ARBOR DAY AT WEST GREENVILLE SCHOOL
On account of the inclement weather the Arbor Exercises at the West Greenville school had to be held inside the building, yesterday. The program was a very interesting one. At eleven o'clock when the children marched into the auditorium, they formed a tree, all the girls wore white dresses with green sashes and head bands in honor of St. Patrick. The boys wore white blouses with green ties. The scene was indeed a picturesque one.
There were a number of parents and friends present to witness the scene. We will be unable to plant the trees until Monday.
We are going to plant a crepe myrtle on either side of the building, and two cedars, one to be planted at the back of the building.

ABOUT TOWN

"The planting of 1 1/2 cotton staple should bring Pitt county farmers from $7 to $15 more per bale than the kind they are growing at the present time," a well known farmer remarked to the writer today.

"I went over to the meeting at Fountain Thursday night and was greatly impressed with the argument which Dr. Winters, of State College, put up in behalf of more attention to the planting of the right kind of cotton seeds.

"We are producing more short staple cotton than the mills can consume, hence the low prices which prevail from time to time.

"The farmer who wants to forge ahead in industry should give this matter due consideration and try it out during the coming season."

"The North Carolina farmer has been told to do so many different things the past several months that he is at a point where he doesn't know exactly what to do," one of our prominent agriculturalists informed the writer today.

"The department of agriculture employs some of the most proficient oratorical revolvers it is possible to obtain at a fixed salary, and when the gentlemen get through talking the average grower isn't exactly sure whether he is doing the right thing or not.

"But he is plodding along from day to day—working along progressive line of agriculture—and the future probably is more bright than it has ever been before.

"It is true these farm demonstrators talk a whole lot, but as a rule they have something important to say. They keep abreast of the farming industry and usually are able to render the grower invaluable aid in solving the many problems with which he is confronted.
There are some things, however,
the specialist or the farmer do not understand, and these are causing us more profound concern than any other one thing."

"Members of the Merchants Association are trying to get pictures of a cotton field in bloom, a corn field, and other things of this kind to be used in the booklet setting forth the advantages and possibilities of Greenville and surrounding community," C. B. Rowlett, secretary of the local association said this morning.

"This booklet was made possible through funds raised last year. It will be one of the most complete and attractive ever issued by the city, and will set forth in an interesting manner the rapid strides which the city has made in the past.

"If you have any pictures dealing with agricultural development, let us have them immediately, especially those about the subjects
mentioned above."

"R. E. Corbett, superintendent of the county home, took second place in the ton litter pig contest recently conducted by the Department of Agriculture," a prominent agriculturalist informed the Reflector today.

"Naturally, Mr. Corbett is proud of the record because he has been interested in the production of hogs for a number of years. He always has a splendid display of his products at the various fairs in this county, and the enormous size of some of his hogs has been a subject of much discussion.

"Hog raising possibly is one of the most profitable industries Pitt county farmers could take up, and it is to be hoped they will give this matter more attention in the days to come.

"With more hogs and poultry, shipped to northern markets an-

"With twelve residences going up in College View and four in Greenville Heights, it begins to look like Greenville is in the midst of a home-building boom," a prominent realtor mentioned to the writer of this column today.

"There is nothing that more plainly depicts the growth of a town or city than the building of new residences. It shows that population is increasing, and increased population has always demanded more buildings for people to live in.
"No one can dispute the fact that Greenville is experiencing healthy growth. Every day some new firm or industry is announced through the columns of The Reflec-must make their homes here, and this fact is largely responsible for the numbers of changes which

PITTSBURGH IS STRONGER THIS SEASON

By C. C. McFALLAND.
Associated Press Sports Writer.
San Francisco, March 17.—(AP)—
The Pittsburgh Pirates winners in the National League pennant chase last year, will enter the 1928 baseball race with a stronger team than the one which captured the flag in 1927.

The Pirates left their spring training camp at Paso Robles, Cal., a team estimated to be twenty per cent stronger than the 1927 aggregation. "Barney Dreyfus, owner of the team, has expended a considerable sum of money for new players as reserve strength.

Strong pitching may be expected to keep Pittsburgh in the front ranks of the national league. Ray Kremer and the two bespectacled hurler Carmen Hill and Lee Meadows, the most effective twirlers in the majors last year, will be on the mound.

Manager Donie Bush said he believed Kremer ripe for another sensational year like 1926, when he won twenty victories and lost six games.

