ENTIRE STATE MOURNS DEATH OF W. N. EVERETT

Secretary of State Died Last Night at 9:30 From Disease of The Heart.

Raleigh, Feb. 8.—(AP)—Telegrams and statements of sorrow from all over the state had the same personal quality of regret as the homage paid today to William Nash Everett, secretary of state of North Carolina, as his body lay at state at the century old capital building he loved.

The Rockingham native son who left his "75-horse farm" and his merchandise business which matched his cotton farming to lead a legislative fight for millions of dollars for charitable and educational institutions and later became secretary of state died at 9:30 o'clock last night from heart disease.

The last of his four years never showed in his smiling countenance the bitter struggle within against kidney trouble, gall stones and heart disease, to which he succeeded after the last two weeks' crisis when he lay prone at the Sir Walter Hotel, attended by wifely devotions, and solicitude of his sister, Mrs. Minnie A. Dockery, Rockingham, his two daughters, Mrs. Isaac S. London, Rockingham, and Mrs. T. Bernard Wright, Greensboro, and his only son and business partner, William N. Everett, Jr.

Surviving him also are two brothers, John L. Everett, of Charlotte, and Jim Legrand Everett, of Rockingham. Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. London, Raleigh, and Osmer L. Henry, Rockingham attorney, three close friends, were also at the bedside. Governor McLean was in the hotel lobby when death came. The governor, who closed the executive and administrative branches of the state government from 10 o'clock to 1 o'clock today, had come in to inquire as to the secretary's condition.

Personal was the grief that was manifest in the capitol city today as the body lay in state. Only necessary business was to be transacted until the conclusion of the funeral services set for two o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the Methodist church at Rockingham with interment in the Everett family grave yard. Governor McLean and other state officials will be honorary pallbearers.

The flag hung in the rain at half mast over the capitol today beginning a 30-day mourning period for the man of many friends who loved the contacts of his position and was doubly loved in return.

Raleigh, Feb. 8.—(AP)—The state printing commission which was to have opened bids on six unlet classifications of printing for the ensuing biennium today, met at 10 o'clock this morning and adjourned without transacting business out of respect to the memory of Secretary of State William N. Everett who died last night.

Raleigh, Feb. 8.—(AP)—The widow of William N. Everett, secretary of state of North Carolina, who died at 9:30 o'clock last night, was stricken at midnight, three hours later with the same heart ailment which struck down her husband.

She lay today at the Sir Walter Hotel suffering from the ailment which attacked her and Mr. Everett off and on since wintertime while the rest of the Everett family were at the state capitol rotunda in the center of which lay the coffin of Mr. Everett from 10 to 1 o'clock today before it was carried to Rockingham for the funeral services tomorrow.

Heriot Clarkson, associate justice of the supreme court of the state, was among those offering expressions today.

"I feel a personal loss," he declared. "I first became acquainted with him at the University of North Carolina in 1884, and a warm friendship has continued ever since. He was a patriotic citizen—always taking an active part in all moral and material matters for the uplift of the state. He was a man of extraordinary courage, as his father was before him. In his death the state has lost one of its truest and most valued officials."

All capitol building office doors were closed. The shades were drawn in Governor McLean's office. The state was without a secretary of state and the task was before the governor, following funeral services, to appoint a successor to hold office until the first of next year.

At 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon there was no news of ten fishermen adrift on a cake of ice in Lake Erie.

Young Mr. Butler, who succeeds his father as publisher in Buffalo, sent an airplane looking for the missing men, in charge of William Lee, assistant city editor, and two pilots. Already afloat more than twenty-four hours, the men are in danger of freezing to death.

What would you think, or talk about, if you were one of the ten? Nothing probably. Death is merciful. Thinking and feeling become dull, or cease, at death's approach.

Even wild animals, nearly all dying violent deaths, suffer little, according to Darwin. In the excitement of flight and pursuit they feel nothing until death strikes.

SANITY TRIAL OF SLAYER IS NEARING END

Attorneys in Hickman Case Believe Evidence Will be in by This Afternoon.

Los Angeles, Feb. 8.—(AP)—With a quick-time march of final verdicts, the sanity trial of William Edward Hickman today moved into its final stages.

Attorneys for both sides predicted that the last of the evidence for and against the youth's insanity plea to the kidnaping and murder of 12-year-old Marian Parker would be placed before the jury before the end of today's session. They said it was possible that the jury would hear the final arguments of attorneys and begin its deliberations by tomorrow night.

With the opening of the final scenes it was disclosed that virtually none of the principals in the trial drama had escaped the attentions of writers of "crank" letters.

The latest target for threatening missives was the jury itself. Its members, however, were kept ignorant of the letter which had been received threatening to "blow the whole bunch up" if Hickman was not held "responsible" for the school girl's murder.

The letter, addressed to "the Hickman jury" and turned over to Judge J. J. Trabucco for investigation. It was declared the work of some unbalanced person—a type also blamed for threatening letters received in numbers by Judge Trabucco, District Attorney Asa Keyes and his aides as well as the members of the defense counsel.

The last of the state's seven alienists, all of whom have declared Hickman sane in the sense that he was able to distinguish between right and wrong, completed their testimony yesterday.

During the cross examination of Dr. Thomas J. Orison, one of these expert witnesses, the defense managed to slip into the records Hickman's "closing argument," prepared by the young slayer himself in his cell for delivery at his trial. The admission of a copy of that oration, titled by its young author "oration of crime," had been barred previously on a prosecution objection that it was "tommy rot," the Hickman document was dismissed by other state alienists as the plea of a man "at the end of his rope."

Dr. Orison was asked to examine it to determine whether it contained any evidence of insanity. The alienist labeled it "merely a sophomoric oration on crime."

Dr. Edward H. Williams, the last of the prosecution alienists to testify, declared that Hickman as "obviously feigning insanity" and making a "humiliation of it."

At the close of court yesterday the prosecution said the only witness remaining to be called were a Los Angeles officer; the two Pendleton, Ore., officers who arrested Hickman, county autopsy surgeon, A. F. Wagner, and Perry M. Parker, father of the slain girl.

The defense said it would have only one rebuttal witness, Dr. A. S. Swoog, Kansas City alienist who testified earlier in the trial he believed Hickman insane.

REPUBLICANS GET BUSY AT GREENSBORO

Selection of Convention and Other Matters Taken up by Executive Committee.

Greensboro, Feb. 8.—(AP)—Chairman Brownlow Jackson, of Hendersonville, today gathered the republican party leaders around him in the first formal session of the presidential year of the state executive committee.

