

LOCALS GET FULL CARD THIS WEEK

The Greenville baseball club of the Eastern Carolina league left today for Washington where this afternoon they will play the ball club of that place. With three consecutive victories checked up to their credit, the Tobacconists were confident of annexing this afternoon's contest.

The 10 to 8 victory over Atlantic Christian College at Wilson Saturday afternoon boosted the stock of the local club to no little extent, and club supporters were today looking forward to the five exhibition games with more than general interest. The first of these games will be played at the fair grounds here tomorrow afternoon with Durham of the Piedmont League. Raleigh will appear here Wednesday and Greensboro Thursday. Ayden Highs come Friday and Winston-Salem on Saturday.

The games with the four clubs of the Piedmont League are being looked forward to with considerable speculation, especially since the Tobacconists victory over the Raleigh Capitals last week. It is believed they will be able to make as good a showing against the other Piedmont clubs, and that local fans will be given the best opportunity of the season to judge of the brand of ball they are to witness this year.

While the Tobacconists' victory of Atlantic Christian College Saturday came as a mild surprise, it was not altogether unexpected. Some thought the club that defeated the Medical College of Virginia after that team had defeated the locals would be able to administer a crushing defeat in Saturday's contest, but somehow, the god of the diamond stayed with "Deacon" Joffe and his crew and enabled them to wield the willow against the Christians at opportune moments.

Consensus of opinion prevails in many sections that Greenville has one of the fastest clubs of the recently organized Eastern Carolina League. This is based upon activities of the other clubs and the ability of the locals to win against apparently overwhelming odds. The games here this week are a source of more than passing interest, and it is expected large crowds will be in attendance each day.

ROCKY MOUNT BASEBALL CLUB IS INCORPORATED

Raleigh, April 16.—(AP)—Organized baseball was officially assured for Rocky Mount in the new East Carolina League today when a charter was granted by the state to the Rocky Mount Sporting Association, Inc.

The authorized capital stock was $50,000, with $30,000 subscribed by W. E. Fenner, C. E. Minges and W. B. Lea, all of Rocky Mount.

FURMAN AND BAPTISTS TO CLASH AT CAPITAL

Raleigh, April 16.—(AP)—An early sun today favored the rain-soaked diamond on which N. C. State College and Furman were scheduled to have their first meeting of the year.

State College, taking great bounds toward the baseball state "Big Five" championship, has defeated Wake Forest and Duke and Carolina, and Davidson remain in the path of the Tens. Either Rowe or Shore were slated to start today's game for the Tech since All-good pitched Saturday.

Baker to Fight Alger

New York, April 16.—(AP)—Sammy Baker, the fighting sergeant from Mitchell Field will oppose Billy Algier of Phoenix, Ariz., in a ten round bout at the St. Nicholas arena here tonight. The victor will receive consideration to figure as a challenger for the welterweight title now held by Joe Dundee.

Homer By A Rookie; Work Of Cohen, Judge Mark Opening Games

These four furnished opening game fireworks. Freddy Maguire (center), rookie second baseman of the Cubs, made a homer in his first big league game. Joe Judge (left above), Washington, made four hits in four times up, thus taking the lead in his fight with George Sider for the first base job. John McGraw (right above) surprised the fans by appearing in full uniform, while Andy Cohen (below) outshone Rogers Hornsby, whose shoes he is filling.

New York, (AP)—Three big league ball players who opened the 1928 season with a bang were Fred Maguire of the Cubs, a rookie second baseman; Joe Judge of the Senators, veteran first sacker; and the young and spectacular Andy Cohen of the Giants.

Playing his first regular big league game Maguire hit when was probably the first home run of the season as the Cubs opened against Cincinnati. It saved them from a shutout. Maguire is the lad of 27 who was brought up from the Toledo club to fill the shoes of Sparky Adams who was traded to the Pirates.

In the Senators' opening game against the Red Sox, Judge made four hits in four times up, thus starting off perfectly in his attempt to hold his first base job against the assaults of George Sider who was acquired from the Browns last winter.

