

DIXIE SET FOR BIG TRACK AND FIELD SEASON

Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 14.—(AP)—The southern conference track and field "tie" is now off and its open season in Dixie for the athletes who throw the hammer, javelin and discus.
Lundy Smith, University of Alabama distance man, has been chosen exclusively that he is already set for another big season, the sum runner having "done" the three mile Birmingham Athletic club road race the other day in 15:51 3-5, a new record for that historic event.
Brewer and Wright of Georgia Tech and Young of Georgia, also showed fine form in the same race.
Elliott, of North Carolina, in the annual cross-country run of the conference sometime ago won that event.
These men promise a sensational battle when they gather at Birmingham next spring for the conference track and field meet.
As for the other events, Mississippi A. & M., Louisiana State, North Carolina, Auburn and Maryland have a number of athletes preparing, many of them also intend to take a "tryout" in the Olympic tests.
The conference has endorsed the Olympic tryout and appointed a committee to foster closer relationship between the International sports body and southern colleges.
Some of the Olympic tests will be held in the southeast, the city for the trials to be announced soon.
The southern intercollegiate athletic association, holding its greatest field meet last spring, has reason to believe that the next one will be even more impressive as Mississippi college, Birmingham Southern, Chattanooga, Centre, the Citadel, Furman, Presbyterian and others have likely candidates.

Tunney Helps Chicago Raise Funds for Poor

Chicago, Dec. 14.—(AP)—Inspired by the presence of Gene Tunney, 3,000 Chicagoans joined in a Christmas fund banquet last night which turned out to be one of the most remarkable social affairs in the history of Chicago.
The Tunney admirers not only raised more than $30,000 through the banquet to provide Christmas baskets for Chicago's poor, but tossed a shower of $100, $50 and $1,000 checks at the Christmas fund chairman for blocks of seats at a Christmas fund boxing program next Monday. Nearly $20,000 was raised in a few minutes by this auction.
The champion rewarded the gathering with his personal views of the controversy over the famous "long count" of Soldier field last September, in a fifteen minute address. The heavy-weight champion expressed his opinion of anyone who would impugn the honesty of the ring officials or the city and state officials back of them. Tunney coined a word to describe such criticism, calling it "unsporting."
Most of Tunney's talk was devoted to the battle of the "long count" but he led off by thanking the Christmas fund committee for giving him the opportunity to help bring Christmas cheer to Chicago poor.

U. N. C. Student Knocks Out Miami Heavy At Durham

Durham, Dec. 13.—(AP)—Add Warren, student at the University of North Carolina and former intercollegiate light-heavyweight champion, took his place today in the professional ranks after a sensational professional debut last night when he knocked out Lou Carpenter, Miami heavy, in the second round of a scheduled 10-round bout.
The Tar-Heel student exhibited himself as master of the situation and kept his professional opponent on the defensive throughout the brief action. A sharp uppercut delivered with a smashing right as Carpenter attempted to clinch, ended the bout a minute after the second round had opened.
Sell Pitcher and Catcher.
New York, Dec. 14.—(AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates today announced the disposal of Emil Yde, Southpaw pitcher, and Roy Spencer, catcher, to the Indianapolis club of the American association for a "valid consideration."

BIG TEN COURT TEAMS START RACE WITH MICHIGAN FAVORED TO REPEAT

Illinois chance for a Big Ten basketball championship this year are built around Captain Everette Olson (left) while Minnesota hopes for better things under a new coach, Dave McMillan, (upper center). Wisconsin is led by Captain Louis Behr (right) while Michigan's champions still have Frank Harrigan (lower center) as a running mate for Oosterbaan.