Chief business to come up was selection of a convention city and Greensboro, among others, is putting in a strong bid. Availability of a local theatre for the meeting was considered here as giving city a good chance of being selected for the state convention.

Last night a preliminary session of the party leaders was held as prominent republicans from throughout the state poured into the city. Gossip and rumors were flying fast but a definite slant on the C. O. P. thought could not be ascertained.

David H. Blair, commissioner of internal revenue, was in town most of the day but did not stay over for formal sessions of the committee. He said his visit had nothing to do with republican politics but he took time out to tell newspaper men that North Carolina did not have a chance of landing a candidate on either of the national tickets.

Mrs. Lillian B. Rogers, of Wilmington, and Charles J. Jones, of Hendersonville, national committee members, are among those here. W. G. Braham, of Durham, also is here and is boosting Lowden as a presidential candidate. A good portion of the republican forces appear to be aligned with Hoover, however, an informal poll indicated.

Three Cases in County Court Here Yesterday

Three cases were disposed of yesterday morning in one of the shortest sessions of county court held in the city in months. The session was presided over by Judge W. A. Darden.

Uprising in Mexico Is Believed Reprisal For Dynamiting Of Statue

Mexico City, Feb. 8.—(AP)—Press dispatches today said that the uprising in the states of Queretaro and Guanajuato was believed to be in reprisal for the recent dynamiting of the statue of Christ at El Subilete, near Silao in Guanajuato.

Daniel Perez, a Catholic priest, charged with provoking an uprising at Salamanca, Guanajuato, has been killed. He was captured after an attack on Salamanca failed. It was stated he was shot when he attempted to escape.

Perez was charged with carrying on subversive propaganda at Yochilras ranch near Salamanca, buying arms and ammunition and writing the pamphlets to revolt. He finally succeeded in gathering some 200 persons from neighboring ranches to him. They took the field Saturday.

Telephone and telegraph lines were cut by them and the railroad line destroyed. They launched their attack on Salamanca shortly after midnight Sunday.

Emilio Martinez, a witness at the fighting, is quoted as saying that what is termed a new Catholic uprising is believed to be in reprisal for the destruction of the statue dear to the hearts of Mexican Catholics.

The debate brought out contentions that President Coolidge cannot be considered as having served two terms, because he completed the unexpired term of President Harding before being elected President in his own right, and also the argument of his announced decision not to be a candidate.

Senator Fess and Senator Gillett, republican, Massachusetts, agreed that another term for Coolidge would not be his third, while Senator Bruce, Democrat, Maryland, attacked the third term idea, said President Coolidge would have been defeated if he had decided to run again on that issue.

Senator Borah, republican, Idaho, believed public sentiment was opposed to third terms and he proposed a constitutional amendment restricting the term of office in the White House to six or eight years.

Arrest Negro in Murder Case At Greensboro

Greensboro, Feb. 8.—(AP)—The arrest of Isiah Williams, negro, in the early hours of the morning here today pointed to an early climax to the search for the slayer of Lee Reddick, young Thomasville police officer. Greensboro authorities believed they had the negro, who was in bed when arrested and who was declared by persons at the house where he was found to have asserted he had not slept for two nights, fitted the description of the one sought for saving the Thomasville officer and wounding his companion Monday night.

Although the negro denied he was guilty of the murder, local officers from Thomasville in the belief that the prisoner here would be identified as the slayer.

Another sensational development in the case yesterday was the arrest of Nat C. Coble, owner of the automobile the negro who slew the officer was driving just before the killing.

THIRD TERM ISSUE GETS IN LIMELIGHT

Question Has Direct Bearing Upon Presidential Coolidge and The Future.

Washington, Feb. 8.—(AP)—The third term issue, with particular reference to President Coolidge, stood flatfooted on the Senate floor today, demanding attention and inspiring political crystal gazing encompassing both present and future.

Described by some republican soothsayers as the "third term bugaboo," the question held the right of way beginning at 2 o'clock in the form of a resolution by Senator LaFollette, republican, Wisconsin, declaring that departure from the "precedent established by Washington and other presidents" of retiring after the second term would be "fought with peril to our free institutions."

Brought unexpectedly before the Senate with Senator LaFollette's statement that he wanted the resolution adopted because of an effort is being made to "draft" President Coolidge, it was opposed today by a counter resolution that would sidetrack it to the judiciary committee. A vote on that resolution, was set for 2 o'clock, and was calculated to bring to light the division of Senators that may be expected on the LaFollette proposal itself.

Senator Bingham was one of the administration champions who led the fight against the resolution, which would put the Senate on record as commending "observance of this precedent by the President." He was joined by Senator Fess, republican, Ohio, in declaring that the resolution if given the force of law would make it "impossible or difficult" for the republican party to elect Mr. Coolidge this year or in 1932.

The debate brought out contentions that President Coolidge cannot be considered as having served two terms, because he completed the unexpired term of President Harding before being elected President in his own right, and also the argument of his announced decision not to be a candidate.

Senator Fess and Senator Gillett, republican, Massachusetts, agreed that another term for Coolidge would not be his third, while Senator Bruce, Democrat, Maryland, attacked the third term idea, said President Coolidge would have been defeated if he had decided to run again on that issue.

Senator Borah, republican, Idaho, believed public sentiment was opposed to third terms and he proposed a constitutional amendment restricting the term of office in the White House to six or eight years.

SENATE OIL BODY STILL TRACE BONDS

Committee Today Turned to Story of how O'Neil Disposed of $800,000 Bonds

Washington, Feb. 8.—(AP)—Balked at nearly every turn in its effort the ultimate disposition of the profits of the short-lived Continental Trading Company, of Canada, the senate teapot dome committee adjourned its hearings today subject to the call of the chairman, after fruitless examination of three witnesses.

The committee hopes to resume hearing next week, and efforts in the meantime will be made to locate Wayne O'Neil, son of James E. O'Neil, who went to Europe after the oil scandal broke, and who now is listed as a missing witness in the oil cases.

Today the committee called on Earl W. Sinclair, brother of Harry F. Sinclair, Clark H. Kountz, vice president of the Prairie Pipe Line Company, and C. E. Crawley, vice president of the Sinclair Consolidated Company for information about the bonds, but without material result.

Washington, Feb. 8.—(AP)—Resuming its quest for the elusive Liberty bonds held by the Continental Trading Company, Ltd., of Canada, the senate oil committee today turned to the story of how James E. O'Neil gave $800,000 of the securities to the Prairie Oil and Gas Company after Teapot Dome scandal broke.

