

GERMAN PLANE TAKES OFF ON TRIP TO U. S.

Junkers Plane Left Berlin Field This Morning at 8:20 with Crew of Three.

Dublin, Irish Free State, March 26—(AP)—The German Junkers Trans-Atlantic plane Bremen, on the first lap of a flight from East to West across the Atlantic arrived at Baldonnel airfield late today from Tempelhof field.

New York, March 26—(AP)—The New York Evening Post in a Copy-righted story today says that a German Junkers Monoplane with a crew of three left Tempelhof airfield at 8:20 this morning (German time), on the first lap of a flight to New York.

An overnight stop will be made at Dublin, Ireland, where the plane will be refueled for the long Atlantic hop. The aviators are Baron Von Huenfeld, owner of the plane, Captain Koehl, Pilot and Mechanic Spindler.

With favorable weather conditions it is expected to leave Ireland at daylight tomorrow and arrive at Midway Wednesday morning.

The start of the flight from the flying field near Berlin, was made so secretly that even close friends of the fliers knew nothing of the departure, the paper says. Baron Von Huenfeld, who was said to have feared government interference with his plane as result of growing public sentiment against the loss of human life in previous attempts.

The plane will not take the direct route to Dublin, but will circle the place of exile of the former Kaiser Wilhelm at Doorn, Holland, where a bouquet of flowers and a message from the crew will be dropped. The Baron shared for a time the exile of the former Crown Prince. It was expected that about 10 hours would be needed for this part of the flight.

The Post says that the pilot and mechanic became convinced after a flight last August which was abandoned after reaching Ireland, that a non-stop westward flight from Germany to America was impossible. The plane, carrying Baron Von Huenfeld, Captain Hermann Koehl, and Mechanic Spindler went up 8:15 o'clock this morning for what was said to be a trial flight in preparation for a Trans-Atlantic attempt.

As the men had returned at 4 o'clock this morning it was assumed at the Tempelhof field that they had made a secret getaway for the Baldonnel Airfield, their hopping off point for the Atlantic venture.

Today's "Mystery Flight" was undertaken with a Junkers Single Motor plane, the Bremen, which was used in an attempted Westward flight last summer but only reached the West Coast of Ireland, being forced to turn back by gales after a 22-hour flight.

Baron Von Huenfeld, who is connected with the North German Steamship Company, Captain Koehl and Captain Friedrich Loose were aboard the plane at that time.

Neither Tempelhof officials nor the families of the pilots professed to be aware that a long distance hop was planned so soon, as the men had announced that they were up for a trial flight. The Bremen was brought to Tempelhof field from Dessau Saturday night.

The plane is named the "Bremen" which is lettered on its silvery gray sides with the number 1197. From Ireland the Germans have planned a circle flight about 300 miles South of the Great Circle route.

They estimated that the hop might be accomplished in a minimum of 20 hours with altogether favorable conditions and in a maximum of 35 hours with constantly adverse winds.

The Bremen will carry fuel for between 40 and 45 hours, giving it a cruising radius of about 4,500 miles, or 1,000 more than the best of its starting point and destination.

No Radio, no life saving apparatus and no rations went into the plane. Instead, a revolver, carefully wrapped in oil cloth to keep it ready for action at all times, was tucked away.

The Baron was said to have chosen this method of terminating a failure.

It was a strange trio who entered the cabin of the Bremen, the paper says. The Baron, Prussian Nobleman, wore his accustomed monocle. The Pilot, whose Hobby is painting, seemed equally indifferent to the dangers he faced. The Mechanic had confidence in his leaders.

According to their plans, the fliers will wave Adieu to the old world at Pastnet Rock, off Southern Ireland, and then watch anxiously for Cape Race, New Foundland, as the first land of the new world.

Even Captain Koehl's wife did not know that her husband was preparing for his way to America for he told her that he was merely going to try the Bremen out on a test flight.

TODAY

Up $142,000,000 More.
Man Hanged, Woman Spared.
Mr. Rosenwald's Example
Reservoir of Souls.

Yesterday for the eleventh consecutive day, Wall Street bought 3,000,000 shares of stock or more. General Motors "hit a new high" an increase of 1-4 points, adding in one day $142,000,000 to the selling value of that stock. It is the world's first THREE BILLION DOLLAR CONCERN!

Mr. Durant, who dreamed that dream and sees it come true, must wish he could have held on.

Railroads are cheerful. Southern Pacific, for instance, announces the highest February profit in eleven years, an improvement of $232,705 over February, 1927.

Several stocks went skyrocketing. But be careful how you deal with what brokers call the "high priced babies". There is dynamite in some of them. And don't sell short. Tears are back of that.

A stock exchange seat sold for $325,000, a new record. The buyer got a bargain.

In the course of the day there was a "well organized and bitter bear attack". Don't laugh, please, it is no laughing matter for those bears.

Canada has hanged George McDonald, forger, confidence man and murderer. His young wife, saved from the rope by public appeals, sent him word, "I shall never cease praying for you, she, poor woman will have time to keep that promise in her life imprisonment in Canada. IT MEANS life imprisonment.

Sparing that woman is a step toward civilization, once thousands a year were hanged for petty crimes. Hence the expression "as well be hanged for a sheep as a lamb." Children were hanged and quartered in Franklin's childhood.

"Civilization" has stopped hanging.

INTEREST IN OIL INQUIRY SHIFTS TODAY

Chief Attention Now Centers at El Paso, Texas, Where Fall is To Give Facts.

Washington, March 26—(AP)—With the Senate Teapot Dome committee in adjournment until late in the week, chief attention in the oil investigations today shifted to El Paso, Texas, where on Thursday Albert B. Fall will tell attorneys sent there for the purpose how he came to lease the Wyoming Oil Reserve to Harry F. Sinclair.

Taken orally in a hospital in the Texas city where he is said to be suffering from a facial illness, the deposition of the former Interior secretary will be the first direct evidence he has given in the Long Oil inquiry and litigation in almost five years.

