ROBINSON NOT READY TO END CONTROVERSY

Word Battle with Heflin Causes Arkansan To Be Widely Sought As Speaker.

Washington, Jan. 20.—(AP)—The action of Mayor W. A. Gunter, Jr. of Montgomery, in inviting Senator Robinson of Arkansas, to come to the Alabama capital as a guest of the city promises to be the next vocal fighting point in the now famous Heflin-Robinson controversy.

Notwithstanding Senator Heflin's assertion that Robinson might be tarred and feathered if he made a speech in Alabama similar to the one he made in the senate rebuking Heflin for his attacks on the Catholic church and Governor Smith, Gunter has wired Robinson to come south, and the Alabama senator today said he would reply to Gunter on the senate floor.

Today Robinson's office was deluged with messages commending him for his course and a similar situation obtained at the office of Senator Heflin. Robinson had not decided whether he will accept the Montgomery invitation, or others extended him.

Washington, Jan. 20.—(AP)—The controversy between Senator Robinson of Arkansas, democratic leader, and Senator Heflin, of Alabama, over the latter's attacks on the Roman Catholic church and Governor Alfred E. Smith has brought to the Arkansas invitations to speak in various parts of the country.

Senator Robinson said today he had not had opportunity to consider all of them and had not yet decided whether it would be possible for him to accept any of them. Among the invitations was one from the mayor of Montgomery, capital of Alabama, to speak there as the guest of the city.

This invitation was issued after Heflin had warned his party leader that if he made a speech in Alabama similar to that in the senate Wednesday denouncing attacks on the Catholics and the New York governor he would be tarred and feathered.

Snow Follows Windstorm at Cincinnati, O.

Cincinnati, Jan. 20.—(AP)—An overnight dash of snow and falling temperature following in the wake of property devastation by the severe windstorm which struck Cumminsville, Cincinnati suburb yesterday, added discomfort to the stricken sector today.

While salvage corps aided by residents of the vicinity continued to clear the debris, the various welfare organizations of Cincinnati cared for the dozen or more families made homeless by the wind that wrecked or partly wrecked their homes. The temperature dropped from 50 to 20 degrees above zero overnight.

The estimates of damage dropped to $100,000 today as a more complete survey of the locality was made. No one was seriously hurt.

Inmates Of Reformatory Save Patents

Boonville, Mo., Jan. 20.—(AP)—Given their freedom on their word of honor, 200 inmates of the Missouri State reformatory early today rescued six fellow inmates from the reformatory hospital which was destroyed by fire, and then, according to officers of the institution, returned to their quarters.

Six other patients were able to escape unaided from the burning building but Lee Van St. James, a 16 year old negro patient, suffering from pneumonia, was burned to death in the building. The fire which was of unknown origin was discovered by the reformatory dentist at 1:30. With the aid of the Boonville fire department the flames were prevented from reaching the dairy barns although a high wind was blowing. The loss was said to be about $40,000.

The Oil Battle. 21 American Nations. 2 Great Bear Fighters. Wise Amarillo, Tex. (By Arthur Brisbane). Copyright 1927, by Star Co.

Newton, Kan., Jan. 18.—A heavy-weight battle for the world's championship is on between Standard Oil of New York and the Shell Oil Company, largely owned by the British government. Shell had been buying oil from Russia, selling at a profit in India, and other convenient markets. Britain threw out Russia's representatives, cut off commercial relations, and British companies stopped buying Russian oil. That was round one.

Intelligent Standard Oil of New York said quoting a well known play, "If you don't want her, I want her." Standard buys Russia's oil. That was round two.

The Shell company, and Great Britain rage. The British oil fox having cut off its tail, requests New York's Standard Oil to "be decent enough" to do the same. The Standard Oil of New York, like the long-tailed foxes in the fable, can't quite see the point and continues buying and selling Russian oil. That our British brothers call "yankee treachery." End of round three.

British shell Company starts round four with a price cutting war, in the Indian oil market, causing Standard a loss of four million dollars annually, according to Standard's own statements. But Shell oil will have to do better than that, to annoy Standard Oil seriously.

A loss of four or forty million dollars is catalogued by Standard Oil as "petty cash" and later in other parts of the world Standard may show the British gentlemen what a real price war means.

Impartial and other newspapers in Spain, are displeased with President Coolidge's warm reception in Cuba, natural because this country took Cuba from Spain and gave the beautiful island to the Cuban people. El Imparcial says this country has reserved riches in Cuba. It has reserved only one—the right "to intervene" in the preservation of Cuban independence. We not only made Cuba independent, but guarantee that she shall remain so.

194 delegates, representing 21 nations of North and South America including the United States, are gathered in a great conference hall in Havana. Those 21 nations are the greatest power for peace in the world, also the greatest power for war.

HULL GROOMED FOR PRESIDENT

Tennesseean Endorsed by State Congressional Delegation at Washington.

Washington, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Another southerner, Coggell Hull, of Tennessee, was endorsed today by his state congressional delegation or the Democratic Presidential nomination.

The Democratic members from Tennessee in both branches of Congress unanimously and enthusiastically direct the attention of the Democrats of the nation to Coggell Hull as the most suitable and logical man for the Democratic nomination for President," said a joint statement issued by the Tennessee delegation.

"During Judge Hull's twenty years aided and patriotic service in Congress he has become generally recognized as a deep student of domestic and world problems, a sound, broad visioner, liberal and constructive statesman, an outstanding authority on revenue, fiscal and economic problems, and is well versed in all government affairs."

After paying high tribute to Representative Hull's ability as an organizer and harmonizer as demonstrated during his chairmanship of the Democratic National Committee from 1922 to 1924, the statement added:

"With such qualities of statesmanship and leadership, with a public and private life without blemish, with an abhorrence of every form of corruption, with prestige, esteem and confidence, national in scope, in the prime of vigorous manhood, we consider this great Democrat an ideal candidate upon whom all members of the party can march to a harmonious and glorious victory for Democracy."

CAR DRIVER IS HELD ON UGLY CHARGE

Boston Publisher Charges Chauffeur With Intent to Murder, Blackmail and Kidnap.

Lynn, Mass., Jan. 20.—(AP)—The chauffeur of Frederick W. Enwright, Boston and Lynn newspaper publisher, was held today under charges of assault with intent to murder, kidnaping and attempted blackmail and extortion, while police investigation the sensational story told by Enwright of a plot against his life and the safety of his wife and daughter.

Frederick S. Dutton was under arrest. Three others were sought, including a former Enwright employee who with the others was alleged to have forced the publisher at gunpoint to agree to a temporary truce in consideration of an immediate payment of $1,000.

The name of the former employee, a columnist on a now defunct paper formerly published by Enwright at Boston, was not revealed by police. The two others were known only as "cannon-ball" and "snake."

Enwright said the men told him they had been hired for $25,000 to murder him.

The meeting occurred at a lonely shack in Mahant a few miles out of Lynn. Enwright said that Dutton, who has been in his employ three years failed to take the usual route in drive to Boston yesterday from Enwright's home. A coupe crowded Enwright's car to the curb and the former employee jumped on the running board and took a seat beside the publisher.

He poked a pistol against Enwright's ribs and said to the chauffeur "to the place we agreed upon." Dutton, Enwright declared, sped at 70 miles an hour to a deserted shack.