O'Neil is a missing witness in the oil cases, but he formerly was President of the Prairie. Clark H. Kountz, vice president of the Prairie Pipe Line Company, testified that O'Neil, summoned him to Montreal in May, 1925, at which time the missing witness made restitution to the Prairie Oil and Gas Company of the $800,000 in profits he had made out of the continental transactions in buying oil from the late E. A. Humphreys of Denver, and selling it to the Prairie Oil Company and the Sinclair Crude Oil Purchasing Company.

The witness testified that he was private secretary to O'Neil for a number of years and it was on this account that the oil man gave him the order for the bonds which then were in the possession of O'Neil's son, Wayne O'Neil.

"Where did you actually get the bonds?" inquired Senator Walsh, democrat, Montana, the committee's predecessor.

"Out of his home at Garden City, L. I.," Kountz replied.

"Where did he get the bonds?" "Out of some bank there."

Kountz explained that O'Neil in telling W. S. Fitzpatrick, chairman of the board of the Prairie Oil Company that he wanted that company to have the bonds, had requested that none of the coupons be cashed as long as Harry F. Sinclair was in difficulties with the federal government as a result of the Teapot Dome lease.

Earl W. Sinclair, brother of Harry F. Sinclair, and president of the Sinclair Consolidated Oil Company, told the committee in a contract to the Prairie Oil and the Sinclair Crude for $400,000 had first been suggested to him by O'Neil.

Under the continental contract drawn on the same day the continental bought the oil for $1.50 a barrel it was sold back to companies in which Robert W. Stewart of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, Harry F. Sinclair and others were interested for $1.75. The crude bought the contract after delivery of a part of the oil.

"I told Mr. Crawley (vice president of the Consolidated) to tell H. L. Phillips, president of the Sinclair Crude, to come on to New York and get in touch with Mr. Osler (H. S. Osler, of Toronto, president of the Continental) about the matter."

Phillips negotiated the sale with Osler. At that time the contract still had a potential value of $15,000,000. Sinclair said he did not inquire as to how much oil had been declared under the contract.

"What, if anything do you know about the bonds purchased by the Continental?" asked Senator Walsh.

"Nothing."

"Did your company get any?"

"No sir."

"Have you any Liberty bonds in the assets of your company?"

"Yes sir, about $600,000."

"Do you know of any individual officers of your company who received any bonds?" inquired Chairman Nye.

"I do not. Certainly none of the bonds the company has now are Continental bonds."

SPORTS SLANTS

By ALAN J. GOULD

Associated Press Sports Editors. New York, Feb. 8.—(AP)—The winter track activities make it increasingly clear that Lloyd Hahn is the only American capable of breaking this country's jinx in the Olympic middle distance championships this summer.

Unless Jole Ray stages a successful comeback Hahn appears likely to be the only first class miler Uncle Sam will have available for the trip to Amsterdam.

Three years ago Hahn, Ray, Connolly, and others all were doing miles at around 4:15 and Hahn 4:12 3-5 in one race. Of this group only Hahn improved. There isn't much room for improvement when a miler gets inside 4:15 but the rugged Boston A. A. star stepped his best mile last season to 4:02 1-5. He will make his main bid for a record this winter in the Knights of Columbus games here February 25th.

Hahn has made a show of all his rivals so far including Ray Conger, the national mile champion, and the best of the middle distance crop from the east and middle west. He has won eight straight races and should hang up his ninth victory in the Newark A. C. games tonight.

Walter Okeson will be the eastern "Judge Landis" next fall, exercising car-like powers in selecting of gridiron officials for most of the leading colleges in this sector.

Having experimented with the system last year and found it satisfactory the group of a dozen institutions have opened the doors and invited the rest of the college fold to sail under Okeson's banner. The others haven't much choice now that the old central board of officials has been disbanded.

Babe Ruth is physically from five to ten years younger now than he was two years ago before his big comeback, in the opinion of his trainer, Artie McGovern.

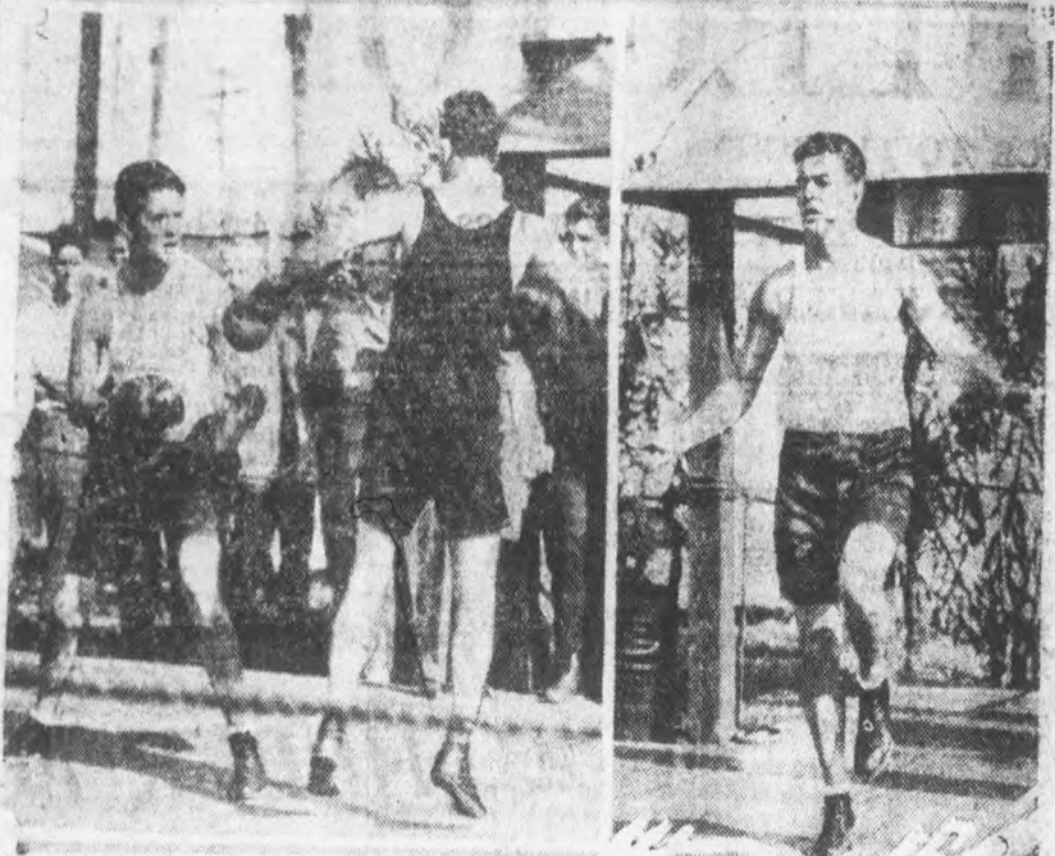

The babe's waist line and general dimensions are much more svelte than they were in 1925. McGovern's tape measure revealed when the big fellow returned to gymnasium work on his 34th birthday yesterday.