It will be used in the defense of Sinclair when the oil operator and sportsman goes on trial here again April 4 for conspiracy in connection with the Teapot Dome lease, now cancelled. The first trial, with both Fall and Sinclair facing similar charges, ended in a mistrial and last week their names were severed because of Fall's inability to come here for the rebuttal.

Daniel Thew Wright, associate counsel for Sinclair, left New York last night for El Paso to conduct the direct examination of Fall, who already has stated in an affidavit read in court here that he leased Teapot Dome reluctantly after the late President Harding insisted upon it. Government counsel will cross-examine Fall and his testimony will not be revealed until read in Sinclair's trial in Washington.

Meanwhile, Senator Norris, Independent Republican, will carry on an investigation of his own here to determine whether H. M. Blackmer and James E. O'Neil, missing witnesses in the Sinclair and Fall conspiracy cases and among the original beneficiaries of the $3,000,000 Liberty bond profits of the Continental Trading Company, are answerable to the law for the party they played in the celebrated oil transaction seven years ago in New York.

In making the announcement yesterday, Senator Norris who is author of the resolution authorizing the present Senate inquiry, said he had employed an attorney to look into the matter for him and upon the latter's report will depend whether Department of Justice officials will be called into the case.

TROOPS HUNT BANDIT BAND THRU MEXICO

Two Hundred Persons Robbed by Highwaymen in Series of Holdups Saturday.

Mexico City, March 26—(AP)—Strong guards of troops patrolled one of Mexico's chief highways today while others searched in the foothills for a band of highwaymen who on Saturday held up four automobiles and eleven automobile buses, robbing about 200 persons.

Because Dwight W. Morrow, the American ambassador was scheduled to pass along the road at the time of the robbery, the affair was held in some quarters to have been an attempt on the part of insurgents to embarrass the Mexican government.

Mr. Morrow was traveling along the road which leads from Puebla to Mexico City and arrived at the point 25 miles from the capital where the robbery occurred three hours after the robbers had scattered.

Witnesses asserted the members of the robber band shouted "Viva Cristo, Rey," slogan of the Catholic insurgents movement, and this was held to show that the robbery was in reality a blow aimed at the government.

About fifty men held up the automobiles and buses, methodically stripping their occupants of valuables. While the holdup was in progress a pay car carrying $50,000 suddenly appeared. The driver realized what was happening, and swung his car around and head for Mexico City. The highwaymen fired at the machine, wounding two occupants and drilling a bullet hole through the gasoline tank, but the car escaped. The robbers then fled.

The Puebla correspondent of El Universal, who was in the first bus stopped, wrote:

"The robbers were very polite. They used no oaths and their commander, who was called 'General' by his men, returned some money to victims who complained that they were broke. The chief also gave money to some poor women, when search revealed they possessed none.

"The highwaymen all carried brand new rifles. Every man wore three or four belts filled with cartridges."

ONE KILLED IN PLANE WRECK

Five Also Injured When Plane Driven into Wall in England

Dukinfield, Cheshire, Eng., Mar. 26—(AP)—Attempting to bring her plane to a stop on a small field near here, Miss Winthrop Brown crashed into a wall yesterday, killing Jackie Hood, 10, and injuring five other children, seated on the top of a wall.

The plane carried away the top of the wall with its nose. The propeller was smashed but neither Miss Brown nor her companion, captain Browning, were injured.

Miss Brown, who was the first woman in Manchester to qualify as an air pilot, was flying her own plane. A silver and scarlet machine given her by her father, who is a noted yachtsman and motorist.

It was announced that she would alight on a field about 300 yards square surrounded by an 8-foot stone wall as an advertising stunt for a Motion picture she was carrying to Stalybridge where it is to be shown. Many spectators mounted the wall and others stood below it.

Miss Brown made several attempts to bring the plane down within the enclosure. Each time she was close to wall and had to rise again.

Finally she managed to land in the center of the field. There were cries of horror as the machine failed to halt and rushed toward the part of the wall where the children were sitting. The crowd scattered in panic and several women fainted. Miss Brown tried to clear the wall by taking off again, but failed and the plane crashed into it with fatal result.

Miss Brown recently came into the limelight when King Amanullah of Afghanistan visited Crofton airfield and chatted with her. She told him that she was fond of stunting and never felt nervous.

PLAN MERGER OF RADIO AND VICTOR FIRMS

Consolidation of Two Big Concerns Pending With Securities of $250,000,000.

Daily conferences are said to be in progress and the proposed consolidation is believed to have made much headway. Officials of both companies and bankers affiliated with their affairs continue their conference, however, and are not inclined to discuss the present stages of the negotiations.

Wall Street hears interests associated with E. I. Dupont De Nemours and Company have bought heavily of Radio Corporation stock which has had such a sensational advance on the New York stock exchange.

CAPTURE TWO RUM RUNNERS

Two New Bern Men Taken with Carload of Whiskey in Exciting Chase Yesterday

Captured with a car load of liquor in an exciting chase in the western section of the city late yesterday afternoon, Basil Worth and A. P. Kittrell, of New Bern, were today confined in the county jail awaiting trial in county court on a charge of transporting whiskey. They were given preliminary hearing this morning and bound over to the higher court under bond of $1,000 each, being remanded to jail upon failure to provide bond.

Driving an automobile through the western residential section at a rate of speed varying between forty and sixty-five miles an hour in an effort to lose the pursuing officers in traffic, the rum runners were captured after a chase lasting about twenty minutes. The car was wrecked in the front yard of a colored resident, and while the occupants jumped out and fled, they were captured a short time later.

The car contained 84 half-gallon fruit jars filled with whiskey, and is thought to have come from New Bern for distribution in this locality. It was one of the largest hauls made by local officers in some time, and created more than usual interest among citizens who watched the chase and subsequent capture.

Teachers Slip One Over "Bill"

Raleigh, March 26—(AP)—North Carolina's School Teachers have slipped one over on Will Rogers.

Will wanted to spend the week-end in Raleigh but a round of the hotels resulted in the discovery that all were filled with teachers here for their annual convention. Therefore, Will went to Durham to sleep, returning Sunday to take a train for Washington.

