

DETROIT PUTS GREAT FAITH IN OLD GUARD

By BRIAN BELL
(AP Sports Writer)

San Antonio, March 22.—(AP)—Detroit will depend on the old guard in the approaching pennant race. The Tigers will make plays for some players whose services were gained in trades during the winter but none is young as baseball players go, so the seniors will be called on to bear the brunt while the younger generation stands and waits.

Hope of the club for better position at the close than the fourth place occupied last year lies in the same pitchers with better arms. Earl Whitehill, a left hander with a marvelous curve ball, and Sam Gibson, a big right hander with a world of stuff, were in and out in the last campaign. In the spring training they seem to have definitely returned. In addition of Elam Van Gilder, formerly of the Browns, for relief calls, will release Lil Stoner for starting duty with Kenneth Holloway, George Smith and Haskell Billings, the collegian who is up and coming. Owen Carroll, another collegiate contribution, may team up with Van Gilder in the reserves. This array of pitching talent leaves little room for addition from the 1928 crop. Vic Sorrell comes from Toronto with a good chance to stay and Carl Hubbell, a left hander from Oklahoma, may crowd in.

The infield will be made up of the same men who played in 1927 but they will be recast. Johnny Neun will play first base on a whole time instead of a part time basis, and Marty McManus will be assigned to third base. Charley Gehringer will take care of second and Jackie Tavener, completely recovered from his injuries, will play short and show how hard a little fellow can hit.

The infield reserve question presents a problem manager Moriarty has not yet solved. Detroit has grown accustomed to having two first basemen with Neun and Blue available and now that Blue has gone to St. Louis, it is possible that Bill Sweeney, purchased from Port Worth, will be Neun's Chick Galaway, formerly of the Athletics, who came to the Tigers in a trade via the Browns, is regarded as a certain utility choice as he takes his infield positions as he finds them and can play them all, one at a time. This line up leaves Nolan Richardson and Frank Emmer unemployed but presenting impressive bids for consideration. The club is a bit over-stocked on infielders.

Harry Rice, who came from the Browns, will play centerfield and show a fast pair of heels on the bases. He will be flanked by slow performers but hard hitters in Harry Heilmann and Bob Fother-gill. Heilmann led the league in hitting last year and has been pounding the ball hard enough in practice to suggest that he may repeat although it has been his custom to bid only in alternate years for the batting supremacy. Fothergill has many days of strenuous work and much perspiration ahead of him as he is several pounds in excess of the best tonnage for an outfielder. Red Wingo will again fill the outfield utility role and he may be joined on the bench by Paul Esterling, recruit from Bloomington in the Three Eye League.

Larry Woodall and Merwin Shea of last year's catching service, are set, but are being crowded for first consideration by two new catchers. Phillips is a Jack of all trades and has no hesitancy in attempting to play any position on the field. Manager Moriarty may solve this puzzle by keeping the whole quartet.

Moriarty came to Detroit as manager last year with a fixed determination to have the Tigers run the bases and they ran so well they led the league in this department.

HENNESSEY BEATS BIG BILL TILDEN

Augusta, Ga., March 22.—(AP)—An exciting fusillade of accurate net exchanges followed with well placed line shots has brought Big Bill Tilden down in his first singles match of the Davis Cup preparation campaign, young Johnny Hennessey, of Indianapolis, turning the trick.

Hennessey, the nation's fifth ranking player, parried his way to a 6-3, 6-1, 2-6, 6-4 victory over his veteran opponent yesterday. Several hundred persons huddled in the galleries while a cold wind swept the courts, coming to their feet at several intervals to applaud the frequent sparkling plays.

The Indianapolis player proved a match for Tilden in cross attack once the ball was in play and while his service was not so speedy as his opponent's, he had many less faults counted against him.

Flashing a telling backhand stroke, Edward (Bud) Chandler, Harvard law student, also featured in the day of upsets, stopping George Lott, of Chicago, third ranking player, 6-2, 7-9, 8-6, 6-2. W. F. Cohen, Jr., of Kansas City, had the third surprise match of the day, beating Johnny Doe of Stanford University, in straight sets 14-12, 6-4, 6-3.

