MIAMI POLICE DENOUNCED BY JURY MEMBERS

Chief and Six Cops Ordered Jailed on Murder Charge After Vitriolic Denunciation.

Miami, Fla., March 24.—(AP)—The chief of this city's police department and six of his subordinates were in the county stockade today, charged with murder, while ringing in the ears of the entire force was a grand jury's vitriolic denunciation of "drunken, inhuman and astounding" conduct of law enforcement affairs throughout Miami.

Announcing that it will reconvene April 10, the grand jury indicated sensational further developments to come, declaring there were other crimes disclosed to it which "will shock the public conscience" but for which indictments have not been returned because of "our inability to fix individual responsibility."

Chief of Police H. Leslie Quigg, now suspended, was indicted yesterday for murder, as was Detective R. L. Wood. These officers were added to the police colony at the county stockade, a group charges with murder which already consisted of Lieutenant M. A. Tibbitts, Detectives John Caudell and Tom Nasworth, and Patrolmen Nelson Ward and R. L. Glisson. All indictments were concerned with deaths of persons with whom those indicted has contact in an official capacity.

Guy C. Reeve, head of the detective department, was last night made acting chief, and H. H. Arnold was named director of public safety. Arnold's first act was to order reinforcement of patrols in the negro districts, where resentment against recent police activities is said to be high.

Police methods of handling prisoners drew chief attention in the report and was described by the grand jury's pronouncement as "terrifying and deplorable."

Chief Quigg yesterday joined Lieutenant Tibbitts and the two detectives, Caudell and Nasworth, behind the bars because of their alleged connection with the death of H. Kier, negro bell boy in a local hotel. His death occurred two and one half years ago, after his arrest on charges of attempting to solicit and improper liaison between the daughter of a hotel guest and another patron whom the young lady did not know. When Kier's body was found police declared they knew nothing of how he was slain. Quigg is charged with complicity in covering up the manner of the slaying, which witnesses told the grand jury came at the hands of Nasworth, on a deserted country road, where the officers had taken the negro to "work on him." Tibbitts is said to have been wounded when Nasworth's first shot at the negro went wild.

Caudell was named as a member of the party. The chief was said to have ordered Kier held without entry on the police blotter when he was arrested and later to have conspired with his three subordinates in keeping the circumstances a secret.

Wood, indicted for second degree murder, is said to have shot Victor W. Parnell, a white carpenter, to death in November, 1926.

Patrolmen Ward and Glisson are charged with the murder of John Mabry, a negro prisoner, and have been in jail a week. The circumstances of Mabry's death have not been divulged.

The grand jury further charged that an aged white man, whose name was not given, had died within the past week from injuries received at the police station.

A negro reported to have hanged himself in jail, it was contended, did not take his own life, but came to death as a result of police cruelty.

McLean Delivers Keynote Address At Anniversary of End of Tuscarora War

Snow Hill, N. C., March 24.—(AP)—At noon today the brightest hour in the state's history, patriotic citizens celebrated the 25th anniversary of the end of the Tuscarora Indian war, the darkest hour in North Carolina history.

Governor McLean, fresh from a fast ride over ribboned Eastern Carolina roads from the Capitol at Raleigh, to rich farming country, keynoted the unveiling of the D. A. R. memorial marker. His message culminated an inspiring program shot full of colorful touches.

Little flower pages children of first families met at springtime, blowing of Fort Bragg military airs, singing of old-time, classical, southern, and popular songs, the messages of the modern defender, the American Legion, and through it were a host of other orators and speakers, and pledged to return hand down to posterity the same heritage of duties fulfilled, responsibilities met.

Here, in what was once wigwam and Indian, defeated in bitter battle of two conflicting ideas, one destruction, the other triumphant construction, the head of the state's government of now three million persons, of cities, schools and churches, called on his hearers to take on anew the spirit of achievement of their ancestors.

The white man's rout of the marauding Indians in March 1713, wiped out the gloomy picture of the 12 months preceding when "the settlement which had been commenced in the state was nearer to annihilation than it was at any other time," Gov. McLean began.

"It is the reversal of this gloomy picture, the silver lining of the cloud, brought about by the complete routing of the Tuscarora Indians that we are here to celebrate today."

Ready souls with sufficient courage to break away from the conventional, the usual, the every day affairs of life and brave dangers on uncharted seas and untrod shores, that was his definition of pioneers.

Christopher Columbus, looking for a new way of doing his job and find a new world, came in for a word Sir Walter Raleigh then came to mention, whose enterprise was a failure, who died in prison, but with the setting of his colony as a sample of pioneering had his name perpetuated around the world and in the Capitol of the state where he landed.

Gov. McLean glibly turned the pages of history to climax his focus vividly on the horrible massacre of more than 200 white settlers in beginning of the Tuscarora war. He knew even the little children, descendants of colonial families who were partly stricken, little tots as pages and the youngsters who unveiled the memorial marker of the day were familiar with the bloody picture.

"While I sometimes have a feeling of regret on account of the necessity of driving out these native Indians, I realize that this has been the history of the march of civilization in all ages. It has been the record of the progress of the world that the fittest of the races has survived."

The Governor keynote, introduced by Mrs. W. B. Murphy, Snow Hill presiding, as "the probable nominee of the Democratic party for president," carried his audience over the mountains to the plains of the west with their ancestors, and summed his address with a call for pioneering in religion, education, agriculture, industry.

"We owe less a debt of gratitude to those who have led the way in our spiritual and material progress than to the hardy souls who set forth into the forests," he concluded. "Each has served his day and generation admirably."

And to such occasions as this one he found their worth in the inspiration to the present generation to

FIND CHECK UNLISTED IN G. O. P. FUND

Teapot Committee Discovers That Lasker Gave $25,000 to G. O. P. Campaign.

Washington, March 24.—(AP)—A $25,000 contribution to the Republican party in 1920 presidential campaign, which had not been listed, was found today by the Senate Teapot Dome committee to have been given by Albert D. Lasker of Chicago, who became chairman of the shipping board in 1921 after Warren G. Harding became President.

Lasker produced a check, dated in October, 1920, in the campaign in which Will H. Hays, the manager for Harding, has said contributions were heled to a maximum of $1,000.

Lasker made a contribution of $1,000 in September, 1920. He said the additional $25,000 was paid in cash to the late Fred W. Upham, treasurer of the Republican National Committee.

"Why did you make it in cash?" Senator Walsh of Montana, asked later.

"Because Mr. Upham asked for it that way," replied Lasker. "I thought nothing of it as most politicians like to get contributions in cash."

"Oh, that's the general practice around Chicago?"

"I believe so," Lasker replied.