Chicago.—(AP)—Two new coaches and the return of many of last year's stars enliven the Western Conference basketball season, now moving through the practice schedule in preparation for the opening Big Ten games starting January 7.
Dave McMillan, former coach of the University of Idaho where he made a brilliant record, has taken charge of the Minnesota five and Arthur Longberg from Washburn College, Topeka Kan., is a North-western.
The Gophers are hoping for better things with their new coach and Minnesota squad gives a promise of power. Six football veterans on the squad, which is captained by Mally Nydahal, half back on the eleven.
At Idaho, Mac Millan won two Pacific Coast conference titles and his team were runners-up five times. Minnesota is hopeful for a return to the court prestige enjoyed years ago under Dr. L. C. Cooke.
Michigan, Purdue and Indiana which finished the 1926-27 title race in that order, seem to have the call for top positions again this year.
Five of Purdue's last year's variety, led by Cummins, the high point scorer of the conference give Coach Ward Lambert a promising start. For the preliminary games Lambert planned double-headers, an innovation in conference circles to get a line on all material.
Oosterbaan and Harrigan, the champion passing pair of the conference, are back in the ranks again at Michigan, which seems to have lost but little of the power that carried it through to a championship last winter. The Wolverines all are six-footers or better.
Indiana is not in such good shape having lost most of its lettermen.
Longberg began his Big Ten court career under a handicap at Northwestern for virtually all lettermen are out of the running there. Northwestern still has Waddie Fisher for center, if football injuries have not incapacitated him.

ARRANGE BALL SCHEDULE FOR THIS SECTION

Representatives of the North Eastern Athletic Convention met at the high school building in this city last night to arrange the basketball schedule for the coming season.
Each team representing the fifteen teams of the Conference will play fourteen games, the season beginning January 10 and closing on February 24.
An executive committee composed of James A. Knoch, Greenville; Mr. Davis, Roanoke Rapids; C. W. Foster, Greenville; James Simpson, Rocky Mount; and E. S. Johnson, Washington, was elected to have charge of all matters pertaining to the eligibility of players and constitution and by-laws. No high school outside the Conference circle will be played that do not conform to the standards set up by the Conference.
The following teams are members of the Conference: Elizabeth City, Farmville, Fremont, Goldsboro, Greenville, Hertford, Kinston, New Bern, Rich Square, Roanoke Rapids, Scotland Neck, Rocky Mount, Weldon, Wilson, Washington. It was decided at the meeting last night that both small and large schools will come under the same classification.

DUKE STUDENTS GET MACHINE VOTING COURSE

Durham, N. C., Dec. 13.—(AP)—Machine voting such as is now practiced in New York City will not be unfamiliar to Duke student's matter life if a course of instruction now being pushed at the university proves successful. A miniature voting machine of the type used in municipal elections in New York is being demonstrated by Dr. R. S. Rankin, of the Duke faculty.

MANY TRADES IN CONCLAVE OF LEAGUERS

New York, Dec. 14.—(AP)—With the David Harms of baseball slightly stopped from a day of almost constant bidding, mongrels of the major leagues bent today to the second session of their annual conclave while the hot stove-league sat back and took a part in initial trades to see what made them so.
National league club owners, clearing their own slate before entering into joint meetings with the American League Thursday, learned that the circuit smashed all previous attendance records when the turn-out, clocked 5,300,000 times in 1927 and that baseball that bounded around in the center field bleachers on many an afternoon were only part of 51,996 pellets unimpeded out for batters to maul in another new record.
With president John A. Heydler's message of prosperity out of the way pilots of the senior circuit put their heads together and out of the dickering came one of the former trades of the off-season to couple with a similar barter in the American league.
St. Louis club led the way in both deals, the Browns trading Harry Rice, outfielder, and Elmer Vander, pitcher, to Detroit in exchange for first baseman Lou Bleche and Harry Manush, slugline outfielder. The Cardinals shipped pitcher Jimmy Ring back to Philadelphia along with a battery mate Johnny Schulte, in a swap for shortstop Jimmy Cooney, outfielder Johnny Mokon, and catcher Clarence Jomard. Neither deal involved cash consideration.
The bullish tendency of the Ivory market brought rumors of bigger and better trades impending and four clubs were reported bidding for the services of George Sisler, first baseman of the Browns, and definitely tagged for exportation by the experts with Blue now in the St. Louis fold. Almost every club has something to offer the Chicago White Sox for anyone of four stars pitchers—Lyons, Blankenship, Connally and Thomas. The Yankees want a pitcher, Rauffing of the Red Sox but not in exchange for either Gehrig, Lazzeri, Combs or Musel.