There "Cannonball" and "Snake" were waiting and had ropes and a gag. "Well," Enwright asserted the former employee said, "you owe me plenty of money, and I'm going to get all back. We are going to get $25,000 for knocking you off. After we kill you we're going to weight your body and drop it in the bay. They'll never find you."

"Then we're going to grab your daughter and hold her for ransom." Eleanor Enwright is 19 years old. The publisher persuaded the men to desist and to accept $1,000 which he promised to obtain at the office of the Boston Sunday Telegram.

Enwright quoted Dutton as saying: "Let's bump him off anyway. All five went to Boston. One kept the pistol at Enwright's heart in the publisher's car."

At the office of Enwright's Boston newspaper, Enwright prevailed upon the former employee to accept the money by general delivery mail. Then he emerged to find the other three and the chauffeur along in the car. They drove to the Lynn Telegram, where Enwright dismissed Dutton and informed the police.

Dutton emphatically denied that anything unusual had happened. Enwright formerly published the New York Bulletin, now defunct.

EVERHART IS SUMMONED TO OIL HEARING

Son-in-Law of Albert Fall Ordered to Appear in Washington Tuesday.

Washington, Jan. 20.—(AP)—M. T. Everhart, Pueblo, Colo., banker and son-in-law of Albert B. Fall, has been summoned to appear Tuesday before the senate committee which is to re-open the naval oil lease inquiry.

Everhart twice has refused to testify in civil and criminal cases growing out of the lease of teapot dome to Harry F. Sinclair, taking the position that to do so would make him incriminate himself. The government contends the Colorado banker received $230,500 in Liberty bonds which Sinclair paid to Fall in connection with the leasing of the Wyoming naval oil reserve. These bonds were part of those bought by the Continental Trading Co., Ltd., of Canada, out of the $3,000,000 of profit it made in the purchase and resale of oil from the Texas fields of the late A. E. Humphreys.

CLOSEUP OF DOROTHY SCHNEIDER'S MURDERER

These two pictures of Adolph Hotelling, the church deacon, who has confessed to the kidnaping and slaying of five year old Dorothy Schneider in Flint, Mich., show subnormal tendencies, according to criminologists. Hotelling also has confessed to attacks on other girls, and claims the Hickman case gave him his first inspiration for the fiendish crime.—(L.I.N.)

BALL CLUB TO BE ORGANIZED MONDAY NIGHT

Mass Meeting to be Held at Court House For Perfecting Club Organization.

A mass meeting will be held in the court house in this city Monday night at 8 o'clock for the purpose of perfecting plans for the organization of the Greenville Baseball Club of the newly formed Eastern Carolina League, it was stated this morning by club promoters.

Club officers and a board of directors will be elected at this session, and it is vitally important that as many people as possible be present and take an active part in organization plans.

This will be the first time Greenville has actually had organized baseball in many years, and with such towns as Wilmington, Rocky Mount, Goldsboro, Kinston and Fayetteville participating, local enthusiasts are desirous of perfecting plans and getting business of the club straightened out in ample time for the opening.

Virtually all issues in connection with operation of the club will be discussed at considerable length at the meeting Monday night and those who desire information of this kind will find it to their advantage to be present.

Every citizen interested in participation of Greenville in what is generally considered will be one of the fastest Class D circuits in this part of the country are urged to be present at this session and lend their moral support to those who have made formation of the organization an actuality.

Information from other five towns participating in the league is to the effect that organization has virtually been effected and that hiring of managers and players would take place within the next few days.

Many players who have never before been seen in action in this section of the country will be contained in the lineups of the six teams of this circuit and sport lovers here assured of brilliant action during all latter part of April and closes Labor Day.

Judge Landis Declines To Make Flight

Chicago, Jan. 20.—(AP)—A former judge who fined the Standard Oil Company $29,000,000 without batting an eyelash, the commander of a giant ocean liner who has crossed the Atlantic many hundreds of times and an opera singer who has braved the criticisms of royalty over the footlights, didn't care to hazard a 70 mile an hour gale in a deluxe monoplane last night.

The distinguished party, including former federal judge E. M. Landis and present commissioner of organized baseball, Harry Garden, opera star, Captain Herbert Hartley, commander of the S. S. Leviathan and Mrs. Hartley, together with eight prominent Chicagoans, planned to fly over Chicago in a monoplane, a 12-passenger Ford-Stout all-metal type but the lashing gale changed their minds.

Lighted planes, carrying mail for the National Air Transport Company, continued their schedule with a few delays, however, despite the wind.

Two Bank Bandits Are Shot To Death At Portland, Oregon

Portland, Ore., Jan. 20.—(AP)—Four bandits who fled after seeing two of their companions slain in an attempt to loot the suburban Mount Scott State Bank here, were at large today.

The marksmanship of A. J. De Forest, cashier, brought instant death two bandits—one with a bullet through his neck and the other with a 30-30 rifle slug thru the head.

The dead are J. R. Benton and Fred Williams. Four lookout men escaped in two automobiles. The attempted holdup occurred shortly after the bank opened yesterday and less than one hour after De Forest had taken the rifle from his home and placed it in the bank vault, "to be used in case we are ever held up," he told his wife.

Three other persons were in the bank when the shooting took place. They were Mrs. De Forest, assistant cashier; Matthew Harris, teller, and Harold Jones, bookkeeper.

When Benton produced a pistol and ordered three bank employees to the rear of the room, De Forest, who was concealed near the vault, appeared with the rifle and fired from the hip. Benton fell dead with a bullet in his neck.

Williams then shot at De Forest, but missed. When the bandit attempted to fire again, he found his automatic pistol jammed. While he sought to force a cartridge into the chamber, De Forest shot him in the head.

The cashier ran from the building and shot at one of the bandit cars. It is believed that he wounded one of the fugitives.

Albion Dunn, Jr.'s Condition Shows a Slight Improvement

Reports from the bedside of Albion Dunn, Jr., at 1 o'clock this afternoon stated that while he was still most critically ill his condition since the noon hour had apparently taken a slight turn for the better strengthening the hopes for his recovery.

Young Dunn, who suffered a fractured skull last Monday, underwent an operation Wednesday morning and until receipt of the news this afternoon there has been little hope that he would survive.

SENATOR VARE MAY RESIGN

Representative From Pennsylvania to Seek Vindication for His Rejection.

Philadelphia, Jan. 20.—(AP)—There were indications today that William S. Vare might resign as the duly elected Senator from Pennsylvania and seek vindication for his temporary rejection by the fate of nomination and election a second time at the coming presidential elections.

Vare returned to his home here last night from a vacation in Florida and immediately went into conference with his counsel on the present situation. He refused to deny or confirm the insistent report of leaders in local Republican councils that he would resign.

Should he decide to send his resignation to the Senate, it was pointed out, he could not do so until the committee on privileges and elections makes its report to the Senate on the contest of William B. Wilson, Vare's Democratic opponent in the 1926 general election. Isasmuch as Feb. 24 is the last day on which nominating petitions can be filed in Pennsylvania it is not considerably likely that Vare would resign unless the Senate committee had made its report before that time.

Consequently all the efforts of Vare and Francis Shunk Brown, his attorney, will be devoted to persuade the committee to act quickly on the contest, it was said.

