juror, Glascock.

It was also asserted the Burns operatives investigated carefully the financial affairs of John P. Kern, inquiring particularly as to mortgages and other encumbrances upon his home. The operatives also investigated the affairs of the brother or father of Juror Kidwell. It was asserted, reporting in writing that the brother's or father's place of business "was located on questionable premises and that racketeers were found in the trash thrown out of said premises."

Veitch, was accused of having brought to Washington $1,500 which he turned over to Charles O. Ruddy, directing head of the Burns operatives "for the purpose of financing the preliminary steps" of the jury spying.

William J. Burns, it was asserted, while not an officer of the Burns received money and other benefits from holding 47 shares of the 50 shares of the agency's capital stock owned by his wife.

While only these six men are named in the District Attorney's petition, Gordon specifically requested that if upon the hearing of the cause it appeared that other persons were concerned they would be made parties to the contempt proceedings.

In making his move in the case, Gordon decided not to await the action of the Grand Jury. The present phase of the case will be heard by the court and not jury and should the trial justice hold there had been a contempt of the court he could impose sentences up to one year in prison.

Whether indictments are to be returned rests now with the Grand Jury. However, should convictions be obtained on the contempt charge there is little likelihood that indictments would be pressed as the

IDLE MINERS INFORMED TO STAY AT HOME

Committee of Striking Miners in Colorado Want to Avoid Further Outbreaks.

Denver, Nov. 22.—(AP)—A committee representing striking miners in the Northern Colorado coal field today announced all idle workers had been advised to remain at their homes to avoid outbreaks similar to the skirmish at the Columbine mine yesterday.

Following secret meetings at miners at Lafayette and Erie, in the north field last night, David Sheehan, member of the committee today issued the following statement:

"We are fighting for a principle. Surely the right of free speech is not to be denied us nor our rights as law-abiding citizens. The men of the Columbine mine who fired on us are hired assassins of John D. Rockefeller, Jr., and the miners are seriously considering going to Governor Adams in a body to protest his sending military forces to the northern coal fields.

"No violence will be forthcoming from the strikers ranks and we will compel by our attitude the support of all Colorado citizens and the nation as well.

"We have stronger weapons on our side than firearms and gas bombs. We prophesy that within two weeks the coal supply of Colorado will be exhausted and operators will be forced to give us the Jacksonville wage scale.

After reviewing reports of the fight at the Columbine which resulted in five deaths among miners and left a score injured, several seriously, Governor Adams announced he had relieved Louis N. Scherf, commander of the State police of responsibility in firing on the miners when they attempted to invade the property.

Warrants signed by ten miners at Erie, have been made out by a justice of the peace there charging Theodore Pert, superintendent of the Columbine and Big Wyatt, of Greeley, under sheriff of Weld county with murder in connection with the deaths of John Wastenes and Nick Spanudacs, miners.

Sheriff Robinson of Weld County, said Pert and Wyatt would be arrested, despite an announcement by A. B. Romans, Weld County District Attorney, that no complaints or warrants would be recognized except those issued by his office or approved by him.

Hopeful at 100
The Companionate Monkey
Mr. Tunney's Ideals
Better Miracles
(By Arthur Brisbane)
Copyright 1927, by Star Co.

Miss Emily Howland celebrates her one hundredth birthday at Sherwood, a little village in New York State.

Engaged in educational work for eighty years, she was a teacher long before the country heard of Abraham Lincoln, or dreamed of a Civil War.

In youth and old age Miss Howland has set a good example. She worked to abolish physical slavery for negroes, and she was young when women, when she was young, and now celebrating her one hundredth birthday, she is full of hope for the future, and of optimism concerning the present. Young girls today are good girls, she says, and the world is progressing toward higher, better ideals.

Such a woman as Miss Emily Howland should live forever.

Mr. Haldeman-Julius, a Kansas publisher of books, approves his young daughter's experiment in "companionate marriage." The girl, eighteen, will marry a twenty-year-old boy, the two "will continue living their lives after marriage as they lived previously, until they determine whether they are entirely suited to each other." Until then they won't live together at least not in the same house.

Exactly what the plan is seems uncertain. But other things are certain, including these:

Until they live together they cannot possibly know whether they are suited to each other or not.

Companionate marriage is as old as the human race and as old as the monkey race. All the monkeys live in companionate marriage, free to quit at any time, and they like it.