Perhaps most spectacular of all on the opening day was Andy Cohen, the Buffalo International star of last year, who has been picked to fill the shoes of Rogers Hornsby at second base for the Giants. The two second sackers were arrayed against each other in the Braves-Giants opener and Andy more than held his own.

Handy Andy made three hits in four times at bat, had a hand in every one of his team's five winning runs and covered his sector of the infield like the dew.

Not all of the surprises were contributed by the players. Manager John McGraw of the Giants stirred the multitudes by appearing in full uniform when his team took the field, something Jawn has not been accustomed to do in recent years.

Your car washed and greased. Call phone 107. Blue Bird Filling Station.

passed their prime, the national league's left handed talent hasn't been much to write home about.

The older circuit hasn't produced any portenders in recent years to match the American League crop that includes such acts as Hero Francoeur, Moose Grove, Rube Walberg, Joe Shantz, Tom Zachary, Earl Whitehill and some up and coming youngsters. This group has been carrying on where Rube was, and where Hank left off.

The national has few first class southpaws and Brooklyn has three of them—Pety, Elliott, and Clark. Willie Sherdel of the Cardinals is an old reliable and Nehf will help him the portside prestige, if he continues the way he started. The Reds have a capable Leftie in Jackie Mey; while the Comets have a youngster of sensational promise in Bill Walker.

The Pirates won the National League flag last year without a southpaw on their roster worth mentioning and are working under the same handicap this season.

The most widely ballyhooed club in the minor leagues this year, the Newark Internationals, will start their season Wednesday without their manager and biggest drawing card—Old Barney Johnson. The former Washington veteran is still in the hospital list. Optimistic hopes are held that he will be able at least to sit on the bench by May. Not only is this doubtful, however, but is unlikely Sir Walter will be in condition to pitch at all this year.

Meanwhile Johnson's old Washington club mate, George McBride, is handling the managerial helm and an imposing array of ex-big leaguers, among them McQuillan, Lutzke, Bentley, and Fournier, will start the pennant quest.

"The cult of the olympic hero" forms the text for opposition to this year's international games, voiced by a Dutch Church which thinks there is too much exaltation of the athletic victor.

It is a salient point. The crowd cheers the winner, not the runner up who may have been only a foot or two behind in the heart-breaking finish.

Most fans can recall off-hand the winners of the 100 and 200 metre sprint races four years ago but how many can name the second men without consulting the record books, or the third?

It may be out of proportion but so long as winning happens to be the main goal and while the laurel wreath is put on the perspiring brow of the victor the situation isn't likely to change.

Sands to Appear at Aqueduct

New York, April 16.—(AP)—Earl Sandie will make his first appearance of the season at Aqueduct on Thursday at the opening of the United Hunt's Racing Association's spring meeting. He will have a mount in the $5,000 initial handicap.

Dempsy's Protege To Get Test

How dangerous is that hefty right? Armand Emmanuel, its owner, will answer the question April 23 in a San Francisco ring with Mike McTigue (inset), the most experienced opponent he has faced. Jack Dempsey is sponsor for the young lawyer-fighter and calls him a comer with heavyweight championship possibilities.

San Francisco (AP)—Armand Emmanuel, lawyer-fighter protege of Jack Dempsey, and Mike McTigue, two glove artists on the extreme opposite ends of ring-age and experience will trade leather for ten rounds here April 23, fighting as light heavies.

To 22-year-old Emmanuel, the bout is the most important of his career. To the veteran McTigue, nearing 40, it is just another fight. The San Francisco youngster, former national amateur title holder, has not been defeated in his 26 professional bouts while McTigue, former light heavyweight champion and veteran of 123-odd battles, can still hold up his end by dint of clever boxing and footwork.

Dempsy, sponsor for Emmanuel, believes his charge has more than an even chance eventually to enter the front rank of heavyweight championship contenders. Although on the down grade, the cagey McTigue, with a bag full of ring tricks, is expected to extend Emmanuel to the limit.