LOCAL CAGERS PLAY SECOND GAME TONIGHT

Members of the local National Guards basketball team left this afternoon for Washington where tonight they will play Belhaven in the second game of the tournament being conducted by the Elks exposition. The locals won the first game of the championship from Washington Tuesday night and today have a silver loving cup to their credit.

If the artillerymen win from Belhaven they take part in the final game Friday night with either Farmville or Aurora, winner of tonight's contest.

Much interest is being manifested in these games and it is hoped a large crowd will attend the game tonight and Friday night and lend their moral support to the soldiers in their effort to capture the gold loving cup to be presented to the winner of the tournament.

(including about $100 freight)

STUDEBAKER engineering genius has increased the new Dictator's horsepower from 45 to 70 and added to its speed. But its cost to you has not been increased. And the new Dictator engine is actually more economical of gasoline than ever before. It delivers a perfectly paced 65 miles an hour—accelerates like a rocket—possesses the flexibility of the finest 6-cylinder construction.

Holds record for cars under $1400

Proof of the new Dictator's advanced performance was established when a stock Dictator sedan traveled 24 continuous hours at better than mile-a-minute speed. No stock car under $1400 has ever equaled this record.

40-mile speed even when new

Due to advanced engineering practices, precision building, high quality materials and rigid inspections which this new Dictator receives, it can be driven 40 miles per hour the day it is delivered. No laborious 20-mile-an-hour breaking in.

Lubricate only every 2500 miles
Studebaker engineers have also eliminated the necessity of oil change to but once every 2500 miles. Chassis greasing has been reduced to 2500-mile intervals through a unique system of magazine high-pressure lubrication.

Engineering genius and traditional quality
Throughout its design the new Dictator is the product of advanced engineering development—yet its One-Price price is still only $1195, f. o. b. factory, and it bears a famous name—Studebaker—the highest guarantee of motor car excellence!

PLEASING OPERETTA PRESENTED BY CHILDREN OF THE MODEL SCHOOL

Tuesday evening the children of the Model School presented an operetta entitled "The Cruise of the Trundle Bed." The audience was large and enthusiastic. It was impossible to accommodate nearly all the crowd who tried to see the operetta. The theme of the story was a delightful one and the audience showed its deep appreciation of the work of the children and teachers time and time again by generous applause. The story of the operetta is:

Two little boys while away the time in bed, before they grow sleepy, by playing, "Sailing out to sea." Just as they have everything arranged to start on "The Cruise of the Trundle Bed," they fall asleep. The queen of the fairies comes on the scene and takes them on a journey around the world.

The folk dances and songs of the countries visited made a decided hit with the audience. The program follows:

Noted Tenor to Sing Here. Frederick Gunster, the noted tenor who is to sing at East Carolina Teachers College on the evening of March 30, is an American singer and a concert singer, who has been pleasing audiences throughout the country, as well as in New York City. Press notices from the large cities, New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, give criticisms of the quality of his voice and his musicianship, while the papers from the West and South add to their criticism of his artistic achievements the impression he has made on his audiences, and this is of as great interest to Greenville people as the opinion of critics.

He has sung in a number of southern cities and has had return engagements in many. Atlanta, Richmond, Birmingham, Louisville, Miami, and other southern centers have been on his routes.

South Carolina Lady Then Tried Cardui and Says She Noticed Remarkable Improvement.

Anderson, S. C.—"I suffered a long time, before I tried Cardui, and my only regret is that I did not know about it sooner," says Mrs. Lillie Pruitt, 130 "K" Street, this city.

"I was badly run down in health. My nerves went to pieces, and I had to go to bed. I was not able to do my house work for many months."

"I got so bad off, I could not bear to have anybody walk across the floor of my room. The least little thing upset me. Sometimes I became hysterical. I had bad pains in my back and sides, and my head and limbs would take spells of aching, which almost set me wild."

"One day I was reading and I saw where a woman, who had a trouble like my own, had been relieved by Cardui. I decided at once to try it; so I began on a course of the 'Home Treatment'."

"It began to help me from the very first. I took Cardui regularly, for several months, and my improvement was so remarkable, that my family and friends were delighted."

"Cardui has no equal, in my opinion. I gladly recommend it to others."

NOT MORE LAWS

In considering a remedy for crime, the following statement constitutes the keynote of the report made by the sub-committee of the National Crime Commission—"There is now a tendency to insist upon harsher punishment as a cure-all for all crime, whereas of far more importance, it will be found, is the building up of police and court management capable of catching and convicting a far larger percentage of the individuals who commit crime."