It took human beings thousands of centuries to establish marriage—a device by which providence and women, co-operating, are gradually teaching men to be decent.

It's a slow process, but that is no reason for getting discouraged and going back to the old monkey days and ways.

President Coolidge told Mr. Tunney that he looked more like a moving picture actor than fighter. The President perhaps thought he looked less like a gorilla than some fighters.

The New Yorker arrived from Atlanta, greeted by Governor McLean, inspected the State College regiment, was entertained by civic organizations at luncheon, motored to Chapel Hill and was to be the principal speaker at a Legion banquet here tonight in his honor before his departure for his home.

REACH FINAL DECISION ON TAX QUESTION

House Ways and Means Committee Limits Prospective Reduction to $250,000,000.

Washington, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Reduction in the tax on corporation incomes from 13 1-2 to 11 1-2 per cent was approved today by the House Ways and Means Committee.

The vote was 22 to 1. The committee estimated that this reduction would result in a loss of $166,000,000 in revenue. The treasury had recommended a cut to twelve per cent. A motion to reduce the corporation rate to only 11 per cent was defeated, 16 to 7.

The committee refused by a 12 to 11 vote to repeal entirely the sales tax on automobiles, leaving final decision to future sessions. Reduction of the levy was advocated by the treasury and strongly opposed by automobile interests at the recent committee hearings.

A motion to repeal the tax on admissions under $3 was similarly left undecided, as was a proposal to increase the 25 per cent, the present levy on tickets to prize fights.

Washington, Nov. 22.—(AP)—The House Ways and Means Committee has limited prospective tax reduction tentatively to $250,000,000, a maximum $25,000,000 greater than that proposed by the Treasury.

Moreover, it has gone directly contrary to the recommendations of Secretary Mellon in two other respects. It has refused to make any move toward repeal of the federal inheritance tax or reduction of sur-tax rates falling within the intermediate brackets.

Action on these three propositions came late yesterday at the end of a stormy session. Two motions for maximum tax cuts were defeated, one by a single vote. A proposal to make the limit $300,000,000 was lost on a straight party vote 13 to 10, but acting on a figure of $275,000,000, one Republican member joined with the Democrats to make the county 12 to 11.

Although the majority was described by one member as "overwhelming," exact figures on the vote adopting the $250,000,000 maximum went unannounced.

The committee found itself in agreement with a single recommendation of the Treasury, that proposing a reduction in the tax on corporation incomes. It was decided that these should be reduced, but how much was left to be settled later. Secretary Mellon proposed that the present rate of 13 1-2 per cent be changed to 12 while business interests have advocated going as low as ten.

Consideration of taxes on admissions, automobile sales and club dues with a view toward repeal or reduction also was left for a future session.

Representative Garner of Texas, ranking Democratic member of the committee, later expressed disappointment at the maximum agreed upon, predicting that before the measure has gone through the House and Senate the $250,000,000 figure will have been materially increased.

He regarded the action of the committee as indicating that the new revenue bill would embody a corporation tax rate of 11 1-2 per cent, with a revenue loss of $22,000,000; reduction of his automobile sales tax from 3 to 11 1-2 per cent, with a loss of about $33,000,000; a loss of $10,000,000 through repeal of the admission taxes on tickets priced at less than $3.00, and elimination of the levy on club dues with a loss of $10,000,000.

The Texan predicted, too, that the Treasury recommendation that small corporations be permitted to file returns as partnerships would be disregarded and a substitute advanced under which a graduated tax running from five per cent on incomes under $7,000 to 9 per cent on incomes between $12,000 and $15,000 would be imposed. This plan, he said, would entail a revenue loss of about $27,000,000.

Warfield Stock Not For Sale
New York, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Robert L. Nutt, recently elected chairman of the Seaboard Air Line Railway and one of five trustees named in the will of S. Davies Warfield, late head of the road, made it clear today that stock in the company owned by Mr. Warfield was not for sale. "Any such action on our part would be contrary to wishes expressed in his will," he asserted. Edward C. Carrington had written to the trustees of Mr. Warfield's estate, asking permission to send engineers over the lines with a view to making a bid for the stock of the road formerly owned by Mr. Warfield.

PLAN TO ASK COOLIDGE TO HOLD HIS JOB

Movement on Foot to Bring About Re-election of Nation's President.