FRISCH'S BAT SETTING NEW RECORD MARK

(By the Associated Press)

Frankie Frisch, Cards second baseman, who was the fielding sensation in the major leagues last season, threatens to distract some of the batting laurels from Messrs. Ruth, Gehrig et al in the present pennant races.

Away to a vigorous start the former Giants star hit his third home run yesterday which aided in the St. Louis victory over the Cubs by 4 to 3. Frisch also cracked a triple with one aboard in the seventh which produced what proved to be the deciding run.

Pittsburgh arose into the winning ranks for the first time in the 1928 campaign, the Reds falling victims by 2 to 2. Cincinnati made six safeties off the combined efforts of pitchers Dawson and Hill.

At New York the Giants rapped three Philadelphia twirlers for 12 hits to hang up an 6 to 1 decision. Frank O'Doul had a big day with the McGrawmen, blazing out with a pair of doubles and a homer. Brooklyn dropped Rogers Hornsby and the Braves by 3 to 2, southpaw Clark of Terre Haute shading

Dutch Brandt, recruit from the Pacific Coast, in a pitchers battle.

Fans are remembering the advice of President Barnard of the American League: "Watch the Browns." Sam Gray stopped the White Sox with six scattered hits while the Howeymen of St. Louis gapped off with their fourth straight by a score of 4 to 1.

Through some sparkling pitching from Joseph Billings, Detroit took the Indians into camp, 6 to 2, thumping Brown and Beckve for ten safeties. Billings held the Cleveland batsmen to five hits.

Goose Goslin featured in the Washington triumph over the Red Sox, 6 to 5, by hammering out a home run in the third inning with two runners on the paths.

The Philadelphia Athletics romped off with a 9 to 7 verdict over the Newark Internationals in an exhibition. Ruth and Gehrig connected with a circuit wallop apiece as the Yanks tripped up the Baltimore Orioles 5 to 2.

EARNARD SEES BIG FUTURE FOR BROWNS

Chic ago, April 16.—(AP)—E. S. Barnard of the American League stood ace high as a forcaster of baseball today.

After a tour of league training camps, Barnard came back with a forecast that the rejuvenated St. Louis Browns would be a surprise in the pennant scramble. Yesterday the Browns took their fourth straight victory by beating the White Sox and are toying the circuit

ABOUT TOWN

"With four exhibition games scheduled for the local lot this week, Greenville fans should have an opportunity of getting a pretty good idea of what kind of ball club they are to have this season," a sportsman told the writer today.

"With three victories to their credit, the 'Tobaccoists' will start the week off with a splendid record of achievement, and with proper support from the public should be able to enter the league season with quite a reputation.

"Many changes may take place before the season actually gets under way, and the next week promises to see quite a number of developments in which the public will take more than passing interest.

"If you want the club to measure up to expectations, lend them your moral support in every game played on the home ground. The result will be more than gratifying.

"Pitt county farmers are urged to plant better grades of cotton seed this year and insure themselves of better prices for the staple," a prominent business man told the writer of this column this morning.

"The market is overstocked with the kind of cotton the majority of our farmers have been producing the last few years, and consequently prices have not been all they should. By planting the staple recommended by the department of agriculture, the situation should be greatly improved this year.

"If you are a cotton planter, be sure and plant what the market demands and rest assured of receiving prices in proportion to the demands of the market."

"The Greenville Merchants Association will begin a campaign to increase its membership this week," members of the organization informed the writer today.

"The association has greatly increased its scope of activities the last several months, and to continue the program of expansion it is necessary to get as many merchants as possible interested in our activities.

"If you are not a member, get in touch with the membership committee this week and keep step with the developments which the organization has under way."

"A two weeks' term of Pitt county Superior court, for the trial of civil and criminal cases, convened in this city today," court officials stated this morning, "and the session is expected to be one of the busiest in months.

"Numbers of charges of more or less interest to people in this and other parts of the county are contained on the calendar. They included violations of prohibition laws, traffic laws, and numbers of larceny charges.

