

GREENVILLE WINS FROM WASHINGTON

Greenville won the final game of the conference season last night by defeating Washington by the score of 30 to 17. This victory threw Greenville in a tie with Washington for second place, Wilson still retaining first place by defeating Goldsboro.

Wilson lost only one game of the entire season of the North Eastern Athletic Conference, that being administered by the Greenville club. Greenville won eleven and lost three.

The game last night was one of the best of the season, being featured by superb passing of the Greenville Club. Latham, star forward of the Washington team, was covered most effectively by Bostic, being held to five points.

The floor work of the whole Greenville team, both on the offensive and defensive, was the outstanding feature of the game. For Washington the work of Walters was the principal feature.

The Greenville Club will leave for Raleigh tomorrow where they will play Gastonia in the tournament at State College. Gastonia is coached by Red Whisnot, star football player and captain of the University of North Carolina team in '26. This game is expected to be one of the fastest of the many games scheduled for the tournament.

Washington: Washington; Bostic (18); (5) Latham; Hearse (7); (6) Walters; Hearse (3); (4) Robertson; Robertson (4); (2) Walker; King (0); (0) Jackson. Substitutes: Greenville, Eason; Washington, Carrow, Referee, Crisp (N. C. State).

Tom Heeny In Fine Fettle For Tomorrow

New York, Feb. 29.—(AP)—A chunky, bulgy-thighed prize fighter who never expected to amount to much in the "racket" loafed about a furnished room today and waited for the gang that will send him into action before a $200,000 gate with the chance of a match for the heavyweight championship depending on the outcome of the battle.

He was Tom Heeny, late of New Zealand and still later London, and out-and-out "Lynde" in his own classification, but the best of the heavyweight contenders in the eyes of champion Gene Tunney.

Unaided by Tex Rickard's ballyhoo, Heeny has plodded through a host of rival contenders, never spectacular and oft-times downright disappointing from a box office standpoint, but always chugging his short arms into the bodies of opponents with sufficient vehemence to bring him either victory or a draw.

The American campaign of the British subject, first in recent history to stand the acid test of the Yankee punching and still remain erect, will carry him tomorrow night in a 15-round battle with Jack Delaney, statuesque French Canadian warrior of Bridgeport, before a Madison Square Garden throng. A knockout victory for either forecasts a June title tilt with Tunney for the championship, with the winner of the Jack Sharkey-Johnny Risko bout on March 12 held in reserve for a September title match.

CHICAGOAN WINS FIRST MONEY AT GOLFING

Belleair, Fla., Feb. 29.—(AP)—Principal money in the west coast open golf championship is now the property of Al Espyeva, Chicago, who finished ahead of a fast field in that event with 282 for the 72 hole distance. Macdonald Smith, the Long Island pro, ran next to Espyeva in the affair which finished yesterday with 285, while Bobby Cruikshank of New York, came third with 287. Fourth and fifth places, respectively, went to William Burke and Gene Sarazen of the metropolitan area about New York, with 288 and 290. Tommy Armour, national open champion, finished eleven strokes behind the winner.

GODFREY WINS FROM UZCUDUN

Associated Press Sports Writer. Wrightley Field, Los Angeles, Calif., Feb. 29.—(AP)—George Godfrey, negro colossus of the ring, clubbed his way to a decision over Paulino Uzcudun, knotty muscled son of the Basque country, last night, after 10 furious rounds that had 40,000 persons on edge throughout the battle. But Godfrey had no walkway, tipping the scales at 236 1-2 pounds, which gave him a 44-pound advantage in weight, he had his hands full from the start.

The black haired Spaniard, arms flailing, opened with a rush, but in the early sessions was tied up by the titanite Godfrey who used his huge bulk to advantage.

The tide of battle shifted to Uzcudun in the sixth. Beginning the round, he caught Godfrey flush on the jaw with a stinging left hook. It hurt, the negro and he retreated steadily with his smaller opponent following him around the ring. The negro landed but a couple of blows through the round.

Fists flying, the basque came out in the seventh to drive his opponent around the ring again. Godfrey was puzzled and hurt as Paulino continued to bore in, pumping both hands to the body. The crowd cheered widely for the Spaniard as the round ended. The eighth round went the same way with Paulino continuing on the aggressive.

