BEGIN RESCUE OF SUBMARINE CREW TODAY

Italian Submarine F-13 Sinks Following Collision With Destroyer.

Rome, Aug. 7.—(AP)—The crew of the Italian submarine F-13 sunk in the Adriatic when it collided with a destroyer, was still alive today. They were in communication with rescuers by means of a submarine telephone. Strenuous efforts were being made to supply air to 31 imprisoned men.

The weather in the upper Adriatic was very stormy with strong winds and high seas running. Despite these adverse conditions, however, the Ministry of Marine stated this morning that rescue work was proceeding "regularly."

Concentration of the various relief apparatus was so rapid and effective, it was stated, that rescue work began soon after the submarine had sunk.

Four divers were rushed to the spot and began the work of rescue which was proceeding feverishly today.

Official announcement was made that the crew of the F-13 was composed of 20 officers and 29 men. The accident occurred at the entrance to the Gulf of Pola, the Italian naval stronghold in the upper Adriatic, at 8:45 a. m. yesterday (2:45 E.S.T.).

The F-13 was engaged in a naval attack maneuver. It rose to the surface emerging right under the bow of the destroyer Giuseppe Missoni. The destroyer ran the submarine down and sank almost instantly. The damage to the destroyer was slight.

The alarm was immediately given at the Pola naval station and the remainder of the squadron rushed to the sunken craft's assistance. Within a half-hour divers were making their first descents despite terrible weather conditions. The work continued all day yesterday and as soon as night fell men were stood by with searchlights concentrated on the spot. The divers worked without interruption in relays during the night.

The success of the rescue work, it was stated, depended entirely upon the weather, there being reason to hope that the crew might be saved if conditions did not grow worse.

The F-13 is a coastal submarine of the Fiat "concorzio" type. It was launched in 1917 and was due to be scrapped within a year. It is of 250 tons displacement and therefore one of the smallest in the Italian navy.

New York, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Sinking of the Italian submarine F-13 and the efforts of its trapped crew to communicate with their rescuers vividly recall the tragic days that followed the sinking of the American submarine S-4 off Cape Cod last December.

The Italian rescuers are faced with the same task as confronted the American navy. The F-14 went down in collision with an Italian destroyer; the S-4 was sunk by the coast guard destroyer Paulding. Forty-two men were aboard.

The slowly suffocating crew of the S-4 rapped messages to divers by banging on the hull with a wrench; dispatches from Rome indicate that the men in the F-14 are trying to communicate with rescue craft.

Weather conditions hampered the work of salvaging the S-4; conditions in the Adriatic were reported unfavorable for rescuing the F-14. Sinking of the F-14 adds one more tragedy to the list of those in which the submersible craft of the world's navies have figured in the past decade.

In 1925 the American S-40 was lost with 34 men off Block Island, R. I., after collision with the steamer City of Rome.

Low Prices Hold Sway At Opening S. C. Tobacco Belt

Price Situation In South Carolina and Border Markets Given At 25 Percent Lower Than Last Year; Average As Low As 7 Cents In Some Places

Florence, S. C., Aug. 7.—(AP)—With indications of a record break in size, the tobacco markets of the eastern belt opened this morning.

Low prices in comparison with last year appeared to be the rule on all the markets. On those markets which missed most of the heavy rains a better tone prevailed. The general opinion expressed, however, was that a low price obtained for the quality and farmers expressed disappointment. In Florence there were 125,000 pounds on the two floors, only one house being partly sold at 11 o'clock. The average price was about 7 cents. Several piles brought as high as 21 cents, but these were exceptional.

Darlington reported 200,000 pounds for sale, going at about the same price level in the four warehouses. Lake City found the price about the same as last year with the good tobacco being kept off the floor at the opening. Sumter reported 75,000 pounds on hand, going slowly at 8 to 10 cents. Few persons were active bidders, but many were watching for the break.

Dillon reported two thousand persons attending the first sale, but little active bidding, whole Manning showed 250,000 pounds of low grade weed on the opening day, with a 13-cent price average.

Private reports to The Reflector are as follows as follows: Fairmont, N. C., Aug. 7.—Fairmont and Lumberton will not average over twelve cents—other markets no better. Opening prices today average about twenty to twenty-five percent lower than last season. Quality good. Practically everything offered for sale first curings. B. B. SUGG.

Storm Dies Down On Miami Coast

Miami, Fla., Aug. 7.—(AP)—Definite indication that the tropical disturbance has receded again to the north and away from the Florida mainland, was announced by the Weather Bureau here at 11:00 a. m. this morning following advice of a change in wind direction at Palm Beach.

About eleven o'clock the wind shifted suddenly there from the northeast in the north and raged at a 60 mile clip, only to die down to half that velocity a few minutes later.

Richard W. Gray, Miami Observer, says the shift in wind direction and velocity may be accepted as a certain indication that a recurve to the north has set in.

COUNTY TAX RATE IS CUT TWO CENTS

Reduction Announced in Adoption of County Budget by Commissioners.

The tax rate in Pitt county will be two cents less in 1928-29 than in 1927-28, according to the annual budget approved at the regular monthly meeting of the Board of County Commissioners held in the Commissioners rooms at the court house yesterday afternoon.

