GANG WARFARE CONTINUES AT CHICAGO, ILL.

Building Occupied by Gambling Syndicate Wrecked by Bomb Last Night.

Chicago, Nov. 23.—(AP)—Activities of Chicago gangsters in the latest war for the control of gambling and vice syndicates were responsible for the accidental shooting of Detective Sergeant Thomas Lynch by another policeman early today.

A green sedan near the home of Tony Lombardo, allied with Al Scar Face) Capone, a leader of the rival gangs, attracted the attention of Sergeant Lynch while routing the Westside. Before police in a squad car could question the occupants of the sedan, the latter drove off.

In a two-mile chase, the squad car crashed on a sharp turn and Policeman P. T. Barnes' pistol was accidentally discharged, the bullet entering the sergeant's head.

At a hospital it was said that the officer probably would recover.

The gangsters escaped.

Chicago, Nov. 23.—(AP)—Chicago gangland hurled its defiance in the form of a bomb last night at Chief of Police Hughes' flat "there will be no fair war."

Simultaneously there came a peace overture from Al (Scar Face) Capone, a leader in the war over gambling and vice control.

"When I was told that Joe Aiello wanted to make peace I was ready to agree," Capone said in his first newspaper interview in more than a year.

"I am willing to talk to anybody any place to bring about a settlement. I don't want trouble. I don't want bloodshed. But I am going to protect myself."

The bomb thrown from an automobile at a reputed payoff headquarters on the west side for the Aiello interests was described by police as a new declaration of war. The explosion wrecked the entrance to the place and demolished the offices said to be used by the gambling syndicate.

Meanwhile, leaders of the Aiello faction were reported making hasty preparations to leave town. An attempt to make peace by Joe Aiello while in a police cell yesterday was scornfully refused by members of the Capone gang in adjoining cells.

When released Aiello, once a chess champion, begged for a police escort to accompany him home. This refused, he took a cab and slumped down out of sight as it carried him away.

Later when it was learned that four Aiello lieutenants had been decreed to die at the hands of rival gunmen Chief Hughes ordered their residences placed under guard. Joseph Aiello released under bond was to appear today on a charge of conspiracy to slay Capone.

Mayor Thompson asked to comment upon gang war activities replied "law and order will prevail. The people of Chicago in Michael Hughes have the greatest chief of police in America. No gangs will run Mike."

MURDERER HELD AT STATE ASYLUM

Durham, Nov. 23.—(AP)—Walter D. O'Brian, committed to the state insane asylum yesterday by Judge M. V. Danahill, presiding at O'Brian's trial here in superior court on charge of murdering Mrs. Williams, July 19, will remain in the asylum by the terms of the sentence until he is adjudged mentally competent to enter a plea to the charges against him.

The court committed O'Brian to the asylum after Dr. Adams, superintendent of the state hospital for the insane, where the prisoner has been under observation for a few days, and two other witnesses had testified as to O'Brian's mental condition.

After shooting Mrs. Williams as she sat in an automobile at the intersection of Mangum and Chapel streets, O'Brian sat down by the side of the woman and turned the pistol on himself. Both were taken to a hospital where Mrs. Williams died several days later. A close watch was kept over O'Brian both at the hospital and at the county jail where he was later removed to prevent his succeeding in killing himself. Three definite attempts at suicide were made.

McLARNING TO MEET BILLY MALONE TONIGHT

Detroit, Nov. 23.—(AP)—Jimmy McLarning, sensational Pacific coast fighter, who is tarrying in the lightweight class for a brief spell with hopes of getting a crack at Tommy Mandell's crown, will meet Billy Wallace, aggressive Cleveland brawler, tonight, in a bout that may determine Mandell's next championship opponent.

Victim of Shooting

Mrs. Elsie Holt Snipes, pretty 23-year-old divorcee and mother of two children, was found in her apartment in Richmond, Va., mysteriously shot through the head. Her death followed John W. Falson, manager of the Hermitage Country Club, has been held in connection with the case.

MELLON FOR EXEMPTIONS

Will Recommend Exemption of Federal Securities in Message to Congress.

Washington, Nov. 23.—(AP)—Exemption of federal securities from the surtax will be recommended to Congress by Secretary Mellon.

Such action would remove all federal securities from the taxation field and would be in line with recommendations made in a speech by Under Secretary Mills recently at Worcester, Mass., in which he declared that because of the exemption of corporations from the surtax, corporations fixed the price of government securities and prevented their wide distribution.

Secretary Mellon also believes that the lifting of the surtax on federal securities would put them more on a par with State and municipal offerings which are free from the surtax and under present conditions make a more attractive investment.

Since the war time bond issues are being rapidly called the Treasury hopes by limiting the surtax to encourage a wider distribution of federal securities which they claim is more wholesome than by having the majority of federal issues closely held by corporation.

Bowley Predicts War in 30 Years

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 23.—(AP)—Cats and whelps who preach Pacifism, puff and no preparation have no place in the category of those whom General A. J. Bowley, commandant of the Fort Bragg army post, class as his friends. The General used those terms last night in predicting another war in thirty years.

"I am not a militarist; I don't want the United States to have a chin on its shoulder to make other nations jealous. I want an army and a nation big enough to protect this great civilization of ours. Plenty of us will live to see another war. It will come in thirty years. Such is liberty," the General said.

FOOTBALL MATINEE THANKSGIVING DAY

With today's issue The Reflector will suspend operations until Friday in observance of Thanksgiving Day. Our office will be open tomorrow afternoon, however, to receive football reports and the public is cordially invited to come down and enjoy the afternoon with us.

Through arrangement with The Associated Press play by play reports on the Carolina-Virginia game, at Chapel Hill, will be received over our wire direct from the sidelines.

AUTO DRIVER TESTIFIES IN REMUS TRIAL

George Klug Tells of Driving Car to Park Where Remus Shot His Wife.

Cincinnati, Nov. 23.—(AP)—George Remus trial for murder today was a bath-filler for an attack by the prosecution upon recalcitrance, forgetfulness and repudiation in one of its own chief witnesses.