Law enforcement is the real answer to crime prevention. Arrests for robbery in England, Wales and Canada average 84 per cent. In the United States, Cleveland and Baltimore top the list with 49 per cent and 47 per cent respectively, while other cities dwindle down to as low as three per cent. The ratio of convictions to known crimes of robbery and the ratio of convictions to the number of arrests made, run as strongly in favor of England and Canada as do the first figures mentioned, and make as unfavorable for the United States.

Such figures tell a striking story and show that there must be, first, efficient police and, second, elimination of loopholes in legal procedure to promote the escape of the malefactor.

Commenting on the situation, the Portland Oregonian says the crime situation has reached a point in many of our cities where the lawless lawbreaker who is occasionally caught and convicted actually attributes his misfortune to an act of God, as he would in case of a disastrous storm, shipwreck or earthquake.

As a crime remedy, the public is generally offered a law prohibiting the sale of small arms to law-abiding citizens. The trouble with such laws is that they are contrary to the second amendment of the United States Constitution, and the criminal pays no attention to them. The honest citizen is, however, harassed with another prohibitive measure.

Students of the crime situation feel certain that prohibiting sale and ownership of small arms to law-abiding citizens would in no way check the crime wave, but would make more lawbreakers out of honest persons who felt they had a right to own a gun, and leave the criminal more free than ever to carry on his depredations without fear of occasional injury by home owners or persons protecting their property from unlawful attack.

ABOUT

"There are numbers of former service men in and around Greenville who are not members of the Post County Post of the American Legion," J. B. Kittrell, post commander told members of the organization in regular monthly session at Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church Tuesday night.

"These men should have active membership in our organization and in that way use their influence in the great work of the future. It is our purpose to get every former World War veteran to join us if possible, and with this end in view we expect the year will be one of the busiest and most successful since the Legion was organized."

"If you want to know what's happening in the city of Greenville and other parts of the world read 'The Daily Reflector,' one of our old readers remarked to the writer this morning.

"It is the truth. You people certainly keep your readers informed as to important occurrences locally, nationally and internationally, and I feel sure everyone appreciates the diligent service even as I do.

"Anyone desiring to know who's who and what's what would certainly find it to their advantage to peruse the columns of the paper daily.

"You fellows are always talking about the growth of Greenville and every word you have to say is not only informative but highly inspirational," a member of the business realm remarked today.

"With continued growth similar to that today this old town should take its place among the largest in the state within the next several years. We have the resources and opportunity was never more abundant than it is today. With confidence in themselves in the future as in the past, Greenville business men should be able to make this period of expansion assume even more pronounced proportions.

"Faith in ourselves and the unlimited possibilities of the great district in which we reside should be sufficient to accomplish anything within the limit of human endeavor."

"Our basketball team wants to win the tournament at the Elks exposition in Washington Friday night," members of the cage team of Battery E. local military unit, told the writer of this column today.

"We got away with a good start by defeating Washington in the opening game Tuesday night, and if we can eliminate Belhaven Friday, then we will have the gold loving cup within our grasp.

"The Battery has been able to establish something of a record in this branch of sports this season and the acquisition of the loving cup would prove a fitting climax to our endeavors.

"Greenville people should turn out in large numbers Friday night and help the locals boost their way to final victory."

"Principles enunciated by the Boy Scout movement of America have a tendency of safeguarding the morale of the young man of today and Greenville should make an effort to keep its Scout organization in splendid condition all the time," declared civic leaders today as they told of the movement launched in behalf of the organization.

"Greenville has numbers of young men who should be strengthened physically and morally by taking an active part in the Scout movement, and it is to be hoped the future will see interest in these activities increase by leaps and bounds."

"A booster is a person that is always saying something good about the town or community in which he lives," according to the definition of one of our readers as imparted to the writer of this column today.

We agreed with him, realizing that nothing great or good had ever been accomplished except through praiseworthy effort backed by logical speech.

"Greenville has lots of boosters," our friend continued to confide to us, "but no town has ever had too many. We need more of them, and it is to be hoped our organizations will begin regular training schools for the education of this kind of person."