Table with 2 columns: Measurement (Weight, Neck, Chest, etc.) and 1926: 1928: comparison.

To make the shifting picture complete for 1928 it is necessary now only for Ty Cobb to pop up in a new uniform—the Giants, as a suggestion.

Any fan who performed a Rip Van Winkle stunt after last spring's opening would hardly be here if he was awake if he opened his eyes and noticed Hornsby with the Braves, speakers with the Athletics, Slater with Washington, Majusi with the Browns and Walter Johnson with the Newark Internationals.

TUNNEY STARTS LIGHT TRAINING IN FLORIDA

Gene Tunney, heavyweight champion, has dropped his Shakespearean research work for the time being and has started work with the "pillows" in Miami, Fla. Here he's shown in action in the ring against Jack Britton, former welterweight champ. Inset shows Gene skipping rope.

Crawford Had Contract With Guilford Team

New York, Feb. 8.—(AP)—Efforts of Pat Crawford, a star third baseman of the Greenville, S. C. club of the Sally League, to dodge the Giants' training camp resulted from a previous contract as coach at Guilford school.

So Crawford has explained to Charles A. Stoneham, owner of the Giants, here. Crawford denied his objection to joining the Giants was because of Sunday baseball, as many reports had said.

The infielder proposed a week's trial for himself with John McGraw to decide as to his future. If McGraw considers him of big league calibre, he said he would quit as college coach.

"I have made a contract which I believe I should finish even though it keeps me out of a career in which I can make more money," Crawford told Stoneham. "That contract would not allow me to join the Giants until May 15. What I would like to do is to go to Augusta in March and work for a week under McGraw. If he tells me I have the promise of a big league, I will work out my college contract and then go as he wishes."

Stoneham said he would communicate with McGraw.

Barry's License Revoked. Chicago, Feb. 8.—(AP)—Dave Barry, who counted nine over Gene Tunney last September and won a name for himself, has been suspended indefinitely by the State Boxing Commission. Barry's license was revoked on the ground that he refereed an unlicensed boxing match a week ago.

Flyweight to Defend Title

Toronto, Feb. 6.—(AP)—French Belanger of Toronto, recognized by the National Boxing Association as the world's flyweight champion, defends his title tonight against Frankie Cenaro, of New York, in 10 rounds to a decision.

Although Belanger ranks the favorite, Cenaro has many backers. The New Yorker is not only out for the N. B. A. title but for revenge as well. He lost a close decision to Belanger in their last meeting.

Crawford Wanted By N. Y. Giants

Greensboro, Feb. 8.—(AP)—Pat Crawford Guilford college coach and star third sacker of the Greenville club of the Sally League today confirmed the statement of the New York Giants officials that his college contract was the only barrier to his joining the Giants in spring training this year.

Crawford was sold to the Giants last year but announced recently that he did not intend to report to the New York club. It was stated in some quarters at that time that his aversion to Sunday baseball caused him to reach that decision.

On two previous occasions, Crawford declined to enter higher company because of this aversion. The Spinner infielder announced today however, that he would be pleased to join the McGrawmen if he is able to overcome the obstacle presented by his coaching contract and if McGraw thinks he "is good enough to make the grade."

Crawford recently returned from New York where he was in conference with Charlie A. Stoneham, President of the Giants, and other officials.

HOSPITAL IS SO COSEY HOME BUYER BIDS FOR IT

Topeka, Kas.—(AP)—When Dr. Karl A. Menninger built his new psychiatric hospital, he endeavored to make it a place in which his patients would feel they were guests.

He succeeded so well that a wealthy business man sought to buy the hospital for a home, offering Dr. Menninger a substantial profit on the $50,000 investment.

Believing that persons who are mentally ill need the restful atmosphere of home, Dr. Menninger equipped the living room, the dining room and the two sun parlors with as much care as the clinical chambers.

BRUNSWICK FISHERMEN WANT TO GAIN ACCESS TO DISPUTED WATERS

Southport, Feb. 7.—(AP)—Fisher men from Brunswick county, some of them having been arrested and fined for fishing in disputed territory lying near the North and South Carolina line, today awaited results of efforts to gain access to the disputed waters. A request was sent by them to Capt. John A. Nelson, North Carolina commissioner of fisheries, that he endeavor to have the South Carolina commissioner cease arresting them for trespassing until the line dividing the waters of the two states was definitely fixed. Meanwhile they avoided the good fishing territory in the vicinity of Little River, S. C.

GREAT TENNIS STAIR FACES ELIMINATION SOON

Chicago, Feb. 8.—(AP)—National tennis rankings, to be ratified at the N. L. T. Association meeting here Friday and Saturday, may witness the passing of another great star of the past, "Little Bill" Johnston. The sensation of last winter's rankings was the dropping of Vincent Richards for turning professional and tennis followers believe that Johnston's failure to enter many tournaments last year may cost him his 1928 ranking.

The same circumstance finally eliminated Richard N. Williams several years ago and this incident has been pointed out as the probable action of the National Tennis Association in the case of "Little Bill" whose strength was not equal to the burden of a long campaign in 1927.

Charge Officials With Taking Part of Loot From Bank

Atmore, Okla., Feb. 8.—(AP)—Charged with appropriating part of the loot from a bank after they helped recover it, was Croy, Love county attorney, and James C. Mathers, youthful county judge, today were at Liberty on $5,000 bond each. Both denied all allegations in the grand larceny complaint filed by the state.

The officials were arrested yesterday as a result of an investigation by Fred Hansen, assistant county attorney general, after only $3,719 of the $9,300 in cash taken from the Love county National Bank at Marietta, Okla., two weeks ago, had been returned.

A confession by Claud Andrews, who admitted participating in the robbery in which Sheriff Sam Long and one of the bandits was killed, led to recovery of the money. Judge Mathers and Croy, who were in charge of the searching party, declared they did not count the money. Before returning it to bank officials.