Condensed copies of the budget were put on file for inspection of the public today. They will remain open for inspection until the 22 of the month after which the final budget will be adopted. The condensed copy of the budget will be published in the local paper. Detailed copies have been placed on file in the office of the Register of Deeds and the Daily Reflector where citizens may examine them upon request.

The new tax rate was given at $1.33. The commissioners also considered several other matters yesterday, chief among them being the setting aside of $750,000 to be used for forest fire protection in this county. The sum is to match a similar amount made possible by the state and federal departments of conservation to preserve national forests.

Dry Question Dominates Missouri Primary Today

Other States Busy Also

St. Louis August 7.—(AP)—A heavier vote was expected in today's Missouri primary election than in previous years, because of the interest in the wet and dry issues which dominate the campaign. While the primary of four years ago brought out 655,564 voters, the number this year is expected to be greater by several hundred thousand votes.

The polls will close at 7 p. m. tonight in the 4160 precincts in the state. The penalties provided for violation of the general election laws apply in the state primary.

Chief among the nominations before the voters were those for United States Senator, which brought out three Democrats and six Republican candidates. The gubernatorial race was entered by five Republicans and three Democrats.

Three candidates for the Republican nomination for United States Senator, Nathan Frank and O'Connell, and Henry A. Bundschu to Independence are running as wets, while State Senator David M. Proctor of Kansas City and W. C. Atkinson of Butler are avowed drys. Roscoe C. Patterson, United States District Attorney at Kansas City opposes "nullification of the dry laws."

In the Democratic race, Charles H. May of St. Louis, a wet, James A. Collet, of Salisbury, a dry, and Robert L. Young of Kansas City were listed, with Senator James A. Reed backing Collet against Hay, an old time enemy of Reed's.

In the gubernatorial race, the Democratic voters chose from three names State Senator A. L. McCawley, sponsor of the state's dry law, Francis M. Wilson, who has been non-committal and Ralph T. Harding of Kansas City.

The Republican voters had before them the names of Lieutenant Governor Phil A. Bennett of Spring, a wet, Henry S. Caulfield, St. Lewis, a wet, and three other St. Louisans who are against the dry laws, William R. Schneider, Frank Wielandy and Sam D. Hodgson all seeking the Republican gubernatorial nomination.

Oklahoma City, Okla., August 7.—(AP)—A host of bitter local political battles has precipitated keen interest throughout the state which was expected to be reflected in a heavy vote in today's primary election.

National issues were shouldered aside by discussion of local and state affairs and personalities. Although the major parties will select candidates for eight congressional posts, three places on the state supreme court bench and one position on the criminal court of appeals, the struggle was centered around candidates for county offices and the legislative race where campaigns for both the senate and the House have been decidedly hectic.

Topeka, Kas., August 7.—(AP)—The gubernatorial and congressional contests, in which a large field of candidates seek their party's endorsement, held chief interest in the state's primary election today.

Although campaigns have been waged on purely state issues up to 300,000 voters were expected to cast their vote. This figure would approach the record primary vote.

In the absence of a senatorial election, national issues were submerged in discussion of personalities and state issues by the candidates seeking nomination for all the elective state offices.

MULL BEGINS ORGANIZATION IN THE THIRD

State Democratic Chairman Holds Conference With Simmons at Raleigh.

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 7.—(AP)—Fresh from a conference with O. M. Mull, State Chairman, Senator Furmold M. Simmons, veteran Democratic leader of North Carolina, today continued his policy of making no formal statement of his views on the National political situation, but did not discount the sentiments expressed in the Croom letter made public at Wilmington last week.

The Senior Senator, who resigned as a member of the National Executive Committee following the selection by Governor Smith of John J. Raskob as Chairman, indicated he might issue some statement soon, but for the present prefers to let the circumstances speak for themselves.

The Croom letter, written by the Senator to a Wilmington real estate man expressed the opinion that all Democratic voters should be free from coercion or restraint in the exercise of their conscientious conviction and judgment with respect to the National ticket, after having expressed a strong hope for undivided support of the State and Local Democratic tickets.

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 7.—(AP)—With a meeting of the State Democratic Executive Committee tentatively set for August 24th to elect a successor to Senator F. M. Simmons on the National Committee, State Chairman Oduis M. Mull went to Goldsboro today to organize the party machinery of the Third District, after a conference with Senator Simmons.

It was indicated after the meeting of the State Chairman and the veteran political leader, who resigned a few days ago from the National Committee, that Senator Simmons might not make any formal political statement in the immediate future. What was discussed at the conference was not revealed, but Senator Simmons pointed out that while he had announced his intention to issue no statement until after seeing Mull, he had not said a statement would be forthcoming immediately.

The Senator reiterated his willingness for any of his personal letters dealing with politics to be made public, first expressed after the publication of portions of a letter written to a Wilmington real estate man, in which Governor Smith was attacked for alleged affiliation "with interests and groups hostile to the fundamental principles of Democracy," and in which the senator declared himself "deeply interested in the election of the Democratic State, District, and Local ticket," but at the same time went on record as believing "if Democratic voters should be free from coercion or restraint in the exercise of their conscientious conviction and judgment with respect to the National ticket."

No formal statement has been made by Senator Simmons since the nomination at Houston of Governor Smith, which was opposed vigorously and to the end by the North Carolina leader. Shortly after the appointment of John J. Raskob as National Chairman, he tendered his resignation from the National Committee, to which he had been re-elected by the delegation to the Houston convention. His resignation was made without explanation, but when asked later for a statement, the Senator replied that his reason should be "obvious," and added that he did not wish to complicate the situation further by issuing any statement at the time.