Seven Drowned In Florida Bay

Panama City, Fla., Jan. 20.—(AP)—Divers were working today to recover bodies of 7 men drowned and pinned to the bottom of east bay yesterday when a caisson on which they were at work sank and carried them with it.

The huge steel shell, which the workmen were putting in place for pouring cement to enclose concrete piers, was dislodged and held the men imprisoned within it while it tipped to the water and sank to a depth of 55 feet in mid-day.

The men were members of a steel riveting crew at work on the new Alfred DuPont bridge being built across the bay. Two other men at work on the outside of the caisson when it fell, were rescued by fellow workmen when they were thrown into the water by the toppling shell.

TWO BIG OIL COMPANIES TO FORM MERGER

Texas Corporation and California Petroleum Co., to Compete for World Trade

New York, Jan. 20.—(AP)—A possible rival of the Standard Oil interests for world trade was seen today in the announcement of plans for a merger of two of the largest of the so-called independent companies in the United States.

The prospective merger would bring together, through an exchange of stock, the Texas Corporation and the California Petroleum Company with combined authorized capitalizations of $375,000,000. Culmination of the merger is dependent upon participation of at least 51 per cent of the California company's stockholders.

The merger would make the Texas Corporation one of the largest units in the oil industry, taking rank alongside the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey and the Standard of New York.

The arrangement, as entered into by the Texas Corporation and Jacques Vinmont, on behalf of himself and a group of stockholders of the California corporation, of which he is president, provides that one share of the Texas Corporation stock shall be exchanged for two shares of California Corporation. Each has a par value of $25.

The Texas Corporation's properties total 2,400,000 acres, and its pipe line systems, tank and refining plants, are among the largest in the world. The California corporation's holdings of about 70,000 acres in California, Colorado, Wyoming and Montana, with 10,000 acres in Mexico and a large Venezuelan concession, make it one of the largest on the Pacific coast. The Texas corporation also has a Venezuelan concession and both have Mexican operating subsidiaries.

WORLD FLIERS BEGIN SEARCH FOR MOSELEY

Brock and Schlee Left Charleston This Morning to Search For Lost Airmen.

Charleston, S. C., Jan. 20.—(AP)—William S. Brock and Edward F. Schlee hopped off at 8:15 o'clock this morning from the navy yard field for Washington and Philadelphia to search en route for Ted Moseley and a companion lost Monday night on an attempted non-stop flight to New York.

Brock and Schlee previously had announced they would use Parris Island, S. C., as a base for their searching expeditions. They landed here last night from Daytona Beach, however, and said they would proceed northward to search for the missing aviators enroute.

They expected to skirt the coast on their northward flight but said they would not fly over the water. Moseley and a mechanic were lost Monday night while attempting a non-stop flight from Daytona Beach to New York with films of President Coolidge's reception in Havana. Last definite information came from them as they passed over Savannah in the afternoon.

Sighting of a plane over Southport, N. C., early in the evening and subsequently over coast guard stations to the north led to the belief among coast guardsmen that they had been forced down either in the Atlantic off Cape Hatteras or in the wild on the coast in the region.

Following Major Steadman in rank of years comes Senator Lee S. Overman, Salisbury, who celebrated his 74th birthday on January 17.

Combined age of these two distinguished Tar Heel lawmakers total 235 years.

INDICT TWELVE FOR CRIME AT PITTSBORO N.C.

Officers Attempt to Bring Justice to Bank Robbers and Thieves of Automobiles.

Pittsboro, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Armed with indictments naming 12 different persons, authorities of this section seeking to bring to justice the perpetrators of two bank robberies, numerous car thefts, and several minor offenses in central North Carolina and other places today had new weapons with which to wage their fight for law and order.

True bills were returned yesterday by the Chatham county grand jury against Ben Presnell of Seagraves; Larkin Presnell, of Hemp; Paul Payne, of High Point; J. B. Powers, Frank Scott, and Claude E. Jones, of Bennett; Elsie Cox, of Abner; Bill Payne, Bob Ozer, Colin Fox, Red Hancock, and a man named Brewster. The men were charged with larceny and receiving stolen goods, and criminal conspiracy.

Specific offenses named in the indictments were robbery of the Peoples Bank and Trust Company, of Bennett, and of the Bank of Eion College, the former in this county and the latter in Alamance county, the robbery of a Meigs county man three days ago, and a large number of automobile thefts in this state and elsewhere recently.

Bond for Bill Payne, Ozer, and Fox, whom it was indicated were charged with the bank robbery, was fixed at $10,000 each, while the amount for the others was placed at $2,500 each.

With the returning of the indictments increased efforts were put forth to apprehend the three men facing the bank robbery charges who along with Hancock were still at large.

Officers believed the entire group would be rounded up in simple fashion for the trial which has been set for the May term of court. District Judge R. A. Nunn, of New Bern, presiding. Solicitor General W. Williams, of Sanford, will be assisted in the prosecution by Assistant Attorney General Walter D. Sizer, it was announced.

Evidence placed before the grand jurors to secure a true bill to the indictments represented weeks of searching investigation by local officers, the state department of justice, and officials of the state automobile department. The car theft investigation was under the direction of L. S. Parry, of Raleigh, of the state automobile department. Sheriff Blair, of Chatham, and Brady, of Randolph, having been active in running down clues in connection with all the charges against the men.

The alleged auto theft ring was termed the most vicious and active ever to operate in North Carolina. Investigators said the stealing of nearly a hundred machines had already been traced to the "gang" and that many others would be added before the inquiry had been completed. The leaders of the operations were said to have been men with North Carolina and Virginia prison records. Several hit-or-miss honest young men were recruited by the influence of these men, it was declared.

Dogus bills of sale, principally from Tennessee and Florida, were used to gain titles to the stolen machines, officers said.

The possibility that A. T. Cular, not named in the Chatham county indictments but facing car theft charges in Lee and Randolph counties, would turn state's evidence was advanced by local officers. Half of Cular's face was torn away by a gunshot charge, fired, officers declared, by gangsters who feared he would "squeal" on them.

Senator Simmons Celebrates 74th Birthday Today

Raleigh, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Today marks the 74th birthday of Farnfold W. Simmons, New Bern, senator from North Carolina, and January is a month of birthdays for the three oldest members who represent North Carolina in the United States congress.

The oldest of these is the veteran Major Charles M. Steadman, representative, Greensboro, who will be 87 years old on January 26th. He is the oldest member in either house of congress and the only veteran of the civil war serving in either house.

Following Major Steadman in rank of years comes Senator Lee S. Overman, Salisbury, who celebrated his 74th birthday on January 17. Combined age of these two distinguished Tar Heel lawmakers total 235 years.

PHILADELPHIA ALL SET FOR HECTIC YEAR

Philadelphia, Jan. 29.—(AP)—With a raft of new players, a seasoned first baseman and additions to the pitching staff, not to mention the inspiring influence of Buck Shotton, the new manager signed for two years, the Philadelphia Nationals face the 1928 baseball campaign looking through the rosier tinted spectacles.

Winding up to the eighth place last year the Phillies switched managers during the winter, made a few advantageous swaps, shook up their personnel, changed training quarters and announced spring practice would start two weeks earlier this year.