George Klug, driver of the automobile in which the former "King of Bootleggers" raced last month to Eden Park to slay his wife, Imogene, was the bally man.

The story was at the point where he was under instruction to report at Remus' Price Hill mansion at 7 a. m. Oct. 6, two hours before Mrs. Remus was to have gone to court to press a divorce suit.

Klug got there late yesterday after he had frustrated the State's expressed determination to prove through him that Remus, as the slayer, was an actor in a four-sided conspiracy.

In a statement to the police immediately after Mrs. Remus was shot, Klug related that he kept the car at his home and Remus summoned him at 7 o'clock the morning of the shooting, from the witness stand he testified that it was the previous night Remus gave him instructions.

George Connors, secretary to Remus, originally directed him to report as chauffeur, said Klug. Then he testified he had not seen Connors with Remus the night of October 5, but admitted he had given that statement to the prosecutor.

Klug said he had driven for Remus and Connors for six months, abandoning his trade of pipe fitter.

Klug had been seated but a few minutes when the State asserted it had been surprised by his testimony. He was termed a hostile witness. Permission was obtained to cross-examine him.

When court adjourned overnight the parts of Klug's testimony added to were pieced together thus:

On the night preceding the shooting, Klug drove Remus to the Remus hotel. They waited in the automobile some time. Remus made no effort to see his wife. Remus then was driven to his Price Hill home, giving instructions that Klug should return at 7 a. m. Klug spent the night at an outlying gambling club. He returned to Remus' home at the appointed hour.

Klug himself was identified as one of the conspirators in the State's opening address. Connors, Remus and Blanche Watson, called a secretary to Remus, completed the list.

Preceding Klug yesterday were a number of eye witnesses of the shooting and the surgeon who performed an operation to try to save Mrs. Remus' life.

Four coal miners killed, twenty wounded, including women and members of the State coal strike. The National Guard is sent and the Governor declares martial law.

The richest country in the world should find some better way of settling strikes than shooting coal miners or shooting State police.

Compulsory arbitration is difficult, but not impossible. It works successfully in some other countries.

President Coolidge talked with William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, about soft coal labor troubles in Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Ohio. Labor men charge that railroads are united "to depress prices of coal for fuel purposes."

Government might in certain cases affecting public welfare, fix prices of the product and the labor that produces it.

There was no hesitation about fixing the wheat prices during the war, a fixing process that cost the farmers about $2 on every bushel that they might have got and didn't get on every bushel.

The much discussed "companionate" marriage of a young man of twenty with the eighteen-year-old daughter of Mr. Julius Haldeman is not as new as it seemed. After marriage each will live at home to solve problems of housekeeping, while the bride continues her work in high school and then in college, and the young man continues studying at the University of Kansas.

If the marriage doesn't turn out to be perfect, the plan is to arrange for a divorce.

That is looking farther ahead than young people generally care to look. Life, marriage and other things may not be perfect, but the young people, hope and believe.

EXPOSITION TO BE IN APRIL

East Carolina Chamber of Commerce to Stage Attraction at Goldsboro Week of 9th.

The steering committee of the Eastern Carolina Exposition that is to be held in Goldsboro next spring met set the dates for the week of April 9th running through Friday night April 13th. Geo. C. Royall of Goldsboro presided over the meeting.

It was decided to get out the usual program and hand book a month ahead of the opening date and to officially announce the opening of the big event. The program this year will be of the same high type as the five previous expositions have had, including a celebrity or two of first rate; a nationally known orchestra for the entire week, an aggregation of professional entertainers every afternoon and evening, better and bigger than any had yet. The Queens contest will be put on again, both junior and senior; $250 will be given to the two winners in the two separate contests as has been the custom for the past six years.

Secretary N. G. Bartlett was authorized to go to New York immediately following the peanut exposition in Anokie in December and purchase the best program ever offered Eastern Carolina audiences. Just who the celebrities will be, has not been announced yet but there are several that the officials have their eyes on that will be great attractions for the sixth annual show. "The Exposition set a very high standard at the very first one held in Wilson," said Mr. Royall. "And we can't afford to go backward. The sixth must be not only in keeping with those in the past, but even surpass them if possible, Mr. Royall concluded.

The Eastern Carolina Exposition has become a fixture for Eastern Carolina and it is the one event of the year that all Eastern Carolina can come together on and claim as theirs. This spirit is very much in evidence now more than ever before and the Sixth Annual Show has every indication of being bigger and better.

FEW CASES IN COUNTY COURT

Three Defendants Fined For Driving Automobile While Intoxicated.

Walter Koonce, charged with larceny, was sentenced to 90 days on the county roads by Judge W. A. Darden, presiding over yesterday's session of county court. The docket yesterday was one of the lightest in several weeks and work was completed during the morning hours.

Walter Wilkins, charged with carrying a concealed weapon, was ordered to pay a fine of $25 and cost or go to the roads for four months.

R. B. Rouse paid a fine of $100 and costs, and was ordered not to drive again in 90 days following conviction of driving an automobile while under the influence of whiskey.

Charged with driving while drunk, Walter Buck was fined $100 and costs and ordered not to drive again in three months.

John H. Bear, charged with driving while drunk, paid a fine of $100 and costs and ordered not to drive another automobile for 90 days.

Gavine Hyman was sentenced to the roads for thirty days, and will be returned to the sheriff at expiration of the sentence.

Nora Davis was sentenced to seven days in jail on a charge of larceny. John Davis paid a fine of $25 on the same charge.

MR. COOLIDGE ABOUT READY WITH MESSAGE

Many Important Matters to Feature Annual Recommendations to Congress.

Washington, Nov. 23.—(AP)—Approaching the end of a laborious task, President Coolidge is about ready, by mandate of the Constitution, to present his views on the needs of the country in an annual message to Congress.

Coming at a time when a wide range of problems are pressing for solution, the message is awaited with interest in what the President will recommend regarding such disputed questions as farm relief, flood control and development of relations between the nation's resources and defenses.