Hansen's complaint alleged that Judge Mathers and Croy took the sack containing the loot to J. D. Davis, cashier of the bank, a few hours after it was found, buried near the home of a suspect in the robbery.

Mathers was elected county judge in 1924, when he was 22 years old. He was the youngest judge in the state.

Negro is Jailed On Theft Charge

Fred Pugh, negro, is being held in the county jail today awaiting trial on a charge of complicity in a number of thefts thought to have taken place in various parts of the county.

The negro was arrested last night by Officer D. M. Seymour, of Grifton, who had been given a tip that Pugh had stolen some clothes from a house in the Grifton territory.

Pugh was asleep in the woods when the officers found him. He had in his possession a Ford touring car bearing a license number of 238,288. Another license found in the car gave the number of 374,193. The motor number was 10,127,197.

The car also contained bag with twenty chickens, three hams and a considerable amount of sausage, believed to have been stolen in different localities.

Pugh is said to have been connected with numbers of automobile thefts the last few years. He will be held in jail here pending investigation by county officials as to owner of the things found in his possession.

Farmville Negro Under $500 Bond On Liquor Charge

Tom McKinney, Farmville negro, was released under bond of $500 by county officials yesterday on a charge of concealing, possessing and selling contraband whiskey.

The charge grew out of a raid made on the negro's store Monday night in which six and a half gallons of illicit whiskey were found concealed in the building.

McKinney is said to have been connected with the whiskey traffic for sometime and his capture followed intensive investigation by county officials.

Judge Devin Rebukes Jury

Lumberton, Feb. 8.—(AP)—Seven members of a Roberson superior court jury dismissed by Judge Devin when they found Ben Freeman not guilty of dynamiting Lumber river for fish today at their homes pondered the words of stern rebuke addressed to them by the court.

Judge Devin yesterday charged that they had not carried out his instructions and that any jury that would return such a verdict had no place in his court. Accordingly he discharged the jurors and all of them except five who told the Judge the verdict was returned because they did not have time to properly consider the case and were reinstated for duty, returned to their homes.

MRS. WRIGHT ENTERTAINS END OF THE CENTURY CLUB

The End of the Century Club was delightfully entertained Tuesday afternoon, February 7. Mrs. R. H. Wright was hostess. In the absence of the president, Mrs. J. L. Little, Mrs. J. L. Hassell presided.

After a short business session, the meeting was turned over to the program committee. The program was most interesting. Mrs. R. Williams read a paper on "Social Service." She told how North Carolina had made strides along lines of social service. She said North Carolina's plans of public welfare which have functioned since 1919. She emphasized the work of the state unit and the county unit, discussing particularly the part our state and county has taken in Mother's Aid and the Juvenile Court, and called attention to the fact that the people of this community could do much to help carry on the work now being done in Pitt county and the state.

Mrs. Moyer read the second paper of the afternoon on "What Our State is Doing For Her Unfortunates." She mentioned many institutions of the state, such as the asylum in Raleigh, Morganton, and the Caswell Training School in Kinston. But she gave details of the Stoneval Jackson Training School in Concord through whose doors 1000 boys have passed well equipped to take their place in life.

She then told about Sanare's, the state's school for wayward girls. This institution takes children as young as six years of age and trains them mentally, morally and spiritually, sometimes returning them to their own homes when they become of age. There are fourteen Pitt county girls there now.

Miss Sallie Joy, r Davis then delighted the club with a short synopsis of the play to be given at the college Wednesday night.

The play, "The Chastening," by Charles Rann Kennedy, who takes the leading part, with his wife, Edith Wynne Matthison. The third player, Margaret Gage, is a student of Dr. Kennedy's.

She really gave a beautiful interpretation of "The Chastening." Delightful refreshments were served and a social hour was enjoyed.

Sans Souci Book Club Meets

On Tuesday afternoon, with Mrs. S. T. White as hostess, the Sans Souci Book Club held one of the most delightful meetings of the year. After routine business and passing of books the club enjoyed a most unusual and charming program given by Mrs. L. C. Skinner, assisted by Mrs. J. H. Waldrop.

This being the Valentine meeting, Mrs. Skinner had as her subject, "Music and Love—Just I Have Loved For." Dipping here and there into the lives and poems of our greatest writers and with a most understanding interpretation of these great factors in the lives of men, Mrs. Skinner impressed upon each hearer anew the place this combination of music and love has in the world.

After the reading of Robt. Browning's "Andrea Del Sarto" Mrs. Waldrop sang for us "Loves Old Sweet Song" and "Indian Love Call," thus bringing to us in her lovely way, the old and modern in love songs.

In place of the usual current events, each member was asked to give a Valentine verse which fittingly brought to a close a most attractive program.

Even the delicious refreshments served by the hostess bore the message of light and love, for on each plate was the red heart of love and the miniature candy candlestick with lighted taper signifying the light which is always its companion.

SERMON ON FAITH AT REVIVAL HERE

Dr. Loaring-Clark's sermon last night on "Faith," was most beautifully rendered, and if we people of Greenville would repent of our sins, be really converted and have the abounding faith in Almighty God as so wonderfully expressed by Dr. Loaring-Clark, we could set Pitt county on fire with burning zeal for the upbuilding of the Kingdom of God here on earth.

We Christian people cannot sit still, and be content with our present religious condition, for, as we all know, that Faith without works is dead, therefore, we must show our Faith by our works, and the best work that we can do is to try and bring those people that are not associated with any church, into the fold.

Come to hear Dr. Loaring-Clark tonight at 7:30 o'clock in St. Paul's Episcopal church, a cordial welcome is extended to all.

LITERARY DEPARTMENT OF WOMAN'S CLUB MEETS

The Literary Department of the Woman's Club met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. R. J. Bamber and Mrs. A. W. Hasken, at the home of the former. A large number of members were present and we had as guests Mrs. R. L. Smith, Mrs. Charles Barr and Miss Luis O. Andrews.

Business was quickly dispensed with and the program was turned over to Miss Andrews, who so ably discussed the life and works of Eugene O'Neil.

The life of Eugene O'Neil, one foremost living American dramatist was pictured up to the present time. The details of his irregular life were valuable aids in interpreting his dramas.

His dramas, as a whole, were quickly reviewed. More time was spent on the following: "Beyond the Horizon," "Desires Under the Elms," and "Great God Brown." Photographs of characters and scenes made them more vivid and real to the club members.

A brief outline was given of the two plays, "Strange Interlude" and "Marc's Million,"—that are now being shown in New York.