The most notable addition to the team is first baseman George Kelly, bought from Minneapolis although he played at Newark, N. J. last year. Kelly has been a successful minor league first sacker for five years and compiled 44 homers two years ago with Buffalo.

Despite conflicting reports, Frisco Thompson will be back on second base. He is one of the most agile keystone tenders in the National League. The veteran Heinie Groh will return to his old position as shortstop.

A struggle for third base will take place between Barney Fibbers, a near veteran, and A. C. (Ace) Whitley, erstwhile New Orleans player, and voted the best infielder in the Southern Association last year.

At the last baseball meeting the Phillies disposed of outfielder Johnny Moxan, catcher Bubber Johnson and shortstop Jimmy Cooney in exchange for pitcher Jimmy Rine and catcher John Schulte. Rine was eager to play in the east and his experience should be an asset to the Philadelphia team.

The pitching corps is stronger than in recent years. It consists of Frank Ulrich, a right handed ace; Claude Willingham, Alex Ferguson, Art Decatur, veteran right handed slinger; Clarence Mitchell, Herb Pruett and Lester Sweetland, southpaws.

There is a flock of impressive newcomers. Walsh and Taber from the Eastern League; Bengie from Waco; Greene, of Portsmouth, and many other lesser lights. At least four of the rookies are said to possess enough stuff to remain in the big leagues.

In the outfield Cy Williams, who tied with Hack Wilson for home run honors last year with 39, probably will alternate with Benny Southern. If he does not care to play through the entire season, Cy is a real veteran but he still retains the knack of clowning homers.

Center field will be guarded by Fred Leach, a deadly hitter in the pinch, while Dick Bushline will hold forth in left. Both led the league in fielding their positions last season. Al Nixon and Holman will be substitutes, giving the Phillies two outfielders.

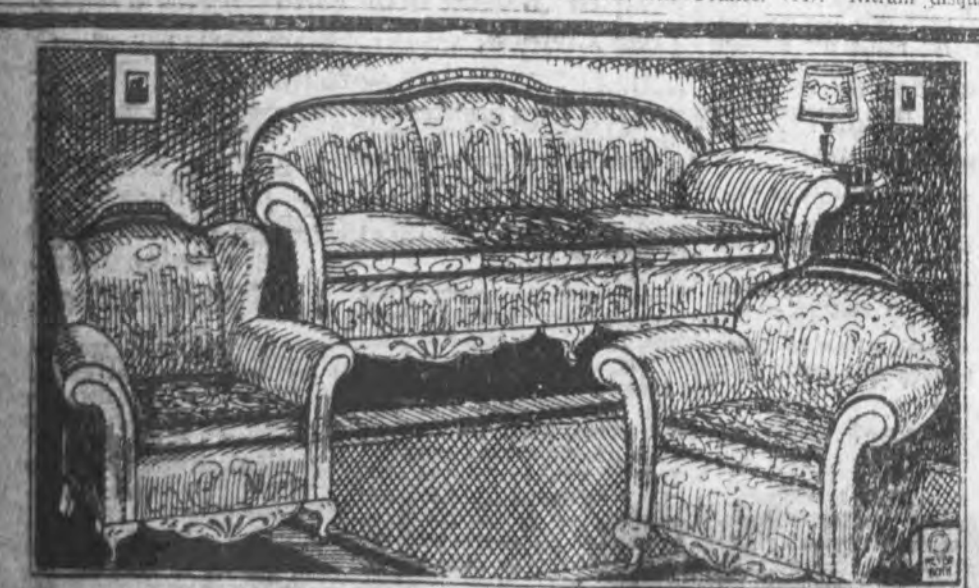

The coaching department is led by captain Jimmy Wilson with Conzelle and O'Donnell in reserve.

Noted Singers To Broadcast At New York

New York, Jan. 29.—(AP)—Mauris Heritza, soprano of the Metropolitan Opera Company, and John McCormack, tenor, will be heard in a dual recital tonight to be broadcast over WJZ and affiliated radio stations.

The recital will start at 10 o'clock. Miss Heritza will sing the "Serenade" and the "Habenera" from Bizet's "Carmen"; a selection from "La Cida" and the "Voi Lo Espere" from "Coralline Rusticana." Mr. McCormack will sing four songs for children, several Irish folk songs a group including "Dear Old Pal of Mine."

MANY FORMER BIG LEAGUE STARS IN DIXIE BASEBALL THIS SEASON

Being ex-stars at big time baseball have a way of drifting south when they start to lose their old speed. Heinie Groh, (left) and his famous "bottle bat" will be found this spring at Charlotte, N. C., where he is said to be the highest-priced manager in the South Atlantic league. Dave Danforth (right) and "Death Valley" Jim Scott (right inset) are with New Orleans of the Southern Association while Bert Niehoff (left inset) guide the destinies of the Atlanta club.

By HORACE C. MENEGAR

(Associated Press Sports Writer) Atlanta, (AP)—The old timer who often wonders where famous baseball stars of other years have gone will find many familiar names in the box scores of Dixie minor league clubs this season.

There will be Heinie Groh, Guy Morton, Bert Niehoff, "Death Valley" Jim Scott, Dave Danforth, Wilbur Good, Gaby Street, Polly McLarry, Rube Robinson, Milton Stock, Paul Strand, Wilbur Jenkins and others of the "Big Parade" appearing in the Southern Association, Southeastern League, South Atlantic Association and other lineups in the South.

It is this list that has been in informal talk of adding Ty Cobb if he does not return to the majors. The "Georgia Peach" who is in splendid physical condition as a result of continuous outdoor sports since the close of his season with the Philadelphia Athletics last year, might come to the minors as a player, but the greater possibility is that he would be in the role of an owner-player.

Cobb now belongs to the millionaire class and often has talked of buying a club and if he should do this it probably would be in the Southern Association. R. J. Spiller, owner of the Atlanta Southern Association Crackers, has been discussing the advantages of having the Georgian on one of the league's teams. Cobb, however, is silent as to his plans.

With what is reported the largest salary ever paid in the South Atlantic, Groh will manage the Charlotte, N. C. team and is expected to hold down one of the infield positions. At various times with the New York Giants and the Cincinnati Reds, the veteran, now 39 years old, played second base, shortstop and third base.

"Death Valley" Jim Scott, former Chicago National hurler, will be starting his 22nd season in organized baseball as a member of the New Orleans Southern Association pitching staff. For one of his team mates he has Dave Danforth, once one of the St. Louis Browns' star pitchers. While one of the leading careers in the association, Danforth has trouble occasionally with his "mystery" ball the same trouble which followed him in the majors, players contending the franchise was "mystified." No one has been able to explain the "mystery" to date, however, in the South and Danforth was along recently against ball games.

Larry Guber, outfielder of the 1914 Boston Braves, "Cotton Joe" Martin, pitcher, and Wilbur Good, first baseman, former Washington players, are up on with New Orleans. Gaby Street, the first catcher to receive Walter Johnson's offering with Washington, will be with the Knoxville South Atlantic Club as player-manager. Bert Niehoff, who saw service with New York, St. Louis, Philadelphia and Cincinnati during his career in the National League, is returning to Atlanta as manager and will appear occasionally at second base.