New York, Nov. 22.—(AP)—The New York Herald-Tribune, Republican, says today that a movement aiming to put a majority of the people of the United States on record for the re-election of President Coolidge in advance of the Republican national convention, is gaining ground in New England.

Links in a "chain" petition calling on the President to reconsider his decision not to run in 1928 have appeared in various parts of Connecticut and Massachusetts, the newspaper says, and have been traced indirectly to Philip M. Tucker, Boston broker.

The plan is to ask each citizen signing the petition to get ten others to sign, branching out until the entire United States has been covered.

A footnote of the petition says, "There is no organization behind this movement. It is entirely a spontaneous method by which the common people can express their wishes and ask others to carry on."

To present a petition representative of a majority of the voters participating in the last presidential election, nearly 15,000,000 signatures would be necessary. Four times that number would be required to speak for a majority of the American populace.

The Herald Tribune says party leaders in Connecticut are said to be opposed to the circulating of the petitions on the ground that the movement is ill advised and tends to defeat its own ends. J. Henry Roraback, national committeeman from that State, said he was of sympathy with gestures that might call for a statement from the White House putting the President beyond conception. He and other Republican leaders in New England said they saw no barrier to "drafting" Mr. Coolidge.

Boston, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Philip M. Tucker, Boston investment broker, conceived the idea of circulating a chain petition asking President Coolidge to run in 1928 as a movement "purely for the good of the country." It was said at his office today. The petition was started on its rounds about ten days ago and returns so far his associates said had been "fair—as good as could be expected in so short a time."

Mr. Tucker has been on a trip to the south and will not return here until after Thanksgiving day. In addition to being president of the Philip M. Tucker Company, Mr. Tucker is a director of several manufacturing companies.

Over Million Pounds Of Tobacco Handled In City Yesterday

The Greenville tobacco market yesterday sold 1,204,022 pounds of tobacco for $319,257.26 at an average of $26.51, according to information given out this morning by K. W. Cobb, secretary of the Greenville Tobacco Board of Trade.

There was over a million pounds of tobacco on the warehouse floors today.

Sales will be suspended for Thanksgiving, tomorrow afternoon it was stated today, and will be resumed Monday morning.

Republican Wins For Governor in Kentucky Election

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 22.—(AP)—Official figures in the Kentucky gubernatorial election tabulated yesterday disclosed an unprecedented situation in the political annals of the State.

Flem D. Campson, Republican, defeated J. C. W. Beckham, his Democratic opponent for governor by a majority of 32,133 votes in the race for Lieutenant Governor, however, James Breathitt, Jr., a Democrat, had a majority of 159 votes over E. E. Nelson, his Republican opponent. Mr. Breathitt's advantage was the smallest on record for such an important office in Kentucky. The total vote was more than 705,000.

Indications were that the races in many minor offices would be contested as hotly as that of the Lieutenant Governor's. The count of these ballots was resumed today.

Official figures announced thus far were: For Governor, Sampson 399,700; Beckham 367,567. For Lieutenant Governor: Breathitt, 352,858; Nelson 352,699.

Arrest Negroes In Lilliendahl Case in Jersey

Hammonton, N. J., Nov. 22.—(AP)—Two negroes, said to answer the descriptions given by Mrs. Margaret Lilliendahl, of the highwayman who said killed her husband, Dr. A. William Lilliendahl, near here on September 15, were prisoners in Montgomery County jail at Norristown, Pa., today.

The negroes were arrested as holdup suspects by police of Jenkintown, Pa., and were taken to the county jail after they had been questioned for two hours by Charles M. Phillips, counsel for Mrs. Lilliendahl, who with Willis Beach, her South Vineland neighbor, will go on trial Monday charged with the murder of the physician.

Phillips brought photographs of the negroes to his home here. He said today he would show them to Mrs. Lilliendahl in her cell in the jail at Mays Landing and to a number of other persons, who he stated would testify at the trial that they saw two negroes near the Atison road on the day Mr. Lilliendahl was slain. A pistol found on one of the prisoners was said by Phillips to be of the same type, and calibre as that used in the killing.

GANGSTERS GET ANOTHER IN CL-CAGO WARFARE

Chicago, Nov. 22.—(AP)—The first victim of Chicago's new gang war was found shot to death in a doorway on the Southside this morning. The body was that of Frank Herbert, brother of "Big" Herbert, bodyguard of Joe Salts, her baron recently acquitted of murder. Police believe Herbert died while trying to crawl to his home after becoming the target of rival gangsters.