The witness explained that Upham probably wanted "to distribute the money around the state." He explained that he was greatly interested in the 1920 campaign because of his intense opposition to the League of Nations.

The records turned over by Upham to his successor, William V. Hodges, credits Lasker with a contribution of $5,000 during 1921, 1922 and 1923.

"I made no such contribution," Lasker told Walsh.

"The evidence shows that during 1923 there was a drive for funds for the Republican National Committee," Walsh said. "Were you approached?"

"Not that I can recall."

"Was there any reason why you should be overlooked?"

"Yes, I had given enough."

"Mr. Sinclair gave $250,000," Walsh observed.

"There was no consideration whatever connected with the contributions I made," Lasker said with a show of heat.

"Would you say there was any consideration connected with Mr. Sinclair's contribution?"

"No, I know nothing about it."

Ten days in succession the Wall Street financiers have bought more than 3,000,000 shares a day. Yesterday they bought 4,000,000 shares. Ten days in succession the poor bears have said, "Woe is me, Alabama."

What goes up must come down, maybe. But when the American Eagle starts toward the sun in the morning it is a thresome waiting for him to come down.

There is revival of hope that President Coolidge will consent to run for a second election this year. Everybody knows he meant it when he said "I do not choose." Everybody knows he means it when he says now he does not want any of his friends to lift a finger to nominate him.

But the oil scandal makes a difference in the situation, and every one of intelligence reserves the right to change his mind.

When a Chicago gang turns its attention to a killing, especially if the man is a gang leader, the job is done thoroughly.

Lord Balfour, seriously ill with heart trouble, was proud of his ability to play a good game of tennis against younger men when past seventy. That explains the heart trouble. Men past fifty, no matter how young for their last years, have no business playing tennis or any other violent game. Professor Michelson, who after sixty, played many violent sets, please, take notice. A man's brain and courage may be young and his heart old.

Secretary Mellon will ignore any action in the Senate asking his resignation. The people will be much obliged for that. The marvel is that Secretary Mellon has worked for the people for nothing so long, reducing their debt by billions in the face of asinine ingratitude.

Tom Wise is dead, shepherd of the Lamb's Club, and a good actor. Years ago William A. Brady asked this writer to see Tom Wise in a play called "A Gentleman From Mississippi" that Brady was producing.

This writer told Brady, "You have a first class play and in it there is a young actor playing a minor part, jumping over chairs, etc., that is going to make a success. You ought to make a contract with him." The young man's name was Douglas Fairbanks.

Europe, it is said, plans to keep out American automobiles entirely. So much the worse for Europe. An automobile doubles the value of a man's time.

When Europe gets such a league as we have some of her troubles will end.

Files Reply in Impeachment Case

Washington, March 24.—(AP)—A reply to charges by Oklahoma citizens seeking his impeachment has been filed by Federal Judge Kennamer of Oklahoma with the house judiciary committee.

Chairman Niehener of the sub-committee in charge of the investigation would not make public the purport of the reply, it was understood to be a blanket denial of the accusations with which Judge Kennamer with converting liquor seized by Federal agents to his own use, of placing members of his own family and relatives on the court payroll, and with other misuse of his office.

Judge Kennamer's denial was understood to be supported by affidavits setting forth that the charges were without foundation.

CIVIL COURT ADJOURNS TO NEXT MONDAY

Two Actions Disposed of During Last two Days of First Week's Term.

The first week's session of a two-week term of Pitt county superior court, for the trial of civil cases, which convened in this city Monday morning with Judge Henry A. Grady, of Clinton, presiding, adjourned yesterday at the noon hour after disposing of a number of actions of more or less interest to people in this immediate territory.

The second week's session will convene Monday morning. The calendar contains quite a number of cases, and it is expected the week will be even busier than that just closed.

Only two cases were disposed of Thursday and Friday. The entire session Thursday was consumed in the hearing of the case of Annie Howell vs. Gilbert Peel and wife, who, it was alleged, ran over the plaintiff with an automobile some time ago, inflicting injuries that resulted in long confinement. The suit was for the sum of $5,000, but the jury failed to find grounds for payment of that amount and returned a verdict in favor of the defendants.

Judgment of $300 was awarded to R. C. Cannon & Sons, of Ayden, against Dock Forbes, involving suit for notes which had been in dispute for a considerable length of time.

Aged Wilmington Man Passes Away

Wilmington, March 24.—(AP)—The death of Donald MacRae, one of Wilmington's best known citizens was mourned here today.

Mr. MacRae, who was the only brother of Hugh MacRae, Wilmington banker and founder of the Castle Hayne Farm Colonies, died here yesterday after a long illness. Funeral services were set for this afternoon with burial in Oakdale cemetery.

Mr. MacRae, 67 years of age, was director of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company, the Wilmington Savings and Trust Company, and the Carolina Insurance Company. He was treasurer of Navassa Guano Company, vice president of the Wilmington cotton mills, and British vice consul at Wilmington.

He served in the Spanish American war and was an officer of the Wilmington light infantry. Surviving in addition to his brother, are Mrs. MacRae, a daughter, three sons, Donald, Colin, and George Davis MacRae, and a sister, Mrs. Walter L. Parsley, all of Wilmington.

Among those selected as honorary pall bearers for the funeral today were: George B. Elliott, Robert C. Cully, Charles E. Taylor, Charles Hooper, Albert S. Williams, W. A. Whitney, E. J. Wood, and Asa Love.

Fun and Frolic Features Meeting of Kiwanis Club

The regular twice-a-month meeting of the Greenville Kiwanis Club was held at the Rotary building last night. The session was featured by one of the most extensive programs of fun and frolic in years, and members of the club and numbers of visitors present thoroughly enjoyed the excellent program put on by that inimitable funmaker, Jay Summerell.

The only outstanding musical event of the evening consisted of two song numbers rendered by Miss Bessie Brown. She was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. M. K. Bleunt. The usual club songs were led by Rev. L. R. O'Brian with Miss Edna Smith acting as instrumental accompanist.

Secretary Rowlett announced that an inter-club meeting of Williamston, Tarboro and Greenville Kiwanians would be held in the town of Bethel, Friday, April 6th, at 7 o'clock. He stated that a splendid program was being planned for this occasion and that numbers of prominent members of the organization would be present to take part in the evening's activities.

E. G. Flanagan and J. F. Harrington were named as delegates to the international Kiwanis convention to be held in the city of Seattle, Washington, during the month of June. Alternates were Ed Griffin and C. S. Forbes. The president explained that this session would be one of the greatest in history of Kiwanis and urged as many members as possible to make the trip.

Joe Taft, who not so long ago was initiated into the ways and mysteries of Kiwanis, furnished the greatest sensation of the program last night by toppling from his chair in what appeared to be a genuine fainting spell or an attack of

SAYS TAX CUT NOW POSSIBLE

President Believes Congress Will Act on His Proposal of $225,000,000 Cut.