Lashed with the knowledge of impending defeat, Godfrey came out in the ninth to take the play away again. He clubbed the Spaniard steadily to the body, crossing with a left to the head that had the woodchopper from the Pyrenees bleeding at the nose. The tenth was another Godfrey round, as he mauled and Beaulon from rope to rope.

Those at the ringside credited Godfrey with five rounds, the ninth, fourth, fifth, ninth, and tenth. Paulino had his edge in the second, sixth, seventh and eighth with the first fairly even.

SPORTS SLANTS

By ALAN J. GOULD

New York, Feb. 29.—(AP)—Elbows and weights are the current problems Lloyd Hahn hopes to get out in front of Ray Conger and Dr. Otto Peltzer in their mile race tonight and avoid any flying elbows. Lloyd contends that Ray elbowed him completely out of their race at Kansas City, a fortnight ago. In his first American race the galloping German was accused of nudging Ray Dodge off the Madison square garden track.

Hahn has a weight advantage on Conger and Peltzer. Hahn is a middle weight. His two rivals are writers. Poundage, translated into endurance may be a big factor in deciding the K. of C. International mile.

Jack Delaney's weight is the cause of much concern. The experts do not think the erstwhile Rapier can concede around 23 pounds and beat Tom Heeny, the rugged New Zealander, Thursday night, in the garden.

"The good little man against the good big man", all over again they say. Delaney has never done much against the good big men, such as Jim Maloney or Paulino.

If Martin Stevens knows how to teach his gridiron stuff as well as he illustrated it in 1923 Yale need have no fears for its football coaching problems for the next three years. "Mal" Stevens, in his one great year for the blue, was nearly as dazzling as Red Grang in an open field, as consistently good a kicker as Peggy Flournoy of Tulane and about as elusive as Eddie Kaw, of Cornell, in sliding off tackle. Up at New Haven they class Stevens among Yale's greatest, which is just about the ultra in gridiron tributes.

The erstwhile Kansaser comes joins the ranks of the new coaching generation, a younger school rapidly growing to fame. It already includes Bo McMillin, now with the Kansas Aggies, Chick Meehan, of New York University, Harry Mehre, of Georgia, Arnold Horween, of Harvard, Harry

Both Body and Mind Educated By Supervised School Sports

(By Earl Johnson) Lincoln, Neb.—(AP)—Every one admits that health is a desirable thing, but to make the process of becoming healthy and staying in that condition a joyous game is not easy. However, this is being accomplished through the health program of the Lincoln schools.

Beginning with pre-school clinics where the little tots are given attractive health records to keep for their very own, health becomes a positive and almost tangible factor in the students' life. A series of periodic health examinations with follow-up work by school physicians and nurses keeps him acquainted with his progress. Attractive lessons and projects based on nature and science teach him the basic facts of health and life. A course of organized games in the open air stimulates him physically and mentally. Splendid school buildings with excellent light and ventilation provide ideal conditions of living.

It is not strange that these boys and girls carry the lessons so learned back home and put them into practice every hour of every day. Physical activity forms an important part of this program. Boys and girls are growing animals and the joy of movement is very dear to them. They have "play periods" now instead of recess. Miss Teacher leads them in games instead of drills. Even the posture drills are turned into games. Little Jacob or smaller Thomas, who comes of races which have no such history of games and sports, learns to take his place in the group, to accept the decision of the umpire and to bow to the opinion of the majority.

Stuhldreher of Villa Nova, and Nibs Price of California. They have some distance to go however, before the challenge the supremacy of such veteran tutors as Knute Rockne, Fielding Yost, Alonzo Stagg, Pop Warner, Bill Roper, Gil Dobie, Dan McGuin, D. X. Bible and others.

Bill McKechnie, who piloted one world's championship club at Pittsburgh in 1925 and hopes to lead another in St. Louis this season, is not among those who count the Giants out of the National league race because of the departure of Rogers Hornsby and his big bat.