Mull came to Raleigh to meet Senator Simmons last night after an organization conference with Democratic chairmen of the Sixth District, held at White Lake in Bladen County. Every official in the party organization was present, he said last night in expressing his gratification at the response Democrats are making to his plans for setting up a State-wide organization.

County Chairmen and other leaders were summoned to meet at Goldsboro from eight counties making up the Third District—Wayne, Lenoir, Craven, Carteret, Beaufort, Duplin, Pamlico, and Sampson.

Tomorrow Mull will meet First District leaders at Bayview, and on Thursday the Second District conference will be held at Raleigh. The Ninth and Tenth Districts were organized last week, but no schedule has been arranged for the remaining four districts. They will be visited, however, in due course, the State Chairman said.

SMITH MAKES STUDY OF OLD N. Y. RECORDS

Presidential Candidate Begins Lining Himself up for Acceptance Speech.

Albany, N. Y., August 7.—(AP)—Dusty legislative records most of them nearly a quarter of a century old, were under Governor Smith's scrutiny today as the Democratic Presidential nominee refreshed his memory on his stand, as a rather obscure assemblyman from New York's east side, on various proposals.

The Governor, on the job again after ten days of vacationing at the sea shore and around of important political conferences in New York, turned his own search light on his record to be in position to answer promptly assailing his position particularly on legislation affecting the saloon.

Whether he will have something to say to the public on the subject remains uncertain. He has told inquirers that until he completes his study he himself will not know what he will do.

The activity of the nominee chiefly grows out of the blast against him from William Allen White, the Kansas editor, who last week trimmed charges challenging Smith's attitude as a legislator toward the saloon, gambling and commercialized vice to eliminate the latter two. While taking it easy on the south shore of Long Island, the Governor steadily refused to pay any attention to the attack of White who has gone to Europe, but now that he is back where he has access to the records he is building up his own case.

If the Governor adheres to his intention of speaking not more than one hour his acceptance speech probably will total a little above 5,000 words. On such occasions, to be effective, he attempts to speak rather slowly, holding to a rate of not more than 90 words a minute. He also must make allowance, in figuring out the time for the radio hookup for applause and other demonstrating outburst.

Crisis Nearing In Jugo Slavia

Vienna, Aug. 7.—(AP)—There were indications today that feeling was running high in Jugo-Slavia with Setfan Raditch, who has been the cause of perhaps more political storms than any European statesman since the war, precariously ill.

The Belgrade government was reported to have drafted several regiments for duty at Dageb to prevent trouble in event of Raditch's death. Vladimir Hrisovitch, editor of the Belgrade paper, Jedinstvo, has been assassinated for attacking Raditch in the columns of his paper.

Dispatches from Zagreb said that an unfounded rumor of Raditch's death drew thousands of excited people of both sexes to the Great peasant party leader's villa. Hundreds of persons were remaining around the leader's home awaiting reports from the sick bed. Two specialists have been summoned from Vienna and one from Munich.

Raditch was wounded by a Montenegrin deputy on June 20 who, during a session of Parliament fired at the Croatian deputies, killing two including Raditch's nephew, Paul, and wounding three others.

There has been talk that the kingdom of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes formed in 1918, might evolve into a dual monarchy patterned after the late Austro-Hungarian empire. Parliament is already split, the national assembly meeting at Belgrade and the opposition members from Croatia meeting in Zagreb.

MAN SHOT TO DEATH IN BED

Gangland at Los Angeles Gets Revenge For Alleged Liquor Raid.

Los Angeles, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Gangland claimed revenge today for an alleged liquor theft when Gaetano Binetti was killed by four men who stood by his bedside and shot him with his own shotgun.

Bullets from the shells that killed Binetti also wounded his wife, Connetta. Physicians said she has only a slight chance to recover.

Mrs. Maria Binetti, a relative, who heard the shots from an adjoining room, told police that the men, wearing what appeared to be police badges, entered the house shortly after midnight, three of them going directly to Binetti's bedroom. The other stood guard with her, she said.

PROBE DEATHS IN WRECK AT MOUND, ILL.

Many Injured in Wreck of Two Passenger Trains Still in Hospital

Mounds, Ill., Aug. 7.—(AP)—A coroner's inquest was called to inquire into the deaths of eight people in the derailment and wreck of two Illinois Central passenger trains which was caused by a heavy piece of steel sewer pipe on the tracks.

Hospitals at Cairo, Ill., still held most of 52 injured who were taken from the wrecked coaches and sleepers.

The piece of steel which was blamed for the wreck was tossed from one track to another twice. It was reported to headquarters by train No. 203, which hit it after it had apparently rolled from a passing freight train.

The engineer of this train reported to the operator at Mounds that he had struck something. The engineer of the "Chickasaw," one of the wrecked trains, was warned to watch for the obstruction and proceeded at moderate speed. He saw the pipe too late, however, and the pilot of his engine tossed it to the other track, while he was bringing his train to a halt. The rails were spread by the impact of the pipe.

Before the brakeman of the "Chickasaw" was able to flag train No. 3, the southbound train struck the spread rails at 65 miles an hour, and plowed into the smoking car of the "Chickasaw," standing on the next track.