Washington, March 24.—(AP)—Tax reduction, in the opinion of President Coolidge, is possible at this session of Congress only if his original proposal cut of $225,000,000 is adhered to and provided the Senate and House do not go too far in making appropriations.

His attitude is based on the existing status of the treasury where the first quarter tax returns on 1927 incomes due March 15 still are being tabulated.

While preliminary estimates of the returns have convinced the President that a tax cut as first urged by the administration will be possible, he continues to be strongly opposed to the reduction of $285,000,000 as proposed in the bill passed by the House and now awaiting action by the Senate finance committee. Such a cut, he believes, could not be made without jeopardizing the treasury.

While it will be several days before the actual total of the quarterly income receipts are known, the returns so far tabulated are ahead of those counted to the same date last year. On March 20 the payments had reached $365,654,469 as against $358,504,655 on the same date a year ago.

Secretary Mellon holds, however, that treasury estimates as to the surplus this fiscal year will need no revision since some increased congressional appropriations are likely to offset any extra returns from the income tax.

apoplexy. It came while a quartet composed of L. R. O'Brian, Roy Cox, Ed Flanagan and Troy Rouse were attempting to sing, "Back to Old Virginia."

Kiwanians jumped from their seats and rushed to the prostrate form of young Taft lying in the center of the banquet hall, and two or three members of the medical profession were called upon to "do something quick." Pendentium returned for a moment—but only for a moment—as Joe suddenly jumped up, grinned broadly and said, "I'm all right now, boys." When everybody roared, those who had been ministering to the stricken young man, realized it was all a hoax—one of the tricks of the program-maker, Jay Summerell.

"Deacon" Joliff, manager of the Greenville baseball club of the Eastern Carolina League, was introduced to the club, and as he enjoys quite a reputation as a church soloist, members of the club called for a song. With that old, old excuse about "not having my music with me," the versatile ball club manager sang the chorus. "The World is Waiting for the Sunrise." He then sat down at the piano and gave a clever imitation of Sir Harry Lauder in dialect that would have done credit to the distinguished Irishman himself.

At conclusion of his initial appearance in the Kiwanis musical field, Mr. Joliff, told his hearers he intended to put out a clean, well-working baseball team this season, and wanted them to lend their moral support whenever this becomes possible. He didn't promise to win the pennant—being modest and slightly retiring—but did say

SENATE COAL PROBE SHIFTS TO COLUMBUS

Representatives of Operators and Miners Attend Hearing Before Judge Hough

Washington, March 24.—(AP)—The senate's spotlight on conditions in the bituminous coal fields was turned off today as the center of interest in the long union-operator controversy shifted to Columbus, Ohio.

There, Henry Warrum, counsel for the United Mine Workers of America, and William P. Belden, attorney for five Ohio coal companies, took their brief cases and oral talents to attend a hearing in Judge Hough's court on the eviction of 400 families from houses owned by the companies.

John L. Lewis, president of the miners' union, had requested a postponement of the hearing pending an conclusion of the senate inquiry, but this was refused by Belden, who contended there was no relation between the investigation here and the Columbus case.

Before meeting again next week, the senate committee, which spread the testimony of John D. Rockefeller, Jr., Charles M. Schwab, and R. B. Mellon on its books yesterday, is expected to receive for approval a reply now in the course of preparation by Chairman Watson to the questionnaire submitted by Governor Fisher of Pennsylvania. The five questions came after an invitation for the governor's appearance here and the committee's answer is expected to include a second request that he testify.

Eleven West Virginia operators are under summons by the committee, but it has not been announced when they will appear.

R. B. Mellon, brother of Secretary Mellon and last of the three big witnesses in the senate interstate commerce committee inquiry yesterday, testified that he and the treasury secretary held 25 per cent of the stock of the Pittsburgh Coal Company, center of attack by union witnesses throughout the hearing.

In a halting voice similar to that noticeable in his brother in the cabinet, Mr. Mellon gave his testimony, but he repeatedly answered "I don't know" to questions put by members.

Mr. Schwab chairman of the board of the Bethlehem steel corporation, joked and smiled throughout a good portion of his one hour and a half on the stand. He denied active connection with the Bethlehem mines corporation of West Virginia, conceded that a serious situation faced the soft coal operators and miners alike, and urged as a solution that those out of work seek other employment.

Emphasizing that he appeared "a layman," Mr. Rockefeller disavowed any ability to find a way out of the dilemma in the coal industry, but regarded over production, adequate freight rate bases for transportation, distribution to consumers and laborers' wages as four things that must first be solved in succession before the industry could be placed back on its feet.

He complimented organized labor and said he had full confidence in the officers of the Consolidation Coal Company, in which he owns 182,836 shares of common and preferred stock.

Two Women and Brother Killed By Gas Fumes

Memphis, Tenn., March 24.—(AP)—Two young women and their brother were found dead in their one room apartment today with a gas heater with both jets open in the center of the room.

The victims were Hazel Tate, 21 her sister, Mrs. Violet Broens, 24, a divorcée, and Louis Tate, 18. Mrs. Broens was lying on the floor in front of her dresser with a powder puff in one hand and a powder box in the other. Miss Tate was lying across a bed, and Tate in bed, apparently having been overcome in his sleep.

Four Arrested In Slaying of "Diamond Joe"

Chicago, March 24.—(AP)—Four men, all with alibies which the police have not been able positively to shake, have been arrested in connection with the slaying of Diamond Joe Esposito.

Police said they had some circumstantial evidence connecting the three Borrellino cousins—Tony, Gary and Louis—with assassination of the political ward leader, and also enough to warrant continued incarceration of James Di Prima, life-long foe of Diamond Joe. All were held today without charge while the investigation continued.

N. Y. STOCK EXCHANGE MEN WANT HOLIDAY

Nerve - Racking Conditions of two Weeks Cause Members to Petition for Time off

New York, March 24.—(AP)—Battered and nerve-racked by the unprecedented markets of the past two weeks, members of the New York stock exchange have petitioned for a three-day holiday starting on good Friday, April 6.

Although the last thirteen days have seen a golden stream of commissions flowing into their pockets many of the big traders and their assistants and clerks have almost reached the limit of human endurance. The work is so specialized that intelligent extra help is hard to get and the regular office forces have been forced to carry the burden of the extra work.

With the close of the five-hour session of the exchange, during which a trader is pushed and mauled by other eager buyers and sellers, he can not put on his hat and call it a day's work. He must patch up his torn clothes, grab something to eat and direct his corps of assistants in the work of tabulating and recording the day's transactions, which work extends far into the night.