Give Up Attempt To Swim Strait

Tangier, Morocco, Dec. 14.—(AP)—After making preparations to start their swim of the Strait of Gibraltar today, two London typists gave up the attempt.
Miss Mercedes Gleitz and Miss Mollie Hudson left the port of Tangier early this morning preparatory to starting the swim. They returned when the weather became unfavorable.

Old Timers of Major Leagues Hunting Jobs

New York, Dec. 14.—(AP)—Old timers, eyes the object of any manager's eye, who sought the top notch in pitching wars, are roving around the halls of the major league assemblies today looking for jobs.
Bob Shawkey and "Bullet" Joe Bush, Yankee heroes of other days both seek new baseball homes for 1928. Herb Thormahlen, also a former Yankee, is in frequent conference that may bring him another big league berth. Shawkey would like a job as minor league manager and if that fails he probably will return to New York as a pitching coach.
Nap Rucker, famous southpaw, and knuckle ball wizard of years ago, came up from Macon, Ga., to talk over reinforcements for his Sally League outfit, now a farm for the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Fire Destroys Old Treasures Of Prize Ring

Allenhurst, N. J., Dec. 14.—(AP)—Treasures of a life time devoted to the prize ring were in ashes, Jimmy L'forest, 65 year old trainer, was heartbroken today.
The collection, patiently gathered and stored in trunks for some future date when display in a boxing museum might keep his memory fresh, was destroyed in the fire that leveled Deforest's home.
The voice of the man who trained Jack Dempsey for his conquest of Jess Willard and helped a score of fighters to the heights, trembled as he told of some of his loss.
"There were the gloves that Jim Mace and Mike Donovan fought with, John L. Sullivan's, Jim Corbett's, Tom Sharkey's, Kid McCoy's and most previous of all the gloves, Joe Gans and Spider Kelly wore in their great fight long ago.
"There were trunks filled with trophies and that big bear-skin Shako, the Drum Major's hat I wore when I led the big Tim Sullivan life and drum corps down the Bowery. All gone up in smoke I'm heart broken."

Wrenn Throws More Light On Bank Failure

Wilkesboro, N. C., Dec. 14.—(AP)—Continuing his recital of events which led up to the failure and collapse of the Bank of Wilkes here several months ago, Clem Wrenn, former president of the institution, was prepared today to throw further light on the financial entanglements that involved him in charges of misusing the bank's funds and wrongfully conducting the affairs of the institution.
Having pleaded guilty and entering a plea ofnolo contendere yesterday at the opening of the trial, Wrenn was called on the stand to explain the situation to the court. Previously a number of character witnesses, including Judge Johnson J. Hays, of the Federal Court of the Middle District of North Carolina, had testified that they believed Wrenn was a victim of his own generosity in making loans.
J. B. Rodgers, a certified public accountant, was the first witness to take the stand and related how an audit of the bank's books had revealed six notes of $25,000 each which the prosecution contended had been forged. A number of county officials indicated in connection with the notes are expected to face trial next week after the case against Wrenn is ended.

To Practice Games for Duke.

Durham, Dec. 14.—(AP)—Two practice games, the only tests for the Duke University Blue Devils basketball outfit before the Christmas holidays, will be played Saturday and Monday. The Saturday game will be with Greensboro team, while Duke meets Rocky Mount "Y" cagers here Monday night, Coach Dehart announced today.
Washington, Dec. 14.—(AP)—The house today voted against repeal of the federal inheritance tax, rejecting 191 to 55 an amendment to eliminate the levy from the new tax bill.