The last part of the program dealt with Eugene O'Neil's last play which is based on the Bible story of Lazarus. "It is man's great affirmation of life; life's victory over death—a superb theme magnificently carried out. It is a marvelous masterpiece of a miracle play." Too, it shows that O'Neil has overcome the pessimistic strain that usually dominates his dramas.

Following a delicious salad course the club adjourned.

Merchants in Readiness for Semi-Annual Trade Even in this City Tomorrow

Local merchants today were all set for "Dollar Day" which opens in this city tomorrow morning, according to information given out this afternoon by C. B. Rowlett, secretary of the association.

"Dollar Day" this year promises to eclipse anything in history of the city, it was stated by leading members of the association, and those who come from miles around to make their purchases on this occasion will be well rewarded for doing so.

Fifteen merchants are taking part in the semi-annual event this year. They have the largest stocks on their counters and shelves since "Dollar Day" was inaugurated several months ago and are going to offer them at prices in keeping with the largest firms of the country.

"If you want to attend the greatest sales event ever staged in this part of the country, make it a point to be in Greenville tomorrow," Mr. Rowlett said. "This will actually be the biggest trade event Greenville has ever known and we expect thousands to throng the business district during the day."

NOT TREATED ALIKE

The recent announcement
by the State Highway Commission that there would be no further bond issues sought for paved roads, and beyond the expenditure for present projects, the Commission would devote its funds and attention to the upkeep of the present road system, leaves many counties, especially those of the east, with the feeling that they have been "left out in the cold" so far as the state road program is concerned.
The special gasoline tax is collected all over the state of North Carolina regardless of whether the roads are paved or not, and it is showing discrimination
when the road building program is halted before all the main highways and arteries
of travel are included.
The gasoline and other automobile taxes are sufficient to take care of the interest on road bonds and the retirement of the same,
and according to reliable information, the issuance of other bonds would not increase the taxes. In the face of these facts it seems that to cut short the road building program now is indeed giving some of the counties of the state the "go-bye."

SOWING AND REAPING

Experience is the harvest of life, and every harvest is the result of sowing. The experience which young people most crave is that of success in some service for which they are naturally fitted. And they wish it at once—immediately.

Youth wishes to touch a magic button and command success without apprenticeship. But nothing ripens that is not first planted and the very desires, the impatience, the dreams, the ambitions of youth, are by way of a planting which shall come to fruition—sometimes after these desires are abandoned and forgotten. For the sown seed goes on growing whether we remember it or not. The wisdom of life is to keep on planting.—Dearborn Independent.

ABOUT
TOWN

"Now that directors of the local ball club have signified their intention not to announce the name of the manager of the team until next Monday night, we might as well resign ourselves to the inevitable and wait patiently until the mocus get ready to broadcast this important information," one of the old fellows of the first Eastern Carolina league, remarked today.

"I am mighty glad they are giving the selection of the manager such grave consideration. It is a matter deserving of the most serious thought because the success of the club will depend largely upon the kind of man that directs its activities.

President Guy Smith and members of the board of directors are to be congratulated upon their wisdom in not rushing about this business and every ball fan in the city no doubt will have reason to be justly proud of them in the future.

"If the members of the Merchants Association in final session of the year next Wednesday evening discuss their achievements, then they will spend most of the night talking," predicted a reader of this column today, speaking of the progress of the association during the past year.

"This organization has taken the place of a chamber of commerce, board of trade, and any business organization which the city fails to have. Its members have been deeply interested in development of the moral, spiritual, industrial and economic life of the community, and their achievements have all luster of a star.

"Advertising is one of the most important things in connection with growth and expansion of any locality. Realizing this fact the association not so long ago used its influence in the raising of funds to carry out this purpose. Today Greenville and Pitt county are known in virtually all sections of the country because of the publicity made possible by the association.

"This is only one of the many notable achievements of the body of men striving daily to make Greenville the SHOPPING CENTER OF EASTERN NORTH CAROLINA
but it is sufficient to show to what extent they are directing their efforts.

"May they continue to achieve in the future as they have in the past for it is upon such records that success is made possible."

"Don't forget to contribute to the conference for Older Boys to be held in this city Friday, Saturday and Sunday of this week," members of the local campaign committee urged today.

"These boys are representatives of some of the best high schools of the state. They have records of scholarship which make possible their attendance upon the conference here this week.

"The committee will need rooms to house these four hundred splendid young men, so if you have any spare room, let the committee know at once. This is a great cause in which the boys are launched one deserving of the consideration of the thoughtful, liberal-minded men and women.

home. Two meals Saturday and

"The rat extermination test conducted in Pitt county Monday and Tuesday was a notable success," said E. F. Arnold, director of the Department of Agriculture today.

"The representatives of the biological department of the extension department showed Pitt county farmers some new wrinkles in rat killing, and if they profit by the lessons, then the county should save several thousands of dollars annually from this one source alone.

"There is no question but that rats destroy a great amount of food stuff in the course of a year, and if we had some permanent way of extermination this situation should be greatly improved. Our growers should give the matter proper attention, and stage regular rat killing contests several times a year."

"Business men of Pitt county should make it a point to attend the public meeting to be conducted in the court house here February 23rd, for the purpose of discussing the possibility of making Tar river navigable," advocates of navigation declared today.

"Government engineers will attend this meeting and if sufficient need for the opening of the river exists, then they will conduct a survey with this end in view.

"It will take years to get the river deepened now that the matter is up for consideration, and should sufficient interest not be manifested in the meeting on the 23rd it will be many years before the government will become sufficiently interested to consider reviving the issue.

"If you want cheaper freight rates
by leaps and bounds, then attend this meeting and let your intencecount for the making of Tar river navigable to large boats."

Uphold Conviction of Miller.
New York, Feb. 6.—(AP)—The conviction of Thomas W. Miller, former alien property custodian,
for conspiring to defraud the government, was upheld by the United States circuit court of appeals today. Miller was tried jointly with Harry M. Daugherty, former attorney general, but the indictment against Daugherty was quashed after two juries had disagreed as to his innocence or guilt.

Pelzer-Hahn Clash Doubtful.
New York, Feb. 6.—(AP)—The
long anticipated clash between Dr.
Otto Pelzer and Lloyd Hahn will come in the Knights of Columbus
meet at Madison Square Garden February 29, or not at all, it was indicated today.

With Hahn's refusal to go west for the Illinois A. C. games at Chicago February 10 the K. of C. carnival apparently offers the only chance for a meeting between the rival middle distance stars.