ALLEGED FLOGGERS APPEAR FOR HEAL IN ALABAMA COURT

Luverne, Ala., Nov. 22.—(AP)—Thirty three of thirty-four men named in 102 Crenshaw County flogging case indictments were on hand today as preliminary legal skirmishes of their trials went ahead.

Rev. L. A. Nalls, former pastor of a Georgiana, Ala., church was the thirty-fourth man indicted, but has been a fugitive from justice since the Grand Jury involved him in the case.

Ira B. Thompson, prominent Luverne attorney, was another outstanding figure among those indicted.

MRS. SNYDER LOSES FIGHT FOR HER LIFE

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 22.—(AP)—Mrs. Ruth Brown Snyder and Henry Judd Gray lost their last chance for life today when the Court of Appeals denied their appeal from conviction of the murder of Albert Snyder, the woman's husband.

The chief ground on which the appeal was asked by both defendants was that their legal rights had been prejudiced by the fact that they were tried jointly instead of separately.

The court handed down a two-page statement that it affirmed the judgment of conviction as to each defendant.

The murder of Albert Snyder, art editor of Motor Boating, on March 20, was planned as a "perfect crime," but inattention on the part of Snyder's slayers to a few minor details aroused the suspicions of the police, and both Ruth Brown Snyder, wife of the murdered man, and Henry Judd Gray, her paramour, were under arrest within 24 hours after the discovery of the crime.

On the morning of Monday, March 20, the police were summoned to the Snyder home in Queens Village, to find Snyder strangled with a wire about his neck, while wounds on the head indicated that he had been beaten with some blunt instrument. Mrs. Snyder, aged 32 years and 12 years her husband's junior, told the officers that she had been awakened during the night by a "big powerful" man who bound and gagged her. She was found bound and gagged by her nine-year-old daughter, Lorraine, who ran to the neighbors for help. The condition of the house indicated that a robbery might have been committed. Mrs. Snyder said she had been trussed up for many hours but the fact that he ankles and wrists bore no marks of the bonds aroused the suspicions of the police.

Finally, after an all-night grilling at the Queens Village police station Mrs. Snyder broke down and confessed that she and Henry Judd Gray of East Orange, N. J., a coast salesman, had planned the "crime but that Gray was the actual slayer."

Gray was arrested at the Hotel Onondaga, Syracuse, where he had been staying for several days. His alibi was that he had been at the hotel over the week-end, and support seemed to be given this contention by the fact that a "do not disturb" card was hung on the door of his room on Sunday, and that there had been a telephone call from the room. Gray stoutly maintained his innocence when taken into custody, and threatened suit against any newspaper that printed his name in connection with the murder case.

On the way to New York with officers, when told of Mrs. Snyder's confession Gray finally admitted his part in the killing. He had gone to Queens Village secretly on Sunday night and after killing Snyder had returned to Syracuse. From this time on, both Mrs. Snyder and Gray tried to place the blame on each other.

DAVIDSON EXPECTS BIG CROWD THANKSGIVING

Davidson, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Fully eight thousand persons will come here Thanksgiving Day, officials predicted today in announcing that plenty of seats would be placed on Richardson field for the Duke-Davidson game.

Coaches Younger and Tolson have ordered the Wildcats to work out easy this week. No scrimmages will be held, they said.

BRITISH FLIER OFF ON FLIGHT FOR HONOLULU

Captain Frederick Giles Begins Second Attempt to Reach New Zealand.

Miles Field, San Francisco, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Captain Frederick A. Giles, British flier, took off at 7:24 A. M. today in a second attempt to fly to Honolulu on the first leg of a projected flight to New Zealand.

The plane splashed water and mud along the runway getting into the air.

Profiting by the previous experience Giles made the take off with ease and his plane weighing more than 5,000 pounds and loaded with 390 gallons of gasoline, gained altitude easily.

Field officials said the flier got off the runway in 20 seconds. After clearing the field he struck out over San Francisco Bay at an altitude of about 200 feet.

Captain Giles' last words were: "You will hear from me in a day or so."

He borrowed a handful of cigarettes and stuffed them into his pockets, just before climbing into the plane.

The much delayed flight project got under way once more with fair weather prospects at the starting end.