But at that, North Carolina is O. K. The humorist said, "Your roads up here are wonderful and your air all right when I was in it coming over to Pinehurst from Salisbury, but it wasn't so good when I landed here. Good thing Lloyd Yost had an extra sick bag along."

HOLD WOMAN IN COLORADO CRIME CASE

Former Utah University Co-ed and Husband Charged With Series of Crimes.

Colorado Springs, Colo., March 26—(AP)—A former Utah University Co-ed said by police to have been trained in the use of firearms by her husband and who admitted she knew he was engaged in liquor traffic, was held in jail with him here today in connection with the investigation of a series of crimes including a slaying in California.

The couple were arrested yesterday here where they were known as Mr. and Mrs. James Shannon. The woman was later identified as Grace Winkelman, 27, who on leaving the University of Utah became society editor of a Salt Lake City paper. Shannon admitted he was known to Coast police as Albert H. Adams, and, authorities said, confessed to several robberies.

When Shannon told Chief of Police Hugh D. Harper that he had robbed a bank at Murray, Utah, of $4,000 and also had looted banks in Los Angeles, his wife declared she was "simply amazed."

She told Chief Harper that her husband had informed her he was running whiskey to make a stake with which to buy a ranch where they could "settle down," but never had told her about any of the crimes to which he confessed, she declared she would "stand by him to the limit."

In describing the couple and asking their arrest, Salt Lake officers warned authorized here to take precautions in accosting them. Six detectives armed with shotguns were detailed to make the arrest and when confronted by this squad, the couple offered no resistance.

Probe Death of Concert Pianist

New York, March 26—(AP)—Mysterious circumstances surrounding the death of Gordon Hampton, 30-year-old concert pianist and composer, were being investigated by police today after receipt of an anonymous telephone call informing that it was a murder.

Hampton died in a hospital yesterday from embolism, after a jaw fracture. The police say he told a friend who inquired as to how he received the injury that "the least said about this the better."

He entered the hospital March 18, having attended in a battle with two thugs who attacked him in the vestibule of his apartment in west-seventy-seventh street the previous night.

After receiving the anonymous telephone message the police searched the apartment and although they found bloodstains on papers, on a desk and a bedspread they said the rooms showed no sign of a struggle.

Two Wilson Men Killed In Wreck Near This City

CITY OF RENO IS THREATENED BY DAM BREAK

Flood Waters Course Down Sierras, Causing Rivers to Overflow in Two States.

San Francisco, March 26—(AP)—The flood demon stalked through central California and west central Nevada today as rain and melting snow waters coursed down both sides of the high Sierras, driving five rivers down from their banks inundating several communities and threatening the city of Reno with the possibility of a dam break.

Several city blocks and a section of Reno's park system remained under several inches of water this morning as a result of flood waters escaping from the swollen Truckee river, twenty-two miles up the river the flood was pouring over the top of Boga Dam to a depth of 15 inches.

Fear was expressed that the muddy torrent might weaken the earth-shaking abutments of the dam, unleashing more than 500 acre feet of water. In case of a break Reno would be in the direct path of the flood, which probably would raise the level of the turbid waters four or five feet above their present flood stage.

While there was no evidence of anyone moving to higher ground in the Reno area, city officials, with the memory of the recent St. Francis Dam disaster fresh in their minds made ready to sound an alarm in case of emergency. Because the dam is 22 miles from the city it was "thought that there would be plenty of time to warn residents in case of sudden necessity."

URGES BREAK WITH RUMANIA

Wisconsin Socialist Prepares Resolution For Breaking Treaty Relations.

Washington, March 26—(AP)—The breaking off of treaty relations with Rumania is urged in a resolution prepared for introduction today by representative Berger, socialist, Wisconsin, who charges that nation with atrocities against her racial and religious minorities, including the Catholics, Lutherans, Baptists, Jews, Germans and Magyars.

"The cruelties and brutalities practiced by some of the Mongre nations of Europe, including Rumania," Berger declared, "again disclose how foolishly we acted when we poured out life and treasure on the European battlefields in order to safeguard and perpetuate the existence of these nations. As a result of our sacrifice Rumania has increased her territory from 53,000 to 123,000 square miles and acquired jurisdiction of 18,000,000 people in place of the 8,000,000 she ruled before."

"We have brought these minorities which Rumania now persecute within her confines, we owe them the duty of aiding them to put an end to the atrocious that a semi-civilized, medieval government practices. The fact that Rumania is so much smaller than some of the other nations gives her no right to sink below the standards of civilized countries without exciting their contempt."

Chile and Spain To Permit League To End Wrangles

The treaty holds for ten years.

Harvey Magette and Charlie Hackney Dead as Result of Accident Last Night.

Harvey Magette and Charlie Hackney, prominent Wilson young men, are dead as result of an automobile wreck last night about 11 o'clock on the Greenville-Washington highway, several miles from this city. San Lovelace, driver of the car, who sustained slight injuries was being held today under bond of $1,000 in connection with the crash. Magette was killed instantly and Hackney received fatal injuries from which he died in a local hospital shortly afterwards.

Cornet E. S. Williams started an investigation this morning but ordered that it be continued until a later date.

The young men were returning from a week-end party at Bayview when the new Essex automobile swerved from the road into a soft shoulder, ran a distance of about seventy yards and plunged into a ditch. The automobile was almost completely demolished by the impact.

The bodies of Magette and Hackney were carried to Wilson this morning. Both are members of prominent Wilson county families and have been connected with the business and social life of the city for a number of years. They were about thirty years of age.

Managua, Nicaragua, March 26—(AP)—American flags were in the majority in a parade yesterday of supporters of General Moncada, liberal Presidential candidate, which developed into a demonstration in favor of American supervision of the coming election.

Lacy Goes to N. Y. To Sell More Bonds

Raleigh, March 26—(AP)—State Treasurer, B. R. Lacy left today for New York City either to dispose of five million dollars worth of State bonds held by a Metropolitan Syndicate under option expiring March 31 or to renew five million dollars in short term issue of sale of the bonds.