LETTER OF THANKS FROM THE SALVATION ARMY

Mr. David Whichard, Editor,
Daily Reflector,
Greenville, N. C.
My Dear Sir:

Permit me to express through your paper my heartfelt gratitude for the splendid way in which you have helped the Salvation Army in their appeal for funds to carry on their work in Greenville for 1928.
A great deal of credit is due Mr.
Sam T. Carson, our able and efficient chairman. I wish to thank him and his band of co-workers for their splendid work to make this appeal such a success.

I wish to thank the pastors and the boards of various churches for extending to the Salvation Army invitations for representatives to speak in their churches. This privilege was thoroughly appreciated.

I also appreciate the co-operation of the schools. They did splendidly, not only the white schools but the colored as well.

I would feel an ingrate if I failed to express publicly my thanks to the Men's Federation. This fine band of men gave very loyal support to our appeal.

We did not raise our quota of $3,500.00, but I think there will be enough with the pledges to meet the needs of the Salvation Army
at this time.

Again thanking you and the good people of Greenville for your loyal support, I beg to remain,
Yours fraternally,
D. G. COY.
Feb. 6-28.

GRACE MOORE SINGS WAY TO FAME IN N. Y.

Tennessee Choir Singer Gained Signal Success in Debut in Metropolitan Opera.

New York, Feb. 8.—(AP)—Miss Grace Moore, formerly choir singer of Jellico, Tenn., and musical comedy star, has joined that growing circle of American girls who have reached the goal of all singers—stardom in the Metropolitan Opera Company.

Making her debut on the stage where Marion Talley and Mary Lewis, of Missouri and Arkansas, respectively, gained such signal success in 1926, Miss Moore sang the role of Mimi in "La Boheme" to the applause of an audience which included 125 folks from her home state and to the approval of the critics.

Tears came when Miss Moore's mother saw her daughter take twelve curtain calls as the audience applauded and the critical standers in the rear cried "brava".

Otto H. Kahn, chorman of the Metropolitan directors stood in his box and cheered as the staid girl from the Tennessee mountains bowed before the curtain, tears in her eyes, too. Standing beside Mr. Kahn was Gatti-Casazza, general manager of the Metropolitan, who had recognized Miss Moore's ability and signed her to her present contract.

His face red from frequent "bravas" he turned to the audience so that all could hear and shouted "glorious, glorious," and Mr. Kahn again chimed in "only the stupor of the land could produce such a feat."

Edward Johnson, Canadian tenor who sang Rodolfo with Miss Moore's Mimi, refused to take the curtains calls with her. Grasping her hands he told her: "God bless you child, child. You have a great future before you."

Then came the rush of her old friends from Tennessee and as they gathered around her she told them through her tears: "It was you of whom I thought. Your attendance here today gave me courage."

After the performance Miss Moore for the first time in two years greeted her three brothers and sisters who had not been allowed to see her preceding performance.

She also heard Mr. Kahn say that he had never heard so good a performance by a soprano of the third act of "La Boheme".

MEHLHORN WINS IN TEXAS TOURNAMENT

San Antonio, Tex., Feb. 8.—(AP)—Mixing one good round with three erratic tours of the rain-soaked Willow Springs course, Wild Bill Mehlhorn of Pittsburgh, emerged from the mud with a 27 to win the Texas open tournament.

Mehlhorn's score was 13 over par and the highest ever to take first money in the event. He nosed out Harry Cooper, of Buffalo, by a single stroke. Bobby Cruickshank, of Purchase, N. Y., winner of last year's open, was third with an even 300 while MacDonald Smith, of New York, champion in 1925, placed fourth with 302.

After participating in nearly a week's practice, climaxed by postponements due to rain, Mehlhorn started medal play Sunday with 100 others and emerged with a 76. He followed with 75 for the second 18 Monday, and yesterday equalled the course record in the morning round with 68, three under par. He then took 79 for the last 18.

Turn Hair Dark With Sage Tea

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good even color which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

LINDY BEGINS HIS FLIGHT TO HAVANA, CUBA

National Colors of Twenty-one Nations To Greet Airman on Arrival

Port Au Prince, Haiti, Feb. 8.—(AP)—Across the windward passage where the black ships of buccaners once preyed on commerce lay the route of the Spirit of St. Louis today.

Leaving here on a flight of about 750 miles to Havana Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh intended to fly for twenty miles along the Haitian coast before crossing the 60-mile stretch of water to Cuba.

Then the path of the Lone Eagle turned northward to the United States naval base at Guantanamo and across the island to Havana.

On the prow of the Spirit of St. Louis was painted a new flag and a new emblem. Among the colors of the countries the flyer has visited were the red and blue of Haiti. Under the buccanier head, the device of the airy aviators at France field, Canal Zone, was painted the marine corps emblem—an eagle, an anchor and the globe in red and yellow.

Lindbergh received during his stay the full honors of an ambassador, President Borno saying: "Lindbergh is more than a colonel, he is an ambassador extraordinary to all the world and shall have the full honors of an ambassador."

An extremely significant sight to those who have lived long in Haiti was the sight of Haitians raising their hands in salute to Lindbergh, for only the educated and elite class in Haiti carry canes and they are not easily stirred to such a display of emotion.

Some one asked Lindbergh: "Colonel, have you been able to dodge the Hobson tradition?" Lindbergh answered: "Yes, but it is very difficult in these Latin American countries where even the men want to kiss you."

Havana, Feb. 8.—(AP)—The last port of call on his good will tour awaited the coming of Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh today.

The national colors of twenty-one nations, now meeting here in the pan-American congress, flew in the tropical breeze above the pavilion at Camp Columbia. The Greenward of that flying field was ready for the Spirit of St. Louis to glide down upon it from the pale blue sky completing a hope of some 750 miles from Port Au Prince, Haiti.

The reputation of the Lone Eagle for arriving promptly preceded him. His landing was set for 4 p. m. And so sure was Cuba that he would be there on time that the official reception was scheduled for the presidential palace, some eight miles away at 4:30.

The program in the flyer's honor has been so arranged that it will not interfere with the sessions of the pan-American conference. Receptions and banquets have been planned for the evenings when the conference is not in session and citizens will entertain the airman exclusively in the daytime.

Two gold medals have been cast, engraved and delivered for the ceremonies. One will be given the flyer tomorrow by the province of Havana at the state department, the other will be presented Saturday at a dinner of the geographical society of Cuba.