In a general way, Mr. Coolidge has given his views on many questions but he has left for Congress the privilege of hearing specific recommendations which he may choose to make.

That he desires to round out the navy by building of more submarines and cruisers, provide adequately for the control of the Mississippi river and correlated projects, build up the merchant marine and depose of the Boulder Canyon proposal and in time, the Columbia river irrigation project, is known. But his message is expected to deal with these subjects in detail and it still remains to be disclosed what stand he will take on farm relief—the one problem which seems uppermost in the minds of many politicians, intermingled as it is with the presidential campaign of next year.

Repeated reiterations at the White House that the President will stand behind the treasury's recommendations for a $255,000,000 tax reduction as well as its other proposals leaves little doubt that Mr. Coolidge will inform Congress emphatically of what he considers his duty along these lines.

He also has made it plain that he would like to see expenditures for purely local purposes held to an absolute minimum so that a further reduction of the national debt could be effected.

Correlated with the development of the navy, Mr. Coolidge is expected to outline his attitude toward expansion of the country's air service, particularly as to commercial development of this method of transportation.

Likewise from his past expressions, he would be expected to commend the passage of a bill providing for consolidation of railroads and in view of the present disturbance, may make another effort to have Congress give him authority to act in coal strikes.

Unlike many other Presidents, who merely incorporated the recommendations of 194 Cabinet members as part of their annual messages, Mr. Coolidge requires specific recommendations from his officials in writing, and then puts them into his own words. He has been engaged in this work for several weeks but, plotting for a period each day, hopes to complete his task shortly.

Tobacco Market

Tops All Records

Total sales on the Greenville tobacco market for the season including today, were $3,863,418 pounds, or twelve million more than for the same period last year, according to figures made public this afternoon. Today's sales, finished before the noon hour.

Sales this week were 3,723,321 pounds for $709,270.48, an average of $25.78 per hundred pounds.

Season's sales to date, 53,862,418 pounds for $1,231,665.41 average, $23.21.

Last season's sales to Thanksgiving were 41,669,554 pounds.

GRAY TO DIE IN JANUARY

Mrs. Ruth Snyder Also to Pay for Killing Husband During Week of Jan. 9th.

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 23.—(AP)—The week beginning January 9th was fixed by the Court of Appeals today for the execution, in the electric chair at Sing Sing prison, of Mrs. Ruth Snyder, Queens Village housewife and mother, and her paramour Henry Judd Gray, for the murder of Mrs. Snyder's husband, Albert Snyder.

Under the provisions of the penal law, execution must take place not less than four weeks nor more than eight weeks after the date of sentence. Ordinarily the court fixes a time midway between the maximum and minimum times.

Clerk William J. Armstrong of the court prepared the death warrants, setting the execution for the week of January 9. These were signed by all the judges of the court and then were forwarded to Sing Sing prison where Mrs. Snyder and Gray are confined in the death house.

Fixing the date of execution followed the court's unanimous action yesterday in sustaining the convictions of the blonde haired Mrs. Snyder and her consort, salesman companion. The only chance now left to the convicted pair is executive clemency at the hands of Governor Smith. It is considered a certainty that appeals for commutation of sentence to life imprisonment will be presented, but the governor, judged by his procedure in the past will not give any intimation regarding his attitude until after the clemency hearing.

Earth Tremors Reported From Southport, N. C.

Southport, N. C., Nov. 23.—(AP)—Returning rapidly to normalcy after one of the worst frights in the history of the city, Southport today was busy checking up on a series of five earth tremors which rocked this vicinity last night and sent residents into a temporary panic.

Houses, jarred by the shock until their windows rattled, seemed none the worse, however, and it was believed that no damage was done. First impressions that the shock might have been caused by blasting or firing gave way rapidly to the conviction that they were caused by a mild earthquake when it was found that no other disturbance had taken place.

The tremors were felt at the fish factory of Charles Gaus, three miles from here, but were not discernible in Wilmington, 20 miles away.

The first disturbance, felt at 6:50 p. m., was followed by four others which emptied motion picture theatres and homes and sent residents scurrying into the open. Pilots on look-out in the tower at first were under the impression that their building had been rocked by the unloading of a heavy cargo on the wharf but this belief was dispelled when the first shock was followed by others and the disturbance was found to be several over the city and surrounding territory.

The shocks subsided at 7 o'clock and no further disturbance was felt. Communication was not interrupted although telephone conversation between Southport and Wilmington was rendered difficult during the actual disturbance.

BRITISH FLIER AGAIN FAILS TO CROSS PACIFIC

Captain Giles, However Determined to Attempt Another Flight to Honolulu

Los Angeles, Nov. 23.—(AP)—Two defeats in his advance upon the treacherous airways of the Pacific have failed to crack the determination of Captain Frederick A. Giles British war ace, to win his way from America to Australia.

Scarcely had he landed yesterday afternoon on the William Randolph Hearst ranch at San Simoun, Calif., after an almost miraculous escape, did Giles voice his new challenge to the Pacific.

"I'm going to try again," he said laughingly. "I'm going to fly the ship and fly her back to San Francisco. And then as soon as the moon's full and I can set new charts I'll be off again. I've started to fly to Australia, and by Georgia, I'm going to do it."

Giles' narrow escape from death came about 500 miles at sea. He had hopped off at 7:24 yesterday morning from Mills field, San Francisco, for Honolulu, his first stop in the long ocean flight. Four hundred and eight miles at sea and in an "air pocket," the fliers' term for variation in air density, he went spinning down, his airplane entirely out of control. His center bracket wires snapped under the strain, and the plane spun down as the pilot's eyes were closed.

When the British aviator brought his plane right side up, guessed as to the direction of the mainland and started shoreward.

He sighted shore sixty miles north of his landing place on the Hearst ranch, 50 miles north of San Luis Obispo.