Sans Souci Club Meets

The Sans Souci Book Club met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. L. Best. It was the Christmas meeting and throughout the entire afternoon the Christmas spirit prevailed. The home was beautifully decorated in holly and red poinsettias. Seventeen members responded to roll call.

A discussion of our part in making life happier and brighter for someone less fortunate than ourselves during the Christmas season resulted in the club writing money to be spent by one of our members for a needy family of whom we knew.

The program for the afternoon was in charge of Mrs. J. Key Brown and was turned into "an old fashioned Christmas party." In a charming manner, Mrs. Brown read an appealing and thoroughly modern Christmas story "The Blossoming Red," by Mary Stewart Cutting. This was followed by two solos beautifully rendered by Mrs. J. H. Waldrop, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Ray Tyson, Jr. These two solos were wonderfully impressive and struck the spiritual note of the program, reminding us once more of the real meaning of Christmas and preparing our hearts for this fast-coming Yuletide.

Following this, Mrs. Brown passed to each of us an attractive Christmas folder containing a Christmas contest both unique and fun-making. There were three lucky winners but a miniature Santa Claus appeared on a tray bringing us not only to the winners, but to each one present, an interesting-looking Christmas package containing a small bottle of choice perfume. This ended the program amid a tumult of laughter and conversation. The hostess, assisted by her sisters, served a tempting salad course with coffee and Christmas nuts and candies.

Wesley Philathea Class Meeting

The Wesley Philathea class of Jarvis Memorial Sunday school held its regular monthly meeting Tuesday evening, at the home of Mrs. J. H. Woodard, on Holly street, with Mrs. Zeb Brown and Miss Addie Conleton, assisting hostesses.

The home was beautifully decorated in keeping with the Christmas season. Shaded lights, candles in wax-rose holders, an abundance of holly and a very attractive Christmas tree with multi-colored lights, made a very beautiful setting for the occasion.

The meeting was called to order and was presided over by the president, Mrs. J. F. Spear. The meeting was opened by the reading of a part of the 2nd chapter of Luke, the narrative of our Saviour's birth. "Silent Night, Holy Night," was then sung by all those assembled. This was followed by a prayer led by Mrs. H. E. Austin.

A committee was appointed to buy a Christmas gift for the class orphan and plans were made for making a family who reside in the cotton mill section of the town, happy at Christmas time. The family will be supplied with groceries and each child will be given a pair of stockings, one of which will be filled to its capacity with confectionery and a toy. It was also decided that the class give one of our own members, who is ill, a post card shower.

At the close of business, the meeting was turned over to the hostesses. Little Miss Madeline Woodard delighted all present with a solo, "O, Little Town of Bethlehem." This was followed by the singing of Christmas carols by everyone.

Mrs. Zeb Brown then, in a few well-chosen words, talked about the true meaning of Christmas, and the need of more consecrated lives. The talk ended by introducing Mrs. J. E. Winslow, who in her usual charming manner, gave a very delightful and instructive reading about how Christmas is observed in other lands, and ended with a very beautiful climax of how fast we really fall short of the true meaning of Christmas and of the meaning of the words, "Peace on earth, good will to men." But, Mrs. Winslow said, we are progressing, although slowly, toward this ultimatum. This was followed by a prayer led by Mrs. Milton White.

At the close of the program, the hostesses, assisted by Misses Lucille Woodard, Edna Fickle and Julia Woodard, served a most delicious salad course.

The class adjourned to meet in January with Mrs. Austin.

Literary Department Meets

The Literary Department of the Woman's Club was delightfully entertained on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. D. L. Mangum, the president of the department.

The meeting was opened by the club song. Roll was called, seventeen members responding with current events. The president announced that Miss Nell Battle Lewis of Raleigh, will be a guest of the club January 26, at which time she will deliver an address to which the public will be invited. We were delighted to have as guest of the club, Miss Jenkins of the college, who presented the program of the Lyceum course for the winter and spring.