Bill expects the Pirates to furnish the chief opposition for the cardinals but, as the St. Louis Globe-Democrat quoted him: "The Cubs and the Giants will also be in the race. There are many inclined to count the Giants out of it after they traded Hornsby to the Braves, I believe they are making a great mistake. The Giants, with McGraw at the helm, are always dangerous."

"The punch supplied by Hornsby's bat will be missed, undoubtedly, but Cohen is said to be a rising star. And remember, if Cohen fails to fill the bill McGraw will go out and nab some one who can. McGraw is one you can't keep down."

These schools recognize an obligation to educate the body for the future as well as the mind. They propose to give every boy and girl training in games and sports which they may practice through the rest of their lives. For this reason one of the requirements for graduation from the high school is two hours credit in "after school sports."

Football, baseball, basket ball, tennis, swimming, golf, hiking, horse back riding, archery and hockey are some of the sports offered.

Virginia's cavaliers are undefeated in the south this season and have gone outside the conference to conquer the ring squads of Pennsylvania and Syracuse. Only the navy has defeated Virginia this year.

North Carolina is looked upon as having the best chance of wrestling laurels from Virginia.

OLD MISS IS VICTORIOUS AT ATLANTA

Associated Press Sports Writer. Atlanta, Ga., Feb. 29.—(AP)—The University of Mississippi today held the vantage point in the realm of southern conference basketball, the never-say-die lads from Oxford having battled an uphill fight to the championship by whipping Auburn's plainsmen last night 31 to 30.

While 6,000 fans watched Auburn take the lead, hold it and apparently go almost to time for the final gun, suddenly Ole Miss' sharpshooting trio, Cary Phillips, Selby and Lee gave a revelation in hitting the basketball to spell defeat for their adversaries.

Many of the thousands gathered at the court had come to the point of taking a plainsmen victory as inevitable; the Auburn students and followers were roaring their cheers; and then the charges of Coach Homer Hazel started the fireworks that within three minutes and less, had turned defeat into victory.

In the tournaments of the past, North Carolina has won four of the seven tournaments while the others have been divided between three institutions. It marked the first victory for Ole Miss and was won without a single substitution.

"Jelly" Akin, high scoring forward of Auburn, led in counters for the game with seven goals from the field and one foul shot. In the four games his team played, they had a bitter, lasting fight, beating both Georgia Tech and Clemson by a single point and having little less trouble with Mississippi A. & M.

Perhaps the most courageous player of the tournament, however, was little Ebb James, plainsmen guard, who played through the entire tourney sick. He had to retire several times, becoming too weak to continue play, but when he was in the game he was clearly an inspiration to his teammates.

Cary Phillips was high scorer of the tournament with 28 field goals and eight foul goals for a total of 64 points.

Akin, of Auburn, was next in scoring honors with 24 field goals, and five foul goals for 53 points. Holiday, of Mississippi A. & M.

Jeffries of Kentucky, Selby, of Ole Miss, Harris of Mississippi A. & M., and Combs of Kentucky, were other rapid scorers. The results of Ole Miss' tournament games were: Ole Miss 40; North Carolina State 35; Ole Miss 55; Louisiana State 28; Ole Miss 41; Kentucky 28; Ole Miss 31; Auburn 30.

SINGLETARY CHAPTER MEETS WITH MRS. J. L. HASSELL

The George B. Singletary Chapter held its regular monthly meeting last Thursday at the home of Mrs. J. L. Hassell. Twenty members responded to roll call. This was Educational month. Mrs. E. W. Harvey and Mrs. R. O. Fitzgerald had charge of the program. Mrs. Harvey read a beautiful tract on "Dixie," then Mrs. Fitzgerald told of the origin of the songs, "Dixie" and "Yankee Doodle." These songs were then sung by the chapter.

Our scholarships were then discussed and the chapter voted to contribute as usual to the Samuel Nash scholarship, which is given at our college.

Our chapter is an outstanding one in this district except in historical work and we hope to bring that up this year by placing flags, portraits and books in all the consolidated schools of the county.

Our programs for each month promise to be instructive as well as entertaining, and we hope the fine attendance so far will increase each month.