Some of the other familiar figures will be Wilbur Good, formerly of the Phillies, Pirates and Cubs, at Macon, Ga., as player-manager; Ray Caldwell, pitcher for Cleveland Indians and Giants, at Little Rock; Yam Yaryan, White Sox catcher, at Birmingham; Polly McLarry, Chicago Cub second baseman, at Selma, Ala., as manager; Paul Strand, Boston Braves pitcher, at Atlanta; Tommy McMillan, Brooklyn shortstop, Jacksonville manager; Rube Robinson, Cardinal pitcher, beginning twelfth season at Little Rock; Milton Stock, Cardinal and Robin, as Mobile manager; George Cunningham, Detroit pitcher, at Chattanooga; Joe Jenkins, White Sox catcher, at Birmingham; and Tom Rogers, Cardinal and Brown pitcher, at Atlanta.

WINNER OF KENTUCKY DERBY KILLED YESTERDAY

New Orleans, Jan. 19.—(AP)—Gloom overcast the fair grounds today because of the death of Black Gold, winner of the Kentucky derby in 1924 who was killed yesterday after breaking a leg in the mile race.

The body of the once fleet horse was to be buried today in the fair grounds infield beside Pan Zarto, who came to her end here a few years ago. A grave stone is expected to be erected in the memory of the two idols of the turf.

Black Gold was dead game to the end. His leg was broken while he was fighting for second place with his one sixteenth of the mile to go. When one of his forelegs snapped out at the ankle he tried to continue on three legs, unwilling to give up as long as he could move.

Jockey Emery pulled him up in front of the stand and he was led back to the paddock where, while he shook his proud and perfect head in resignation, the deadly needle was applied.

At the peak of the needle the horse reared, his head high and pawed his ears and the next moment he was dead.

The horse was owned by Mrs. R. M. Bess of Oklahoma and was in training at Louisville.

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

The boxing card was a well-balanced one from Glenn Naly, Terre Haute, Ky. London, Eng.—Len Harvey, London, won from "Kid" Nitram of France. (14). Nitram disqualified.

TWO GAMES HERE TONIGHT

The basketball team of the Greenville high school will play a similar aggregation from Scotland Neck tonight at 7:30 o'clock at Gorman's warehouse, according to announcement made this morning by C. W. Porter, director of athletics of the Greenville high school.

Immediately after the game with Scotland Neck members of the Girls Varsity team will play Tarboro, both games being given for the admission of one.

This is the fourth game of the season which the boys have played under supervision of the Northeastern Athletic Association, and it is expected to be one of the best of the season. The locals so far have won two games and lost one.

Mr. Porter said he hoped sport lovers would turn out in large numbers tonight and encourage the boys and girls in their efforts to make this the greatest season in years.

HIGH POINT READY TO GIVE UP FRANCHISE

Raleigh, Jan. 29.—(AP)—If present holders of the High Point Piedmont league franchise care to turn it loose this coming season, league officials, according to W. G. Bramham, president, are in a position to handle the rights, it became known here today.

The probability was advanced that the league would ask some major circuit club to take over the High Point franchise, observers noted.

WAKE FOREST PREPARES FOR E. N. C. CLASH

Raleigh, Jan. 29.—(AP)—The Wake Forest basketball team, apparently saddened but not altogether dismayed by two defeats at the hands of North Carolina State within ten days, today went home, to get ready to return Saturday night to take on its just as traditional rivals, University of North Carolina Tar Heels.

Both Freshman and Varsity Deacons last night played and lost to State quintes at the City Auditorium.

Jack Delaney and Tom Heaney Will Hook Up March 1

New York, Jan. 29.—(AP)—Efforts to produce a challenger for Gene Tunney's championship had assumed definite form again today with the matchmaking of Jack Delaney and Tom Heaney for a 15 round struggle in Madison Square Garden March 1.

After considerable discussing terms were agreed upon yesterday with the contracts negotiated by John M. Chapman, Tom Rickard's new assistant who heretofore has been identified chiefly as promoter of the six day bicycle races.

Under Rickard's new heavyweight elimination plan, the winner of the Heaney-Delaney affair will in turn tussle with the victor of a proposed tilt between Jack Sharkey and Tom Riske. The Boston boxer and Riske have yet to sign for their prospective bout which will be staged after the Delaney clash.

Nebraska Fights Tendler Tonight

New York, Jan. 19.—(AP)—Ace Hudkins, Nebraska welterweight, rules a 2 to 1 favorite over Lew Tendler, veteran Philadelphia south paw, in their ten round feature bout at Madison Square Garden tonight.

The victor was promised a match against Serecant, Sammy Baker next month with the survivor to be designated as challenger in a championship tilt with Joe Dundee in March.

The Nebraska Wild Cat whipped Tendler in a ten round affair in Los Angeles last year. Shortly after that scrap Hudkins was knocked out by Baker when the referee stopped their bout in the seventh round.

American Women Find Cure For Boredom In Paris, Writer Says

Middle aged American women living in Paris are there largely to find artistic interests, asserts Mrs. Edwin Neuggass (above) of New Orleans and New York. She is assisting Grand Duke Alexander (upper right) of Russia in the translation of his books.

Paris, (AP)—Unless middle aged women study and develop what gifts they have they become bores to their families and themselves, believes Mr. Edwin Neuggass of New Orleans and New York.

That, she adds, is why Paris has numerous middle aged American women studying intensively along various artistic lines. Mrs. Neuggass is the daughter of the late Isadore Neumann, wealthy New Orleans philanthropist.

"What can we middle aged women do?" demands Mrs. Neuggass. "Modern children no longer need their parents after the age of ten or twelve year, or they need them very slightly. No one makes preserves any more; the bought ones are better."

Besides doing her own writing, studying, painting and dabbling in sculpture, the American woman is assisting the Grand Duke Alexander, uncle of the late Czar of Russia, with the translation of some of his books into English, among them "The Religion of Love" and "Your Soul."

Mrs. Neuggass is the author of "Fairy Flowers," which has been translated into French and Hungarian, and a new book of poems, "Shades of Blue."

"HULA" GIVES CLARA BOW BEST ROLE SINCE "IT"

"Hula" brings that lovable madcap of the screen, Clara Bow, back. It will head the program at White's Theatre next Monday and Tuesday.

As "Hula" got of the Calhoun plantation, Clara is said to have the best role since "It." She appears as a carefree miss who, on the eve of her sixteenth birthday, falls madly in love with a handsome young English engineer, Clive Brock. Although he doesn't say so at first, he too, is attracted toward the magnetic girl. Finally, the inevitable happens. Clara forces him to admit his love, but at the same time she also learns that Brock is the victim of an unhappy marriage. Her wife, an unscrupulous fortune hunter, refuses to grant him a divorce. In addition to this, Clara finds another woman attempting to win Brock away. How she emerges from her predicament provides Paramount's scintillating start with plenty of opportunities for showing off her own peculiar talents.

Arlett Marchant is the other woman and Maude Traux, Brock's wife. Arrol Kent enacts an Hawaiian who is jealous of Brock because of his love for Clara. Albert Gran is her dissolute father and Agostina Borgato, her uncle, Victor Fleming, maker of "Mantrap," "The Rough Riders" and "The Way of All Flesh," directed.

Barking Dog Warns of Fire

The barking of a tiny Spitz dog at the backdoor of the home of C. M. Tolar, Evans street, last night, caused an investigation that resulted in discovery of a fire in the storage room of the garage and probably prevented a serious conflagration.