The general topic for the program was Willa Cather. A biographical study of Willa Cather was discussed in a very interesting way by Mrs. J. M. Edwards. A review of her book "My Antonia," was given in a most splendid manner by Mrs. Arnold. We each felt we had read the book.

Telegram sheets were given each member present and were asked to write a message to Miss Fuller our efficient librarian, who is ill in the hospital.

The Misses Fullilove, who always delight their hearers, sang very sweetly a medley of Christmas carols. They were accompanied by Mrs. T. W. Rouse.

At the conclusion of the program the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Miss Mildred, served a delicious salad course with hot tea.

And when we buy the sheets of Christmas seals for use on packages and cards we may feel genuinely conscious of ourselves getting close to that same spirit. One and a half billion of these seals are bought each year for one cent apiece. The preparation, distribution, and sale of these seals is a task the story of which would prove quite interesting. But a brief summary of the accomplishment will suffice to remind us of the practice and Christian-ness of this practice.

Mr. A. Schaeffer, Jr., says: "These seals that are sold for one cent each have made possible the organized campaign against tuberculosis that has been carried on with ever-increasing emphasis year by year, and the Christmas seals stand for something more, for they are truly health seals, since whatever helps to prevent tuberculosis helps to make for health. With the money raised by the sale of seals there have been secured hundreds of sanatoria, where those ill with the disease may receive care; preventoria, where children who have been exposed to the disease may be built up to resist its attack; tuberculosis purses to care for patients who are ill in their own homes; and clinics, where examinations and advice are freely given.

To thousands of people has been given the optimistic message that tuberculosis is a curable disease. Steady progress is being made in the fight against it, for since the organization of the National Tuberculosis Association in 1904 the death rate from it has been cut more than fifty per cent. Christmas seals furnish the ammunition that is winning the battle."

Surely one feature of our Christmas buying is filled with the spirit of the Christ. He went about doing good and healing those cursed by disease. ABOUT TOWN

Dr. K. B. Pace said yesterday, "Public health work at the present time is the responsibility of every man and woman. The work of the North Carolina Tuberculosis Association appeals to me especially. It promotes types of health work that are gradually conquering tuberculosis. Let's every body buy a tub."

"Paving of sidewalks and boxing of trees on the campus of Evans College has made quite an improvement in appearance of the grounds, a reader of this issue observed this morning. We are always glad to see improvements of this kind under way."

"The double string of multi-colored lights across Evans street at Five Points certainly has a tendency of conveying the spirit of the Christmas holidays," numbers of people were heard to remark last night as the lights were switched on for the first time.

"The Merchants Association is to be congratulated upon the movement to decorate the main business district during Christmas. Should business houses co-operate a number of them most likely will do, this section of the city will be a veritable fairland by the time Santa Claus gets ready to make his annual visit to this section."

"The movement to provide a community Christmas tree at Forbes & Morton's warehouse received greater momentum with first announcement of the project by committee members yesterday. L. R. O'Brien, pastor of Immanuel Baptist church said today: "This is to be strictly a community affair and every person as well as every institution, will be asked to join in making the occasion the greatest in years."

OUR GOOD-WILL AMBASSADOR

In the successful completion of his Washington to Mexico City flight today, Charles Lindbergh has again served his country as "Good Will Ambassador," and no doubt his flight will achieve much for the good feeling feelings between the two nations, together than did Lindbergh's New York-Paris flight and there is no reason to believe that his trip to Mexico City will prove any the less beneficial. Not only is Lindbergh one of the greatest fliers the world has ever known but he is indeed this nation's foremost "Good Will Ambassador." The place he has gained in the hearts of America is well deserved.

"How about the Christmas tree in your front yard?" members of the Woman's Club were asking today, as they went about their work concerning the decorating of evergreens with bright colored lights for the holiday season. "It is the purpose of civic organizations to get as many people as possible to help beautify the business and residential sections during the Yuletide season, and while we have been quite successful so far, it is evident that co-operation has not been complete as it should be. If you haven't an evergreen in your yard, get busy and plant one now. See that it is decorated to carry out the spirit of the day."