Many of the big firms have provided sleeping quarters near their offices and nearly all those who commute—employer and employee alike—have been forced to live at hotels during the last two weeks so as not to lose the precious hours that would be wasted in traveling back and forth to their homes.

"The work has been well repaid, however, assuming that one-fourth of the business was by traders buying for their own accounts and therefore paying no commissions. Observers estimate that for each of the thirteen days the commission were more than $912,000. This would mean an average of $830 a day for each of the 1100 seat holders, but it is pointed out that half of the members never go on the floor of the exchange, merely holding their seats to get lower commissions, and this would send the average for the active traders to twice that figure.

The bullish carnival continued in full swing on the New York stock exchange today with the price of memberships rising another $10,000 to a new high record at $350,000. General Motors retained the speculative spot light by quickly advancing $3.50 a share to another new peak price at $190.75 a share. Early advances in the other issues ranged from $1 to $6 a share.

KING GEORGE ATTENDS OPENING OF LLOYD'S

London, March 24.—(AP)—King George, accompanied by the queen, today carried out a quaint centuries old ceremony when he paid a visit to "the city" on the occasion of the opening of the new headquarters of Lloyd's, the world's largest association of underwriters, in Leadenhall street, not far from the Bank of England.

A silken cord of red, stretched across the roadway at the site of temple bar, once a gate of the wall of old London, barred the king's way as he and the queen approached in the royal carriage, drawn by four horses. On the other side was the Lord Mayor, resplendent in his cloak of ermine and crimson velvet, with the city officials also in full robes. The king wore the undress uniform of an admiral of the fleet.

Spectators gathered there, watched his majesty ask for admittance, just as in the days of long ago when the city jealousy guarded its rights and was hemmed in by a wall. They saw the Lord Mayor advance to the carriage and present him with the ancient pearl sword of the city, gift of Queen Elizabeth, together with its keys, as a symbol of the temporary surrender of his rights to his sovereign. The king did not take the weapon, but merely touched it, indicating its restoration to his lordship together with the keys. Both the king and the queen then said a few gracious words, the cord was lowered and they proceeded to Leaden Hall street.

DEMPSY PUT HIS BEST AGAINST GENE TUNNEY

San Francisco, March 24.—(AP)—Jack Dempsey gave his best when he tried to knock the championship crown from Gene Tunney's head at Chicago last summer, his best was not enough and he is through with the ring forever, he said here last night.

"My fighting days are over, and no one knows it better than myself," Dempsey said. "I know I can not win on forever. Gene Tunney last summer. Some that sat in the great crowd at Soldiers' Field thought I knocked him out. Maybe I did; maybe I didn't. The fact remains that Tunney was declared the winner. I am not taking one iota of credit away from him. All I can say is that I gave the public the best I had in me and that wasn't enough to bring the victory."

Dempsey said he had made "enough money" to keep his wife and himself and he had "no complaint to make." Other than to keep in condition, he said he would not don the gloves again.

COMPLETE TESTIMONY IN MURDER CASE TODAY

Robbinsville, N. C., March 24.—(AP)—Testimony in the trial of Jonathan and Wilbur Jenkins, brothers, charged with the slaying of Charlie Jenkins, a cousin, on February 12, was completed shortly before noon today and the case was expected to reach the jury this afternoon.

The State contended that the Jenkins brothers killed Charlie Jenkins, a deputy, as the latter was about to arrest Jonathan on a liquor charge. Jonathan, it was charged, shot the deputy as the officer drew his gun, and Wilbur was charged with aiding in the killing with a baseball bat. The brothers pleaded self defense.

Allison Defeats Lott.

Augusta, Ga., March 24.—(AP)—Wilmer Allison, intercollegiate tennis champion, defeated George Lott, American ranking number three player, 6-4, 1-6, 6-3, 3-6, 7-5, here today in an upset of the Davis Cup test play.

In the other singles match of the morning, Johnny Doeg, the eighth ranking player, won from Wray Brown, St. Louis, 6-2, 6-3, 7-9, 8-6.

EXECUTE INSURGENTS NEAR MEXICO CITY

Mexico City, March 24.—(AP)—

Dispatches printed by newspapers today said government forces had executed 36 insurgents who, refusing to surrender, made a sortie from a cave.

Dispatches from Zamora, state of Michoacan, said the band, described as the most important of the region, took refuge in the cave from federal troops. Soldiers commanded by Lieut. Col Auayo, surrounded the hiding place.

The insurgents met a request to surrender with defiance and started to fight it out. For several days without food or water they held the cave before their ammunition was exhausted they made a last desperate effort to cut their way out. The survivors were lined up and shot. The government victory was stated to leave only two bands of insurgents in the neighborhood.

Dispatches from Guadalajara, state of Jalisco, said Miguel Gomez Loza, styled by some the insurgent "governor of Jalisco," had been slain in a battle with federal troops at El-Lendero.

His body was brought to Guadalajara, where he was formerly a lawyer, but it was not claimed by friends or relatives, presumably they feared to do that as it might lead to them being marked as supporters of the insurgent movement.

he would give the town a club it would be justly proud of before the end of the season.

A debate dealing with aldermanic aspirations of the city was furnished by Berry Bostle and George Woodward in behalf of Ed Griffin and J. K. Brown, candidates for office. Each side was required to hold a block of ice in their hands while speaking was in progress and George Woodward was given the prize, ice blocks, for this achievement.

Guy Smith and Jack Kilgo engaged in a pin-pulling contest first, velour hats which had been properly covered with soap. Each had a face of a dark hue at the end of the contest, and Guy Smith was awarded a cake of soap with which to clean his face, as the prize.

Directors of the organization will meet in the office of President Harrington next Monday night.

CRITICS SAY this New Oldsmobile is THE FINE CAR OF LOW PRICE

The very appearance of this new and larger Oldsmobile Six stamps it, at a glance, as two years ahead—separate and apart from even the best of cars at anywhere near its price.

Its every feature gives evidence that this car makes available to all, sources of thorough satisfaction that have heretofore identified high-priced cars.

And as further conclusive recognition of what Oldsmobile has achieved by its policy pledged to progress, automotive critics now add their praise.

"Two years ahead both in appearance and mechanically," says H. F. Blanchard of Motor.

A. F. Denham of Motor Age says, "New in every respect . . . gives an impression of belonging in a much higher price class."

TWO-DOOR SEDAN $925 F. O. B. LANSING

"From experience in actually driving the new Oldsmobile, it may be definitely stated that Oldsmobile has made an important advance in the art of car building," says Walter C. Boynton of Automotive Daily News. "In appearance and performance, in quietness of operation, in comfort, convenience and road qualities, it represents a distinct achievement!"