"I think my experience solved definitely the mystery of what happened to the lost Dole racers" (contestants in the ill-fated air race to Honolulu), Giles said. "I had a plane and it was only by the chance that I survived what I went through. A monoplane is much less stable than a biplane; it wouldn't have had a chance in the weather that turned me over."

Giles declared the weather was good until he encountered clouds and squalls 300 miles out. At 400 miles off the mainland, he ran into "utterly foul weather," he said, and his plane turned upside down in a twisted air current. His charts, food and signal flares were lost when the plane turned over and Giles said he made a wild guess at heading back to land. He landed at San Simoun approximately eight hours after his take-off at San Francisco.

He declared he would return to San Francisco today and await fair weather and full moon before taking off again.

COOLIDGE TO TALK TONIGHT

President to Ask Nation to Observe Thanksgiving Over Radio.

Washington, Nov. 23.—(AP)—Over a radio hookup of more than a score of stations, President Coolidge tonight will ask the nation to observe another day of giving.

He will speak into the microphone from his study in the White House promptly at 8:15 Eastern Standard Time, and it is expected that his voice may be heard throughout the United States and possibly abroad.

It will mark the first time a President ever has been able to reach millions of people in a personal appeal to observe a Thanksgiving Day. Mr. Coolidge will read the text of his Thanksgiving Day proclamation which was issued earlier this month.

At the White House itself the day will be passed quietly. Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge will have as their guests for dinner Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Stearns of Boston, who are house guests of the President. Their son John will not be with them, Amherst College which he attends permitting but the one day as a holiday.

Just which of the turkeys that have arrived at the White House so far will be served at the presidential table has not been decided. One of the three which reached Washington yesterday was sent to the President by the North Platte Valley Co-operative Poultry Association of Nebraska, and an equally fine, live bird came from the Brady, Texas, Chamber of Commerce. The third came from a personal friend of Mr. Coolidge whose name was not made public.

It appears, however, that no such interesting table specimen is to be received this year as a year ago when Re-becca, the raccoon made her debut at the White House. Intended as a table delicacy, she won her way into the President's heart and has been his pet ever since.

The Weather Bureau has predicted cold and dismal weather for the holiday.

Suit Results From Collision

Durham, Nov. 23.—(AP)—A collision between a bus operated by the Carolina Coach Company and a touring car was the cause for filing yesterday of damage suits aggregating $227,800.

As the outcome of the accident which resulted in the death of Richard Lambert of Durham, formerly of Cincinnati, five persons have started litigation. R. C. Finley, administrator of Lambert's estate, is seeking $300,000. Miss Grace Cox and Miss Maxine Wilkinson, who were injured in the collision, are seeking $75,000 and $25,000, respectively. M. V. Lawrence is seeking $2,800 for the destruction of his car in which the girls were riding with Lambert. A. Tuckerman, rigger in the bus, has named the bus company and Miss Wilkinson as joint defendants in a suit for $25,000.

The Employers Indemnity Company of Kansas City, also is named defendant in a five thousand dollar action by the administrator for the amount of Lambert's policy.

Hopes Redfern Is Still Alive

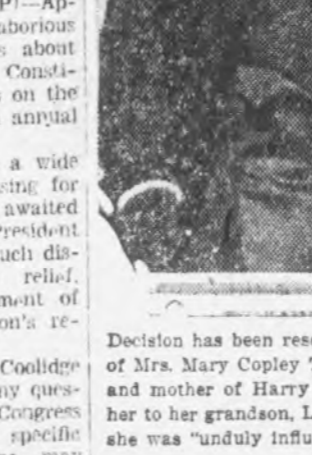

Charlotte, Nov. 23.—(AP)—Hope that Paul Redfern, Brunswick, Ga. Brazil flier, is safe and will emerge from South American jungles to return home is still held out by a sister of the missing flier, Mrs. A. J. Redfern, of Ashland Avenue, Charlotte. Admitting that she had no reason to hope, Mrs. Redfern, however, declared, "I have not given up hope—it isn't yet too late."

Mrs. Redfern said that her father was planning a trip to South America in search for his son but that her mother opposed him going.

"Mother," she said, "feels sometimes that Paul is alive somewhere and sometimes she says she doesn't know."

Mrs. Grayson Coming Home

U. S. S. Leviathan, Nov. 23.—(AP) Firm in the belief that she had already established one record for American women traveling in Europe, Mrs. Frances Grayson Wilson, who unsuccessfully tried to establish a trans-Atlantic flight record was headed for home today.

She visited France, Germany and England without spending a single minute shopping.

The only newly acquired articles that Mrs. Grayson brought aboard the Leviathan was a Southampton were a pair of fur-lined flying boots and furnished helmet for use if she tries to fly across the Atlantic in the winter.

Bennett Doty To Be Released

Paris, Nov. 23.—(AP)—Bennet J. Doty, American, who enlisted in the French Foreign Legion and was court-martialed in Syria for desertion during the Druse rebellion, will be released from service shortly in response to "American public opinion."

This was announced by the Ministry of War which explained that Doty's release was to please Americans and was in "disregard of all regulations."

The order for the release was in compliance with a request of the Ministry for Foreign Affairs.

20 SOUTHERN TEAMS BATTLE ON TOMORROW

Atlanta, Nov. 23.—(AP)—Twenty Southern Conference football teams will carry their colors into battle within their own ranks tomorrow while two others will be embattled against non-conference foes.

All carry memories of scores of a year ago against the same opponents.

Tennessee beat Kentucky last season at Knoxville 6-0. They meet Thursday at Lexington.

South Carolina nosed out North Carolina State in 1926, 20 to 14. The Gamecocks and Wolves play at Columbia this week.

Virginia beat North Carolina by a toe a year past, 3 to 0. They dedicate the Tar Heels new stadium at Chapel Hill Thanksgiving. Clemson lost to Furman of the S. I. A. A. 3-0.

Washington and Lee and Florida tied in 1926, 7 to 7. They play at Jacksonville tomorrow.

Tulane and Louisiana State carry the recollection of a 7 to 0 victory for the Tigers a year ago as they clash at Baton Rouge.