Noted Chinese
Leader Slain

Tientsin, China, March 22.—(AP)—A murderer has brought to a close the notable career of General Chiang Tso-Tseng, former premier and an outstanding military leader, at the age of 58. General Chang was slain in a "Sing Song" house. (a sort of cabaret).

When President Li Yuan-Hung was forced out of office in September 1923, General Chang fled to Tientsin, virtually closing a career which began with his graduation he became commander in chief of the 20th division of the Chinese army.

General Chang was one of a trio including the late Lan Tien-Wei and Lu-Ch'en, who became known as the "three heroes of northern China" when they declared sympathy with the revolutionists and compelled the Manchus to promulgate a constitution of 19 articles in 1911.

He was pacification commissioner in Shanghai in 1912 to expedite unification between the north and south. He served as both councillor and adviser to President Yuan-Shih-Kai and in 1916 became military inspector general. Appointed civil governor of Shensi in 1922, he did not assume that office.

In August 1922 he became acting minister of war and in January 1923 he was appointed premier, fleeing a month later to Tientsin.

Always a new Horizon for HUDSON

The consistency of Hudson leadership is but the performance of its first principle, resolution and tradition—to always lead in value.

Thus it was the first car at moderate price to give truly great performance, smoothness and reliability—the industry's standard today.

Thus it was the first in the development of American closed cars, and such smart turnouts as the Town Car and Speedster.

The Coach—a Hudson invention—turned the entire industry to closed cars.

The Super-Six principle and its companion invention that turns waste heat to power, is the most efficient combination in development and transmission of power, within our knowledge.

In the beautifully designed and luxuriously finished bodies that feature the new Hudson Super-Sixes the same relation of values obtain as made the Super-Six chassis famous.

COTTON MARKET.

New York, March 22.—(AP)—The cotton market was rather nervous and irregular today, although trading was generally quiet and price movements comparatively narrow. Advance from slight opening declines on further trade buying and covering were followed by reactions under realizing, combined with local or southern selling on reports of better weather in the south, and talk of an easier technical position. Offerings were light and after showing net losses of about 8 to 12 points, prices steadied, the mid-afternoon market holding within a point or two either way of yesterday's closing quotations.

CHICAGO GRAIN

Chicago, March 22.—(AP)—Affected somewhat by late reports of rain in Nebraska, wheat prices rallied today from an early decline. Talk was current that high winds in the west before rain would bring about serious deterioration.

Wheat closed unsettled 1-4 to 7-8 net higher; corn 3-4 to 3-4 down; oats at 3-8 decline to 1-4 advance; and provisions 5 to 10 to 12 off.

STOCK MARKET

New York, March 22.—(AP)—The violent upward movement of stock prices, which had been under way almost uninterruptedly for two weeks, came to a sudden halt in the middle of today's stock market, when a general selling movement swept through the list. Early gains of $1 to $10 a share were substantially reduced, or wiped out, and in many instances converted into losses, several of which ranged from 5 to 12 points. The reaction, which followed an early upswing in which more than a score issues, including General Motors and Radio had been lifted to new peak prices, was not associated with anything in the day's news. It was precipitated by a resumption of bear attacks, which were facilitated by an unusually long ticker delay, making for confusion and uneasiness in brokerage house circles.

Trading was conducted at a furious rate, with every indication by the end of the third hour that the day's sales would cross the 4,000,000 mark for the first time in the history of the exchange.

Radio, which had been the leader in many of the recent wild upswings, was the first to crack, plunging from 153 1-4 to 146 before succumbing. Orders could be mustered to stem the tide of selling. General Motors fell from 181 3-4 to 177 1-8. General Electric from 148 to 145. U. S. Steel common from 152 to 149 1-2. DuPont from 372 to 366. Collins & Aikman from 106 to 97. Intl. Match preferred from 116 1-2 to 112 3-4. and Greene Cananea Copper from 128 3-4 to 122 1-4.

Rossia Insurance crashed 12 1-4 points below last night's final quotations and Houston Oil, Timken, Air Reduction and several others sold down 4 points or more.

A growing speculative belief that the market's financial position has been weakened by the recent advance, coupled with fears of a huge increase in Federal Reserve brokers' loans to be announced after the close of the market, undoubtedly accelerated the selling movement.

The close was strong. Total sales approximated 4,000,000 shares.