Sweeping, positive expressions—based on actual facts of design and the actual experiences of these men with this new Oldsmobile.

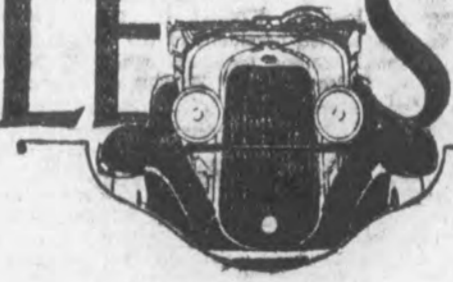

They know, because they have compared by their own high standards of judgment, that this car is smart and voguish not only in design but in the whole spirit of its styling and engineering.

They know, because they have driven it, that if it is speed you want, this new Oldsmobile will give you speed . . . speed to spare.

They know, because they have enjoyed them, that this new Oldsmobile embodies qualities of riding comfort, of smoothness, of silent operation which are a positive revelation.

They know . . . as you will know when you have investigated as they have . . . that this new Oldsmobile is indeed The Fine Car of Low Price.

Capacity houses witnessed the screen version of "The Student Prince" at the Carolina theater last night. And on the screen as on the stage it is the simple story of the love of a boy and a girl. Ramon Novarro and Norma Shearer play the leading roles in the massive filmization of the celebrated old romance of Heidelberg and the unhappy prince who sought happiness there—a role made famous on the stage by Richard Mansfield. Miss Shearer plays Kathi and Novarro, Karl Heinrich, the tragic prince. A cast of 35 principals and some 2,000 extras appear in the play, while the settings are among the most elaborate in screen history, entire towns having been constructed for the picturesque settings of the famous old love story.

Hans Kraly scenarized the screen play from the original novel by Meyer Forster, on which the original stage play and its revival as "The Student Prince" were based. The cast includes such celebrities as Jean Hersholt, Edward Connelly, Gustav von Seyffertitz, George K. Arthur, Otis Harlan, Lionel Belmore, Elythe Chapman, Philippe De Lacy, Kent Freiberg and Darcy Corrigan.

"The Student Prince" on the screen has even more charm than the stage play itself.

Adapted from Meyer Forster's original novel, on which the play, and its recent revival as "The Student Prince" were founded, and directed by Ernst Lubitsch—who knows better, perhaps, than any other director, the people of the story, is fairly amazes. One is transported to Germany; one revels with the young prince in the Heidelberg garden; one shares his poignant tragedy. Lubitsch's direction is masterly, especially in such delicate touches as the garden scene.

The coronation celebration and other elaborate detail, in which whole towns were built, in which 2,000 people took part; these form a gigantic and inspiring background to the gorgeous story of youth and love.

Novarro as the young prince is superb. He enters the university with the bashful awe of a youngster who had never before met other boys—his transition under the fellowship of the students is splendidly balanced acting.

Norma Shearer is charming indeed as his pathetic sweetheart Kathi, one of the greatest acting roles of the drama. Her love and adoration for the young prince and its dramatic outcome she handles with consummate skill.

WOULD PUT NATIONAL PARKS UNDER PARK COMMISSION

Washington, March 24—(AP)—Twenty famous national military parks and monuments, including Gettysburg, Fort McHenry, Md., and Antietam Battle Field, and Lincoln's birthplace, would be transferred from the jurisdiction of the war department to the national park service, interior department, under recommendations by the secretaries of those departments.

The proposed transfer, which would consolidate the famous parks and monuments under the staff of the national park service, is to be presented to congress within a few days. A tentative bill has been drawn, copies of which have been sent to Senator Nye, Republican, North Dakota and Representative Sinnott, Republican, Oregon.

Under the transfer, the areas, aggregating 13,721 acres would be called "National Historical Parks," and developed as such. The present guards would be continued, but the parks and monuments would be maintained under the park service corps of experts.

It is not proposed to take over all of them, but the twenty comprise probably the most historical war grounds of the United States west of the Hudson River.

SPOTS BEFORE EYES

Miner Had Dark Spots Before Eyes. Felt Dull, Tired, Achy. Doesn't Get Down Any More.

Somerset, Ky.—Telling how he had known of the merit of Theford's Black-Draught since he was a boy, Mr. Albert Garland, of this city, recently said:

"I used to work in the mines, but lost quite a bit of time on account of the sick spells I had. I would get to having a bad taste in my mouth, and a very dull, tired feeling and ache. I would have dark spots in front of my eyes, and I would be so dizzy I would stagger like I was drunk."

"I took medicine, but didn't seem to get any better."

"My mother told me to try Black-Draught, which I did, and after a few doses I felt much better. Now I take it as soon as I feel the least bad, and I don't get down. I certainly can say that it has done more for me than any other medicine I have ever taken."

"I never get without Black-Draught. If I go on a visit, I take a package along in my suit-case. My health is better now than it has been in years, and I believe it is the use of Black-Draught that did it."

Black-Draught is prepared from medicinal roots and herbs, of highest quality. Try it.

gence would be but an empty name." This means that the contempt proceedings will go on, even though Blackmer does not appear, and that if he is adjudged guilty his property to the value of $100,000 may be seized as a penalty.

At the hearings before the Senate investigating committee it was stated that Blackmer received $750,000 as his share of the profits from the Continental deal. He is said never to have appropriated this sum to his own use, but to have left it in this country in the custody of one of his attorneys.

If that is the whole story, what is it that still keeps him in exile overseas? Why does he risk a heavy penalty—to say nothing of condemnation at the bar of public opinion—rather than take the witness-stand? — New York World.

ABOUT TOWN

"We North Carolinians are giving too much attention to the material side of life," declared Dr. W. S. Barnard, professor of Greek of the University of North Carolina, delivering the principal address before members of Pitt county alumni of the university here Friday night.

"How can we call ourselves a Christian state and allow human suffering to continue as it is today?" the distinguished educator asked.

"There is enough money in Piedmont North Carolina alone to run the whole state, yet we continue to amass greater fortunes and leave the matter of human life in jeopardy."

"Our statesmen are not giving the stamping out of disease proper consideration. They are confining their efforts to the material development of some community in which they are interested, forgetful that public life is the most priceless thing of all our possessions."

"We need statesmen who can stand upon Mount Mitchell and see the ocean—men who are broad-minded enough to realize the needs of the moment and provide for them."

It was a masterful address, delivered in a slow, emphatic way, and that it carried great weight among the former University students was evidenced by the rapt attention which the speaker received.

"Dr. Barnard spoke the truth when he declared that Piedmont North Carolina—literally rolling in wealth and luxury—does not give a snap of the finger about conditions in this section of the state." F. C. Harding, well known local attorney, declared in making the final address at the annual banquet of alumni of the University of North Carolina held in Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church Thursday night.