Vanderbilt whipped their old rivals from Sewanee last season, 13 to 0.

Alabama crushed Georgia last fall 33 to 6.

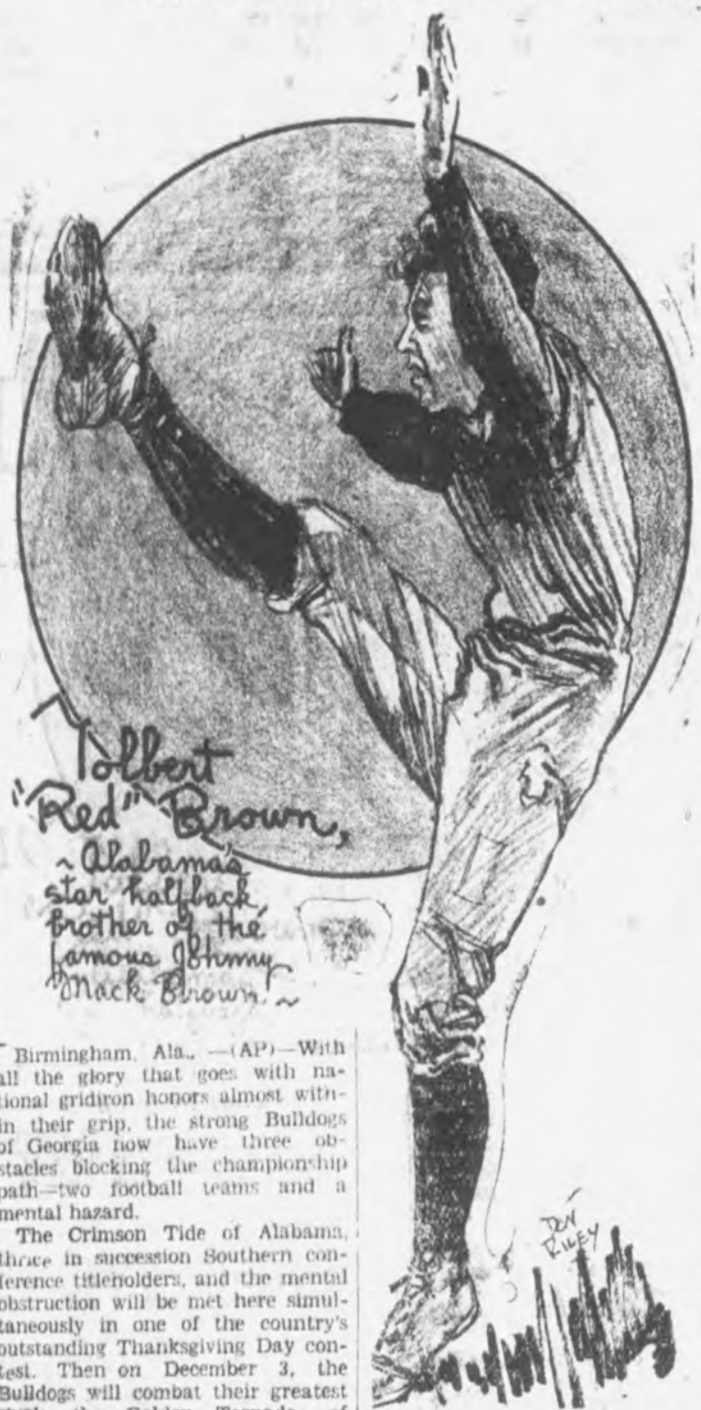

Virginia Poly won over Virginia Military Institute in 1926, 14 to 7.

Georgia Tech downed Auburn a year ago 20 to 7.

Ole Miss nosed out Mississippi A. & M. last autumn 7 to 6. They play this year at Oxford.

Maryland beat Johns Hopkins in 1926, 17 to 14.

TWO STRONG FOES IN GEORGIA'S PATH TO NATIONAL HONORS

Robert "Red" Brown, Alabama star halfback, brother of the famous Johnny Mack Brown.

The Tide appeared to have the "Indian sign" on the Bulldogs. So bewildered were the Georgians that the virtually were at the mercy of Alabama.

But against Alabama and this string of overwhelming victories, Georgia sends perhaps the greatest team in its history, a team which has acquired confidence along with its impressive strength. Yale, defeated 14 to 10, is the only eleven which has given Georgia a real contest this season. Virginia fell, 32 to 0; Furman, 32 to 0; Auburn, 33 to 3; Tulane, 31 to 0; Florida, 26 to 0, and Clemson, 32 to 0.

Four years ago Head Coach "Kid" Woodruff began establishing the Notre Dame system of football at Georgia and Harry Mehre and Jimmie Crowley, former Rockne stars, have developed a first string line composed largely of former backfield men and at last three formidable sets of backfield axes.

Herdis McCrary, a plunging fullback is the greatest individual star on the team. He is leading the conference in scoring and brilliant and consistent playing has caused experts to consider him a candidate for All-American. Hooks Estes, Rothstein, McTigue and Dudley are almost as dangerous to the opposition. Nash and Captain Shiver are two of the most prominent ends in the South. Despite two defeats this year,

Alabama has a strong team and has been pouncing for Georgia. The Golden Tornado of Georgia Tech administered one of the Alabama beatings and is expected to give the Bulldogs their hardest battle of the season.

Two Governors To Attend Game At Chapel Hill

Chapel Hill, Nov. 23.—(AP)—Less than 5,000 reserved seat tickets for the Carolina-Virginia football game tomorrow today remain an attainable, authorities said, indicating many of them would be taken before night.

Governors McLean of North Carolina and Byrd of Virginia and U. N. C. trustees will participate in brief exercises before the game, to formally dedicate Kenan Memorial stadium, built at a cost of $300,000 and constructed to hold 24,000 persons.

Both teams completed training for the game today. The Virginians were expected here tonight, followed by a special train bringing the Old Dominion students.

Literary Department Meets

Mesdames J. M. Edwards and J. S. Willard delightfully entertained the literary department of the Woman's club Friday afternoon at the former's home.