As it was the fire was extinguished before any serious damage was done to the garage building.

Mr. Tolar said anyone could have purchased the little dog for fifty cents yesterday morning, but that he wouldn't sell for the sum of fifty dollars today.

BE THERE

A public mass meeting to perfect plans for the coming baseball season has been called for Monday night, 8 o'clock, at the court house,
and every baseball fan,
man, woman or child, is urged to be present at the meeting. Now that Greenville has definitely entered the new Eastern Carolina League, the town must put forth every effort to see to it that we make a favorable showing and this cannot be done without the support of the fans. Be on hand for the meeting Monday night, let your ideas about the coming season be known, help select suitable directors and management for our club,
and then let's have a season
of real baseball.

KEEP IT GOING

For the past few days we have heard nothing of the movement for the establishment of a boat line on Tar River, and we are wondering if again enthusiasm
along this line is beginning to wane when the opportunity to secure relief from our high freight rates appears within our reach.
The towns and cities that have boat transportation have freight rates much lower than our own and until we can secure like favorable rates we cannot hope to be on a par with other cities along the line of transportation advantages.
Again we urge our citizens to give their most heartly support to the movement that if successful, will mean much to our entire community. A boat line and cheaper freight rates should be the battle cry of all our citizens and there should be no weakening until the movement has been carried to completion.

HOG MOVEMENT
GROWING

Announcement today that at least six carloads of hogs will be shipped to market from this county during March and April is indeed gratifying and shows that our farmers are beginning to devote a part of their attention to things other than their so-called money crops,
cotton and tobacco.
With last year's shipments from this county only three cars, already plans for twice that number have been made for this year, and no doubt as time passes the number will continue to grow. Statistics show that on several of the markets
North Carolina corn fed hogs demand premium prices
and surely the best way to sell surplus corn is through the hog medium.
The money a farmer receives for his hogs shipped in March and April comes at a time when most farmers need money and the funds go a long way to help them over the period when they are working their crops. We sincerely hope that ere long every farmer in this county will become interested in this hog raising business and have a few for shipment every time a carload is made up. Instead of three or six cars, the time should soon come when the county shipped many times that number.

ABOUT

"It is every citizen's duty to cooperate with the forest wardens in conserving our fast disappearing forest resources," stated a letter received by this department today from P. H. Sipe, district forester.
"All persons are urged to be very careful with any form of fire. Practically ninety-five per cent of all forest fires are caused by carelessness."

"Farmers should be careful when burning ditch banks, tobacco beds and pastures. Hunters, fishermen, campers and motorists should be careful with camp fires, cigarettes, and matches.

"The state forest laws require all inflammable material to be cleared away ten feet from a camp fire.
Penalties are provided for anyone who fails to extinguish fires and reporting to wardens any fires seen by them."

"Another new firm open in Greenville," remarked a reader of this column today, speaking of the number of business enterprises which have come to the city the last several months.

"Every few weeks some new business house throws open its doors to the public. If this isn't an indication of growth, I don't know what to call it.

"With building activities goin'
on in many parts of the city, and business circles experiencing healthy growth even a pessimist is bound to admit the future of this old town is brighter than it has ever been before.

"Faith in ourselves and the great possibilities of the section is all that is necessary to carry us on into a great and glorious future."

"Preparations are now under way for the planting of flowers around the front of Evans street school building," observed a member of the Woman's Club while passing the institution today.

"Nothing helps to improve the appearance of a home or public building more than the presence of flower beds placed in different parts of the yard.

"This is the first time a beautification project has been attempted by the Evans street school and it is to be hoped the teachers will get the children to assist them in making the flower beds among the most attractive in the city."

"The movement to organize a chamber of commerce in this city has been dropped," one of the promoters of such an organization remarked to the writer today.

"It has not been long since the matter was discussed quite freely among the business men but for some reason or other the majority of us lost sight of it in the busy rush of daily life.

"It is my earnest belief that the chamber of commerce performs a mission it is impossible for another organization to fulfill. The public looks upon it as closely associated with business and industry and naturally it is the first thing applied to when any information concerning these two vital interests is desired.

"Our business men would not make any mistake should they again take the matter under consideration and do everything possible to effect organization."

"Good baseball does right much toward living up a town during the hot summer months," Tom Hollingsworth, local enthusiast said today.

"From the time the first ball is tossed at the opening of the season to the final game people always have something to talk about. Each game always furnishes its thrills, whether poorly played or not, and lovers of the sport always find some new feature to keep them talking until something actually important happens.

"Greenville will be a member of the new Eastern Carolina League this year, and we want to make our team one of the fastest, if not the fastest, in the entire league. This can be done only in one way—through unselfish support every day the season is in progress.

"If you like baseball, get lined up and help make our club the best in the league."

"Your boy and girl are two of the greatest assets you have in making this community the great community it should be," declared a member of the boy's work committee of the Rotary Club today.

"These youngsters will soon be the men and women of tomorrow.
If they are to be the kind of men and women we would have them

OKLAHOMA FAIRY CASTLE RISES
FOR YOUNG BRIDE OF OIL MAGNATE

Lydie Miller Roberts (left) will become mistress of a million dol mansion seen after her impen-ing marriage to E. W. Marland (right), 53-year-old oil millionaire. The home, shown below, is being hurried to completion on Marland's Ponca City, Okla., estate to receive him and the 23-year-old bride who was for twelve years his foster-daughter.

Ponca City, Okla. (AP)—A fairy castle of real brick and stone has risen above the oil derricks of Oklahoma for Lydie Miller Roberts, with her wedding to E. W. Mar-land, millionaire oil man and her former foster father, the Philadelphia girl will become mistress of a mansion here which rivals in its splendor the sumptuous manor houses of old England.
It stands on a wooded hill in the middle of a large preserve, looking out across forests filled with birds and game, three polo fields, stables and a golf course.
Miss Roberts is fond of horses,
and one of her favorite sports is riding of hounds. The Marland stables and kennels shelter some of the finest animals in the country, and the girl is no stranger to them
for she has lived for a dozen years as Marland's adopted daughter in the country to which she is to return within a few weeks as his bride.
The new home will be completed soon after the wedding, which will be held before the middle of February.

is highly important that we give them the training which they so surely are deserving of.
"If you want to make them the kind of men and women you happen to be, then continue to do as you are doing. But, if on the other hand, you would have them morally and spiritually improve, try to set the example for them."

Must Do a Sight of Growing
An amusing conversation is reported from Court House square. A white Populist and a colored Democrat (there are some of the latter to be found now and then) were talking together about the trees just set out on the square when the Populist remarked, "those trees will be large enough to split into rails
when the Democrats get into power again". The colored man turned the laugh on him promptly replying, "dem trees got ter do a d—sight or growing 'twix now an' next fall den."

W. H. Cox. These are four of the fellest in the land. They believe

Novel Farming Implement Show Here on Tuesday

On next Tuesday, January 24, one of the most unique farming implement shows ever held in this section will be staged at the store of Turnage-Winslow Company, according to announcement made today by Mr. M. L. Turnage, manager of the concern.