Be a daughter of the South, and at least contribute your presence to these meetings. You will be enthused and will not have to ask the question— "Is there still a Dixie?" —Reported.

Many thousands of people who read and love O. Henry's short stories will watch with sympathetic interest the endeavor to erect to his memory a library in the shell of the jail he once occupied. For that matter, it is good work anywhere when any jail can be turned into a library. — New York World.

ABOUT TOWN

"We are planning co-operative poultry shipments from Pitt county Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week." E. F. Arnold, director of the County Farm Department, told the writer today.

"The first shipments will be made from Ayden tomorrow. Thursday the cars will be moved to Greenville and next day to Bethel. Plans at the present time call for two carloads from Pitt and Edgecombe counties, but it is believed the greater part of the shipment will come from Pitt.

"This is the first shipment of poultry made this season, but others will occur at a later date.

"Interest in this industry is greater today than it has ever been before and we are hopeful of increasing the shipments with each succeeding year until the farmers begin to realize great financial benefits from their endeavors.

"Other communities have found poultry raising profitable and there is no reason on earth why Pitt growers should not find it the same way."

"The actual signing of five players as members of the Greenville baseball club has caused the national sport fever to become slightly more pronounced today than any other time since organization of the Eastern Carolina league several weeks ago," promoters of the club intimated today.

"With a score or more contracts awaiting the signature of well known players it is confidently expected our club will be completely organized by the middle of next month."
"President Smith is sanguine for the outcome of the season as it affects the standing of the Greenville club. He believes he has been able to bring together a club that will stand out prominently in the life of the new circuit—one that will reflect credit on the progressive, thriving community which it represents.

"With proper support from the public we haven't the slightest doubt in the world but that we shall be able to emerge victorious in many of the most important clashes of the season."

"If you have a debt of long standing—one that should have been settled sometime ago—take my advice and adjust it as soon as possible." C. B. Rowlett, secretary of the Greenville Merchants association, warned the public today.

"The collection department of the association is beginning to function. In a few days the names of those who have taken advantage of the confidence of credit merchants will be in possession of every member of the association and these people will find it extremely difficult to obtain further credit anywhere in the city.

"It became necessary sometime ago for the credit merchants to protect themselves against loss by used accounts, and it was for that reason the Merchants association inaugurated the plan of installing a collection department with an official collector in charge.

"Preserve your credit rating by paying up all outstanding obligations by the time they are due."

"If you are a member of any civic organization make it a point to attend meetings regularly and in that way encourage others to do likewise," a member of a local club, said today.

"Attendance is one of the most important things connected with club life. Just as long as the entire membership stick together, the club may be expected to accomplish something in behalf of the community, but let interest lag and members fail to appear as customary and it will not be long before the organization survives in name only.

"Greenville has several active organizations. It is gratifying indeed to note that most of them have good attendance and are accomplishing something really noteworthy in behalf of civic development.

"It is to be hoped the memberships of these clubs will continue to stick together and use their influence in the cause of issues vitally affecting future progress of the locality."

"If you have faith in the possibilities of this great locality, get busy and help inform the outside world of it," one of Pitt county's greatest boosters said while visiting the Reflector office today.

"Greenville is situated in one of the greatest bright leaf producing sections of the country, and there is no reason on earth why it should not also enjoy prominence as a great manufacturing and trade center.

"It is true hundreds of people from a radius of many miles do their trading here, but this is not sufficient to sustain our business interests all the year around.

"What we want is more people. To get more people, we must have more enterprises—industries that release thousands of dollars to a great army of workers every month of the year.

"Let the outside world know what kind of inducements we have to offer and not many more years will pass before this ambition to become a great industrial section will assume more tangible form."