The council of state met this morning, authorizing the secretary to make the transaction which, if it results in the bonds being sold, will mean simple cancellation of short term notes issued in anticipation of the bond sale.

Governor McLean planned to join Mr. Lacy in New York Wednesday in the test of the State's ability to continue to market its bonds at four percent, the rate obtained on the other fifteen million dollars of the twenty million dollar block offered last April.

Britain Would Gain by Recent Geneva Proposal

Tokyo, March 26—(AP)—It was pointed out at the Japanese naval ministry today that Great Britain would stand to gain the most by her proposal Saturday at Geneva for reducing the displacement of battleships and the size of guns. The proposals have not been received here officially yet, but the minister of navy said they would apparently require very careful study.

He considered agreement probably would be difficult as the circumstances of each power is different. Britain would stand to gain, it was said, because of having in her possession the new constructed battleships Nelson and Rodney, which with their 16-inch guns would leave her in a most advantageous position for several years. The fact that the shipbuilding industry of each power was not equally developed must be said, also be taken into consideration in connection with the question of increasing the age limit.

Cleveland To Fill Gray Eagle's Shoes With College Star

CHICAGO (AP)—Edward Morgan, all-around athlete, football and diamond star at Tulane University, is counted upon to take the place vacated by Tris Speaker in centerfield with the Cleveland Club.

In 1927, the Indians tried out George Gerkin, Bernie Niles, Baby Doll Jacobson, Pat McNulty and Elton Langford in an effort to replace the Texas Gray Eagle, but none could come even close to giving a fair imitation of the great Tris.

In Morgan, however, Manager Roger Peckinpaugh believes he has the makings of a great ball player. The boy can hit, and shows speed on the bases. Peckinpaugh says he needs a year or so to show the proper finish as an outfielder.

A year ago at the time, Morgan was in college. He pumped right out of his collegiate uniform to the top of the New Orleans club of the Southern Association. His batting and base running were great factors in the Pelicans' capture of the Southern Association pennant. He finished the season with a batting average of .354, making 215 hits that included 38 doubles, 14 triples and 12 home runs.

He batted in 19 home runs, scored 115 times and stole 24 bases.

Morgan cost the Cleveland club, four players, including Pitcher Benny Karr and Third Baseman Whitney, now with the Phillies, in addition to an outlay of cash. He's 23 years old.

Appearing at the White City, she was bitten in the right thumb by a large tiger snake. She continued her act, however, without the audience knowing of the incident. After the curtain was down she fainted and was taken to a hospital.

SENATE STANDS PAT ON S-4 INVESTIGATION
 Washington, March 26.—(AP)—The Senate stood pat today in its demand that a Congressional Committee investigate the sinking of the Submarine S-4 last December and turned down a compromise offer from the house that a presidential commission with some membership from Congress make the inquiry.

SPORTS SLANTS

By ALAN J. GOULD

New York, March 26.—(AP)—Professor Miller Huggins expects the American League race this season to be a three cornered affair while his metropolitan rival, Dr. Joan McGraw, who holds by popular assent the degree of master mind, believes that five clubs will be in the thick of the National League scramble.

Two such weighty opinions command a proper amount of recognition but they do not quite dovetail with the general views. These are that it will be no more than a double barrel affair in the American with the Athletics as the main menace to the Yankees, and that probably six clubs will fight it out in the National mele.

Huggins looks for Washington as well as the Mackmen to furnish the Yankees some real trouble. Some of the other observers include Detroit in their pennant reckoning. In the comparative safety of predictions thus far in advance of the actual season, however, it looks as though the Athletics will be the contenders-in-chief.

The little Yankee pilot has never been prone to over-confidence not even when his mighty Yankees had upwards of a ten game lead, which they were steadily lengthening last season, did Huggins permit himself to appear optimistic. Like the ancient crack about "stags fearing purple" Huggins was always "fearing" some rival uprising that never materialized.

In an unguarded moment toward the close when only a train wreck could have stopped the Yankees, Huggins did yield to the extent of remarking that "It looks as though the club will win if it keeps up its present pace." Afterward he was said to have regretted even this utterance.

McGraw figures on the five clubs that battled it out in 1927 to dominate the National League race this year. The veteran Giant chieftain does not include the Boston Braves in this reckoning. Like most of the other observers he dismissed Brooklyn and Philadelphia as real pennant threats.

Brooklyn, even if it has nothing more than a powerful pitching staff, will be troublesome. The Johnny Risko of the league; apt to upset any well laid rival plans but the Braves are shaping up like real contenders. It happens that the Boston club is gathering strength at a time when the National League has as powerful a set of clubs as it has ever known. But the team will have driving power, if Hornsby is up to his usual standard and plenty of sharp shooting from the pitching corps.

At the pace they have been hitting in training George Sisler of the Senators, and Kiki Cuyler of the Cubs, may be back among the contenders and batting championship honors this year.

The switch to new fields seems to have inspired these two. Should either or both climb to the top of the hitting heap it would be among the season's most dramatic turns.

Cuyler, at odds with the Pirate management last year, dropped to the lowest figure of his big league career, while Sisler, in the wholesale shakeup of the Browns, was sold for a mere $15,000 to Washington.

In his first year as a Pirate reg-

Little Giant

THURSTON DEAN

COLLEGE PARK, Md., (AP)—Thurston Dean of the University of Maryland basketball team was one of the lightest guards playing regularly with a leading college quintet. Five feet, nine inches tall, he weighs only 118 pounds but enough endurance is packed into his slight frame to keep him going at top speed for the full 40 minutes of a game.

Dean, playing his second year with the varsity, was a big factor in the success of the Old Liners who won a majority of their games.

In 1924, Cuyler was among the leading five hitters of the National League with a mark of .354 and boosted this three points the next year.

Sisler has never been the same at bat since he was stricken by sinus trouble after burning up the American League with a mark of .420 in 1922. It would be miraculous comeback for him to club his way anywhere near the top.