Mendous, in the big leagues since 1914, still showed his old cunning at the spring training camp. He and Hill proved largely instrumental in winning important games last year, and they are expected to reappear.

Burleigh Grimes appears set for a good season on the mound. Dawson and Miljus, who came to the team in the middle of the 1927 season, are now counted as regulars.

New pitchers include Fred Russell. From Wichita Falls, in the Texas League, Russell, a southpaw, showed a world of stuff and perfect control in training.

The catching roster of the Pirates is the same as last year with the exception of Roy Spencer, who is from the American Association.

Earl Smith, and Johnny Gooch, who formed the working end of the staff last year, will again do most of the backstopping. Smith and Gooch, although aging, are dependable catchers, good hitters and have plenty of experience. Claude Linton, of Columbia, S. C., and Talston Ridge League last year, will get their chances to perform behind the plate. Pete Scott, who came to the Pirates as part payment in the deal that sent Halzen Cuyler to the Chicago Cubs, has done some catching and may do better work.

The Pirates seems certain of having one of the youngest and ablest outfield trios in baseball. The two Warner brothers—Paul and Lloyd—showed middle-class form at the spring training camp and are expected to hit again in the pennant cash. Adnan Conorsky who came to Pittsburgh near the end of last season hit and fielded sensationally in training, and may take the left field job away from the Veteran Clyde Barnhart, who had treated difficulty taking off excess poundage.

The acquisition of Earl "Sparky" Adams, from Chicago has bolstered the Pirates' considerably. Glen Wright, shortstop, and Adams appear to form a perfect playing combination. Adams is an expert batter and fast on the bases.

"Pie" Traynor, star third baseman, is in good shape and is expected to be an outstanding asset to the Pirates.

Grantham will be enabled to return to his original position at first base, because of Adams presence on the squad. Grantham is expected to show improvement as he is much more at home at first base.

It appears that the other clubs in the National League will have to make a real fight to keep the Pirates out of first place.

PADDOCK IN OLYMPIC TRAINING

The "fastest human" opens his training campaign for the coming Olympic games by doing 300 yards at Palo Alto, Cal., in 31 seconds flat. This was taken at the finish, showing Paddock's famous flying leap, which he has developed to perfection in spite of fault-finding by coaches.

EXPECT NEW EVIDENCE IN OIL INQUIRY

Dozen of Witnesses Yet to be Examined by Committee Sitting At Chicago.

Chicago, March 17.—(AP)—Closing three days of hearings here, the senate oil committee expected today to turn up evidence equally as interesting as that developed at yesterday's lengthy sessions.

A dozen witnesses remained to be heard. Their testimony promised new leads which would add to the ever growing list of subpoenas which the senate investigators find it necessary to issue as they follow the trail of the $3,000,000 of libel bond profits of the Continental Trading Company of America.

Senator Nye, republican, North Dakota, chairman of the committee, said it might be necessary to recall Will H. Hays, postmaster general in the Harding cabinet and chairman of the republican national committee during the 1920 presidential campaign, because of the testimony last night of Joseph P. Connery, Chicago coal dealer and long time partner and friend of Hays.

Supplementing the testimony given by Hays at Washington last Tuesday, Connery said he had obtained from Harry F. Sinclair the $85,000 which the now managing director of the moving picture industry had returned to the lessee of teapot dome but that much of this sum was used to take care of Hays' accounts in the stock market. Connery said he had "pushed" Sinclair to pay over the money which Hays had given him to make up the total return on the $100,000 which Sinclair had advanced late in 1923 to help take care of the republican party deficit in advance of the 1924 campaign.

Incidentally, the Chicago coal merchant disclosed that he and Hays had been speculating in the stock of the Sinclair Consolidated Oil Company on tips given by the wealthy oil operator and that he had loaned Hays part of the $85,000 payment that was made to Sinclair.

Heroic Wife Saves Life Of Hurt Husband

Selma, Ala., March 17.—(AP)—Heroic efforts of his wife, may save the life of C. D. Pritchett, 35, a farmer of Shiloh, Ala., who was seriously injured yesterday when a tornado swept five western Alabama communities, leaving three dead and five other persons suffering injuries.

Pritchett was pinned beneath the timbers of his home when the storm blew a large tree over on it, and his wife, exerting all her strength, lifted a portion of the weight from him until help arrived to extricate him. Pritchett was brought to a hospital here where he was in a critical condition.