"I am glad Dr. Barnard brought up the question because it brings us face to face with the fact that we are not developing in an industrial way as we should. With our resources and possibilities there is no reason on earth why we should not be great industrially and commercially as any part of the country."

"The time is not far away when high tensioned electric lines will furnish power for the operation of our farms and the mule and plow driven by a negro plowman will be supplanted by electrically driven machinery."

"When that day arrives, giant smokestacks will be seen making their appearance in various parts of this section, and then and then alone will Eastern North Carolina have come into her own."

"Greenville is growing and will continue to grow if her business men carry on into the future as they have in the past," one of our pioneer business men remarked to the writer today.

"Growth is not visible to the man or woman that stays here all of the time. But let someone who has been away from the city for a long time return, and the development is instantly visible."

"The same is true of nature. We never notice the growth of a child, nor the development of plant life, but if we miss seeing them for awhile growth is plainly discernible the next time we do see them."

"The only thing that will handicap our future growth is lack of manufacturing enterprises. With smokestacks sending their shadows high into the heavens this city would change as if by magic. We would not only be great agriculturally, but would soon take our place among the industrial leaders of the country."

"With our business men standing together in behalf of progress, there is every reason to believe the future is brighter than it has ever been before. We should hope so any way, and leave the rest to the hand of that destiny which has moulded the life of all great regions."

committee of the Billy Sunday campaign get lined up in the way of ushers to take care of the great crowds expected to attend the series of services which open in this city April 22, members of the committee said today.

"The ushers will be chosen from each of the churches. There will be something like a hundred or more of them. The choir likewise will be composed of members of the various churches. All of these arrangements will be completed Sunday, and when the campaign actually opens everything will be working with clock like regularity and accuracy."

"This revival promises to be one of the greatest not only in Eastern North Carolina, but of the entire state. Thousands of people will be in attendance from time to time and it will require plenty of ushers to handle them."

"If you are called upon to serve in any capacity for this meeting, be sure to do so and rest assured you will be glad of having done so."

LINDERBERG STILL FLYING ABOUT CAPITAL

Washington, March 24.—(AP)—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, engaged in taking Washington's congressional population into the air, continued today his series of short trips over the city accompanied by senators, representatives, their relatives, and others who were lucky enough to get a place on the long list of those desiring to ride with him.

The schedule for the day embraced continuous flying until late in the afternoon.

Among those riding today were Mrs. Overman, wife of the North Carolina senator and their daughter, Mrs. Edgar Snow.

SMITH CLUB FORMED BY WAKE FOREST STUDENTS

Wake Forest, March 24.—(AP)—North Carolina state officials and political leaders may be against Gov. Al Smith as democratic candidate for president but some of the students at Wake Forest college do not agree with them and last night an "Al Smith for president club" was formed. The membership includes some 30 students in the law school among them the president and vice-president of the student body.

The students plan, it was announced after the meeting, to foster similar clubs in other colleges and universities in the state.

NEGRESS LEAVES ESTATE TO HER EMPLOYER

Spartanburg, S. C., March 24.—(AP)—Care and kindness shown to Mattie Thompson, negro woman, today had brought to Mrs. Margaret Blackwood, wife of Solicitor I. C. Blackwood, of this county an estate valued at several thousands of dollars.

The negro, who died recently, left a will in which after giving a brother $200 and paying funeral expenses, she stipulated that the estate should go to Mrs. Blackwood, as a "token of her care and kindness to me during my life and illness."

The estate consists of personal property and a house and lot.

Flyer Will Attempt Overland Journey To Europe Over Arctic

Something new in flights to Europe is planned for early summer by Bert Hassell (below), Rockford, Ill., aviator. He will try a Rockford-to-Stockholm flight by the overland arctic route shown on the map, with but three short jumps over water. His plane is a Stinson-Detroit like that at right.

Rockford, Ill.—(AP)—Bert Hassell, Rockford aviator expects to blaze an overland air trail from the United States to Europe.

As spring spurs the activity of many European and American airmen, groping planes for projected flights over the wide Atlantic, Hassell, backed by Rockford, is rushing through his plans hoping to be in the van of the air hegira.

He will pilot a Stinson-Detroit plane which is being built for him and will swing over the "great circle" route from this inland city to Stockholm. He will make one stop at the Mt. Evans station of the University of Michigan's Greenland expedition. His landing place will be charted by the Michigan scientists, and he will refuel his plane there.

There are but three water jumps on the route, the longest is only 528 miles. Hassell will fly up over the Great Lakes to near Sault Ste. Marie, then up across Ontario, past the tip of Hudson Bay, onwards toward the coast of Labrador near Cape Chidley, thence across Greenland over Iceland and on to the Scandinavian peninsula.

The hazards will come in plotting the ship over those icy wastes for which there are no available detailed maps.

Rockford civic associations say they are meeting with quick response for the necessary funds the flight has been made a virtual civic undertaking.

Hassell is rated as one of the country's best pilots. He has spent years in commercial flying but has never participated in any sensational ventures in the air.

SEVEN TEAMS PLAN TO STOP THE YANKEES

By BRIAN BELL (AP Sports Writer)

Applaud, March 24—(AP)—Seven teams from training camps of the American League clubs are taking the season's first road trip today and will find seven teams lined up against the New York Yankees.

Ways and means to stop the world champions in their effort to win have permeated in the many ways are being discussed by boards of strategy over a 45-minute battle from Cleveland to Florida thru Louisiana to Texas.

Three of the Yankees' rivals believe they can beat the champions and need only to decide on the method. The other four are more interested in getting into the first division than winning the current season and, while they see things the New Yorkers can be turned back their thought for the moment seems to be "What of it?"

In the face of opposition which certainly outnumbers him manager Miller Huggins remains calm. He will offer the same club first topped the American league in 1926 and 1927. He has added some reinforcements but the shock troops are the old fast liners outside the batter's box. Wiley Moore has a year of big league pitching under his belt as has George Binks, whose fast ball has not bowed up. Shealy and Johnson have been recruited from the American Association to do some pitching.

The active challenge to New York supremacy, probably will be from the Philadelphia Athletics, Washington Senators and the Texas Rangers.

Connie Mack, at this season of the year, seems in better position than he was able to boast at the same time in 1927.

Joe Hauser is back at first base with his wobbly knee answering call. This Speaker has joined Ty Cobb and Al Simmons in the outfield with Bing Miller standing by. Ossie Orvell is available for pitching duty, outfield or infield assignment. The white elephant pitcher, especially Elmhuk and Rommel, are in better shape than was the case last spring.