Members responded to roll call with current events.

The program was in charge of Miss Turner of the college who gave a very interesting paper on "The Life and Early Works of Sinclair Lewis," also very entertaining papers on his books, "Main Street," "Babbitt and Arrow Smith."

At the conclusion of the program the hostess assisted by little Misses Sallie Edwards and Ruth Willard served a tempting salad course, tea and mints.

Miss Mary Winborne and Mrs. S. M. White were guests of the club.

Attention Juniors

Greenville Council No. 135, Jr. O. U. A. M. will not hold their regular communication on Thursday night, Nov. 24th, on account of Thanksgiving. All brethren are urged to attend the council meeting on Thursday night, Dec. 1st, 1927, for the purpose of nominating and electing the council officers for the ensuing term. Oyster supper will be served and every member is urged to attend.

By order of the Councilor,
John R. Barker, Rec. Secy.

SENIOR CLASS WORKING ON "THE BLUE BIRD"

Every member of the senior class which has about fifty members, is working on "The Blue Bird," which promises to be one of the most elaborate productions ever given in the college. With Miss Gertrude Knott state representative of Community Drama in North Carolina, as coach, the success of the production is insured. Rehearsals are being held every afternoon and evening, and at all times whenever any of the sixty in the play find spare moments.

The staging, lighting plans and costumes are keeping half a hundred other girls busy.

The scenery is being put up this week. Some of it has been used by Miss Knott in a previous presentation of "The Blue Bird" and much of the scenery is being gathered from other parts of the state. The class has spared itself no expense in the matter of scenery. Every effort is being made to make the scenes a modern fairland. The dream scenes or imaginative scenes of the play are to be played behind gauze which is being furnished by Carner Wilson.

The play will be given in the old auditorium due to the better facilities for staging. In order to accommodate both students and town folks as well as out-of-town visitors, two performances are being given.

TOMORROW IS "THANKSGIVING DAY"

The caption immediately brings to the mind the thought of a table loaded with many delicacies, amidst which a golden brown turkey, stuffed with highly flavored dressing, reigns supreme, nor are the many pumpkins that will be made into pies with which to end a perfect meal forgotten.

Those few pioneers of the wilderness, who in the fall of 1621 were the first to celebrate this day, were thankful that they had been allowed to live, that the harvest was such as to sustain them through the winter, and for a fair possibility of continued existence.

It is doubtful if the most visionary among them would have prophesied that in a few centuries cities, containing buildings many times higher than the highest of trees, would have taken the place of the forests which hid the hostile Indians; that self-propelled machines would climb over hills on concrete roads at a faster rate of speed than the deer that traveled the wooded paths; that even the air would be conquered and man rival the eagle in his flights, or that they would be remembered as the pioneers of the world's most prosperous nation.

Today, their descendants Notice Notice to the public, to who cashes any more checks for Willie Baker, have the losage. I am not responsible any longer. W. M. Tyson, Mrs. H. C. Bedford, Nov. 18-21.

living amongst circumstances that would have seemed to them as Utopian, possessed of conveniences and luxuries that in the wildest dreams of fancy they would not have hoped for, should not forget that for these blessings they are indebted to the creator of the universe, and on tomorrow emphasize their thanks and not the pleasures.

ABOUT TOWN

"On December 8th the Northeastern District Welfare Association, which comprises twenty-eight counties, will hold its annual conference in New Bern, according to announcement made today by K. T. Futrell, secretary of the organization.

"We have tried to arrange a program which will be of interest and instruction to the layman as well as the welfare worker," he stated.

"There will be plenty of time for discussion, so that many of the more important problems of present day will be considered.

"Welfare workers of the counties involved are urged to lay aside their work for the day and join in making the conference the best in years."

"Greenville is ready to join the proposed New Bright Belt League," stated members of the delegation who attended the league meeting in Goldsboro Monday night.

"There is no reason on earth why this part of the State should not have as good baseball as other sections. We have the money, and we have people who are sufficiently interested in the pastime to give it the support it deserves.

"If other towns stand behind the movement, like we propose to do, then there is nothing to prevent the Bright Belt League from becoming an actuality. We hope to see organization perfected at the meeting to be held in Goldsboro December 2nd and are going to use our influence in that direction."

That the average American woman is already laying aside gifts for Christmas is confirmed by a letter received by a member of this staff today. "I had no idea in the world it was so difficult to select presents for father and brother. It used to be that any old thing would pass, but "bud" has grown up and "pa" is older than he used to be and they have become decidedly more discriminating in their tastes.

"I may get through the ordeal alive, but I'll tell the world playing Santa Claus to grown-up boys is no little job. This old Saint Nick positively will not recognize herself after the rush is over."

"It was one of the most ruthless murders probably ever committed in this country and the man and woman are getting what's coming to them, emphatically declared a reader today, commenting on action of the Circuit Court of Appeals denying a new trial of Mrs. Ruth Snyder and Henry Judd Gray, convicted some time ago for the murder of the woman's husband.

"There is no doubt in the world as to the guilt to both of them. They confessed that they committed the crime and the Circuit Court of Appeals was absolutely right in its decision denying a new trial. There is no reason in saying justice when guilt has been established beyond a reasonable doubt. Those who commit murder must expiate the crime with their lives.

The Reflector will suspend publication Thanksgiving Day, but in the afternoon the Associated Press leased wires will be open for reports on the football games. The game at Chapel Hill will furnish thrills for thousands of sports lovers in this State and Virginia and local people who do not get an opportunity of attending are invited around to this office to hear side line reports. The Associated Press will cover the game in detail and plays will be flashed over its wire the minute they are executed. If you can't leave town, come around and help us play the game of keeping the world informed.

Not County Highway Dear Mr. Editor: You have recently had two editorials in your paper regarding the poor condition of the shoulders on the road between Greenville and Ayden. In them, editorials you suggest that the Highway Commission take same action towards remedying this condition.