Dan Roberts, a negro, his wife, and a grandchild, were killed when the twister wrecked their home at Central Hills.

To Farm Out Rookies.

Tampa, Fla., March 17.—(AP)—Arrival of the Washington Senators training camp of Johnny Dobbs, manager of the Birmingham Barons, gave rise to reports that the annual farming out of rookies was about to get under way.

Washington has a working agreement with the Alabama club and Dobbs had several conferences with President Griffith yesterday. The group available for sending away for more experience is understood to include pitchers Roy, Sams, Lane and Domingo and infielders Smith, Cooper and possibly Shirley.

ESCH FAILS TO BE CONFIRMED

Members of Interstate Commerce Commission Loses Fight for Confirmation.

Washington, March 17.—(AP)—Defeated in their fight before the interstate commerce commission for lower freight rates on lake cargo coal, the states in the southern coal region have retaliated by warring a successful drive against confirmation of John J. Esch, of Wisconsin, for a second term on the federal regulating body.

Esch, who had served on the commission for six years prior to his re-nomination by President Coolidge last December, lost his fight for confirmation late yesterday when the senate, after five hours of debate behind closed doors, rejected the appointment, 39 to 29.

The opposition, led by senators from southern coal states, was based almost entirely on the 67-year old commissioner's change of attitude in the long pending contest between the mines of Pennsylvania and Ohio and those of West Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee, and Virginia, for the Lake Cargo trade, whereby he favored, after once opposing, lower rates for the northern fields.

The commission recently rejected a petition of southern railroads for a 20 cent a ton reduction in lake cargo coal transportation charges and the issue is under consideration for possible court action.

Senator Neely, democrat, West Virginia, who led the fight against confirmation, charged Esch, who also voted against the southern route cut proposal, had switched his vote on the northern proposition because of pressure from Pennsylvania and the administration.

Chairman Watson of the interstate commerce committee, which had reported adversely on the nomination, and Senator Fess, republican, Ohio, supported Esch, calling attention to his emphatic denial at the committee hearings that political pressure had caused him to change his vote.

Esch, who had been serving under a recess appointment since his first term expired three months ago, is co-author of the Esch-Connors railroad act. Before going on the commission he served 22 years as a member of the house and 18 years on its interstate and foreign commerce committee.

Born in Nowark, Wisconsin, March 20, 1861, his first appointment to the commission also was contested, but he won out easily, 52 to 3, in April, 1921. "Fighting Bob" LaFollette, of the same state, who led the opposition then, contended Esch had been "consistently friendly to the railroads."

Henery Off for England.

New York, March 17.—(AP)—Tom Henery, one of the foremost contenders for the heavyweight championship, sailed on the Olympic early today for a four week visit to England.

He said he would press his demands for a title clash with champion Gene Tunney upon his return.

In the event he is unable to secure a match against Tunney, Henery said he would like to stack up against Jack Dempsey, the former champion, provided the manager mauler changes his mind and re-enters the ring.

Yankees Setback Three Times.

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 17.—(AP)—Three straight setbacks for the world champion Yankees failed to disturb manager Miller Huggins who does not take the exhibition in the bushes, as indications of what will happen when the season opens.

When Huggins left the ball park after the Yanks had taken a trimming from the Cards yesterday a fan asked him:

"Is it the Yankees that won the world series?" the enthusiast put it.

WORRIED A LOT

Run-Down, Nervous, Appetite Gone, Lady Shows Great Improvement After Using Cardui.

Waterloo, S. C.—"I took Cardui at intervals for three years, and have been in good health since last fall," says Mrs. Noble J. Hayes, who lives near here. "My improvement after taking a course of this medicine was really remarkable.

"I am much stronger and can accomplish so much more work now. My weight increased twenty pounds, and my color is fresh and good.

"For a long time I had been feeling poorly. Some days I dragged around the house and had not enough energy to do my housework.

"I worried a lot about myself. I did not seem like myself, and my nerves were all on edge. I did not sleep well and my appetite left me.

"I found Cardui to be an excellent tonic. After I had taken it a few weeks, I began to pick up and to gain in weight and strength.

"Now I am in fine health. I have recommended Cardui to many of my friends, and shall continue to do so."

For over 50 years, Cardui has been used with success and recommended by thousands of women for weakness and similar ailments.