As is set forth in a page advertisement in this issue, to which your attention is called, the show will be an all day affair with a free dinner at 1 o'clock for all those in attendance. Mr. Turnage stated this morning that it was the desire of his firm to have every farmer possible as their guests on Tuesday and he urged that everyone let nothing interfere with his attendance at this big farm implement show. The show will feature the McCormick-Deering tractor and farm-aid and will demonstrate the hundreds of uses and conveniences of power on the farm. There will be lectures by implement experts and experts in better farming methods and these will be supported by a series of motion pictures that will show every phase of the manufacture and use of farming implements and how with the use of power on the farm the farmer can overcome many obstacles and accomplish much more with less effort and lost time. All the lectures and pictures will be educational and instructive and Mr. Turnage stated that it would be worth the while of every farmer to see and hear them.

McCormack, Jeritza To Sing Over Radio In National Hookup

John McCormack (above), is returning from Ireland to sing in a radio program with Mme. Maria Jeritza (right), opera soprano at 10 p. m., tonight, over WJZ chain.

New York (AP)—John McCormack is to make another radio appearance in a program to be put on the air at 10 p. m., tonight, January 20, by WJZ and chain. Mme. Maria Jeritza, soprano of the Metropolitan Opera Company, also will be featured in the broadcast.

Mr. McCormack is hurrying back from a Christmas vacation spent at his estate in Ireland to sing several groups of songs selected from old and new favorites. One group is designed for children.

The features of Mme. Jeritza's program include "Seguidilla" and "Habenera" from "Carmen." Her other numbers will be selected from her famous operatic roles and from the songs she has presented in concert. Assisting the singers will be the Victor Salon Orchestra under the direction of Nathaniel Shilkret.

This program will comprise the second Victor hour presented this season.

Million Dollar Club to Finance Many New Homes

The "Million Dollar Club" of the Home Building & Loan Association plans to finance the building of 300 new homes in Greenville during the next six and a half years, according to information given this morning by H. A. White, secretary and treasurer of the association.

This club has just been recently organized by the association and is composed of a group of leading spirits keenly alive to the development of Greenville.

The club is an unofficial, unchartered organization of volunteers who during 1928 will make an investment of $130,000—an investment that will pay them approximately 6 per cent tax free, with utmost safety and security.

With an individual investment of $2.80 a week the "Million Dollar Club" plans to finance the building of 300 new homes in the city within a period of six and a half years. Each member of the club will be required to subscribe for at least ten shares of stock of the Home Building and Loan Association. Their joint effort—an investment of $2.80 each a week—will make available $130,000 a year for the financing of Greenville homes. The average home loan is slightly over $2,800. That will mean the addition to Greenville of approximately 50 new homes a year for a period of six and a half years.

"Over fifty applications for loans are now on file with the association—a very large percentage of them for new construction," Mr. White said today. It is very evident, therefore that there is open to the "Million Dollar Club" a very large service to the city of Greenville—one of which the city is in pressing need.

"It is a fortunate circumstance that the thousand rare spirit of the club can perform that service and at the same time profit themselves through steady investment in one of the strongest saving investment plans known to the world; their money handled under direct supervision and safeguarded to them by first mortgage liens on Greenville real estate."

At Odd With Rockefeller. Tarrytown, N. Y.—The two fathers are at odds with John D. Rockefeller. They have refused to close one road running through his estate and intimate they will do likewise with a request to shut another.

DARING FLYER PROVES A HERO IN NICARAGUA

LIEUT. C. FRANK SCHILT (International Kiwanian)

The fighting in Nicaragua already has produced one outstanding hero, even in its early phases. Give a snappy salute to Lieut. C. Frank Schilt, marine corps flyer, and take your hat off to him for this instance of cool daring.

During the battle between the Devil Dogs and the insurgents under Gen. Sandino, Schilt and his plane took off from behind the lines to see what they could do.

Skimming close of the fighting area, Schilt saw a number of marines lying wounded. A deadly hail of rifle and machine gun fire made it almost impossible for the buddies to run out and take them back.

So Schilt calmly defied the leaden hail and brought his plane to earth. He pulled two of the wounded inside and took off, depositing them in the American hospital.

Not satisfied with that he made eight more trips and carried away 18 marines in all, and escaped each time without a scratch!

WILSON FIRM LAUDS LOCAL ASSOCIATION

Oettinger's Praises Collection Dept. of Merchants Association.

C. B. Rowlett, secretary of the Greenville Merchants Association, is today in receipt of a letter from Oettinger's, Wilson business house, expressing appreciation of the splendid services of the association in collecting accounts which the firm considered almost impossible to collect.

"We are writing to express to you our appreciation for your work in collecting two accounts that we considered 'impossible,'" the letter states.

"Each of these accounts had been charged off for more than two years, and each of them was of considerable size. Furthermore, we had made attempts to collect these accounts through our local attorneys without success.

"We can honestly say that you are far ahead of any collector of hard accounts that we have ever known in our business experience. One of the accounts above mentioned was collected from a resident of Greenville, and another from a resident of Kinston.

"In conclusion we might state that not only did you collect these accounts but that the customers who paid them have since been in our store trading for cash and we are glad to note that your method of collecting has left no ill feeling with these customers toward our store."

Mr. Rowlett stated that this was one of the many letters received from various sources commending them upon the excellence of their recently inaugurated collection department. "We are striving to make this part of the association of genuine service to our membership, and the letters of appreciation cause us to believe we are at least accomplishing a part of our ambition," Mr. Rowlett said.

Washington, (AP)--Burrowing in the archives section of the State Department the other day somebody discovered a copy of the budget of the department for the year 1919 which shows the diplomats are getting more for their money in the way of newspapers than 100 years ago, or that they haven't kept up with their reading, or something like that.

In 1919, $300 was allowed for the purchase of newspapers. Now although the total expense of the department has increased from $376,487.76 to $13,126,119.41, the newspaper expenses has only stepped up to $700.

The old budget--written in hand on both sides of a sheet of foolscap--reveals that the secretary's salary was $5,000 that of the superintendent of the department office $1,500; and that $900 was spent for "fuel and candles."

Wits around Washington are calling the 70th Congress "the great investigating Congress" and predicting that historians of the future will speak of the year 1923 as that of "the big probes."

Committees are investigating the right of Senators-elect Vane and Pennsylvania and Smith of Illinois to sit in the upper body; the Teapot Dome oil case; and other lesser affairs. One probed the charges of a senatorial slush fund contained in the Hearst Mexican documents. Senator Walsh has requested an inquiry into public utilities, and it has been suggested that a look into the Nicaraguan situation might be in order. The house has passed a resolution asking investigation of the sinking of the submarine S-4, and in both legislative bodies committees are investigating requests and suggescontaining hundreds of signatures. This is about the same number as is received on such problems as farm relief, immigration and other national issues.

For a week in 1923, the committee heard representatives of national religious organizations, labor unions, clubs and other bodies, either testify to "the need of making the nation's capitol an example for other cities on Sunday" or to the "unconstitutionality of the bill."

In 1908 the District of Columbia supreme court declared the old Maryland blue law of 1723, then in force in the district, unconstitutional. The act forbade blasphemy, and laid down definite religious requirements.