PROMINENT CHARLOTTE JEWELER DIES TODAY

Charlotte, March 26.—(AP)—Manuel Berger age 45 one of the city's most prominent jewelers, died today at noon, at his home 26 Darncuth place. Heart trouble was given as the cause of his death. He had suffered an attack of this Malady about a month ago, but Saturday a marked improvement was noted in his condition. However, a relapse occurred shortly afterward and became worse early this morning.

Funeral services had not been arranged this afternoon, but close friends said that the body would probably be taken to Norfolk, Mr. Berger's former home for burial.

Mr. Berger held a unique place in the city, in that he was extremely popular in civic clubs and fraternal orders including the American Legion and gave liberally of his time and history abilities in furthering endeavors of the organization to which he held membership. He was a 32 degree Mason, a Shriner and one of the instigators of the King Solomon club of the excelsior Lodge A. F. and A. M.

Mr. Berger came here about three years ago from Norfolk, Va., where he was a member of the firm of Jacob Bennett, Inc. He organized the firm of Manuel Berger, Inc., and was its president at the time of his death.

He is survived by his widow and a daughter, Lorraine, who is now a student at Central High School.

"THE STUDENT PRINCE" COMING TO WHITE'S

"The Student Prince" at White's Theatre today and tomorrow, is a story the world loves: a story that has been played in every corner of the world—and as a screen play it makes history. Ramon Novarro and Norma Shearer have added a new triumph to the screen as a whole—and have given the silent drama a new classic.

The cast is splendidly chosen. Jean Hersholt, famous character actor, plays the lovable Dr. Juttner, the sympathetic old tutor, with a deft certainty of characterization that makes his role a living thing. Edward Connelly, as the prime minister, the exact antithesis of this character, gives a splendid portrayal. George K. Arthur adds comedy in the student revel scenes and Lionel Belmont, Otis Harlan, Gustav Von Seyffertitz, Elythe Chapman and the rest of the principals are convincingly genuine.

The settings are gorgeous. The Heidelberg garden, with the huge castle frowning down upon it from the hills in the distance and a whole town laid out along the banks of the river beyond, is an elaborate piece of scenic construction.

Send in your name today for Greenville's new sub-division, $25.00 in Gold will be given to the sender of the most appropriate name. H. A. White & Sons, Realtors.

The second week's session of a two weeks' term of Pitt County Superior Court, for the trial of civil cases which convened in this city last Monday morning with Judge Henry A. Grady, of Clinton, presiding, began work this morning with numbers of cases awaiting consideration.

While only a few cases were actually disposed of last week, the session was considered mighty successful in that many minor matters were gotten out of the way, leaving the decks clear for more concerted effort in future sessions.

None of the cases this week were of any outstanding importance and are not expected to require more than ordinary time in final disposition.

ABOUT TOWN

"Williamston has one of the best Christian Federations in the state," K. W. Cobb, member of the local Men's Federation, said this morning in referring to the meeting conducted at the Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon by the Williamston organization.
 "About sixty members came over from the Martin county town and assisted in providing a meeting Greenville will not soon forget. The crowd was not quite as large as it might have been, but enthusiasm was manifested on all sides and both federations got considerable inspiration out of the service."
 "We are planning to make another shipment of hogs some time this week," E. F. Arnold, secretary of the Pitt County Department of Agriculture, told the writer of this column this morning.
 "This will make the second carload during the year. We are planning to ship eight carloads in all. This should result in quite a nice sum of money flowing into the pockets of Pitt county planters for use during the summer months and ought to enable them to get by any dull period in great style."
 "We have been advocating the raising of poultry and hogs as extra money crops for a number of years, but not until recently have our planters become sufficiently interested to give the plan a fair trial. The experiment has proven so successful we hope to see activities greatly increased by next season."

Government Regulations Greatly Improve Listener's Chance of Hearing Programs

Map shows the allocation of radio zones which are in effect under the new bill and will help to eradicate interference. Herbert Hoover (center) is largely responsible for these arrangements. Commissioners Pickard, Eys, La Fount and Caldwell will see that the regulations are carried out.

Edison says those who sleep the longest know the least. He should have added, "about their neighbors."

CLEAN-UP WEEK

This week has been designated as Clean-Up Week in Greenville, and it is hoped that every citizen will give his or her hearty co-operation. Surely there is something about everyone's premises—that is no good and in the way and should be hauled away, and this is the time to get it done. Ridding the city of rubbish at this time will do much to prevent mosquitoes during the coming hot weather and will also do a lot toward preventing unnecessary fires that often originate in piles of trash and the like. Let's make it a real clean-up week and make our city safer and healthier as well as more sightly.

FOR THOSE TO COME

It was a great day Saturday in Snow Hill, is the report of all those who attended the unveiling of a monument on the spot that marked the end of the Tuscarora war. North Carolina, and especially Eastern North Carolina, is rich in history, and we are indeed glad to see the D. A. R. and similar organizations, thru their efforts, preserving the memorable events for the generations yet unborn. There is no historic spot in the state that should not be marked in a way that it will last for generations and we urge a continuation of the great work along this line now being carried on by these loyal women of our state.

ALONG THE HIGHWAY

Certain civic organizations in the state are urging the removal of all unsightly signboards from beside the state highways except those necessary for highway travel, and such a movement would surely do much to beautify our state. Through the gaps between billboards is the only view that motorists can get of the countryside along certain of our highways now and this should not be so. A careful study of the situation by certain of the large advertisers of the nation has convinced them that the value of the signboard as an advertising medium is nil, and already they are discontinuing the use of them. It is to be hoped that they will follow suit until the stage has been reached that persons riding over the highways to see the country will be able to really see it.