Los Angeles Beats Cubs.

Los Angeles, March 17.—(AP)—Two homers and lots of lesser drives were wasted yesterday by the Chicago Cubs when they took a beating from Los Angeles of the Pacific Coast League 8 to 4.

Mostly it was the pitcher's fault, manager McCarthy decided, although there were errors by English and Butler that didn't help any.

Cuyler and Wilson were the home run hitters for the Cubs and Tolson and Hannah each got one for the Angels.

GRAIN MARKET.
Chicago, March 17.—(AP)—Wheat resumed leadership in point of activity in the grain markets today and wheat prices ranged upward. The United States government report on stocks of wheat in country mills and elevators was construed as decidedly bullish, and reports from Chicago crop observers indicated heavy abandonment of winter wheat acreage in the central west and the southwest as well. Corn rose to new high price records for the season, but met with much selling to realize profits.
Wheat closed unsettled 1-4 to 1 cent net higher, corn 3-8 to 7-8 down, oats unchanged to 1-2 cent off and provisions showing a rise of five to 20 cents.

STOCK MARKET.

New York, March 17.—(AP)—Heavy profit taking checked the advance in a few issues in today's stock market but the general list swept forward in impressive fashion, setting a flock of new high records so great was the volume of trading that the ticker had fallen 20 minutes behind the market during the second hour, but the transactions generally were in much smaller lots than a week ago. The day's sales aggregated 1,900,000 shares.
Railroad shares, which have been lagging behind the industrials were in the forefront of today's advance. Gains in that group ranged from one to five points, with about a dozen issues in New high ground.
Week-end mercantile reviews provided little material on which to base a road upward movement of prices but operators for the advance had the "bears" on the run and pressed their advantage at every opportunity.
General Motors moved up three points to a new peak at 172 but the other motors lagged behind; Hudson and Mack Trucks showing some weakness. DuPont, which has large General Motors holdings, climbed more than four points to a new peak and sharp gains were recorded by American Machine and Foundry, Manhattan Electrical Supply, International Telephone and Case Threshing.
The closing was steady.

The little man to make his investment. The above in reply to questions. Some worthless land has been sold on the strength of references to the desert in this column.
To get rich yourself, make other men rich. If a man catches six fish for you, let him keep one. If he keeps ten dollars for you let him keep one—it pays. Salaries, no matter how big cannot stimulate men to profit-sharing does.
General Motors, with DuPont and Sloan at the head know that mere salaries are not enough, do not bring out 100 per cent of what a man has in him. They urged their important men, eight of them, to buy General Motors stock on credit—then work to make it valuable. They made it easy to get credit to buy the stock. John J. Rastob, head of the finance committee, who was earning five dollars a week not long ago, knew how to manage that.
The eighty executives great and small bought General Motors stock that is now worth $217,000,000 more than it cost and every one of them is a millionaire, even the less important executives that invested only $25,000 of their own. "The men having an interest in the great company worked their heads off for success," says Mr. Rastob, "and that is what made the company what it is."
This writer can testify that if you want to see a General Motors official you can find him working in his office at six-thirty p. m. as easily as at any other time. They are not "clock watchers" having millions to watch. Employers take notice.

The census bureau says United States population, on July first next will be 120,013,000. At the end of this century, if births, deaths, immigration and health run along as at present, the population will be 200,000,000. If the per cent of that number know how to think, it will be quite a nation.
In the last eight years, population has increased 14,302,300. The annual arrivals of babies exceed by one million the number of deaths. That is good news for the editor publishing an up-to-date paper. Bill Curley, formerly of Chicago, now of New York, used to say "every birth is a new reader for my paper, every death of an old man means a reader forever lost to the opposition." And it was true.