The steel coaches of the "Chickasaw" were crushed and battered and most of the dead and injured were taken from this train. Seven of its nine coaches were turned over and lay in a ditch.

New Bern, Aug. 7.—(AP)—With twelve hundred delegates registered, the North Carolina Firemen's Association opened its 41st annual convention here today. A. L. A second business session convened at two o'clock this afternoon.

AMERICA TO BUILD TWO DIRIGIBLES

Aircraft Experts to Convene at Washington Friday to Consider Bids.

Washington, August 7.—(AP)—A board of American naval lighter-than-air craft experts will convene here Friday to consider bids for two dirigibles of about 6,500,000 cubic feet capacity each to be used as experimental war cruisers of the air.

Bids for the airships will be received until noon Thursday. Already three bids are said to have been submitted, two from domestic concerns and one from a German aircraft builder. At least two more are expected and there is a possibility that some bids for designs only will be submitted.

Rear Admiral W. A. Moffett, chief of the naval bureau of aeronautics, is president of the board. The other members are Commander Sydney M. Kraus, Lieutenant Commander Clinton T. Havill, Lieut. Thomas G. W. Bettle, and Lieut. George V. Whittle.

The bids map require considerable study and several weeks are expected to elapse before the awards are made.

Although no official announcement has been made as to what concerns submitted the bids, it is known that the Goodyear Zeppelin Company of Akron, Ohio, and the American Brown-Boveri Electric Corporation of Camden, N. J., have made a study of the specifications. It is understood that the Zeppelin interests of Germany, submitted a bid, in view of the fact that they have constructed more than 100 dirigibles.

Congress authorized the expenditure of $8,000,000 for the two dirigibles, with $2,000,000 available next year.

The legislation provided that construction of the second airship could be cancelled, if circumstances changed, and that in this event not more than $5,500,000 should be expended on one ship.

Virginia Voters On Nominees To U. S. Congress

Richmond, Va., Aug. 7.—(AP)—Democrats in three Virginia districts voted for nominees for Congress today after listening to spirited, but not unusual campaign oratory. Issues for the most part having been nominal.

The largest vote was expected in the second district, where Congressman Joseph T. Deal, running for re-nomination, took the stump against Gov. Harry F. Byrd's constitutional amendments, which were calculated to modernize the state constitution in several respects. Deal's opponent, state Senator John A. Leiner, is a Byrd supporter. Norfolk, Suffolk and Portsmouth are in that district.

A. J. Montague, Congressman for the third district, stood on his record for re-nomination. D. C. O'Flaherty, his opponent, attacked him with the charge that the district had been "unrepresented since Montague was first elected in 1913."

In the eighth district, just across the Potomac from Washington, Congressman R. Walton Moore was opposed by H. Earlton Haynes. The small number of contests held down general interest. A tight vote appeared likely.

COLUMBUS TO BE SOLD FOR TAXES SOON

Once Thriving New Mexico War Camp Goes Under Hammer of Collector.

Santa Fe, N. M., Aug. 7.—(AP)—Announcement here that Columbus, N. M., is to be sold for taxes recalls the famed raid by Pancho Villa in 1916 which nearly led to war with Mexico.

The sun-baked little border village will remain a world memory because of the part it played in American history and world history affairs in the days preceding the World War.

Villa's sudden fierce raid of the sleepy little Jobe village at dawn, March 9, 1916, contributed directly to the elevation of John J. Pershing to command of the American Expeditionary Forces in the World War. Moreover, the Modicum of preparedness for war when the country was launched into the World War, was directly attributable to the sackings.

Seldom has the nation been stirred as it was when Villa, the Guerrilla warfarer bandit, led 500 of his bandits across the border and raided the army camp, numbering 325 men. A brisk fight followed and Villa retreated into Columbus, little more than a cattle camp where he held his position long enough to pillage and fire buildings.

He then evacuated and raced for the hilly retreats of his homeland. American troops pursued for 15 miles.

The casualty list showed 8 soldiers killed, 7 wounded, 8 civilians dead, three wounded. Sixty-seven Mexican bodies were found.

The raid was the last straw in a situation that had taxed American patience for years. The public pulse flamed and despite Carran's quibbling a punitive expedition was organized by General Grederick Funston, and Brigadier General Pershing placed at its head. Military forces were concentrated on the border.

The military leader led his men south from Columbus, living virtually off the country as he beat the hills for the raiders. The column,

RESCUE OF ITALIA CRASH SURVIVOR

Capt. Alberto Mariano, member of the Italia's walking party, who was rescued by the Russian icebreaker Krassin with Captain Zappi following the death of Dr. Finn Malmgren, being hoisted aboard the base ship Citta di Milano in an improvised stretcher.

Always hot on Villa's trail eventually penetrated the wild interior 500 miles.

Supposedly friendly natives nipped at his expedition's heels. It was weeks removed from the base of supplies, and many difficulties confronted Pershing as he shadow-boxed with the bandits. This sparring proved General Pershing's final training for overseas service.

The leader was advanced to the rank of Major-General in September, and remained at the head of the Expedition until its final removal February 5, 1917, almost a year after the raid. Villa never was caught, but his bandit gang was punished severely in numerous skirmishes.