Washington will count heavily on its revised pitching staff and the batting and base running of George Sisler. Lisenbee and Hadley, who came through for Bucky Harris last season, know more now and although Hadley has been batted out of the box by appendixitis, he will be back. Gaston and Zachary have come from the Browns to lend their arms to the Washington cause. Marberry is in the best physical condition of his major league career.

The Tigers have sent Marty McManus to third base where his added weight will make him an important figure and the fleet Harry Rice will patrol the outfield post. The pitching may be bolstered by the addition of Elam Vangilder from the Browns to serve as first aid and consequent promotion of LH Steiner from relief duty to active assignment. Sam Gibson and Earl Whitehill exhibit signs of better better pitchers than they were last year.

Cleveland has recruited several players from the kindergarten of baseball and may have to wait for the members to grow up in the game before they can hope to make their presence felt. A rainbow seems to be trying to shine across the Indian sky to mark improvement shown in the condition of George Uhle and Emil Levesen, two pitching casualties of last season.

The White Sox have a new and expensive shortstop, Chalmer Cissell and Johnny Mostil, out practically last season, has returned to the outfield. The Chicago management believes that Ted Lyons, Alphonse Thomas, Ted Blankenship and George Conally will head a staff able to pitch the Sox to better things.

St. Louis is gambling on two youngsters, Otis Branon and Ralph Kress, at second base and shortstop. Manager Howie is trying a bold experiment by tossing the Tulsa recruits into the middle of his infield but he has confidence in them and believes they will make his team.

Lu Blue at first base and Harry Manush in the outfield have brought their bats with them from Detroit, and Sam Gray, late of the Athletics, will pitch some winning games for the Browns.

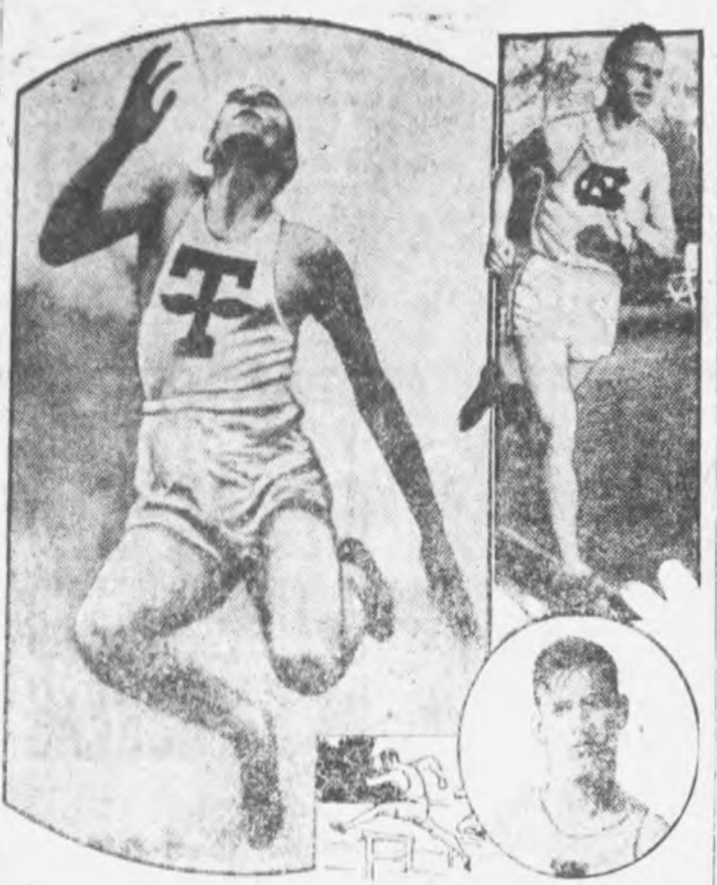

Boston's Red Sox have an outfield two-thirds made over by insertion of a pair of Williams boys, Ken from St. Louis, and Denny from Mobile, but manager Bill Carrigan is depending on the main on experience gained by the manager and youngsters in 1927. The once great catcher returned to the game last year after an absence of ten years and brought some young fellows with him. He believes the year's play has been helpful.

The spring stock taking leaves an impression that it's the field against the Yankees.

Come Far to College

Berea, Ky.—(AP)—Distance from town or railroad and lack of funds do not deter Southern Appalachian youths from getting an education. Prof. W. J. Hutchins of Berea college says. The school's 2,500 students live an average of 8.49 miles from any village and only 20 have parents who pay more than $100 a year in taxes.

Dixie Athletes Gain National Prominence In Track Boom There

College-trained athletes are making the South an important factor in track and field sports in this Olympic year. Three of Dixie's best are Ed Bacon (left), Georgia Tech, National Collegiate A. A. running broad jump champion, Galen Ellett (center right), University of North Carolina, who was runner-up at Philadelphia recently, and Wrenn A. Baskin (lower right), former hurdles champion.

By HORACE C. BINEGAR, Associated Press Sports Writer.

Birmingham, Ala. (AP)—For the first time in track history, Dixie this year is sending a good bid for national recognition.

The noble feet of Galen Ellett, of the University of North Carolina; Sid Robinson, Mississippi A. & M. College; Ed Hanna, Georgia Tech and Wrenn Baskin, former Auburn, Ala. college star, are bringing the southerners to the forefront.

Baskin recently won the National A. A. U. indoor hurdles championship and in another race tied the world's record for the 80-yard high hurdles with a mark of 7.3-5 seconds. He now runs under the colors of the New York Athletic Club, where he is training for the Olympic trials.

Hanna, winner of the National Collegiate A. A. running broad jump event at Chicago last year, and Ellett, a sterling miler, also are considered Olympic possibilities.

The fact that Hanna will compete along with Ellett, Robinson, and others as outstanding gives promise that track and field meets in the south this spring will be the most interesting in history and in some ways may see new marks established.

An indication of what may be expected when the Southern Conference meet is held here in May and the Dixie relays in Atlanta next month is found in the showing of Ellett in finishing second to Lloyd Hahn, crack Boston A. A. runner, in the Meadowbrook games at Philadelphia recently. In this race—the Bowman Wampanaker mile—Hahn broke the record for the event, set by Joe Ray.

On the previous night, Robinson was second to Hahn in the Baxter mile event at the Millrose games in New York, finishing a scant 25 yards behind. Ellett was third.

"Topsy" Smith, of Alabama, who takes part in none of the eastern meets, set a fine mark in winning the outdoor Birmingham Athletic Club road race some time ago, doing the three miles in around 16 minutes and showing the ability, if proved, to better that mark considerably.

As for relay events, the University of Maryland has won over Pennsylvania and Harvard, among others the College Park team rarely being pushed on the last lap.

Within the unaffiliated ranks of southern institutions is to be counted the javelin star Bonura, of Loyola University of New Orleans. He is considered an Olympic prospect.