"Do your Christmas shopping early. This appeal is heard in every direction today as business men in all branches of industry attempt to encourage the public in buying before the holiday rush actually begins. Numbers of people wait to the very last minute to make their purchases," a merchant said today. "Many fail to realize the splendid values which they miss by such delay. Shop early—before the merchants' and give the best of holiday offerings."

The best way to size up a men's store is by the size of its values

Handsome is as handsome does—looks alone never carried Lindberg to Paris.

All modern clothing stores are supposed to have attractive entrances—polished cases—intelligent sales folks—but the real test comes in their values—and not in the velour that trims the windows.

If you'll look around, you'll find that every substantial success in merchandising has been built on Value and if you'll look and compare our values with any others on fine clothing—you won't look further.

SELL SCHOOL BONDS HERE

$100,000 Bond Issue To Be Used in Erection of New High School Building.

Last night the Board of Trustees of the Greenville Graded School District made the best bond sale in the history of the town or school district and perhaps equal to any bond sale ever made in Eastern North Carolina. The successful bidder was the Wells-Dickey Company of Minneapolis, Minn., who bid for 4-4 bonds at a premium of $3,309.71. Bonds will be delivered January 1. Proceeds in this bond sale will be used in erecting the addition to the high school. The contractor, the T. A. AMERICAN FLYING ACE FINISHES 2,000 MILE GOOD WILL FLIGHT TO MEXICO

(Continued from page one) when he descended in the darkness last spring on Le Bourget filed, at Paris. Although the flight begun here yesterday was looked upon as having in gentled few of the perils that accompanied the plunge through the storms over the Atlantic, the interest manifested was almost as great and the uneasiness as to Lindbergh's safety during the final hours of the journey had put the capital under a high nervous tension.

Washington, Dec. 14.—(AP)—The eyes of the American people were turned toward Mexico City today and their ears awaited eagerly for news that Lindbergh, the air hero had landed there at the end of his Washington-to-Mexico City flight.

Various reports came over the wires and cables telling of the young flyer being sighted at various points near Mexico City, but the definite word that he had successfully completed his journey was the one word the nation wanted.

Beginning soon after noon, eastern time, the air was filled with rumors that the pilot had completed his journey over the mountains to the capital city of Mexico, but as each was run to its source it was found that it was merely a new angle given to some earlier piece of incorrect information.

Greatest Naval Vessel in World Joins U. S. Fleet

Quincy, Mass., Dec. 14.—(AP)—A ship that is almost a battle fleet by itself joined the United States Navy here today. It was the mighty Lexington, described by naval officers as the most powerful naval vessel in the world, an airplane carrier, and companion ship of the recently commissioned Saratoga. As vice-president Samuel W. Waksman of the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corporation, delivered the monster craft to Rear Admiral Philip Andrews, commandant of the Charlestown Navy Yard, 200 officers and 1,200 sailors stood ready to man the $45,000,000 floating fortress.

PICK JURY IN MURDER TRIAL

Taking of Testimony in Faison Case at Richmond Will Begin Today.

Richmond, Va., Dec. 14.—(AP)—With only fourteen tentative jurors selected for the panel of twenty after examination of approximately 100 men a special venire of 75 was present when court opened its second day in the trial of John W. Faison, hermitage County Club manager, charged with the murder of Mrs. Elsie Holt Snipes.

The slowing down of the jury picking machinery after the forenoon session yesterday indicated that taking of testimony would not begin before the afternoon of today. Ten of the fourteen selected were chosen in about an hour yesterday but only four were added by 4:30 and a night session was entirely unsuccessful. Each side will be permitted to strike four men from the panel, leaving the twelve to hear the evidence and try the case.

Faison, who pleaded not guilty to murder and who contends that the woman fired the bullet into her own brain shortly before he carried her to a hospital in a dying condition on the night of November 16, sat calmly in the courtroom, frequently talking with him attorneys. A short distance away was his wife, the mother of his five small children, and Mr. and Mrs. C. U. Holt of Princeton, N. C., parents of the dead woman, and their two daughters.