"I find that the coming of 'Billy' Sunday to Greenville, April 22, is receiving more than passing interest in all sections of the state," a local traveling man told the writer of this column today following his return from a trip to the extreme eastern sections of the state.
 "This means we are going to have thousands of visitors while the great evangelist is holding forth, and that Greenville people will have to get up and hustle to handle the crowds. The crowds will be orderly of course, but traffic cops will have to be on the job to avoid anything that would have a tendency of leaving an unpleasant taste in the mouth of any of the visitors."
 "Greenville has never fallen down in the way of providing entertainment for her visitors, and it is hardly likely they will be found wanting during this campaign the greatest of its kind ever held in the state."
 "The baseball schedule for the Northeastern Athletic association has just been announced," O. W. Porter, director of athletics of Greenville high school, told the writer of this column today.
 "That the arrangement of these games will meet with general satisfaction throughout the district served by the conference we have not the slightest doubt. All facts in connection with the coming baseball season were discussed at a recent meeting of the conference held in the city sometime ago. All members at that time seemed to be highly gratified at success of baseball season and predicted similar success for the baseball season."
 "With continued splendid co-operation of all seventeen towns comprising the conference, there is every reason to believe baseball season will be far more satisfactory than any other season in years. We hope so, at least, and are working with that end in view."
 "Improvements in the baseball park at the fair grounds are progressing rapidly," Deacon Joliff, manager of the Greenville club of the Eastern Carolina league, told the writer of this column today.
 "When the improvements are completed we will have one of the best parks to be found anywhere in Eastern North Carolina. It will be capable of caring for the largest crowds of the season without the slightest evidence of congestion."
 "With training season rapidly approaching, we are endeavoring to work out all plans in connection with operation of the club, and believe we shall be able to open the season without the slightest hitch. With co-operation from the fans and families of the city, we are confident of making a splendid showing throughout the entire season."
 "Greenville may not be the biggest town in the state, but it is an mighty good place to live in," an old resident remarked to the writer of this column today "I have wandered from one section of the country to another during my life but I never found any town that appealed as Greenville does. It may be because old associations have endeared the community to me, or that I am becoming sentimental in my old age, but in either case, I am confident this thriving community is destined to take its rightful place among the industrial sections of the nation. We have the possibilities, and with faith implanted in the hearts of our citizenship, nothing can prevent our realizing the great ambition."

"We are planning to make another shipment of hogs some time this week," E. F. Arnold, secretary of the Pitt County Department of Agriculture, told the writer of this column this morning.
 "This will make the second carload during the year. We are planning to ship eight carloads in all. This should result in quite a nice sum of money flowing into the pockets of Pitt county planters for use during the summer months and ought to enable them to get by any dull period in great style."
 "We have been advocating the raising of poultry and hogs as extra money crops for a number of years, but not until recently have our planters become sufficiently interested to give the plan a fair trial. The experiment has proven so successful we hope to see activities greatly increased by next season."

(By Oscar Watson)
 Russia's proposal for immediate and complete disarmament by the nations of the world, went by the board last week in the sessions of the preparatory disarmament commission of the League of Nations. There was an overwhelming sentiment among the delegates against any such radical move, and even a second plan, proposed by Maxim Litvinoff, head of the Soviet delegation, for gradual disarmament, was unacceptable, and will be referred to the various governments.
 Though invited to join with Russia on this proposal the United States, represented by Hugh S. Gibson, ambassador to Belgium, declined the invitation, and Mr. Gibson explained that in seeking the outlawry of war, his government was only taking steps in the way of preparation for disarmament.
 The British delegate, Lord Cushden, repeated Great Britain's proposal, first made at the tri-partite naval conference at Geneva last year, for a reduction of small battleships smaller guns and longer life for capital ships before being replaced.
 The commission adjourned, after having rejected a resolution presented by Count Bernstorff, of Germany, asking that a date be fixed for disarmament conference, and will meet again only at the call of the chairman when he finds that the governments are in a fair way to settle their divergencies on naval armament.
 Spain has returned to the League of Nations at the request of the League council, and Brazil has promised to cooperate fully with the League, notwithstanding the fact that she is officially withdrawing from the body.
 Premier Mussolini called upon all Blackshirts in Italy to be "on guard." In felicitating thousands of Italian youth who are entering the political and military ranks of the fascists he told them that millions of men constituted the defense of the fascist revolution and he urged them to live up to the slogan of the Arditi.
 Actual settlement of the Tangier

Zone question has not yet been reached, although there is a tentative agreement between Spain and France. These two countries, together with Italy and Great Britain, have been in conference in Paris. The ratification of the latter countries is necessary for completion of the settlement, and divergencies of opinion between France and Italy are reported.
 The Latin-American countries figured prominently in the news with an earthquake in Mexico that shook a large section of the country and did some damage to the American Embassy in Mexico City, the petroleum controversy over which Ambassador Morrow and the Mexican ministry of industry and commerce Luis Marones, conferred and fighting between Federal and Insurgents in which the Insurgents fared badly; ratification of the treaty between Columbia and Peru whereby Columbia cedes to Peru the Putumayo territory, once the subject to dispute and a turbulent campaign in Argentina over the coming presidential elections.
 In Nicaragua President Diaz issued a decree establishing American supervision over the presidential election in October. The decree was made necessary because the Nicaraguan congress had refused to pass the election bill, which provides for such control, under Brig. General McCoy.

Market Report Cotton-Stocks-Grain

NEW YORK COTTON New York, March 26.—(AP)—Reports of showers or rains in the eastern belt over Monday, and reiterated reports of a steady spot situation seemed responsible for advances in the cotton market today.

All active months made new high ground for the movement, selling about 20 to 25 points above Saturday's closing quotations. There seemed a little more cotton for sale at this advance but the mid-afternoon market was holding within 7 or 8 points of the best.

Futures closed steady 4 to 14 points higher; spot quiet; middling 20.00.

STOCK MARKET New York, March 26.—(AP)—Speculation for the advance ran rampant again in today's stock market. General Motors, with a gain of 7 1/2 points at a new price of 197 1/2 retained the leadership of the "bull" movement which broadened out to include the railroad shares.

There was little in the day's news to influence the price movement of securities. The brisk rise in Motors apparently was in further reflection of the optimistic Raskos statement last week.