Three months later Pershing, fresh and hardened from an active campaign that had taught him much strategy and shown hidden weaknesses of military expeditions was on his way to France.

Columbus thrived during the war with camp Cody and its nearly 40,000 men in training located nearby at Deming. The population grew to 2,500, but the Armistice sounded its knell. The population dwindled to 37 persons, scores of houses and buildings stand deserted, and delinquent taxes exceed $30,000 now.

FIND LOST INCA CITY

Explorers in Peru Discover City Where no White Man Has Ever Set Foot.

Lima, Peru, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Discovery of an Inca City where no white man is ever known to have set foot is reported in a telegram from the prefect of the department of Cuzco to President Leguia.

The lost city was discovered accidentally by a scientific expedition exploring the town of Macchupiccho which was found 16 years ago by a group of Peruvian and American scientists. The present expedition was organized by the Cuzco authorities under the patronage of President Leguia.

One of the explorers was in a place called Intibutana which was an Inca Astronomical Observatory. From one of the windows of the room he saw with a pair of binoculars on the top of Huainapicho Mountain the walls and platforms of another town the existence of which was not known. It was thought probable that no white man had ever set foot there since the mountain is surrounded by a deep ravine and its sides appeared to be extremely steep for scaling without careful preparations.

Some of the explorers returned to Cuzco while others remained at Macchupiccho and they may try to reach the newly discovered town.

This, they said, disappeared at the same time that the Inca Empire was wrecked when the appearance of the Spanish Conquerors fulfilling the prophecy of Inca Priests that a day would come when white-boarded men riding four-footed monsters would conquer the Sun Empire.

Back she came... A millionaire's wife —and BROKEN-HEARTED

AS far back as Cherry could remember, poverty and squalor, toil and hunger, were the only life she had ever known. Many a lonely, aching night, through hot tears of self-pity, she had gazed with wistful, longing eyes into a dream-world of her own making—a world of love, tenderness, compassion, radiant beauty—a world that seemed forever beyond her reach.

But as the years went by, and Cherry blossomed into young womanhood, her determination to conquer life brought its reward. Brought freedom, friends, opportunity, success.

Then romance came—romance as marvelous as it was beautiful. As the wife of Dick Berringer—young, rich, boyishly handsome—Cherry's measure of happiness seemed complete.

One brief year of ecstatic bliss, then—catastrophe! A merciless fate decreed that she go back to the gutter whence she came.

With bleeding heart she saw snatched from her all the love and tenderness, the comfort and happiness, she had fought for so bravely and so long.

PROFESSOR VAUGHAN AT COLLEGE THIS EVENING. Professor W. E. Vaughan, a reader and entertainer, as well as an able and inspiring teacher, who is teaching English in the Summer School of the College, will give an entertainment this evening at 8:30 o'clock at the college, in the old auditorium, in the administration building. The public is cordially invited to the entertainment.

Prof. Vaughan has a wide reputation as a Chautauqua entertainer and has given entertainments independently in various parts of the country. Last winter, while studying for his doctor's degree at Columbia University, he had numerous engagements in and around New York City. He has been heard by some of the town people at social affairs this summer, and greatly pleased his audiences, but the college community has not had the privilege of hearing him.

This is the second entertainment offered the public this summer free of charge. A program of dramatic readings will be a happy contrast to the series of musical entertainments which came at the end of the summer series of entertainments for which tickets were sold. Prof. Vaughan knows how to make selections that appeal to an audience on summer evenings, because of his Chautauqua experience. He is especially good in the presentation of humorous and negro stories.

THREE TOBACCO BARNS WRECKED BY FLAMES

Numbers of tobacco barns have been destroyed by fire since curing began in Pitt county several weeks ago. Van Fleming is said to have lost a barn the latter part of last week. R. D. Harrington had the misfortune to lose a barn last night as did Jim Evans. It is impossible to give even a rough estimate of the total loss to growers resulting from tobacco destroyed by fire this season. The loss has also been heavy from tobacco drying in the fields before it could be housed.

Mrs. Sadler Dies Near Simpson, N. C.

Mrs. Truemiller Sadler, 46, died at the home of her sister, Mrs. John S. Porter, near Simpson, this morning at one o'clock. She had been in ill health several months and a death was not unexpected. Funeral services were conducted this afternoon at four o'clock at the home of Mrs. Porter. Burial will follow in the Porter burial ground nearby.

Mrs. Sadler was a native of Pitt county, but had made her home in Durham for sometime, having been brought here several weeks ago. Mrs. Sadler was first married to C. H. Bateman and the surviving children survive: Mrs. O. W. Cheek Thurman, Leona and Russel Bateman, of Durham. She was later married to L. B. Sadler, who now survives her with one son, Earl, age six; also two sisters, Mrs. J. S. Porter and Mrs. W. W. Brown.

MAYOR LANIER RECOMMENDED HEAD OF UNIT

Greenville Official Recommended as Successor to Captain Lester Jones.

The committee appointed by a group of citizens who met with National Guard officials at the Proctor Hotel yesterday, last night decided that they would recommend to the State Adjutant General Meets that Mayor J. C. Lanier be appointed Captain and head of the local unit of field artillery.

The committee was scheduled to meet at the office of Mayor J. C. Lanier last night, but without knowledge to the Mayor, the other members held a caucus a few minutes previous to that time and when they appeared at his office advised him that it was unanimous consent that his name be recommended as Captain.