Beginning today minors were barred from the courtroom by order of Judge Kirk Mathews, presiding at the trial. While crowds of would-be spectators crowded around the courtroom, few were able to enter. The courtroom will accommodate only a limited number of about 100 and Judge Mathews remained firm in his ruling to permit no crowding.

The dull monotony of jury selection was broken only once, when Judge Mathews fined Frank E. Hall, superintendent of agencies for the Life Insurance Company of Virginia, for contempt of court for improper remarks.

Beginning next Monday evening Greenville stores will remain open until 9:30 o'clock to take care of the holiday trade.

Probe Hazing Activities.

Raleigh, Dec. 14.—(AP)—State College student council today, moved by President E. C. Brooks' denunciation of hazing activities at the school, continued investigation into the hazing last week of the heads of upper classes.

The faculty will take no action pending report of the student council. President Brooks said, Lieut. C. A. Sam V. King, of the Student F. P. T. C., was one of the victims. President Brooks placed the hair cutters in the same class as "members of hooded bands who trample rights of peaceful citizens."

across the mountains, in the valleys back of Ventura and here, halfway between northern and southern California, a midway temperature, roses and heliotrope growing out-of-doors, 2,000 feet above sea level in a climate like October in New York.

Coming through the mountains westward from the desert of perfectly paved roads. You pass hundreds of oil wells on the hillsides, looking down, grimy and rich on the farmers in the valleys.

It, like Will Rogers, the multi-millionaire humorist, you happened to be the second largest holder of Tidewater associated oil, you would remember with interest that in Ventura country alone, that company has, in the ground, waiting for higher prices, more than 100,000,000 barrels of oil. But all the oil that all the oil companies combined have in all the earth has not the real value that will come from the few top inches of this California soil.

Things out here are big. The Pacific, stretching away to China, is the biggest ocean, the road running from San Diego to Seattle is the big road enterprise and runs through the world's biggest empire.

Everybody here in California will know to you that this western country's future is by far the biggest, only just starting, and the stakes are destined to be the biggest in the world.

This Hearst cattle ranch, with more than 240,000 acres surrounding the big ranchhouse on the hill, is a good deal of a ranch. Hearst, it happens, has two others, each four times as big in acreage as this one, but none to compare with this in interest.

Cattlemen will like to hear that beef prices are now about as high as in war time. Sales on this coast for good stock ran $11.75 a hundred during the past week. Hearst's ranch superintendent, Mr. A. F. Parks, is holding his steers for a higher price.

Here the ranch specializes in purebred Herfords that, with their white faces, cover many thousands of acres. Their humbler "grade" brothers and sisters, several thousands of them, are butchered to pay for and support the purebred stock. All told Hearst has about 100,000 head on his different ranches and now plans a big dairy on his "little" six thousand acre farm, just outside Los Angeles. Honest single taxers may weep to think how unearned increment will increase the value of that little city farm some day.

Take your car, your wife and the children, and drive through this western country, or come by train or through the Panama canal, and start your motor trip when you get here.

Motor camps are everywhere and good. Last night, on the edge of the Pacific, close to oil wells, pumping out in the ocean, an independent man from Brooklyn was camping with his family, wife, four children and the dog, not 50 feet from high tide line.

He had stent attached to his little car—any man can afford a car like it. A stove chimney ran up out of the tent, the mother was cooking dinner, the family waiting for it. Dinner over, they all sleep in the tent and car. No hotel bills, no time, table to watch, nothing to do, but do exactly as you please and go where you please, when you please.

That has been made possible by the automobile, try it for yourself study your country, take time to travel through it and see it. But a lot here and there as you go—near Pittsburgh, New Orleans, Portland, Maine, Freehold, N. J., Stewart, Florida, on in the center of Los Angeles, San Francisco, San Diego or Seattle.

Get your lease, get them paid for, keep up your taxes—that man contributing to public schools, take care of your land, later, it will take care of you.