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

NEW YORK COTTON New York, Feb. 29.—(AP)—There was a further decline of about 8 to 10 points in the cotton market during today's early trading under a renewal of realizing or liquidation and selling for a reaction after the advances of last week. Trade interests were moderate buyers, however, and after selling off to about 18.27 for May, or 50 points below the recent high level, prices rallied 10 to 15 points from the lowest on covering. CHICAGO GRAIN Chicago, Feb. 29.—(AP)—Expectation that smaller farm reserve stocks would be shown in private estimates tomorrow tended to lift wheat and corn prices today. Hessian fly damage to wheat in Oklahoma was also a bullish factor. Wheat closed unsettled 1-8 to 3-4 net higher; corn 5-8 to 7-8 up; oats showing 1-4 to 3-4 to 7-8 advance and provisions varying from 5 decline to a rise of 10.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Feb. 29.—(AP)—Stock prices turned upward today after an early period of irregularity. The buying movement, which started in the oil group, soon spread to the steel, motor, merchandising, public utility and specialty issues. Bear traders continued nevertheless to ferret out weak spots, forcing a sharp decline in continental banking. A on fears for the safety of the dividends, and in some of the Southern railroad shares. Wall Street took a bullish view of the reported decision of federal reserve authorities to oppose legislation to restrict broker loans. The weekly steel trade reviews reported some irregularity in that industry but estimated a gain of 7.6 per cent in pig iron production in February as against an increase of 6.4 per cent in the preceding month. The gain being accounted for by the increased operations of United States corporation subsidiaries. Strength of the oil shares was believed to be based on the announcement that Secretary Work was seeking the cooperation of governors of oil producing states in an effort to secure uniform legislation for oil conservation and on unconfirmed rumors that important favorable developments were pending in Mexico. Active oil shares were bid up 1 to 3 points. Midland Steel products preferred and Kresge department stores preferred each soared 9 points. Spear & Company silver, international telephone union carbide and a few others advanced 3 to 5 points. Montgomery Ward rallied from a low of 127 1-2 to 131. Montana Power from 158 1-2 to 162 and Greene Cananea Copper from 116 1-8 to 121 3-4. The close was strong. Total sales approximated 1,900,000 shares.

NEGRO DRAWS ONE YEAR ON ROADS FORCE

Son of Reuben Bland Fined $20 on Charge of Having Whiskey For Sale.

Chapman Horn, colored man, hailing from the Fountain community, was sentenced to twelve months on the county roads on charges of possessing whiskey and larceny, by Judge W. A. Darden, presiding over yesterday's session of county court. He drew six months on each charge. The larceny case grew out of the stealing of a hog, while the liquor charge resulted from his arrest by Fountain officers with a small amount of whiskey in his possession.

Fennell Bland, of Robersonville, one of the thirty-four offspring of Reuben Bland, said to be the champion father of the United States, was fined $20 and cost on a charge of having liquor for sale. The illustrious father appeared in the local court in company with his son and attracted more than usual attention, although he has visited Greenville numbers of times since his elevation to the throne of champion of American child-raisers.

Ed Stocks, of the Winterville community, was fined $50 and cost and given a suspended sentence of six months to the county roads following conviction on a charge of having whiskey for sale. The road sentence is to become effective any time within the next two years of the defendant is found guilty of violation of any of the criminal laws. Heber Ross, given hearing in the same case, was declared not guilty.

Tommie Walters, colored, charged with driving an automobile while drunk, was fined $100 and cost of action and ordered not to drive another car within the next three months.

Ola Sutton was given a suspended sentence of two years on payment of cost on a charge of buying stolen property. He was also permitted to pay cost on a charge of driving an automobile without state license.

weighs 195 pounds, the negro 235 pounds.

To this Uzcudun, member of a strange race of origin unknown, all men look alike. Our high spirited white American fighters, whose ring time is worth $500 a second, are more cautious.

It would take a steel cable to drag one of those priceless gentlemen into the ring with a negro even smaller than Godfrey, unless it were certain that he had been paid to "lie down," that he couldn't fight, or that disease had rendered him powerless.

It may be repeated that a small sized gorilla could take Uzcudun, Godfrey, Dempsey and Tunney at their best, all four together, and pick them to pieces at leisure.

Pope Pius in a ceremony honoring the memory of the venerable Elizabetha Mora, refers to the immorality in dress of some modern women as "insults to the eyes of God and cause for temptation or disgust in the eyes of the world."

That is no exaggeration. It took women a million years to learn to dress modestly. They overdid it with their veils, hoop skirts, bustles, etc. Now they are rapidly going the other way. A strange, daring sex.