The plane passed land end West-ermont Point of San Francisco, at 7:39 A. M. and struck out to sea.

Without goggles or helmet and dressed in a light business suit, Captain Giles dropped only a life belt, as added ballast in the 2,600-mile flight. He carried no life raft, no parachute, no radio, no life raft, no parachute, and no sextant, being unable to use the navigation instruments.

These equipped, he trusted a good bit of luck, ability to guess the amount of his drift and the time honored method of dead reckoning to fly over a trackless waste of water which already has claimed seven fliers who attempted the feat.

Captain Giles originally planned the overseas hop last August when he entered the Dole flight competition and essayed to fly from Detroit to San Francisco, the starting point. He failed to reach the destination because of a series of minor mishaps.

Several weeks ago he again headed toward San Francisco in his bi-plane, named the Wanda in honor of Miss Wanda Hess, of Wyandotte, Mich., sister of the builder of the ship.

That time he came to grief at Eiko, Nev., when in taking off he made a ground loop and badly damaged the machine.

The plane was crated and sent here for repairs. After days of waiting for favorable weather he took off last Saturday but was forced to return because of a heavy fog 20 miles out.

For the greater part of his flight "medium good weather" with the winds mostly north and northeast all the way, the San Francisco weather bureau predicted. The flier should not run into rains or atmospheric disturbances until the Islands are reached where local showers are reported, the weather bureau announced.

From a temperature of 58 degrees outside the Golden Gate the aviator will gradually note warmer temperatures until near the Islands where an average temperature of 70 degrees is the rule.

Twenty ships, seven of them strung along the great circle route between here and Honolulu and the other 13 distributed to the north and south of the course, today were asked to be on the alert for signs of Captain Giles, on the great circle route were the Manoa, Tachse and steamer Sondo, which he should reach about 4 P. M. the Venture, which he should pass about 5 P. M. the Tenyo Maru, his T. P. M. goal: The President Garfield about at the half way mark, which Giles hopes to pass at 5 P. M. Tomorrow, and the steamer Manoki, just outside Honolulu.

Hears Plea For Negro
Raleigh, Nov. 22.—Governor McLean today heard final plea for the life of Hector Graham, Holk County negro, under death sentence for the murder of Captain Paul Johnson, white planter. The Governor had approved the sentence until December 9 to complete investigation by Pardon Commissioner Brodgers who made a first hand probe at Fayetteville. Question of premeditation was involved as Graham admitted the killing.

BASEBALL FOR THIS SECTION NOW ASSURED

Representatives of six or eight Eastern North Carolina cities will meet in Goldsboro December 2, and perfect the organization of a class D baseball league.

This decision was reached at a conference of representatives from Wilmington, Fayetteville, Kinston, Goldsboro, Greenville and Wilson held in Goldsboro last night. The meeting was addressed by President W. G. Bramham, of the Virginia, South Atlantic and Piedmont leagues.

Mr. Bramham suggested plans for the league and expressed confidence that organization would be perfected at the December meeting. He said he had never seen a section so ready for the inauguration of organized baseball, and expressed belief that each of the towns involved would furnish the most loyal kind of support.

There were no delegates from Rocky Mount and New Bern at the meeting last night, but it was assumed that both cities would be well represented at the meeting next month.

Greenville delegates today expressed entire satisfaction at the sentiment prevailing at the Goldsboro session. They seemed confident the league would become an actuality with at least eight cities participating.

"It will be one of the fastest leagues in the South," a member of the local delegation said this morning, "and it is the purpose of every city to do its utmost to put out a winning team. Each team would be limited to twenty players, according to plans outlined by President Bramham last night and a forfeiture of $1,500 would be required. The salary limit will be $2,400.

Winners in these games will clash at Chapel Hill December 3 for the state high school athletic association cup.

Sport Jots

Atlanta, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Word comes from Tuscaloosa, Ala., that Wallace Wade may send a lineup far different from anything he started this year against the University of Georgia Thursday when Tide and Bull Dog meet at Birmingham.

Those who have seen the Crimson workout of late, say that rain nor wind has halted the Capstones in their practice, two scrimmages having been held during a drizzle last week. McClintock, who has played most of the season in the backfield, is said to be a likely prospect for an end position Thanksgiving. Molton Smith may be at Dye's table. Further news of the expected shakeup has it that Leslie Payne will be at a guard berth. For a new backfield starter Harry Holder, former high school star of Birmingham, has been running at quarter.