Heavy accumulation of the rails probably was due in part to commission house advice suggesting a switching of commitments from industrials. Reviewed rumors of a higher dividends this year accompanied the rise in New York Central which closed 175 for the first time in its history.

Some irregularity developed among the specialties. Sharp gains in American Power and Light, Lambert, Montgomery Ward, Sears Roebuck, International Nickel and national Cash Register were offset by the weakness of U. S. Cast Iron Pipe Victor Talking Machine convertible preferred and Adams Express.

Virginia Lauds Byrd For Plan To Modernize State Government

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Another outstanding accomplishment is added to the record of the famous "Tom, Dick and Harry" brothers of Virginia, and this time the honor goes to the last of the trio—Governor Harry Flood Byrd.

Within two years of his inauguration as one of the youngest governors in the history of the Old Dominion, he has finished his legislative "program of progress," which embodies virtual reorganization of the machinery of state government, embracing abolition of approximately 2,500 offices and boards and a reduction in taxes of more than $1,000,000.

Now he is going before the voters for final adoption of the program in the form of constitutional amendments at an election, June 19. The administrative proposals form the gamut of three legislative sessions with so little opposition that "Byrd's Slogan" became the talk of Virginia and surrounding states.

So complete was the harmony of the 1928 session that every item was cleared from the calendars and the lawmakers tendered the young governor a "harmony banquet."

Byrd's program vitalizes the state as a corporation with the governor as the board of directors and the 2,500,000 citizens as stockholders. It calls for coordination of departments, larger appointive powers for the executive, and department heads which function with the governor just as the president's cabinet functions in the national government.

One amendment permits the governor to appoint the superintendent of public instruction, the treasurer, the commissioner of agriculture and the secretary of state. The state reserves certain subjects of taxation, surrendering taxes on land and personal tangible property. It is the first time since 1776 that Virginia's tax laws have been codified.

Tax reduction is brought about by lowering the rate on capital in business, removing the tax on stock of non-resident corporations and giving credit in income tax for contributions to charity.

Increased appropriations are provided for schools and state institutions. The Shenandoah National Park alone is given $1,000,000. Larger appropriations for construction of state highways are provided by an increase to five cents a gallon in the gasoline tax. All special funds are abolished and all collections must go through the general treasury for disbursement.

The governor had the advice of Col. Charles A. Linderb and his brother, Commander Richard Evelyn Byrd, in his plans for aviation which contemplate a network of landing fields in all parts of the state. Localities are to furnish sites and the state highway department is to put them into condition. All planes must be licensed.

Cross breeding usually should be confined to production of animals for the market with no thought of using them for breeding stock. The crossbred animal usually is larger and more vigorous than either parent, but attempts to continue breeding from the crossbreds usually are disappointing. The hereditary material in the cross is too complex to make the results of mating reliable.

Cows due to freshen soon should be removed from the rest of the herd and placed in a roomy box stall from which all manure has been removed and the floors and walls of which have been scraped or scrubbed and sprayed with a good disinfectant. The stall should be kept free from drafts and well bedded. A small pasture, conveniently located so that the cow and calf can be given the proper attention makes an ideal calving place during the warm summer months.

REED MOVES FIGHT SOUTH

Missourian will Speak in Raleigh Tomorrow and at University Wednesday.

High Point, N. C., March 26.—(AP)—United States Senator James A. Reed brought his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for the Presidency into the south today.

The Missourian will go to Raleigh tomorrow and on Wednesday will address students at the University of North Carolina. Thursday night he will speak at Asheville and then will go into Tennessee. A tentative engagement at Charlotte was cancelled because of lack of time.

Arriving here at 10 o'clock this morning Mr. Reed was the guest of trends until time for his address tonight.

His visit of Senator Reed to North Carolina assumed unusual interest in this State as a result of a poll of members of Congress officials and state political leaders taken by Sanford Martin, Editor of the Winston-Salem Journal and Sentinel on the candidacy of Gov. A. Smith. Pollsters report to Mr. Martin's telegrams show that of something like thirty officials and political leaders asked as to their views only two favored the candidacy of the New York Governor.

At Raleigh, Gov. McLean is expected to introduce Senator Reed, who will speak before a conference of Daughters of the American Revolution. The Governor is due in New York for a conference on Wednesday but dispatches from Raleigh last night said the chief executive of the state would like to postpone the New York conference until Saturday. If he cannot do this he may introduce the speaker and leave immediately for the train.

Airplane Carrier Has Tight Squeeze In Panama Locks

Balboa, Canal Zone, March 26.—(AP)—Damaged locks and the scraped sides of the U. S. S. Lexington today testified to the difficulty the giant aircraft carrier had in passing through the Panama Canal.

A high wind blowing at the time of the journey yesterday made the handling of the big vessel difficult.

Three heavy concrete lamposts were torn down as the ship passed through the three chambers of the Gatun locks at the Atlantic end of the canal. As she started down to the Pacific at the Pedro Miguel lock another lampost was demolished and a heavy steel handrail running along the top of the lock crushed.

The ship which is 106 feet across at its widest point and 388 feet long, had a narrow margin of clearance and was scraped. The locks are 110 feet wide and 1,900 feet long.

The Lexington got through the canal in less time than the aircraft carrier Saratoga, which is of the same size, taking twelve hours while it took the Saratoga three days to pass from Cristobal to Balboa.

Two Killed When Automobile Wrecks

Richmond, Va., March 26.—(AP)—Two persons lost their lives and two others were seriously injured when a small coupe tore into a Concrete Bridge abutment on the Richmond-Washington highway two miles north of Solomons store early today. The wreckage afterward caught fire burning the two bodies beyond recognition.

The dead, Thomas W. Little, Richmond, Life Insurance agent, and a young woman introduced in Charlottesville yesterday as Miss "Babe" Wilkinson.

Miss Thelma Deal McKel of Richmond and Archer Little, brother of Thomas Little and Medical student at the University of Virginia, were internally injured. Hospital authorities here, where they were brought, declared Miss McKel's condition critical. She also suffered severe burns.