The late Albert Brisbane, more than eighty years ago, suggested that large apartment houses with central heating plants and water automatically distributed should be built as an improvement on "the isolated household." Some, old-fashioned, that knew little, did not mind seeing their wives carry water from the pump, said, "Americans will never live herded together."

Now Dr. Albert E. Douglass of the University of Arizona, exploring the Pueblo Bonito in New Mexico, finds an early American house about a thousand years old, that housed 2,000 early Americans.

Dr. Douglass can tell by rings in trees that have grown up since its abandonment, how old the apartment house is.

Mrs. Eva Dugan, aged 50, convicted of killing a man in Arizona, must be sentenced to hang.

Arizona has never hanged a woman. Will that state officially kill its first woman in 1928? A woman of 50 can be disposed of with safety to the public, without submitting the state to the degradation of choking an old woman to death. It should be difficult to find, in Arizona, any man willing to undertake that job.

Miss Fannie May Davis, one of many interesting religious workers that make California better and brighter, dies, leaving to her relatives "the priceless memory of companionship with me," and leaving $15,000.000 to a gentleman friend, Isaac J. Isaacson. Her will says that giving the money to Mr. Isaacson is "not an act of human mind but a direct order from Providence." A wise judge will investigate that statement.

Carolina To Get Branch of U. S. Commerce Dept

Raleigh, Feb. 29.—(AP)—Governor McLean today expressed his gratification that his efforts to obtain a North Carolina branch office of the U. S. commerce department for the southeastern states had been successful.

He said he had not taken any part in the pressure between competing cities within the state for the office but that he had urged its location in the state, not specifying any city.

"It will be a fine constructive thing for North Carolina," he said.

HOUSE VOTES TO AWARD GOLD MEDAL TO LINDY

PUBLISHER DEEDS BIRTHDAY TO WIFE

Henderson, Feb. 29.—(AP)—Henry Dennis, publisher of the Henderson Dispatch, today freed his birthday, Dec. 7, to his wife, so that they might enjoy a few more birthday parties.

Henry, however, wanted to know how to go about deeding his birthday over to Mrs. Dennis, and was told by brother editors that all that was necessary was to remember to bring home plenty of birthday gifts on Dec. 7 each year. Mrs. Dennis was born on Feb. 29.

OLSON FREED BY CONFESSION OF TWO BOYS

Illinois Man Convicted of Murder May Return Home Today a Free Man.

Rockford, Ill., Feb. 29.—(AP)—Henry Olson, wherever you are, read this:

Convicted of slaying Floyd Stotler, oil station attendant, and sentenced to life imprisonment, you jumped your appeal bond last Thursday, didn't you? With your young wife you drove away, and your $10,000 bond, which Judge Fisher had allowed you freedom pending arguments for a new trial, was declared.

But you may come back now, Henry Olson. That life sentence, though it still stands over you, is not likely to be enforced.

Do you know George Bliss and Morris Mahan? They are only 17 years old—nine years younger than you. They are under arrest Henry Olson, and the police say they have confessed they were the ones who held up the filling station last September and shot down Stotler when he resisted.

Mahan told police, they said, that Bliss fired the fatal shot. Bliss followed Mahan's confession with one of his own, and the police found the boy's stories were substantiated by much of the evidence used at your trial; the first trial when the jury could not agree that you were guilty, and the second, at which you were convicted.

You should come home, Henry Olson, and give personal thanks to your attorney, H. B. North, whose certainty of your innocence led to the uncovering of evidence which resulted in the Mahan and Bliss arrests yesterday. North heard rumors of a woman who had dropped remarks indicating that you were innocent. The woman was questioned. She told police that Mahan had told her he took part in the holdup.

You recall that your attorney spent nearly two days during the last trial questioning Orville Stotler, aged father of the slain man who witnessed the tragedy at the filling station. Orville Stotler identified you as one of the holdup men, but North, through his long questioning, uncovered points which convinced him that a mistake was being made. They are searching for you today, Henry Olson, and your attorney is even more interested in finding you than the police.

You think it is too good to be true? You think such things happen only in novels? You are wrong. It is true. Come home, Henry Olson, and see.