I did not know that you were referring to the County Highway Commission, but in order that no mistake be made I am writing you this to advise that this road is a State Highway and in no way under the supervision of the County Highway Commission.

This road is under the supervision of the State Highway Commission and in the First District, of which Mr. F. C. Kugler is the Commissioner and Mr. J. C. Gardner, of Tarboro, N. C., is District Engineer.

The State maintains a patrolman on the road and spends a large sum of money for maintenance of the road on all roads in this district. There should be no reason at all for the shoulders not being kept in better condition.

Thanking you for publishing this letter so that no misunderstanding can arise as to the responsibility for the condition, I am, Yours very truly,

STUDEBAKER THE GREAT INDEPENDENT NEW WORLD RECORDS For Endurance and Speed established by 3 STUDEBAKER COMMANDERS THE WORLD'S CHAMPION CAR Nothing made by man in the history of the world has ever traveled so far so fast—25,000 miles in less than 23,000 minutes Read the facts below TO THE PUBLIC: South Bend, Indiana, November 10th, 1927 On October 18th at 2:49 p. m., two strictly stock Studebaker Commander Sport Roadsters, and a strictly stock Commander Sedan, started at the Atlantic City Speedway (one and one-half mile board track) to run continuously for 25,000 miles and thereby, if successful, to establish a new world record for endurance, and also, if possible, to average better than a mile a minute and thus break all existing speed records not already held by Studebaker cars. These were the objectives sought by Studebaker. This run was sanctioned and supervised by the American Automobile Association, which stationed a squad of 35 men on the job in charge of Val Harsenape, Secretary of the Contest Board of the Association. These men kept all of the records by means of the most accurate electrical time recording instruments and tape which registered every lap (16,667 laps) as each car passed over a wire stretched across the track immediately in front of the judges' stand, which was occupied by four A. A. A. men at all times—day and night. In addition, at least two members of the A. A. A. Technical Committee kept an accurate record of all gas, oil and water replenishments, together with parts replacements and work done on the cars. The sole duty of the Studebaker drivers and pit men was to keep the cars on the track and the average speed above a mile a minute. They had nothing to do with the recording of distance or speed. The Official Results of the tests as duly certified by the American Automobile Association were as follows: Both roadsters finished 25,000 miles on November 3rd at 1:37 p. m., which made the total elapsed time 15 days, 22 hours and 48 minutes, or 22,968 minutes, and the average speed 65.31 miles per hour for the entire distance. The Sedan finished 25,000 miles on November 4th at 10:59 a. m., which made the total elapsed time 16 days, 19 hours and 20 minutes, or 24,200 minutes, and the average

Market Report

Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON
 New York, Nov. 23.—(AP)—Early declines of 15 to 20 points seemed to attract trade buying and covering in the cotton market today, and recoveries followed. A little more cotton for sale as prices approached yesterday's closing quotation, checked the rally, but mid-afternoon prices were within 4 to 5 points of the best.

STOCK MARKET
 New York, Nov. 23.—(AP)—Speculative interest in today's stock market centered in about a score of specialties, which soared 4 to 12 points. Standard industrials and rails held fairly steady, meeting good support on reactions, but also encountering large offerings on the rallies. Pool operations continued to provide a large part of the buying power, although increased public participation was reported by many of the speculative favorites.

Calling of about $10,000,000 in bank loans, presumably to meet holiday currency demands, had no effect on the money market. Call money renewed at 3 1/2 per cent for the fifteenth consecutive session.

Rumors of a new steel merger to be headed by the Youngstown Sheet and Tube Company were not taken seriously in banking quarters. Some selling came into U. S. Steel common, but it was checked by the announcement of another slight increase in the corporation's mill operators, accompanied by reports Otis Steel, preferred soared eleven points to a new high at 91 on reports that the company would earn more than double its $7 dividend this year. National Lead jumped nearly 10 points to a new top at 195 and Brooklyn Edison advanced 7 points to a new peak at 194.

The closing was firm. Total sales approximated 2,850,000 shares.

GRAIN
 Chicago, Nov. 23.—(AP)—Enlargement of the 1927 estimated yield of wheat in Argentina by 5,000,000 bushels as compared with last year had a bearish effect here on wheat values today. Pronounced strength shown by the Winnipeg wheat market however, counted as something of an offset. On the other hand, export business in North American wheat today appeared slack.

Wheat closed unsettled 5-8 to 1c net lower, corn 3-8 to 3-4, to 7-8c off, oats unchanged to 18c down and provisions unchanged to 10c decline.

 Chicago, Nov. 23.—(AP)—Even money was being wagered today that the fight Friday night between Paul Berlenbach and Mickey Walker, world's middleweight champion, will not go the full ten rounds.

Walker supporters were in the majority, discounting Berlenbach's statement that he will stop the champion early. Walker's quick knockout of Mike McFigue a fortnight ago has made him a heavy favorite.

Spafford Speaks In Capital City

Raleigh, Nov. 23.—(AP)—Women comprising the American Legion Auxiliary went through more during the world war than the men, in the opinion of Edward E. Spafford, national commander of the American Legion.

"Our physical suffering was bad at times but their mental sufferings were worse," he said.

Commander Spafford, speaker at the city yesterday, was the principal speaker at a banquet given by the local Legion post in his honor. He advised the Legionnaires to consider the women in handling their problems. "Men can talk back to us but they dare not talk to our women," he said.

WILDCATS READY FOR BATTLE

Davidson, Nov. 23.—(AP)—Today found the Wildcats in good shape physically for the invasion tomorrow of Duke's Blue Devils though one or two players were listed as having slowly healing battle scars.

Coaches Younger and Tilson were not sure of several positions in the line, awaiting until tonight to say who would definitely start for the locals. The Duke student body expects to accompany its eleven here for the game.

Thanksgiving

Each year we honor the custom of Thanksgiving. Always our thanks go up for certain familiar things—for Harvest, for Home, and for Friendship.

For these we give thanks and for the opportunity to serve the people of this community and county, we are truly grateful.