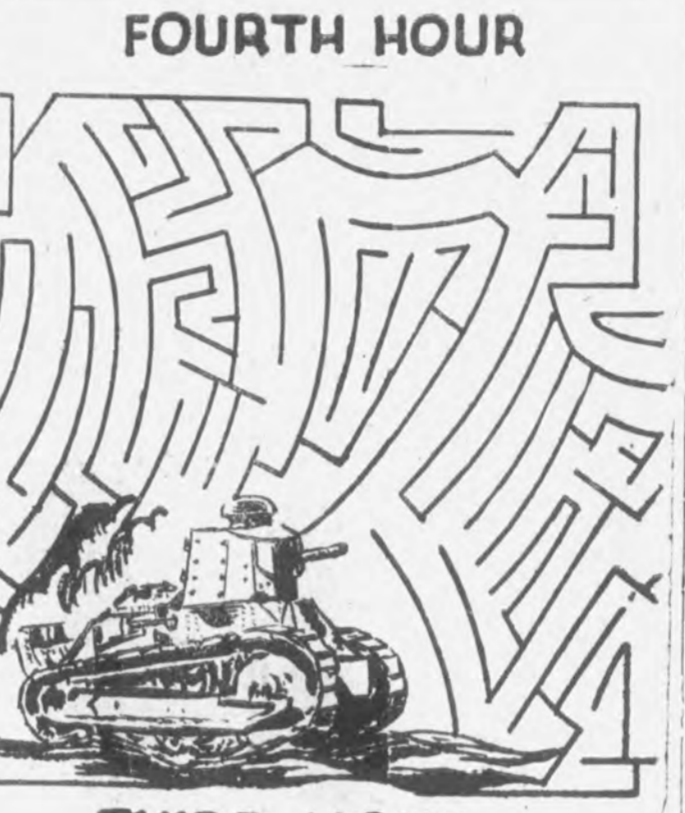

A New York banker says "Mr. Coolidge will run again. That good news is all around Wall Street." Hundreds of bankers, and millions of ordinary citizens wish that the President would run in 1928, for a second elective term. But wishing does not change the President's two statements speak for themselves.

Corporal Albert F. Neil, of Santa Barbara, Calif., and Private Robert P. Wisler, of Philadelphia were in a tank which was hit by an enemy shell. After aiding the wounded from the tank, they stripped its machine guns from the disabled tank whipped and used them upon the enemy, until the machine guns were put out of commission. Then they secured rifles and hand grenades and organized an attack on the German trenches, which they captured and held until depletion of their numbers forced them to fall back.

Still uncounted, they joined the Australian troops, and fought with them throughout the rest of the day.
On another front the same hour, Corporal Frank W. Osmond, of the same company, was gunner of a tank whose track was broken by a direct hit from an enemy shell. Because of the heavy machine-gun fire it was impossible to repair the track, but Corp. Osmond and another soldier left the machine, picked up some rifles, and crawled through trenches and brush to the rear of the machine-gun position killed four of the enemy crew. They then returned to the tank, and assisted in repairing the track under heavy shell fire.
For the benefit of those who have not already entered the Tank maze contest it should be explained that each section of the maze represents an hour in battle with the United States Tank Corps. Work out each maze as it appears daily, and when the entire six have been worked out, piece them together and mail them to the Tank Maze Editor White's Theatre.

The solution will be judged in the order received, for neatness and accuracy and the following cash prizes will be awarded: First prize $3.00; Second prize $2.00, Third prize $1.00.
In addition the next best 5 will receive tickets to "The Patent Leather Kid", the epic of the American Tank Corps in the World War, in which First National Pictures, Inc. starred Richard Barthelme. This beautiful romance comes to White's Theatre Wednesday March 21.
Do not send in any solution until you have the entire six sections solved and pieced together. If you missed the first two sections you may

Your Biggest Task is Cooking

But it is different today in the modern home. Electric cookery has made it easier for the housewife. She does not have to stand over a hot stove all day—she is free from worry, care and constant attention. It is no longer a task but a pleasure to cook; so quickly, so easily, and so well can it be done. Think what it will mean to cook in a cool kitchen, with no soot, smoke or dirt; free from uncertain heat which cannot be regulated; with your heat immediately and constantly obedient to you.

The UNIVERSAL Oven Heat Control will automatically watch over the entire cooking operation. Your personal attention is not required and this permits you to hours of leisure every day.

Oven Heat Control

Automatic Heat Control keeps the oven at an unvarying and even heat, making it always possible to maintain the exact heat desired in the oven, so previous cooking results can be easily duplicated.

Ill Health the Greatest Obstacle to Happiness

Columbia, S. C.—"For several years after I married I suffered from poor health and weakness. I wanted children but was not strong enough. My grandmother persuaded me to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and it soon built me up in health and strengthened the organs. I am now the mother of three very healthy children and my health is fine. When I feel the need of a tonic I always take the 'Prescription' I cannot say enough in praise of this wonderful medicine for ailing women."