HARDING POSSESSED NO MISSING BONDS

Marion, Ohio, March 22.—Charles D. Schaffner, executor of the estate of the late President Warren G. Harding, today announced that an examination of his records by a special investigator of the senate public lands committee definitely established that the late President possesses none of the $3,080,000 worth of Continental Trading Company bonds involved in the Teapot Dome oil scandal.

Mr. Schaffner said that William P. Allen, acting as special investigator for the senate committee, completed the investigation of the late President's records yesterday and expected to present his findings to Senator Thomas J. Walsh in Washington late today.

An Easter Message For Men Only

Let those men who wish to voice their enjoyment of the Spring with a whoop and a howl, go about clad in billious greens and reddish tan shoes. The dark attire of the conservative, well dressed man seems to express dignified disapproval of the crude capers of the mob.

In neckwear alone is Mere Man permitted to express his love of color, and that is one of the reasons why we took such pains in the selection of our Easter stock. If neckwear is the only outlet for man's artistic cravings, then the best is none too good—and the best is exactly what you will find in our Men's Department for your Easter, choosing.

"Dream of Queen Esther" Will Be Presented in Winterville; Greenville Quartet to Sing

The play, "A Dream of Queen Esther," which is to be presented by the Philathea class of the Winterville Baptist church next Friday evening in the school auditorium, is highly dramatic and at the same time delightfully instructive.

Below are the synopsis of the three acts and the cast of characters.

Act I. The house of Mordecai in the city of Shushan in Persia. Mordecai laments the fall of Jerusalem. A message from the King has come to enter the contest for Queen of the realm. Mordecai ponders on the message. The little Jewish children sing and make merry on the housetop. Mordecai conducts their evening devotions. Esther appears and Mordecai delivers the King's message. Esther tells her nurse Meesha of her adventure outside the city gates. Esther dreams and eight heroines of Jewish history appear before her, Witch of Endor, Rebecca, Deborah, Miriam, Adah, Ruth, Martha and Eletha. Scarf tableaux.

Act II. In the palace of the King. The King is weary of the maidens who have appeared before him and tells Hegai of the beautiful maid he rescued without the city gates. Razma sings the Rose Song with drill by eight Rose Maidens. Several maidens air their charms to the delight of Koosh, a funny little Ethiopian slave girl. Each is rejected by the King. Esther is chosen Queen.

Act III. Nine years later. The Queen is sad at the neglect of the King. Mordecai appears and tells the King that all the Jews are to be slain at the order of the King. He begs her to intercede for her people, though to do this without the King's invitation would be almost certain death. Esther accepts the sacrifice and appears before the King who received her. The King promises to save her people and the Feast of Purim is established.

Rev. L. R. O'Brien's well known quartet of Greenville will sing between the acts.

We have 8 acres that will average 1,300 lbs. of tobacco to the acre."—Oct. 12, 1927.

800 MORE POUNDS OF TOBACCO PER ACRE.
Mrs. J. O. Warren, Bethel, Pitt Co., N. C., says: "This is the first year I ever used your goods, making a test with another make of tobacco. I planted two acres, using 950 lbs. 'AA QUALITY' Fertilizer to the acre, getting a yield of about 1,200 lbs. to the acre. From 5 acres where I used the other make, I shall get about 700 lbs. to the acre. The difference in yield justifies me in recommending 'AA QUALITY' Fertilizer for tobacco."—Oct. 13, 1927.

BETTER TOBACCO WITH "AA QUALITY" FERTILIZER.
Mr. John Wath of Pinnacle, Edgecombe Co., N. C., says: "With the exception of one year, 1919, I have used your 'AA QUALITY' Fertilizer for 20 consecutive years. Each year I have grown excellent tobacco crops, except in 1919. I used another make of fertilizer that year and, even though it was a good crop season, I failed. This year I planted more acres, using your fertilizer at the rate of 1,000 lbs. per acre. I feel that I can grow better tobacco with your fertilizer than with any other make."—July 3, 1927.

When a tobacco crop is exceptionally good in both weight and quality, it is not only a fine tobacco crop—it is a profitable tobacco crop.

"We have used 'AA QUALITY' Fertilizer for the past twenty years. It is unnecessary to say that we are satisfied with the results obtained, for if we were not, we would try some other brand. We have eight acres that will average 1,300 lbs. to the acre this year."