Butler, chairman of the Republican National Committee, as a delegate to the National Convention, by Dr. Hubert Work, campaign manager for Herbert Hoover, was announced today by Robert M. Washburn, President of the Roosevelt club. Mr. Butler heads the party "slate" of seven candidates for delegates at large from Massachusetts, all of whom were unpledged. The Presidential primary comes on April 24. Dr. Work endorsed Butler on the ground that he is chairman of the National Committee, Washburn said.

Anti-Lowden Thrust By Thompson Enlivens Campaign In Illinois

Candidacy of Mrs. Medill McCormick (above) for republican nomination as representative at large, the quest of Senator Frank L. Smith (right) for re-nomination, and an effort to draft Coolidge, sponsored by Mayor Thompson of Chicago, shown below with Gov. Len Small, feature the Illinois primaries April 10. Thompson would prevent instruction of republican delegates to former Gov. Frank O. Lowden, only presidential candidate in the primary.

CHICAGO (AP)—Illinois may show the country what the voters think of President Coolidge's "do not choose to run" statement.

In the preferential primary April 10, only one presidential candidate will be voted upon—Frank O. Lowden, republican, the state's own son. But Mayor William Hale Thompson, of Chicago in his usual picturesque manner has sponsored a method to determine what the thermometer reads on Mr. Coolidge, and asks the voters to refrain from instructing a delegation.

A United States senator, Frank L. Smith, duly elected but refused office because of the source and size of his campaign contributions, is before the republican voters asking re-nomination.

Another feature of national interest is the campaign of Mrs. Medill McCormick, daughter of Mark Hanna, for republican nomination as congressman-at-large.

No democratic presidential candidates qualified and there are campaigns of various sizes on to have voters write in the names of their favorite presidential candidates.

Mayor Thompson, after returning from Washington where he had lunch with Mr. Coolidge, asserted that the voters should draft the president. The Cook County convention placed itself on record in agreement.

Thompson and Lowden have been political enemies for years. Thompson has made the statement that he has a slate of national convention delegates in each county, favorable to him, which means unfavorable to Lowden.

Those who believe about President Coolidge as Thompson does have been asked to vote for these delegates and refrain from marking the direct ballot for Lowden. The move, if successful, would mean at least an uncommitted delegation.

Thus, with but one candidate on the ballot, there is a fight for the state's 58 delegates to the republican convention. Democrats are entitled to the same number of delegates.

Frank L. Smith, Dwight banker, elector United States senator and then denied admission to the senate, is opposed for the republican nomination by Otis F. Glenn, Murphysboro, attorney and former member of the Illinois legislature.

Mrs. McCormick, who has conducted a vigorous campaign, stumping the state from end to end, seeks the seat of either incumbent congressman-at-large—Henry R. Rathbone or Richard Yates.

Of next importance to the balloting on national issues is the candidacy of Governor Len Small for a third term. Small and Thompson aligned forces, thus cementing the

Sheriff Arrested Contempt Senate

Philadelphia, March 26.—(AP)—Thomas W. Cunningham, sheriff of Philadelphia county and treasurer of the Republican State Committee surrendered to a deputy sergeant of arms of the United States Senate today on the warrant issued last Saturday charging him with contempt of the Senate.

Cunningham's arrest is the outgrowth of his refusal to tell the Reed Senate special investigating committee the source of the $50,000 he contributed to the campaign funds of Senator-elect William S. Vare in the 1926 primary.

Immediately after the arrest Congressman Benjamin M. Golder, counsel for Cunningham, went before Judge Oliver B. Dickinson in the Federal District Court and filed a petition for a writ of habeas corpus discharging the sheriff from the custody of the Senate.

REDISCOVER TRAIL OF HERNANDEZ DE SOTO

Cigters, (G.), March 25.—(AP)—A trail left almost four hundred years ago by Hernando de Soto, in his Northward march from Florida in search of Gold and riches, is thought to have been rediscovered in the past few days by a modern archaeological.

The Hill, guard and part of a blade on a iron sword, unearthed from an Indian mound near here, are the new major pieces to the Spanish Conquistador's peregrinations and have been located by Dr. Warren K. Moorehead, head of the Department of Archaeology of Phillips Academy, Andover, Mass.

This relic was found beside the location of an Indian grave, in the excavations of a Covenantal Hut which Dr. Moorehead has been exploring during his recent investigations of the Indian civilization of the Towah tribes, who inhabited these parts.

That the Iron Sword is a relic to De Soto's march from the sea Northwestward in quest of Gold is based primarily on the already established fact that the Indians of that era and region had mastered the use of only flint and stone, with an occasional Modicum of Copper for ornamental reasons.

History, and diaries ascribed to members of De Soto's party have recorded that he visited the Indian city of Chichia (Now conceded to be Rome, Ga.) in 1540 and that he remained there for 27 days, one of the longest stops in his trek Westward to the Mississippi, where he died. Rome is only a few miles from here.

Dr. Moorehead, who has been conducting his experiments in this region at odd times during the past four years, has also located solid stone graves of aborigines about fourteen miles from here, which he has not disturbed, awaiting completion of his present activities.

ing children, and gradually will stop hanging women, and finally will STOP HANGING. And men, astonished, will see crime diminish.

If each would stick to his family and his people as Julius Rosenwald does there would be fewer poor houses and less misery.

Mr. Rosenwald gave $5,000,000 to buy farming land for his co-religionists in Russia, largest gift ever made by an individual for Jewish relief abroad.

The ignorant, associate Jew, with clothing, real estate, etc., ask "can Jews succeed at farming?" they ought to. Abraham pastured his flocks and herds long before the "anglo-saxon" farming came into existence.

It may be added that Mr. Rosenwald's many gifts are distinctly non-racial and confined to those of his own race. He is one of the largest contributors in America to work of the Young Men's Christian Association, Red Cross, Etc.

Sir Oliver Lodge, learned in science says "human beings came from some reservoir of life where they had no identity. Each given an earthly body to develop individually." Interesting, but how did they get into the reservoir?