Although recommendation of the appointment has been forwarded to the State officials, Mayor Lanier today withheld decision as to whether or not he would accept.

The action taken by the committee was a result of the meeting yesterday at which time high officials of the State National Guardsmen declared that the citizens should draft a competent man to fill the post made vacant by the retiring captain. On the strength of this recommendation, and by reason of the excellent military record of Mayor Lanier during the World War and in other fields, the committee decided they could do no better than urge the appointment of the mayor.

The term of police of Captain Jones will expire with completion of annual encampment of North Carolina National Guardsmen to be held at Camp Bragg this morning. He will become directing head of the Washington police department September 1st.

TO THE PUBLIC

To the general public, and especially to the party calling City office telephone from Chestnut street, stating that garbage cans on Chestnut street had not been served or emptied since last Thursday, which would be August 2.

I desire to state that the party referred to refused to give either name or street address, and to be able to confirm this assertion I had the city clerk take the receiver and try to get said party to give street address and name; and the co-operation we were able to get was the hang-up of the receiver, which compares favorably with the co-operation I had been getting in a great many instances for the past four weeks, or during my entire tenure as city manager.

I have a system of my own of marking all cans with the same number that is on the conveyance and the driver marks on each and every can with chalk the number corresponding with his conveyance every day, and each day with a different colored chalk. This system tells me at sight what day and date, and by whom and every street in the city of Greenville was served last.

In this particular case, I wish to say that my unknown error was and is, I presume, honestly mistaken, as I made an immediate inspection of that entire section and the colored chalk with which cans were marked tells me that cans were served on Saturday, August 4. I have also verified by interviewing some six or eight residents on Chestnut, Paris Avenue and Long street, this morning, and I have the names and addresses and phone numbers of those ladies who tell me positively that this particular section was served on Saturday, August 4th, which corroborates my inspection and marking system which was indicated by the color of chalk used according to my schedule.

To any residents of the city of Greenville, either white or colored, who are not served each day, will you please co-operate with me by not letting even one day lapse without your complaint known by calling the office, phone 447, and filing your complaint in detail, which will be immediately attended to by me in person. By thus doing you will facilitate and expedite the garbage situation and service in Greenville, as well as to render me co-operation and invaluable assistance.

I am in reality your servant for a period of another thirty days. Cordially yours, J. R. EDWARDS, City Manager. P. S.—Please let's have more Christian co-operation, and less obstruction and curb-stone criticism. (Adv.) J. R. E.

meeting held at the club building last night. The session last night consisted of a report of F. C. Harding on a recent visit to the Washington club. He told of the progress being made by the club.

K. W. Cobb, secretary of the Tobacco Board of Trade, told of efforts under way for greater success of the local market. He thanked the public for the splendid spirit of co-operation given the market.

He declared that while Greenville had the reputation of being the best market, should effort to get fifth set of buyers meet with success, it would only be a matter of a short time before we would be the biggest market. Regular committee reports and plans for operation of the club for the coming year were discussed and will be taken up at the next regular session.

ABOUT TOWN

"Bill" Strother, better known throughout the country as the "Human Spider" or "Fly" has been spinning surprises since the day he stood behind the counters of Frank Wilson's store, Evans street, this city, and the public is no longer excited by anything he pulls. "Bill" came back five or six years ago as a professional building climber. He held hundreds of people breathless as he scaled the walls of the courthouse and then the National Bank building. He returned still later with an aeroplane and announced to the world his intention of doing aerial acrobatic stunts. Again he thrilled thousands.

For months and months after this Greenville heard nothing of "Bill" Strother. Everybody thought the "fool boy", as old timers at Stantonburg called him, had been killed. The belief was confirmed when news of his death was carried by the metropolitan pictures. But the day of miracles is not over. A few months later, "Bill's" picture appeared in one of the New York papers. At his side stood what is generally conceded as the largest Alaskan wolf found in the world.

This was one of the greatest surprises in the history of sleepy Stantonburg. But greatest of all was the information coming a few days later to the effect that Bill had gotten married, actually taken unto himself a wife. This news acted like a thunderbolt to the still serenity of nature as it cloaked the quiet little village of Stantonburg on this occasion. The villagers are shock-proof by this time. They are no longer surprised at "Bill" Strother's exploitation of the American amusement field, and there isn't a single soul that is as proud as "Bill's" wife of the favorable mention which he receives from time to time through the public print.

"Bill's" huge dog, "Flak", will be placed on exhibition in Greenville Friday and Saturday. This will give everybody an opportunity of seeing an animal that has created more than ordinary interest where it goes. Watch for the big dog—this is the last surprise which the Stantonburg boy has prepared for his hundreds of friends in and around Greenville.

"We don't know who is going to be chosen as successor to Lester Jones, captain of the local military, but we do know it is going to take a mighty good man to fill his job," confidently observed a local citizen who has exhibited more than usual interest in development of the National Guardsmen organization here.

"Lester Jones is a capable soldier. Having seen considerable service in the world war, and since that time he was adequately prepared to head the local organization with credit to himself and the town he represented.

"Mr. Jones' resignation has been occasioned by his accepting the office of Chief of Police of the town of Washington, North Carolina, his duties to become effective the first of September. Greenville's loss is certainly Washington's gain.