Special stamps for use on the mail between Havana and Key West were on sale in commemoration of his coming.

This country, the last to be visited on Lindbergh's good will tour, has taken him to Mexico, Central America, part of South America and the Antilles, will bid the airman bon voyage Monday. Then he turns the silver nose of the Spirit of St. Louis westward and heads for home St. Louis.

Georgia Tech Star Hurt. Atlanta, Feb. 6.—(AP)—With painful injuries about the chest, received when he jumped from a runaway horse, Ralph "Buck" Flowers, former All-Southern star and captain of Georgia Tech's football team, was under observation of physicians in a local hospital today.

Flowers was injured yesterday when his mount ran away, following Buck's attempt to assist Miss Jennie Gilbert of Chattanooga, Tenn., in quieting her fractious mount. Flowers' reins broke and he jumped from the horse's back after it had run about half a mile. Miss Gilbert, who, with Flowers, was a member of the bride party, was unhurt.

STOCK MARKET.
New York, Feb. 8.—(AP)—Sharp reactions took place in many stocks during the early part of today's stock market but a recovery set in during the afternoon as pools resumed operations in some of the recent favorites. Passing of the American Sugar Refining dividend was followed by a break of 1 1/4 points in that stock but it failed to halt the recovery which was under way when the announcement was made. Trading which had been conducted at a brisk pace during the morning turned dull on the rally.

The weekly steel trade reviews reported further improvement in the trade position and Wall Street looks for an increase of more than 300,000 tons in the January unfilled orders of the United States Steel Corporation which will be made public on Friday. General Motors dividend action tomorrow also is awaited with considerable interest, although the final quarters earnings will not be available until the middle of the month.

Montgomery Ward continued its sensational advance by scoring nearly six points to another new high record at 147 1/4. Consolidated Gas jumped more than four points to a new top at 134 3/4. United States Industrial Alcohol crossed 112 to the highest price in seven years. Coppers moved forward under the leadership of Kennecott.

The close was firm. Total sales approximated 2,700,000 shares.

DEPENDABLE MERCHANDISE

Two Governors Appear Today In Bribery Case

Indianapolis, Feb. 8.—(AP)—A governor and a former governor of Indiana, each of whom was indicted while in office, are opposed in a case before the criminal court today.

Governor Ed Jackson is the defendant, charged with conspiracy to commit a felony in an attempt to bribe. Against him, as star witness for the prosecution, will be Warren T. McCray, whose governorship immediately preceded Jackson's. It was McCray, the state contends, whom Governor Jackson sought to bribe.

Indicted with Gov. Jackson were George V. Coffin, Marion county republican chairman, and Robert I. Marsh, former law partner of the governor. They are to be tried later.

These three men, with D. C. Stephenson, former grand dragon of the Indiana Ku Klux Klan, are charged with offering McCray, when he was governor in 1922, the sum of $10,000 in return for the appointment of James E. McDonald as Marion county (Indianapolis) prosecutor. Immunity from embezzlement charges then pending against McCray also was promised, the state has charged.

Stephenson, now serving a life sentence for murder, was not indicted, and he may be called as a state witness.

The indictment charges that McCray did not reveal the alleged attempt to bribe him because he feared the power of the men. The Ku Klux Klan was a prominent factor in state politics at the time. McCray recently returned from Atlanta federal prison where he served year and four months for using the mails to defraud in connection with the failure of his extensive livestock and land holdings.

Amphibian Plane May Take Off To Florida Today

Charleston, S. C., Feb. 8.—(AP)—Lieut. Arthur Gavin, piloting a twin motored Amphibian airplane, hopes to be able to get away with his four passengers enroute to Havana at noon today.

Lieut. Gavin held up yesterday by squally weather, hopped off at 1 P. M. but after getting as far down the coast as Beaufort ran into heavy squalls and fog and was forced to turn back. He landed at the navy yard late yesterday but no announcement of his return was made until late last night.

SENATE OIL DODDY STILL TRACES BONDS

"But, Mr. Phillips told us he did not see any of the officers for the Continental," Senator Walsh said. "I do not know what Mr. Phillips testified to," senator, but that is what happened," Crawley replied.

After hearing these three witnesses the committee adjourned subject to the call of the chairman. Senator Nye said there would be some executive meetings during the week but that there probably would be no more public sessions until next week.

(Continued from Page One.) men that threw stones at their enemies. The high jumper, long jumper, hurdle racer and long distance runner represent speed and agility that once meant the difference between life and death.

Somebody said it is impossible to imagine how a man feels, hanging from the edge of a precipice, no help in sight. But that's a mistake. Gentlemen in Wall Street, said to be short 800,000 shares of general motors this very minute, know how the man at the edge of the precipice feels better than he does.

WINNER OF $50,000 NEW ORLEANS HANDICAP

Here's Justice F., who romped home first in the classic New Orleans Handicap for a purse of $50,000, with Jockey Pascuma up. Justice F. is bedecked with flowers after capturing the richest event of the Southern meeting.

If a man bites a dog that's news. Amos Cummings said it long ago and Dr. Wood said it before Cummings did.

Often you read of a dog killed, defending his master, shot by a burglar, etc. That is hardly news. Now you read that Vincent J. McCarthy was killed by stab wounds while defending his dog. That is news.

Anonymous letters, meanest kind of attack have caused a run on some banks in Miami. It should be known that the financial condition of Florida generally, and of its money institutions, is excellent. This statement is made on excellent authority.

Red Men Get New Degree In This City

One of the outstanding events in fraternal circles in Greenville was the institution of Witha Council No. 42 on January 31st, and although between fifty-five and sixty palefaced had signed the charter roll, but fifty were present to receive instruction in the unwritten work of our order.

The fraternal spirit was beautifully demonstrated with the ladies especially those who had helped to make possible the organization of this new unit of Degree of Pochontas.

The initiatory services were in charge of great keeper of records Minnie Davis assisted by W. Ben Goodwin both of Elizabeth City. Sister Davis' popularity as a great keeper of records was clearly demonstrated.

The evening of January 31st has come and gone but its memory will linger long in the city of Greenville, especially by the members of the degree of Pochontas and Improved Order of Redmen, a good sociable evening was enjoyed by all.

We ask our members to come regularly to the meetings and encourage our officers start the new year right, give a helping hand, not once but all the time. It is hoped by the members of Withacoochee Tribe that the entire membership our council may become very active in all of its proceedings.

This council has a very capable and efficient corps of officers, headed by Mrs. E. L. Denton, its first Pochontas.