Georgians recall that some years ago just when the Tide seemed going "stale" Coach Wade benched a number of regulars and started a reserve team at Birmingham in the Thanksgiving classic.

The memory of that game is not pleasant to Bull Dog followers as the Tide utterly vanquished the Athenians.

North Carolina's rejuvenated Tar Heels, with overwhelming victories over Davidson and Duke during the past two weeks, and Virginia's Cavaliers, also showing a reversal of form in late season, promise to entertain some 24,000 fans to Chapel Hill stadium dedication with high class football.

Many dignitaries will be in attendance, including Governor Atwell, Governor McLean, of North Carolina, and Governor Harry Eyrd, of Virginia.

Chapel Hill, Nov. 22.—(AP)—What is expected to be one of the largest representations of the press ever gathered for one sporting event in this part of the South will be taken care of in the spacious press boxes of Kenan stadium Thursday for the Carolina-Virginia game. Publicity Director Robert W. Madry said today.

Besides two and three men delegations from several morning dailies, The Associated Press will assign two staff men and an experienced operator to man its private wire to members in both States. An Associated Press running story, including a play by play account and colorful sidelights will be handled.

HIGH SCHOOL LAD, 17 SIGNED FOR MAJORS

Parsons, Kas.—(AP)—A youngster of 17, now attending high school in Parsons, next spring may realize his dreams of becoming a big league ball player.

He is Charles Scalley, southpaw signed to report with the St. Louis Browns when they go to the training camp.

Younger Selects Mythical Eleven

Davidson, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Three players of State's Wolfpack and a like number of Carolina Tar Heels were picked today by Coach William L. Younger of Davidson College on his all-state mythical college football eleven. Duke University landed two and Davidson and Wake Forest one each.

Coach S. D. Tilson, assistant to Younger, chose five from State, three from Duke and one each from Wake Forest, Davidson and Carolina. "Tex" placed Metts of State at center rather than Schwarz of Carolina, who made the 1926 picks of various coaches and other experts.

Younger's selection, given to the Associated Press, follows:

Childress, State, and Arrowood, Davidson, ends; Phelps, Wake Forest and Thompson, Duke, tackles; Fargis, Carolina, and Shuler, Carolina, guards; Schwartz, Carolina, center; Bule, Duke, quarterback; R. Warren, State, and McDowell, State, halfbacks; and Jankoki, Duke, fullback.

Tilson's pick:

Childress, State, and Goodwin, State, ends; Phelps, Wake Forest, and Thompson, Duke, tackles; McColegan, Davidson, and Farris, Carolina, guards; Metts, State, center; Bule, Duke, quarterback; McDowell, all State, and G. Warren, State, halfbacks; and Jankoski, Duke, fullback.

McDOWELL TO TAKE PART IN ALL STAR GAMES

I've just got to tell somebody

NO, I'M not going to be married. Neither have I fallen heir to a lot of money. But I have discovered the one tobacco that makes a pipe come through a thousand per cent—Prince Albert!

Yes, Sir, Prince Albert—the world's largest-selling brand. I was sitting with a fellow-commuter the other morning, when he was filling his pipe from a bright-red tin. I got a whiff of that tobacco and said: "Do you mind if I borrow a load?" He passed the tin over, and I filled up and lighted up.

I never tasted anything so good in my life. It was wonderfully cool and sweet, with a mildness I had never met before in a pipe-tobacco. Mild, as I say, yet it had that rich, rare body that put satisfaction into every pull. What a taste!

I could hardly wait till the train pulled in to get me a supply. I've smoked enough of this cool, mild, long-burning tobacco to know that it gives you deep-down contentment in every load. Try Prince Albert. You'll say so!

PRINCE ALBERT
—no other tobacco is like it!

You get quantity, too, with P. A.—TWO full ounces in every tin.

The party was composed of Ed Williams, John Flanagan and "Crick" Whichard, who returned to Greenville today with plenty of evidence of good marksmanship.

They were today preparing to write to the Canadian resident, informing him of the finding of the message attached to the leg of the goose, and requesting him to send them some information as to why he happened to pick out this particular goose as bearer of his correspondence.

ABOUT TOWN

Members of the Merchants Association yesterday expressed appreciation to the people of Greenville for the splendid way they assisted in the entertainment of teachers attending the conference here last week.