"We have not the slightest idea that the original Washington, as Pamlico citizens are prone to call it, will realize their ambition of becoming one of the best policed cities in North Carolina. And that Lester Jones will play a dominant part in these activities, we have not the slightest doubt in the world."

"Lovers of baseball had better make good of the games played on the local diamond this month," declared a supporter of Tommy Abbott and his crew today.

The Eastern Carolina league will close after the games on Labor Day, and then baseball will live in memory alone.

"It is true we are in the cellar, that we have what we are bound to acknowledge as the most unlucky club in the circuit, but we should not let this prevent our attending the final games of the season.

"Tommy Abbott and his followers have rendered diligent service. They have played their best at all times, yet this best was not good enough to put them in an enviable position in the standing of clubs around. It has been good enough, however, to help us pass off the summer pleasantly—and that's what we started out to do in the first place.

COUNTY TAXES LOWER

Of course taxes are high enough as it is, but it sure is a relief after a period of rumors and fears that they would be even higher next year, to learn that instead of an increase in our county taxes there is a slight decrease over the year just closed. Despite an estimated decrease of over $800,000 in valuation the present budget estimate sets forth a $1.35 rate, or a decrease of two cents from last year. It is also stated that should final figures on the valuation show it to be higher than now estimated there is a possibility of still further shaving of the tax rate.

As was the case with the city tax situation there are several departments that will require larger amounts out of this year's tax money, but smaller budgets in certain other departments together with a surplus from last year's general fund made a decrease in the rate possible. Surely such action by the board is to our liking and we hope that even more rigid economy in the future will make it possible to lighten our tax burden to an even greater extent.

A WISE CHOICE

It was in our opinion a wise selection made by the citizens' committee last night in recommending the name of Mayor J. C. Lanier for appointment as commander of the local National Guard Unit. As yet it is not definitely known whether Mayor Lanier will accept the post if appointed thereto but it is our hope that he will give the matter favorable consideration. As set forth by state officials of the guard at a meeting here yesterday the local unit means much to the town and county and it is up to the citizens to see to it that the proper person is chosen to head same. Our interest in the appointment is that of the best good for the community and not our personal interest in Mr. Lanier, nor against any aspirant to the office. We do feel that Mayor Lanier's military record is such that absolutely qualifies him for the position and he is of the caliber that will hold the respect of the members of the guard under his command. We reiterate that we consider the selection a wise one for the good of the guard and the community, and we do hope that Mr. Lanier can see his way clear to accept the appointment should it be formally tendered him by the adjutant general.

The Proven Value Of Persistent Advertising

Do you know, Mr. Merchant, that according to Boyd's Official List there are now 2,530 mail order houses in the United States who sell direct to the consumer?

Each and every one of these concerns issue catalogs, including supplements, booklets, folders, bulletins, special price lists, etc., throughout the year.

Most of the larger mail order houses issue catalogs twice a year; many of which have sections in colors and contain fifteen hundred pages or more.

The weight of one of these catalogs, after being trimmed, is about four and one-half pounds, and on a recent issue the paper alone in car load lots, would have cost over fifty-five cents.

Some of these houses distribute from ten to twelve million catalogs a year; the estimated cost of each complete catalog being about $2.00, with the monthly supplements, booklets, folders, price lists, postage, wrapping, etc., extra, bringing approximate cost $2.50 to $3.00 for each "live" name or prospective buyer on their lists.

Any person any place may secure one of these large mail order catalogs free of all cost simply by mailing in their request on a one-cent post card.

This means, Mr. Merchant, that a single mail order house will invest approximately $3.00 a year in advertising—catalogs and follow-up literature—for each customer or prospective customer residing within your trade territory.

From figures recently compiled by the National Buy-at-Home Movement of Fort Wayne, Indiana, after a thorough investigation and the checking-up of thousands of country newspapers, it was proven that the merchants of the smaller cities and towns invest on an average of only nine cents each a year in advertising in their local papers, for each customer or prospective customer living within a seven mile trade-zone of their home town.

The investigation proved conclusively that the secret of the mail order house's success was simply persistent advertising and the use of liberal space in describing the merchandise they have to offer.

PIRATES WIN OPENER FROM TOM ABBOTT

Wilmington Pirates took the opening game of the week from Greenville at the fair grounds here yesterday afternoon by the score of 12 to 2. The game developed into a hitting spree from the very first inning when the Pirates' became so enthused over their first taste of willow juice that they continued the tasting process throughout the game.

Hal Weaver, Pirate manager, appeared in an entirely new role when he took the mound against the Tobaccosists, but he proved his ability to command the situation by holding the Abbotsmen to a total of seven hits. The hits were so well scattered that they only in the seventh and ninth innings did they result in runs.

The Tobaccosists had a day off both in the field and at the bat. They were credited with a total of four bobbles, all of which proved costly. The bobbles, however, were not mainly responsible for the loss—it was their inability to handle the ball in old time form—and to hit when hits would have resulted in runners checking in at the rubber.

Barron allowed the visitors fourteen safeties. Four of these were for the entire circuit and gave local fans an opportunity of witnessing more long distance stick work than in any other game this season. Barron allowed six free passes to first and retired seven by the strike-out route.

Wilmington will conclude the series in this city this afternoon. Rocky Mount will open a two-game series here tomorrow.