CHICAGO GRAIN
Chicago, Jan. 20.--(AP)--Pessimism as to the outlook for the domestic winter wheat crop, together with indications of foreign buying of future deliveries gave fresh strength today to wheat values. The Argentine official crop report estimated its Argentine wheat yield at 5,000,000 bushels less than the latest previous forecast. Announcement that 500,000 bushels of corn had been booked today arrived here and that conditions had improved for the movement of corn put a weight on the corn market.
Wheat closed strong 1-4 to 1-1/2 net higher; corn varying from 5-1 decline to 1-8 to 1-4 advance; oats 1-4 to 1-4 to 3-8 up; and provisions at a rise of 5 to 12.

STOCK MARKET.

New York, Jan. 20.--(AP)--Further recoveries took place in today's stock market although the advance was not accompanied by any substantial increase in trading. Buying seemed to center in a few special issues in the leading groups of stocks, with indications that pools furnished much of the activity.
Despite the reduction in call money from 4 to 3 1-2 per cent and the decrease of $32,000,000 in brokers loans last week, the credit situation was still a source of some uneasiness and tended to restrict operations for the advance. This was probably due to the further liquidation of N. S. government securities by the federal reserve banks, which was interpreted in some quarters as an official effort to restrict the volume of credit available for securities speculation.
There was little in the day's business news to influence the price movement. Confusion of the price performed dividend already had been discounted by the action of the stock and the accordance with the previously announced plans of the financial interests sponsoring the recent merger.

Montana Power retained the leadership of the public utilities by bearing a new record peak at 118, but the other power and light stocks met some selling resistance. Strength and activity of Hump Motors was believed to reflect the operations of William C. Durant, who is credited with having accumulated about 40 per cent of that company's stock. A. M. Byers, national biscuit, international nickel and G. R. Kinney also were conspicuously strong.

The closing was strong, total sales approximated 1,900,000 shares.

Roma Hero Is Given Award

Washington, Jan. 20.--(AP)--Further recognition of the bravery and heroism of Harry A. Chapman, master sergeant, 9th airship company of the army, of the airship Roma disaster in 1922, was given today with his designation as recipient of the first Cheney award.
The award, announced by Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air corps, is to be given on this date annually, the anniversary of the death of Lieut. William H. Cheney, air corps, killed at Foggia Italy, in 1920.
The award, donated by Cheney's mother and sister, is in recognition of acts of valor or of extreme fortitude of self-sacrifice in an humanitarian interest performed in connection with aircraft. It is a bronze plaque bearing the name of the recipient, a certificate of award and the annual interest from $10,000 trust fund.
Chapman, a native of St. Joseph, Mo., one of the crew of the Roma when it crashed, found himself entrapped with four mates in a canvas enclosed compartment with escape cut off by flames. With his knife he made an opening in the canvas through which he helped his companions to safety, being burned severely while so doing. Then he escaped himself. The burns he received threatened his life for a time and he spent 11 months in Walter Reed hospital here, but he is back in the service at Langley Field, Va.
General Pershing commended his conduct in army orders but Chapman was not at that time within the provisions of law authorizing decorations. He has been in the army more than 11 year and army officers declare him to be a superior soldier in addition to being an expert airship rider.

Says Publicity Has Changed The Present Morals

Milwaukee, Wis., Jan. 20.--(AP)--Publicity and not the morals of college students, is what has changed in the last generation, Dr. H. M. Weston, president of Lawrence College of Appleton, Wis., told the annual meeting of the Association of College Presidents and Deans here last night.
"Back in 1910 morals of college students were not considered news," he explained. "I suppose days it wasn't news if a college student got drunk and lipped over his sleigh in a snow bank when returning from a party."

FINISH T. B. TESTS HERE

Tuberculosis Tests of City School Children Completed by Experts.

The work in connection with the Children's Tuberculosis Clinic recently conducted in the city schools has been completed and reports are being sent to parents. The clinic was conducted by physicians from the Extension Department of the State Sanatorium and was financed by the Greenville Woman's Club.

The work consisted first in making a Skin Tuberculin test on all school children under 15 years of age, provided consent of the parents could be obtained. Such tests were made on 1302 children. Of these 240 or 18 per cent showed positive. This meant that children giving a positive test needed further examination and study—so were given complete physical examination and x-ray pictures made of 214 of these.

Reports sent out by the Sanatorium indicate that 20 children have active tuberculosis; 32 strongly suspected, while the other were pronounced negative. In other words, of the entire number of children first tested, four per cent were found to have tuberculosis or suspicions of having it.

Four Carloads of Hogs to Go Out of Pitt This Year

Four carloads of Pitt county hogs have been lined up for shipment during the month of March and April, E. P. Arnold, director of the Department of Agriculture, stated this morning.

Three carloads of hogs were shipped last year and brought Pitt county growers a handsome sum of extra money.

M. Arnold stated that the "hog and hominy" program inaugurated by the department was meeting with gratifying success in many sections of the country and that he expected they would be able to better the four carloads shipment next season.

Numbers of growers, who heretofore have taken only passing interest in the raising of hogs have signified their intention of giving the matter more serious consideration next year, and the department believes this is indicative of more extensive development of the industry in the future.

Zero Weather in Middlewest

Chicago, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Whistling cold has come, almost without warning, to the north and middlewest.

The roaring winds whipped Minnesota and Dakota temperatures below zero last night and then spread south. From 30 degrees above zero in Chicago, the temperature roading fell 20 degrees in two hours.

It was the wind, however, rather than the precipitate mercury drop that did the most damage. Trees and signboards were blown down here, and windows broken. Several buildings were unroofed. Disruption of lighting and transportation services as caused in sections of the city.

New York, Jan. 20.—(AP)—With placard-bearing supporters of the opposition party ejected from Battery Park by police to avert possible disorder, President William T. Roosevelt of the Irish free state stepped onto American soil today, scarcely more than noon.

war, they stick together.

Canada, without relinquishment of loyalty to the British empire, should be a leader in that conference. Canada's interests are in these American continents, their independence and their future.

Anthony Rousch Mills is dead, aged 77, at Sundance, Wyoming, and is probably in heaven now talking with Lahire, that famous bear fighter of centuries ago.

Thirty-eight years ago Mills, turning a sharp corner in the Black Hills, came face to face with a silver tipped grizzly that knocked his gun out of his hand, bit off his nose, seized him by the salt of the leg and dragged him along the trail. Rousch pulled his knife, stopped the bear's flight by holding on to a tree, and cutting his jugular vein, killing the bear.

It was a good bear fight.

Old Lahire's fight is made memorable by this first prayer that Lahire had ever uttered: "Lord, I do not ask you to help Lahire, I only ask you not to help this bear." The prayer was answered and Lahire won.

spot about equally distant from Denver, El Paso, Dallas and Kansas City, you find thriving Amarillo. Ten years ago that city's population was 15,494. Now it is 55,778 and growing rapidly, surrounded by an empire of its own, no competitive city within 200 miles. The Amarillo empire, about as big as Ohio, with 35,000,000 acres of level, fertile land, had 150,000 people six years ago, and now has more than 500,000.

Cheap natural gas, heaven knows how many barrels of oil, wheat, cotton, everything tends to make Amarillo prosperous.

But the important thing is that Amarillo celebrates its prosperity by spending $900,000 more on its public schools and intends to keep in spending, so that "school accommodations may always be ahead of the demand."

That means more to the future than all the oil, gas, wheat and cotton. Big New York and Chicago please note.