"Had it not been for the liberal way the public helped us provide rooms for the guests, the situation would have been unprecedented in the history of the city," C. B. Rowlett, secretary of the Merchants Association said today. It was one of the greatest crowds of visitors we have had here at one time in years, and it would have been impossible to care for them had not our citizenship thrown open the doors of their homes and admitted them. It was a wonderful spirit of co-operation—a spirit that is bound to result in the continued expansion of this great locality."

"Worn shoulders of our highways are becoming a menace to the traveling public," according to a citizen today who has occasion to go from one part of the State to another quite frequently.

"The Goldsboro road especially is getting in bad condition," he declared. "Traffic on this highway is probably heavier than any other road in this section of the State and it is impossible to keep on the road all the time. In bad weather a car would wreck quite easily if unexpectedly forced to leave the pavement.

"The Highway Commission should get busy and remedy this situation immediately. Too many lives are being lost through automobile accidents as it is. We should do everything possible to reduce the death rate."

"My, but Greenville has changed during the last six years!" exclaimed a former resident of this city who spent a short while here on business yesterday.

"Had it not been for one or two landmarks, it is possible I wouldn't have recognized the place. I have seen many towns develop, but I do not believe any city in North Carolina has had a more healthy, wholesome growth than Greenville."

"The town is not only destined to be the capital of the greatest tobacco producing county in the world, but in my humble opinion it is ideally situated as the world's greatest market. The future holds forth great things for Greenville and Pitt County, and I am wishing it God-speed in all its undertakings."

Rev. H. Frederick Jones, pastor of Memorial Baptist Church, is an untiring advocate of higher schools of learning in North Carolina.

"State Baptists should expend no more money for high schools and junior colleges. The State is furnishing the lower schools of learning in a most commendable way, and there is no reason for religious denominations to spend their money for something the State has provided.

"I am unequivocally in favor of the Baptists providing for higher branches of education, and am ready to use my influence in this direction."

"Success of the Greenville Tobacco market is the result of untiring efforts of members of the Tobacco Board of Trade, business interests and the farmer," remarked a member of the market today.

"Greenville has already established a new record and the end of the season will see us far ahead of last year's record—much farther advanced than we are at the present time.

BE CAREFUL
 With Thanksgiving just two days hence it is not amiss to urge the thousands who will go hunting that day to exercise every care lest death or injury result from the day's outing. Every year the hunting season brings its tremendous toll of human fatalities and Thanksgiving Day usually heads the list. Many persons in this state already have lost their lives since the hunting season this fall began, and unless hunters are most cautious the number of dead will be considerably increased ere this week has passed. We urge every hunter who goes out on Thanksgiving to be more than careful and not to take chances if he would avoid grief and suffering for himself or others.

JUSTICE OR DOLLARS

Now that Sinclair and his associates have been cited for contempt to court in connection with the jury tampering charges in the Fall-Sinclair trial, the question is will this just be another scandal added to the list already laid at the feet of the wealthy oil operator and his followers to go unpunished, or will Sinclair and his crowd receive the punishment behind prison bars to which they are entitled?

From the beginning of negotiations for government oil lands down through the recent trial the records show the oil operators' connection with one scandal right after another, and the tactics of fraud and bribery were carried even to the jury hearing the case. Now that efforts to tamper with the court and jury have been traced to Sinclair and his associates there should be no further dilly-dallying with his cases. If Sinclair and his associates are successful in keeping out of jail is proof that the "Thou Shalt Not" of the laws of the land apply primarily to the poor man with no power whatever to curb the unlawful acts of the rich.

We deliver no germs.

France, wearing the Marines' uniform, while some other prize fighters were hiding under the bed or in safe camps at home teaching soldiers.

Mr. Tunney, who is in the Naval Reserve, tells the youth of the world that the great things in life are "religion, loyalty, duty." A good list. Youth will say to itself that a good "uppercut" will carry you farther on the road to prosperity, in our civilization, than any amount of religion, loyalty and duty.

Be loyal to your fellow man, do your duty, be religious and you'll be happy. Knock your fellow man out, and you'll be rich.

Dr. Bee' Dr. Stanton says we might now have miracles as wonderful as those of the olden times. He has seen a woman "virtually dead" already brought back to life by prayer.

Modern miracles of the scientific class are more wonderful than old miracles.

Men go in submarines under the water and in flying machines above it, instead of walking on it.