"The report of the grand jury is looked forward to with more than general interest, although no outstanding recommendations are expected. The jurors always make a few findings which prove of more than passing interest, especially to those watching the functioning of the various departments of county government."

Anybody desiring to keep close tabs on current events should subscribe to the Reflector," an old subscriber remarked today.

"That leased wire service certainly keeps your readers informed about things happening in all parts of the world. I really didn't begin to appreciate how comprehensive those reports were until a few weeks ago when a certain happening in which I was interested was carried in your columns in detailed form, quite a bit ahead of other papers.

"The Reflector is keeping step with the rapid growth of Greenville and Pitt county, and the next few years should see just as many wonderful changes as the past several years."

 Under power of sale contained in deed of trust executed by Robert J. Cobb and wife, and delivered to Frederick Frelinghuysen, Trustee, which is recorded in Book T-10, page 212, Pitt County Registry, the under-signed will expose to public sale to the highest bidder for cash before the Court House door in Greenville, Pitt County, North Carolina, on Saturday, April 28, 1928, at 12 o'clock M. the following described real estate.

"That certain tract of land lying in the aforesaid state and county and in Belvoir Township, adjoining the lands of James W. Brewer heirs, J. J. Hathaway, Carolina Hyman, J. B. Bell and Godfrey A. Stancill and more particularly described as follows: Beginning on Tar River at a sycamore pointed by an elm and two hollies, runs north fifty-four degrees east eighteen chains and forty links to the Atkinson Canal in centre of gums and pines, thence up said canal as follows: north one degree and thirty minutes east two chains and fifty links, north four degrees west nine chains and ten links to creek, north seventy-six degrees and fifteen minutes east seven

A VENTURE INTO THE UNKNOWN
 The Arctic during the next few months promises to be full of airplanes and dirigibles. Capt. George H. Wilkins of Australia, and the world is the first to hop off in search of a "lost" continent. Later in the year Gen. Nobile of Italy intends to fly over the top of the world from Spitzbergen.

This is the third attempt Wilkins has made to solve the last remaining mystery of the North—whether or not land lies in that area, a million square miles in extent, between Alaska and the Pole. He is the first man to make a comprehensive reconnaissance from the air, and the first to attempt to alight on the ice—a hazardous undertaking in itself—to plumb the depths of the Arctic Ocean. One of the points he will try to reach is what Stefansson calls the "Inaccessible Pole"—the spot most distant from all the positions heretofore reached by the older methods of ice travel. By starting before the season of dense and impenetrable fog Wilkins should be able to see, from the inclosed cabin of his modern air cruiser, a hundred miles on either side. If there is land between Alaska and Spitzbergen, he ought to find it.

And if he does?—asks the utilitarian. "It will be fit only for polar bears." They said that about Spitzbergen—until they discovered coal and iron in close proximity to each other. And Spitzbergen is nearer the Pole

Woman Voters May Urge Registration Be Made Permanent

The National League of Women Voters is expected to consider a campaign for permanent registration of voters at its annual meeting in Chicago, April 23-28. Leaders in the convention include Miss Belle Sherwin (upper left), president; Mrs. Arthur Ringland, Washington (upper right), secretary; Miss Ruth Studebaker (lower left), third vice president; and Mrs. W. W. Ramsey, Chicago (lower right), fifth vice president.

Chicago, (AP)--A crusade for permanent registration of voters may be made nationally by the League of Women Voters. That is the only new legislative proposal advanced for adoption at the organization's annual meeting in Chicago April 23-28.

Five hundred politically-minded women will attend the gathering and of most importance will be the adoption of a program for study and legislation in the next two years and the election of a new national board to guide the league until 1930.

Study of the proportional representation system of electing public officials, regulation of public utilities, the need for legislation for child marriages, continuation and cooperative schools, the present status of the world court, interpretation of neutrality, and methods lessening temporary and seasonal unemployment are the outstanding new items for the 1928-1930 "study" program.