This is a fine earth, own a little of it. And whatever you do, see the earth, beginning with your own country.

Be able, when you go to heaven to tell the angels from other countries about the United States and why it is the finest country between the two poles.

Main to Return N. C. Battle Flag

Raleigh, Dec. 14.—(AP)—Representatives of Governor McLean, meeting Governor Ralph O. Brewster of Maine, and Maine veterans of the Civil War, Friday, will receive on the capitol steps at Washington, the battle flag of the 54th North Carolina Infantry, captured by the 5th Maine Regiment at Kennebec station.

Gov. McLean wired his regrets to Gov. Brewster at not being able to attend because of pressing engagements in Raleigh.

The delegation of Confederate veterans receiving the battle flag will be headed by Adjutant General J. Van B. Metts, and Col. Fred A. Olds, collector of the North Carolina Hall of History.

S. S. Nash, Tarboro; H. C. McQueen, Washington; A. H. Boyden, Salisbury; and J. Rowan Rogers are among the delegation.

McLean in Washington Raleigh, Dec. 14.—(AP)—Governor McLean was in Washington, D. C., today, where he will attend a hearing before United States engineers on the question of replacing a lock in the Chesapeake and Albemarle canals.

Citizens of eastern North Carolina interested in the matter are in attendance at the hearing. Governor Byrd of Virginia and Congressman Lindsay Warren, of Washington, N. C., were also expected to sit in at the hearing.

PRISONER ROLLS DICE IN COURT, WINS FREEDOM

JUDGE H. B. ABERNATHY

Birmingham, Ala.—(AP)—Haled before Judge H. B. Abernathy, in the Birmingham court of misdemeanors, a negro miscreant charged with shooting dice was offered the chance to "pass his way to freedom."

Onto his knees went the defendant with a pair of dice. From his perch on the bench Judge "Ab" peered down at the ivory clicking over the courtroom floor. A dozen wide-eyed spectators leaned forward to watch the outcome.

"Seven it is!" exclaimed the prisoner.

And the jurist who meets residents of Birmingham's negro quarter on grounds with which they are familiar pointed a finger at the kneeling man and gave his decision: "No guilty."

Several times the judge has cut cards with prisoners of whose guilt he had some doubt. His colleagues recognize him as an authority on the psychology of the negroes with whom he often deals.

Once, when a prisoner pleaded guilty to a minor offense, Judge "Ab" directed him to get down on his knees and pray for forgiveness. A feeble voice came up.

"Louder!" directed the court. The low tone went into a sturdy bass for five minutes, and the prisoner was discharged.

State Agriculture Board Saves $10,000

Raleigh, Dec. 14.—(AP)—As the result of reduced operating and other expenditures, there is an increase of nearly $10,000 in the cash balance of the State Department of Agriculture, W. A. Graham, Commissioner, reported to the December meeting of the State Board of Agriculture today.

Commissioner Graham outlined work of the various divisions of his department since the last meeting of the board, reporting outstanding achievements and reviewing crop conditions. There is, he said, a growing tendency toward diversified crops.

There have been handicaps and drawbacks, the Commissioner declared, but some of these have had good effects in bringing the farmer to face the necessity of not depending upon one or two staple crops. Crop pests, mainly the boll weevil, have been major enemies during the season.

Diversification, said the Commissioner, will if continued, go a long way toward causing an increase in the present low price in some commodities. The Commissioner outlined some of the department's plans for the future and told of work that has been accomplished on test farms during the past.

Routine matters occupied the board. Appropriations are made at the mid-summer meeting in July.

Claims Loveless Record

New York, Dec. 14.—(AP)—From Drion City, N. J., comes Herman Sinner, 30, to claim the loveless record. Reading in the World that Miss Sae Isabelle Boggs, beauty of South Carolina, claimed the world's fancy free championship, he forthwith entered himself, saying he had never been out with a girl, never went to a party, and had been introduced to only one girl in his life.