High Point Swings To Piedmont Lead

High Point took another game yesterday to hold the leadership of the Piedmont League while Winston-Salem fell in step in second position with a win over cellar-mating Durham Bulls.

The Patriots lost the mixup to the Pointers, 10 to 6, after three Greensboro pitchers failed to stop effective stickwork. Crews, who relieved Munn at the mound in the fourth inning, was put out of the game at the end of the seventh for using abusive language directed at the umpire.

Durham was helpless before the slants of Cy Smith and lost 7 to 2, while the Twins were touching Reid in a timely manner.

The Raleigh Caps had little difficulty in eking out a 3 to 0 victory over Salisbury after Earl Mattingly held the Colonials to two hits. A double by Jones in the second inning and another by Johnson in the sixth were the only ones secured by that aggregation. The Caps bunched hits in three innings for their runs.

Asheville Beats Charlotte Outfit

One reason for Asheville's success in the South Atlantic Association is Charlotte, the Tourists' Laying war, ten out of the 13 games played between the two teams this season.

However, the Hornets did a little stinging Monday and turned the league leaders back with a 7 to 2 defeat. Tripp pitched good ball for the Bees, while three opposing hurlers were not so good. Smith aided with a homer in the fourth inning which put the Lionets out in front.

Spiers' wild throw to first base enabled Columbia to shove two runners across in the eighth and Greenville was defeated 6 to 5. Price drove in three of the Splinters and scored another himself.

Two runs in the tenth broke a deadlock and gave Augusta a 7 to 5 decision over Knoxville. Davis and Milner, with four baggers, put the Tygers into a first inning lead but the Smokies came back to score four in the fifth.

Felber, Knoxville outfielder, had a perfect day at bat with five singles to his credit.

Young America Crowds Elders For Sports Recognition

"Baby" athletes, personifying the spirit of American youth, are clamoring for major attention. Elizabeth Robinson, 16, set a new Olympic record for the 100 meters; Junior Coen, 16, made tennis history when he went to Europe as the Davis Cup competitor; Dorothy Poynton, 13, and Tom Mack, 14, with Miss Robinson, comprise the "kid" Olympic forces; "Freckles" Devine, 9, swam 11 miles in 3 hours, 58 minutes and Ariel Vilas, 13, fought her throughout the United States and Europe. She has played tennis since she was seven years of age. Big Bill Tilden saw him play in a boys' tournament in St. Louis four years ago and immediately took an active interest in his tutoring. Now it appears that Coen will attain at least some of the success marking the career of Big Bill.

When Little Willie used Daddy's choicest walking stick for a golf club to wallop stones, Mother wondered: "What will he do next?" That is the attitude America is taking today toward its energetic kid athletes.

When Little Willie used Daddy's choicest walking stick for a golf club to wallop stones, Mother wondered: "What will he do next?" That is the attitude America is taking today toward its energetic kid athletes.

Little Miss Dorothy Robinson of Chicago, stepped out at Amsterdam when America's best athletes were fading all around her and ran the 100 meters in the fast time of 12 1-5 seconds.

But this is one of many examples of the things Uncle Sams child athletes have done to distinguish themselves. Perhaps best known of the youngsters is Junior Coen, now 16, whose play on the tennis courts of America and elsewhere has been the talk of the tennis world. As a member of Americas 1928 team he is the youngest player ever to be chosen for Davis Cup competition.

Three children who still believed in Santa Claus just a few years ago are competing with America's forces at Amsterdam. In addition to Miss Robinson they are Dorothy Poynton, 13, of Pasadena, Cal., fancy diver and Tom Mack, 14, of Philadelphia, coxswain of the Philadelphia A. C. four-oared crew.

Coincidentally with the splendid race run by Miss Robinson was the performance of John "Freckles" Devine, nine-year-old Philadelphiaian, who swam the Delaware River from Philadelphia to Chester, a distance of 14 miles, in 3 hours, 58 minutes.

Challenging "Freckles" for honors among McSheeny, 10-year-old Whitinsville, Mass., girl. In the recent New England junior championship swimming races at Melrose Mass. Dorothy finished 50 yards ahead of her nearest competitor in the girls' 220-yard free style event. She weighs only 75 pounds.

None the less, astounding was the showing of 13-year-old Ariel Vilas of Hot-Springs, Ark., who played her way to the finals of the Arkansas Women's Golf tournament at Fort Smith. She lost in the championship round, but never-

MIGHTY YANKS DROP ANOTHER TIGHT AFFAIR

Recipients of western hospitality for more than two years, Miller Huggins' punch-drunk Yankees rapidly are discovering that they have worn out their welcome beyond the Alleghenies.

The Yanks swept everything before them last year in the west, taking 32 of the 44 games played in Detroit, Cleveland, Chicago and St. Louis. In 1926 they took 25 of 47 games from the same teams, Cleveland being the only club to break better than even.

They're paying for that hospitality now.

When Willie Kamm socked a triple in the 15th inning at Chicago yesterday, scoring Bob Falk with the run that enabled the White Sox to trim the Yankees 5 to 4, it marked the champions' tenth reverse in 15 starts since they invaded the west for the second time on July 25.

Fortunately enough for Miller Huggins the Philadelphia Athletics decided to lose to Detroit 8 to 5, thus leaving the White Elephants three and a half games back of the Yankees in the duel for first place in the American League.