Play More This Fall But Pay Less

I wonder where the idea ever started that November was a bleak, cheerless time. As a matter of fact it is a splendid month to enjoy out-of-door life as there is none of the enervating heat of summer, or the biting cold of later months.

But one must have the right clothes for hikes thru crackling leaves or walks in the rain. Not expensive clothes, but warm, comfortable and—thank goodness—modish togs. Drop in to our store some afternoon soon, and see how very, very little they cost.

Let's make this an out-of-doors Fall and Winter. It will be a much healthier and happier one if you do.

Frocks for Fall Occasions

Have a Fresh Distinction

There is an air of newness about fall frocks that is welcome—rich fall colors and fascinating styles.

Black and Fall Colors
 Tones of brown, new tan shades, green, blue and red—black continues to be favored. Tulle, satin and crepe are the popular fabrics.

that they are. And THINKING, HOPING and BELIEVING gradually build up what is worth while in life.

The DuPont Company went on a $10 dividend basis yesterday. Stockholders got the regular dividends on the $10 basis, amounting to $5.54945, and as an extra $11.312146 dividend on General Motors stock, owned by DuPont.

Soon will appear the new Ford car, and then will come automobile production on a greater scale. Mr. Henry Ford, who recently settled a law suit with Henry Ford has had a long talk with Ford and saw the new car. He described it as a "small Lincoln."

There are various ways of dealing with a jury in our democracy, high finance hires private detectives to trail each juror and report which one is "open to reason" or interested in an "automobile as long as a city block."

In Chicago, the simpler way is to warn the jury that convicting an accused man, important in underworld crime, means a bomb thrown in your windows or a blackjack on your head.

Eight witnesses testified that they saw a certain individual kill a woman who had refused to obey gang orders. One juror wanted to convict, but voted for acquittal when the eleven others warned him that to do so was to endanger his life and his family. The accused gangster having shown justice "where it got off," walked out of prison, "free and vindicated."

William C. Hoover, just elected city treasurer of Reading, Pa., on the Socialist ticket, will not escape criticism by any "regular" politician. His job is worth $20,000 a year, and he accepts only $6,000, saying: "Where the average citizen finds it hard to make ends meet, an official should not get $20,000 a year."

That is no way to make Socialism popular with practical politicians.

The Italian King called Mussolini to power when the fascisti marched on Rome, but has never adopted the Fascist salute. When people cheer him the King uses the regulation military salute, avoiding the Fascist salute which requires the arm held out straight with great vigor.

The Italian King lives in fortunate safe days. Poor Louis the Sixteenth of France put the cockade of the Revolution in his hat, but even that didn't save the head under the hat.

The price of cotton went up violently as the estimate of the crop was down by 13,000,000 bales yesterday. The rising price is good news for the South and the whole country. But it is a pity that cotton men must depend on the boll weevil or a Mississippi flood for decent prices.

Christians Oppose Wet For President

Raleigh, Nov. 23.—(AP)—The Eastern North Carolina Christian Conference in session at the Piney Plains Christian church, six miles from here, goes on record as a body as disapproving the nomination of any man for the presidency who is "wet."

In adopting this resolution, the conference takes the same action as taken recently by the Methodists and Baptists in recent conventions.

The conference, before closing its session today, discussed the nationwide movement of the Christian and Congregational churches to unite, but leaders predicted it would take some time to affect a union of the two churches such as was brought about between the Christian and Congregational churches in Raleigh under the name of the United Church earlier this year.

German Fliers Return to Horta

Horta Island of Paval, Azores, Nov. 23.—(AP)—Undeterred by their failure to make a successful get-away on a trans-Atlantic flight to the United States yesterday, the crew of the Junkers D-1230 came back to Horta planning another hop-off tonight if favorable weather conditions prevail.

Lilli Dillenz, Viennese actress and passenger aboard the plane, although expressing disgust with the long delay and with yesterday's failure to complete the 1,600 mile hop to Newfoundland, is still full of determination to become the first woman to span the Atlantic by air.

The failure of the plane to continue on the flight last night after taking off at 6 o'clock was due partly to the heavy weight of the fuel carried in addition to the crew and their woman passenger, as well as atmospheric conditions.

Testifies in Own Defense

Albemarle, N. C., Nov. 23.—(AP)—Jasper Whitley, 21, charged with criminal assault upon a 13-year-old girl here last August, today renewed the legal battle for life after the girl, her mother, a physician, and other prosecution witnesses had testified concerning the alleged crime. Whitley took the stand in his own defense yesterday after the prosecution had rested in the late afternoon. He said that he had gone to Norwood in search for work and

Mayor Ousted At Smithfield

Smithfield, Nov. 23.—(AP)—Clayton is to have a new Mayor—by edict of a superior court jury. It was decided in court today that the incumbent, C. W. Carter is not legally entitled to hold office and his opponent in the last election, Dr. F. G. Gower, takes over the post.

Gower received 239 votes in the election while Carter received only 238. Carter brought suit alleging several school teachers had voted illegally.

First Flogger Goes on Trial At Luverne, Ala

Luverne, Ala., Nov. 23.—(AP)—A jury was today considering testimony in defense of Shelby Gregory first of the 34 men named in 102 indictments to face trial here in Crenshaw circuit court on charges of flogging.

Judge A. E. Gable indicated that the trial of the cases remaining after Gregory's would stretch over a considerable period when he announced that a jury for next week would be drawn tomorrow.

Chicago Wins Suit

Washington, Nov. 23.—(AP)—Chicago today won before Special Master Charles E. Hughes in its fight to divert water from Lake Michigan into its drainage canal.

GLORIA SWANSON

In Her Supreme Screen Achievement

As a modern maid craving romance, as a society doll wedded to wealth, as a prima donna gaining with fame, as a school teacher duty before beauty, Love swayed her being. Here's storm and sunshine love, love at its peak and love at its depth. Dramatic love, romantic love, real love and tinsel love enacted against settings of sumptuous splendor to thrill, amaze and satisfy the most discriminating. Here is the screen's most attractive beauty at her best.