Proceeding over the convention will be Miss Belle Sherwin of Cleveland, who has been president of the league since 1924. Other board members who will have varying responsibilities in the convention program, are Miss Katharine Ladington of Lyme, Conn.; Miss Adelle Clark of Richmond, Va.; Miss Elizabeth of J. Hauser of Girard, O.; Mrs. W. W. Ramsey of Chicago; Mrs. Arthur Ringland of Washington, D. C.; and Mrs. Frank G. Hixon of Lake City, Fla.

In returning to Chicago for the 1928 convention, the league comes back to the scene of its birthplace in 1920. This is the first nationwide gathering since 1926, when the biennial meeting system was adopted.

D. A. R. MEET IN WASHINGTON

President Coolidge to Deliver Address at Session of Gathering Tonight.

Washington, April 16--(AP)--With President Coolidge heading its list of speakers for the first night session, the Daughters of the American Revolution assembled here today for their 37th Continental Congress amid much uncertainty whether the recent national defense controversy would be injected into the meeting.

Although the Congress' black-listing of certain national speakers regarded by it as undesirable and its support of the naval building bill, which led to much publicity on the part of opposition members, were not on the program for discussion, the way was open for precipitating the issue on the floor by any member who desired to attack the stand taken by the national officers.

In a pre-convention statement, which was handed all delegates, Mrs. Alfred J. Brosseau, President General, clearly defined the society's attitude on the question of defense and said she believed it had been misinterpreted in some quarters as militarism.

Mrs. Brosseau has laid to "a few Pacifists within the society who are not active members" the responsibility for the attack on its support of the navy building bill.

Mrs. Helen Tutus Ballie, of Boston, executive secretary of the "D. A. R. committee of protest," and reputed author of the pamphlet, "Our Threatened Heritage," which called for the President-General's statement, arrived in Washington last night for the Congress. She is neither a delegate nor alternate, but declared her intention to sit in the gallery at the auditorium at the opening.

Mrs. Brosseau dwelt on national defense in her address prepared for delivery in opening the Congress by restating its defense program. "Do not be deceived by the smoke screen that national defense in politics with which this organization should have 'no concern,'" she said in urging the women of the country to acquire a "thorough knowledge of great international issues."

Mrs. Brosseau also made a plea for increased education in "true Americanism" and constitutional principles for both the native and foreign born and urged the delegates to perform a solemn duty by taking an active part in the coming presidential campaign.

Man Killed When Fire Burns Hotel At Atlantic City

Atlantic City, N. J.--(AP)--An unidentified man was killed and six others men and two women were seriously injured today when fire destroyed the Iroquois hotel at South Carolina avenue and the boardwalk.

Ninety-eight persons were in the building. The injured included Celia Boyland, of Jersey City, who was believed to have fractured her spine in a leap from the third floor into a fireman's net.

Discovery shortly before 7 o'clock the flames spread quickly to the upper floors. The home of the late mayor Bader, on Ocean avenue was among the adjoining structures damaged.

Anxiety was dispelled when the Colonel explained he merely was seeking a larger landing field than was available at Williams to permit taking off with a full load of fuel. He then demonstrated the ground he selected could be used as an emergency field by taking off for Grand Canyon where he spent the night.

NEW YORK COTTON New York, April 16--(AP)--Reports of very unfavorable weather in the cotton belt over Sunday appeared to be offset in the cotton market today by prospects for improving conditions, and an opening advance of 3 to 6 points was followed by reactions. Active months sold about 20 to 22 points net lower under realizing and local selling but the volume of business tapered off at the decline and mid-afternoon prices showed rallies of 5 or 6 points for the lowest.

NEW YORK STOCKS New York, April 16--(AP)--The list of least resistance in today's stock market was downward. Renewal of selling pressure against General Motors, Radio and other recent speculative favorites, based in part on fears of an early increase in the federal reserve discount rates, inspired rather heavy selling throughout the general list. Pool operators endeavored to maintain bullish enthusiasm by bidding up a selected list of public utility, oil and automotive shares, a score of which mounted to new high ground, but they met stiff opposition.