They prevent disease by common sense, saving millions of lives instead of resurrecting a few. They talk and send messes through the air without wires.

The new miracles are at least as spectacular as the old, and much more useful. Vaccination is worth more than all the miraculous cures of all the religions.

Men the virtuous fall out, the wicked smile. Senator Borah, Republican, of Idaho, who wants prohibition enforced because it is in the constitution, also wants all negroes to vote exactly as they please, because that is in the constitution.

Senator Glass, Democrat from Virginia, favors enforcing the amendment on prohibition, but has his doubts on the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments referring to the colored brother.

Senator Glass says "the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments were adopted in 'the passions of the war, and constitute an attempt to destroy white civilization." Those that don't believe in prohibition reply that prohibition also was voted in the excitement of a BIG-

BAD PAINS IN SIDE Spells of Nervousness Also Troubled This Lady Who Gives Cardui Credit for Helping Her Get Well.

Depew, Okla.—"For six years," says Mrs. Edd Burton, of this place, "I suffered as bad as a woman can suffer and still keep going."

"I was good for nothing, was lifeless and pale, unable to eat anything. Nothing agreed with me. At times I had such bad pains in my sides and back I would have to go to bed. I had cramping spells and would faint if I stood on my feet any length of time. My nerves would become upset at the least little thing and I would have spells of crying that were so exhausting they left me prostrate."

"Several of my friends suggested that I take Cardui. They told me of their experiences with it, how much they have been helped. At last I decided to try it."

"In a few weeks, I could see that I was improving, so I kept on. I did not expect the troubles of years to disappear in a few days, nor did they, but in time I was much better. I kept up the Cardui treatment for several months and thanks to it I am a well woman now."

GER WAR. However, prohibition is in the constitution, and it is going to stay. Politicians tiptoe around it, many taking both sides like the candidate for school teacher who told the old-fashioned board of trustees that when it came to the shape of the earth he taught "both flat and round."

How much in the way of revelation and confession would be necessary to obtain conviction in an oil scandal?

It is shown that jurymen were trailed by hired private detectives. A representative of the men accused, wanted as witness by the government, to tell how he helped buy government oil reserves with government bonds, runs away to Europe. His lawyer kindly deposits $100,000 in bonds for the government to seize in accordance with law, but says the witness wanted his return.

You may think that would suffice in the way of "facit confession" to put somebody, even a very rich man in jail.

If you think so you do not know how justice works in a great democracy. If you steal ENOUGH this country does not put you in jail. It talks about putting you there, but does not do it.

News of better times comes from Europe. The war is over for the present, anyhow. The use of electricity and knowledge of chemistry promise to do as much for Europe's industry now as steam did after the Napoleonic wars. The value of the pound sterling recently has been the highest on record since 1914. The German mark is on a gold basis. If all Europe should decide to stop fighting permanently, voluntarily putting soldiers and sailors to work, as Germany has been compelled to do, the world would go ahead rapidly.

ARE ORDERED TO APPEAR ON CONTEMPT CHARGE SINCLAIR AND ASSOCIATES

Sinclair, Day and Clark already are under specific charges of a conspiracy to influence the verdict of the jury which was discharged after spending two weeks in hearing evidence in the conspiracy case against Albert B. Fall, former interior secretary, and Sinclair growing out of the lease of the Teapot Dome naval oil reserve in Wyoming.

Day is at liberty under $25,000 bond and Clark is out on $10,000. The warrant against Sinclair has been held in abeyance pending action by the Grand Jury or other court process.

District Attorney Gordon informed Justice Siddons that the contempt proceedings to be heard December 5 were entirely independent of the Grand Jury investigation.

We want to lighten your burdens.

Question Negrass Connection With Death of Ga. Man

Wrightsville, Ga., Nov. 22.—(AP)—While officers questioned Leona Rogers, 30, negress of Dublin, Ga., in connection with the shooting Monday of Fred Daley, prominent resident, the coroner's inquest was convened to continue its investigation into the mysterious circumstance surrounding the young man's death.

The Rogers woman was arrested in Dublin yesterday after officers traced the imprints of high heel shoes for more than 14 miles from the front of the Daley home to Dublin where Leona Rogers lived with her mother.

Search of the Rogers home failed to reveal any weapon, officers said but they insisted "we have other evidence" when told that the prisoner denied any connection with the shooting of Daley.