Virtually every institution in the Southern Conference is the scene of work now in preparation for the meet there which will be held at Legion Field. This stadium with a seating capacity of 30,000 boasts one of the few standard tracks in the country.

CRICKSHANK LEADS IN GOLF TOURNAMENT

Jacksonville, Fla., March 24.—(AP)—Bobby Cruickshank, who for several years has been expected to appear always near the top and Roy Horan, Orlando, Fla., pro, whose name has seldom glittered among the rolling great, were leading on the field in the Florida open tournament when the sixty-four remaining golfers began the final 28 holes of the affair.

Cruickshank, the New York Scot, turned in a 69-70 yesterday to account for the sparkling low 139 which was matched by Horan with a remarkable afternoon to add to his more normal 72 of the morning.

Frank Walsh, of Appleton, Wisconsin, and George Christ, of Davensport, Florida, were one stroke behind the leaders. Christ registered a 67 for the morning round.

Fanned 27 Men.

Jackson, Miss.—(AP)—Rufus G. Smith, Detroit pitcher, farmed to Montreal this year, fanned 27 men in a nine inning game when a pitcher for the Westtown, Pa., Preps. The opposition was Swarthmore Prep. He's a southpaw.

Fast Track For Louisiana Derby

New Orleans, March 24—(AP)—Early indications pointed to fourteen starters and a fast track for the running of the Louisiana derby, Jefferson Park's spring racing classic which closes the season here today. Weather was somewhat threatening, however.

Seventeen of the speediest three year olds training here were entered in the $15,000 purse to the winner but three were expected to scratch.

The Louisiana derby is the first event of the year for three year olds, drawing many candidates which also are eligible in the Kentucky derby.

The race at a mile and eighth, held fifth place on the day's program with posttime expected about four o'clock.

Predicts Slight Cotton Increase

Charlotte, March 23—(AP)—David Clark, of Charlotte, editor of the Southern Textile Bulletin and Textile Expert, thinks that the acreage planted in cotton in North and South Carolina this year will be not more than two per cent greater than last year's acreage but that greater average increases in Georgia, Mississippi, Alabama, and Texas are in prospect.

Mr. Clark has made a survey of the acreage prospect, visiting most sections in the Carolinas and inquiring by the means of numerous informants as to plans in the other four states. Regarding his letters, he has indicated that in the eastern sections of Georgia about the same acreage as last year up to a 20 per cent increase was contemplated. Texas, Mississippi, and Alabama plan, according to the survey, to plant from about the same acreage as last year to from a five to ten per cent greater acreage.

DECATHLON MARVELS READY FOR OLYMPICS

Call for practice has gone out to America's decathlon candidates for the Olympics at Amsterdam. Chief rival (center) is national champion holder and an outstanding prospect, Emerson Norton (right) is a husky from Kansas who will make them all hustle to make the team. Lawson Robertson (center) has made it very clear that there will be two try-outs this year, one at the Penn games at Philadelphia and another in July. He expects to keep the men in condition by this method.

Smuggle Arms Into Hungary

London, March 24—(AP)—Europe today faced another St. Gotthard incident—involving the alleged smuggling of arms into Hungary.

Dispatches from Subotica (also known as Therapole and Szabadak) on the Hungarian-Rumanian frontier to Croatia and Austrian newspaper held Jugoslavian authorities seized 22 freight car loads of explosives.

SIX INCHES OF LAND COSTLY, TOWN LEARNS

Milford, Conn.—(AP)—High land values are not always restricted to big cities, the town fathers of Milford have learned.

The town wanted a strip of land six inches wide by 250 feet long to complete a site for a firehouse. An architect had made plans and then discovered the lot was a trifle too small.

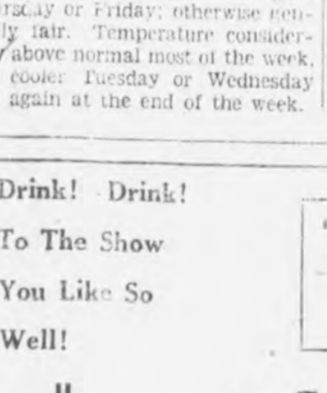

A manufacturer and banker who was the abettor, wanted $12,000 for the strip.

TEN MORE FATHERS GET MUSSOLINI LARGESSE

Udine, Italy—(AP)—Mussolini's pet charitable hobby, that of heaping cash rewards on the fathers of big families, has just hit this northern city with a shower of lire on ten fathers of a total of 98 children including two triplets.

It cost the Duce 42,300 lire, or about $230. Vincenzo Casella, father of newborn triplets, was high with a gift of 1,000 lire. Two of these rewarded had 11 children a piece.

Star of Stars

Albert Peterson, of the University of Kansas is the choice of Missouri sports writers and coaches as the best basketball player in the United States.

University Student Injured in Wreck

Kinston, March 24—(AP)—Eric Abernathy, 17 a student at the University of North Carolina, was fatally injured early today when an automobile he was driving was overturned in a ditch 14 miles from here on state highway No. 10.

Aycock, Beaufort newspaperman, who was in the car was not seriously hurt.

Abernathy and Brown were taken to the Memorial General Hospital here.

Young Abernathy was the son of Dr. Eric Abernathy, physician at the University of North Carolina.

AMERICAN NEWSPAPERS NOW CHINESE WALL PAPER

Trieste—(AP)—Old newspapers have become a considerable item in the list of American imports at Trieste. These papers, which sell in the wholesale market here at about $30 a ton, are shipped into the country districts of North China where they become wall paper or are pasted over windows.

Glass windows are still rare in the interior villages. Old newspapers are imported also from Germany and Japan and various "Tageblatt", "Zetings", "Asahis" and "Jijis" with the bold headlines American prints for their wall decorations in the Chinese peasant's hut.

Many Runners In Rice Relay Race

Houston, Tex., March 24—(AP)—Encouraged by one new world's sprint record established by the veteran Charles Paddock, and several improvements over previous Texas relay marks, hundreds of athletics matched in the event at Tustin were here today seeking more laurels in the annual Rice relay.

In the feature event of the Austin meet yesterday, Paddock beat Fred Alderman of the Illinois A. C. in a special 140 yard race by breasting the tape in 13.4 seconds. This was six tenths of a second better than the former record established by the Californian flash for this distance in Finland in 1925, when he beat Heile, former title holder.

Claude Brady, Rice institute sophomore, shared in the spring spotlight with Paddock by covering 100 yards in 9.5 seconds to equal the world's record held by the Californian and Roland Locke, of Nebraska. Brady, however, was aided by a 30 mile wind and doubt was expressed that his time would gain official recognition.
